If at any time such security is not listed on any securities exchange or quoted in the Nasdaq Stock Market System or the over-the-counter market, the Fair Market Value shall be the fair value thereof reasonably determined jointly in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Holders of more than 85% of the Warrants. Expiration Date the Warrants (to the extent not previously exercised) shall no longer be enforceable and shall be null and void. Each Warrant shall be exercisable for one Unit, subject to the adjustments set forth in Sections 9 and 10.

(b)Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Holder of each Warrant shall have the right to receive from the Purchaser Entities the Component Number of fully paid and nonassessable Components which such Holder may at the time be entitled to receive on exercise of such Warrant and payment of the Exercise Price. In the alternative, a Holder that is exercising one or more Warrants may exercise its right to receive Components on a net basis, such that, without the exchange of any funds, such Holder receives that number of Components otherwise issuable (or payable) upon exercise of such Warrants less that number of Components having an aggregate Fair Market Value at the time of exercise equal to the aggregate Exercise Price that would otherwise have been paid by such Holder upon exercise of such Warrants, in which case the Components issued upon such exercise shall be cut back pro rata.

(c)A Warrant may be exercised by the Holder of such Warrant upon surrender to the Company at its office designated for such purpose (the address of which is set forth in Section 13) of the certificate evidencing the Warrant to be exercised with the form of election to purchase on the reverse thereof duly filled in and signed, and, unless the Holder thereof has elected to use the procedures provided in the last sentence of Section 5(b), upon payment to the Company of the Exercise Price for one Unit. If the Holder of a Warrant is not a party to the Stockholders Agreement, exercise of such Warrant shall be conditioned on execution and delivery by such Holder of the Stockholders Agreement. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made, at the election of the Holder (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by the Company or (ii) in the manner provided in the last sentence of Section 5(b).

(d)Subject to the provisions of Section 6, upon such surrender of Warrants and, if necessary, payment of the Exercise Price, the Purchaser Entities shall issue and cause to be delivered with all reasonable dispatch to or upon the written order of the Holder of such Warrants and in such Holder's name, a certificate or certificates for the Component Number of full Components issuable upon the exercise of such Warrants together with cash, if any, as provided in Section 11. Such certificate or certificates shall be deemed to have been issued and such Holder shall be deemed to have become a holder of record of such Components as of the date of the surrender of such Warrants and payment of the Exercise Price or election pursuant to the last sentence of Section 5(b).

(e)All Warrant Certificates surrendered upon exercise of Warrants shall be cancelled and disposed of by the Company. The Company shall keep copies of this Agreement and any notices given or received hereunder available for inspection by the Holders during normal business hours at its principal office.

(f)The Company shall pay all documentary stamp taxes attributable to the initial issuance of Components upon the exercise of Warrants; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to pay any tax or taxes which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue of any Warrant Certificates or any certificates for Components in a name other than that of the registered holder of a Warrant Certificate surrendered upon the exercise of a Warrant, and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such Warrant Certificates unless or until the Person or Persons requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

(g)The Exercise Price for the exercise of any Warrant shall be allocated to the Components in accordance with the Component Prices and allocated to the relevant Purchaser Entities accordingly.

(h)The results of calculations with respect to Component Numbers shall be rounded to the nearest five decimal places. The results of calculations with respect to Component Prices shall be rounded to the nearest two decimal places.

Section 6.Piggyback Rights/Tag Along Rights/Drag Along Obligations. (a)The Holders have certain piggyback rights, tag-along rights and drag-along obligations under the Stockholders Agreement.

(b)Transfers of Warrants. Warrants may be transferred or assigned only to TWI or wholly owned subsidiaries of TWI. If any Holder ceases to be so wholly owned, it shall promptly transfer its Warrants to TWI or another eligible Holder. If the proposed transferee of Warrants is not a party to the Stockholders Agreement, transfer of such Warrants shall be conditioned upon execution and delivery by such transferee of the Stockholders Agreement.

Section 7.Reservation of Components. (a)Each Purchaser Entity shall at all times reserve and keep available, free from preemptive rights, out of the aggregate of its authorized but unissued Capital Stock or its authorized and issued Capital Stock held in its treasury, for the purpose of enabling it to satisfy any obligation to issue Components upon exercise of Warrants, the maximum number of shares of Components which may then be deliverable by such Purchaser Entity upon the exercise of all outstanding Warrants.

(b)The Company or, if appointed, the transfer agent for the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock (the "Transfer Agent") and every subsequent transfer agent for any shares of the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock issuable upon the exercise of any of the rights of purchase aforesaid shall be irrevocably authorized and directed at all times to reserve such number of authorized shares as shall be required for such purpose. The Company shall keep a copy of this Agreement on file with the Transfer Agent and with every subsequent transfer agent for any shares of the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock issuable upon the exercise of the rights of purchase represented by the Warrants. The Company shall furnish such Transfer Agent a copy of all notices of adjustments and certificates related thereto, transmitted to each Holder pursuant to Section 13.

Section 8.Obtaining Governmental Approvals and Stock Exchange Listings. The Company shall from time to time, at its own expense (i) obtain and keep effective any and all permits, consents and approvals of Governmental Authorities which may be required of any of the Purchaser Entities in order to satisfy its obligations hereunder and (ii) take all action which may be necessary so that the Components, immediately upon their issuance upon the exercise of Warrants, shall be listed on the principal securities exchanges and markets within the United States of America, if any, on which other shares of the applicable class of Capital Stock are then listed.

Section 9.Certain Adjustments. (a)Accretion. The Component Prices shall accrete as long as and to the extent that the underlying Component is outstanding at the following annually compounded rates, based in the case of a partial year on the number of days elapsed over 365 or 366, as applicable, in each case subject to adjustment pursuant to this Section 9 or Section 10 and excluding the date of exercise:

(i)with respect to a Major Music Transaction which is Announced on or before the first anniversary of the Closing Date, at an annual rate of 8½%, and

(ii)with respect to a Major Music Transaction which is Announced thereafter and before the third anniversary of the Closing Date, from the Closing Date to but excluding the fifteenth month anniversary of the Closing Date at an annual rate of 8½% and thereafter at an annual rate of 15%.

(b)Redemptions, Refinancings or Repurchases of Investor Shares. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity redeems any Component constituting Investor Shares or otherwise refinances or repurchases any such Component (any such Component being referred to as a "Redeemed Component") such that it is no longer outstanding in whole or in part and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, then effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, the Component Number for the Redeemed Component and the Component Price for the Redeemed Component shall be adjusted in accordance with this Section 9(b).

The Component Number for the Redeemed Component shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of (1) the Component Number then in effect for the Redeemed Component and (2) the percentage of the total number of then-outstanding shares of the Redeemed Component constituting Investor Shares that were redeemed, refinanced or repurchased by the Purchaser Entity.

The Component Price for the Redeemed Component shall be reduced, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in accordance with the following formula:

New CP = Old CP - ((Old CN - New CN) x RP)

New CP = the adjusted Component Price for the Redeemed Component.

Old CP = the Component Price for the Redeemed Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

New CN = the adjusted Component Number per this Section 9(b) for the Redeemed Component.

Old CN = the Component Number for the Redeemed Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

RP = the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, paid per share of the Redeemed Component in connection with such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

Neither such redemption, refinancing or repurchase nor the adjustment of the Component Number or the Component Price pursuant to this Section 9(b) shall result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10.

With respect to assets other than monies that are paid in any such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in lieu of the foregoing adjustment to the Component Price pursuant to this Section 9(b) in respect of such assets, at the Company's election, adequate provision reasonably satisfactory to the Holders may be made so that each Holder shall have the right to receive upon exercise of a Warrant, in addition to Capital Stock represented by the Component Number, the kind and amount of such assets that such Holder would have received had such Holder exercised the Warrant immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase and had such Holder included in such redemption, refinancing or repurchase a number of shares of the Redeemed Component equal to the product of (i) the Component Number for the Redeemed Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase and (ii) the percentage of the total number of then-outstanding shares of the Redeemed Component constituting Investor Shares that were redeemed, refinanced or repurchased.

(c)Above-Market Redemptions, Refinancings or Repurchases of Non-Investor Shares. If at any time any Purchaser Entity redeems, refinances or repurchases shares of Capital Stock and/or Capital Stock Equivalents held by Investors that are not Investor Shares, such that they are no longer outstanding in whole or in part and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, for a per share consideration over the Fair Market Value, at the purchase date, the Component Price for each Component shall be reduced, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, by a Dilution Credit, calculated for such Component in accordance with this Section 9(c) in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such redemption, refinancing or repurchase calculated as though the shares of the Capital Stock and/or Capital Stock Equivalents held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Investor Shares were the only such shares redeemed, refinanced or repurchased in such transaction.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

This Section 9(c) does not apply to any of the transactions described in Section 9(b). Neither such redemption, refinancing or repurchase nor the calculation of the Dilution Credit shall result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. The Component Number shall not be adjusted under this Section 9(c).

(d)Distributions with Respect to Components. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity makes a distribution or dividend with respect to any Component and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, the Component Price for such Component shall in each case be reduced, effective as of the date of such distribution or dividend, by an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, included in such distribution or dividend per share of such Component and (ii) the Component Number for such Component. Such distribution or dividend shall not result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. Upon any such distribution or dividend, the Component Number for such Component shall remain unchanged.

With respect to assets other than monies that are included in any such distribution or dividend, in lieu of the foregoing adjustment to the Component Price pursuant to this Section 9(d) in respect of such assets, at the Company's election, adequate provision reasonably satisfactory to the Holders may be made so that each Holder shall have the right to receive upon exercise of a Warrant, in addition to Capital Stock represented by the Component Number, the kind and amount of such assets that such Holder would have received had such Holder exercised the Warrant immediately prior to the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to receive such distribution or dividend.

(e)Distributions with Respect to Non-Components. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity makes a distribution or dividend to holders of any class of its Capital Stock that is not a Component, and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, then the Component Price of each Component shall be reduced, effective as of the date of such distribution or dividend, by a Dilution Credit calculated for such Component in accordance with this Section 9(e) in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such distribution or dividend.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such distribution or dividend calculated as though the shares of Capital Stock held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Components were the only such shares with respect to which such distribution or dividend was made.

Old FMV the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such distribution or dividend.

Such distribution or dividend shall not result in any other adjustment pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. Upon any such distribution or dividend, the Component Number for each Component shall remain unchanged.

(f)Exceptions. Sections 9(d) and 9(e) do not apply to (i) any distribution of rights under a so-called "shareholder rights plan" by any Purchaser Entity following a Qualified Public Offering, but any exercise of such rights shall be adjusted for under Sections 10(c) and (d), (ii) ordinary dividends on any publicly traded class of Capital Stock, (iii) distributions to the extent made pursuant to the terms of any Capital Stock, other than Class A Common, as in effect on the date of issuance of such share of Capital Stock, (iv) distributions made by Midco solely to the Company or (v) any transaction described in Section 9(a), 9(b) or 9(c).

(g)Alternative Adjustments. In the event that adjustments to the Component Prices under this Section 9 or Section 10 would have the result of causing the issuance of any Component below par value, the amount of such reduction below the par value shall be applied instead against the aggregate Exercise Price or paid to the Holder upon exercise. In the event that adjustments to the Component Prices under this Section 9 or Section 10 would have the result of decreasing the aggregate Exercise Price below $0.00, upon exercise of the Warrants, the Holders shall be paid such negative amount in cash by the Company.

Section 10.Other Adjustments. Prior to the Expiration Date, the Components issuable upon exercise of the Warrants are subject to adjustment and termination as set forth in Sections 9 and 10. Adjustments for any single event shall be made under only one paragraph of Section 9 or 10 and adjustments for multiple events shall be made separately and seriatim. In the event of any ambiguity, the Board of Directors of the Company shall in good faith determine the appropriate paragraph to be applied or the order of multiple adjustments.

(a)Subdivisions and Combinations. In case any Purchaser Entity shall (i) subdivide, split or reclassify any class of Components into a larger number of shares, including by way of stock dividend, or (ii) combine or reclassify any class of its Components into a smaller number of shares, then in each such case the Component Number for such Component shall be proportionately increased or decreased, as the case may be. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 10(a) shall become effective immediately after the effective date in all cases described above.

(b)Reorganization or Reclassification. In case of any capital reorganization or any reclassification of the capital stock of any Purchaser Entity (whether pursuant to a "drag-along" transaction to which Section 4.2 of the Stockholders Agreement applies, a merger, consolidation, binding share exchange or other similar transaction and including, without limitation, a conversion of the Class L Common into Class A Common), or if any Purchaser Entity issues to all holders of any class of Capital Stock as a dividend or distribution additional shares of Capital Stock or other securities of the Purchaser Entity or of any other Person, the Warrants shall thereafter be exercisable for the number of shares of stock or other securities or property receivable upon such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or dividend or distribution, as the case may be, by a holder of the number of Units for which the Warrants were exercisable immediately prior to such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or dividend or distribution; and, in any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions herein set forth with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of each Holder to the end that the provisions set forth herein shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as reasonably may be, in relation to any shares of stock or other securities or property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of the Warrants. If pursuant to any such capital reorganization or reclassification or dividend or distribution the Holders would receive or be entitled to receive stock or other securities of an entity other than the Purchaser Entity in which they had previously held such interest, the Purchaser Entity shall not undertake such capital reorganization or reclassification or dividend or distribution unless and until such other entity has agreed in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement as if it were the Purchaser Entity.

(c)Below-Market Issuances of Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues shares of Components for a consideration per share less than the Fair Market Value on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares, the affected Component Number shall be adjusted, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the following formula:

$$W' = W \times \frac{A}{O + (P/M)}$$

where:

W' = the adjusted Component Number.

W = the Component Number immediately prior to such issuance.

O = the number of shares of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity outstanding immediately prior to such issuance.

P = the aggregate consideration received for the issuance of such additional shares of such Capital Stock.

M = the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares in such issuance.

A = the number of shares of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity outstanding immediately after such issuance.

(d)Below-Market Issuances of Non-Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues shares of Capital Stock, that is not a Component, for a consideration per share less than the Fair Market Value on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares, the Component Price for each Component shall be reduced, effective as of the date of such issuance, by a Dilution Credit calculated for such Component in accordance with this Section 10(d) in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

(e)Convertible Securities Convertible into Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues any Capital Stock Equivalents for a consideration per share of a Component initially deliverable upon conversion, exchange or exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents less than the Fair Market Value per share of such Component on the date the Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such securities, the affected Component Number shall be adjusted, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the following formula:

$$W' = W \times \frac{O + D}{O + (P/M)}$$

where:

W’ = the adjusted Component Number.

W = the Component Number immediately prior to such issuance.

O = the number of shares of such Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents.

P = the sum of the aggregate consideration received for such issuance and the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of Capital Stock upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents.

M = the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such securities in such issuance.

D = the maximum number of shares of such Capital Stock deliverable upon conversion or in exchange for or upon exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents at the initial conversion, exchange or exercise rate.

If the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of a Component upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents shall be increased by virtue of provisions therein contained or upon the arrival of specified date or the happening of a specified event, then the affected Component Number shall promptly be readjusted to the Component Number which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such securities been made on the basis of such increased minimum consideration.

If and to the extent the conversion, exchange or exercise right under such Capital Stock Equivalents have expired without the exercise thereof, then the affected Component Number shall promptly be readjusted to the Component Number which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents not been made.

(f)Convertible Securities Issuable for Non-Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues any Capital Stock Equivalents for a consideration per share of Capital Stock, that is not a Component, initially deliverable upon conversion, exchange or exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents less than the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock on the date the Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such securities, the Component Price for each Component shall be reduced, effective as of the date of such issuance, by a Dilution Credit calculated for such Component in accordance with this Section 10(f) in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

If the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of Capital Stock upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents shall be increased by virtue of provisions therein contained or upon the arrival of specified date or the happening of a specified event, then the affected Dilution Credit shall promptly be readjusted to the amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such securities been made on the basis of such increased minimum consideration.

If and to the extent the conversion, exchange or exercise right under such Capital Stock Equivalents has expired without the exercise thereof, then the affected Dilution Credit shall promptly be readjusted to the amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents not been made.

(g)Distributions in Connection with Affiliate Transactions: If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity enters into any transaction with any other Investor or any Affiliate of such Investor (other than the Company, Midco or any wholly owned subsidiary of the Company or Midco) on terms that are not fair to such Purchaser Entity, then a Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date such transaction is entered into, in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon entering into such Affiliate transaction.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to entering into such Affiliate transaction.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after entering into such Affiliate transaction.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to entering into such Affiliate transaction.

This Section 10(g) does not apply to (i) any transaction that has been approved as fair to such Purchaser Entity by a majority of the disinterested directors of the Company, (ii) any transaction or series of related transactions involving $50 million or less, (iii) any transaction which a third party financial advisor, appraiser, consultant or expert retained by a Purchaser Entity has determined to be fair to such Purchaser Entity, (iv) any payment of customary management or advisory fees consistent with the past practices of the Investors with respect to their portfolio companies, (v) any issuance of shares of Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents, any repurchase, redemption or refinancing of shares of Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents, or the making of any distribution on shares of Capital Stock and (vi) transactions in which Investors and Holders have substantially comparable proportionate interest.

(h)Exceptions. Sections 10(c), (d), (e) and (f) do not apply to (i) the issuance of any Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents issued pursuant to Employee Stock Program Grants, (ii) the issuance by a Purchaser Entity following a Qualified Public Offering of any shares of any publicly traded class of Capital Stock pursuant to an employee stock purchase plan or pursuant to a dividend reinvestment plan, (iii) issuances made by a Purchaser Entity solely to other Purchaser Entities, (iv) the issuance of Capital Stock pursuant to any Warrant or Three-Year Warrant, (v) any arm's-length transaction for a bona fide business purpose with a third party which has been approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of the issuing Purchaser Entity or by the disinterested directors of the Company if the issuing Purchaser Entity has no disinterested directors, (vi) any transaction for a bona fide business purpose with. an Affiliate that is determined to have been fair by a majority of the disinterested directors of the issuing Purchaser Entity or by the disinterested directors of the Company if the issuing Purchaser Entity has no disinterested directors, (vii) any of the transactions described by Section 9, (viii) with respect to Sections 10(c) and 10(d), the issuance of Capital Stock upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of any Capital Stock Equivalents for which an adjustment has been made pursuant to Section 10(e) or 10(f) or for which no adjustment was required pursuant to Section 10(e),10(f), or 10(i) or (ix) the issuance of securities to Persons providing debt financing; provided, however, that this clause (ix) shall apply to securities issued to a Person that is Affiliated with an Affiliate of the Company only if and to the extent such Person (A) did not negotiate the terms of such debt financing, (B) receives no more than 20% of the securities issued to the Persons providing such debt financing and (C) receives no more than its pro rata share of the securities issued to the Persons providing such debt financing.

(i)When De Minimis Adjustment May Be Deferred. No adjustment in a Component Number or Component Price pursuant to Section 9 or 10 shall be required unless the adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least 1% in the Component Number or Component Price. No creation of a Dilution Credit pursuant to Section 9 or 10 shall be calculated unless the adjustment would be greater than 1% of the Fair Market Value of each Component immediately after the event requiring such adjustment; provided, however, that any adjustments that are not made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment.

(j)Notice of Adjustment. Whenever a Component Number or Component Price is adjusted, the Company shall provide the notices required by Section 13.

(k)Certificate as to Adjustments. In case of any adjustment in the number and type of securities issuable on the exercise of the Warrants, the Company will promptly give written notice thereof to each Holder in the form of a certificate, certified and confirmed by the chief financial officer of the Company, setting forth such adjustment and showing in reasonable detail the facts upon which adjustment is based.

Section 11.Fractional Interests. The Company shall not be required to issue fractional Components on the exercise of Warrants. If more than one Warrant shall be presented for exercise in full at the same time by the same Holder, the number of full Components which shall be issuable upon the exercise thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Components purchasable on exercise of the Warrants so presented. If any fraction of a Component would, except for the provisions of this Section 11, be issuable on the exercise of any Warrants (or specified portion thereof), in lieu of issuing such fractional Component, the Company may pay an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such fractional Component on the day immediately preceding the date the Warrant is presented for exercise, multiplied by such fraction.

Section 12.Notices to Holders. (a)Upon any adjustment of a Component Price or of a Component Number pursuant to Section 9 or 10, the Company shall promptly, but in any event within 10 days thereafter, cause to be given to each of the Holders, by registered mail, postage prepaid, a certificate signed by its chief financial officer setting forth the adjusted Component Number and/or Component Price and describing in reasonable detail the facts accounting for such adjustment and the method of calculation used. Where appropriate, such certificate may be given in advance and included as a part of the notice required to be mailed under the other provisions of this Section 12.

(b)In the event (i) the Company Announces a Major Music Transaction, (ii) of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of any Purchaser Entity or (iii) any Purchaser Entity takes any action which would require an adjustment to the Component Number pursuant to Section 9 or 10, then and in each such event the Company shall cause to be given to each of the Holders, promptly after any Announcement of a Major Music Transaction or any applicable record date (or as expeditiously as possible after the occurrence of any involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up referred to in clause (ii) above), by registered mail, postage prepaid, a written notice stating the date on which any such Major Music Transaction, dissolution, liquidation, winding up or other action is expected to become effective (or has become effective, in the case of any involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up). Upon reasonable request by any Holder, the Company shall provide information regarding any Announced or completed Major Music Transaction. The Company shall also provide 10 Business Days' advance notice of the closing of a Major Music Transaction.

(c)The Warrant Holders shall in any event be promptly provided with all historical periodic financial information provided by the Company to any or all of the Investors in their capacity as shareholders of Capital Stock pursuant to any contractual requirement, subject to reasonable and appropriate confidentiality provisions.

Section 13.Notices. Unless otherwise provided, any notice required or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed sufficient upon delivery, when delivered personally or by overnight courier or sent by telegram or fax, or forty-eight hours after being deposited in the U.S. mail, as certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid, and addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address or fax number as set forth below or as subsequently modified by written notice.

(c)Warrant Certificates surrendered for exchange shall be cancelled and disposed of by the Company.

Section 15.Mutilated or Missing Warrant Certificates. In case any of the Warrant Certificates shall be mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Company shall issue, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of the mutilated Warrant Certificate, or in lieu of and substitution for the Warrant Certificate lost, stolen or destroyed, a new Warrant Certificate of like tenor and representing an equivalent number of Warrants, but only upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Company of such loss, theft or destruction of such Warrant Certificate and indemnity, if requested, also reasonably satisfactory to it.

Section 16.Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur if any provision of this Warrant Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof.

Section 17.Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended without the approval of holders of more than 85% of the Warrants.

Section 18.Successors. The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective successors and permitted assigns of the parties hereto, including each Holder. Except as contemplated in Section 23, no Purchaser Entity may assign any of its rights under this Agreement without the written consent of the Holders.

Section 19.Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of law thereof; provided, however, that the laws of the respective jurisdictions of incorporation of each of the parties hereto shall govern the relative rights, obligations, powers, duties and other internal affairs of such party and its board of directors.

Section 20.Benefits of This Agreement. No Person other than the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns, including each Holder, is intended to be a beneficiary of this Agreement.

Section 21.Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

Section 22. [Intentionally Omitted]

Section 23.Certain Sale Transactions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if a sale (whether pursuant to a merger, consolidation, sale of stock or otherwise) to a third party of a majority of the then outstanding Components for cash and/or securities of a class that is publicly traded ("Sale Securities") is consummated and, in the case of such a sale for Sale Securities, any Holders receiving any Sale Securities in such sale, in respect of Components issued or issuable pursuant to any Warrant, which Sale Securities constitute "restricted securities" as defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act or the transfer of which is subject to Rule 145(d) under the Securities Act, also receive in such sale registration rights in respect of such Sale Securities not less favorable on a pro rata basis than the registration rights received by the Investors in respect of any Sale Securities received in such sale in respect of any Investor Shares, then

(x) the Warrants shall be adjusted as contemplated by Section 10(b);

(y) the Purchaser Entities may defease their obligations under this Agreement and the Warrants by causing cash and/or securities to be contributed to an escrow account (with an escrow agent and all other terms reasonably satisfactory to the Holders) in an amount sufficient to honor the exercise of the Warrants in full, in which event the Purchaser Entities shall be fully released and discharged from all of the obligations under this Agreement and the Warrants and the Holders shall look only to the escrow upon exercise of the Warrants; and

(z) the provisions set forth in Sections 9(b), 9(c), 9(d) , 9(e), 9(f), 9(i), 10(c), 10(d), 10(e), 10(f) and 10(g) shall terminate and have no further force or effect.

If the Purchaser Entities defease their obligations in accordance with clause (y) above and the holders of the Warrants subsequently exercise the Warrants, such holders will pay the exercise price to the escrow agent to be added to the escrow account, the escrow agent will distribute to such holders the amounts of cash and securities to which they are entitled under the Warrants, and the escrow agent will distribute the balance of cash and securities in accordance with the Stockholders Agreement.

Each Warrant entitles the holder, when entitled to exercise pursuant to the Warrant Agreement, upon exercise to receive from the Purchaser Entities on and after the Closing Date (as defined in the Warrant Agreement) and prior to the Expiration Date (as defined in the Warrant Agreement), one Unit at a purchase price (the "Exercise Price") set forth in the Warrant Agreement, payable in lawful money of the United States of America upon surrender of this Warrant Certificate and payment of the Exercise Price at the office of the Company designated for such purpose, but only subject to the conditions set forth herein and in the Warrant Agreement referred to on the reverse hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Warrants may be exercised without the exchange of funds pursuant to the net exercise provisions of Section 5 of the Warrant Agreement. The Component Number of Components issuable upon exercise of the Warrants and the Component Prices thereof, as all such terms are defined in the Warrant Agreement, are subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events as set forth in Section 9 and 10 of the Warrant Agreement.

The Company may deem and treat the registered holder(s) hereof as the absolute owner(s) of this Warrant Certificate (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing hereon made by anyone), for the purpose of any exercise hereof, of any distribution to the holder(s) hereof, and for all other purposes, and the Company shall not be affected by any notice to the contrary. Except as provided in the Warrant Agreement, neither the Warrants nor this Warrant Certificate entitles any holder hereof to any rights of a stockholder of any Purchaser Entity.

Reference is hereby made to the further provisions of this Warrant Certificate set forth on the reverse hereof and such further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as though fully set forth at this place.

This Warrant shall not be valid unless signed by the Purchaser Entities.

In lieu of issuing such fractions of Components, however, the Company may pay the cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such fraction thereof determined as provided in the Warrant Agreement. The Warrant Agreement also provides that, upon the occurrence of certain events, the Component Price for the Components may be adjusted.

This Warrant Certificate, when surrendered at the office of the Company by the holder, may be exchanged, in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in the Warrant Agreement, but without payment of any service charge, for another Warrant Certificate or Warrant Certificates of like tenor evidencing in the aggregate a like number of Warrants.

If at any time such security is not listed on any securities exchange or quoted in the Nasdaq Stock Market System or the over-the-counter market, the Fair Market Value shall be the fair value thereof reasonably determined jointly in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Holders of more than 85% of the Warrants. If such parties are unable to reach agreement within a reasonable period of time, such fair value shall be determined by the joint decision of two independent investment banking firms of national reputation, one nominated by the Company and the other by the Holders of more than 85% of the Warrants and neither of which is an Affiliate of the Company or any Holders of the Warrants. The joint determination of such investment banking firms shall be final and binding upon the parties, and the Company and the Holders shall pay equally the fees and expenses of such investment banking firms. If the investment banking firms are unable to agree upon a fair value by the end of a 15 Business Day period, they each shall submit a fair value determination and the two firms shall choose a third such firm which will be obligated to choose one of the two determinations, which choice shall be final and binding on the parties. In such an event, the Company and the Holders shall likewise pay equally the fees and expenses of all three investment banking firms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a security is sold in an underwritten Public Sale after a Qualified Public Offering has occurred, the Fair Market Value with respect to any exercise of Warrants in conjunction therewith shall be the Public Sale price per share and, in the event that a security is sold as part of a sale of 90% or more of a company's shares for cash to a third party in a sale other than an underwritten Public Sale, the Fair Market Value with respect to any exercise of Warrants in conjunction therewith shall be the sale price per share. Any determination of the Fair Market Value of a Component or Unit shall be made on a pro forma basis as though all Capital Stock Equivalents, including the Warrants and the MMT Warrants, had not been issued.

(b)With respect to any entity, including the Company and the other Purchaser Entities, assets, evidences of indebtedness or other rights, the Fair Market Value shall be the fair value thereof reasonably determined jointly in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Holders of more than 85% of the Warrants. If such parties are unable to reach agreement within a reasonable period of time, such fair value shall be determined by independent investment banking firms as set forth in the preceding paragraph (a).

(c)Any determination of Fair Market Value to be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company or the Holders or any investment bank pursuant to the foregoing provisions shall be based on a multiple of EBITDA based on comparable companies. In addition, such determination shall be based on the assumption of (i) a process designed to maximize immediate value, (ii) canvass of all potential buyers, including strategic buyers, financial buyers and existing shareholders, (iii) willing buyer and' seller without any duress or compulsion to buy or sell, (iv) potential breakup scenarios (subject to, but structures designed to minimize, tax leakage), (v) regulatory hurdles being overcome and consents and licenses being obtained, (vi) exclusion of control premium and illiquidity discounts, (vii) disregard of minority interests or marketability of securities and (viii) no right of first refusal, tag-along or similar rights.

(a)The Purchaser Entities are each validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of their organization and each has the requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Warrant Certificates, to issue the Warrants and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and the Warrant Certificates.

(b)The execution, delivery and performance by the Company and the other Purchaser Entities of this Agreement and the Warrant Certificates, the issuance of the Warrants and the issuance of the Components upon exercise of the Warrants have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or similar action.

(c)This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and each of the other Purchaser Entities and constitutes a legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligation of such Purchaser Entity, except to the extent limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general application related to the enforcement of creditor's rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity. When the Warrants and Warrant Certificates have been issued as contemplated hereby, (i) the Warrants and the Warrant Certificates shall constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations of the Company and each of the Purchaser Entities, except to the extent limited by (A) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general application related to the enforcement of creditor's rights generally and (B) general principles of equity, and (ii) the Components, when issued upon exercise of the Warrants in accordance with the terms thereof, shall be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

(b)Warrant Certificates shall be signed on behalf of each Purchaser Entity by its Chief Executive Officer and by its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary under its corporate or similar seal. Each such signature upon the Warrant Certificates may be in the form of a facsimile signature of the present or any future Chief Executive Officer, Secretary or Assistant Secretary and may be imprinted or otherwise reproduced on the Warrant Certificates and for that purpose a Purchaser Entity may adopt and use the facsimile signature of any person who shall have been Chief Executive Officer, Secretary or Assistant Secretary, notwithstanding the fact that at the time the Warrant Certificates shall be delivered or disposed of he or she shall have ceased to hold such office. The seal of a Purchaser Entity may be in the form of a facsimile thereof and may be impressed, affixed, imprinted or otherwise reproduced on the Warrant Certificates.

(c)In case any officer of a Purchaser Entity who has signed any of the Warrant Certificates shall cease to be such officer before the Warrant Certificates so signed shall have been disposed of by such Purchaser Entity, such Warrant Certificates nevertheless may be delivered or disposed of as though such person had not ceased to be such officer of the Purchaser Entity; and any Warrant Certificate may be signed on behalf of a Purchaser Entity by any person who, at the actual date of the execution of such Warrant Certificate, is a proper officer of such Purchaser Entity to sign such Warrant Certificate, although at the date of the execution of this Warrant Agreement any such person was not such officer.

Section 4.Registration. The Company shall number and register the Warrant Certificates in a register as they are issued. On the Closing Date, the Company shall register the outstanding Warrant Certificates in the name of the Initial Holders. The Company may deem and treat the registered holder(s) of the Warrant Certificates as the absolute owner(s) thereof (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon made by anyone), for all purposes, and shall not be affected by any notice to the contrary.

Section 5.Warrants; Duration and Exercise of Warrants; Payment of Taxes.

(a)The Warrants shall be exercisable at any time following the Closing Date; provided, however, that upon the Expiration Date the Warrants (to the extent not previously exercised) shall no longer be enforceable and shall be null and void. Each Warrant shall be exercisable for one Unit, subject to the adjustments set forth in Sections 9 and 10.

(b)In the event of a public offering, or a sale to a third party of a majority of any class of Components for cash and/or securities as described in clause (e) of the definition of "Expiration Date", the Holders shall have the right to exercise the Warrants and to make the effectiveness of such exercise conditional upon (i) such public offering being priced at an offering price that is not less than the offering price specified by the Holders and (ii) the consummation of such public offering or sale to a third party.

(c)Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Holder of each Warrant shall have the right to receive from the Purchaser Entities the Component Number of fully paid and nonassessable Components which such Holder may at the time be entitled to receive on exercise of such Warrant and payment of the Exercise Price. In the alternative, a Holder that is exercising one or more Warrants may exercise its right to receive Components on a net basis, such that, without the exchange of any funds, such Holder receives that number of Components otherwise issuable (or payable) upon exercise of such Warrants less that number of Components having an aggregate Fair Market Value at the time of exercise equal to the aggregate Exercise Price that would otherwise have been paid by such Holder upon exercise of such Warrants, in which case the Components issued upon such exercise shall be cut back pro rata.

(d)A Warrant may be exercised by the Holder of such Warrant upon surrender to the Company at its office designated for such purpose (the address of which is set forth in Section 13) of the certificate evidencing the Warrant to be exercised with the form of election to purchase on the reverse thereof duly filled in and signed, and, unless the Holder thereof has elected to use the procedures provided in the last sentence of Section 5(c), upon payment to the Company of the Exercise Price for one Unit. If the Holder of a Warrant is not a party to the Stockholders Agreement, exercise of such Warrant shall be conditioned on execution and delivery by such Holder of the Stockholders Agreement. Payment of the Exercise Price shall be made, at the election of the Holder (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated by the Company or (ii) in the manner provided in the last sentence of Section 5(c).

(e)Subject to the provisions of Section 6, upon such surrender of Warrants and, if necessary, payment of the Exercise Price, the Purchaser Entities shall issue and cause to be delivered with all reasonable dispatch to or upon the written order of the Holder of such Warrants and in such Holder's name, a certificate or certificates for the Component Number of full Components issuable upon the exercise of such Warrants together with cash, if any, as provided in Section 11. Such certificate or certificates shall be deemed to have been issued and such Holder shall be deemed to have become a holder of record of such Components as of the date of the surrender of such Warrants and payment of the Exercise Price or election pursuant to the last sentence of Section 5(c).

(f)All Warrant Certificates surrendered upon exercise of Warrants shall be cancelled and disposed of by the Company. The Company shall keep copies of this Agreement and any notices given or received hereunder available for inspection by the Holders during normal business hours at its principal office.

(g)The Company shall pay all documentary stamp taxes attributable to the initial issuance of Components upon the exercise of Warrants; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to pay any tax or taxes which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue of any Warrant Certificates or any certificates for Components in a name other than that of the registered holder of a Warrant Certificate surrendered upon the exercise of a Warrant, and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such Warrant Certificates unless or until the Person or Persons requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

(h)The Exercise Price for the exercise of any Warrant shall be allocated to the Components in accordance with the Component Prices and allocated to the relevant Purchaser Entities accordingly.

(i)The results of calculations with respect to Component Numbers shall be rounded to the nearest five decimal places. The results of calculations with respect to Component Prices shall be rounded to the nearest two decimal places.

Section 6.Piggyback Rights/Tag Along Rights/Drag Along Obligations.

(a)The Holders have certain piggyback rights, tag-along rights and drag-along obligations under the Stockholders Agreement.

(b)Transfers of Warrants. Warrants may be transferred or assigned only to TWI or wholly owned subsidiaries of TWI. If any Holder ceases to be so wholly owned, it shall promptly transfer its Warrants to TWI or another eligible Holder. If the proposed transferee of Warrants is not a party to the Stockholders Agreement, transfer of such Warrants shall be conditioned upon execution and delivery by such transferee of the Stockholders Agreement.

Section 7.Reservation of Components. (a)Each Purchaser Entity shall at all times reserve and keep available, free from preemptive rights, out of the aggregate of its authorized but unissued Capital Stock or its authorized and issued

Capital Stock held in its treasury, for the purpose of enabling it to satisfy any obligation to issue Components upon exercise of Warrants, the maximum number of shares of Components which may then be deliverable by such Purchaser Entity upon the exercise of all outstanding Warrants.

(b)The Company or, if appointed, the transfer agent for the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock (the "Transfer Agent") and every subsequent transfer agent for any shares of the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock issuable upon the exercise of any of the rights of purchase aforesaid shall be irrevocably authorized and directed at all times to reserve such number of authorized shares as shall be required for such purpose. The Company shall keep a copy of this Agreement on file with the Transfer Agent and with every subsequent transfer agent for any shares of the Purchaser Entities' Capital Stock issuable upon the exercise of the rights of purchase represented by the Warrants. The Company shall furnish such Transfer Agent a copy of all notices of adjustments and certificates related thereto, transmitted to each Holder pursuant to Section 13.

Section 8.Obtaining Governmental Approvals and Stock Exchange Listings. The Company shall from time to time, at its own expense (i) obtain and keep effective any and all permits, consents and approvals of Governmental Authorities which may be required of any of the Purchaser Entities in order to satisfy its obligations hereunder and (ii) take all action which may be necessary so that the Components, immediately upon their issuance upon the exercise of Warrants, shall be listed on the principal securities exchanges and markets within the United States of America, if any, on which other shares of the applicable class of Capital Stock are then listed.

Section 9.Certain Adjustments. (a)Redemptions, Refinancings or Repurchases of Preferred. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity redeems the Preferred constituting Investor Shares or otherwise refinances or repurchases such Preferred such that it is no longer outstanding in whole or in part and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies in respect thereof, then a cash payment shall be made, the Component Number for the Preferred adjusted and a Floor Debit shall be calculated with respect to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in accordance with this Section 9(a).

Upon any subsequent exercise of a Warrant by a Holder, the applicable Purchaser Entity shall make a cash payment to such Holder equal to the product of (a) the amount paid by the applicable Purchaser Entity to the Investors or their successors in respect of the Preferred constituting Investor Shares pursuant to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase multiplied by (b) 25% multiplied by (c) 15% multiplied by (d) the percentage of the total number of Warrants that were exercised in such subsequent exercise. Any such cash payments are in lieu of any adjustments required by Section 10 and in lieu of the creation of any Dilution Credit pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10.

The Component Number with respect to the Preferred shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of (1) the Component Number then in effect for the Preferred and

(2) the percentage of the total number of then-outstanding shares of the Preferred constituting Investor Shares that were redeemed, refinanced or repurchased by the Purchaser Entity.

A Floor Debit with respect to the Preferred shall be calculated equal to the quotient of (a) the amount paid by the applicable Purchaser Entity to the Investors or their successors in respect of the Preferred constituting Investor Shares pursuant to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase divided by (b) the number of Units issued to the Investors on the Closing Date.

Neither such redemption, refinancing or repurchase nor the adjustment of the Component Number or the creation of the Floor Debit shall result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10.

(b)Redemptions, Refinancings, Repurchases of Investor Shares. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity redeems any Component, other than Preferred, constituting Investor Shares or otherwise refinances or repurchases any such Component (any such Component being referred to as a "Redeemed Component") such that it is no longer outstanding in whole or in part and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, the Component Number for the Redeemed Component shall be adjusted, and a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit for the Redeemed Component shall be calculated, in accordance with this Section 9(b).

The Component Number for the Redeemed Component shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of (1) the Component Number then in effect for the Redeemed Component and (2) the percentage of the total number of then-outstanding shares of the Redeemed Component constituting Investor Shares that were redeemed, refinanced or repurchased by the Purchaser Entity.

A Dilution Credit for the Redeemed Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in accordance with the following formula:

DC = .25 x [(Old CN -New CN) x RP]

where:

New CN = the adjusted Component Number per this Section 9(b) for the Redeemed Component.

Old CN = the Component Number for the Redeemed Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

RP = the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, paid per share of the Redeemed Component in connection with such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

A Floor Debit for the Redeemed Component shall be calculated equal to the quotient of (a) the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, paid by the Company to the Investors or their successors or assigns pursuant to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase divided by (b) the number of Units issued to the Investors on the Closing Date.

Neither such redemption, refinancing or repurchase nor the adjustment of the Component Number or the creation of the Dilution Credit or the Floor Debit pursuant to this Section 9(b) shall result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10.

With respect to assets other than monies that are paid in any such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in lieu of the foregoing calculations of the Dilution Credit and Floor Debit pursuant to this Section 9(b) (but in addition to the foregoing calculation of the Component Number) in respect of such assets, at the Company's election, adequate provision reasonably satisfactory to the Holders may be made so that each Holder shall have the right to receive upon exercise of a Warrant, in addition to Capital Stock represented by the Component Number, the kind and amount of such assets that such Holder would have received had such Holder exercised the Warrant immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase and had such Holder included in such redemption, refinancing or repurchase a number of shares of the Redeemed Component equal to the product of (i) the Component Number for the Redeemed Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase and (ii) the percentage of the total number of then-outstanding shares of the Redeemed Component constituting Investor Shares that were redeemed, refinanced or repurchased.

(c)Above-Market Redemptions, Refinancings, Repurchases of Non-Investor Shares. If at any time the Company or any Purchaser Entity redeems, refinances or repurchases shares of Capital Stock and/or Capital Stock Equivalents held by Investors that are not Investor Shares, such that they are no longer outstanding in whole or in part and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, for a per share consideration over the Fair Market Value, at the purchase date, a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit for each Component shall be calculated in accordance with this Section 9(c).

A Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in accordance with the following formula:

DC = .25 x [(CN x Old FMV) - (CN x New FMV)]

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such redemption, refinancing or repurchase calculated as though the shares of Capital Stock and/or Capital Stock Equivalents held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Investor Shares were the only such shares redeemed, refinanced or repurchased in such transaction.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for each Component equal to the product of (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such redemption, refinancing or repurchase and the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such redemption, refinancing or repurchase calculated as though the shares of Capital Stock and/or Capital Stock Equivalents held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Investor Shares were the only such shares redeemed, refinanced or repurchased in such transaction, multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

This Section 9(c) does not apply to any of the transactions described in Section 9(b). Neither such redemption, refinancing or repurchase nor the calculation of the Dilution Credit or Floor Debit shall result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. The Component Number shall not be adjusted under this Section 9(c).

(d)Distributions with Respect to Components. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity makes a distribution or dividend with respect to any Component and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit for such Component shall be calculated in accordance with this Section 9(d).

A Dilution Credit for such Component shall in each case be calculated, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, equal to 25% multiplied by the product of (i) the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, included in such distribution or dividend per share of such Component and (ii) the Component Number for such Component.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for such Component equal to the product of (a) the amount of monies and, subject to the Company's election described below, the Fair Market Value of any other assets, paid by the Company to the Investors or their successors or assigns per share of such Component pursuant to such distribution or dividend multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

Such distribution or dividend shall not result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. Upon any such distribution or dividend, the Component Number for such Component shall remain unchanged.

With respect to assets other than monies that are included in any such distribution or dividend, in lieu of the foregoing calculations of the Dilution Credit and Floor Debit pursuant to this Section 9(d) in respect of such assets, at the Company's election, adequate provision reasonably satisfactory to the Holders may be made so that each Holder shall have the right to receive upon exercise of a Warrant, in addition to Capital Stock represented by the Component Number, the kind and amount of such assets that such Holder would have received had such Holder exercised the Warrant immediately prior to the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to receive such distribution or dividend.

(e)Distributions with Respect to Non-Components. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity makes a distribution or dividend to holders of any class of its Capital Stock that is not a Component, and some or all of the Investors or their successors or assigns receive monies (or other assets) in respect thereof, then a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit for each Component shall be calculated in accordance with this Section 9(e).

A Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of such redemption, refinancing or repurchase, in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such distribution or dividend.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such distribution or dividend calculated as though the shares of Capital Stock held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Components were the only such shares with respect to which such distribution or dividend was made.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such distribution or dividend.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for each Component equal to the product of (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such distribution or dividend and the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such distribution or dividend calculated as though the shares of Capital Stock held by the Investors or their successors or assigns that are not Components were the only such shares with respect to which such distribution or dividend was made multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

Such distribution or dividend shall not result in any other adjustments pursuant to Section 9 or Section 10. Upon any such distribution or dividend, the Component Number for such Component shall remain unchanged.

With respect to assets other than monies that are included in any such distribution or dividend, in lieu of the foregoing calculations of the Dilution Credit and Floor Debit pursuant to this Section 9(e) in respect of such assets, at the Company's election, adequate provision reasonably satisfactory to the Holders may be made so that each Holder shall have the right to receive upon exercise of a Warrant, in addition to Capital Stock represented by the Component Number, the kind and amount of such assets that such Holder would have received had such Holder exercised the Warrant immediately prior to the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to receive such distribution or dividend.

(f)Exceptions. Sections 9(d) and 9(e) do not apply to (i) any distribution of rights under a so-called "shareholder rights plan" by any Purchaser Entity following a Qualified Public Offering, but any exercise of such rights shall be adjusted for under Sections 10(c) and (d), (ii) ordinary dividends on any publicly traded class of Capital Stock, (iii) distributions to the extent made pursuant to the terms of any Capital Stock, other than Class A Common, as in effect on the date of issuance of such share of Capital Stock, (iv) distributions made by Midco solely to the Company or (v) any transaction described in Section 9(a), (b) or (c).

(g)Alternative Adjustments. In the event that Floor Debits or Dilution Credits or any other adjustment under Section 9 or 10 would have the result of causing the issuance of any Component below par value, the amount of such reduction below the par value shall be applied instead against the aggregate Exercise Price or paid to the Holder upon exercise. In the event that Floor Debits or Dilution Credits or any other adjustment under Section 9 or 10 would have the result of decreasing the aggregate Exercise Price below $0.00, upon exercise of the Warrants the Holders shall be paid such negative amount in cash by the Company.

(h)Dilution Credit. In addition to all the other Dilution Credits pursuant to this Section 9 and Section 10, there shall be an additional Dilution Credit equal to $371,666 per Unit, to be allocated among the Components in each Unit in the following manner: 29.75206% to Midco Preferred, 7.02479% to Class L Common and 63.22314% to Class A Common.

Section 10.Other Adjustments. Prior to the Expiration Date, the Components issuable upon exercise of the Warrants are subject to adjustment and termination as set forth in Sections 9 and 10. Adjustments for any single event shall be made under only one paragraph of Section 9 or 10 and adjustments for multiple events shall be made separately and seriatim. In the event of any ambiguity, the Board of Directors of the Company shall in good faith determine the appropriate paragraph to be applied or the order of multiple adjustments.

(a)Subdivisions and Combinations. In case any Purchaser Entity shall (i) subdivide, split or reclassify any class of Components into a larger number of shares, including by way of stock dividend, or (ii) combine or reclassify any class of its Components into a smaller number of shares, then in each such case the Component Number for such Component shall be proportionately increased or decreased, as the case may be. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 10(a) shall become effective immediately after the effective date in all cases described above.

(b)Reorganization or Reclassification. In case of any capital reorganization or any reclassification of the capital stock of any Purchaser Entity (whether pursuant to a "drag-along" transaction to which Section 4.2 of the Stockholders Agreement applies, a merger, consolidation, binding share exchange or other similar transaction and including, without limitation, a conversion of the Class L Common into Class A Common), or if any Purchaser Entity issues to all holders of any class of Capital Stock as a dividend or distribution additional shares of Capital Stock or other securities of the Purchaser Entity or of any other Person, the Warrants shall thereafter be exercisable for the number of shares of stock or other securities or property receivable upon such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or dividend or distribution, as the case may be, by a holder of the number of Units for which the Warrants were exercisable immediately prior to such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or dividend or distribution; and, in any such case, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the application of the provisions herein set forth with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of each Holder to the end that the provisions set forth herein shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as reasonably may be, in relation to any shares of stock or other securities or property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of the Warrants. If pursuant to any such capital reorganization or reclassification or dividend or distribution the Holders would receive or be entitled to receive stock or other securities of an entity other than the Purchaser Entity in which they had previously held such interest, the Purchaser Entity shall not undertake such capital reorganization or reclassification or dividend or distribution unless and until such other entity has agreed in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement as if it were the Purchaser Entity.

(c)Below-Market Issuances of Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues shares of Components for a consideration per share less than the Fair Market Value on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares, the affected Component Number shall be adjusted, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the formula below.

$$W' = W \times \frac{A}{O + (P/M)}$$

where:

W'	=	the adjusted Component Number.
W	=	the Component Number immediately prior to such issuance.
O	=	the number of shares of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity outstanding immediately prior to such issuance.
P		the aggregate consideration received for the issuance of such additional shares of such Capital Stock.
M	=	the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares in such issuance.

A = the number of shares of such Capital Stock of such Purchaser Entity outstanding immediately after such issuance.

(d)Below-Market Issuances of Non-Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues shares of Capital Stock that is not a Component, for a consideration per share less than the Fair Market Value on the date such Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such shares, a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit for each Component shall be calculated in accordance with this Section 10(d)

A Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such issuance

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for each Component equal to the product of (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance and the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

(e)Convertible Securities Convertible into Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues any Capital Stock Equivalents for a consideration per share of a Component initially deliverable upon conversion, exchange or exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents less than the Fair Market Value per share of such Component on the date the Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such securities, the affected Component Number shall be adjusted, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the following formula:

$$W' = W x \frac{O+D}{O+(P/M)}$$

where:

W’ = the adjusted Component Number.

W = the Component Number immediately prior to such issuance.

O = the number of shares of such Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to such issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents.

P the sum of the aggregate consideration received for such issuance and the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of Capital Stock upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents.

M = the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock on the date the Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price for such securities in such issuance.

D = the maximum number of shares of such Capital Stock deliverable upon conversion or in exchange for or upon exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents at the initial conversion, exchange or exercise rate.

If the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of a Component upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents shall be increased by virtue of provisions therein contained or upon the arrival of specified date or the happening of a specified event, then the affected Component Number shall promptly be readjusted to the Component Number which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such securities been made on the basis of such increased minimum consideration.

If and to the extent the conversion, exchange or exercise right under such Capital Stock Equivalents have expired without the exercise thereof, then the affected Component Number shall promptly be readjusted to the Component Number which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents not been made.

(f)Convertible Securities Issuable for Non-Components. If any Purchaser Entity issues any Capital Stock Equivalents for a consideration per share of Capital Stock that is not a Component, initially deliverable upon conversion, exchange or exercise of such Capital Stock Equivalents less than the Fair Market Value per share of such Capital Stock on the date the Purchaser Entity fixes the offering price of such securities, a Dilution Credit and a Floor Debit shall be calculated in accordance with this Section 10(f)

A Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of such issuance, in accordance with the following formula:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon such distribution or dividend.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for each Component equal to the product of (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to such issuance and the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after such issuance multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

If the aggregate minimum consideration receivable by the Purchaser Entity for issuance of Capital Stock upon conversion or in exchange for, or upon exercise of, such Capital Stock Equivalents shall be increased by virtue of provisions therein contained or upon the arrival of specified date or the happening of a specified event, then the affected Dilution Credit shall promptly be readjusted to the amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such securities been made on the basis of such increased minimum consideration.

If and to the extent the conversion, exchange or exercise right under such Capital Stock Equivalents has expired without the exercise thereof, then the affected Dilution Credit shall promptly be readjusted to the amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment upon the issuance of such Capital Stock Equivalents not been made.

(g)Distributions in Connection with Affiliate Transactions. If at any time or from time to time any Purchaser Entity enters into, any transaction with any other Investor or any Affiliate of such Investor (other than the Company and Midco or any wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company or Midco) on terms that are not fair to such Purchaser Entity, then a Dilution Credit and Floor Debit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date such transaction is entered into in accordance with this Section 10(g).

A Dilution Credit for each Component shall be calculated, effective as of the date of entering into such Affiliate transaction, in accordance with the following:

where:

DC = the Dilution Credit for a given Component upon entering into such Affiliate transaction.

CN = the Component Number for such Component immediately prior to entering into such Affiliate transaction.

New FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after entering into such Affiliate transaction.

Old FMV = the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to entering into such Affiliate transaction.

A Floor Debit shall be calculated for each Component equal to the product of (a) the difference between the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately prior to entering such Affiliate transaction and the Fair Market Value per share of such Component immediately after entering into such Affiliate transaction multiplied by (b) the Component Number for such Component.

This Section 10(g) does not apply to (i) any transaction that has been approved as fair to such Purchaser Entity by a majority of the disinterested directors of the Company, (ii) any transaction or series of related transactions involving $50 million or less, (iii) any transaction which a third party financial advisor, appraiser, consultant or expert retained by a Purchaser Entity has determined to be fair to such Purchaser Entity, (iv) any payment of customary management or advisory fees consistent with the past practices of the Investors with respect to their portfolio companies, (v) any issuance of shares of Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents, any repurchase, redemption or refinancing of shares of Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents, or the making of any distribution on shares of Capital Stock and (vi) transactions in which Investors and Holders have substantially comparable proportionate interest.

(h)Exceptions. Sections 10(c), (d), (e) and (f) do not apply to (i) the issuance of any Capital Stock or Capital Stock Equivalents issued pursuant to Employee Stock Program Grants, (ii) the issuance by a Purchaser Entity following a Qualified Public Offering of any shares of any publicly traded class of Capital Stock pursuant to an employee stock purchase plan or pursuant to a dividend reinvestment plan, (iii) issuances made by any Purchaser Entity solely to other Purchaser Entities, (iv) the issuance of Capital Stock pursuant to any Warrant or Three-Year Warrant, (v) any arm's-length transaction for a bona fide business purpose with a third party which has been approved by a majority of the disinterested directors of the issuing Purchaser Entity or by the disinterested directors of the Company if the issuing Purchaser Entity has no disinterested directors, (vi) any transaction for a bona fide business purpose with an Affiliate that is determined to have been fair by a majority of the disinterested directors of the issuing Purchaser Entity or by the disinterested directors of the Company if the issuing Purchaser Entity has no disinterested directors, (vii) any of the transactions described by Section 9 (viii) with respect to Sections 10(c) and 10(d), the issuance of Capital Stock upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of any Capital Stock Equivalents for which an adjustment has been made pursuant to Section 10(e) or 10(f) or for which no adjustment was required pursuant to Section 10(e),10(f), or 10(i) or (ix) the issuance of securities to Persons providing debt financing or their successors or assigns; provided, however, that this clause (ix) shall apply to securities issued to a Person that is Affiliated with an Affiliate of the Company only if and to the extent such Person (A) did not negotiate the terms of such debt financing, (B) receives no more than 20% of the securities issued to the Persons providing such debt financing and (C) receives no more than its pro rata share of the securities issued to the Persons providing such debt financing.

(i)When De Minimis Adjustment May Be Deferred. No adjustment in a Component Number pursuant to Section 9 or 10 shall be required unless the adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least 1% in the Component Number. No creation of a Dilution Credit or Floor Debit pursuant to Section 9 or 10 shall be calculated unless the adjustment would be greater than 1% of the Fair Market Value of each Component immediately after the event requiring such adjustment; provided, however, that any adjustments that are not made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment.

(j)Notice of Adjustment. Whenever a Component Number is adjusted or a Floor Debit or Dilution Credit is calculated, the Company shall provide the notices required by Section 13.

Section 11.Fractional Interests. The Company shall not be required to issue fractional Components on the exercise of Warrants. If more than one Warrant shall be presented for exercise in full at the same time by the same Holder, the number of full Components which shall be issuable upon the exercise thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Components purchasable on exercise of the Warrants so presented. If any fraction of a Component would, except for the provisions of this Section 11, be issuable on the exercise of any Warrants (or specified portion thereof), in lieu of issuing such fractional Component, the Company may pay an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such fractional Component on the day immediately preceding the date the Warrant is presented for exercise.

Section 12.Notices to Holders. (a)Upon any adjustment of a Component Number or any calculation of a Dilution Credit or Floor Debit pursuant to Section 9 or 10, the Company shall promptly, but in any event within 10 days thereafter, cause to be given to each of the Holders, by registered mail, postage prepaid, a certificate signed by its chief financial officer setting forth the adjusted Component Number or any calculation of a Dilution Credit or Floor Debit and describing in reasonable detail the facts accounting for such adjustment and the method of calculation used. Where appropriate, such certificate may be given in advance and included as a part of the notice required to be mailed under the other provisions of this Section 12.

(b)In the event (i) of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of any Purchaser Entity, (ii) any Purchaser Entity takes any action which would require an adjustment to any Component Number or the calculation of any Dilution Credit or Floor Debit pursuant to Section 9 or 10, (iii) any Purchaser Entity authorizes the issuance of subscription rights or warrants or a dividend or other distribution, (iv) any Purchaser Entity is party to a consolidation or merger for which approval is required from its stockholders, (v) any Purchaser Entity conveys or transfers assets substantially as an entirety, or (vi) any Purchaser Entity reorganizes its capital structure or reclassifies its common stock, then and in each such event the Company shall cause to be given to each of the Holders, at least 10 days prior to any applicable record date, by telephonic notice to the Chief Financial Officer of TWI, as well as by registered mail, postage prepaid, a written notice stating the date on which any such event or other action is expected to become effective and stating that such notice is an advance notice pursuant to this Section 12. In the event any Purchaser Entity (a) files a registration statement with respect to a public offering of its common stock or (b) enters into a sale agreement for the sale for cash to a third party of a majority of any class of Components, then and in each such event the Company shall cause to be given to each of the Holders prompt advance telephone notice to the Chief Financial Officer of TWI, as well as written notice by registered mail, postage prepaid to all Holders, describing all public material terms of such Qualified Public Offering or sale, stating that such notice is an advance notice pursuant to this Section 12 for the purpose of evaluating a conditional exercise of the warrants pursuant to Section 5(b).

(c)The Warrant Holders shall in any event be promptly provided with all historical periodic financial information provided by the Company to any or all of the Investors in their capacity as shareholders of Capital Stock pursuant to any contractual requirement, subject to reasonable and appropriate confidentiality provisions.

(d)The failure to give the notice required by this Section 12 or any defect therein shall not affect the legality or validity of any distribution, right, warrant, consolidation, merger, conveyance, transfer, dissolution, liquidation or winding up, or the vote upon any action.

Edgar Bronfman, Jr.

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of this 1st day of March, 2004 by and between WMG Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Edgar Bronfman, Jr. (the "Executive").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company, which is a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Midco"), and an indirect majority owned subsidiary of WMG-Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), has entered into a Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Time Warner Inc. dated as of November 24, 2003, whereby the Company will purchase the "Warner Recorded Music Business" and the "WMG Publishing Business" (as such terms are defined in the Purchase Agreement and as referred to hereafter as the "Business") from Time Warner Inc.; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to engage the Executive to serve as its Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer on the terms and conditions contained herein and the Executive wishes to accept such engagement on the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, including the mutual covenants herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. This Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder (hereinafter referred to as the "Employment Period") shall be effective on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Purchase Agreement; the Closing Date is hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date," and is the date hereof) and, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that the Employment Period shall be automatically extended by one year upon the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date and upon each subsequent anniversary of the Effective Date unless, no less than ninety (90) days prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date or any such subsequent anniversary either the Company or the Executive gives the other party written notice of non-renewal in accordance with Section 10(f) hereof, in which case the Employment Period shall end on the anniversary of the Effective Date immediately following the receipt of such notice.

2. Position, Duties and Representations.

(a) During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be employed as the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall report solely to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). The Executive shall be responsible for oversight and management of all operations and activities of the Company, Parent, Midco and the direct or indirect subsidiaries and controlled affiliates of each of them (the "Company Group"), and all employees of any member of the Company Group shall report, directly or indirectly, to the Executive. The Executive's services to the Company shall be performed primarily at the offices of the Company located in New York City, subject to travel requirements necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Excluding periods of vacation, sick leave and disability to which the Executive is entitled during the Employment Period, the Executive agrees, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities. During the Employment Period and the "Non-Competition Period" (as defined in Section 6(a)), the Executive may (i) serve on corporate, civic, educational, philanthropic or charitable boards or committees, (ii) passively own not more than three percent (3%) of the outstanding capital stock of any corporation whose stock is publicly traded, or (iii) manage personal investments. In addition, during the Employment Period, the Executive may engage in any other activity (other than as an employee) which is not competitive with any activity of the Company Group (other than a de minimis activity of the Company Group) at the time the Executive commences engaging in such activity, so long as such activity does not interfere with the performance of the Executive's responsibilities and duties hereunder, and the amount of time the Executive spends on all such activities is insignificant.

(c) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that, other than prohibitions generally imposed by law, there is no "Contract" (as defined in Section 6(d)) or other restriction or agreement in effect that would prohibit or otherwise limit the Executive's ability to enter into or negotiate this Agreement, become an employee or officer of the Company or to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary at an annual rate equal to $1,000,000 ("Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's usual payroll practices; provided, however, that Base Salary shall be reviewed for discretionary increases by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof no less often than annually commencing no later than the first anniversary of the Effective Date.

(b) Annual Bonus. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in respect of each full or partial fiscal year of the Company (a "Fiscal Year" which, as of the Effective Date, is the period December 1 through November 30) ending during the Employment Period, with a target of 300% of Base Salary, a minimum of $0 and a maximum of 600% of Base Salary (pro rated for partial Fiscal Years of employment), based on the attainment of Company, individual, Company Group or other performance targets established by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof in consultation with the Executive.

(c) Special Bonus. The Company expects to implement a special bonus plan or arrangement (the "Special Bonus Plan") for senior management based upon costs savings attained in respect of the Company Group and/or members or operations thereof, in amounts and in accordance with criteria established by the Board or Compensation Committee thereof. The Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Special Bonus Plan, if so established, on terms and conditions substantially the same as those applicable to other senior executives of the Company determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee; provided that the Executive acknowledges that the amount awarded to any particular executive may depend, wholly or in part, on the cost savings within the such executive's area of responsibility.

(d) Equity. On the Effective Date, the Executive shall purchase from the Company, and the Company shall sell to the Executive, shares of Parent's Class A Common Stock (the "Restricted Stock Award") representing as of the Effective Date 3.02% of the fully diluted Class A Common Stock of Parent (2.75% of the fully diluted Common Stock of the Parent, including both Class A and Class L Common Stock of Parent), which award shall be governed by the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

(e) Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans and arrangements of the Company and its affiliates on terms and conditions no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally provided to other senior executive officers of the Company.

(f) Business Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive prompt reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in the performance of his duties hereunder, subject to the submission of such written documentation as the Company may reasonably require in accordance with its standard expense reimbursement practices and policies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will reimburse the Executive for first class travel and first class hotel accommodations in connection with travel undertaken in the performance of his duties hereunder.

(g) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to no less paid vacation for each year commencing with the Effective Date as is made available generally to senior executives of the Company; provided that such paid vacation shall be no less than four weeks per year; and provided further that unused vacation pay in any year may not be carried forward.

4. Termination. The Employment Period and the Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate under the following circumstances:

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment and the Employment Period shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period after having established the Executive's Disability, by giving to the Executive a "Notice of Termination" (as defined in Section 4(d)). For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" means personal injury, illness or other cause which has rendered the Executive unable to substantially perform his material duties and responsibilities hereunder for a period of 120 consecutive days, or 120 out of 180 consecutive days, as determined jointly by a physician selected by the Company reasonably acceptable to the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and a physician selected by the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and reasonably acceptable to the Company. If such physicians cannot agree as to whether the Executive has suffered a Disability, they shall jointly select a third physician who shall make such determination.

(b) With or Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period with or without "Cause" (as defined below) by giving to the Executive a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means (i) the willful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially his material duties with the Company (other than any such failure resulting from the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after a written demand for performance is delivered to the Executive by the Board which identifies the manner in which the Board believes that the Executive has not performed the Executive's duties and the Executive, after a period established by the Board and communicated in writing to the Executive (which period may be no less than 20 days), has failed to cure such failure to the reasonable satisfaction of the Board, (ii) the willful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company or its affiliates, (iii) the Executive's conviction of, or pleading guilty to, a felony involving moral turpitude or dishonesty or (iv) a determination by the Board that any of the Executive's representations made in Section 2(c) of this Agreement were untrue when made. A termination of the Executive by the Company for Cause shall not be effective unless and until the Company has delivered to the Executive, along with the Notice of Termination, a copy of a resolution duly adopted by a majority of the Board (excluding the Executive, if he is a member of the Board) stating that the Board has determined to terminate the Executive for Cause; provided, however, that no such resolution shall be permitted to be adopted without the Company having afforded the Executive the opportunity to make a presentation to the Board and to answer any questions its members may ask him.

(c) With or Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment and the Employment Period with or without "Good Reason" (as defined below) by giving to the Company a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" means, without the Executive's express written consent:

(i) (x) a change in the duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities) of the Executive that is inconsistent in any material and adverse respect with the Executive's position(s), duties, responsibilities or status with the Company and its affiliates on the Effective Date, or (y) an adverse change in the Executive's title or offices, including but not limited to the Executive no longer serving as Chief Executive Officer of the Company;

(ii) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement, including but not limited to any reduction in the target or maximum attainable Annual Bonus;

(iii) any willful breach by the Company of any other material obligation of the Company under this Agreement;

(iv) the Company requiring the Executive to be based at any office or location other than at an office commensurate with the Executive's position at the headquarters of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, New York;

(v) any purported termination by the Company of the Executive's employment otherwise than as permitted by this Agreement, it being understood that any such purported termination shall not be effective for any purpose of this Agreement;

(vi) a failure of Executive to be elected or reelected to the Board, or as Chairman thereof; or

(vii) a failure by the Company to cause any successor to expressly assume this Agreement pursuant to Section 8(c) hereof.

A termination by the Executive with Good Reason shall be effective only if the Executive delivers to the Company a Notice of Termination for Good Reason within 60 days after learning of the circumstances constituting Good Reason. Notwithstanding the above, if (A) such Notice of Termination describes, as Good Reason, only one or more of the circumstances described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi) of this Section 4(c) and (B) within 30 days following the delivery of such Notice of Termination, the Company has cured such circumstances to the reasonable satisfaction of the Executive, then such Notice of Termination shall be ineffective and no Good Reason shall be deemed to exist. The parties agree and acknowledge that, solely for purposes of this Agreement, the cessation of the Executive's employment with the Company at the end of the Employment Period (or such other time as the Company and the Executive may agree) following Executive's provision to the Company of a written notice of non-renewal of the Employment Period, as provided in Section 1 of this Agreement, shall be deemed to be a termination by the Executive without Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. Any termination by the Company with or without Cause or on account of Disability, or by the Executive with or without

Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other party given in accordance with Section 10(f). For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination " means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision of this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the termination date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the proposed termination date; provided, however, that the information in clause (ii) shall not be required in the event of any termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

5. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination.

(a) Death or Disability. If the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of the Executive's death or on account of Disability, the Company shall:

(i) pay to the Executive or the Executive's estate, as applicable, a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid: (A) the Executive's Base Salary through the end of the month in which such termination occurred, (B) any earned and accrued but unpaid Annual Bonus for any Fiscal Year ending prior to such termination, (C) any earned and accrued but unpaid Special Bonus, (D) any accrued vacation pay, (E) any unpaid reimbursable business expenses due to the Executive in accordance with Section 3(h) (the amounts described in the preceding clauses (A) - (E), the "Accrued Amounts"), (F) the Executive's Base Salary for an additional twelve month period and (G) a pro-rated target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) such target Annual Bonus by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365;

(ii) provide those death or disability benefits to which the Executive is entitled at the date of the Executive's death or Disability under any benefit plans, policies or arrangements of the Company; and

(b) Cause or Without Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company with Cause, or (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, the Company shall pay to the Executive a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts.

(c) Without Cause or With Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company without Cause or (ii) by the Executive with Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits:Amounts;

(i) to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued

(ii) an amount equal to the sum of: (i) the Executive's Base Salary and (ii) the target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of such termination, payable in substantially equal monthly installments on the first day of each of the first 12 calendar months following termination (subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Section 6 during such payment period);

(iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) the actual Annual Bonus which the Executive would have earned in respect of such Fiscal Year had he remained employed for the entire such Fiscal Year by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365, payable at the time bonuses are generally payable to the Company's senior executives in respect of such Fiscal Year; and

(iv) The Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, shall continue to participate in the Company's group health and life insurance plans (or be provided comparable medical and life insurance coverage), at Company expense, until the earlier of the first anniversary of such termination or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health or life insurance plan, as applicable, of another employer.

(d) In General. The Executive shall have no rights upon his termination of employment with the Company, other than those set forth in each of Section 5(a), (b) or (c), as applicable, to any compensation or any other benefits from the Company under this Agreement, provided that amounts which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, program or arrangement of the Company or any of its affiliates available to employees generally (other than any severance plan or program), shall be payable in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement.

6. Restrictive Covenants. Without in any way limiting or waiving any right or remedy accorded to the Company or any limitation placed upon the Executive by law, the Executive hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Solicitation; Non-Competition. The Executive agrees that during the Employment Period and for 12 months after the expiration or termination thereof (the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly:

(i) hire, make an offer of employment to, attempt to hire or assist in the hiring of, or supervise, any employee at the level of Vice President or above, or any employee whose primary responsibility is A&R or promotion irrespective of level (each, a "Restricted Employee"), of any member of the Company Group on the Executive's own behalf, or on behalf or any person, firm or entity (other than a member of the Company Group);

(ii) attempt to persuade or encourage any Restricted Employee to (1) terminate his employment with any member of the Company Group, (2) refrain from extending his employment with any member of the Company Group, (3) refrain from entering into a new employment arrangement with any member of the Company Group or (4) enter into any employment arrangement with any competitor of any member of the Company Group;

(iii) hire, make an offer of employment to, attempt to hire or assist in the hiring of, or enter into, or solicit or offer to enter into, any "Contract" (as hereinafter defined) with, any vendor or customer of the Company Group, including any "Artist" (as hereinafter defined), on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any person, firm or entity, if the activities which are the subject of such hiring, employment or Contract are in any way competitive with any member of the Company Group; or

(v) whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete with any member of the Company Group or take active steps with others to plan for any business competitive with any member of the Company Group. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is directly or indirectly competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group as conducted or under consideration (as represented by a written proposal) at the time of the termination of the Executive's employment.

(b) Confidentiality. The Executive shall not at any time disclose or reveal to any person, firm or entity, or make use of (otherwise than for the benefit of the Company or its affiliates), any trade secrets or information of a secret or confidential nature, including without limitation, matters of a business nature, such as information about costs, profits, markets, leases, details of recording agreements, distribution agreements, customer Contracts, manufacturing processes, financial information, technical and production know-how, developments, inventions, processes or administrative procedures, concerning the business or affairs of any member of the Company Group, which the Executive may have acquired in the course of or incident to the Executive's employment with the Company, and the Executive confirms that all such information ("Confidential Information") is the exclusive property of the Company and/or such member of the Company Group. This paragraph shall not apply to disclosures by the Executive (i) in the proper performance of his obligations under this Agreement during the Employment Period or to officers, employees, lawyers and accountants of any member of the Company Group, (ii) to the Executive's legal counsel in connection with seeking legal advice related hereto, (iii) to the Executive's accountants in connection with seeking financial or tax advice related hereto, or (iv) as required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or regulatory agency or other governmental authority. Nothing herein shall prevent the Executive, subsequent to the termination or expiration of his employment hereunder, from using or availing himself of general technical skills, knowledge and experience, including that pertaining to or derived from the non-confidential aspects of any member of the Company Group. The term "Confidential Information" shall not include information generally available and known to the public other than as a result of a breach of this Section 6(b) by the Executive. The Executive agrees to hold as Company property all Confidential Information and all books, papers and other data, and all copies thereof and therefrom, in any way relating to the businesses of any member of the Company Group, whether made or received by the Executive, and, on termination of employment, or upon demand by the Company, to deliver the same to the Company.

(c) Intellectual Property. Any copyrights, "Musical Compositions" (as hereinafter defined), trademarks, patents, patent applications, inventions, developments and processes which the Executive during the Employment Period may develop which may reasonably be expected to be usable by any member of the Company Group in the ordinary course of its business shall belong to Company and/or the relevant member of the Company Group. Furthermore, the Executive agrees to execute any copyright assignment or other instruments as any member of the Company Group may deem reasonably necessary (at such member's expense) to evidence, establish, maintain, protect, enforce, and/or defend any and all of member of the Company Group's interests under this Section 6(c). All such interests shall vest in the relevant member of the Company Group whether or not such instrument is requested, executed or delivered. If the Executive shall not so execute and deliver any such instrument after reasonable notice and opportunity to do so, the Company shall have the right to do so in the Executive's name and the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed the Executive's attorney-in-fact for such purposes, which power is coupled with an interest.

(d) Definitions. For the purposes of Section 6 of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Artists" means (A) any singer or musician, or other person furnishing the services or works of an artist to any member of the Company Group pursuant to a Contract with any member of the Company Group pursuant to which such singer, musician or other person is required to provide exclusive services for the making or delivering of master "Recordings" (as hereinafter defined) to such Restricted Operation or (B) any writer, producer or other talent who has entered into a Contract with any member of the Company Group or who has otherwise provided services to any member of the Company Group excepting, in the case of both clauses (A) and (B) above, any such person who is required to provide services to any person or party other than any member of the Company Group on an exclusive basis pursuant to a Contract that was not entered into in connection with any violation by the Executive of this Agreement.

(e) Severability; Blue-Pencilling. Each section, subsection or part thereof under this Section 6 constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction. If any of such covenants or such other provisions of this Agreement are found to be invalid or unenforceable by a final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(f) Necessity; Enforcement. The parties hereto have considered carefully the necessity for protection of each member of the Company Group against the Executive's disclosures of Confidential Information and other actions referred to in this Section 6, and the nature and scope of such protection. The parties agree and acknowledge that the duration and scope applicable to the covenants set forth in this Section 6 are fair, reasonable and necessary, and that the Executive has received adequate consideration for such obligations. Accordingly, the Executive agrees that, in addition to any other relief to which the Company maybe entitled, the Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief (without the requirement of posting any bond or other security) from a court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of restraining the Executive from any actual or threatened breach of the covenants contained in this Section 6.

The Company's obligations under this Section 7 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other rights the Executive may have against the Company to indemnification or advancement of expenses, whether by statute, contract or otherwise (including, without limitation, the Executive's entitlement to indemnification and the payment or reimbursement of expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) to the extent provided in and/or permitted by the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company. The Company shall maintain directors and officers liability insurance in commercially reasonably amounts (as reasonably determined by the Board), and the Executive shall be covered under such insurance to the same extent as any other senior executive of the Company. The Executive hereby undertakes to repay any advances paid to him pursuant to this Section 7 if a final judgment adverse to the Executive establishes that he is not entitled to be indemnified under this Agreement or otherwise. The Company hereby acknowledges that the undertaking set forth in the previous sentence satisfies all requirements for any similar undertakings in the by-laws or other corporate documents of the Company. The Company shall not take any action that would impair the Executive's right to indemnification, other than in connection with a claim by the Company that the Executive is not entitled to indemnification in accordance with the standards set forth in this Section 7.

8. Successors.

by and between
WMG ACQUISITION CORP.
Lyor Cohen

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of this 25th day of January, 2004 by and between WMG Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Lyor Cohen (the "Executive").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company, which is a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Midco"), and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), has entered into a Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Time Warner Inc. dated as of November 24, 2003, whereby the Company will purchase the "Warner Recorded Music Business" and the "Warner Music Publishing Business" (as such terms are defined in the Purchase Agreement and as referred to hereafter as the "Business") from Time Warner Inc.; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to engage the Executive to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the United States recorded music operation of the Warner Recorded Music Business (the "Division") on the terms and conditions contained herein and the Executive wishes to accept such engagement on the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, including the mutual covenants herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. This Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder (hereinafter referred to as the "Employment Period") shall be effective on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Purchase Agreement; the Closing Date is hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date") and, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that the Employment Period shall be automatically extended by one year upon the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date and upon each subsequent anniversary of the Effective Date unless, no less than ninety (90) days prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date or any such subsequent anniversary either the Company or the Executive gives the other party written notice of non-renewal in accordance with Section 9(e) hereof, in which case the Employment Period shall end on the anniversary of the Effective Date immediately following the receipt of such notice.

2. Position, Duties and Representations.

(a) During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be employed as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Division and shall report solely to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO"). The Executive shall be responsible for oversight and management of all operations and activities of the Division and any activities consistent therewith and related thereto assigned to the Executive by the CEO, and all employees of the Division shall report, directly or indirectly, to the Executive (and, through the Executive, to the CEO), and to no other direct report of the CEO. The Executive's services to the Company shall be performed primarily at the offices of the Company located in New York City, subject to travel requirements necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Excluding periods of vacation, sick leave and disability to which the Executive is entitled during the Employment Period, the Executive agrees, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities. During the Employment Period, the Executive may (i) serve on corporate, civic, educational, philanthropic or charitable boards or committees, (ii) passively own not more than three percent (3%) of the outstanding capital stock or any corporation whose stock is publicly traded, (iii) manage personal investments or (iv) engage in any other activity (other than as an employee) which is not competitive with any activity of the Company, and Division or the Business (other than a de minimis activity of the Company, and Division or the Business) at the time the Executive commences engaging in such activity, so long as such activity does not interfere with the performance of the Executive's responsibilities and duties hereunder, and the amount of time the Executive spends on all such activities is insignificant.

(c) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that, other than prohibitions generally imposed by law, there is no "Contract" (as defined in Section 6(d)) or other restriction or agreement in effect that would prohibit or otherwise limit the Executive's ability to enter into or negotiate this Agreement, become an employee or officer of the Company or to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder, other than as set forth in Section 5(e) of the Employment Agreement entered into in July 1999 between the Executive and Universal Music Group, Inc. (the "UMG Agreement"). The Executive further represents and warrants to the Company that the only restrictions, whether in a Contract or otherwise, prohibiting or limiting him from soliciting, retaining, hiring or entering into a Contract of any type with employees, writers, producers, recording artists or other talent on or after the Effective Date are contained in Section 5(e) of the UMG Agreement, and that a complete and accurate copy of such Section 5(e) has been disclosed to the Company.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary at an annual rate equal to (i) $1,000,000 during the first twelve months of the Employment Period and (ii) $1,500,000 for the remainder of the Employment Period ("Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's usual payroll practices; provided, however, that Base Salary shall be reviewed for discretionary increases by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or the Compensation Committee thereof no less often than annually commencing in respect of the third year following the Effective Date.

(b) Signing Bonus. On or immediately following the Effective Date the Company shall pay to the Executive a cash signing bonus equal to the greater of (i) $1 million or (ii) 59% of the "Initial Value" (as defined in Section 1 of the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A) of the "Restricted Stock Award" (as defined in Section 3(f) of this Agreement) on the date of grant, as reported to the Executive by the Board in accordance with the second sentence of Section 1 of such Restricted Stock Award Agreement. The signing bonus is not contingent on the performance of services by the Executive.

(c) Annual Bonus. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in respect of each full or partial fiscal year of the Company (a "Fiscal Year" which, as of the Effective Date, is the period December 1 through November 30) ending during the Employment Period, with a target of $2.5 million, a minimum of $0 and a maximum of $5 million (pro rated for partial Fiscal Years of employment), based on the attainment of Company, individual, Division and/or Business performance targets established by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof in consultation with the Executive; provided; however, that the Annual Bonus in respect of the first Fiscal Year ending after the Effective Date shall be no less than $2.5 million, and shall not be subject to pro-ration.

(d) Special Bonus. The Company expects to implement a special bonus plan or arrangement (the "Special Bonus Plan") for senior management based upon costs savings attained in respect of the Division, the Company and/or the Business, in amounts and in accordance with criteria established by the Board or Compensation Committee thereof. The Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Special Bonus Plan, if so established, on terms and conditions substantially the same as those applicable to other senior executives of the Company determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee; provided that the Executive acknowledges that the amount awarded to any particular executive may depend, wholly or in part, on the cost savings within the such executive's area of responsibility.

(e) Liquidity Event Bonus.

(i) The Executive shall receive a one-time cash bonus (the "Liquidity Event Bonus") upon the occurrence of a Bonus Liquidity Event which results in a cash return to the Investors in respect of Investor Equity, after taking into account the Pre-Event Investor Cash Return, equal to or in excess of one and one-half times the Investment and less than three times the Investment, in accordance with the following schedule:

Investor Return	Liquidity Event Bonus Amount
At least 1.5x Investment but less than 2.0x Investment	$5.0 million
At least 2.0x Investment but less than 2.5x Investment	$7.5 million
At least 2.5x Investment but less than 3.0x Investment	$10 million
3x Investment or above	$0

(ii) Notwithstanding Section 3(e)(i) above, if a Liquidity Event Bonus is paid to the Executive, and subsequent to the Bonus Liquidity Event resulting in such payment a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event occurs, then the amount previously paid to the Executive as the Liquidity Event Bonus shall be repaid by the Executive to the Company upon the consummation of such 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event in the form, as elected by the Executive, of cash, securities of the Company or any consideration received by the Executive in connection with the 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event (the Fair Market Value of any such form of payment other than cash shall be as set forth in Section 3(e)(iii)(3) below); provided, however, that if the Executive demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company that the after-tax cost to him of such repayment or reduction is greater than the portion of the previously paid Liquidity Event Bonus retained by the Executive after payment of all taxes thereon, the repayment or reduction obligation shall be reduced accordingly until such after-tax cost equals such retained portion of the previously paid Liquidity Event Bonus.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 3(e), and also as and if used elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Bonus Liquidity Event" shall mean a Change in Control, or other event (e.g., a leveraged recapitalization in which the proceeds are paid out to the Investors as dividends and/or redemptions), in which cash consideration is paid to Investors in respect of the Investor Equity.

(2) "Change in Control" shall mean a "Change of Control," as defined in the certificate of incorporation of Parent, as amended from time to time.

(3) "Fair Market Value" shall mean the price at which the asset in question would change hands in an arms' length sale between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with neither being under any compunction to buy or sell and each with full knowledge of all relevant facts, as determined by, in the Executive's sole discretion, an investment bank or other valuation firm chosen by the Executive from among a list of no less than five such banks and/or firms (all of which must be experienced in the valuation of privately held companies) provided to the Executive by the Company; provided that, in determining Fair Market Value of the securities of any member of the "Parent Group" (as defined below), the chosen investment bank or valuation firm shall be instructed to use a methodology which takes into account the free cash flow, revenue and EBITDA and such other methodologies and characteristics as may be relevant.

(4) "Investment" means the aggregate investment by the Investors in the equity securities of any member of the Parent Group on and prior to the Effective Date, including expenses, which is anticipated to be approximately $1.4 billion.

(5) "Investor Equity" shall mean all equity securities of all members of the Parent Group, including common and preferred stock and warrants, options and other instruments convertible or exercisable into, or redeemable for, common or preferred stock, either (i) purchased or otherwise received by the Investors on or prior to the Effective Date or (ii) received by the Investors following the Effective Date, without cost to the Investors, in respect of the equity securities described in the preceding clause (i).

(6) "Investors" shall mean all of (i) Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P., (ii) Thomas H. Lee Parallel Fund V, L.P., (iii) Thomas H. (7) "Parent Group" shall mean Parent, Midco, the Company and each direct or indirect subsidiary of any of them.

(8) "Pre-Event Investor Cash Return" shall mean all cash received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to the applicable Bonus Liquidity Event

(9) "3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event" shall have the meaning set forth in the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

(f) Equity. On the Effective Date, the Company shall cause to be granted to the Executive, without cost to the Executive, shares of Parent's Class A Common Stock (the "Restricted Stock Award") representing as of the Effective Date 2.198% of the fully diluted Class A Common Stock of the Company (2.0% of the fully diluted Common Stock of the Parent, including both Class A and Class L Common Stock of Parent), which award shall be governed by the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A; provided that the Company and the Executive acknowledge that the Stockholders' Agreement described in the Restricted Stock Award Agreement as Exhibit A thereto has not been prepared as of the date of this Agreement.

(g) Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans and arrangements of the Company and its affiliates on terms and conditions no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally provided to other senior executive officers of the Company.

(h) Business Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive prompt reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in the performance of his duties hereunder, subject to the submission of such written documentation as the Company may reasonably require in accordance with its standard expense reimbursement practices and policies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will reimburse the Executive for first class travel and first class hotel accommodations in connection with travel undertaken in the performance of his duties hereunder.

(i) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to no less paid vacation for each year commencing with the Effective Date as is made available generally to senior executives of the Company; provided that such paid vacation shall be no less than four weeks per year; and provided further that unused vacation pay in any year may not be carried forward.

4. Termination. The Employment Period and the Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate under the following circumstances:

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment and the Employment Period shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period after having established the Executive's Disability, by giving to the Executive a "Notice of Termination" (as defined in Section 4(d)). For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" means personal injury, illness or other cause which has rendered the Executive unable to substantially perform his material duties and responsibilities hereunder for a period of 120 consecutive days, or 120 out of 180 consecutive days, as determined jointly by a physician selected by the Company reasonably acceptable to the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and a physician selected by the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and reasonably acceptable to the Company. If such physicians cannot agree as to whether the Executive has suffered a Disability, they shall jointly select a third physician who shall make such determination.

(b) With or Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period with or without "Cause" (as defined below) by giving to the Executive a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means (i) the willful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially his material duties with the Company (other than any such failure resulting from the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after a written demand for performance is delivered to the Executive by the Board which identifies the manner in which the Board believes that the Executive has not performed the Executive's duties and the Executive, after a period established by the Board and communicated in writing to the Executive (which period may be no less than 20 days), has failed to cure such failure to the reasonable satisfaction of the Board, (ii) the willful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company or its affiliates, (iii) the Executive's conviction of, or pleading guilty to, a felony involving moral turpitude or dishonesty or (iv) a determination by the Board that any of the Executive's representations made in Section 2(c) of this Agreement were untrue when made (provided that the Company informs the Executive within ninety (90) days of the majority of the members of the Board having actual knowledge of such breach). A termination of the Executive by the Company for Cause shall not be effective unless and until the Company has delivered to the Executive, along with the Notice of Termination, a copy of a resolution duly adopted by a majority of the Board (excluding the Executive, if he is a member of the Board) stating that the Board has determined to terminate the Executive for Cause; provided, however, that no such resolution shall be permitted to be adopted without the Company having afforded the Executive the opportunity to make a presentation to the Board and to answer any questions its members may ask him.

(c) With or Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment and the Employment Period with or without "Good Reason" (as defined below) by giving to the Company a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" means, without the Executive's express written consent:

(i) (x) a change in the duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities) of the Executive that is inconsistent in any material and adverse respect with the Executive's position(s), duties, responsibilities or status with the Company and its affiliates on the Effective Date, or (y) an adverse change in the Executive's title or offices;

(ii) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement, including but not limited to any reduction in the target or maximum attainable Annual Bonus;

(iii) any willful breach by the Company of any other material obligation of the Company under this Agreement;

(iv) the Company requiring the Executive to be based at any office or location other than at an office commensurate with the Executive's position at the headquarters of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, New York;

(v) any purported termination by the Company of the Executive's employment otherwise than as permitted by this Agreement, it being understood that any such purported termination shall not be effective for any purpose of this Agreement;

(vi) a failure by the Company to cause any successor to expressly assume this Agreement pursuant to Section 8(c) hereof; or

(vii) any United States recorded music operations of the Company, Parent, Midco or any of their respective directly or indirectly owned subsidiaries shall not be included within the Division.

Without limiting the generality of any of the foregoing, any change in reporting line such that the Executive no longer reports to the CEO and any appointment of any co-Chief Executive Officer of the Division shall constitute Good Reason, but the appointment of a President or Chief Operating Officer of the Company shall not constitute Good Reason so long as the Executive continues to report to the CEO and so long as subparagraphs (i) through (vii) above are not implicated by such appointment.

A termination by the Executive with Good Reason shall be effective only if the Executive delivers to the Company a Notice of Termination for Good Reason within 60 days after learning of the circumstances constituting Good Reason; provided, however, that if such Notice of Termination describes, as Good Reason, only one or more of the circumstances described in clause (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Section 4(c) and, within 30 days following the delivery of such Notice of Termination, the Company has cured such circumstances to the reasonable satisfaction of the Executive, then such Notice of Termination shall be ineffective and no Good Reason shall be deemed to exist. The parties agree and acknowledge that, solely for purposes of this Agreement, the Executive's provision of a written notice of non-renewal of the Employment Period, as provided in Section 1 of this Agreement, shall be deemed to be a termination by the Executive without Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. Any termination by the Company with or without Cause or on account of Disability, or by the Executive with or without Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other party given in accordance with Section 9(e). For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision of this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the termination date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the proposed termination date; provided, however, that the information in clause (ii) shall not be required in the event of any termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

5. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination.

(a) Death or Disability. If the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of the Executive's death or on account of Disability, the Company shall:

(i) pay to the Executive or the Executive's estate, as applicable, a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid: (A) the Executive's Base Salary through the end of the month in which such termination occurred, (B) any earned and accrued but unpaid Annual Bonus for any Fiscal Year ending prior to such termination, (C) any earned and accrued but unpaid Special Bonus and Liquidity Event Bonus, (D) any accrued vacation pay, (E) any unpaid reimbursable business expenses due to the Executive in accordance with Section 3(h) (the amounts described in the preceding clauses (A) - (E), the "Accrued Amounts"), (F) the Executive's Base Salary for an additional twelve month period and (G) a pro-rated target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) such target Annual Bonus by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365;

(ii) provide those death or disability benefits to which the Executive is entitled at the date of the Executive's death or Disability under any benefit plans, policies or arrangements of the Company; and

(iii) in the case of a termination on account of Disability, provide to the Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, at the Company's expense, continued participation in the Company's group health plan (or comparable medical coverage) until the earlier of the date the Executive attains age 65 or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health plan of another employer.

(b) Cause or Without Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company with Cause, or (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, the Company shall pay to the Executive a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts.

(c) Without Cause or With Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company without Cause or (ii) by the Executive with Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits:

(i) to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts;

(ii) an amount equal to the sum of: (i) the Executive's Base Salary and (ii) the target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of such termination, payable in substantially equal monthly installments on the first day of each of the first 12 calendar months following termination (subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Section 6 during such payment period);

(iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) the actual Annual Bonus which the Executive would have earned in respect of such Fiscal Year had he remained employed for the entire such Fiscal Year by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365, payable at the time bonuses are generally payable to the Company's senior executives in respect of such Fiscal Year; and

(iv) The Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, shall continue to participate in the Company's group health and life insurance plans (or be provided comparable medical and life insurance coverage), at Company expense, until the earlier of the first anniversary of such termination or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health or life insurance plan, as applicable, of another employer.

(d) In General. The Executive shall have no rights upon his termination of employment with the Company, other than those set forth in each of Section 5(a), (b) or (c), as applicable, to any compensation or any other benefits from the Company under this Agreement, provided that amounts which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, program or arrangement of the Company or any of its affiliates available to employees generally (other than any severance plan or program), shall be payable in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement.

6. Restrictive Covenants. Without in any way limiting or waiving any right or remedy accorded to the Company or any limitation placed upon the Executive by law, the Executive hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Solicitation. The Executive agrees that during the Employment Period and for six months after the expiration or termination thereof (the "Non-Solicitation Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly:

(i) hire or make an offer of employment to, or supervise, any employee at the level of Vice President or above (each, a "Restricted Executive") of (x) the Company, Parent, Midco, the Division or the Business or (y) any other direct or indirect subsidiary or controlled affiliate of the Company (the Company, Parent, Midco, the Division, the Business and all such other subsidiaries or controlled affiliates being referred to hereinafter as the "Restricted Operations") on the Executive's own behalf, or on behalf or any person, firm or entity (other than a Restricted Operation);

(ii) attempt to persuade any Restricted Executive to (1) terminate his employment with a Restricted Operation, (2) refrain from extending his employment with a Restricted Operation, (3) refrain from entering into a new employment arrangement with a Restricted Operation or (4) enter into any employment arrangement with any competitor of a Restricted Operation;

(iii) hire, or make an offer of employment to, or enter into, or solicit or offer to enter into, any "Contract" (as hereinafter defined) with, any "Artist" (as hereinafter defined) on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any person, firm or entity, if the activities which are the subject of such hiring, employment or Contract are in any way competitive with a Restricted Operation; or

(iv) attempt to persuade any Artist to (1) terminate his or her relationship or Contract with a Restricted Operation, (2) refrain from extending his or her relationship or Contract with a Restricted Operation, (3) refrain from entering into a new Contract with a Restricted Operation or (4) enter into any relationship or Contract with any competitor of a Restricted Operation.

(b) Confidentiality. The Executive shall not at any time disclose or reveal to any person, firm or entity, or make use of (otherwise than for the benefit of the Company or its affiliates), any trade secrets or information of a secret or confidential nature, including without limitation, matters of a business nature, such as information about costs, profits, markets, leases, details of recording agreements, distribution agreements, customer Contracts, manufacturing processes, financial information, technical and production know-how, developments, inventions, processes or administrative procedures, concerning the business or affairs of a Restricted Operation, which the Executive may have acquired in the course of or incident to the Executive's employment with the Company, and the Executive confirms that all such information ("Confidential Information") is the exclusive property of the Company and/or such Restricted Operation. This paragraph shall not apply to disclosures by the Executive (i) in the proper performance of his obligations under this Agreement during the Employment Period or to officers, employees, lawyers and accountants of a Restricted Operation, (ii) to the Executive's legal counsel in connection with seeking legal advice related hereto, (iii) to the Executive's accountants in connection with seeking financial or tax advice related hereto, or (iv) as required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or regulatory agency or other governmental authority. Nothing herein shall prevent the Executive, subsequent to the termination or expiration of his employment hereunder, from using or availing himself of general technical skills, knowledge and experience, including that pertaining to or derived from the non-confidential aspects of a Restricted Operation. The term "Confidential Information" shall not include information generally available and known to the public other than as a result of a breach of this Section 6(b) by the Executive. The Executive agrees to hold as Company property all Confidential Information and all books, papers and other data, and all copies thereof and therefrom, in any way relating to the businesses of a Restricted Operation, whether made or received by the Executive, and, on termination of employment, or upon demand by the Company, to deliver the same to the Company.

(c) Intellectual Property. Any copyrights, "Musical Compositions" (as hereinafter defined), trademarks (other than the "Reserved Trademarks" (as hereinafter defined)), patents, patent applications, inventions, developments and processes which the Executive during the Employment Period may develop which may reasonably be expected to be usable by a Restricted Operation in the ordinary course of its business shall belong to Company and/or the relevant Restricted Operation. Furthermore, the Executive agrees to execute any copyright assignment or other instruments as any Restricted Operation may deem reasonably necessary (at such Restricted Operation's expense) to evidence, establish, maintain, protect, enforce, and/or defend any and all of such Restricted Operation's interests under this Section 6(c). All such interests shall vest in the relevant Restricted Operation whether or not such instrument is requested, executed or delivered. If the Executive shall not so execute and deliver any such instrument after reasonable notice and opportunity to do so, the Company shall have the right to do so in the Executive's name and the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed the Executive's attorney-in-fact for such purposes, which power is coupled with an interest.

(d) Definitions. For the purposes of Section 6 of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Artists" means (A) any singer or musician, or other person furnishing the services or works of an artist to a Restricted Operation pursuant to a Contract with a Restricted Operation pursuant to which such singer, musician or other person is required to provide exclusive services for the making or delivering of master "Recordings" (as hereinafter defined) to such Restricted Operation or (B) any writer, producer or other talent who has entered into a Contract with a Restricted Operation or who has otherwise provided services to a Restricted Operation excepting, in the case of both clauses (A) and (B) above, any such person who is required to provide services to any person or party

If any of such covenants or such other provisions of this Agreement are found to be invalid or unenforceable by a final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(f) Necessity; Enforcement. The parties hereto have considered carefully the necessity for protection of each Restricted Operation against the Executive's disclosures of Confidential Information and other actions referred to in this Section 6, and the nature and scope of such protection. The parties agree and acknowledge that the duration and scope applicable to the covenants set forth in this Section 6 are fair, reasonable and necessary, and that the Executive has received adequate consideration for such obligations. The Company hereby acknowledges that the undertaking set forth in the previous sentence satisfies all requirements for any similar undertakings in the by-laws or other corporate documents of the Company. The Company shall not take any action that would impair the Executive's right to indemnification, other than in connection with a claim by the Company that the Executive is not entitled to indemnification in accordance with the standards set forth in this Section 7.

(c) The Agreement is hereby amended to provide that in the event that your employment with Company terminates at the expiration of the Term, regardless of whether such termination is due to Company's unwillingness to offer continued employment, your unwillingness to accept continued employment, or any failure of you and Company to agree upon the terms of future employment, then (i) such number (if any) of the New Options shall automatically vest as is necessary to cause not less than 75% of the 2002 New Options and not less than 50% of the 2003 New Options to be vested as of the final day of the Term, and (ii) any vested New Options shall, to the extent that such New Options have not been exercised as of the final day of the Term, remain exercisable until the date that is three years after the final day of the Term (but in no event later than the date on which such Options were scheduled to expire at the time they were granted (i.e., generally the date that is ten: years after the date of grant)).

(d) The Agreement is hereby amended to provide that in the event of the termination of your employment by Company other than pursuant to Paragraph 9 or 10, (i) with respect to any New Options which have been granted to you prior to the date of such termination, (A) such number (if any) of the New Options shall automatically vest as is necessary to cause not less than 75% of any 2002 New Options which have been granted and not less than 50% of any 2003 New Options which have been granted to be vested as of the date of such termination, and (B) any vested New Options shall, to the extent that such New Options have not been exercised as of the date of such termination, remain exercisable until the date that is three years after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the date on which such Options were scheduled to expire at the time they were granted (i.e., generally the date that is ten years after the date of grant)), and (ii) no further New Options shall be granted to you.

Except as expressly amended herein, the terms and provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Dear Les:

Please refer to the employment agreement between Warner Music Group Inc. ("Company") and you dated March 22, 1999, effective as of January 1, 1999 (the "Pre-Amendment Agreement," and as amended by this Amendment, the "Agreement").

This letter, when countersigned, shall constitute our agreement to amend the Agreement as set forth herein. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

1. Paragraph 11 of the Agreement is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

"11. Third Party Employment Discussions; Deferred Compensation:

(a) You shall not, without the prior written consent of Company, discuss, negotiate with respect to, or enter into any agreement relating to, the rendering of your services following the expiration of the Term to any third party (a "Third Party Employment Discussion"), unless such Third Party Employment Discussion occurs during the final nine months of the Term.

(b) During the period from January 1, 1999 through December 31, 2000, in addition to the salary and bonus which were payable to you by Company during such period in accordance with Paragraph 3(a) above, Company paid to the trustee (the "Trustee") of a WMG grantor trust (the "Rabbi Trust") for credit to a special account maintained on the books of the Rabbi Trust for you (the "Trust Account"), monthly, an amount equal to 50% of one-twelfth of your annual salary. As of January 1, 2001, amounts shall cease to be credited to your Trust Account; provided that, the Trust Account shall continue to be maintained by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and Annex A attached hereto and the trust agreement (the "Trust Agreement") establishing the Rabbi Trust (which Trust Agreement shall in all respects be in furtherance of, and not inconsistent with, the terms of this Agreement, including Annex A attached hereto), until the full amount which you are entitled to receive therefrom has been paid. WMG shall maintain the Rabbi Trust as a grantor trust within the meaning of subpart E, part 1, subchapter J, chapter 1, subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall pay all fees and expenses of the Trustee and shall enforce the provisions of the Trust Agreement for your benefit. In the event that any amounts become payable to your Rabbi Trust after January 1, 2001 pursuant to this Agreement, you may elect by written notice delivered to WMG at least 15 days prior to the commencement of any calendar year during the Term to have (a) all of such payments credited instead to the Deferred Compensation Plan established by Time Warner Inc. on November 18, 1998, as the same may be amended from time to time (as so amended, the "Deferred Plan") or (b) 50% of such payments to be made to be made to the Rabbi Trust credited to the Deferred Plan and the remaining 50% paid to the Rabbi Trust. For purposes of clarification, the Trust Account shall be maintained as separate trust account and shall not be combined with the trust account (the "Prior Trust Account") maintained by WMG for your benefit pursuant to the employment agreement (including, Annex A attached thereto) between you and WMG (as successor to Warner Communications Inc. and Warner/Chappell Music Inc.) dated June 8, 1990, as amended by letter agreements dated June 7, 1991, August 2, 1994 and March 26, 1998 (as amended, the "Prior Agreement"). Accordingly, you shall be entitled to receive distributions from the Prior Trust Account in accordance with the terms of Annex A of the Prior Agreement."

For purposes of clarification, all amounts credited to your Trust Account and Deferred Plan prior to January 1, 2001 (the "Prior Amounts") shall be maintained in the Trust Account and Deferred Plan and paid to you in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Annex A to the Agreement, and the Trust Agreement. The maintenance and payment to you of the Prior Amounts in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Annex A to the Agreement, and the Trust Agreement shall not be affected by this amendment.

2. (a) The Agreement is hereby amended to provide that in each of 2001, 2002, and 2003, Company shall cause AOL Time Warner Inc. to grant to you options to purchase shares of the Common Stock of AOL Time Warner Inc. (the "Options") which Options shall be exercisable in accordance with the terms of the stock option agreement to be executed and delivered by you pursuant to the applicable stock option plan. The number of Options to be granted to you in each such year shall be calculated to equal the "Replacement Amount" (as defined below) multiplied by three (3). The "Replacement Amount" means (i) the amount that would have been credited to your Trust Account during such year pursuant to Paragraph 11(d) of the Agreement, but for the elimination of such credit pursuant to Paragraph 1 above, divided by (ii) the value of one Option (as determined by AOL Time Warner Inc. using the Black-Scholes method of valuation).

(b) In the event that your employment with Company terminates at the expiration of the Term, including, without limitation, whether such termination is due to Company's unwillingness to offer continued employment, your unwillingness to accept continued employment, or any failure of you and Company to agree upon the terms of future employment, then the Options which have been granted to you pursuant to Paragraph 2(a) above (i) shall, to the extent that any such Options have not vested as of the date of such termination, immediately vest, and (ii) shall, to the extent that such Options have not been exercised as of the date of such termination, remain exercisable until the earlier of (A) the date that is three years after the date of such termination and (B) the date on which such Options expire pursuant to the applicable stock option plans and agreements.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Agreement is hereby amended to provide that in the event of the termination of your employment by Company other than pursuant to Paragraph 9 or 10, (i) any Options which have been granted to you pursuant to Paragraph 2(a) above prior to the date of such termination shall immediately vest, and (ii) Company shall, within 30 days of the date of such termination, elect to either (a) pay to you any amounts that would have been credited to the Trust Account and/or Deferred Plan pursuant to Paragraph 11(d) of the Pre-Amendment Agreement during the remainder of the Term, but for the elimination of such credit by operation of Paragraph 1 of this Amendment, to the extent that, and at such times as, such amounts would have been payable to you pursuant to Paragraph 11(d) of the Pre-Amendment Agreement, or (b) grant to you any Options which were to be granted, pursuant to Paragraph 2(a) above during the remainder of the Term, which Options shall vest immediately and remain exercisable for three years after the date of such termination. In the event that, following any such termination of your employment, Company fails to notify you in writing of its election pursuant to this paragraph within such 30 day period, Company shall be deemed to have elected to pay to you any amounts that would have been credited to the Trust Account and/or Deferred Plan pursuant to Paragraph 11(d) of the Pre-Amendment Agreement during the remainder of the Term, but for the elimination of such credit pursuant to Paragraph 1 above, to the extent that, and at such times as, such amounts would have been payable to you pursuant to Paragraph 11(d) of the Pre-Amendment Agreement.

(d) References to Paragraph 11(d) of the Pre-Amendment Agreement shall be deemed to exclude any reference to Advisory Services, which the parties acknowledge are no longer required in any circumstance.

Except as expressly amended herein, the terms and provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our understanding, please sign below and return this amendment to the Agreement to Company.

("Time Warner"), or the subsidiaries or affiliates thereof, shall be limited to the purchase of not more than two percent (2%) of the issued and outstanding stock or other securities of a corporation listed on a national securities exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market.

5. Reporting: You shall at all times work under the supervision and direction of the Co-Chairmen and Co-CEOs of WMG, except that if WMG appoints a President or Chief Operating Officer, or other senior executive officer of similar title, then, the Co-Chairmen and Co-CEOs may designate that you shall report to such officer.

8. exercisable in accordance with the terms of the stock option agreement to be executed and delivered by you pursuant to the applicable stock option plan.

9. Disability/Death: If you shall become physically or mentally incapacitated from performing your duties hereunder, and such incapacity shall continue for a period of six (6) consecutive months or more or for shorter periods aggregating six months or more in any twelve-month period, Company shall have the right, provided that you have not resumed your usual duties prior to such date, to terminate your employment hereunder upon paying to you any accrued but unpaid salary to the date of such termination. In the event of your death, this Agreement shall automatically terminate except that Company shall pay to your estate any accrued but unpaid salary through the last day of the month of your death. The termination of your employment pursuant to this Paragraph 9 shall not affect any vested rights which you may have at the time of such termination pursuant to any insurance or other benefit plan or arrangement of Company or WMG.

10. Termination by Company: Company may at any time during the Term, by written notice, terminate your employment for "Cause" (as defined below), such Cause to be specified in the notice of termination. The following acts shall constitute "Cause" hereunder: (i) any willful or intentional act or omission having the effect, which effect is reasonably foreseeable, of materially injuring the reputation, business or business or employment relationships of Company or its affiliates; (ii) conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a misdemeanor involving theft, fraud, forgery or the sale or possession of illicit substances or a felony; (iii) breach of material covenants contained in this Agreement; and (iv) repeated or continuous failure, neglect or refusal to perform your material duties hereunder. Notice of termination given to you by Company shall specify the reason(s) for such termination, and in the case where a cause for termination described in clause (iii) or (iv) above shall be susceptible of cure, and such notice of termination is the first notice of termination given to you for such reason, if you fail to cure such cause for termination within ten (10) business days after the date of such notice, termination shall be effective upon the expiration of such ten-day period, and if you cure such cause within such ten-day period, such notice of termination shall be ineffective. In all other cases, notice of termination shall be effective on the date thereof.

11. Advisory Services:

(a) In the event that prior to June 30, 2003: (a) WMG offers to continue your employment following the expiration of the Term on terms not less favorable to you than those in effect under this Agreement with respect to the calendar year 2003, and (b) you elect not to accept such offer, then, during the two-year period (the "Advisory Period") following the expiration of the Term, you shall render advisory services (the "Advisory Services") to Company on an exclusive basis as set forth in this Paragraph 11.

(b) During the Advisory Period, you shall provide Advisory Services with respect to the business, affairs and management of Company as may be requested by Company, provided, however, that you shall not be required to devote more than one (1) day (up to 8 hours) each month to Advisory Services, which services shall be performed at a time mutually convenient to you and Company. You may, subject to the restrictions set forth in Paragraph 11(c) hereof, engage in other full-time employment during the Advisory Period and your Advisory Services hereunder shall be required only at times and places consistent with such other employment or your private activities.

(c) In the event you are required to furnish Advisory Services hereunder, such services shall be rendered on an exclusive basis in the recorded music and music publishing business and in furtherance thereof, during the Advisory Period, you shall not enter into the employ of, or render any services to, any person, firm or corporation engaged in the recorded music and music publishing businesses in the United States of America or elsewhere in the world, nor shall you have any interest directly or indirectly involving recorded music or music publishing businesses to the same extent as such interests are prohibited in Paragraph 4 of this Agreement.

(d) In consideration of your agreement to furnish Advisory Services as set forth herein, in addition to the salary and bonus which is payable to you by Company during the Term in accordance with Paragraph 3(a) above, unless you shall make the election described in the last sentence of this Paragraph 11(d), during the Term, Company shall pay to the trustee (the "Trustee") of a WMG grantor trust (the "Rabbi Trust") for credit to a special account maintained on the books of the Rabbi Trust for you (the "Trust Account"), monthly, an amount equal to 50% of one-twelfth of your annual salary. The Trust Account shall be maintained by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and Annex A attached hereto and the trust agreement (the "Trust Agreement") establishing the Rabbi Trust (which Trust Agreement shall in all respects be in furtherance of, and not inconsistent with, the terms of this Agreement, including Annex A attached hereto), until the full amount which you are entitled to receive therefrom has been paid. WMG shall maintain the Rabbi Trust as a grantor trust within the meaning of subpart E, part 1, subchapter J, chapter 1, subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and shall pay all fees and expenses of the Trustee and shall enforce the provisions of the Trust Agreement for your benefit. You may elect by written notice delivered to the WMG at least 15 days prior to the commencement of any calendar year during the Term to have (a) all of the payments to be made to the Rabbi Trust pursuant to the first sentence of Paragraph 11(a) hereof, credited instead to the Deferred Compensation Plan established by Time Warner Inc. on November 18, 1998, as the same may be amended from time to time (as so amended, the "Deferred Plan") or (b) 50% of the payments to be made to be made to the Rabbi Trust pursuant to the first sentence of Paragraph 11(a), credited to the Deferred Plan and the remaining 50% paid to the Rabbi Trust. For purposes of clarification, the Trust Account shall be maintained as separate trust account and shall not be combined with the trust account (the "Prior Trust Account") maintained by WMG for your benefit pursuant to the employment agreement (including, Annex A attached thereto) between you and WMG (as successor to Warner Communications Inc. and Warner/Chappell Music Inc.) dated June 8, 1990, as amended by letter agreements dated June 7, 1991, August 2, 1994 and March 26, 1998 (as amended, the "Prior Agreement"). Accordingly, you shall be entitled to receive distributions from the Prior Trust Account in accordance with the terms of Annex A of the Prior Agreement, subject to Paragraph 11(e) below.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in Annex A hereto or in Annex A of the Prior Agreement, in the event that you fail to provide Advisory Services on an exclusive basis as provided in Paragraph 11(c) hereof, hi addition to any other remedies that WMG and/or Company may have, WMG shall have the right to suspend, during the remainder of the Advisory Period, making payments to you from the Trust Account and the Prior Trust Account, notwithstanding that any amounts of deferred compensation had been credited and/or paid to you as. herein provided prior to such suspension. In the event that distributions from the Trust Account and/or the Prior Trust Account are suspended during all or any part of the Advisory Period pursuant to the preceding sentence, the value of the Trust Account and/or the Prior Trust Account shall nevertheless be reduced to the extent of each such suspended payment(s) in all respects as if such payment(s) had been made to you when due as provided herein and in Annex A hereto and Annex A of the Prior Agreement and the balance of the Trust Account and/or the Prior Trust Account, as so reduced, shall be paid to you in accordance with Annex A hereto and Annex A of the Prior Agreement commencing upon the conclusion of the Advisory Period.

12. Confidential Matters: You shall keep secret all confidential matters of Company and its affiliates (for purposes of this Paragraph 12 only, "Company"), and shall not disclose them to anyone outside of Company, either during or after your employment with Company, except with Company's written consent. You shall deliver promptly to Company upon termination of your employment, or at any time Company may request, all confidential memoranda, notes, records, reports and other documents (and all copies thereof) relating to the business of Company which you may then possess or have under your control.

13. Results and Proceeds of Employment: You acknowledge that Company shall own all rights of every kind and character throughout the world in perpetuity in and to any material and/or ideas written, suggested or in any way created by you hereunder and all other results and proceeds of your services hereunder, including, but not limited to, all copyrightable material created by you within the scope of your employment. You agree to execute and deliver to Company such assignments or other instruments as Company may require from time to time to evidence Company's ownership of the results and proceeds of your services.

14. Notices: All notices, requests, consents and other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally or sent by prepaid courier, or mailed first-class, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, as follows:

15. Miscellaneous:

(a) You represent and warrant to Company that you are free to enter into this Agreement and, as of the commencement of the Term hereof, are not subject to any conflicting obligation or any disability which will prevent you from or interfere with your executing and performing your obligations hereunder.

(b) You acknowledge that while you are employed hereunder you will comply with Company's conflict of interest policy and other corporate policies, as in effect from time to time, of which you are made aware. All payments made to you hereunder shall be subject to applicable withholding and social security taxes and other ordinary and customary payroll deductions.

(c) You acknowledge that services to be rendered by you under this Agreement are of a special, unique and intellectual character which gives them peculiar value, and that a breach or threatened breach of any provision of this Agreement (particularly, but not limited to, the provisions of Paragraphs 4 and 12 hereof). will cause Company immediate irreparable injury and damage which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in an action at law. Accordingly, without limiting any right or remedy which Company may have in such event, you

(d) This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto, and supersedes and terminates any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings, including, without limitation, the Prior Agreement, except with respect to the provisions of Annex A of the Prior Agreement and paragraph 5 of the letter agreement dated June 7, 1991, as amended by the letter agreement dated March 26, 1998. No representation, promise or inducement has been made by either party that is not embodied in this Agreement, and neither party shall be bound by or liable for any alleged representation, promise or inducement not herein set forth.

(e) The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder, may not be assigned by you. Neither the continuation of employment nor any other conduct shall be deemed to imply a continuing obligation upon the expiration of this Agreement. The failure of either party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect the right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by either party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

Deferred Compensation Account

A.1 Investments. Funds credited to the Trust Account shall be actually invested and reinvested in an account in securities selected from time to time by an investment advisor designated from time to time by the Company (the "Investment Advisor"), substantially all of which securities shall be "eligible securities". The designation from time to time by the Company of an Investment Advisor shall be subject to the Executive's prior approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. "Eligible securities" are common and preferred stocks, warrants to purchase common or preferred stocks, put and call options, and corporate or governmental bonds, notes and debentures, either listed on a national securities exchange or for which price quotations are published in newspapers of general circulation, including The Wall Street Journal, and certificates of deposit. Eligible securities shall not include the common or preferred stock, any warrants, options or rights to purchase common or preferred stock or the notes or debentures of the Company or Time Warner Inc. or any corporation or other entity of which the Company or Time Warner Inc. owns directly or indirectly 5% or more of any class of outstanding equity securities. The Investment Advisor shall have the right, from time to time, to designate eligible securities which shall be actually purchased and sold for the Trust Account on the date of reference. Such purchases may be made on margin; provided that the Company may, from time to time, by written notice to the Executive, the Trustee and the Investment Advisor, limit or prohibit margin purchases in any manner it deems prudent and, upon three business days written notice to the Executive, the Trustee and the Investment Advisor, cause all eligible securities theretofore purchased on margin to be sold. The Investment Advisor shall send notification to the Executive and the Trustee in writing of each transaction within five business days thereafter and shall render to the Executive and the Trustee written quarterly reports as to the current status of the Executive's Trust Account. In the case of any purchase, the Trust Account shall be charged with a dollar amount equal to the quantity and kind of securities purchased multiplied by the fair market value of such securities on the date of reference and shall be credited with the quantity and kind of securities so purchased. In the case of any sale, the Trust Account shall be charged with the quantity and kind of securities sold, and shall be credited with a dollar amount equal to the quantity and kind of securities sold multiplied by the fair market value of such securities on the date of reference. Such charges and credits to the Trust Account shall take place immediately upon the consummation of the transactions to which they relate. As used herein "fair market value" means either (i) if the security is actually purchased or sold by the Rabbi Trust on the date of reference, the actual purchase or sale price per security to the Rabbi Trust or (ii) if the security is not purchased or sold on the date .of reference, in the case of a listed security, the closing price per security on the date of reference, or if there were no sales on such date, then the closing price per security on the nearest preceding day on which there were such sales, and, in the case of an unlisted security, the mean between the bid and asked prices per security on the date of reference, or if no such prices are available for such date, then the mean between the bid and asked prices per security on the nearest preceding day for which such prices are available. If no bid or asked price information is available with respect to a particular security, the price quoted to the Trustee as the value of such security on the date of reference (or the nearest preceding date for which such information is available) shall be used for purposes of administering the Trust Account, including determining the fair market value of such security. The Trust Account shall be charged currently with all interest paid by the Trust Account with respect to any credit extended to the Trust Account. Such interest shall be charged to the Trust Account, for margin purchases actually made, at the rates and times actually paid by the Trust Account. The Company may, in the Company's sole discretion, from time to time serve as the lender with respect to any margin transactions by notice to the then Investment Advisor and the Trustee and in such case interest shall be charged at the rate and times then charged by an investment banking firm designated by the Company with which the Company or Time Warner Inc. does significant business. Brokerage fees shall be charged to the Trust Account at the rates and times actually paid.

A.2 Dividends and Interest. The Trust Account shall be credited with dollar amounts equal to cash dividends paid from time to time upon the stocks held therein. Dividends shall be credited as of the payment date. The Trust Account shall similarly be credited with interest payable on interest bearing securities held therein. Interest shall be credited as of the payment date, except that in the case of purchases of interest-bearing securities the Trust Account shall be charged with the dollar amount of interest accrued to the date of purchase, and in the case of sales of such interest-bearing securities the Trust Account shall be credited with the dollar amount of interest accrued to the date of sale. All dollar amounts of dividends or interest credited to the Trust Account pursuant to this Section A.2 shall be charged with all taxes thereon deemed payable by the Company (as and when determined pursuant to Section A.5). The Investment Advisor shall have the same right with respect to the investment and reinvestment of the net dividends and net interest as the Investment Advisor has with respect to the balance of the Trust Account.

A.3 Adjustments. The Trust Account shall be equitably adjusted to reflect stock dividends, stock splits, recapitalizations, mergers, consolidations, reorganizations and. other changes affecting the securities held therein.

A.4 Obligations of the Company. Without in any way limiting the obligations of the Company otherwise set forth in the Agreement or this Annex A, the Company shall have the obligation to establish, maintain and enforce the Rabbi Trust and to make payment to the Trustee for credit to the Trust Account in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement, to use due care in selecting the Trustee or any successor trustee and to in all respects work cooperatively with the Trustee to fulfill the obligations of the Company and the Trustee to the Executive. The Trust Account shall be charged with all taxes (including stock transfer taxes), interest, brokerage fees and investment advisory fees, if any, deemed payable by the Company and attributable to the purchase or disposition of securities designated by the Investment Advisor (in all cases net after any tax benefits that the Company would be deemed to derive from the payment thereof, as and when determined pursuant to Section A.5) and only in the event of a default by the Company of its obligation to pay such fees and expenses, the fees and expenses of the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement, but no other costs of the Company. Subject to the terms of the trust Agreement, the securities purchased for the Trust Account as designated by the Investment Advisor shall remain the sole property of the Company, subject to the claims of its general creditors, as provided in the Trust Agreement. Neither the Executive nor his legal representative or any beneficiary designated by the Executive shall have any right, other than the right of an unsecured general creditor, against the Company or the Rabbi Trust in respect of any portion of the Trust Account.

A.5 Taxes. The Trust Account shall be charged with all federal, state and local taxes deemed payable by the Company with respect to income recognized upon the dividends and interest received by the Trust Account pursuant to Section A.2 and gains recognized upon sales of any of the securities which are sold pursuant to Section A.6 or A.7. The Trust Account shall be credited with the amount of the tax benefit received by the Company as a result of any payment of interest actually made pursuant to Section A.1 or A.2 and as a result of any payment of brokerage fees and investment advisory fees made pursuant to Section A.l. If any of the sales of the securities which are sold pursuant to Section A.l, A.6 or A.7 results in a loss to the Trust Account, such net loss shall be deemed to offset the income and gains referred to in the second preceding sentence (and thus reduce the charge for taxes referred to therein) to the extent then permitted under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, and under applicable state and local income and franchise tax laws (collectively referred to as "Applicable Tax Law"); provided, however, that for the purposes of this Section A.5 the Trust Account shall, except as provided in the third following sentence, be deemed to be a separate corporate taxpayer and the losses referred to above shall be deemed to offset only the income and gains referred to in the second preceding sentence. Such losses shall be carried back and carried forward within the Trust Account to the extent permitted by Applicable Tax Law in order to minimize the taxes deemed payable on such income and gains within the Trust Account. For the purposes of this Section A.5, all charges and credits to the Trust Account for taxes shall be deemed to be made as of the end of the Company's taxable year during which the transactions, from which the liabilities for such taxes are deemed to have arisen, are deemed to have occurred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if and to the extent that in any year there is a net loss in the Trust Account that cannot be offset against income and gains in any prior year, then an amount equal to the tax benefit to the Company of such net loss (after such net loss is reduced by the amount of any net capital loss of the Trust Account for such year) shall be credited to the Trust Account on the last day of such year. If and to the extent that any such net loss of the Trust Account shall be utilized to determine a credit to the Trust Account pursuant to the preceding sentence, it shall not thereafter be carried forward under this Section A.5. For purposes of determining taxes payable by the Company under any provision of this Annex A it shall be assumed that the Company is a taxpayer and pays all taxes at the maximum marginal rate of federal income taxes and state and local income and franchise taxes (net of assumed federal income tax benefits) applicable to business corporations and that all of such dividends, interest, gains and losses are allocable to its corporate headquarters.

A.6 One-Time Transfer to Deferred Plan. So long as the Executive is an employee of the Company, the Executive shall have the right to elect at any time, but only once during the Executive's lifetime, by written notice to the Company to transfer to the Deferred Plan all or a portion of the Net Transferable Balance (determined as provided in the next sentence) of the Trust Account. If the Executive shall make such an election, the Net Transferable Balance shall be determined as of the end of the calendar quarter following the date of such election (unless such election is made during the ten calendar days following the end of a calendar quarter, in which case such determination shall be made as of the end of such preceding calendar quarter) by adjusting all of the securities held in the Trust Account to their fair market value (net of the tax adjustment that would be made thereon if sold, as estimated by the Company or the Trustee) and by deducting from such value the amount of all outstanding indebtedness and any other amounts payable by the Trust Account. Transfers to the Deferred Plan shall be made in cash as promptly as reasonably practicable after the net of such calendar quarter and the Investment Advisor (or the Company or the Trustee if the Investment Advisor shall fail to act in a timely manner) shall cause securities held in the Trust Account to be sold to provide cash equal to the portion of the Net Transferable Balance of the Trust Account selected to be transferred by the Executive. If the Executive elects to transfer more than 75% of the Net Transferable Balance of the Trust Account to the Deferred Plan, the Company or the Trustee shall be permitted to take such action as they may deem reasonably appropriate, including but not limited to, retaining a portion of such Net Transferable Balance in the Trust Account, to ensure that the Trust Account will have sufficient assets to pay the Company the amount of taxes payable on such sales of securities at the end of the year in which such sales are made.

A.7 Payments. Subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Agreement, payments of deferred compensation from the Trust Account shall be made as provided in this Section A.7. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section A.7, unless the Executive makes the election referred to the next succeeding sentence, deferred compensation shall be paid bi-weekly for a period of ten years (the "Pay-Out Period") commencing on the first Company payroll date in the month of January 2004. The Executive may elect a shorter pay-Out Period by delivering written notice to the Company or the Trustee at least one-year prior to the commencement of the Pay-Out Period, which notice shall specify the shorter Pay-Out Period. On each payment date, the Trust Account shall be charged with the dollar amount of such payment. On each payment date, the amount of cash held in the Trust Account shall be not less than the payment then due and the Company or the Trustee may select the securities to be sold to provide such cash if the Investment Advisor shall fail to do so on a timely basis. The amount of any taxes payable with respect to any such sales shall be computed, as provided in Section A.5 above, and deducted from the Trust Account, as of the end of the taxable year of the Company during which such sales are deemed to have occurred. Solely for the purpose of determining the amount of payments during the Pay-Out Period, the Trust Account shall be valued on the fifth trading day prior to the end of the month preceding the first payment of each year of the Pay-Out Period, or more frequently at the Company's or the Trustee's election (the "Valuation Date"), by adjusting all of the securities held in the Trust Account to their fair market value (net of the tax adjustment that would be made thereon if sold, as estimated by the Company or the Trustee) and by deducting from the Trust Account the amount of all outstanding indebtedness. The extent, if any, by which the Trust Account, valued as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, plus any amounts that have been transferred to the Deferred Plan pursuant to Section A.6 hereof and not theretofore distributed or deemed distributed therefrom, exceeds the aggregate amount of credits to the Trust Account pursuant to the Agreement as of each Valuation Date and not theretofore distributed or deemed distributed pursuant to this Section A.7 is herein called "Account Retained Income." The amount of each payment for the year, or such shorter period as may be determined by the Company or the Trustee, of the Pay-Out Period immediately succeeding such Valuation Date, including the payment then due, shall be determined by dividing the aggregate value of the Trust Account, as valued and adjusted pursuant to the second preceding sentence, by the number of payments remaining to be paid in the Pay-Out Period, including the payment then due; provided that each payment made shall be deemed made first out of Account Retained Income (to the extent remaining after all prior distributions thereof since the last Valuation Date). The balance of the Trust Account, after all the securities held therein have been sold and all indebtedness liquidated, shall be paid to the Executive in the final payment, which shall be decreased by deducting therefrom the amount of all taxes attributable to the sale of any securities held in the Trust Account since the end of the preceding taxable year of the Company, which taxes shall be computed as of the date of such payment.

If the Agreement or the Term of employment is terminated by the Company in breach of the Agreement, the Trust Account shall be valued as of the date the Executive ceases to be an employee of Company and leaves the payroll of Company and the balance of the Trust Account, after all the securities held therein have been sold and all indebtedness liquidated, shall be paid to the Executive as soon as practicable and in any event within 30 days following the date Executive leaves the payroll of the Company in a final lump sum payment, which shall be decreased by deducting therefrom the amount of all taxes attributable to the sale of any securities held in the Trust Account since the end of the preceding taxable year of Company, which taxes shall be computed as of the date of such payment. Payments made pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to be made first out of Account Retained Income.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section A.7, if the Rabbi Trust shall terminate in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Trust Account shall be valued as of the date of such termination and the balance of the Trust Account shall be paid to the Executive within 15 days of such termination in accordance with the provisions of the third preceding paragraph.

If a transfer to the Deferred Plan has been made pursuant to Section A.6 hereof, payments made to the Executive from the Deferred Plan (a) shall be deemed made first from the amounts transferred to the Deferred Plan pursuant to Section A.6 and (b) shall be deemed made first out of Account Retained Income.

Within 90 days after the end of each taxable year of the Company in which payments are made, directly or indirectly, to the Executive from the Trust Account or from the Deferred Plan with respect to amounts transferred to the Deferred Plan from the Trust Account pursuant to Section A.6 and at the time of the final payment from the Trust Account, the Company or the Trustee shall compute and the Company shall pay to the Trustee for credit to the Trust Account, the amount of the tax benefit assumed to be received by the Company from the payment to the Executive of all amounts of Account Retained Income included in any such payment. No additional credits shall be made to the Trust Account pursuant to the preceding sentence in respect of the amounts credited to the Trust Account pursuant to the preceding sentence. Notwithstanding any provision of this Section A.7, the Executive shall not be entitled to receive pursuant to this Annex A (including any amounts that have been transferred the Deferred Plan pursuant to Section A.6. hereof) an aggregate amount that shall exceed the sum of (i) all credits made to the Trust Account pursuant to the Agreement, (ii) the net cumulative amount (positive or negative) of all income, gains, losses, interest and expenses charged or credited to the Trust Account pursuant to this Annex A (excluding credits made pursuant to the second preceding sentence), after all credits and charges to the Trust Account with respect to the tax benefits or burdens thereof, and (iii) an amount equal to the tax benefit to the Company from the payment of the amount (if positive) determined under clause (ii) above; and the final payment(s) otherwise due may be adjusted or eliminated accordingly. In determining the tax benefit to the Company under clause (iii) above, the Company shall be deemed to have made the payments under clause (ii) above with respect to the same taxable years and in the same proportions as payments of Account Retained· Income were actually made from the Trust Account. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the computation of all taxes and tax benefits referred to in this Section A.7 shall be determined in accordance with Section A.5 above.

Notwithstanding any more restrictive provisions in any applicable stock option plan or stock option agreement, if your employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without cause or if you shall terminate your employment with the Company due to a material breach of the Agreement by the Company, then, except if you shall otherwise qualify for retirement under the terms of the applicable stock option agreement, (i) all stock options to purchase shares of AOL Time Warner Inc. Re: Employment Agreement

Dear David:

Reference is made to the Employment Agreement between Warner Music Group Inc. (the "Company") and you dated December 15, 1998 (the "Agreement"). Capitalized terms used but not defined in this letter shall have the meanings given such terms in the Agreement. You and the Company desire to amend the Agreement as follows:

1. Paragraph 2 of the Agreement is amended to extend the Terra through June 29, 2007 ("Term Date"), subject however, to earlier termination as set forth in the Agreement.

2. Paragraph 3.1 of the Agreement is amended to provide that from the period January 1, 2003 through the Term Date, the Company shall pay you a base salary of not less than $700,000 ("Base Salary"). The Company may increase, but not decrease, your Base Salary during the period January 1, 2003 through the Term Date. Base Salary shall be paid in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

3. In addition to any other rights you may have under the Agreement, and unless previously terminated pursuant to any other provision of this Agreement, you have the right to terminate the Term (subject to the notice and cure provisions of Paragraph 13 of the Agreement) if any of the following events occur:

(a) there is any material reduction of your duties and responsibilities during the Term or any extension thereof. The sale, transfer or other disposition of the manufacturing and/or the music publishing operations of the Company shall not constitute a material reduction in your duties or responsibilities. The sale or transfer or other disposition (including by way of a joint venture formation) of all or substantially all of the Company's assets (or all or substantially all of the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner) shall not constitute a material reduction of your duties and responsibilities provided that (i) the Company assigns its rights and obligations under the Agreement to the entity acquiring all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (or all or substantially all of the assets of the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner) (the "successor entity") as provided in Paragraph 18(e) of the Agreement; (ii) you shall continue to have substantially the same duties, responsibilities and authority with respect to Company's businesses that you had as of the date of this Amendment and that you may have with respect to businesses added hereafter, and (iii) you shall report solely and directly to the individual holding the office within the successor entity that is substantially equivalent to the position within the Company to whom you reported under the Agreement; or

(b) any failure by the Company to obtain the assumption and agreement to perform this Agreement by a successor entity as contemplated by Paragraph 4 of this Amendment.

In the event of a termination under this Paragraph, the Term of this Agreement shall terminate and your sole remedy shall be that set forth in Paragraph 13 of the Agreement (Termination for Material Breach by Company and Wrongful Termination by Company).

4. Paragraph 18(e) of the Agreement is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder, may not be assigned by you. The Company may assign its rights, together with its obligations, hereunder in connection with any sale, transfer or other disposition (including by way of a joint venture formation) of all or a substantial portion of the stock or assets of Company, WCI, AOL Time Warner or the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner. The Company shall use reasonable efforts to cause any successor entity acquiring all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company (or all or substantially all of the recorded music business of the Company), whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, acquisition of stock, formation of a joint venture, or otherwise, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent as the Company would be required to perform, and to specifically agree to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The successor entity shall pay you annual compensation as follows: (i) Base Salary at a rate that is no less than the rate you received from Company as of the effective date of the sale or transfer ("Minimum Base Salary') and (ii) either the Target Bonus or the average of the bonus paid you for the two calendar years immediately preceding the effective date of the sale or transfer, whichever is higher ("Minimum Bonus"). For example, if the effective date of the sale or transfer was March 31, 2003, your Minimum Base Salary would be $700,000 and your Minimum Bonus would be $925,000 (two-year average bonus rather than the Target Bonus of $750,000 at 100%).

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, in the event that the Term of Employment is terminated for reasons other than Cause, Disability or Death (as set forth in Paragraphs 11 and 12 of the Agreement), the successor entity shall provide you a lump sum severance payment in a minimum amount equal to 2 years' Base Pay and two years' target bonus.

As amended, the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Please indicate your agreement with the terms of this letter by signing and returning the enclosed copy.

Dear David:

This letter, when signed by you, shall constitute our agreement with respect to your employment with us ("Company").

1. Position. Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Company.

2. Term. The term of your employment with Company hereunder shall commence on January 1, 1999 (the "Commencement Date") and shall end December 31, 2003 (the "Term"), subject to earlier termination as herein below set forth.

3. Compensation.

a. Salary. Company shall pay to you salary ("Base Salary") at the rate of $600,000 per annum commencing on the Commencement Date through December 31, 2000. Your Base Salary will be increased to the rate of $650,000 for the years 2001 and 2002 and to $700,000 for the year 2003. Salary accruing to you during the

c. Relocation Expenses. You shall be reimbursed your actual reasonable moving expenses relating to relocating your family and your personal effects to the Los Angeles metropolitan area in accordance with Company policy for employees at your level upon presentation of such evidence of such expenditures as Company shall reasonably require.

d. Guaranteed and Discretionary Bonus. With respect to the period of your employment commencing on the Commencement Date through December 31, 1999, you shall be entitled to a bonus of not less than $750,000. With respect to each subsequent calendar year of the Term, Company may grant to you, in recognition of services rendered by you during such year, an annual bonus, the amount of which, if any, shall be determined by Company in its discretion.

4. Exclusivity. During the Term and during any period you remain on the payroll of Company pursuant to Paragraph 13b(iii) or otherwise, your employment with Company shall be full-time and exclusive and you will not render any services for others, or for your own account, in the field of entertainment or otherwise. You may manage your passive investments and be involved in charitable interests so long as they do not interfere with the performance of your duties hereunder and otherwise are in compliance with Company's conflict of interest and other policies of general application.

5. Stock Options. As a separate and added inducement to your entering into this Agreement, on November 23, 1998 Time Warner Inc. ("Time Warner") granted you options to purchase 60,000 shares of the Common Stock of Time Warner at an exercise price of $104.78 per share, conditioned on your execution of this Agreement. As a result of the pending two-for-one stock split for stockholders of record on December 1, 1998, these options shall be adjusted to 120,000 options at an exercise price of $52.39 per share. In addition, during the Term in the first quarter of each of 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003 the Company shall use its best efforts to cause Time Warner to grant you options to purchase an additional 20,000 shares of Time Warner Common Stock. The number of shares covered by such options shall be appropriately adjusted as contemplated in Time Warner's stock option plans generally in the event of any subsequent changes in Time Warner's stock capitalization after the pending stock split. Such options shall be exercisable as set forth in stock option agreements in the standard form for such agreements in effect as of the date of grant to be executed by you and delivered to Time Warner promptly following each such grant.

6. Reporting. You shall serve as the senior legal officer of Company reporting to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (or the Co-Chairmen and Co-Chief Executive Officers, if applicable) and the President or other Chief Operating Officer, if any, of Company and you shall perform such duties (consistent with your position) as you shall reasonably be directed to perform by any such officer.

7. Place of Employment. Prior to June 30, 1999 you shall render services at Company's offices in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and in New York City, as required, and you understand that it shall be necessary for you to spend substantial periods of time in Company's offices in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. On or prior to June 30, 1999 you shall relocate such that your services thereafter shall be rendered primarily at the offices of Company in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. You also agree to travel on temporary trips to such other place or places as may be reasonably required from time to time to perform your duties hereunder.

8. Travel and Entertainment Expenses. Company shall pay or reimburse you for reasonable expenses actually incurred or paid by you during the Term in the performance of your services hereunder in accordance with Company's policy for employees at your level upon presentation of expense statements or vouchers or such other supporting information as Company may customarily require.

9. Benefits. During the Term, you shall be entitled to all fringe benefits generally accorded to employees of Company at your level from time to time, including, but not limited to, pension, profit-sharing, medical health and accident, group insurance and similar benefits, provided that you are eligible under the general. provisions of any applicable plan or program and Company continues to maintain such plan or program during the Term. In addition, during the Term you shall be entitled to receive an automobile allowance of $24,000 per annum and a financial advisory services allowance of $18,000 per annum, each payable in accordance with the regular payroll practices of Company for employees at your level.

10. Life Insurance. Company will obtain and maintain $1 million of term life insurance on your life during the Term, provided that you cooperate with Company in completing any application(s) to obtain such insurance and shall submit to, and satisfactorily complete, any medical examinations required with respect thereto. The provisions of this Paragraph 10 shall be in addition to any other insurance provided by Company, Warner Communications Inc. ("WCI") or Time Warner on your life under any group policy.

11. Disability and Death.

a. If during the Term you shall become physically or mentally disabled, whether totally or partially, so that you are substantially prevented from performing your usual duties for a period of six consecutive months, or for shorter periods aggregating six months in any twelve-month period, Company shall, nevertheless, continue to pay you your full compensation through the last day of the sixth consecutive month of disability or the date on which the shorter periods of disability shall have equaled a total of six months in any twelve-month period (such last day or date being referred to herein as the "Disability Date"). If you have not resumed your usual duties on or prior to the Disability Date, Company may terminate your employment hereunder and, in such event, shall pay you the Base Salary to the last day of the month in which such termination occurs plus a pro rata share of (i) your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if such termination occurs in such year, and (ii) your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9.

b. Upon your death, this Agreement and all benefits hereunder shall terminate except that your estate (or a designated beneficiary thereof) shall be entitled to receive the Base Salary to the last day of the month in which your death occurs plus a pro rata share of (i) your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if such termination

c. Any termination pursuant to this Paragraph 11 shall not affect any vested rights which you may have at the time of such termination pursuant to any insurance or other benefit plans or arrangements of Company or any of its affiliated companies or to the benefit plans described in Paragraph 9, which vested rights shall continue to be governed by the provisions of such plans.

12. Termination by Company for Cause. Company may at any time during the Term, by written notice, terminate your employment and all of Company's obligations hereunder (other than its obligations set forth in this Paragraph 12) only for "cause". The following acts shall constitute "cause" hereunder: (i) any willful or intentional act or omission having the effect of injuring the reputation, business or business relationships of Company or its affiliates; (ii) conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony; (iii) breach of material covenants contained in this Agreement; and (iv) repeated or continuous failure, neglect or refusal to perform your duties hereunder. Such termination shall be effected by notice thereof delivered by Company to you and shall be effective as of the date of such notice; provided, however, that if (a) such termination is by reason of events described in clause (iii) or (iv) of the preceding sentence, (b) such notice is the first such notice of termination for any reason delivered by Company to you hereunder, and (c) within 15 days following the date of such notice, you shall cease your refusal and shall use your best efforts to perform such obligations, termination shall not be effective. In the event of termination by Company for cause in accordance with the foregoing procedures, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that Company may have at law or equity, Company shall have no further obligations to you other than (i) to pay your salary accrued through the effective date of termination, (ii) to pay any annual bonus in respect of any year prior to the year in which such termination is effective which has been determined and not yet paid as of such termination and (iii) with respect to any of your rights under Paragraphs 9 or 10 through the effective date of termination (except as may be otherwise specifically provided in any such plan or program) or pursuant to any insurance or other benefit plans or arrangements of Company maintained for the benefit of its executives.

13. Termination for Material Breach by Company and Wrongful Termination by Company.

a. You shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to Company specifying the facts, events or circumstances constituting any alleged breach of this Agreement, to terminate the Term effective 15 days after the giving of such notice, if, at the time of such notice. Company shall be in material breach of its obligations hereunder, provided that, with the exception of clause(i) below, the Term Shall not so terminate if within such 15-day period Company shall have cured all such material breaches of its obligations hereunder. The parties acknowledge and agree that a material breach by Company shall include, but not be limited to, (i) Company's failing to cause you to serve during the Term in the capacities set forth in Paragraph l; and (ii) unless you otherwise consent, Company's requiring your primary services to be rendered in an area other than as contemplated in Paragraph 7.

b. In the event of a termination by you pursuant to this Paragraph 13, or in the event of a termination of this Agreement or the term of employment by Company without cause or in the event Company does not enter into a renewal employment agreement with you at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you shall be entitled to elect by delivery of written notice to Company within 30 days after written notice of such termination is given pursuant to Paragraph 13(a) or the expiration of the original Term without execution of a renewal employment agreement, as the case may be, either (x) to cease being an employee of Company and receive a lump sum payment as provided in Paragraph 13(b)(ii) or (y) to remain an employee of Company as provided in Paragraph 13(b)(iii). After you make such election, the following provisions shall apply:

(i) Regardless of the election you make, (x) following the effective date of such termination, you shall have no further obligations or liabilities to Company whatsoever (except for your obligations under Paragraphs 14, 15 and 16, which shall survive such termination in accordance with their terms) and (y) you shall be entitled to receive any earned and unpaid Base Salary and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9 accrued through the effective date of such termination, plus, your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if not previously paid to you.

(ii) If you make the election provided in clause (x) of Paragraph 13(b), within 30 days following such election, Company shall pay to you as damages in a lump sum an amount (discounted as provided in the following sentence) equal to your Base Salary otherwise payable pursuant to Paragraph 3 and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9 for the period ending the later of (a) the end of the original Term or (b) two years following the effective date of such termination. Any payments required to be made to you pursuant to this Paragraph 13(b)(ii) in excess of the amount equal to the first two years of Base Salary otherwise payable following the effective date of such termination (which shall be paid in a lump sum without discounting) shall be discounted to present value from the times at which such amounts would have been paid absent such termination at an annual discount rate for the relevant periods equal to 120% of the "applicable Federal rate" (within the meaning of Section 1274(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") in effect on the date of such termination, compounded semi-annually, the use of which rate is hereby elected by Company and you pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.280G-l Q/A 32 (provided that, in the event such election is not permitted under Section 280G and the regulations thereunder, such other rate determined as of such other date as is applicable for determining present value under Section 280G of the Code shall be used).

(iii) If you make the election provided in clause (y) of Paragraph 13(b), the term of employment shall continue and you shall remain an employee of Company for the period ending the later of (a) the end of the original Term or (b) two years following the effective date of such termination, and during such period you shall be entitled to receive, whether or not you become disabled during such period but subject to Paragraph 11(b), your Base Salary otherwise payable pursuant to Paragraph 3 and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9. Except as provided in the following sentence, if you accept full-time employment with any other entity during such period or notify Company in writing of your intention to terminate your status as an employee during such period, then the term of employment shall cease and you shall cease to be an employee of Company effective upon the commencement of such employment or the effective date of such termination as specified by you in such notice, whichever is applicable (the "Termination Date"), and, within 30 days following such Termination Date, Company shall pay to you as damages in a lump sum an amount determined in accordance with Paragraph 13(b)(ii) (treating the Termination Date as the effective date of such termination for purposes thereof). Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if you accept employment with any not-for-profit entity, then you shall be entitled to remain an employee of Company and receive the payments as provided in the first sentence of this Paragraph 13(b)(iii); and if you accept full-time employment with any affiliate of Company, then the payments provided for in this Paragraph 13(b)(iii) and the term of employment shall cease and you shall not be entitled to any such lump sum payment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean any entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Company.

c. The termination of this Agreement or the Term pursuant to Paragraph 13 shall not affect the obligations of Company under the last sentence of Paragraph 9 or under Paragraph 10. In addition, if following a termination by you pursuant to Paragraph 13 or a termination of this Agreement by Company without cause or at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you make the election provided in clause (y) of Paragraph 13(b), then during the period you remain on the payroll of Company after such termination (i) you shall continue to be eligible to receive the other benefits required to be provided under Paragraphs 9 and 10 to the extent such benefits are maintained in effect by Company for its senior executives and (ii) you shall continue to be an employee of Company for purposes of any stock option agreements, including the obligation to use Company's best efforts to cause Time Warner to grant stock options pursuant to Paragraph 5. In the event you leave the payroll of Company or such best efforts are not successful such that any such options are not granted (whether or not you leave the payroll of Company, unless your termination is for cause pursuant to Paragraph 12), Company shall be obligated to pay you the fair value of such options, less applicable withholdings, the amount of which shall be determined in good faith using the Black Scholes valuation model. Upon the later of the time your term of employment with Company terminates and the time you leave the payroll of Company pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 13(b), your rights to benefits and payments under any benefit plans or any insurance or other death benefit plans or arrangements of Company or under any stock, restricted stock, stock appreciation right, bonus unit, management incentive or other plan of Company shall be determined, subject to the other terms and provisions of this Agreement, in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans and any agreements under which such stock options, restricted stock or other awards were granted. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any more restrictive provisions of any such plan or agreement, upon a termination of this Agreement or the Term pursuant to Paragraph 13 or a termination of this Agreement by Company without cause all stock options granted to you by Company shall become immediately exercisable and shall remain exercisable (but not beyond the term thereof) during the remainder of the Term.

d. In partial consideration for Company's obligation to make the payments described in Paragraph 13, you shall execute and deliver to Company a release in substantially the form attached hereto as Annex A. Company shall deliver such release to you and to your counsel specified in Paragraph 17 hereof within 10 days after the written notice of termination is delivered pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) and you shall execute and deliver such release to Company within 21 days after receipt thereof. If you shall fail to execute and deliver such release to Company within such 21 day period, or if you shall revoke your consent to such release as provided therein, your term of employment shall terminate as provided in Paragraph 13(b), but you shall receive, in lieu of the payments provided for in Paragraph 13, a lump sum cash payment in an amount determined in accordance with the personnel policies of Company relating to notice and severance then generally applicable to employees with a length of service and compensation level comparable to yours.

14. Mitigation. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by you as a result of a material breach by Company of any of its obligations hereunder, or in the event of the termination of this Agreement or the term of employment by Company in breach of this Agreement or at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you shall not be required to seek other employment in order to mitigate your damages hereunder; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) if there are any damages hereunder by reason of the events of termination described above which are "contingent on a change" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Code), you shall be required to mitigate such damages hereunder, including any such damages theretofore paid, but not in excess of the extent, if any, necessary to prevent Company from losing any tax deductions to which it otherwise would be entitled in connection with such damages if they were not so "contingent on a change," and (ii) in addition to any obligation under the preceding clause (i), and without duplication of any amounts required to be paid to Company thereunder, if any such termination occurs and you, whether or not required to mitigate your damages under clause (i) above, thereafter obtain any compensation from any employment or consulting arrangements other than with a not-for-profit entity, such compensation, whether paid to you or deferred for your benefit, shall reduce, pro tanto, any amount which Company would otherwise be required to pay you as a result of such termination and, to the extent amounts have theretofore been paid to you as a result of such termination, such compensation shall be paid over to Company as received. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph 14, you shall not be required to mitigate your damages hereunder with respect to the first two years of Base Salary otherwise payable after such termination which shall be paid to you without discount or offset.

15. Confidential Matters. Except as may be required by law, you shall keep secret all confidential matters of Company and its affiliates (for purposes of this Paragraph

15 only, "Company"), and shall not disclose them to anyone outside of Company, either during or after your employment with Company, except with Company's written consent. You shall deliver promptly to Company upon termination of your employment, or at any time Company may request, all confidential memoranda, notes, records, reports and other documents (and all copies thereof) relating to the business of Company which you may then possess or have under your control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph 15, you shall be entitled to disclose the terms of this Agreement and any other arrangements concerning your employment hereunder to members of your immediate family and your attorneys and financial advisors.

16. Results and Proceeds of Employment. You acknowledge that Company shall own all rights of every kind and character throughout the world in perpetuity in and to any material and/or ideas written, suggested or in any way created by you hereunder and all other results and proceeds of your services hereunder, including, but not limited to, all copyrightable material created by you within the scope of your employment. You agree to execute and deliver to Company such assignments or other instruments as Company may require from time to time to evidence Company's ownership of the results and proceeds of your services.

17. Notices. All notices, requests, consents and other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally or sent by prepaid telegram, courier, or mailed first-class, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, as follows:

Either you or Company may change the address to which notices are to be sent by giving written notice of such change of address to the other in the manner herein provided for giving notice.

18. Miscellaneous.

a. You represent and warrant to Company that you are free to enter into this Agreement and, as of the commencement of the Term hereof, are not subject to any conflicting obligation or any disability which will prevent you from or interfere with your executing and performing your obligations hereunder or could be the basis of any valid claim against Company. Prior to entering into this Agreement you have obtained release from Sony Music Entertainment Inc. ("Sony") of any claims relating to this Agreement, a true, correct and complete copy of which has been delivered to Company.

b. You acknowledge that during the Term you will comply with Company's conflict of interest policy and other corporate policies (including without limitation, the policies contained in Time Warner's Compliance Program Manual, a copy of which has been furnished to you), as in effect from time to time, of which you are made aware. You have accurately completed the attached Conflict of Interest Questionnaire as of the date hereof.

c. You acknowledge that services to be rendered by you under this Agreement are of a special, unique and intellectual character which gives them peculiar value, and that a breach or threatened breach of any provision of this Agreement (particularly, but not limited to, the provisions of Paragraphs 4 and 15 hereof), will cause Company immediate irreparable injury and damage which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in an action at law. Accordingly, without limiting any right or remedy which Company may have in the premises, you specifically agree that Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief to enforce and protect its rights under this Agreement. The provisions of this Paragraph 18(c) shall not be construed as a waiver by Company of any rights which Company may have to damages or any other remedy.

d. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto, and supersedes and terminates any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings. No representation, promise or inducement has been made by either party that is not embodied in this Agreement, and neither party shall be bound by or liable for any alleged representation, promise or inducement not herein set forth.

e. The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder, may not be assigned by you. Company may assign its rights, together with its obligations, hereunder in connection with any sale, transfer or other disposition of all or a substantial portion of the stock or assets of Company, WCI, Time Warner or the recorded music business of Time Warner.

f. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded, canceled, renewed or extended, and the terms or covenants hereof may be waived, only by a written instrument executed by both of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of either party at anytime or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect the right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by either party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

g. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of New York as applicable to agreements to be wholly performed therein. Any dispute or controversy arising with respect to this Agreement shall, at the election of either Company or you, be submitted to JAMS/ENDISPUTE for resolution in arbitration in accordance with the rules and procedures of JAMS/ENDISPUTE. Either party shall make such election by delivering written notice thereof to the other party at any time (but not later than 45 days after such party receives notice of the commencement of any administrative or regulatory proceeding or the filing of any lawsuit relating to any such dispute or controversy) and thereupon any such dispute or controversy shall be resolved only in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph 18(g). Any such proceedings shall take place in New York City before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators), pursuant to any streamlined or expedited (rather than a comprehensive) arbitration process, before a nonjudicial (rather than a judicial) arbitrator, and in accordance with an arbitration process which, in the judgment of such arbitrator, shall have the effect of reasonably limiting or reducing the cost of such arbitration. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator appointed in accordance with the procedures of JAMS/ENDISPUTE shall be final and binding. Judgment upon the award rendered by such arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and the parties consent to the jurisdiction of the New York courts for this purpose. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of arbitration (including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees of experts) from the losing party. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS/ENDISPUTE is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then the American Arbitration Association shall be substituted for JAMS/ENDISPUTE for the purposes of the foregoing provisions in this Paragraph 18(g). If you shall be the prevailing party in such arbitration, Company shall promptly pay, upon your demand, all· legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by you in any legal action seeking to enforce the award in any court.

h. You shall be entitled throughout the period of employment under this Agreement in your capacity as an officer or director of Company or any of its subsidiaries or an officer or member of the board of representatives or other governing body of any partnership or joint venture in which Company has an equity interest (and after the termination of the period of employment hereunder, to the extent relating to your service as such officer, director or member) to the benefit of the indemnification provisions contained on the date hereof in the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of Company (not including any amendments or additions after the date of execution hereof that limit or narrow, but including any that add to or broaden, the protection afforded to you by those provisions), to the extent not prohibited by applicable law at the time of the assertion of any liability against you, and provided that no such indemnity will apply to any claim arising out of the release understanding between you and Sony referred to in Paragraph 18(a).

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our understanding, please sign and return the duplicate copy of the letter enclosed herewith.

Very truly yours,

WARNER MUSIC GROUP INC.

However, for all purposes of this Lease, the Rentable Area of the Premises shall be deemed to be as set forth in Article 1 above, notwithstanding any deviation in actual Rentable Area, unless and until the boundaries of the Premises are hereafter modified; except, however, that each party shall have the right to verify the actual Rentable Area of the Premises prior to the date which is thirty (30) days following the Commencement Date, and if based upon such verification, it is agreed by the parties that the actual Rentable Area differs from the amount specified in Article 1, then an appropriate adjustment shall be made in all calculations under this Lease based upon such actual Rentable Area, and the parties shall make such adjustment payment and/or refund, as is applicable. (c) The Building is located on one or more parcels of real property (the "Site") approximately as depicted on Exhibit B attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. The parking serving the Building shall include, without limitation, a multi-level parking structure (the "Parking Structure") upon the Site and, at Landlord's option, surface parking located on the Site. The Site (as the same may hereafter be expanded in accordance herewith), the Building, any and all other improvements now or hereafter situated on the Site (as the same may hereafter be expanded in accordance herewith), the Parking Structure (as the same may hereafter be expanded in accordance herewith) and the other "Common Areas" (as hereinafter defined) are herein collectively referres to as the "Project".

The Common Areas shall also be deemed to include the exercise facility within the Project (which Landlord shall cause to be operational on or before the Commencement Date), and which, when thereafter operating, shall be available for use, on a non-exclusive basis, by Tenant and its employees, subject to payment of the applicable prevailing fees and charges payable for the use thereof by Building occupants.

(e) Landlord reserves the right from time to time: (i) to designate other land outside the current boundaries of the Site but contiguous to the then Site to be a part of the Site, in which event the Site shall be deemed to include such additional land, and the Common Areas shall be deemed to include Common Areas upon such additional land (provided that land shall not be added to the Site which does not include improvements thereon so as to have a ratio of Rentable Area to land which is substantially equivalent to the ratio of Rentable Area to land of the then existing Site); (ii) to add additional buildings and/or other improvements (including, without limitation, additional parking structures and/or expansion of the Parking Structure) to the Project, which (by way of example only and without limitation) may be located on land added to the Site pursuant to clause (i) above, and/or to remove existing and/or future buildings and/ or improvements; (iii) to make changes to the Common Areas, including, without limitation, addition of additional improvements, changes in the location, size, shape and number of driveways, entrances, parking spaces, parking areas, loading and unloading areas, ingress, egress, direction of traffic, landscape areas and walkways; (iv) to close temporarily any of the Common Areas for maintenance purposes so long as reasonable access to the Premises remains available; (v) to use the Common Areas while engaged in making additional improvements, repairs or alterations to the Building or the Project, or any portion thereof; and (vi) to install, use, maintain, repair and replace pipes, ducts, conduits, wires and appurtenant meters and equipment for service to other parts of the Project above the ceiling surfaces, below the floor surfaces, within the walls and in the central core areas, and to relocate any pipes, ducts, conduits, wires and appurtenant meters and equipment included in the Premises which are located in the Premises or located elsewhere outside the Premises, and to alter, expand and/or demolish any building within the Project; and (vii) to do and perform such other acts and make such other changes in, to or with respect to the Common Areas, the Building or any other portion of the Project as Landlord deems to be appropriate in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment; provided, however, that, without the prior consent of Tenant, Landlord shall in no event take any action pursuant hereto which would adversely affect other than in a de minimis manner, (1) the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises, (2) reasonable enjoyment of the Premises for the permitted use under this Lease as a result of required reconfiguration, (3) reasonable means of access to and from the Premises and parking areas serving the Premises, or (4) use of the parking areas serving the Premises.

(f) During the Lease Term, Tenant shall also have the right (but not the obligation) to lease from Landlord such storage space (the "Storage Space") as is available for Tenant's use located within a portion of the Building parking garage or elsewhere within the Project as designated by Landlord, provided (i) that once leased, the Storage Space so leased shall be leased by Tenant for the entire remaining Term of this Lease, and (ii) until the Commencement Date, Landlord shall make at lease five thousand (5,000) square feet of Storage Space available for lease by Tenant pursuant hereto, but such Storage Space may be located in multiple non-contiguous locations (provided that from and after the Commencement Date, Tenant's right to lease Storage Space pursuant hereto shall be on an "as available" basis, but otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Section 2(f)). Promptly following request therefore from Tenant from time to time, Landlord shall notify Tenant of any Storage Space available for lease in the Project. The monthly Rent allocable to the Storage Space leased by Tenant pursuant hereto shall initially be One and 25/100ths Dollars ($1.25) per month per square foot of floor area within such Storage Space leased by Tenant, but shall be increased on the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the Commencement Date and on each yearly anniversary of the Commencement Date thereafter occurring during the Term to equal one hundred two percent (102%) of the monthly Storage Space Rent (on a per square foot of Storage Space floor area basis) in effect immediately prior to the applicable anniversary date. Storage Space Rent shall be paid monthly in advance in the same manner as Monthly Base Rent payable under this Lease. The Storage Space shall not constitute part of the Premises for purposes of calculation of Tenant's Building Percentage or Tenant's Project Percentage. The Storage Space shall be leased on an entirely "AS IS" basis except that such Storage Space be separately demised by Landlord from the remainder of the parking garage or other adjacent areas (inclusive of any drywall walls within the Storage Space), have a lockable door and have electrical outlets and lighting installed by Landlord in accordance with Landlord's reasonable standards for storage space use. Electricity shall be available for connection to the Storage Space from a source stubbed into the Storage Space. Except as provided in the foregoing, Landlord shall have absolutely no obligation to alter or improve the Storage Space for Tenant's benefit and Tenant shall maintain and repair the Storage Space at its sole cost and expense. Except as specifically otherwise provided in this Section 2(f), Tenant's lease of the Storage Space pursuant hereto shall be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to Tenant's lease of the Premises under this Lease provided that in no event shall any Storage Space be deemed to constitute Rentable Area for purposes of this Lease and in no event shall Landlord be obligated to provide any allowance to Tenant for the improvement of the Storage Space. Tenant agrees not to store any flammable or highly combustible materials in the Storage Space. Tenant also agrees not to store excess or highly concentrated weight in the Storage Space. Tenant agrees to use the Storage Space solely for storage purposes and not as office space or other use. Tenant agrees that Landlord shall have the same rights of entry with respect to the Storage Space as are provided in Section 13 below with respect to other portions of the Premises. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, deliver to Landlord a key for any locks installed by Tenant for Landlord's emergency entry purposes. In the event of Tenant's lease of any such Storage Space pursuant hereto, the parties shall, at the request of either party, document such lease in accordance with the provisions hereof by an amendment to this Lease in a form reasonably acceptable to the parties, but Tenant's right to lease such Storage Space shall not be conditioned upon the execution of such amendment.

3. TERM: OPTIONS TO EXTEND.

(a) The term of this Lease ("Term") shall be for the period referenced in Section 1(e) above, commencing on the Commencement Date (such initial period is referred to herein as the "Initial Term"), unless this Lease is earlier terminated or the term extended, in accordance with this Lease. Following determination of the Commencement Date, the parties shall execute a memorandum confirming the occurrence of the Commencement Date and the date of the scheduled expiration of the Initial Term.

(b) Tenant shall have the option to extend the term of this Lease for two (2) separate, consecutive extended terms of sixty (60) months each (each, an "Extended Term" and collectively, the "Extended Terms"). The option to extend for each Extended Term shall be separately exercisable by Tenant's delivery to Landlord of written notice exercising the option to extend the Term by the applicable Extended Term no later than twenty-four (24) months prior to expiration of the then applicable Term; provided that Tenant may not exercise such option when Tenant is in default under this Lease (after Tenant's receipt of written notice from Landlord and the expiration of any applicable cure period provided in Section 21(a) below unless Landlord has waived such default by Tenant in writing, provided that any such waiver by Landlord shall be granted or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion), and Tenant may not exercise the option to extend the Term by the second Extended Term if the Term has not been extended by the first Extended Term. Further, Tenant shall have the option to revoke Tenant's prior exercise of an option to extend the Term by an Extended Term, which option to revoke shall be exercisable by Tenant's delivery to Landlord of written notice of such revocation not later than the earlier to occur of (x) eighteen (18) months prior to expiration of the then applicable Term (which eighteen (18) month period shall be reduced by one day for each day by which determination of the Monthly Base Rent for the proposed Extended Term in question is delayed by Landlord's failure to comply with the time frames set forth in this Section 3(b)), or (y) thirty (30) days following determination of the Monthly Base rent for the proposed Extended Term in question, provided that in the event of Tenant's exercise of such option to revoke, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with the determination of the Fair Market Rental for the proposed Extended Term in question (including, without limitation, amounts otherwise to be borne by Landlord in accordance with clause (i) of this Section 3(b) below). The terms and conditions of this Lease shall continue in effect during each such Extended Term, except (A) for terms and conditions of this Lease which are either expressly or by their operation applicable only during the Initial Term of this Lease or portions thereof, including, without limitation, the provisions of Exhibit C attached hereto, (B) that Tenant shall have no further right or option to extend the Term of this Lease beyond the second Extended Term, and (C) that Monthly Base Rent shall be adjusted as of the commencement of each such Extended Term to equal ninety-two and one-half percent (92.5%) of the prevailing monthly fair market rental rate as of the commencement of such Extended Term (the "Fair Market Rental Rate") for new and renewal tenants of premises comparable to the Premises in comparable first-class office buildings in "Burbank Media District" area ("Comparable Buildings") for periods comparable to the Extended Term (including, without limitation, consideration of such rental increases as may be appropriate during such Extended Term) and considering the manner of pass-through of Operating Expenses and Tax Expenses, tenant improvements, allowances, rental abatement, brokerage commissions and all other applicable economic concessions. If any such improvements, allowances, abatement, commissions or other concessions would involve any out-of-pocket costs to Landlord, then, at Landlord's option, Landlord may elect to do either of the following: (X) pay some or all of such costs in cash; or (Y) reduce the Monthly Base Rent component of the Fair Market Rental Rate to be an effective rental rate that takes into consideration the total dollar value of that portion of such costs that Landlord has elected not to pay in cash (in which case those costs that Landlord has elected not to pay in cash and evidenced in the effective rental rate shall not be payable by Landlord). Following Tenant's valid exercise of an option to extend the Term by an Extended Term as granted hereby, the parties shall enter into an amendment to the Lease (the "Extension Amendment"), prepared by Landlord and subject to Tenant's reasonable approval, memorializing the terms of such extension of the Term by such Extended Term, but Tenant's right to continue in occupancy in accordance herewith shall not be conditioned upon the execution of such amendment by the parties. As used in this Lease, references to the "Term" of this Lease, shall mean the initial Term as the same may be extended by the Extended Term(s), as applicable, as the context may require. The Fair Market Rental Rate for each Extended term shall be determined as follows:

(i) Following Tenant's exercise of its option to extend the Term by the applicable Extended Term, Landlord and Tenant shall meet and endeavor in good faith to agree upon the Fair Market Rental Rate. If Landlord and Tenant fail to reach agreement by the date which is twenty-three (23) months prior to the commencement of the applicable Extended Term, then, within thirty (30) days thereafter, each party, at its own cost and by giving notice to the other party, shall appoint a licensed commercial real estate agent with at least seven (7) years full-time experience as a real estate agent active in leasing of commercial office buildings in the area of the Premises to appraise and set the Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term. If a party does not appoint an agent within thirty (30) days after the other party has given notice of the name of its agent, the single agent appointed shall be the sole agent and shall set the Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term. If there are two (2) agents appointed by the parties as stated above, the agents shall meet within ten (10) days after the second agent has been appointed and attempt to set Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term. If the two (2) agents are unable to agree on such Fair Market Rental Rate within thirty (30) days after the second agent has been appointed, they shall, within 20 days after the last day the two (2) agents were to have set such Fair Market Rental Rate, attempt to select a third agent who shall be a licensed commercial real estate agent meeting the qualifications stated above. If the two (2) agents are unable to agree on the third agent within such twenty (20) day period, either Landlord or Tenant may request the President of the Los Angeles County Realtors Association to select a third agent meeting the qualifications stated in this subsection. Each of the parties shall bear one-half (1/2) of the cost of appointing the third agent and of paying the third agent's fee. No agent shall be employed by, or otherwise be engaged in business with or affiliated with, Landlord or Tenant, except as an independent contractor.

(ii) Within thirty (30) days after the selection of the third agent, a majority of the agents shall set the Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term. If a majority of the agents are unable to set such Fair Market Rental Rate within the stipulated period of time, each agent shall make a separate determination of such Fair Market Rental Rate and the three (3) appraisals shall be added together and the total shall be divided by three (3). The resulting quotient shall be the Fair Market Rental Rate for the Premises for the applicable Extended Term. If, however, the low appraisal and/or high appraisal is/are more than twenty percent (20%) lower and/or higher than the middle appraisal, the low appraisal and/or the high appraisal shall be disregarded. If only one (1) appraisal is disregarded, the remaining two (2) appraisals shall be added together and their total divided by two (2), and the resulting quotient shall be Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term. If both the low appraisal and the high appraisal are disregarded as stated in this subsection, the middle appraisal shall be the Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term.

(iii) Each agent shall hear, receive and consider such information as Landlord and Tenant each care to present regarding the determination of Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term and each agent shall have access to the information used by each other agent. Upon determination of the Fair Market Rental Rate for the applicable Extended Term, the agents shall immediately notify the parties hereto in writing of such determination in the manner provided in this Lease for the giving of notices to the parties hereto.

4. DELIVERY OF POSSESSION. The parties hereby acknowledge that the Premises are currently unoccupied and Landlord and Tenant agree that by the execution and delivery of this Lease, Landlord shall have delivered possession of the Premises to Tenant and Tenant shall be permitted to access the Premises for performance of the Tenant Improvements subject to the provisions of this Lease (including, without limitation, Exhibit C attached hereto).

5. RENT.

(a) (i) Tenant agrees to pay Landlord as Monthly Base Rent for the Premises during the Initial Term the applicable Monthly Base Rent designated in Section 1(f) and during the Extended Term the Monthly Base Rent determined as set forth in Section 3(b) above, subject to the express provisions of this Lease granting Tenant rights of rent abatement and/or reduction. Monthly Base Rent shall be paid monthly in advance on the first day of each and every calendar month during the Term. In the event the Term of this Lease commences on a day other than the first day of a calendar month or ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month, then the "Rent" (as hereinafter defined) for such periods shall be prorated in the proportion that the number of days this Lease is in effect during such periods bears to the actual number of days in such month, and such Rent shall be paid at the commencement of such period. In addition to the Monthly Base Rent, Tenant agrees to pay all other amounts required to be paid hereunder as and when same are due as hereinafter provided in this Lease. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, Rent shall be paid to Landlord, without any prior notice or demand therefor, and without any abatement, deduction or offset whatsoever, in lawful money of the United States of America, which shall be legal tender at the time of payment, at the address of Landlord designated in Section 1(b) or to such other person or at such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate in writing. All charges to be paid by Tenant hereunder other than Monthly Base Rent shall constitute additional rent, shall be paid in the manner provided herein and shall sometimes be collectively referred to as "Additional Rent". Monthly Base Rent and Additional Rent are collectively referred to herein as "Rent".

(b) Tenant acknowledges that the late payment by Tenant to Landlord of any sums due under this Lease will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of such costs being extremely difficult and impracticable to fix. Such costs include, without limitation, processing and accounting charges, and late charges that may be imposed on Landlord by the terms of any encumbrance or note secured by all or any portion of the Project. Therefore, if Tenant fails to pay any Rent within five (5) days of the due date under this Lease for any reason, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, the sum of six percent (6%) of the overdue amount as a late charge; provided, however, that as to the first such late payment in any twelve (12) consecutive calendar month period during the Term, such late charge shall not be payable unless such failure to pay when due is not cured within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord. All past-due installments of Rent shall also bear interest, as Additional Rent, at the "Interest Rate" (as hereinafter defined), from the date due until paid; provided, however, that as to the first such late payment in any twelve (12) consecutive calendar month period during the Term, such interest charge shall not be payable unless such failure to pay when due is not cured within ten (10) days after Tenant's receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord. For purposes of this Lease, the "Interest Rate" shall mean two percent (2%) per annum plus the then prevailing per annum "Prime Rate" (which for purposes of this Lease shall mean the "prime rate" as most recently published in the Wall Street Journal [or the then "prime" rate as established by a comparable alternate source reasonably designated by Landlord in the event the Wall Street Journal ceases to publish a prevailing "prime" rate]), provided that in no event shall the Interest Rate exceed the maximum rate permitted by applicable law governing interest rate restrictions. Landlord's acceptance of any late charge or interest shall not constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to the overdue amount or prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies available to Landlord under this Lease, at law or in equity.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant's obligation for payment of Monthly Base Rent shall be abated by fifty percent (50%) during the initial thirty (30) months of the Term (the amount of Monthly Base Rent abated pursuant to this sentence is collectively referred herein as the "Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount"). Upon notice to Tenant delivered by not later than the September 30 which is at least three (3) months prior to the start of the calendar year(s) as to which any Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount accelerated pursuant to clause (1) below or purchased pursuant to clause (2) would otherwise commence, Landlord shall have the right to (1) accelerate all or any portion of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount so as to be applicable to Monthly Base Rent otherwise payable under this Lease prior to the date when such portion of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount would otherwise be applicable, and/or (2) purchase all or any part of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount at any time prior to the expiration of the thirtieth (30th) month of the Lease Term, by paying to Tenant an amount equal to the "Base Rent 50% Abatement Purchase Price" (as hereinafter defined). As used herein, the "Base Rent 50% Abatement Purchase Price" shall mean the present value of such of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount allocable to the unexpired portion of the thirty (30) months of the Lease Term as Landlord desires to purchase pursuant hereto, as of the date of payment of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Purchase Price by Landlord. Such present value shall be calculated (x) by using such of the portion of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount attributable to each remaining month during the initial thirty (30) months of the Lease Term as Landlord desires to purchase pursuant hereto, as the amounts to be discounted, and (y) by using discount rates for each amount to be discounted equal to eight percent (8%) per annum. Upon such payment of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Purchase Price, the provisions of this Section 5(c) shall be of no further force or effect as to the portion of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount so purchased (which may be all of the Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount if fully purchased pursuant hereto) and Tenant shall not be entitled to any further Base Rent 50% Abatement Amount.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, during each of the initial one hundred eighty (180) months of the Term (but not thereafter during the Term or during any Extended Term), Tenant shall be entitled to an additional abatement of Sixteen Thousand One Hundred Sixty-Six and 67/100 Dollars ($16,166.67) of Tenant's Monthly Base Rent, calculated after application of any abatement applicable under Section 5(c) above (the amount of Monthly Base Rent abated pursuant to this sentence is collectively referred to herein as the "Base Rent 180 Month Abatement Amount").

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant hereby agrees to assume responsibility for payment of the costs of the "Tenant's Brokers Commissions" (as hereinafter defined) and funding all "Tenant Improvement Costs", and, in consideration thereof, during each of the initial one hundred fifty-six (156) months of the Term (but not thereafter during the Term or during any Extended Term), Tenant shall be entitled to an additional abatement of Tenant's Monthly Base Rent (calculated after application of any abatement applicable under Sections 5(c) and 5(d) above) in an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of Six and 23/100ths Dollars ($6.23) per square foot of Rentable Area in the Premises (the amount of Monthly Base Rent abated pursuant to the foregoing clause (iii) is collectively referred to herein as the "Tenant Capital Funding Abatement Amount").

6. OPERATING AND TAX EXPENSES.

(a) For the purposes of this Section 6, the following terms are defined as follows:

(i) "Tenant's Building Percentage" shall be that percentage set forth in Section 1(g)(i), which percentage is the fraction (expressed as a percentage) obtained by dividing the Rentable Area of the Premises by the Rentable Area of the Building, and which percentage shall be subject to adjustment in the event of reduction or increase in the Rentable Area within the Premises and/or Building. "Tenant's Project Percentage" shall be that percentage set forth in Section 1(g)(ii), which percentage is the fraction (expressed as a percentage) obtained by dividing the Rentable Area of the Premises by the Rentable Area of the Project, and which percentage shall be subject to adjustment in the event of reduction or increase in the Rentable Area within the Premises and/or Project.

(ii) The parties acknowledge that the Project may initially or in the future be a multi-building project and that, in such event, from and after the inclusion of such other buildings within the Project, Operating Expenses incurred in connection with the Project shall be shared between the tenants of the Building and the tenants of the other buildings of the Project. Accordingly, "Building Operating Expenses" shall mean those Operating Expenses attributable solely to the Building, and "Project Operating Expenses" shall mean those Operating Expenses attributable to the Project Common Areas or the Project as a whole. Further, the parties agree and acknowledge that for purposes of allocation of Tax Expenses, the Project is comprised of two (2) separate tax parcels, with each such parcel containing one (1) of the two (2) Project buildings together with the applicable building's equitable portion of the Project Common Areas. Accordingly, "Building Tax Expenses" shall mean those Tax Expenses attributable to the tax parcel containing the Building. In addition, the parties hereby acknowledge that certain Operating Expenses relate only to certain elements of the Project, Building and/or the Common Area serving certain elements of the Project or Building, and that other Operating Expenses relate to the entire Project, Building and/or the Common Area serving the entire Project or Building. Accordingly, Landlord shall have the right to establish cost pools for the components of Operating Expenses relating only to certain elements of the Project, Building and/or the Common Area serving certain elements of the Project or Building, and for Operating Expenses relating to the entire Project, Building and/or the Common Area serving the entire Project or Building, and to reasonably and in good faith allocate Operating Expenses among such cost pools.

(iii) "Comparison Year" shall mean each calendar year during the Term from, including and after the TE Base Year (as defined in Section 1.1(h)(i) above) or the OE Base Year (as defined in Section 1.1(h)(ii) above), as applicable.

(iv) "Operating Expenses" shall consist of all costs of operation, management, ownership, maintenance and repair of the Project, as determined by accepted principles of sound accounting practice, including the following costs by way of illustration, but not limitation: electric, water, sewer and other utility charges; accounting, legal and other consulting fees; the cost and expense of insurance for which Landlord may be responsible pursuant to this Lease, or which Landlord reasonably deems appropriate in connection with the Project; costs of repair of losses or damage not covered by insurance due to deductible amounts under such insurance policies; the cost of janitorial services (including, without limitation, required supplies, trash removal and hauling), security, and labor; utilities surcharges; expenditures required in order to comply with "Laws" (as defined in Section 7(a) below); costs incurred in the management of the Project including, without limitation, supplies, wages and salaries of employees to the extent used in the management, operation and maintenance of the Project, and payroll taxes and similar governmental charges with respect thereto, Project management office rental, and a commercially reasonable management fee; the cost of supplies, materials, equipment and tools required in the maintenance and repair of the Project; the cost of repair and maintenance (including, without limitation, costs of rental of personal property used in maintenance) of the structural portions, vertical transportation systems, and other mechanical and utility systems of the Project and other portions of the Project to be maintained and repaired by Landlord (including, without limitation, the plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and electrical systems installed or furnished by Landlord); the costs and expenses of gardening and landscaping, maintenance of signs (other than amounts allocable to maintenance of signs identifying particular Project occupants) and all other upkeep of the Common Areas; personal property taxes levied on or attributable to personal property used in connection with the Project; reasonable audit or verification fees; and costs and expenses of resurfacing, painting, lighting and similar items. In the event the Rentable Area of the Project is less than ninety-five percent (95%) occupied during the OE Base Year or any Comparison Year during the Term, then in calculating Operating Expenses for such year, the variable components of Operating Expenses shall be "grossed up" to reflect such amounts as would have been incurred had the Rentable Area of the Project been ninety-five percent (95%) occupied during such year. In addition, if Landlord is not furnishing any particular work or service (the cost of which, if performed by Landlord, would be included in Operating Expenses) to a tenant who has undertaken to perform such work or service in lieu of the performance thereof by the Landlord, Operating Expenses shall be deemed to be increased by an amount equal to the additional Operating Expenses which would reasonably have been incurred during such period by Landlord if it had at its own expense furnished such work or service to such tenant. Accounting methodology for all calculations of Operating Expenses shall be consistently applied to both the OE Base Year and each Comparison Year.

(v) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, "Operating Expenses" shall not include any of the following: (1) any ground lease rental; (2) capital expenditures to the extent the same constitute upgrades as opposed to repairs or replacements, unless required to comply with applicable Laws, provided further that any capital expenditure which is otherwise includable in Operating Expenses pursuant to this Lease (including, without limitation, capital expenditures which are permitted to be included in Operating Expenses pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this clause (2)) shall not be wholly included in Operating Expenses in the year incurred and, instead, shall be amortized by Landlord over the reasonably anticipated useful life of the applicable item (with interest at the Prime Rate), and annual amortization of such capital expenditure item (calculated in accordance with the foregoing) shall be included in Operating Expenses during each year of such useful life; (3) costs incurred for repair of damage to the Building to the extent reimbursed by insurance proceeds (provided that commercially reasonable insurance deductibles shall be included in Operating Expenses), and other costs reimbursed by insurers, warranties, governmental authorities, utility companies or any other entity (other than cost reimbursements by other Project occupants as a part of their contribution to Operating Expenses); (4) costs, including permit, license and inspection costs, incurred with respect to the installation of tenant improvements to other tenant's leased premises within the Project or incurred in renovating or otherwise improving, decorating, painting or redecorating vacant leasable space within the Project; (5) depreciation, amortization and interest payments, except on materials, tools, supplies and vendor-type equipment purchased by Landlord to enable Landlord to supply services Landlord might otherwise contract for with a third party where such depreciation, amortization and interest payments would otherwise have been included in the charge for such third party's services; (6) marketing costs, including leasing commissions, attorneys' fees in connection with the negotiation and preparation of letters, deal memos, letters of intent, leases, subleases and/or assignments, space planning costs, and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with lease, sublease and/or assignment negotiations and transactions with present or prospective tenants or other occupants of the Project; (7) expenses in connection with services which are not available to Tenant; (8) legal fees and related expenses and legal costs incurred by Landlord (together with any damages awarded against Landlord) due to the violation by Landlord or any tenant of the terms and conditions of any lease of space in the Project; (9) overhead and profit paid to Landlord or to subsidiaries or affiliates of Landlord for goods and/or services in the Project to the extent the same exceeds the costs of such goods and/or services rendered by qualified, unaffiliated third parties on a competitive basis; (10) interest, principal, points and fees on debts or amortization on any mortgage or mortgages or any other debt instrument encumbering the Project; (11) Landlord's general corporate overhead and general and administrative expenses not specifically incurred in the management, maintenance and operation of the Project; (12) costs incurred in correcting any non-compliance of the Project with Laws where such non-compliance was existing as of the delivery of possession of the Premises to Tenant; (13) Tax Expenses; (14) costs arising from the presence of any Hazardous Materials upon or beneath the Project; (15) increased costs of performance arising from the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or any employee, agent or contractor of Landlord; (16) costs arising form Landlord's charitable or political contributions; (17) costs (other than ordinary maintenance) for sculpture, paintings and other objects of art; (18) costs of correcting defects in the design or construction of the Core and Shell Work; (19) wages and benefits of employees above the level of project manager (the parties hereby acknowledging that the project engineer is not above the level of the project manager), provided that if an employee spends a portion of his or her time on projects other than the Project, then the wages and benefits of such employee shall be reasonably and equitably prorated; (20) costs associated with the operation of the business of the partnership or entity which constitutes Landlord as the same are distinguished from the costs of the operation of the Project, including partnership accounting and legal matters, costs of defending any lawsuits with any mortgagee, costs of selling, syndicating, financing, mortgaging or hypothecating any of Landlord's interest in the Project, costs of any disputes between Landlord and its employees, disputes of Landlord with Project management, or outside fees paid in connection with disputes with other Project tenants or occupants; and (21) bad debt loss, rent loss or reserves for bad debts or rent loss; (22) penalties due to failure to make payments when due; (23) any items expressly excluded from Operating Expenses pursuant to any other provision of this Lease; (24) Project management office rental to the extent such rental exceeds the fair market rental for such space or to the extent the space utilized therefor exceeds the space utilized for management offices in comparably sized Comparable Buildings; (25) any entertainment, dining or travel expenses; (26) any flowers, gifts, balloons or other items provided to any entity; (27) costs of any tenant relations parties, events or promotions not consented to by an authorized representative of Tenant in writing (which consent may be granted or withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion); (28) any job placement costs or job advertising costs, other than with respect to a receptionist or secretary in the Project office, once per year; (29) the cost of any training or incentive programs, other than for tenant life safety information services; and (30) reserves for future expenses beyond the current year anticipated to be incurred by Landlord. In addition, if in any Comparison Year following the OE Base Year, a new Operating Expense category (such as, by way of example only and without limitation, earthquake insurance or concierge services), is included in Operating Expenses which was not included in the Operating Expenses during the OE Base Year, then the cost of such new item shall be added to the Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year for purposes of determining the amounts payable by Tenant under this Section 6 for such Comparison Year, and during each subsequent Comparison Year, the same amount shall continue to be included in the computation of Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year, resulting in Operating Expenses for each such Comparison Year including (as to such category of Operating Expenses) only the increase in the cost of such new Operating Expense category over the OE Base Year, as so adjusted. However, if in any Comparison Year thereafter, such new category item is not included in Operating Expenses, then no such addition shall be made to Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year. Conversely, when a category of Operating Expenses that was originally included in the Operating Expenses during the OE Base Year is, in any Comparison Year, no longer included in Operating Expenses, then the cost of such item shall be deleted from the calculation of Operating Expenses during the OE Base Year for purposes of determining the amounts payable by Tenant under this Section 6 for such Comparison Year. The same amount shall continue to be deleted from the calculation of Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year for each Comparison Year thereafter that the Operating Expense category is so not included. However, if such category of Operating Expenses is again included in the Operating Expenses for any Comparison Year, then the amount of said Operating Expense category originally included in the Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year shall again be added back to the Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year.

(vi) As used herein, the term "Tax Expenses" shall include any form of assessment, license fee, license tax, business license fee, transit tax or fee, commercial rental tax, levy, charge, tax or similar imposition, imposed by any authority having the direct power to tax, including any city, county, state or federal government, or any school, agricultural, lighting, drainage, transportation or other improvement or special assessment district thereof, as against any legal or equitable interest of Landlord in the Project and the Premises, or any portion thereof, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) any tax on Landlord's right to Rent or right to other income from the Premises or as against Landlord's business of leasing the Premises;

(2) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge in substitution, partially or totally, of any assessments, taxes, fees, levies and charges that may be imposed by governmental agencies for such services as fire protection, street, sidewalk and road maintenance, refuse removal and for other governmental services formerly provided without charge to property owners or occupants. It is the intention of Tenant and Landlord that all such new and increased assessments, taxes, fees, levies and charges be included within the definition of Tax Expenses for the purposes of this Lease;

(3) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge allocable to or measured by the area of the Premises or the Rent payable hereunder, including, without limitation, any gross income tax or excise tax levied by the state, city or federal government, or any political subdivision thereof, with respect to the receipt of such Rent, or upon or with respect to the possession, leasing, operating, management, maintenance, alteration, repair, use or occupancy by Tenant of the Premises, or any portion thereof; and

(4) any assessment, tax, fee, levy or charge upon this transaction or any document to which Tenant is a party creating or transferring an interest or an estate in the Premises, or based upon a reassessment of the Project, or any portion thereof, due to a change in ownership or transfer of all or part of Landlord's interest in this Lease, the Project, or any portion thereof (except to the extent specifically excluded pursuant to clause (A) below).

Notwithstanding any provision of this Section 6 expressed or implied to the contrary, (A) Tax Expenses shall not include (I) Landlord's federal or state net income, franchise, inheritance or estate taxes, (II) tax penalties and interest incurred as a result of Landlord's gross negligence, inability or unwillingness to make payments when due (except that interest charged on Tax Expense items intentionally paid over the maximum lawful period shall be included within Tax Expenses); (III) special assessments or special taxes initiated by Landlord as a means of financing improvements to the Project; or (IV) during the initial ninety-six (96) months of the Term of this Lease only (and not thereafter or during any Extended Term), the extent of any increase in Tax Expenses resulting from a reassessment due to a sale of all or any portion of the Project following the Commencement Date (a "Reassessment"), and during the ninety-seventh (97) month of the Term through to the expiration of the Initial Term of this Lease only (and not during any Extended Term), fifty percent (50%) of the extent of any increase in Tax Expenses resulting from a Reassessment, and (B) there shall be no duplication of items included in Tax Expenses and items included in Operating Expenses. Tenant shall have such rights to reasonably contest the validity or amount of Tax Expenses as are permitted by applicable Laws, at Tenant's sole cost, and Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant in connection therewith (at no cost to Landlord), provided that no such contest shall in any manner limit Tenant's obligation to pay Tenant's Tax Expenses Excess as and when required under this Lease.

(b) (i) For each Comparison Year during the Term following the expiration of the OE Base Year and/or TE Base Year, as applicable, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, in the manner set forth in this Section 6(b), (1) the amount, if any, by which Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Operating Expenses for such Comparison Year increase over the Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year (the amount of such increase is referred to in this Lease as the "Tenant's Building Operating Expense Excess"); plus (2) the amount, if any, by which Tenant's Project Percentage of Project Operating Expenses for such Comparison Year increase over the Tenant's Project Percentage of Project Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year (the amount of such increase is referred to in this Lease as the "Tenant's Project Operating Expense Excess"); plus (3) the amount, if any, by which Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Tax Expenses for such Comparison Year increase over the Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Tax Expenses for the TE Base Year (the amount of such increase is referred to in this Lease as the "Tenant's Tax Expenses Excess"). The sum of Tenant's Building Operating Expenses Excess, plus Tenant's Project Operating Expenses Excess, plus Tenant's Tax Expenses Excess is referred to herein as "Tenant's Expenses Excess". If the final Comparison Year includes time beyond the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, the calculation of Tenant's Expenses Excess for such Comparison Year shall be equitably prorated by Landlord.

(ii) Before or after the expiration of the OE Base Year and/or TE Base Year, as applicable, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a statement (the "Estimate Statement") wherein Landlord shall reasonably and in good faith estimate the Tenant's Expenses Excess for the initial Comparison Year (the amount of such estimated Tenant's Expenses Excess for any Comparison Year, as such estimate may be adjusted from time to time as hereinafter provided, is referred to herein as the "Estimated Excess"). During each Comparison Year, payments by Tenant of the Estimated Excess shall be made in equal monthly installments on the first day of each calendar month during the applicable Comparison Year on the basis of Landlord's most recently delivered Estimate Statement. On or before May 1st of each Comparison Year during the Term following the initial Comparison Year, Landlord shall endeavor to deliver to Tenant an Estimate Statement of the Tenant's Expenses Excess for the then current Comparison Year. In addition to Landlord's annual delivery of a revised Estimate Statement for a particular Comparison Year, Landlord shall have the right, not more than once per year, to deliver a further revised Estimated Statement for a current Comparison Year, if Landlord reasonably and in good faith determines that there is a material inaccuracy or omission in the then applicable Estimate Statement for such Comparison Year. Following

Landlord's delivery of such a new Estimate Statement for the current Comparison Year, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within thirty (30) days of the delivery of such Estimate Statement, the difference between the Estimated Excess under such new Estimate Statement and the Estimated Excess under the prior Estimate Statement prorated for the then elapsed portion of the then current Comparison Year, and Tenant shall thereafter (beginning with the first calendar month following receipt of such new Estimate Statement) make monthly payments with respect to the Estimated Excess on the basis of such new Estimate Statement until Tenant's receipt of a subsequent Estimate Statement.

(iii) On or before May 1st following each Comparison year during the Term of this Lease, Landlord shall endeavor to deliver to Tenant a statement ("Actual Statement") which states the actual Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Operating Expenses, the actual Tenant's Project Percentage of Project Operating Expenses, and the actual Tenant's Building Percentage of Building Tax Expenses for such preceding Comparison Year. If the Actual Statement reveals that the actual Tenant's Expenses Excess for such preceding Comparison Year exceeds the total amount of Tenant's payments of Estimated Excess for such preceding Comparison Year, Tenant shall pay Landlord the difference in a lump sum within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Actual Statement. If the Actual Statement reveals that the actual Tenant's Expenses Excess for such preceding Comparison Year is less than the total amount of Tenant's payments of Estimated Excess for such preceding Comparison Year, Landlord shall credit such overpayment (plus, to the extent such Actual Statement is delivered more than six (6) months following the expiration of the Comparison Year in question, interest on the amount of such overpayment at the Interest Rate from the expiration of such six (6) month period until crediting of such amount in accordance herewith) toward Tenant's Rent obligations next coming due under this Lease, or, at Tenant's option, pay the amount of such overpayment (plus such interest charge, if applicable) to Tenant within thirty (30) days following Tenant's request therefor (and prior to credit of such overpayment amount pursuant hereto).

(iv) Any delay or failure by Landlord in delivering any Estimate Statement or Actual Statement pursuant to this Section 6(b) shall not constitute a waiver of its right to require Tenant's payment of Tenant's Expenses Excess nor shall it relieve Tenant of its obligations pursuant to this Section 6; provided that (1) Landlord shall deliver the Actual Statement related to Operating Expenses and Tax Expenses for each Comparison Year within twelve (12) months following the May 1 first occurring after the expiration of such Comparison Year, except that if, through no fault of Landlord, Landlord has not received a final conclusive statement of the amount of one or more particular Operating Expense and/or Tax Expense item(s) by the expiration of such twelve (12) month period, then the time for Landlord's billing of such item(s) shall be extended until twelve (12) months following Landlord's receipt of a final conclusive statement of the amount of the applicable item(s), and (2) Tenant shall not be liable for the portion of Tenant's Expenses Excess, if any, related to a particular Comparison Year which is not billed to Tenant by Landlord within twelve (12) months following the date when Tenant should have received the Actual Statement for such Comparison Year, except that if Landlord has not received a final conclusive statement of the amount of one or more particular Operating Expense and/or Tax Expense item(s) by the expiration of such twelve (12) month period, then the time for Landlord's billing of such item(s) shall be extended until twelve (12) months following Landlord's receipt of a final conclusive statement of the amount of the applicable item(s).

(v) In the event the Term has expired and Tenant has vacated the Premises, at such time as the final determination has been made regarding Tenant's Expenses Excess for the Comparison Year in which this Lease terminated (which determination shall be timely made), Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days following receipt of the Actual Statement for such final Comparison Year, pay any amounts due as a result of the actual Tenant's Expenses Excess for such Comparison Year exceeding Estimated Excess paid with respect thereto and, conversely, any overpayment made in the event the actual Tenant's Expenses Excess for such Comparison Year are less than Estimated Excess paid with respect thereto shall be remitted to Tenant by Landlord concurrently with Landlord's delivery of the Actual Statement for such final Comparison Year. Nothing contained in this Section 6 shall in any manner result in a decrease in Monthly Base Rent. Further, in the event that Building Operating Expenses for any Comparison Year are less than Building Operating Expenses for the OE Base year, Project Operating Expenses for any Comparison Year are less than Project Operating Expenses for the OE Base Year and/or Building Tax Expenses for the TE Base Year, Tenant shall not receive a credit against any Rent payable hereunder.

(vi) Tenant and its duly authorized representatives shall have the right to audit and copy the records of Landlord related Building Operating Expenses, Project Operating Expenses and Building Tax Expenses with respect to any calendar year within twelve (12) months following receipt of the applicable Actual Statement for such calendar year, upon not less then thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord, during normal business hours at Landlord's business offices; provided that (1) Tenant shall not conduct more than one (1) such audit in any calendar year (unless discrepancies have been discovered or Tenant in good faith has reason to believe that discrepancies exist), and (2) Tenant shall exercise good faith efforts to keep such information in strict confidence (other than disclosures to Tenant's employees, agents, contractors and affiliated entities and as may be reasonably required to enforce the rights and remedies of Tenant under this Lease) and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any other person or entity performing such audit or inspection to keep such information in strict confidence. In the event Tenant in good faith disputes the accuracy of any Actual Statement on the basis of any such audit, such dispute must be alleged in reasonable detail in written notice to Landlord within one hundred eighty (180) days following the inspection of Landlord's records. If Tenant's Expenses Excess are determined to have been overstated or understated by Landlord for any calendar year, the parties shall within thirty (30) days thereafter make such adjustment payment or refund as is applicable, and if the sum of actual Building Operating Expenses, Project Operating Expenses and Building Tax Expenses are determined to have been overstated by Landlord for any calendar year by in excess of three percent (3%), then Landlord shall pay the actual and reasonable cost of Tenant's audit. Tenant shall pay in a timely manner as required by this Lease any amounts stated as due on the Actual Statement, provided that such payment shall not waive any right to audit and/or dispute by Tenant as set forth herein. Landlord shall retain its books and records relating to each Comparison Year's Operating Expenses and Tax Expenses for a period of at lease twelve (12) months following delivery of the applicable Actual Statement with respect thereto.

7. USE.

(a) Tenant shall use the Premises for the use or uses set forth in Section 1(j) above, and shall not use or permit the Premises to be used for any other purpose whatsoever. Tenant shall use and occupy the Premises in compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws, codes, rules, ordinances, statutes and other requirements (collectively, "Laws") (which Laws shall include, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, applicable fire-life safety codes of the City of Burbank, and to the extent disclosed by that certain preliminary title report with respect to the Site issued by Chicago Title Company dated as of May 1, 2002, Order No. 21049290-X52 (the "Title Report"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit G and incorporated herein by this reference, governmental requirements imposed in connection with the development or occupancy of the Building (collectively, the "Development Requirements"), including, without limitation, participation in any transportation management programs and compliance with any applicable air quality/trip reduction requirements). Tenant shall, upon written notice from Landlord, discontinue any use of the Premises which is declared by any governmental authority having jurisdiction to be a violation of applicable Laws or which is in violation of any Development Requirements disclosed by the Title Report. Landlord shall not hereafter voluntarily agree to non-mandatory governmental restrictions which would adversely affect (other than in a de minimis manner) the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises unless otherwise approved by Tenant, which approval may be granted or withheld in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion. Tenant shall make any and all alterations or improvements to the Premises required to comply with applicable Laws; except that Tenant shall not be required to make structural alterations or improvements to the Premises required to comply with applicable Laws unless such compliance is necessitated by Tenant's particular use of the Premises (other than mere general offices use) or Alterations to the Premises. Tenant shall comply with all rules, orders, regulations and requirements of any insurance authority having jurisdiction over the Project or any present or future insurer relating to the Premises or the Project. Tenant shall promptly, upon demand, reimburse Landlord for any additional premium charged for any existing insurance policy or endorsement required by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with the provisions of this Section 7 or by reason of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises. Tenant shall not do or permit anything to be done in or about the Premises which will in any manner unreasonably obstruct or interfere with the rights of other tenants or occupants of the Project, or injure them, or use or allow the Premises to be used for any unlawful purpose, nor shall Tenant cause, maintain or permit any nuisance in, on or about the Premises. Tenant shall not commit or suffer to be committed any waste in or upon the Premises and shall keep the Premises in a state of repair and appearance which is reasonably comparable to the overall quality of the Project. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, in no event shall the Premises be used for any medical or dental office uses. Tenant shall not place a load upon the Premises exceeding the average pounds of live load per square foot of floor area specified for the Building by Landlord's architect, with the partitions to be considered a part of the live load. Landlord reserves the right to reasonably prescribe the weight and positions of all safes, files and heavy equipment which Tenant desires to place in the Premises so as to distribute properly the weight thereof.

(b) (i) To Landlord's actual knowledge, as of the date hereof, no "Hazardous Materials" (as hereinafter defined) are being used upon or are located or stored at the Project in violation of any applicable Laws (other than subsurface groundwater contamination generally existing in the Burbank area). In the event that following the delivery of possession of the Premises, it is determined that any portion of the Project was, as of the delivery of possession of the Premises, in violation of applicable Laws respecting Hazardous Materials and the same has or may have a material and adverse affect upon the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises, then Landlord shall, at Landlord's expense, promptly thereafter cause the remediation of the same so as to cure such material and adverse affect. In addition, Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant from an against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, sums paid in settlement of claims and for reasonable attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees, but specifically excluding special, indirect or consequential damages including but not limited to claims for loss of use, anticipated profit or business opportunity, market-based stigma damages or business interruption, or mental or emotional distress or fear of injury or disease, except to the extent awarded to third parties and not Tenant or any of the "Tenant Parties", as hereinafter defined), to the extent arising (1) as a result of any Hazardous Materials now or hereafter located in, on, under or about the Building and/or Project unless caused to be so located in, on, under or about the Building and/or Project by Tenant, any subtenant of Tenant and/or any of their respective employees, agents, representatives, contractors, licensees or invitees; or (2) as a result of the breach by Landlord of any representation, warranty or covenant of Landlord set forth in this Section 7(b)(i). This indemnification of Tenant by Landlord includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions after a breach by Landlord or any clean-up, remedial, removal or restoration work. The covenants of Landlord under this Section 7(b)(i) shall survive the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease.

(ii) Except general office supplies typically used in an office area in the ordinary course of business, such as copier toner, liquid paper, glue, ink, and cleaning solvents, for use in the manner for which they were designed, in such amounts as may be normal for the office business operations conducted by Tenant in the Premises, neither Tenant nor any subtenant nor any of their respective employees, agents, representatives, contractors, licensees or invitees, shall use, handle, store or dispose of any Hazardous Materials in, on, under or about the Premises, the Building or the Project. In the event of a breach of the covenant contained in the immediately preceding sentence, or in the event Hazardous Materials are otherwise caused to be located in, on, under or about the Premises, Building or Project by Tenant, any of its subtenants, or any of their respective employees, agents, representatives, contractors, licensees or invitees

(collectively, any "Tenant Hazardous Materials"), Tenant shall be solely responsible for and shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, diminution in valuation of the Premises, Building or Project, and sums paid in settlement of claims and for reasonable attorneys' fees, consultant fees and expert fees) which arise during or after the Term as a result of any contamination directly or indirectly arising from the activities which are the basis for such breach. This indemnification of Landlord by Tenant includes, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions resulting from discovery of any Tenant Hazardous Materials or any clean-up remedial, removal or restoration work. Tenant shall promptly take all actions, at its sole cost and expense, as are necessary to return the Premises, Building and/or Project to the condition existing prior to the introduction of any such Tenant Hazardous Materials, provided Landlord's approval of such actions shall first be obtained (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and Tenant shall fully cooperate in connection with any such clean-up, restoration or other work, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. Furthermore, Tenant shall (immediately notify Landlord of any injury, test, investigation or enforcement proceeding by or against Tenant or the Premises concerning the presence of any Tenant Hazardous Materials, and Landlord shall immediately notify Tenant of any inquiry, test, investigation or enforcement proceeding by or against Landlord or the Building concerning the presence of any Hazardous Materials which are not Tenant Hazardous Materials and which may result in a material adverse affect upon use or operation of business from the Premises. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord, at Landlord's election upon reasonable prior written notice to Tenant, shall have the sole right, at Tenant's reasonable expense, to negotiate, defend, approve and appeal any action taken or order issued by any governmental authority with regard to any Hazardous Materials contamination which Tenant is obligated hereunder to remediate in the event Landlord reasonably believes that Tenant will not itself promptly undertake the actions required under this Lease with respect thereto. The covenants of Tenant under this Section 7(b) (ii) shall survive the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease.

(iii) As used in this Lease, "Hazardous Materials" shall mean asbestos, petroleum fuel, natural gas or any fraction thereof, and any hazardous or toxic substance, material or waste which is or become regulated by any local governmental authority, the State of California or the United States Government, including, but not limited to, any material or substance defined as a "hazardous waste," "extremely hazardous waste," "restricted hazardous waste," "hazardous substance," "hazardous material," or "toxic pollutant" under state or federal laws, statutes or regulations, including, without limitation, the California Health and Safety Code and/or under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42. U.S.C. § 9601, et seq.

8. TAXES ON TENANT'S PROPERTY. Tenant shall be liable and shall pay, before delinquency, all taxes levied against any personal property and/or trade fixtures placed by Tenant in or about the Premises, and all real property taxes on the value of any Tenant Improvements and Alterations in the Premises in excess of Forty-Five Dollars ($45.00) per square foot of Rentable Area in the Premises. If any such taxes on Tenant's personal property, trade fixtures, Alterations and/or Tenant Improvements are levied against Landlord or Landlord's property or if the assessed value of the Premises or the Project is increased by the inclusion therein of a value placed upon such personal property, trade fixtures, Alterations and/or Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall pay the amount thereof as invoiced to Tenant by Landlord within thirty (30) days following receipt of such invoice together with reasonable evidence of such allocation. If any such taxes are assessed against Landlord or Landlord's property, (a) Landlord shall give prompt notice of such assessment to Tenant, (b) Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant (at no cost, expense or liability to Landlord), to petition the appropriate tax authorities for the issuance of a separate statement or tax bill for such portion of the taxes as are applicable to Tenant's property, (c) Landlord shall allow Tenant, at Tenant's cost, to contest the amount of the taxes assessed with respect to Tenant's property to the extent permitted by applicable Laws, and (d) if Landlord obtains a refund or credit of any such taxes, Landlord promptly shall repay Tenant the portion of such refund allocable to the taxes paid by Tenant.

9. CONDITIONS OF PREMISES.

(a) If it is determined within thirty (30) days of Tenant's commencement of occupancy of the Premises (other than for purposes of construction of the Tenant Improvements upon the Premises) that work was required as of the completion of the Core and Shell Work to cause the Core and Shell Work mechanical or utility systems serving the Premises to then be in good working order without regard to the particular improvements (including, without limitation, Tenant Improvements) or Alterations thereafter to be made to the Premises for the benefit of Tenant (including, without limitation, distribution systems to be included as a part of such Tenant Improvements) or Tenant's particular use of the Premises (other than mere general office use), then Landlord shall cause the performance of such work at Landlord's sole cost and without inclusion of such cost in Operating Expenses.

(b) If it is determined at any time following the execution of this Lease that work was required as of the completion of the Core and Shell Work to correct any non-compliance of the Core and Shell Work with applicable Laws (including, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and other applicable Laws respecting accessibility and use by disabled persons), as then enforced by applicable governmental authorities and without regard to the particular improvements (including, without limitation, Tenant Improvements) or Alterations thereafter to be made to the Premises for the benefit of Tenant or Tenant's particular use of the Premises (other than mere general office use), then Landlord shall cause the performance of such work at Landlord's sole cost and without inclusion of such cost in Operating Expenses.

(c) Tenant acknowledges that except as specifically otherwise provided in this Lease and subject to express Landlord's representations, warranties and covenants set forth in this Lease (including, without limitation, as provided in Sections 9(a) and 9(b) above), (i) the lease of the Premises by Tenant pursuant hereto shall be on an "as is" basis, (ii) neither Landlord nor any employee, representative or agent of Landlord has made any representation or warranty with respect to the Premises or any other portion of the Project, and (iii) Landlord shall have no obligation to improve or alter the Premises or Project for the benefit of Tenant.

10. ALTERATIONS.

(a) Tenant shall not make or allow to be made any alterations, additions or improvements (collectively, any "Alterations") in or to the Premises during the Term without obtaining Landlord's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and shall be granted or withheld within ten (10) days following Tenant's request for consent accompanied by the information required under this Section 10); except, however, that Tenant may make interior, non-structural Alterations to the Premises costing less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) per work of Alterations and not (i) requiring the demolition of any existing improvements or (ii) affecting the roof, base Building mechanical or base Building utility systems serving the Premises or the exterior appearance of the Building, without Landlord's prior consent but upon at least ten (10) days prior written notice to Landlord. Any request for consent to Alterations requiring consent shall be accompanied by two (2) complete sets of plans and specifications for the proposed Alterations suitable for submission to Landlord's architect for evaluation and a statement of the identity of the contractor who will perform such Alterations. However, mere placement of Tenant's freestanding personal property or furniture items in the Premises shall not be deemed to constitute Alterations for purposes of this Section. If Landlord's consent is required for any Alterations, Tenant shall pay all reasonable out-of-pocket costs incurred by Landlord in the evaluation of the plans and specifications, including, but not limited to, Landlord's general contractor's, architects' and engineers' fees. In addition, as a condition to Landlord's granting of its consent to any Alterations, Landlord shall have the right to approve the contractor and subcontractors performing such Alterations, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed (provided that in any event Building standard subcontractors shall be used for work on Building roof and Building mechanical systems to the extent such work could result in an adverse affect on other Building occupants), and Landlord shall have the right to require that Tenant furnish assurances reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that all contractors and subcontractors who will perform such work have in force workers' compensation and such other employee and comprehensive general liability insurance in accordance with the standards set forth in Section 17(a) (but with a liability limit of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00)), and such other insurance as Landlord reasonably deems necessary to supplement the insurance coverage provided for in Section 17(a). All Alterations work to be performed by Tenant in the Premises requiring the consent of Landlord pursuant hereto, including the delivery, storage and removal of materials, shall be scheduled through and be subject to the reasonable supervision of Landlord, and shall be performed in accordance with any reasonable conditions or regulations imposed by Landlord. All Alterations work (whether or not Landlord's consent is required therefor) shall be completed in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with all applicable Laws. All Alterations requiring Landlord's consent shall be completed substantially in accordance with the approved plans and specifications therefor. Promptly following the completion of any Alterations where the preparation of "as-built" plans would be customary for the particular Alterations work performed, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord both a "hard" copy and a copy on CAD diskette of the "as-built" plans (including all working drawings) together with specifications for such Alterations. Promptly following the completion of any Alterations for which any governmental permit, approval or sign-off is required under applicable Laws, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a copy of signed-off permits, inspection cards or other documentation, if any is available given the nature of the Alterations work performed, evidencing governmental approval of completion of the work. Promptly following the completion of any Alterations requiring Landlord's consent, Tenant shall cause to be recorded in the Office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County a Notice of Completion in accordance with Section 3093 of the California Civil Code or any successor statute with respect to the work, and deliver a copy thereof to Landlord. Any supervision by Landlord of such Alterations shall in no event constitute Landlord's approval of the work so performed, nor shall Landlord be responsible for or have any liability with respect to such supervision or work. Copies of required building permits or authorizations shall be obtained by Tenant at its expense and Tenant shall furnish copies of same to Landlord. The construction of the Tenant Improvements shall be governed by Exhibit C to this Lease and the Tenant Improvements shall not be deemed to constitute Alterations for purposes of this Lease.

(b) Any mechanic's liens filed against the Premises or against the Building or the Project for work claimed to have been done for, or materials claimed to have been furnished to, Tenant will be discharged by Tenant, by bond or otherwise, within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof, at Tenant's sole cost and expense. All Alterations upon the Premises shall, unless Landlord elects otherwise by written notice to Tenant at the time of Tenant's installation of such Alterations, become the property of Landlord upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Premises, as part thereof, at the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease. If Landlord requires Tenant to remove any Alterations, Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, agrees to remove the identified Alterations on or before the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease and repair any damage to the Premises caused by such removal (or, at Landlord's option, Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord Landlord's reasonable estimate of the costs of such removal and repair prior to such expiration or termination).

(c) The initial Tenant Improvements made pursuant to this Lease (including, without limitation, any stairwells in the Premises) shall be the sole property of Landlord and shall not be removed by Tenant from the Premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all articles of personal property and all business and trade fixtures (which are susceptible of removal without material damage to the Premises and which are not permanently affixed to the Premises), machinery, equipment, furniture and removable partitions owned by Tenant or installed by Tenant at its expense in the Premises shall be and remain the sole property of Tenant and may be removed by Tenant at any time during the Term of this Lease and shall be removed by Tenant prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, provided that Tenant shall at its sole expense repair any damage caused by such removal. In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Tenant shall retain the right to all protected marks of Tenant or Tenant's affiliated entities and Tenant, at Tenant's cost, shall remove all personal property items bearing such marks prior to the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease and repair any damage resulting from such removal. If Tenant shall fail to remove all of its property from the Premises upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease for any cause whatsoever, Landlord may, at its option, either (i) treat such property as being conveyed to Landlord in which case the same shall automatically and without further action be deemed to be the sole property of Landlord, or (ii) remove the same in any manner that Landlord shall choose, and store or dispose of said property without liability to Tenant for loss thereof, and Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord upon demand any and all reasonable expenses incurred in such removal, including court costs, reasonable attorneys' fees and storage charges on such property for any length of time that the same shall be in Landlord's possession, provided that Landlord agrees that any personal property items not so removed by Tenant and bearing the protected marks of Tenant or any of Tenant's affiliates shall be treated by Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing clause (ii) and not the foregoing clause (i). In the alternative, Landlord may, at its option, sell said property, or any of the same, in such manner as Landlord determines to be appropriate in Landlord's reasonable business judgment, for such prices as Landlord may obtain and apply the proceeds of such sale to any amounts due under this Lease from Tenant to Landlord and to the expense incident to the removal and sale of such property. Tenant waives the benefit of any statutory provisions governing the treatment by a landlord of a tenant's personal property left in leased premises following the expiration of the lease, in the event Tenant fails to remove all of its property from the Premises upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, the parties hereby agreeing that the provisions of this Lease constitute the express agreement of the parties with respect thereto and are intended to govern such situation.

11. REPAIRS.

(a) From and after delivery of possession of the Premises to Tenant, Tenant shall keep, maintain and preserve the Premises in a first class condition and repair, and shall, as and when needed, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, make all repairs to the Premises and every part thereof (other than elements of the Premises to be maintained and repaired by Landlord pursuant to this Lease) and all personal property, trade fixtures and equipment within the Premises. Subject to the provisions of Section 10(c) above, upon the expiration of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in the same condition as when received, as improved by the Tenant Improvements, excepting permitted Alterations which Tenant is not required to remove pursuant to Section 10(b) above, reasonable wear and tear, casualty damage governed by Section 18 below, and damage which Landlord is obligated to repair under this Lease.

(b) Landlord shall keep, maintain and preserve in first-class condition and repair, the roof, structure and foundation, integrated Building utility and mechanical systems, parking facilities and other Common Areas and common systems of the Project, the costs of which shall be included in Operating Expenses (except as otherwise provided in this Lease); provided, however, that to the extent such maintenance and/or repair work is (i) attributable to items installed in Tenant's Premises which are above standard interior improvements (such as, for example, custom lighting, special HVAC and/or electrical panels or systems, kitchen or restroom facilities and appliances constructed or installed within Tenant's Premises), (ii) attributable to the installation, as a part of the Tenant Improvements, Tenant's Alterations or Tenant's trade fixtures, of items which are less than first-class in quality, workmanship or manner of installation, and/or (iii) subject to Section 17(d) below, necessitated by the negligence or wilful misconduct of Tenant or any of the "Tenant Parties" (as hereinafter defined), then Tenant shall pay to Landlord the reasonable cost of such maintenance and/or repairs. Landlord shall not be liable for any failure to make any such repairs or to perform any maintenance unless such failure shall persist for more than thirty (30) days (or such shorter period as may be reasonably appropriate under the circumstances) after written notice of the need for such repairs or maintenance is given to Landlord by Tenant. Subject to the provisions of Section 14(d), 18 and 19 below, there shall be no abatement of Rent and no liability of Landlord by reason of any injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the making of any repairs, alterations or improvements in or to any portion of the Project or the Premises or in or to fixtures, appurtenances and equipment therein. Tenant waives the right to make repairs at Landlord's expense under any law, statute or ordinance now or hereafter in effect (including, without limitation, Sections 1941 and 1942 of the California Civil Code).

12. LIENS. Tenant shall not permit any mechanics', materialmen's or other liens to be filed against the Project nor against Tenant's leasehold interest in the Premises on account of any work performed by or on behalf of Tenant or its employees, agents, invitees or contractors. Landlord shall have the right at all reasonable times to post and keep posted on the Premises any notices which it deems necessary for protection from such liens. If any such liens are filed and are not discharged by Tenant (by bonding or otherwise) within thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice thereof from Landlord), Landlord may, without waiving its rights and remedies based on such breach by Tenant and without releasing Tenant from any of its obligations, cause such liens to be released by any means it shall deem proper, including payment in satisfaction of the claim giving rise to such liens. Tenant shall pay to Landlord at once, as Additional Rent, upon notice by Landlord, any sums paid by Landlord to remove such liens.

13. ENTRY BY LANDLORD. Landlord and its employees, agents, representatives, consultants and/or contractors shall have the right from time to time upon reasonable prior notice to Tenant and with no more than reasonable frequency (which, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease respecting the manner of delivery of notices, may be oral or written notice), except that no such prior notice shall be required in the event of an emergency or for scheduled provision of services to the Premises, to enter the Premises to inspect the same, to supply any service to be provided by Landlord to Tenant hereunder, to show the Premises to prospective purchasers, encumbrancers or tenants, to post notices of non-responsibility, to alter, improve or repair the Premises or, to the extent reasonably necessary under the circumstances, any other portion of the Building, all without being deemed guilty of any eviction of Tenant and without abatement of Rent (subject to the provisions of Section 14(d) below), and may, in order to carry out such purposes, erect scaffolding and other necessary structures where required by the character of the work to be performed. Except in the event of an emergency, Tenant shall have the right to accompany Landlord during any such entry. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises resulting from any such entry (except in the event of an emergency Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises resulting from any such entry only to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances). Subject to the provisions of Section 14(d) below and Landlord's compliance with this Section 13, Tenant hereby waives any claim for damages for any injury or inconvenience to or interference with Tenant's business, any loss of occupancy or quiet enjoyment of the Premises, and any other loss in, upon and about the Premises or the Project. Landlord shall at all times have and retain a key with which to unlock all doors to and in the Premises. In the event of an emergency, Landlord shall have the right to use any and all means which Landlord reasonably may deem proper to open said doors in order to obtain entry to the Premises. Any entry to the Premises obtained by Landlord by any of said means shall not be construed or deemed to be a forcible or unlawful entry into the Premises, or an eviction of Tenant from the Premises or any portion thereof. It is understood and agreed that no provision of this Lease shall be construed as obligating Landlord to perform any repairs, alterations or decorations, except as otherwise expressly agreed herein by Landlord.

14. UTILITIES AND SERVICES.

(a) (i) Tenant shall be permitted access to the Premises and parking facilities serving the Premises during the Term on a twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week basis.

(ii) The Premises shall be furnished heating, ventilation and air conditioning ("HVAC"), at comfortable temperatures consistent with the operation of Comparable Buildings during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, and (if requested by Tenant by Tenant's use of the automated, telephone-activated system to be included as a part of such HVAC system) 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, excluding Holidays (such hours are collectively referred to herein as "Building Hours"). As used herein, "Holidays" shall mean New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday (observed), Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas and any other national or state holiday customarily recognized by operators of Comparable Buildings. If requested by Tenant by Tenant's use of the automated, telephone-activated system to be included as a part of such HVAC system, HVAC service shall be provided to all or certain of the HVAC zones within the Premises (as requested pursuant hereto) other than during Building Hours (for a minimum period of two (2) consecutive hours at a time except that such minimum period shall be one (1) hour at a time if immediately following Building Hours when HVAC service is provided), provided that Tenant shall pay to Landlord for each such hour of HVAC service during non-Building Hours, the then prevailing charge by Landlord for such service (which charge is currently $60.00 per hour per zone). Amounts payable by Tenant hereunder shall be paid as additional rent within thirty (30) days following tenant's receipt of Landlord's billing therefor. Tenant agrees to reasonably cooperate with Landlord, and to abide by all reasonable regulations and requirements which Landlord may prescribe for the proper function and protection of the Building HVAC system. Tenant agrees not to connect any apparatus, device, conduit or pipe to the Building chilled and hot water air conditioning supply lines without the prior written consent of Landlord (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Tenant further agrees that, unless otherwise approved by Landlord in advance in writing (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), neither Tenant nor its servants, employees, agents, visitors, licensees or contractors shall at any time enter mechanical installations or facilities of the Building or Project or unreasonably tamper with, touch or otherwise affect said installations or facilities. The reasonable cost of maintenance and service calls to adjust and regulate the HVAC system shall be charged to Tenant if the need for maintenance work results from either Tenant's unreasonably tampering with room thermostats, defects in the HVAC system as installed by Tenant, or Tenant's failure to comply with its obligations under this Section 14, or Tenant's heat or cold generation in excess of that which is customary for general office use.

(iii) The Premises shall be furnished electric power of five (5) watts connected load per square foot of Rentable Area for all electrical power (exclusive of Building standard lighting). Tenant agrees not to connect any apparatus or device with wires, conduits or pipes, or other means by which such services are supplied, for the purpose of using amounts of such services in excess of the capacity within the Premises without the written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, in the event Tenant operates from the Premises during times other than Building Hours and/or operates equipment requiring electrical usage in excess of that which is customary for the operation of standard general office use equipment, at Landlord's option, reasonable costs allocable to such non-Building Hours electrical use and/or excess electrical use (as equitably determined by Landlord) shall be reimbursed by Tenant to Landlord, as additional rent, on a monthly or other periodic basis as reasonably determined by Landlord, within thirty (30) days following Landlord's submission to Tenant of an invoice therefor.

(iv) The Premises shall be provided with water for drinking fountain, HVAC and, if applicable, restroom and/or kitchen uses.

(v) Landlord shall cause janitor service to be provided to the Premises after or before Building business hours on a five (5) days per week basis, excluding Holidays, in accordance with the specifications set forth on Exhibit I attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. (viii) Landlord shall allow Tenant to utilize the existing four inch (4") conduit and up to fifty percent (50%) of a second (2nd) existing four inch (4") conduit, both as currently located in the

In the event of any stoppage or interruption of services or utilities, Landlord shall use reasonable diligence to attempt to resume such services or utilities.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, during the Term of the Lease, if Tenant is actually prevented from using all or other than a de minimis portion of the Premises as a result of (i) an interruption in essential utility services to the Premises, or (ii) Landlord's actions in entering upon the Premises (other than in exercising any remedy or curing any Tenant failure to perform in accordance with this Lease), or (iii) inability to access the Premises due to the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, and which prevention from use is not cured by Landlord within three (3) consecutive days following Landlord's receipt of written notice thereof from Tenant stating Tenant's intent to receive an abatement (the number of days until cure of such prevention from use following Landlord's receipt of such notice from Tenant are referred to herein as "Prevention Days") or if Tenant incurs more than an aggregate of ten (10) Prevention Days in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months during the Term, then Monthly Base Rate and Tenant's obligation for payment of Tenant's Expenses Excess shall thereafter be equitably abated based upon the portion of the Premises which Tenant is so prevented from using and Tenant's obligation for payment of parking fees shall also be abated based upon the reduction in use of parking attributable to such prevention from use of all or a portion of the Premises, until and to the extent that Tenant is no longer so prevented from using such portion of the Premises as a result of the applicable item described in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of Section 18 below and not the provisions of this subsection (d) shall govern in the event of casualty damage to the Premises or Project and the provisions of Section 19 below and not the provisions of this subsection (d) shall govern in the event of condemnation of all or a part of the Premises or Project.

In case any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord or any Landlord Indemnified Parties by reason of any such Indemnified Claims, Tenant, upon notice from Landlord, agrees to promptly defend the same at Tenant's sole cost and expense by counsel approved in writing by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the foregoing provisions of this Section 15(a), (1) Tenant shall not be required to indemnify, defend and/or hold harmless Landlord for matters to the extent the same (x) arise out of the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord's employees, agents or contractors and (y) are not covered by the insurance maintained by Tenant (or would not have been so covered had Tenant maintained the insurance required to be maintained by Tenant under this Lease), and (2) in no event shall Tenant be liable under this Section 15(a) for special, indirect or consequential damages including, but not limited to, claims for loss of use, anticipated profit or business opportunity, market-based stigma damages or business interruption, or mental or emotional distress or fear of injury or disease except to the extent awarded to third parties and not Landlord or any of Landlord's employees, agents or contractors.

(b) Landlord shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant, its affiliated entities and their respective members, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns (collectively, the "Tenant Indemnified Parties"), from and against, any and all claims, damages, judgments, suits, causes of action, losses, liabilities, penalties, fines, expenses and costs, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (collectively, "Indemnified Claims"), to the extent (i) arising from occurrences in the Common Areas not resulting from the negligence or wilful misconduct of Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties, and/or (ii) arising out of the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord's employees, agents or contractors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the foregoing provisions of this Section 15(b), (1) Landlord shall not be required to indemnify, defend and/or hold harmless Tenant for matters to the extent the same (x) arise out of the negligence or wilful misconduct of Tenant or the Tenant

Parties, and (y) are not covered by the insurance maintained by Landlord (or would not have been so covered had Landlord maintained the insurance required to be maintained by Landlord under this Lease), (2) and in no event shall Landlord be liable hereunder for special, indirect or consequential damages including, but not limited to, claims for loss of use, anticipated profit or business opportunity, market-based stigma damages or business interruption, or mental or emotional distress or fear of injury or disease except to the extent awarded to third parties and not Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties. In case any action or proceeding is brought against Tenant or any Tenant Indemnified Parties by reason of any such Indemnified Claims, Landlord, upon notice from Tenant, agrees to promptly defend the same at Landlord's sole cost and expense by counsel approved in writing by Tenant, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(c) The obligations of the parties pursuant to this Section 15 shall be subject to the provisions of Section 17(d) below. Further, the provisions of this Section 15 shall survive the expiration of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease.

16. DAMAGE TO TENANT'S PROPERTY AND WAIVER. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, subject to the provisions of Section 14(d), Landlord or its agents and employees shall not be liable for (a) loss or damage to any property by theft or otherwise, or (b) any injury or damage to person or property resulting from fire, explosion, falling plaster, steam, gas, electricity, water or rain which may leak from any part of the Building or from pipes, appliances or plumbing work therein or from the roof, street, sub-surface or from any other place or resulting from dampness or any other cause whatsoever, except to the extent (i) resulting from the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or its contractors, agents, servants or employees or breach of this Lease by Landlord and (ii) not covered by the insurance maintained by Tenant (or which would not have been so covered if Tenant had maintained the insurance required to be maintained by Tenant pursuant to this Lease). Landlord or its agents shall not be liable for interference with light or other similar intangible property interests. Tenant shall give prompt notice to Landlord in case of fire or accidents in the Premises or the Building, and of defects discovered by Tenant therein or in the fixtures or equipment located therein.

17. INSURANCE.

(a) Tenant shall, during the Term hereof, at its sole cost and expense, keep in full force and effect the following insurance:

(i) All Risk insurance (including a vandalism and malicious mischief endorsement and sprinkler leakage coverage) upon all of Tenant's personal property, trade fixtures, furniture and equipment in the Premises, in an amount not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the full replacement cost thereof, subject to commercially reasonable deductible amounts.

(ii) Commercial general liability insurance coverage, including personal injury, bodily injury, broad form property damage, automobile, Premises operations hazard, contractual liability (covering the indemnity contained in Section 15), and products and completed operations liability, with a combined single limit of not less than Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00). Such insurance shall name Tenant as named insured thereunder and shall name Landlord and such of Landlord's Lienholders and ground lessors as are designated by Landlord, each as additional insureds thereunder, all as their respective interests may appear, shall contain a cross liability endorsement, and shall be primary and non-contributing with respect to any insurance maintained by Landlord. Such liability insurance shall insure Tenant and each additional insured for (1) the actions of Tenant and/or any of Tenant's employees, agents, representatives, contractors and/or invitees, (2) Alterations to, and occurrences in, the Premises, and (3) the use or operation of the Premises. Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Tenant, to require an increase in such liability insurance limit if consistent with then standard industry practices for prudent risk management by a tenant of comparably-sized premises within Comparable Buildings.

(iii) Workers' Compensation and Employer's Liability Insurance in form and amounts as required by applicable law.

(iv) Any other form or forms of insurance as Landlord and Landlord's Lienholders may reasonably require from time to time, in form, in amounts, and for insurance risks against which a prudent tenant of a comparable size and in a comparable business would protect itself given the economic feasibility of such insurance and consistent with then industry standards for prudent risk management by tenants of comparably-sized premises in Comparable Buildings.

The minimum limits of insurance set forth in this Section 17(a) are not intended to limit the liability of Tenant under this Lease. Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease to the contrary, the obligations of Tenant to provide increased or new insurance under Sections 17(a)(ii) and (iv) above, shall be limited to the extent the same is then customarily provided by comparable tenants of comparably sized premises and having a comparable use in Comparable Buildings and is then reasonably available on a commercially reasonable basis at a reasonable cost. All policies of insurance maintained by Tenant under this Section 17(a) shall be taken out with insurance companies holding a General Policyholders Rating of "A-" and a Financial Rating of "VIII" or better, as set forth in the most current issue of Best's Insurance Reports. As soon as practicable after the placing of the required insurance, but prior to the date Tenant takes possession of all or part of the Premises, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord certificates evidencing the existence of the amounts and forms of coverage required hereunder. No such policy shall be cancelable or reducible in coverage except after at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord if such a time frame for notice of a reduction or cancellation is afforded by the applicable carrier. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days prior to the expiration of such policies, furnish Landlord with certificates of renewals or binders thereof; provided that if Tenant fails to furnish the same, Landlord may, following fifteen (15) days' notice to Tenant (unless such failure is cured within such fifteen (15) day period), order such insurance and charge the reasonable cost thereof to Tenant. If Landlord properly obtains any insurance that is the responsibility of Tenant under this Section 17(a), Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a written statement setting forth the cost of any such insurance and showing in reasonable detail the manner in which it has been computed and Tenant shall promptly remit said amount to Landlord, as additional rent. Tenant may satisfy its insurance obligations under this Lease by blanket, umbrella and/or, as to liability coverage in excess of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), excess liability coverage, so long as the coverage afforded under the applicable policy is not reduced or diminished as a result thereof.

(b) During the Term, Landlord shall carry the following insurance:

(i) All Risk insurance (including a vandalism and malicious mischief endorsement and sprinkler leakage coverage, and also covering such other risks as Landlord or Landlord's lender may require) upon the Project (but excluding any property which Tenant is obligated to insure under Sections 17(a) above) in an amount not less than the full replacement cost thereof (excluding footings, foundations and excavation and commercially reasonable deductible amounts), and including commercially reasonable rental loss coverage for losses covered by such insurance policy. Such insurance policy shall include coverage of the Tenant Improvements (as modified from time to time by Tenant's Alterations) and the parties shall reasonably cooperate to allow for proper valuation thereof for insurance purposes. Such insurance policy or policies shall name Landlord as a named insured. The deductible under the All Risk policy shall not exceed such amount as Landlord determines to be appropriate given reasonable and prudent risk management practices.

(ii) Commercial general liability insurance coverage, including personal injury, bodily injury, broad form property damage, automobile, Premises operations hazard, contractual liability (covering the indemnity contained in Section 15), and products and completed operations liability, with a combined single limit of not less than Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00).

Landlord may satisfy its insurance obligations under this Lease by blanket, umbrella and/or, as to liability coverage in excess of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), excess liability coverage, so long as the coverage afforded under the applicable policy is not reduced or diminished as a result thereof.

(c) Other than as customary for general office use or to the extent permitted by this Lease, Tenant will not keep or use, sell or offer for sale, in or upon the Premises any article which may be prohibited by any insurance policy then in force covering the Building or the Project. If Tenant's occupancy or business in or upon the Premises, whether or not Landlord has consented to the same, includes such extraordinary activities for a first-class office building that the same results in any increase in premiums for the insurance periodically carried by Landlord with respect to the Building or the Project, Tenant shall pay as Additional Rent any such increase in premiums within thirty (30) days after being billed therefor by Landlord. In determining whether increased premiums are a result of a change in Tenant's use of the Premises, a schedule issued by the organization computing the insurance rate on the Project showing the various components of such rate, shall be conclusive evidence of the several items and charges which make up such rate.

(d) All policies of property damage insurance required hereunder shall include a clause or endorsement denying the insurer any rights of subrogation against the other party to the extent rights have been waived by the insured before the occurrence of injury or loss, if same are obtainable without unreasonable cost. To the extent such a waiver of subrogation is so obtainable, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall be liable to the other for any damage caused by fire or any of the risks insured against or required to be insured against under any insurance policy required by this Lease. Landlord and Tenant waive any rights of recovery against the other for injury or loss due to risks covered by or required to be covered by such policies of property damage insurance containing such a waiver of subrogation clause or endorsement to the extent insurance proceeds cover the injury or loss.

18. DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION.

(a) If the Premises shall be destroyed by fire or other casualty so as to render all or a portion of the Premises untenantable, then, for so long as Tenant is actually not occupying all or a portion of the Premises as a result of such prevention from use, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Tenant's obligation for payment of (i) Monthly Base Rent and Tenant's Expenses Excess, on a proportionate basis to the extent that Tenant's use of the Premises is so effectively prevented, and (ii) monthly parking fees, to the extent of the reduction in use of parking attributable to such inability to use all or a portion of the Premises; which abatement shall commence as of the date of the casualty and continue during the period of such repair or reconstruction, until such time as Tenant is no longer so effectively prevented from using the Premises. For all purposes of this Section 18, casualty damage shall be deemed to include, without limitation, any damage or destruction resulting from the occurrence of any Force Majeure Event.

(b) Except where Landlord or Tenant elects to terminate this Lease as hereinafter provided, Landlord shall use reasonable diligence to repair any casualty to the Premises, Building or Common Areas to the extent of available insurance proceeds (plus any deductible amounts included in Operating Expenses pursuant to Section 6(a) above) plus any funds delivered by Tenant to Landlord for purposes of performing such repairs (as hereinafter provided), subject to delays and adjustment of insurance proceeds (provided that Tenant shall be responsible for the repair of Tenant's furniture, fixtures, equipment and personal property). In the event of the total destruction of the Premises or Project, or in the event of the partial destruction of the Premises or Project which is the result of an event not required to be covered and actually not covered by the insurance to be maintained by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, or requiring repair for which Landlord is unable (despite the exercise of commercially reasonable efforts) to obtain necessary governmental permits or approvals without being subject to unreasonable expense or condition, then Landlord shall have the right to elect to terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant delivered within ninety (90) days following the occurrence of the casualty, provided that Tenant may elect to nullify such termination by agreeing that Landlord shall have no obligation for the repair of such damage in written notice delivered to Landlord not later than ten (10) days following Tenant's receipt of such termination notice. The proceeds from any insurance paid by reason of damage to or destruction of the Project or any part thereof insured by Landlord, shall belong to and be paid to Landlord. Subject to Section 22 below, Tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages from Landlord or Landlord's insurance provider for loss in the use of the whole or any part of the Premises and/or any inconvenience or annoyance by such damage, repair, reconstruction or restoration.

(c) In the event of any damage or destruction of all or any part of the Premises, Tenant agrees to immediately notify Landlord thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the Premises is wholly or partially damaged or destroyed within the final eighteen (18) months of the then remaining Term of this Lease (as the same may theretofore have been extended pursuant to this Lease), and if as a result of such damage or destruction Tenant is, or reasonably will be, denied access to or use of other than a de minimis portion of the Premises for the conduct of its business operations for a period of sixty (60) consecutive days (or such shorter period as is then remaining in the Term), Landlord or Tenant may, at its option, by giving the other notice no later than sixty (60) days after the occurrence of such damage or destruction, elect to terminate the Lease as to the affected portion of the Premises (provided that if operation for business by Tenant as to the unaffected portions of the Premises is not reasonably possible, then such termination may be made as to the entire Premises).

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, in the event of material casualty damage to the Premises or portion of the Project Common Areas reasonably required for operation of Tenant's business from the Premises (and where alternative Common Areas are not available) not resulting in termination of this Lease, Landlord shall deliver written notice to Tenant within ninety (90) days following such casualty damage or occurrence setting forth Landlord's good faith estimate of the time required for substantial completion of repair and/or restoration of the Premises or such Common Areas, and if such estimated time exceeds one (1) year from the occurrence of the casualty, Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease by written notice to Landlord within fifteen (15) days following Tenant's receipt of such notice. In addition, in the event such repair and/or restoration of the Premises or such portions of the Project Common Areas is not actually substantially completed within one (1) year period from the occurrence of the casualty (or such longer time period as may have been estimated in such notice to Tenant), Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, provided that if such repair and/or restoration is substantially completed within such thirty (30) day period, such election to terminate shall be nullified and this Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

(f) Landlord and Tenant hereby waive the provisions of any statutes (including, without limitation, Sections 1932(2) and 1933(4) of the California Civil Code) or court decisions which provide a party to a lease with a right to abatement of rent or termination of the lease when leased property is damaged or destroyed and agree that such event shall be exclusively governed by the terms of this Lease.

(including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation expenses) on account of such claim if it shall be made by Landlord's Broker or be based upon any statement, representation or agreement claimed to have been made by Landlord, and (b) Tenant shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Landlord from and against any and all liability, claims, demands, damages and costs (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation expenses) on account of such claim if it shall be made by Tenant's Broker or be based upon any statement, representation or agreement claimed to have been made by Tenant.

32. ROOFTOP EQUIPMENT.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Section 32 and the other provisions of this Lease respecting Alterations, but at no additional rental Cost to Tenant, Tenant shall have the non-exclusive right during the Term, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, to install within an area on the roof of the Building reasonably designated by Landlord, for Tenant's own use such microwave, satellite or DSS dishes and other antenna and/or rooftop equipment (collectively, the "Rooftop Equipment") , which Rooftop Equipment shall include, without limitation, the related vertical and horizontal utility and telecommunication lines ("Communication Lines") throughout the Premises which are compatible with the Building structure and/or mechanical and utility systems, which Rooftop Equipment shall be of such size, weight and quantity, and at such location as is reasonably approved by Landlord and Landlord's structural engineer. Subject to compliance with any screening requirements, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the reasonable fees of Landlord's structural engineer incurred in evaluating Tenant's plans for installation of the Rooftop Equipment and any modifications thereto, within thirty (30) days following submission by Landlord to Tenant of invoices therefor. Tenant's Rooftop Equipment shall not take up more than a pro rata amount of the roof space available for Rooftop Equipment, based upon the proportion of Rentable Area within the Building leased by Tenant.

(b) The installation, maintenance, repair, operation and removal (as hereinafter provided) of such Rooftop Equipment shall be completed in a good and workmanlike manner and in conformity with (i) plans and specifications therefor (the "Rooftop Equipment Plans") showing matters including, without limitation, equipment size, location, weight and composition, and Tenant's plan for assembly, installation, maintenance and removal of such equipment, which Rooftop Equipment Plans shall be subject to Landlord's prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and (ii) all applicable Laws, including, without limitation, Tenant's obtaining and keeping in force any necessary governmental permits or approvals for the operation of such Rooftop Equipment. Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant in Tenant's efforts to obtain any required governmental permits or approvals for Tenant's desired Rooftop Equipment in accordance with this Section 32. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the supporting structures for such Rooftop Equipment shall not penetrate the Building roof unless otherwise approved by Landlord in advance in writing, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed (provided that the parties hereby agree that it shall not be unreasonable for Landlord to condition such approval on Tenant assuming responsibility for any damage to the Building roof resulting therefrom or any work of repair or maintenance which would otherwise have been covered by a warranty which is voided or made inapplicable as a result thereof). At Landlord's option, all work of installation, maintenance, repair and other work affecting the roof in connection with the Rooftop Equipment shall be performed, at Tenant's sole but reasonable cost and expense, by Landlord or Landlord's affiliate, or by Landlord's designated roof contractor. Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, install screening of such Rooftop Equipment to prevent visibility from the street level, as Landlord may reasonably require, and any other screening of such Rooftop Equipment as may be required by applicable Laws. Tenant shall not be permitted to access the roof except when previously scheduled with Landlord or upon receipt of prior written approval from Landlord (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) or as may be reasonably required in the event of an emergency situation.

(c) The Rooftop Equipment shall not unreasonably disturb or interfere with the Rooftop Equipment and uses of other occupants at the Project, and, if applicable, the Rooftop Equipment shall comply with all noninterference rules of the Federal Communications Commission. Anything to the contrary contained herein notwithstanding, if, during the Lease Term, Landlord, in its reasonable judgment, believes that any of the Rooftop Equipment poses a material human health or environmental hazard and Landlord retains a qualified expert in such matters to review the situation and such expert concurs with Landlord's judgment, and such situation cannot be remediated or has not been remediated within ten (10) days after Tenant has been notified thereof, then Tenant shall immediately cease all operations of the applicable Rooftop Equipment until such situation is remedied. Tenant shall indemnify, defend (by counsel reasonably acceptable to Landlord) and hold harmless Landlord from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, damages, judgments, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) which Landlord may suffer or incur arising out of or related to the installation, use, operation, maintenance, replacement and/or removal of the Rooftop Equipment or any portion thereof (except to the extent resulting from Landlord's breach of its obligations under this Lease).

(d) At Landlord's option, Landlord shall have the right to require the relocation of the Rooftop Equipment to an alternate location on the Building roof so long as there is no material adverse affect upon the continuous operation of Tenant's Rooftop Equipment, and in the event Landlord so requires such relocation, Landlord shall be responsible for the reasonable costs of such relocation.

(e) Tenant shall be solely responsible for any liability, cost, claim, expense (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) and/or damage to the Building and/or the Project resulting from Tenant's installation, maintenance, operation, use, presence or removal of such Rooftop Equipment (except to the extent resulting from Landlord's breach of its obligations under this Lease). Tenant shall, at all times during the Term, pay to Landlord within thirty (30) days following demand therefor accompanied by reasonable evidence of such charges, all increased real estate taxes, insurance premiums or other charges which may be incurred by or charged to Landlord as a result of the installation, operation, maintenance and/or removal of the Rooftop Equipment. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of operation of the Rooftop Equipment, including, without limitation, any necessary utility services therefor. Tenant shall be entirely responsible for all maintenance of and repairs to the Rooftop Equipment so that at all times the Rooftop Equipment is in good condition and repair. Tenant shall maintain such insurance upon the Rooftop Equipment as Tenant is obligated to maintain with respect to the Premises pursuant to this Lease.

(f) Upon the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall remove the Rooftop Equipment and restore that portion of the Building and Project, including, without limitation, the Building roof, affected by the Rooftop Equipment, to the same condition as existed prior to such installation, subject to reasonable wear and tear, all at Tenant's sole cost and expense. In the event Tenant fails to so remove the Rooftop Equipment and restore the affected portions of the Building by such expiration or within thirty (30) days after such earlier termination (other than early termination due to Tenant's default), Landlord may, at its option and at Tenant's sole cost and expense, remove and store and/or dispose of the Rooftop Equipment and restore the affected portions of the Building and Project, in which event all amounts reasonably paid or incurred by Landlord in connection therewith shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within thirty (30) days following Landlord's submission to Tenant of reasonable evidence of the amount of such costs.

(g) Landlord makes no representation or warranty regarding the availability, feasibility or legality of the installation, operation, maintenance or removal of the Rooftop Equipment. In no event shall the installation, operation, maintenance or removal of the Rooftop Equipment in any manner adversely affect any warranty in effect with respect to any portion of the Project. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Tenant's inability to install, maintain, operate and/or remove the Rooftop Equipment, either pursuant to the terms hereof or for any other reason, shall not affect the remainder of this Lease and shall not entitle Tenant to any reduction in the Rent.

33. RIGHT OF FIRST NEGOTIAION. From and after the date hereof and throughout the Term of the Lease, Tenant shall have a right of first negotiation for the lease of any remaining leasable space located in the Building that becomes available for lease and is not then subject to an option or right of any existing occupant (the "Expansion Space"), which right of first negotiation of Tenant shall be exercisable as follows:

(a) If following the date hereof and prior to the expiration of the Lease Term, Tenant desires to expand the Premises leased by Tenant in the Project, then Tenant shall deliver written notice thereof to Landlord (such notice is referred to herein as a "Tenant Expansion Interest Notice"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 33, Landlord shall have no obligation to comply with the requirements of this Section 33 except during the one (1) year period following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of a Tenant Expansion Interest Notice. Tenant may give successive Tenant Expansion Interest Notices so long as each such Tenant Expansion Interest Notice is given after the date which is one (1) year following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of the then most recent such Tenant Expansion Interest Notice. If during the one (1) year period following Tenant's delivery to Landlord of a Tenant Expansion Interest Notice, Landlord desires to lease any Expansion Space to a third party (including by way of a response to an offer by a third party), then Landlord shall promptly thereafter provide Tenant with written notice ("Landlord's Notice") specifying the Expansion Space and the material terms and conditions upon which Landlord would be willing to lease such Expansion Space to Tenant (the parties hereby agreeing that the non-economic terms and conditions of any lease of the Expansion Space pursuant to this Section 33 shall be on the non-economic terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, except if otherwise specified in the Landlord's Notice or Tenant's Notice, as applicable, and agreed upon by the other party). For purposes hereof, "economic terms and conditions" shall be deemed to include, without limitation, rent, operating expenses, lease term, rent commencement date (including any rent abatement), cost of tenant improvements to be constructed by Landlord, amount of tenant improvement allowance to be provided by Landlord, and brokerage commissions payable.

(b) If Tenant desires to lease such Expansion Space, Tenant shall, within ten (10) days following receipt of such Landlord's Notice, provide Landlord with written notice thereof ("Tenant's Notice") either (i) agreeing to lease such Expansion Space on the economic terms and conditions set forth in Landlord's Notice, in which event Landlord shall thereafter prepare an amendment to this Lease, which shall be subject to Tenant's approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and shall, in any event, be granted or withheld within ten (10) days following submission thereof by Landlord; provided that Tenant's failure to respond within such ten (10) day period shall be deemed to constitute Tenant's election to rescind delivery of Tenant's Notice, in which event it shall be deemed that Tenant did not deliver a Tenant's Notice within the original ten (10) day period specified above), documenting Tenant's lease from Landlord of such Expansion Space on the terms and conditions set forth in Tenant's Notice and the non-economic terms and conditions set forth in this Lease except as otherwise provided in the Landlord's Notice, or (ii) offering to lease such Expansion Space on alternate terms and conditions set forth in Tenant's Notice.

(c) If Tenant fails to deliver such Tenant's Notice within such ten (10) day period specified in subsection (b) above, Landlord may proceed to lease such Expansion Space to any third party upon any terms and conditions Landlord desires in its sole and absolute discretion. If within such ten (10) day period Tenant delivers a Tenant's Notice pursuant to clause (ii) of subsection (b) above, Landlord shall promptly thereafter elect by written notice to Tenant either (1) to accept Tenant's offer, in which event Landlord shall thereafter prepare an amendment to this Lease (or a new lease, if reasonably appropriate), which shall be subject to Tenant's approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and shall, in any event, be granted or withheld within ten (10) days following submission thereof by Landlord; provided that Tenant's failure to respond within such ten (10) day period shall, at Landlord's option, be deemed to constitute Tenant's election to rescind delivery of Tenant's Notice, in which event it shall be deemed that Tenant did not deliver a Tenant's Notice within the original ten (10) day period specified above), documenting Tenant's lease from Landlord of such Expansion Space on the terms and conditions set forth in Tenant's Notice and the non-economic terms and conditions set forth in this Lease except as otherwise provided in the Tenant's Notice, or (2) to reject Tenant's offer, in which event Landlord shall have the right to lease such Expansion Space prior to the date which is nine (9) months following the date of Tenant's Notice, to any third party on economic terms and conditions not more favorable to such third party than as set forth in Tenant's Notice (other than a de minimis manner). If Landlord rejects Tenant's offer but (x) thereafter prior to the date which is nine (9) months following the date of Tenant's Notice, Landlord desires to lease such Expansion Space to any third party on economic terms and conditions which are more favorable to such third party than as set forth in Tenant's Notice (other than in a de minimis manner), or (y) thereafter following the date which is nine (9) months following the date of Tenant's Notice, Landlord desires to lease such Expansion Space to any third party (regardless of the proposed terms of such lease), Landlord shall first provide Tenant with a new Landlord's Notice setting forth the material terms and conditions upon which Landlord would be willing to lease such Expansion Space and Tenant shall again have ten (10) days following receipt of such notice to elect to lease such Expansion Space on the terms and conditions set forth in such new Landlord's Notice in the manner set forth herein.

(d) Landlord hereby represents and warrants to Tenant that no existing tenant of the Building has any existing expansion rights to any part of the Building which are prior to the rights of Tenant contained in this Section 33, and that no future tenant of the Building shall hereafter be granted any expansion rights as to Building that take priority over the expansion rights granted Tenant under this Section 33. Tenant's right of first negotiation pursuant to this Section 33 is personal to the original Tenant signatory to this Lease and shall not be transferable to any assignee or subtenant of Tenant (other than an assignee or subtenant who is a Permitted Transferee) or exercisable for the benefit of any subtenant of Tenant.

34. RELEASE OF FURTHER LIABILITY UNDER WARNER SPECIAL PRODUCTS LEASE. Promptly following the date hereof, Landlord shall cause the "landlord" under the "Warner Special Products Lease" (as hereinafter defined), and Tenant shall cause "Warner Special Products Tenant" (as hereinafter defined), as the "tenant" under the Warner Special Products Lease, to enter into a lease assignment agreement with Landlord which shall provide for the assignment of such Warner Special Products Lease effective as of the Commencement Date of this Lease from Warner Special Products to Landlord and the release of Warner Special Products from further liability under the Warner Special Products Lease accruing with respect to the period from and after the effective date of such assignment, without payment of any fee by Warner Special Products, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit Exhibit F and incorporated herein by this reference. As used herein, the "Warner Special Products Lease" shall mean that certain existing lease for premises containing an aggregate of approximately 16,477 rentable square feet located at Suites 800 (containing approximately 13,755 rentable square feet) and 730 (containing approximately 2,722 rentable square feet) within the building at 3500 W. Olive Avenue in Toluca Lake, California, between Toluca Lake Financial Centre, an affiliate of certain of the entities having an interest in Landlord, as "landlord", and Warner Special Products, Inc. ("Warner Special Products"), an affiliate of Tenant, as "tenant".

35. ADDITIONAL SPACE BONUS. Not withstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if at any time within five (5) years following the Commencement Date, an entity other than Tenant but controlled by, controlling or under material common control with Tenant leases any other space in the Project (collectively, an "Affiliate Entity Lease"), then Tenant shall be entitled, at Landlord's option either to a payment from Landlord or an offset against Tenant's Monthly Base Rent next thereafter coming due, in an amount (the "Affiliate Entity Lease Credit Amount") equal to two (2) times the initial monthly base rent paid by the tenant under such Affiliate Entity lease for a Affiliate Entity Lease having an initial term of ten (10) years or longer (provided that if such Affiliate entity Lease is for an initial term of less than ten (10) years, then such Affiliate Entity Lease Credit Amount shall be the product obtained by multiplying two (2) times the initial monthly base rent paid by the tenant under such Affiliate Entity lease by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of months in the initial term of such Affiliate Entity Lease and the denominator of which is one hundred twenty (120). Nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to obligate Landlord to enter into any such Affiliate Entity Lease or to require that Landlord reserve any space in the Project for any such Affiliate Entity Lease.

36. NET EFFECTIVE RENT PROTECTION. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if at any time prior to the date which is the earlier to occur of (a) twenty-seven (27) months following the Effective Date of this Lease, or (b) the date upon which Landlord has leased at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the Building, Landlord enters into a lease (the "Other Lease") for any other space within the Building (other than the "Excluded Space", as hereinafter defined) pursuant to which Other Lease the tenant thereunder is required to pay to Landlord a "Net Effective Rent" (as hereinafter defined) which, on a per square foot of Rentable Area basis, is less than the Net Effective Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease on a per square foot of Rentable Area basis, then the Monthly Base Rent under this Lease on a per square foot of Rentable Area basis being equal to the Net Effective Rent payable by the tenant under the Other Lease on a per square foot of Rentable Area basis. As used herein, the term "Net Effective Rent" shall mean the effective rental rate charged by Landlord for the premises leased calculated on a monthly per square foot of Rentable Area basis, using net present value analysis consistently applied, and accounting for all payments required to be made to and by Landlord under the applicable lease, including, without limitation, base rent, escalation of rent, passthrough of Operating Expenses and Tax Expenses, parking charges, tenant improvement costs and/or allowances, moving allowances, brokerage commissions and other lease costs and concessions. As used herein, the "Excluded Space" shall mean any portion of the Building designated by Landlord containing not more than fifteen percent (15%) of the Rentable Area of the Building.

37. HOLD SPACE.

(a) Tenant shall have the option, exercisable by written notice delivered to Landlord not later than April 1, 2003, to expand the Premises leased pursuant to this Lease to include additional space within the Building designated by Landlord (the "Hold Space") which shall be one contiguous area comprising not less than twelve thousand (12,000) square feet of Rentable Area provided that Tenant may not exercise such option when Tenant is in default under this Lease (after Tenant's receipt of written notice from Landlord and the expiration of any applicable cure period provided in Section 21(a) above unless Landlord has waived such default by Tenant in writing, provided that any such waiver by Landlord shall be granted or withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion). If Tenant exercises its option to lease the Hold Space pursuant hereto, Tenant may lease all or a portion of the Hold Space, provided that any portion of the Hold Space not so leased is demised in a manner reasonably acceptable to Landlord so as to be reasonably susceptible to lease to a third party without additional exiting requirements or other additional costs. If requested by Tenant in advance of the exercise of such option, Landlord shall promptly identify for Tenant where such Hold Space shall be located. Prior to June 15, 2002, such Hold Space shall be Premises leased, but from and after June 15, 2002, such Hold Space shall be located as designated by Landlord and need not be contiguous to the original Premises leased. In the event of Tenant's lease of the Hold Space pursuant hereto, the Hold Space shall be added to the Premises leased under this Lease and shall be subject to payment of the rental amounts (calculated on a per square foot of Rentable Area basis) and other terms and conditions of this Lease from time to time thereafter applicable (including, without limitation, prorated concessions) to Tenant's lease of the original Premises pursuant to this Lease. In the event of Tenant's lease of any such Hold Space pursuant hereto, the parties shall, at the request of either party, document such lease in accordance with the provisions hereof by an amendment to this Lease in a form reasonably acceptable to the parties, but Tenant's right to lease such Hold Space shall not be conditioned upon the execution of such amendment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the foregoing, from and after June 15, 2002, Landlord need not make the Hold Space available for lease by Tenant pursuant hereto if (i) a third party desires to lease space within the Building, (ii) but for other space leased to such third party and the Hold Space, there is no other available space for lease within the Building and (iii) all or a portion of the Hold Space is required for lease to such third party.

(b) Tenant's right to lease the Hold Space pursuant to this Section 37 is personal to the original Tenant signatory to this Lease and shall not be transferable to any assignee or subtenant of Tenant (other than an assignee or subtenant who is a Permitted Transferee) or exercisable for the benefit of any subtenant of Tenant.

38. ADJACENT BUILDING DEVELOPMENT. The parties hereby agree and acknowledge that certain entitlements have been received by Landlord for development of an additional building in the area located adjacent to the initial Site approximately as depicted on Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Adjacent Building") and that certain excavation work has been performed adjacent to the initial Site in connection with the possible development of such Adjacent to the initial Site in connection with the possible development of such Adjacent Building (the area of such existing excavation work in connection with the possible development of such Adjacent Building is referred to herein as the "Adjacent Building Excavation Area"). Nothing contained in this Lease shall be deemed to create any covenant, representation or warranty by Landlord whether or when such Adjacent Building shall be developed. However, Landlord hereby agrees that:

(a) In the event the construction of the Adjacent Building has not commenced by the date which is one (1) year following the Commencement Date or if once commenced, such construction of the Adjacent Building ceases (other than on a temporary basis), then Landlord shall promptly thereafter cause the Adjacent Building Excavation Area to be landscaped substantially in accordance with the plan attached hereto as Exhibit H and incorporated herein by this reference, Landlord shall not permit trailers or materials to be stored on the Adjacent Building Excavation Area until construction activity commences or resumes, as applicable, and Landlord shall cause the exposed visible surfaces of the shoring system to be painted.

(b) If constructed by Landlord, the Adjacent Building shall not be used for purposes inconsistent with the use of the Building which would have an adverse affect (other than in a de minimis manner) on the image or character of the Building as a first-class office building.

39. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Tenant shall faithfully observe and comply with the Rules and Regulations, a copy of which is attached hereto and marked Exhibit D, and all reasonable and non-discriminatory modifications thereof and additions thereto from time to time put into effect by Landlord and delivered in writing to Tenant, provided such modifications do not increase the monetary obligations of Tenant under this Lease or otherwise increase (other than in a de minimis manner) the obligations of Tenant under this Lease or diminish (other than in a de minimis manner) the rights of Tenant under this Lease. Landlord shall not be responsible to Tenant for the violation or non-performance by any other tenant or occupant of the Project of any of said Rules and Regulations, but Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to non-discriminatorily enforce the Rules and Regulations. In the event of any conflict between any Rule or Regulation and the other provisions of this Lease, the other provisions of this Lease shall prevail.

(b) This Lease shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Lease, all of the covenants, conditions and provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns.

(d) The voluntary or other surrender of this Lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation thereof or any other termination of this Lease, shall not work a merger, and shall, at the option of Landlord, operate as an assignment to it of any or all subleases or subtenancies. Tenant agrees that the delivery of keys to any employee of Landlord or to Landlord's agent or any employee thereof shall not be sufficient to constitute a termination of this Lease or a surrender of the Premises.

(e) In the event either party shall institute any action or proceeding against the other party relating to this Lease, the unsuccessful party in such action or proceeding shall reimburse the successful party for its disbursements incurred in connection therewith and for its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition to the foregoing award of attorneys' fees and costs to the successful party, the successful party in any lawsuit on this Lease shall be entitled to its attorneys' fees and costs incurred in any post-judgment proceedings to collect or enforce the judgment. This provision is separate and several and shall survive the merger of this Lease into any judgment on this Lease.

(f) The waiver by either party of any breach of any term, covenant or condition herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any term, covenant or condition herein contained, nor shall any custom or practice which may become established between the parties in the administration of the terms hereof be deemed a waiver of or in any way affect the right of either party to insist upon the performance by the other party in strict accordance with the terms of this Lease. The subsequent acceptance of Rent hereunder by Landlord shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Tenant of any term, covenant or condition of this Lease, other than the failure of Tenant to pay the particular Rent so accepted, regardless of Landlord's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Rent. No acceptance by Landlord of a lesser sum than that owed and due pursuant to this Lease shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest installment of such Rent or other amount due, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such installment or other amount or pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease.

(g) Neither party shall have any liability whatsoever to the other on account of the inability or delay of such party to fulfill any of its obligations under this Lease (other than obligations with respect to the payment of rent or any other monetary amounts owing under this Lease) by reason of any of the following to the extent not reasonably foreseeable and preventable or arising out of the negligence or wilful misconduct of the party otherwise obligated for performance of the obligation in question (collectively, any "Force Majeure Event"): fire, earthquake, explosion, flood, the elements, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of war, terrorist acts, strike, other labor trouble, interference of governmental authorities or agents, or shortages of fuel, supplies or labor resulting therefrom or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated for such performance. If this Lease specifies a time period for performance of an obligation by either party (other than payment of rent or any other monetary amounts owing by either party under this Lease), that time period shall be extended by the period of any delay in such party's performance caused by any of the events described above. In addition, except as specifically set forth in Section 14(d) above, Landlord shall have no liability whatsoever to Tenant on account of any failure or defect in the supply, quantity or character of electricity or water furnished to the Premises or the Project, by reason of any requirement, act or omission of the public utility or others furnishing the Project with electricity or water, or for any other reason beyond Landlord's reasonable control, provided that Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to fulfill its obligations or remedy such failure or defect as soon as reasonably possible.

(h) The words "Landlord" and "Tenant" as used herein shall include the plural as well as the singular. Words used in any gender include other genders and the neutral. The paragraph headings of this Lease are not a part of this Lease and shall have no effect upon the construction or interpretation of any part hereof.

(i) Submission of this instrument for examination or signature by Tenant does not constitute a reservation of or option for lease, and it is not effective as a lease or otherwise until execution by and delivery to both Landlord and Tenant.

(j) Time is of the essence with respect to the performance of every provision of this Lease in which time of performance is a factor. For purposes of this Lease, a "business day" shall mean any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a Holiday.

(k) The parties acknowledge that the content of this Lease and any related documents are confidential information, except that each party may make disclosures (collectively, "Permitted Disclosures") to such party's financial, legal, real estate, space planning and/or other consultants, to such party's existing or prospective investors or lenders, or prospective transferees of such party or such party's interest in this Lease and/or the Premises, or as may be required by applicable laws or reporting requirements. Each party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to keep such confidential information confidential (other than Permitted Disclosures). Tenant agrees that Landlord may issue one or more press releases or other public announcements respecting the execution of this Lease, which may include, without limitation, identification of Tenant provided that the form and substance of any such press release or public announcement shall be approved in advance by Landlord and Tenant (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(l) If any terms or provision of this Lease, or the application thereof to any persons or circumstances, shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Lease shall be valid and shall be enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

(m) Neither party shall record this Lease. However, upon request of either party, the parties shall execute (with notary acknowledgement) a memorandum of this Lease in a commercially reasonable form reasonably acceptable to the parties but not including reference to the rental amounts owing or other economic terms of this Lease (the "Memorandum of Lease"), which may be recorded by either party at such party's sole cost in the Official Records of Los Angeles County. The Memorandum of Lease may include reference to the covenants of Landlord in Section 38 above, and may be recorded as an encumbrance against the parcel containing the Adjacent Building Excavation Area. The provisions of this Lease shall control, however, in regard to any omissions from the Memorandum of Lease, or in respect to any provisions hereof which may be in conflict with the Memorandum of Lease. In the event either party so records the Memorandum of Lease, upon the expiration of the Term of this Lease or earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant shall execute and cause to be recorded in the Official Records of Los Angeles County, California, at the cost of the party who originally recorded the Memorandum of Lease, a quitclaim deed or other evidence of termination of this Lease in such form as is reasonably requested by Landlord. Tenant's obligation pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence shall survive the expiration of the Term or earlier termination of this Lease.

(n) In consideration of the benefits accruing hereunder, and notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, Tenant and all successors and assigns covenant and agree that, in the event of any actual or alleged failure, breach or default hereunder by Landlord or in the event of any other action against Landlord with respect to this Lease, their sole and exclusive remedy shall be against Landlord's interest in the Project and the proceeds from the sale thereof. Tenant and all such successors and assigns agree that the obligations of Landlord under this Lease do not constitute personal obligations of the individual partners, whether general or limited, members, directors, officers or shareholders of Landlord, and Tenant shall not seek recourse against the individual partners, members, directors, officers or shareholders of Landlord or any of their personal assets for satisfaction of any liability with respect to this Lease. Notwithstanding any contrary provision contained in this Lease, neither Landlord, any of the individual partners, members, directors, officers or shareholders of Landlord or any of their respective employees, agents or contractors shall be liable under any circumstances for any indirect or consequential damages or any injury or damage to, or interference with, Tenant's business, including but not limited to, loss of profits, loss of rents or other revenues, loss of business opportunity or loss of goodwill, in each case, however occurring.

(o) If in connection with obtaining financing for the Project any lender shall request modifications of this Lease as a condition to Landlord obtaining such financing, Tenant will not unreasonably withhold, delay or defer its consent thereto, provided that such modifications do not increase the financial obligations of Tenant hereunder or materially and adversely affect the leasehold interest hereby created or Tenant's rights hereunder.

(p) Whenever the consent or approval of the Landlord or Tenant is required under this Lease, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, unless a different standard for the granting or withholding of such approval or consent is specifically set forth in this Lease.

(q) At any time during the Term, Tenant shall upon ten (10) days prior written notice from Landlord, provide Landlord with a current financial statement and financial statements of the two (2) years prior to the current financial statement year. Such statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, if such is the normal practice of Tenant, shall be audited by an independent certified public accountant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if Tenant is a publicly traded corporation making annual 10-K filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Tenant may satisfy the requirements of this subsection with respect to delivery of financial information by delivery of Tenant's most recent annual report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(r) Landlord and Tenant each hereby represent and warrant that such party is duly qualified to do business in California and that the individuals executing this Lease on such party's behalf is/are duly authorized to execute and deliver this Lease on such party's behalf.

(s) EACH PARTY HERETO (WHICH INCLUDES ANY ASSIGNEE, SUCCESSOR, HEIR OR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF A PARTY) SHALL NOT SEEK A JURY TRIAL, HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY, AND HEREBY FURTHER WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO VENUE IN THE COUNTY IN WHICH THE BUILDING IS LOCATED, AND AGREES AND CONSENTS TO VENUE AND PERSONAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE IN WHICH THE BUILDING IS LOCATED, IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM BROUGHT BY ANY PARTY HERETO AGAINST THE OTHER ON ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS LEASE, THE RELATIONSHIP OF LANDLORD AND TENANT, TENANT'S USE OR OCCUPANCY OF THE PREMISES, OR ANY CLAIM OF INJURY OR DAMAGE, OR THE ENFORCEMENT OF ANY REMEDY UNDER ANY STATUTE, EMERGENCY OR OTHERWISE, WHETHER ANY OF THE FOREGOING IS BASED ON THIS LEASE OR ON TORT LAW. IN THE EVENT LANDLORD COMMENCES ANY SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS OR ACTION FOR NONPAYMENT OF MONTHLY BASE RENT OR ADDITIONAL RENT, TENANT SHALL NOT INTERPOSE ANY COUNTERCLAIM OF ANY NATURE OR DESCRIPTION (UNLESS SUCH COUNTERCLAIM SHALL BE MANDATORY) IN ANY SUCH PROCEEDING OR ACTION, BUT SHALL BE RELEGATED TO AN INDEPENDENT ACTION AT LAW. EACH PARTY REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THE EFFECT OF THIS SUBSECTION. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SUBSECTION SHALL SURVIVE THE EXPIRATION OF THE TERM OR EARLIER TERMINATION OF THIS LEASE.

(t) Any dispute between Landlord and Tenant pursuant to this Lease (other than Landlord's exercise of unlawful detainer remedies) shall, at the option of either party, be heard by a reference pursuant to the provisions of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 638 et seq., for a determination to be made which shall be binding upon the parties as if tried before a court or jury. The parties agree specifically as to the following: (i) within five (5) business days after service of a demand by a party hereto, the parties shall agree upon a single referee who shall then try all issues, whether of fact or law, and then report a finding or judgment thereon, provided that if the parties are unable to agree upon a referee either party may seek to have one appointed, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 640, by the presiding judge of the Los Angeles County Superior Court; (ii) the compensation of the referee shall be such charge as is customarily charged by the referee for like services, and the cost of such proceedings shall initially be borne equally by the parties; provided, however, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled, in addition to all other costs, to recover its contribution for the cost of the reference as an item of damages and/or recoverable costs; (iii) if a reporter is requested by either party, then a reporter shall be present at all proceedings, and the fees of such reporter shall be borne by the party requesting such reporter and such fees shall be an item of recoverable costs, provided that only a party shall be authorized to request a reporter; (iv) the referee shall apply all California Rules of Procedure and Evidence and shall apply the substantive law of California in deciding the issues to be heard, and notice of any motions before the referee shall be given, and all matters shall be set at the convenience of the referee; (v) the referee's statement of decision under California Code of Civil Procedure Section 644 shall stand as the judgment of the court, subject to appellate review as provided by the laws of the State of California; (vi) the parties agree that they shall in good faith endeavor to cause any such dispute to be decided within four (4) months; and the location and date of hearing for any proceeding shall be determined by agreement of the parties and the referee, or if the parties cannot agree, then by the referee; and (vii) the referee shall have the power to award damages and all other relief.

(u) Tenant may install, maintain, replace, remove or use any communications or computer wires and cables (collectively, the "Lines") at the Project in or serving the Premises, provided that (i) Tenant shall obtain Landlord's prior written consent, use an experienced and qualified contractor approved in writing by Landlord, and comply with all of the other provisions of this Lease respecting the use of the Premises and the making of Alterations, (ii) an acceptable number of spare Lines and space for additional Lines shall be maintained for existing and future occupants of the Project, as determined in Landlord's reasonable opinion, (iii) the Lines therefor (including riser cables) shall be appropriately insulated to prevent excessive electromagnetic fields or radiation, and shall be surrounded by a protective conduit reasonably acceptable to Landlord, (iv) any new or existing Lines servicing the Premises shall comply with all applicable governmental laws and regulations, (v) as a condition to permitting the installation of new Lines, Landlord may require that Tenant remove existing Lines previously installed by Tenant located in or serving the Premises and repair any damage in connection with such removal, and (vi) Tennant shall pay all costs in connection therewith. Landlord reserves the right to require that Tenant remove any Lines located in or serving the Premises which are installed in violation of these provisions, or which are at any time in violation of any Laws or represent a dangerous or potentially dangerous condition. Landlord further reserves the right to required that Tenant remove any and all Lines located in or serving the Premises upon the expiration of the Lease Term or upon any earlier termination of this Lease.

(v) This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but any number of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(w) This Lease contains all of the agreements of the parties hereto with respect to any matter covered or mentioned in this Lease, and no prior agreement or understanding pertaining to any such matter shall be effective for any purpose. No provisions of this Lease may be amended or added to except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties hereto or their respective successors-in-interest.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Lease as of the date first above written.

EXHIBIT C

IMPROVEMENT OF THE PREMISES

1. AS IS LEASE. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Lease of which this Exhibit C is a part, the lease of the Premises (including, without limitation, HVAC, fire/life safety and other utility and mechanical systems within the Premises) by Tenant pursuant hereto shall be on an entirely "as is" basis. However, promptly following the date hereof in accordance with Landlord's construction schedule (but in any event prior to the Commencement Date), Landlord shall substantially complete such of the Common Areas of the Project as are reasonably required for the operation of Tenant's business from the Premises without material interference resulting from any incomplete portion of such Common Areas. Landlord heretofore performed certain "Core and Shell Work" for the Building substantially in accordance with those certain plans as more particularly described on Schedule 1 attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (the "Core and Shell Work Plans"). Landlord shall promptly hereafter perform the following work (collectively, the "Core and Shell Punch List Work"): (a) the work specified in those certain Punch Lists dated May 9, 2002 and May 20, 2002, prepared by Contractor, (b) the work specified in the certain Pre-Construction Site Survey prepared by HLW International LLP dated May 7, 2002 (except that it is agreed that no further wainscot need be installed in the first floor janitorial closet), and (c) painting the western exit staircase (i.e., walls, ceiling and handrails), providing physical barrier for second floor balcony (although the parties agree that installation of such barrier need not be completed until Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements), and painting the visible roofing material on the fourth floor balcony "tan". The Core and Shell Work (without regard to any particular Tenant Improvements installed by Tenant) shall meet the noise specifications set forth in Schedule 2 attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part (including, without limitation, Section 3(a) below in this Exhibit C), in the event that hereafter during the course of Tenant's construction of the Tenant Improvements, it is determined that any of the Core and Shell Work Plans (other than Core and Shell Punch List Work already completed), then (i) Landlord shall promptly, at Landlord's sole cost, perform such corrective work to conform the Core and Shell Work to the Core and Shell Work Plans, (ii) Landlord shall repair any damage to the Tenant Improvements resulting from Landlord's performance of such corrective work, and (iii) the period of any delay in the Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements resulting from Landlord's performance of such corrective work and/or repair work under the foregoing clauses (i) and/or (ii) shall constitute a Landlord Delay.

2. TENANT IMPROVEMENTS.

(a) Tenant Improvement Allowance. Tenant shall be solely responsible for all costs of the initial construction of Tenant's improvements which are permanently affixed to the Premises (the "Tenant Improvements") and Landlord shall not be required to provide any allowance to Tenant in connection therewith; except only that within thirty (30) days following Tenant's request therefor following Tenant's commencement of physical construction of the Tenant Improvements within the Premises, Landlord shall pay to Tenant an allowance in an amount equal to Three Dollars ($3.00) per square foot of Rentable Area in the Premises ("Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance"). At Tenant's option, Tenant may apply the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance to the rental charges first owed under this Lease. Tenant shall indicate whether Tenant would like to receive the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance in cash or in the form of a rent credit at the time of Tenant's request for the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance, and, should Tenant elect to receive a rent credit, then Landlord will not pay the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance, and, should Tenant elect to receive a rent credit, then Landlord will not pay the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance to Tenant, and Tenant instead shall apply the Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance to the first rental charges owed under this Lease until the entire Tenant Improvement Cash Allowance amount has been applied.

(b) Standard Tenant Improvement Package. Landlord has established specifications (the "Specifications") for some of the Building standard components which Tenant shall construct in the Premises, which Specifications are as described in Schedule 3 attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. Tenant hereby agrees that it has reviewed and approves the Specifications. The quality of the Tenant Improvements must at a minimum comply with the applicable Specifications, provided that if required by Landlord as to both (i) the Tenant Improvements constructed in any portion of the Premises which occupies a portion of a floor, rather than a full floor, of the Building, and (ii) window coverings, such items shall meet the Specifications.

3. CONSTRUCTION DRAWINGS.

(a) Selection of Architect/Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain an architect/space planner (the "Architect") approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, to prepare the Construction Drawings. Tenant shall retain engineering consultants (the "Engineers") designated by Landlord or otherwise reasonably approved by Landlord to prepare all plans and engineering working drawings relating to the structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, life-safety, and sprinkler work in the Premises in connection with the Tenant Improvements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the foregoing, Landlord hereby pre-approves retention of HLW International LLP, Syska Hennessey Group, Martin Newsome Associates and Lighting Design Alliance. The plans and drawings to be prepared by Architect and the Engineers hereunder shall be known collectively as the "Construction Drawings". All Construction Drawings shall be professionally prepared consistent with drawings for comparable construction projects at Comparable Buildings, using one-eighth (1/8th) inch scale CAD drawings (or an alternate standard reasonably acceptable to Landlord). Landlord's review of the Construction Drawings as set forth in this Section 3, shall be for its sole purpose and shall not imply Landlord's review of the same, or obligate Landlord to review the same, for quality, design, compliance with Applicable Law or other like matters. Accordingly, notwithstanding that any Construction Drawings are reviewed by Landlord or its space planner, architect, engineers and consultants, and notwithstanding any advice or assistance which may be rendered to Tenant by Landlord or Landlord's space planner, architect, engineers, and consultants, Landlord shall have no liability whatsoever in connection therewith and shall not be responsible for any omissions or errors contained in the Construction Drawings, and Tenant's waiver and indemnity set forth in the Lease shall specifically apply to the Construction Drawings, except to the extent that such errors in the Construction Drawings result from errors contained in the Core and Shell Work Plans and not theretofore identified by the parties. Furthermore, Tenant and Architect shall use commercially reasonable efforts and diligence to verify, in the field, the dimensions and conditions as shown on the relevant portions of the Core and Shell Work Plans, so as to mitigate any costs Landlord may incur pursuant to this Exhibit as a result of errors in the Core and Shell Work Plans.

(b) Final Space Plan. The parties hereby approve of the final space plans for the Tenant Improvements which are attached as Exhibit A to the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part (the "Final Space Plan").

(c) Final Working Drawings. Within thirty (30) days after the full execution and delivery of this Lease by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall promptly cause the Architect and the Engineers to complete the architectural and engineering drawings for the Premises, and Architect shall compile a fully coordinated set of architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical and plumbing working drawings in a form which is complete to allow the general contractor or subcontractors to bid on the work and to obtain all applicable permits (collectively, the "Final Working Drawings") and shall submit the same to Landlord for Landlord's approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Tenant shall supply Landlord with four (4) copies signed by Tenant of such Final Working Drawings. Landlord shall advise Tenant with specificity within ten (10) business days after Landlord's receipt of the Final Working Drawings for the Premises whether or not Landlord approves of such proposed Final Working Drawings. The parties hereby agree that it shall be reasonable for Landlord to withhold approval of the proposed final Working Drawings if the Final Working Drawings are inconsistent with the approved Final Space Plan, existing Building systems or improvements, applicable Laws, or first-class office building use for the permitted uses under this Lease or are incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised of Landlord's disapproval, Tenant shall promptly cause the Final Working Drawings to be revised to correct any deficiencies or other matters Landlord may reasonably require.

(d) Approved Working Drawings. The Final Working Drawings shall be approved by Landlord (the "Approved Working Drawings") prior to the commencement of construction of the Premises by Tenant. Within five (5) days after approval by Landlord of the Final Working Drawings, Tenant shall submit the same to the City of Burbank for all applicable building permits. Subject to the express representations and warranties of Landlord set forth in the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part, Tenant hereby agrees that neither Landlord nor Landlord's consultants shall be responsible for obtaining any building permit or certificate of occupancy for the Premises and that obtaining the same shall be Tenant's responsibility; provided, however, that Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in executing permit applications and performing other ministerial acts reasonably necessary to enable Tenant to obtain any such permit or certificate of occupancy and perform its obligations under Sections 9(a) and 9(b) of the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part. No changes (other than customary, de minimis "field changes"), modifications or alterations in the Approved Working Drawings may be made without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(e) 60% Construction Drawings. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the foregoing, the parties hereby agree that Tenant shall have the right to prepare customary "60%" construction drawings for the Tenant Improvements based upon the approved Final Space Plan (the "60% Construction Drawings") and submit four (4) copies of the same to Landlord, signed by Tenant, for Landlord's prior approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). If so submitted, Landlord shall advise Tenant with specificity with ten (10) business days after Landlord's receipt of the 60% Construction Drawings whether or not Landlord approves of such proposed 60% Construction Drawings. The parties hereby agree that it shall be reasonable for Landlord to withhold approval of the proposed 60% Construction Drawings if the 60% Construction Drawings are inconsistent with the approved Final Space Plan, existing Building systems or improvements, applicable Laws, or first-class office building use for the permitted uses under this Lease or are incomplete in any respect. If Tenant is so advised of Landlord's disapproval, Tenant shall promptly cause the 60% Construction Drawings to be revised to correct any deficiencies or other matters Landlord may reasonably require. Once the 60% Construction Drawings are approved by Landlord and Tenant, subject to compliance with applicable Laws (including, without limitation, any permitting requirements of the City of Burbank), Tenant may commence performance of the Tenant Improvements on the basis thereof prior to achieving Approved Working Drawings so long as Tenant is diligently proceeding to achieve the Approved Working Drawings, subject to compliance with the other provisions of the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part.

4. CONSTRUCTION OF THE TENANT IMPROVEMENTS.

(a) Tenant's Selection of Contractors.

(i) The Contractor. Tenant shall retain a licensed general contractor (the "Contractor"), as contractor for the construction of the Tenant Improvements, by a process of competitive bidding (at the schematic design stage) among not less than three (3) qualified, licensed general contractors reasonably approved by Landlord and reasonably experienced in the performance of work comparable to the work of the Tenant Improvements in buildings comparable to the Building, or otherwise reasonably approved by Landlord, provided that Krismar Construction Company ("Krismar"), an affiliate of certain of the entities holding an interest in Landlord, shall have the right (but not the obligation) to be one of the bidding general contractors; provided, further, that Tenant need not select Krismar even if Krismar is the lowest bidder.

(ii) Tenant's Agents. All subcontractors, laborers, materialmen, and suppliers used by Tenant (such subcontractors, laborers, materialmen, and suppliers, and the Contractor to be known collectively as "Tenant's Agents") must be approved in writing by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided that, at Landlord's option, Tenant must contract with Landlord's base building subcontractors for any roof or mechanical work in the Premises provided that the fees charged by such subcontractors shall be commercially reasonable and competitive for the work performed as compared with comparably experienced licensed subcontractors in the Burbank area.

(b) Construction of Tenant Improvements by Tenant's Agents.

(i) Construction Contract; Cost Budget. Once a preliminary budget has been established for the construction of the Tenant Improvements, Tenant shall submit such preliminary budget to Landlord for informational purposes. Prior to Tenant's commencement of construction of the Tenant

Improvements, Tenant shall submit to Landlord (1) the construction contract and general conditions with Contractor (the "Contract") and the bids of the Contractor and all subcontractors for major trades and materials suppliers for construction of the Tenant Improvements, for Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; and (2) a detailed breakdown, by trade, of the final costs to be incurred and/or which have been incurred for costs of design, purchase of materials for, permitting and construction of the Tenant Improvements (the "Final Costs") and a construction budget (the "Construction Budget") based upon such Final Costs.

(ii) Tenant's Agents.

(1) Landlord's General Conditions for Tenant's Agents and Tenant Improvement Work. Tenant's and Tenant's Agent's construction of the Tenant Improvements shall comply with the following: (A) the Tenant Improvements shall be constructed in strict accordance with the Approved Working Drawings; (B) Tenant and Tenant's Agents shall not, in any way, interfere with, obstruct or delay, any other work in the Building; (C) Tenant's Agents shall submit schedules of all work relating to the Tenant's Improvements to Contractor and Contractor shall, within five (5) business days of receipt thereof, inform Tenant's Agents of any changes which are necessary thereto, and Tenant's Agents shall adhere to such corrected schedule; and (D) Tenant shall abide by all reasonable and non-discriminatorily enforced rules made by Landlord with respect to the use of freight, loading dock and service elevators, storage of materials, coordination of work with the contractors of other tenants, and any other matter in connection with the construction of the Tenant Improvements. However Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant in the performance of the Tenant Improvements so as to facilitate use of the shared loading dock and service elevators, storage of materials and coordination of work in a manner which endeavors to minimize the extent of any delay in the performance of the Tenant Improvements resulting from use of such shared facilities and the multi-tenant nature of the Building.

(2) Indemnity. Tenant's indemnity of Landlord as set forth in the Lease shall also apply with respect to any and all costs, losses, damages, injuries and liabilities related in any way to any act or omission of Tenant or Tenant's Agents, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them, or in connection with Tenant's not-payment of any amount arising out of the Tenant Improvements and/or Tenant's disapproval of all or any portion of any request for payment.

(3) Requirements of Tenant's Agents. Each of Tenant's Agents shall guarantee to Tenant and for the benefit of Landlord that the portion of the Tenant Improvements for which it is responsible shall be free from any defects in workmanship and materials for a period of not less than one (1) year from the date of completion thereof. Each of Tenant's Agents shall be responsible for the replacement or repair, without additional charge, of all work done or furnished in accordance with its contract that shall become defective within (1) year after the later to occur of (i) completion of the work performed by such contractor or subcontractors and (ii) the Commencement Date. The correction of such work shall include, without additional charge, all additional expenses and damages incurred in connection with such removal or replacement of all or any part of the Tenant Improvements, and/or the Building and/ or common areas that may be damaged or disturbed thereby. All such warranties or guarantees as to materials or workmanship of or with respect to the Tenant Improvements shall be contained in the Contract or subcontract and shall be written such that such guarantees or warranties shall inure to the benefit of both Landlord and Tenant, as their respective interests may appear, and can be directly enforced by either. Tenant covenants to give to Landlord any assignment or other assurances which may be necessary to effect such right of direct enforcement upon the occurrence of any uncured event of default by Tenant or earlier termination of the Lease of which this Exhibit is a part.

(4) Insurance Requirements.

(A) General Coverages. All of Tenant's Agents shall carry worker's compensation insurance covering all of their respective employees, and shall also carry public liability insurance, including property damage, all in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in the Lease provided that the limits of such insurance may be lower than the minimum limits of coverage required of Tenant to the extent such lower limits are commercially reasonable and customary given the work being performed by the applicable Tenant's Agent, and the policies therefor shall insure Landlord and Tenant, as their interests may appear, as well as the Contractor and subcontractors.

(B) Special Coverages. Tenant shall carry "Builder's All Risk" insurance in an amount reasonably approved by Landlord covering the construction of the Tenant Improvements, and such other insurance as Landlord may reasonably require, it being understood and agreed that the Tenant Improvements shall be insured by Landlord pursuant to the Lease immediately upon completion thereof. Such insurance shall be in amounts and shall include such extended coverage endorsements as may be reasonably required by Landlord. To the extent customarily maintained by first-class contractors, subcontractors or materialmen (as applicable) performing comparable work in Comparable Buildings, all of Tenant's Agents shall carry excess liability and Products and Completed Operation Coverage insurance, each in amounts not less than $1,000,000 per incident, $2,000,000 in aggregate, and in form and with companies as are required to be carried by Tenant as set forth in Section 17 of the Lease of which this Exhibit C is a part.

(C) General Terms. Certificates for all insurance carried pursuant to this Section 4(b) (ii) (4) shall be delivered to Landlord before the commencement of construction of the Tenant Improvements and before the Contractor's equipment is moved onto the site. All such policies of insurance must contain a provision that the company writing said policy will give Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of any cancellation or lapse of the effective date or any reduction in the amounts of such insurance. In the event that the Tenant Improvements are damaged by any cause during the course of the construction thereof, Tenant shall immediately repair the same at Tenant's sole cost and expense; except that if such damage is caused by the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or Landlord's employees, agents or contractors and is not covered by the insurance maintained by Tenant (and would not have been so covered had Tenant maintained the insurance required to be maintained by Tenant under this Lease), then Landlord shall perform such required repair work at Landlord's sole cost. Tenant's Agents shall maintain all of the foregoing insurance coverage in force until the Tenant Improvements are fully completed and accepted by Landlord, except for any Products and Completed Operation Coverage insurance required by Landlord of the Contractor, which is to be maintained for five (5) years following completion of the work and acceptance by Landlord and Tenant. All insurance, except Workers' Compensation, maintained by Tenant's Agents shall preclude subrogation claims by the insurer against anyone insured thereunder. Such insurance shall provide that it is primary insurance as respects the owner and that any other insurance maintained by owner is excess and noncontributing with the insurance required hereunder. The requirements for the foregoing insurance shall not derogate from the provisions for indemnification of Landlord by Tenant under Section 4(b) (ii) (2) above.

(iii) Governmental Compliance. The Tenant Improvements shall comply in all respects with the following: (1) all applicable Laws and other state, federal, city or quasi-governmental laws, codes, ordinances and regulations, as each may apply according to the rulings of the controlling public official, agent or other person; (2) applicable standards of the American Insurance association and the National Electrical Code; and (3) building material manufacturer's specifications.

(iv) Inspection by Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to inspect the Tenant Improvements at all reasonable times, provided however, that Landlord's failure to inspect the Tenant Improvements shall in no event constitute a waiver of any of Landlord's rights hereunder nor shall Landlord's inspection of the Tenant Improvements constitute Landlord's approval of the same. Tenant shall have the right to accompany Landlord during any such entry. Should Landlord reasonably disapprove any portion of the Tenant Improvements based upon a failure to comply with the Approved Working Drawings, Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing of such disapproval and shall specify the items disapproved. Any defects or deviations in, and/or disapproval by Landlord of, the Tenant Improvements shall be rectified by Tenant at no expense to Landlord.

(v) Meetings. Commencing upon the execution of this Lease (or later as reasonably determined by Tenant), Tenant shall hold weekly meetings at a reasonable time, with the Architect and the Contractor regarding the progress of the preparation of Construction Drawings and construction of the Tenant Improvements, which meetings shall be held at a location reasonably acceptable to Landlord, and Landlord and/ or its agents shall receive prior notice of, and shall have the right to attend, all such meetings. One such meeting each month shall include the review of Contractor's current request for payment.

(c) Notice of Completion; Updated Approved Working Drawings. Within thirty (30) days following the commencement of Tenant's occupancy of the Premises (other than for purposes of construction of the Tenant Improvements), (i) Tenant shall cause the Architect and Contractor to update the Approved Working Drawings as necessary to reflect all changes made to the Approved Working Drawings during the course of construction (except customary, minor field changes shown on consultant's sketches provided to Landlord); (ii) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord properly executed unconditional final mechanics lien releases in compliance with California Civil Code Section 3262 (d) (4) from all of Tenant's Agents for labor rendered and materials delivered to the Premises in connection with the Tenant Improvements, and Tenant shall cause a Notice of Completion to be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the County of Los Angeles in accordance with Section 3093 of the Civil Code of the State of California or any successor statute, and deliver a copy thereof to Landlord, provided that if Tenant fails to do so within a reasonable period after receipt of written notice from Landlord, Landlord may execute and file the same on behalf of Tenant as Tenant's agent for such purpose, at Tenant's sole cost and expense; and (iii) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord two (2) sets of sepias and CAD diskette of such as-built drawings for the Premises with the completed Tenant Improvements and a copy of all warranties, guaranties, and operating manuals and information relating to the improvements, equipment, and systems in the Premises, and shall cause the Architect and Contractor to certify to the best of their knowledge that the "record-set" of as-built drawings are true and correct, which certification shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(d) Coordination by Tenant's Agents with Landlord. Upon tenant's delivery of the Contract to Landlord under Section 4 (b) (i) above, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a schedule setting forth the projected date of the completion of the Tenant Improvements and showing the critical time deadlines for each phase, item or trade relating to the construction of the Tenant Improvements.

5. COMMENCEMENT DATE.

(a) Commencement Date. The "Commencement Date" shall occur for all purposes of this Lease upon January 1, 2003; which date shall be extended on a day for day basis to the extent of any delay in the "Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements" resulting from any "Landlord Delay", as such terms are hereinafter defined. Notwithstanding that the Lease Commencement Date shall not occur until following the delivery of possession of the Premises to Tenant by Landlord, this Lease shall be fully effective from and after the date of the execution of this Lease. Tenant's occupancy of the Premises following the delivery of possession of the Premises to Tenant by Landlord and prior to the Commencement Date for purposes of construction of the Tenant Improvements and installation of Tenant's trade fixtures, furniture, equipment and personal property shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this Lease other than Tenant's obligation for payment of Monthly Base Rent and Tenant's Expenses Excess. In addition, Tenant shall have the right to occupy all or any part of the Premises for the conduct of Tenant's business following the delivery of possession and prior to the Commencement Date, provided that such occupancy shall be subject to all terms and conditions of this Lease including, without limitation, Tenant's obligation for payment of Monthly Base Rent (calculated without regard to the provisions of Lease Sections 5 (c), 5(d), and 5(e)), prorated based upon the Rentable Area of the Premises so occupied for the conduct of Tenant's business.

(b) Landlord Delay. As used herein, the term "Landlord Delay" shall mean any delay in the Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements resulting from (i) the performance of required corrective work and/or repair work by Landlord pursuant to clause (i) and/ or (ii) of Section 1 of this Exhibit C, (ii) any breach of this Lease by Landlord; and/or (iii) the negligence or wilful misconduct of Landlord or its employees or agents; provided that no Landlord Delay shall be deemed to commence or occur unless and until the matter giving rise to such Landlord Delay is not cured by Landlord within one (1) business day following Landlord's receipt of written notice thereof from Tenant (which notice may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, be delivered by facsimile transmission to Landlord c/o Jeffrey M. Worthe at (310) 458-2644, with telephone confirmation of receipt at (310) 393-9655, with a copy to Scott D. Brooks at (310) 277-7889 with telephone confirmation of receipt at (310) 277-4222, or to such other number(s) as Landlord may hereafter specify by written notice to Tenant).

(c) Definition of Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements. For purposes of this Lease, the "Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements" shall mean completion of construction of the Tenant Improvements in the Premises pursuant to the Approved Working Drawings with the exception of any punch list items, any furniture, fixtures, work stations, built-in furniture or equipment (even if the same requires installation or electrification by Tenant's Agents), and any tenant improvement finish items and materials which are selected by Tenant but which are not available within a reasonable time (given the anticipated date of the Lease Commencement Date), and Tenant's receipt of any governmentally-required permits and/or approvals to allow occupancy of the Premises (provided that Tenant shall use reasonable efforts and diligence in good faith to obtain such permits and/or approvals as soon as reasonably possible).

6. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Tenant's Representative. Tenant has designated Anthony Mason Associates, Jean Cavangh and Blake Messinger each as its representatives with respect to the matters set forth in this Exhibit, who, until further notice to Landlord, shall have full authority and responsibility, acting individually or together, to act on behalf of the Tenant as required in this Exhibit.

(b) Landlord's Representative. Landlord has designated M. David Paul and Jeffrey M. Worthe each as its representatives with respect to the matters set forth in this Exhibit, who, until further notice to Tenant, shall have full authority and responsibility, individually or together, to act on behalf of the Landlord as required in this Exhibit.

(c) Miscellaneous. Subject to applicable governmental requirements, Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant to allow the performance of construction of the Tenant Improvements by Tenant's Agents during such hours as are desired by Tenant. During the period of construction of the Tenant Improvements prior to the Commencement Date, (i) Tenant or Tenant's Agents shall not be charged for, directly or indirectly, HVAC usage during Building Hours (provided that such HVAC provided to the Premises need only be at such levels as are commercially reasonable for a tenant improvement construction site), electricity, water, or freight elevator or loading dock usage in connection with the construction of the Tenant Improvements, (ii) Landlord shall cause such loading dock to be reasonably available for Tenant's use during construction and move-in to the Premises, subject to scheduling and reasonable coordination with Landlord and other Project occupants, and (iii) the Contractor and all of its subcontractors shall not be charged for parking in the designated parking facility for Project contractors during construction of the Tenant Improvements prior to the Commencement Date. Landlord shall cause the Premises to be thoroughly cleaned promptly following the Substantial Completion of the Tenant Improvements and promptly following Tenant's move in to the Premises. None of Tenant's Agents shall be entitled to (1) display identification or other signage at the Project, (2) use passenger elevators at the Project, or (3) park anywhere except in the designated parking facility for Project contractors.

From: Gary Morrison

Date: April 4, 2002

Re: Building Standard Clarifications

The following is in response to the Email that you forwarded me regarding HLW and Syska and Hennessy questions about our building standards. Reference the attached copy of the original email for corresponding item numbers.

HLW Questions

1. 2 ½" 25 GA studs with one layer of gyp-board both sides, 6" above ceiling for typical wall is acceptable.

2. For Warner Music Group, building standards are not mandatory however do represent minimum standard of quality. Deviations from the building standard should be clearly identified in writing along with the plans submitted to Landlord for approval.

3. Partitions and/or ceiling should not be attached with screws to window mullions. Ceiling shall be attached to wall just above the extruded piece that receives the drywall at the head of the window. Walls that terminate into windows shall end with 204S cap and the cap shall be adhered to the mullion with two (2) vertical strips of 1" x 1/8" neoprene, double stick tape.

4. Window coverings will be single roll, Mecho Shades. Color and percentage open of fabric to be determined. Window shades are an optional Tenant cost item.

Syska and Hennessy Questions

1. When 2x4's, 2x2's and downlights are used than the standards shall be used. When design dictates, other fixtures are acceptable provided that they are approved by the Landlord in advance.

Attention: Gary Morrison

Subject: Pinnacle Phase One HVAC Tenant work

Dear Gary:

This is to address the HVAC related items on your April 3, 2002 E-mail/fax.

2 & 3) Please see enclosed, revised April 2, 2002 Pinnacle Tenant Work Criteria Section T 15000, pages 1 through 7. Revisions are of the housekeeping type and include the following:

A) Correction of outside design conditions.

B) Suggestion for consideration of reheat boxes for interior zones on ground floor due to garage below.

C) Revision of all duct wrap insulation to 2", ¾" density and a requirement that duct mains, although lined, be wrapped when not exposed to assure the temperature of conditioned air delivered.

4) The building system is a variable volume hot water reheat system. The controls contractor is Control Management Systems, (909) 980-1141, Cliff Bailey. Thermostats are to be display type.

5) Box minimum setting is a tenant engineer call. Our experience is that over cooling occurs at 30% minimum when interior rooms are unoccupied (lights out) and that minimums must be set lower than 30%. Should resetting be necessary subsequent to commissioning, that will be the tenant's responsibility.
LAQ is satisfied by air quantity. Reasonable air quantities should be available in interior spaces when occupancy (lights and people) provides a load, causing boxes to open.

6) Duct configuration in conformance with the T 15000 standards, is a tenant engineer call. Note requirements for insulation/lining depending on ceiling treatment.

7) There are no seismic joints within Pinnacle Phase I.

Please make sure Don Dodd and Jeff receive the revised criteria.

Sincerely,

P.M.C.M.

THE PINNACLE
Burbank, California,
Tensent Work Criteria

1. DESIGN

A. Airflow quantity to be based upon temperature difference between room and supply air at outlet of 20°F and 16°F for the interior zones. Room design temperature is 72°F summer, 78°F winter.

B. Low velocity ducts and fittings sized at less than 0.1 inches water pressure loss per 100 feet.

C. Supply Diffusers 24 x 24 perforated face with modular core and frame appropriate to ceiling type. Diffuser cores and back-pans shall have a flat black enamel finish. Face to be off-white baked enamel on perforated plate and margin unless specified otherwise by architect and approved by owner's representative. Neck velocities to be 500 FPM maximum, unless scheduled otherwise. Furnish OBD's. Return inlet 12 x 24 perforated face.

D. Pressure independent variable volume boxes. Titus or Krueger minimum 2 row reheat coil. Box manufacturer to mount electronic controller furnished by control contractor. This contractor to pipe reheat valve furnished by control contractor. Thermostat and wiring furnished and installed by control contractor.

E. Follow good engineering design principles with low loss conical high side connections, minimal elbows and fittings; abrupt transitions or "tap and cap" work is not acceptable. Include minimum ¾" size, type L copper reheat pipe, full port shut-off ball valves, petas plugs, unions at coil and control valves, and insulation per base system.

F. Air and water balance in accord with NEBB or AABC. Submit balance reports. If owner does not approve air balance, acquire services of an independent balance agency to rebalance systems. Provide spot check of balance report as requested by owner.

G. Acquire services of base building controls contractor to adjust supply and relief fan settings and sensors to accommodate each new tenant improvement work without disruption of existing building tenants or creation of unacceptable draft conditions and/or noise.

H. Submit a block-out plan of zoning to tenant and owner prior to designing space. Plan shall indicate zone, air quantity and thermostat locations. Obtain approvals, by signature, before proceeding with design. Approval by owner does not relieve designer of compliance with criteria and proper performance. Each exterior exposure and each corner office to be individually zoned. Maximum 3 exterior rooms per zone. Consider use of reheat boxes for interior zones on first floor, due to garage below.

I. Provide appropriate air quantity and ductwork from adjacent interior zones to feed telephone and electric rooms, elevator lobbies, corridors and restrooms. Provide air distribution devices, fire, and smoke damper protection as appropriate.

J. Base Building Design Criteria:

Summer Design	96°F DB 68°F WB	74°F DB Interior ± 2°
Winter Design	34°F DB	70°F DB Interior ± 2°
Glazing:	.44 Shading Co-efficient .35 Transmission Factor
Walls:	0.1 Transmission Factor
Roof:	.05 Transmission Factor
First Floor:	.33 Transmission Factor

One person per 150 Usable Sq. Ft (average per floor) 20 CFM OSA per person
Lights:	1.5 Watts per Sq. Ft.
Power:	2.0 Watts per Sq. Ft. Maximum 3.5 Watts per sq. ft.*

* Advise owner in writing of proposed usage greater than 2.0 watts per sq. ft.

K. Controls: To be performed by building base system control contractor, Control Management Systems. (909) 980-1141

Performance of controls by others must be pre-approved by building owner.

L. The following provisions have been made for unusual and/or after hours HVAC loads. Contact building owner for usage and associated costs.

1. 24 Hour condenser water system served by open cooling tower at central plant.

M. Interior zones to reduce to 15% of design, adjustable to 0. All zones close to 0 at building shut down.

N. Boxes shall be selected at 80% or less of nominal CFM, not exceeding 0.7” W.G. pressure loss through the box, including attenuators, coils, connection to main trunk and low pressure ducts and diffusers.

O. Hot water piping and ductwork upstream of boxes shall comply with base building specifications and plans. Water velocity shall not exceed 8 feet per second; friction loss shall not exceed 8 feet of water per 100 feet of pipe, fittings included. Ductwork upstream of boxes shall not exceed 2000 feet per minute velocity, or 15 inches friction loss per 100 feet of duct based on full load air quantity design conditions. Duct upstream of boxes shall be constructed with low loss fittings to SMACNA 3” W.C. specifications and fully lined.

1. Short radius adjustable elbows are not acceptable. Maximum fitting convergence angle 15º, inlet duct to box at least 2” larger I.D. than box connection.

2. Where shown in high side ductwork, install single blade volume dampers for rough system balancing. Damper blades shall be constructed of not less than sixteen (16) gauge galvanized steel with edges bent and center grooved. Hardware shall be locked quadrant, heavy duty type as manufactured by Duro-Dyne Type KS-0385 with three-eight inch (3/8”) rod, K-4 quadrant and SB-338 closed end bearings or approved equal.

P. Where duct mains are not exposed (concealed above tenant ceiling structure), regardless of the fact that ducts are lined, insulate all concealed cold supply air, high side duct mains with Microlite fiberglass duct insulation, foil faced, 3/4 lb. density, 2 inch thick insulation wrapped entirely around duct with joints lapped at least 2 inches and secured with 16 gauge galvanized wire on 12 inch centers. Insulation shall cover all surfaces including standing seams.

II. INSTALLATION

A. Furnish all labor, materials, equipment and services required to complete, connect, and place in optimum operating condition heating, ventilating, and air conditioning systems. All work shall conform to the applicable requirements of the latest edition of the Uniform Building Code, Uniform Mechanical Code, Title 22 and 24 of the California Administrative Code, NFPA Life Safety Codes, and all applicable local, state and federal codes, ordinances, laws and regulations governing the work.

B. Refer to general notes and specifications on architectural drawings for all applicable notes.

C. The contractor’s attention is called to the presence of existing conditions, conduit, piping, etc. The contractor shall be held responsible for the protection and repair of any and all damage caused by him or his work to existing conditions, piping, etc. New work and installations shall be made without interruptions of services to existing buildings and tenant spaces. Any interruptions required shall be made to minimize inconvenience and at times as approved in advance by the owner.

D. Verification of existing conditions: Contractor shall field verify all points of connection, the type and capacity of equipment and systems being modified, or affected, the space available for installation and assume full responsibility for the proper installation and operation of all mechanical systems added or modified. Initiation of work constitutes acceptance of existing systems and installation.

E. Contractor shall coordinate his work carefully with that of the other trades in order to avoid interference. Coordinate all ductwork and mechanical equipment with structural, plumbing, sprinkler and electrical systems. Any and all conflicts shall be resolved prior to installation, in concurrence with the architect.

F. Ductwork shall be galvanized sheet metal and in accordance with the requirements of "SMACNA" HVAC duct construction for low and medium velocity duct. Round ductwork shall be spiral construction. Adhere to UMC Chapter 10 Requirements. All ductwork shall be constructed, erected and tested in accordance with the most restrictive of local regulations, procedures detailed in the ASHRAE Handbook of Fundamentals, or the applicable standards adopted by the Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors National Association. In conflict, the most stringent shall apply.

G. 1.04 Tenant Delay. "Tenant Delay" means any delay which Landlord may encounter in the performance of Landlord's obligations under this Lease (i) as the direct result of any breach by Tenant of its obligations under this Lease or (ii) by reason of any negligence or wrongful act or omission of any nature of Tenant, its Affiliates, Related Service Providers occupying all or any part of the Premises, the Tenant Group or any of their agents, employees, contractors or invitees. Tenant shall pay to Landlord any costs or expenses incurred by Landlord by reason of any Tenant Delay which are in excess of the costs and expenses which Landlord would have incurred had the Tenant Delay not occurred. Landlord shall give Tenant notice of any alleged Tenant Delay which is actually known to the Building manager. During any period that the Building manager or Landlord's construction supervisor, if any, actually knows of the Tenant Delay, no Tenant Delay shall be deemed to exist until the later of (i) the actual commencement of such Tenant Delay and (ii) fifteen days prior to (or in the case of an alleged Tenant Delay in connection with Sections 1.03(e) and (g), five days prior to) the date Landlord shall have given Tenant such notice of Tenant Delay. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, (i) during any period of time that the Tenant Delay is unknown by the Building manager and Landlord's construction supervisor, if any, such Tenant Delay shall be deemed to exist notwithstanding that no notice thereof has been delivered by Landlord to Tenant and (ii) any Tenant Delay in connection with Section 1.03(b) shall be deemed to exist notwithstanding that no notice thereof has been delivered by Landlord to Tenant. Any dispute with respect to Tenant Delay may be resolved by arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof.

In no event shall any of such uses be made available to employees of Tenant,

Affiliates or Related Service Providers who are not located at the Building (other than reasonable numbers of senior executives) or to the general public: The Identified Ancillary uses are intended to benefit and to be ancillary to the use of the Premises and not to benefit persons not located in the Premises, other than incidentally and in limited numbers): (i) an employee cafeteria (the "Cafeteria"); provided, that if cooking will be done (other than only microwave cooking) (A) Tenant shall install all flues, vents, grease traps and ansul systems and other similar items reasonably requested by Landlord, (B) Tenant shall install an exhaust system that, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, is consistent with the standards of a first class office building in midtown Manhattan, (C) all ducts and flues shall be installed within the Premises and shall exit the Building from a location reasonably acceptable to Landlord, (D) Tenant shall clean all grease traps as appropriate, (E) Tenant shall bag all wet garbage, place such garbage in containers that prevent the escape of odors, and provide for a refrigerated waste facility to store such garbage pending disposal and (F) Landlord shall cause such Cafeteria to be serviced on a regular basis by the Building's exterminator, provided such exterminator is competent and the price for its services is reasonable, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord within thirty (30) days after demand, the cost of providing any additional extermination service required by reason of such Cafeteria; and further provided (whether or not cooking will be done), (v) Tenant shall not allow any odors to escape from the Premises to other portions of the Project, (w) Tenant shall otherwise maintain and operate the Cafeteria consistent with the standards of a first class office building in midtown Manhattan, and (x) the entire floor on which such cafeteria is located and the entire floor immediately above and the entire floor immediately below the floor on which such cafeteria is located shall be fully leased by Tenant or its Affiliates or Related Service Providers (provided, once completed consistent with this clause (x), Tenant shall not be required to move such cafeteria to satisfy such requirement that it be located between floors fully leased by Tenant, it Affiliates or Related Service Providers and (y) the Cafeteria shall consist of no more than 15,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate; and (ii) an infirmary; provided, Tenant shall (A) regularly dispose of all medical materials, medical rubbish, medical waste, "red bag waste," infectious waste and other materials that require special disposal ("Medical Waste") generated in connection with Tenant's use of the Premises as an infirmary to comply with all Laws, (B) at its cost and expense engage the service of a contamination waste disposal firm for regular disposal of such medical waste, (C) not use or operate in the Premises any equipment, machinery or other device, including without limitation x-ray and radiation machines, electronic scanners, which emit radiation or other objectionable emissions outside of such infirmary, (D) not store or use substances (other than in limited quantities which are customary in infirmaries in first class, midtown Manhattan office buildings), which could be deemed dangerous or combustible, including without limitation, high pressure gases, (E) store all medicines and drugs (whether prescription or otherwise), in a safe secure place, under lock and key; (iii) a health and fitness facility consisting of no more than 8,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate; provided, that

(A) no noise or vibration from the health and fitness facility shall emanate from the Premises so that the same shall annoy or disturb other tenants in the Building and the entire floor on which such health and fitness facility is located and the entire floor immediately above and the entire floor immediately below the floor on which such health and fitness facility is located shall be fully leased by Tenant or its Affiliates or Related Service Providers (provided, once completed consistent with this clause (A) Tenant shall not be required to move such health and fitness facility to satisfy such requirement that it be located between floors fully leased by Tenant, its Affiliates or Related Service Providers), upon completion of such health and fitness facility, and (B) the location, the size and configuration of the space utilized, the placement and type of equipment and construction of the health and fitness facility shall be subject to the reasonable recommendations of Landlord's consultants (which consultants shall be paid by Tenant, provided such consultant is competent and its charges for its services are reasonable), be in conformity with the standards of a first-class midtown Manhattan office building and its use shall not cause any harmonic sway in the Building; (iv) a childcare facility (not to exceed 5,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate); (v) library (including video and audio); (vi) wholesale sale of limited quantities of Tenant's products so as to constitute samples and a representative product and licensing of products and services and showrooms therefor, provided that such sales and any storage of products in connection therewith are only incidental to the use of the Premises as general and executive offices; (vii) travel agency solely for use of Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers occupying space in the Premises; (viii) pantries (with no cooking facilities other than microwave cooking); and (ix) a computer center (the ancillary uses described in clauses (i)-(ix) above are called the "Identified Ancillary Uses")). Notwithstanding anything in Section 4.06 or elsewhere in this Lease to the contrary, Tenant shall be responsible for complying with all Laws applicable to the use of the Premises for the Identified Ancillary Uses (including, without limitation, any structural and nonstructural alterations to the Premises or Building required by such Laws) and for obtaining, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, all consents, approvals and permits (including, without limitation, any amendment to the certificate of occupancy for the Building and any public assembly permit) required by reason of any such use and Landlord makes no representation to Tenant as to the suitability of the Premises for any of the Identified Ancillary Uses. Landlord, at Tenant's expense, shall cooperate with Tenant's efforts to obtain any such consents, approvals and permits, including, without limitation, executing and delivering any documents or instruments reasonably required by Tenant in connection therewith. The entire floor on which any music, sound or video demonstration areas of Tenant, its subtenants, Affiliates or Related Service Providers are located and the entire floor immediately above and the entire floor immediately below shall be fully leased by Tenant, its subtenants, Affiliates or Related Service Providers (once any demonstration area is completed, Tenant shall not be required to move such demonstration area to satisfy such requirement that it be located between floors leased by Tenant, its Affiliates or Related Service Providers; provided Tenant shall take such actions as are reasonably required by Landlord to ensure that any noise or vibration generated within the demonstration area does not disturb other tenants in the Building, including installing soundproofing materials). Nothing in this Section 1.05 which permits the Premises or any part thereof to be used for Identified Ancillary Uses shall be interpreted to mean that Tenant is permitted to make any Alterations other than in compliance with all of the terms and conditions set forth in Section 4.02 including the requirement to obtain Landlord's prior consent where required in Section 4.02.

In no event shall the Premises be used for any of the following: (a) a banking, trust company, safe deposit business, savings bank, a savings and loan association, or a loan company, except as general and executive offices and not as a branch open to the public, (b) the sale of travelers' checks and/or foreign exchange except to employees of Tenant, its Affiliates or members of the Related Service Providers, (c) a stock brokerage office or for stock brokerage purposes except as general and executive offices and not as a branch open to the public, (d) a restaurant, bar or for the sale of food or beverages, except for reasonable quantities of pantries (with no cooking facilities, other than microwave cooking), vending machines for drinks, candy and snacks to service employees of Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers in each case which are occupying space in the Premises and as otherwise specifically provided herein, (e) photographic reproductions and/or offset printing, other than such reproduction or film processing (subject, in the case of film processing, to the reasonable requirements of Landlord in connection with storage, disposal and ventilation) which is ancillary to the use of the Premises as general and executive offices, (f) an employment or travel agency, other than a travel agency to service solely employees of Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers in each case which are occupying space in the Premises in connection with travel related to said parties' business, (g) a school or classroom except for training facilities for the use by the employees of Tenant, its Affiliates or members of the Related Service Providers which in each case are occupying space in the Premises, (h) medical or psychiatric offices except as provided in the preceding paragraph, (i) conduct of an auction, (j) gambling activities, (k) conduct of obscene, pornographic or similar disreputable activities, (1) offices of an agency, department or bureau of the United States Government, any state or municipality within the United States or any foreign government, or any political subdivision of any of them, (m) offices of any charitable, religious, union or other not-for-profit organization which would cause adverse federal, state or local income tax or other tax consequences to Landlord; provided, that, in no event shall the rentable square feet occupied by charitable, religious, union or other not-for-profit organizations and any entity set forth in clause (n) below exceed 25,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate, or (n) offices of any tax exempt entity within the meaning of Section 168(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor or substitute statute, or rule or regulation applicable thereto which would cause adverse federal, state or local income tax or other tax consequences to Landlord; provided, that, in no event shall the rentable square feet occupied by such tax exempt entities together with the rentable square feet occupied by the entities set forth in clause (m) above exceed 25,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate. The Premises shall not be used for any purpose which would be inconsistent with the first class character of the Building, create unreasonable or excessive elevator or floor loads, constitute a public or private nuisance or interfere with any other tenant or Landlord.

1.06 Tenant's Right of Offering.

(a) During the Term and provided that:

(i) This Lease shall not have terminated,

(ii) Tenant, together with any Affiliates of Tenant (and any Related Service Providers occupying space leased by Tenant or any Affiliate of Tenant), shall be in actual occupancy of not less than 80% of the aggregate rentable square feet of the Blocks and the space currently leased by Tenant on the fourth floor in the Building, and

(iii) Tenant shall not be in default hereunder beyond the expiration of any applicable notice and grace period (provided, that Landlord, in its sole discretion, may waive this requirement);

then, Tenant may lease additional space for its own use and occupancy or that of its Affiliates, even though such space may not be available for a term that is coterminous with this Lease (herein called "Additional Space") in accordance with this Section 1.06.

(b) If during the Term any separately leasable units of office space (as determined by Landlord) on floors two (2) through and including nine (9) of the Building (the "Offer Space") become Available (as such term is hereinafter defined) or are anticipated by Landlord to become Available within twelve (12) months (herein, for so long as such separately leasable units of office space remains Available, called "Available Space") Landlord shall promptly provide Tenant with a written listing (the "Available Space Notice") specifying the date on which each such separately leasable unit of Available Space is anticipated to become Available; and the configuration (including the rentable square footage, floor plan and floor) of each such separately leasable unit of Available Space. Within ten (10) days after the giving of the Available Space Notice, Tenant shall either (x) give to Landlord a notice (the "Request for Information") in which Tenant shall request that Landlord deliver to Tenant the Landlord's List for any or all of the separately leasable units of Available Space designated on the Available Space Notice, or (y) refrain from giving a Request for Information. In the event Tenant refrains from giving a Request for Information, Tenant's rights with respect to all Available Space described in such Available Space Notice shall terminate and Landlord shall be free to lease all or any portion of such space to others at such rental and upon such terms and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion may desire and Landlord shall have no obligation to include on any future Available Space Notice such space unless such space is leased to an entity other than Tenant and once again becomes Available Space. If Tenant gives to Landlord a Request for Information, then Landlord shall, within twenty (20) days after the giving of such Request for Information provide Tenant with a written listing ("Landlord's List") specifying the following with respect to the Available Space listed on the Request for Information:

(i) the date on which each such separately leasable unit of Available Space listed on the applicable Request for Information is anticipated to become Available,

(ii) the term for which each such separately leasable unit of Available Space listed on the applicable Request for Information is available for leasing (it being acknowledged and agreed by Tenant that, except for the Fourth Floor Exception, such term may be substantially longer or shorter than the term then remaining on this Lease and that Tenant shall not have the right to require Landlord to lease to Tenant any separately leasable unit of Available Space for a term that is coterminous with the term of this Lease).

(iii) any terms and conditions on which each such separately leasable unit of Available Space listed on the applicable Request for Information is Available that are in variance with the terms of this Lease (e.g., if Landlord will have a cancellation option with respect to all or a portion of such Available Space),

(iv) the number of rentable square feet (computed by the same manner as rentable square feet was computed for the Blocks) contained in and the configuration of each such separately leasable unit of Available Space listed on the applicable Request for Information (it being acknowledged and agreed by Tenant that its right to lease any separately leasable unit of Available Space shall be with respect to such space as so configured and sized in the Landlord's List and that such space may consist of a combination of more than one contiguous floor),

(v) the rental for such Available Space (taking into account all relevant factors such as free rent periods and construction allowances and the base year, base amount and other calculations in connection with Taxes, Operating Payments and electricity and other elements of the economic package offered by Landlord),

(vi) the renewal rights, if any, that will be applicable with respect to such Available Space, and

(vii) such other matters as Landlord may deem appropriate for such Landlord's List.

The "Fourth Floor Exception" shall mean that at all times that Tenant or its Affiliates are leasing the space which Tenant is currently leasing on the fourth floor of the Building (whether pursuant to the existing lease or a new lease; the "Fourth Floor Lease"), if any Offer Space shall become Available Space for all or any part of the balance of such fourth floor, then such Offer Space shall, if added to the Premises pursuant to this Section, be added to the Premises for a term which is coterminous with the terms of the Fourth Floor Lease and the terms and conditions, under which such Offer Space is added to the Premises, shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect that the term thereof is coterminous with the term of the Fourth Floor Lease rather than the term which such Offer Space is otherwise Available for leasing.

(c) Any given separately leasable unit of Offer Space shall be "Available" as of any date only to the extent that it is not then:

(i) subject to a lease with a scheduled expiration date more than twelve (12) months after the giving of Landlord's List,

(ii) subject to (1) any currently existing rights, options (including, without limitation, any right of first refusal or right of first offer), or negotiated agreements (including, without limitation, any mandatory additional space provision) (collectively the "Existing Rights") of tenants leasing space in the Building as of the date hereof (herein called "Existing Tenants") and any renewal rights and rights which are granted after the date hereof by Landlord to such Existing Tenants to lease additional space on the same floor that an Existing Tenant is now occupying or has an existing right to occupy in the future (provided, however, that Landlord agrees that, as long as Tenant or an Affiliate of Tenant is leasing the space on the fourth floor of the Building which Tenant is currently leasing, Landlord will not grant, after the date hereof, to such Existing Tenants any rights to lease additional space on the fourth floor; and further provided, that Landlord shall not grant to an Existing Tenant, after the date hereof, the right or option to lease additional Offer Space, which is prior in right to Tenant, on the same floor that an Existing Tenant currently leases space unless such tenant then leases at least 60% of the rentable square feet comprising such floor except that if such Existing Tenant is Unisys Corporation and Unisys Corporation is not occupying at least 60% of the rentable square feet comprising such floor, then Landlord may, after the date hereof, grant Unisys Corporation the right or option to lease additional Offer Space on the floor that it currently leases space, if Landlord shall have first offered such Offer Space to Tenant as . provided herein and Tenant shall not have added such space to the Premises as herein provided) and (2) any rights and options granted by Landlord after the date hereof to tenants leasing space in the Building after the date hereof (herein called "Future Tenants") to lease additional space on the same floors of the Building on which such Future Tenant is then leasing space and to extend the term of such Future Tenants' leases (except that Landlord agrees that as long as Tenant or an Affiliate of Tenant is leasing the space on the fourth floor of the Building which Tenant is currently leasing, Landlord will not grant, after the date hereof, to such Future Tenants any right to lease additional space on the fourth floor of the Building; and further provided, that Landlord will, not grant, after the date hereof, to a Future Tenant any right or option which is prior in right to Tenant to lease additional Offer Space on the same floor that such Future Tenant is then leasing space unless such Future Tenant is then leasing at least 60% of the rentable square feet comprising such floor), in each case, that could render such unit of space unavailable for leasing to Tenant, or

(iii) the subject of active bona fide lease negotiations as of the date of this Lease.

(d) Tenant shall keep confidential all information contained in Landlord's List and shall disclose same only to: (i) in-house personnel, (ii) Tenant's attorneys and (iii) Tenant's consultants, in each case on an as-needed basis, and Tenant shall require such personnel, attorneys and consultants to keep all such information confidential.

(e) (i) Tenant shall have the option, within the time period as more particularly set forth in clause (ii) below, to add to the Premises one or more of the separately leasable units of Available Space designated on Landlord's List. Any Additional Space shall be delivered to Tenant vacant and broom-clean, but otherwise in its "AS IS" condition (unless otherwise specified in Landlord's List) but free of all tenancies and occupancies and subject to the provisions of Section 7.05 hereof in the event of a casualty, and added to the Premises on the date (herein called the "Additional Space Inclusion Date") on which Landlord makes such space available to Tenant.

(ii) Within twenty (20) days after the giving of Landlord's List, Tenant shall either:

(w) give to Landlord a notice (herein called a "Tenant's Exercise Notice"), in which Tenant shall elect to add to the Premises one or more of the separately leasable units of Available Space designated on Landlord's List in the exact configuration with the same number of rentable square feet and at the same rental and otherwise on the terms set forth on Landlord's List (it being acknowledged and agreed by Tenant that such space may consist of a combination of more than one contiguous floors); or

(x) give to Landlord a notice (herein called. a "Tenant's Counteroffer") in which Tenant shall inform Landlord that Tenant is not willing to add to the Premises one or more of the separately leasable units of Available Space designated on Landlord's List, in the exact configuration and with the same number of rentable square feet and for the same term of years and at the same rental set forth on Landlord's List, but shall also inform Landlord that Tenant would be willing to lease space from Landlord's List for a specified term of years ("Tenant's Specified Term"), for a specified rentable square footage and specified configuration ("Tenant's Specified RSF") and for a specified rental, which shall take into account all relevant factors, including any free rent periods, construction allowances and the base year, base amount and other calculations in connection with Taxes, Operating Payment, and electricity and other elements of the economic package offered by Tenant (Tenant's Specified Rental); provided, that Tenant's Specified Term must be in full year increments (e.g., not 9 years and 9 months, rather than 10 years), unless Tenant's Specified Term is for a term coterminous with the remainder of the Premises and Tenant's Specified RSF must not leave Landlord with an effectively unleasable block of space (e.g., Tenant shall not specify 38,000 rentable square feet as Tenant's Specified RSF if Landlord's List contains a full floor consisting of 40,079 rentable square feet); or

(y) refrain from giving a Tenant's Exercise Notice or a Tenant's Counteroffer.

(iii) In the event that Tenant refrains from giving a Tenant's Exercise Notice or a Tenant's Counteroffer, Tenant's rights with respect to all Available Space described in such Landlord's List (herein called the "Waived Space") shall terminate and Landlord shall be free to lease all or any portion of such Waived Space to others at such rental and upon such terms (including, without limitation, size, configuration and length of term) and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion may desire whether such rental terms, provisions and conditions are the same as those offered to Tenant or more or less favorable. Tenant shall, within five (5) days after Landlord's request therefor, deliver an instrument in form reason-ably satisfactory to Landlord confirming the aforesaid waiver, but no such instrument shall be necessary to make the provisions hereof effective; provided, however, that Landlord shall have no obligation to include on any Available Space Notice any of the Waived Space which has appeared on any prior Landlord's Lists unless such Waived Space is leased to an entity other than Tenant and once again becomes Available Space.

(iv) In the event that Tenant gives a Tenant's Counteroffer, then Landlord, within twenty (20) days after the giving of such Tenant's Counteroffer, shall either:

(x) elect to lease to Tenant the space designated by Tenant from among the separately leasable units of Available Space contained on Landlord's List, in a commercially reasonable configuration, equal in size to Tenant's Specified RSF for a term equal to Tenant's Specified Term, and for a rental equal to Tenant's Specified Rental in which event such space shall be added to the Premises on all of the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 1.06; or

(y) elect not to lease to Tenant the space designated by Tenant from among the separately leasable units of Available Space contained on Landlord's List, equal in size to Tenant's Specified RSF for a term equal to Tenant's Specified Term and at a rental equal to Tenant's Specified Rental, in which event Landlord shall not (with respect to the first leasing of the space in question after such space was offered to Tenant in the Landlord's List) without first offering the space in question to Tenant, lease to another tenant the block of space designated by Tenant from among the separately leasable units of Available Space contained on Landlord's List for (A) a term within ten (10%) percent, plus or minus, of Tenant's Specified Term, (B) for a rentable square footage within ten (10%) percent, plus or minus, of Tenant's Specified RSF or (C) for a rental computed on a per square foot basis per annum (taking into account all relevant factors such as free rent periods, construction allowances and the base year, base amount and other calculations in connection with Taxes, Operating Payments and electricity and other elements of the economic package) discounted to present value at the Interest Rate less than 90% of Tenant's Specified Rental discounted to present value at the Interest Rate (collectively the "Required Reoffer Terms").

(v) For purposes of subsection 1.06(e)(iv)(y) hereof and this subsection 1.06(e)(v), if, with respect to the first leasing of the space in question after such space was offered to Tenant in the

Landlord's List, Landlord intends to enter into negotiations with a third party to lease to such third party a block of space from among the separately leasable units of Available Space contained on Landlord's List, for the Required Reoffer Terms (herein called the "Reoffer Space"), Landlord shall provide Tenant with a notice (herein called a "Reoffer Notice") which, with respect to such Reoffer Space, shall contain all of the information required to be contained in a Landlord's list including, without limitation, the exact size and configuration (the "Reoffer Configuration") and length of term (the "Reoffer Term Length") and the rental (the "Reoffer Rental") for which Landlord intends in good faith to enter into negotiations for such Reoffer Space. Tenant shall have twenty (20) days after the giving of the Reoffer Notice to elect by written notice to Landlord (herein called the "Reoffer Acceptance Notice") to add the Reoffer Space to the Premises in the exact Reoffer Configuration, for the exact Reoffer Term and the exact Reoffer Rental, and subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Section 1.06 for the leasing of Additional Space. In the event that Tenant does not give the Reoffer Acceptance Notice within such twenty (20) day period, Tenant shall be deemed to have waived its right to lease the Reoffer Space, and Landlord shall be free to lease all or any portion of such Reoffer Space to others at such rental and upon such terms (including, without limitation, size, configuration and length of term) and conditions as Landlord in its sole discretion may desire whether such rental terms, provisions and conditions are the same as those offered to Tenant or more or less favorable; provided, however, Landlord shall not (with respect to the first leasing of the space in question after such space was offered to Tenant in the Landlord's List) without first offering the space in question to Tenant in the manner provided above in this clause (v), lease the Reoffer Space to another tenant for (A) term within ten (10%) plus or minus of the Reoffer Term Length, (B) for a rentable square footage within ten (10%) percent, plus or minus, of the rentable square footage specified in the Reoffer Configuration or (C) for a rental computed as set forth in subsection 1.06(e)(iv)(y) above discounted to present value at the Interest Rate less than 90% of the Reoffer Rental discounted to present value at the Interest Rate. The term, upon which Landlord shall offer such space to Tenant shall be upon the terms which Landlord intends in good faith to enter into negotiations for such space. Tenant shall, within five (5) days after Landlord's request therefor, deliver an instrument in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord confirming the aforesaid waiver, but no such instrument shall be necessary to make the provisions hereof effective.

(f) In the event that (i) Tenant shall elect pursuant to the terms hereof to lease a separately leasable unit of Available Space, and (ii) such separately leasable unit of Available Space shall come available for leasing on an unscheduled basis (e.g., as the result of a bankruptcy or a leasehold surrender) prior to the anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date (herein called "Unscheduled Available Space"), then Landlord shall give to Tenant a notice (herein called an "Unscheduled Available Space Notice") to Tenant setting forth the revised anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date for such separately leasable unit of space, and such separately leasable unit of space shall be added to the Premises on the later to occur of (i) the date on which Landlord makes such space available to Tenant and (ii) the earlier to occur of (x) the original anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date and (y) the date that is sixty (60) days after the date on which Landlord notifies Tenant of such revised anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date.

(g) Tenant shall lease the Additional Space upon all of the terms and conditions of this Lease that are in effect immediately prior to the Additional Space Inclusion Date, except that:

(i) any inconsistency between the terms and conditions specified in Landlord's List, the Reoffer Notice or Tenant's Counteroffer as applicable, and the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease shall be governed by Landlord's List, the Reoffer Notice or Tenant's Counteroffer as applicable;

(ii) Tenant shall not be entitled to any dedicated elevator service, any hours of free services or any right to use passenger elevators for construction personnel and hand tools or other special uses in connection with Tenant's preparation and move into the Additional Space, or any special services or arrangements unless such terms are provided for in Landlord's List, the Reoffer Notice or Tenant's Counteroffer, as applicable;

(iii) the net effective rental payable by Tenant with respect to the Additional Space shall be the rental in Landlord's List, or the Reoffer Notice (or Tenant' Specified Rental or the Reoffer Rental, if applicable);

(iv) the Additional Space shall be added to the Premises in the exact configuration and with the same number of rentable square feet set forth on Landlord's List, Tenant's Counteroffer or the Reoffer Notice, as the case may be (it being acknowledged and agreed by Tenant that such space may consist of a combination of more than one contiguous floors).

(h) If any Additional Space shall not be available for Tenant's occupancy on the anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date for any reason including the holding over of the prior tenant, then Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make such space available as soon as is reasonably practicable; provided, however, that Landlord and Tenant agree that the failure to have such Additional Space available for occupancy by Tenant shall in no way affect the validity of this Lease or the inclusion of such Additional Space in the demised premises or the obligations of Landlord or Tenant hereunder, nor shall the same be construed in any way to extend the term of this Lease, and for the purpose of this Section 1.06 the Additional Space Inclusion Date shall be deferred to and shall be the date such Additional Space is available for Tenant's occupancy unleased and free of tenants or other occupants. The provisions of this Section 1.06 are intended to constitute "an express provision to the contrary" within the meaning of Section 223-a of the New York Real Property Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the event that Landlord is unable to deliver possession of any separately leasable unit of Additional Space to Tenant within one (1) year after the anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date therefor, Tenant, as its sole remedy, may elect by written notice given to Landlord within the twenty (20) day period commencing on the first anniversary of such anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date, to revoke its election to add such Additional Space to the Premises.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant shall not have the right to elect to add any separately leasable unit of Additional Space to the Premises if there would be less than five (5) years remaining in the term of this Lease for the Blocks as of the anticipated Additional Space Inclusion Date for such separately leasable unit of such space provided, Tenant may simultaneously elect to exercise its right to extend the term of this Lease pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 hereof with respect to the entire Premises (except for Additional Space previously leased by Tenant which has an expiration date different than the Expiration Date) leased by Tenant as of the time of such exercise whereupon, such extension of the Term shall be included in determining whether less than five (5) years remain in the term of this Lease.

(j) Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Section 1.06.

(k) Promptly after the request of Tenant, but in no event more than once in any twelve month period, Landlord shall provide to Tenant, for informational purposes only, a list of the expected termination dates of all Offer Space.

(l) Any dispute with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 1.06 shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof.

(m) Landlord represents to Tenant that the only Existing Rights as of the date hereof with respect to Offer Space which are superior to Tenant's right of offering set forth in this Section 1.06 are (i) Alex Brown and Sons Incorporated with respect to the 8th and 9th floors, (ii) Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States with respect to floors 7, 8 and 9, (iii) AT&T Global with respect to floors 4 and 5 and (iv) Straight Arrow Publishers L. P. with respect to floors 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

of space in the Blocks from time to time included in the Premises payable by Tenant in equal monthly installments; and

(iii) for the period commencing on January 1, 2007 to and including the Expiration Date, $44.18 per annum per rentable square foot of space in the Blocks from time to time included in the Premises payable by Tenant in equal monthly installments.

Each monthly installment of Fixed Rent shall be payable by Tenant in advance on the Fixed Rent Commencement Date and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter; provided, that if the Fixed Rent Commencement Date is not the first day of a month, then Fixed Rent for the month in which the Fixed Rent Commencement Date occurs shall be prorated and paid on the Fixed Rent Commencement Date; and further provided that if this Lease shall terminate on a date other than the last day of the month for reasons other than the occurrence of a default by Tenant, the Fixed Rent for the month in which the Lease terminates shall be prorated; and any overpayment to Landlord, in excess of amounts payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease, shall be refunded to Tenant. "Fixed Rent Commencement Date" (A) for the Block A Space, the Block B Space, the Block C Space, the Block D Space and the Block E Space means July 1, 1997 as such date may be extended for any Block (other than the Delivered Blocks), pursuant to Sections 1.03(d) and (e) hereof and (B) for the Block F Space means a date that is the number of months (including partial months, if any, as a fraction) after the Stated Block F Commencement Date (or, if the Block F Notice shall have been given by Landlord, then the Early Block F Commencement Date), as such dates may be extended pursuant to Section 1.03(d) and (e) hereof, determined by multiplying 17 months by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months (including partial months, if any, as a fraction) that the Block F Space is included in the demise hereunder and the denominator of which is 197 months. "Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date" means the applicable Fixed Rent Commencement Date as such date may be extended for any Block (other than the Delivered Blocks), pursuant to Sections 1.03(d) and (e) hereof. "Rent Commencement Date" means the applicable Fixed Rent Commencement Date and Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date with respect to each Block.

(b) If Tenant's ability to obtain any governmental permit required by Tenant to perform Tenant's initial Alterations in any Block, or portion of any Block or in the Building with respect to any Block or portion thereof, is delayed due to (i) the failure of Landlord (by reason other then Force Majeure or Tenant Delay) to sign applications for governmental permits in accordance with and within the time period provided in Section 4.02 (j) hereof or (ii) the failure of Landlord (by reason other then Force Majeure or Tenant Delay) to cure any violation of Law which Landlord has an affirmative obligation to comply with pursuant to the terms of this Lease, then provided in all cases Tenant is using commercially reasonable prudence and diligence to avoid such delay, Tenant may notify Landlord of such resulting delay (making specific reference to this Section 2.02(b)) and if Landlord shall not have signed such application within five days after such notice or shall not have cured such violation within forty-five (45) days of such notice (if the cure requires the performance of work) or fifteen (15) days after notice if such violation is a monetary violation then Fixed Rent and Additional Charges pursuant to Sections 2.04 and 2.05 shall be abated with respect to such Block or such portion of such Block, in the case of clause (i), for the number of days, that substantial completion of Tenant's initial Alterations in such Block or portion of such Block is delayed due to such inability to obtain any governmental permit beyond such five day period and, in the case of clause (ii), for the number of days that substantial completion of Tenant's initial Alterations in such Block or portion of such Block is delayed due to such inability to obtain any governmental permit beyond such forty-five (45) day period if such violation is a non-monetary violation and for any period beyond the fifteenth day Landlord receives notice of such violation from Tenant in the event of a monetary violation; provided, that in each case Rent shall be abated only with respect to that portion of the Blocks in which substantial completion of Tenant's initial Alterations is so delayed.

2.03 Additional Charges. "Additional Charges" means Tax Payments, Operating Payments and all other sums of money, other than Fixed Rent, at any time payable by Tenant under this Lease, all of which Additional Charges shall be deemed to be rent.

2.04 Tax Payments. (a) "Base Tax Amount" means $15,986,033.

(b) "Taxes" means (i) the real estate taxes, vault taxes, assessments and special assessments levied, assessed or imposed upon or with respect to the Project by any federal, state, municipal or other government or governmental body or authority, and (ii) any expenses actually incurred by Landlord (or if paid to an Affiliate of Landlord, the reasonable and customary expenses incurred by Landlord) in contesting such taxes or assessments and/or the assessed value of the Project, which expenses shall be allocated to the Tax Year to which such expenses relate. If at any time the method of taxation shall be altered so that in lieu of or as an addition to or as a substitute for, the whole or any part of such real estate taxes, assessments and special assessments now imposed on real estate, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed ("Substituted Taxes") (x) a tax, assessment, levy, imposition, fee or charge wholly or partially as a capital levy or otherwise on the rents received therefrom (which shall be computed for purposes of inclusion in Taxes as if the Project were the only property owned by Landlord), or (y) any other additional or substitute tax, assessment, levy, imposition, fee or charge which is clearly identifiable as a tax on real estate or the owner thereof, and not as a generally applicable business tax, including without limitation, transportation taxes, fees and assessments, then all such taxes, assessments, levies, impositions, fees or charges or the part thereof so measured or based shall be included in "Taxes." If the owner, or lessee under a Superior Lease, of all or any part of the Building and/or the Land is an entity exempt from the payment of taxes described in clauses (i) and (ii), there shall be included in "Taxes" the taxes described in clauses (i) and (ii) which would be so levied, assessed or imposed if such owner or lessee were not so exempt and such taxes shall be deemed to have been paid by Landlord on the dates on which such taxes otherwise would have been payable if such owner or lessee were not so exempt. Except as permitted in this Section 2.04(b), with respect to Substituted Taxes, "Taxes" shall not include (A) any franchise, capital stock, transfer income, estate, gift, succession, inheritance, mortgage recording, transfer gains or unincorporated business tax or commercial rent tax imposed on Landlord, (B) any penalties or late charges with respect to the payment of Taxes, provided, penalties and late charges shall not include the failure to take advantage of a discount for early payment and costs in connection with the payment of Taxes in installments or (C) any costs or expenses included in Operating Expenses, including without limitation, water, sewer vault and sales taxes which are included in Operating Expenses. If any special assessments for public improvements which are or shall be levied, assessed or imposed upon or with respect to the Project are payable at the option of Landlord in installments, then such special assessment shall be included in Taxes as if Landlord shall have elected to pay such special assessment over the longest period permitted. Landlord represents and covenants to Tenant that no tax abatement will be in effect for the Project in the Tax Years included in the calculation of Base Tax Amount.

(c) "Tax Year" means each period of 12 months, commencing on the first day of July of each such period, in which occurs any part of the Term, or such other period of 12 months occurring during the Term as hereafter may be adopted as the fiscal year for real estate tax purposes of the City of New York.

(d) "Tenant's Share" means a fraction expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which shall be the rentable square footage of space from time to time included in the Premises and the denominator of which shall be 1,793,457. Any Change in Tenant's Share shall be effective from and after each applicable Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date (or other date, with respect to any space other than Blocks on which Tenant is required pursuant to the terms of this Lease to commence making Tax Payments with respect to such space) and Tenant's Tax Payments for any Tax Year in which such change occurs shall be adjusted accordingly;

(e) If Taxes for any Tax Year, including the Tax Year in which the Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date for any Block occurs, shall exceed the Base

Tax Amount, Tenant shall pay to Landlord (each, a "Tax Payment") Tenant's Share of the amount by which Taxes for such Tax Year are greater than the Base Tax Amount. The Tax Payment for each Tax Year shall be due and payable in installments in the same manner that Taxes for such Tax Year are due and payable by Landlord, whether to the City of New York or to a Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee (unless such Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee is an Affiliate of Landlord (or other entity which controls the management and operations of Landlord which is not an Affiliate of Landlord) in which case the Tax Payment shall be due and payable in installments, in the same manner that Taxes for such Tax Year are due and payable to the City of New York). If Tenant is required to escrow Taxes with Landlord pursuant to the preceding sentence due to a requirement of any Superior Lease or Superior Mortgage, then Landlord will give Tenant a credit against Taxes equal to any interest that Landlord earns on such funds that Tenant has escrowed. Tenant shall pay Tenant's Share of each such installment within twenty (20) days after the rendering of a statement therefor (a "Tax Statement") by Landlord to Tenant, gut in no event shall Tenant be required to pay Tenant's Share of any Taxes more than twenty (20) days prior to the date such Taxes first become due and payable by Landlord. The Tax Statement to be rendered by Landlord shall set forth in reasonable detail the computation of Tenant's Share of the particular installment(s) being billed. If Landlord shall not have received the relevant bill from the taxing authority ("Tax Bill") at the time any Tax Statement is delivered to Tenant, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant, promptly after receipt thereof by Landlord (and shall endeavor to do so within one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of such Tax Bill by Landlord), a statement setting forth the amount (if any) of any overpayment or underpayment by Tenant with respect to the Tax Payment paid by Tenant in accordance with such Tax Statement and the appropriate party shall pay to the other party the amount of such overpayment or underpayment within twenty (20) days after such statement is received by Tenant. At the request of Tenant, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a copy of the relevant Tax Bill within the later of sixty (60) days after such demand and sixty (60) days after receipt by Landlord of such Tax Bill. If there shall be any increase in the Taxes for any Tax Year, whether during or after such Tax Year, or if there shall be any decrease in the Taxes for any Tax Year, the Tax Payment for such Tax Year shall be appropriately adjusted and paid or refunded, as the case may be, in accordance herewith. In no event, however, shall Taxes be reduced below the Base Tax Amount.

(f) If Landlord shall receive a refund of Taxes for any Tax Year, Landlord within thirty (30) days of receipt of such refund shall pay to Tenant Tenant's Share (which is in effect during the Tax Year to which the applicable refund relates) of the net refund (after deducting from such refund the costs and expenses of obtaining the same (provided, that if any of such expenses are paid to an Affiliate of Landlord, it shall only include any such cost and expenses which are reasonable and customary), including, without limitation, appraisal, accounting and legal fees, to the extent that such costs and expenses were not included in Operating Expenses or in Taxes for such Tax Year or any prior Tax Year and after adding Tenant's Share of any interest paid to Landlord by the taxing authority in connection with such refund); provided, that such payment to Tenant shall in no event exceed Tenant's Tax Payment paid for such Tax Year (except to the extent of added interest). If Landlord fails to pay Tenant the overpayment within fifteen (15) days after the same is due, then any sum due shall accrue interest at the Interest Rate until it has been paid in full. If in any Tax Year included in the Term, the assessed value of the Project on which Taxes are calculated is increased over the prior Tax Year, Landlord shall cause the assessed value of the Project to be diligently contested unless in Landlord's reasonable judgment such contest would be unsuccessful.

2.05 Operating Payments. (a) "Base Operating Amount" means Operating Expenses for the Base Operating Year.

(b) "Base Operating Year" means calendar year 1996.

(c) "Landlord's Statement" means an instrument setting forth, in reasonable detail, the calculation of the Operating Payment payable by Tenant for a specified Operating Year, certified by Landlord. To the extent Landlord provides operating statements to Superior Mortgagees or Superior Lessee, which statements are certified by a certified public accountant, then Landlord will also deliver a copy of such certified statement to Tenant.

(d) "Operating Expenses" means all expenses paid or incurred by or on behalf of Landlord in respect of the repair, replacement, maintenance, operation and security of the Project, including, without limitation, (i) salaries, wages, medical, surgical, insurance (including, without limitation, group life and disability insurance), union and general welfare benefits, pension payments, severance payments, sick day payments and other fringe benefits of employees of Landlord, Landlord's Affiliates and their respective contractors engaged in such repair, replacement, maintenance, operation and/or security excluding employees of landlord and Landlord's Affiliates above the grade of building manager; provided, that with respect to such employees so engaged in connection with the Project and properties other than the Project, such expenses shall be equitably allocated between the Project and the property other than the Project; (ii) payroll taxes, worker's compensation, uniforms and related expenses (whether direct or indirect) for such employees;

(iii) the cost of fuel, gas, steam, electricity, heat, ventilation, air-conditioning band chilled or condenser water, water, sewer and other utilities, together with any taxes and surcharges on, and fees paid in connection with the calculation and billing of, such utilities; (iv) the cost of painting and/or decorating all areas of the Project, excluding, however, any space contained therein which is demised to tenants; (v) the cost of casualty, liability, fidelity, rent and all other insurance regarding the Project; (vi) except for tools and equipment related to alterations, repairs, replacements and/or improvements set forth in clause (x) below which shall be included in Operating Expenses in accordance with clause (x), the cost of all supplies, tools, materials and equipment, whether by purchase or rental, used in the repair, replacement, maintenance, operation and/or security of the Project, and any sales and other taxes thereon, provided, with respect to leased tools and equipment, if such tools and equipment are customarily purchased in first class midtown Manhattan office buildings and if purchased by Landlord would be capitalized pursuant to clause (x), then such tools and equipment shall be included in Operating Expenses as if purchased in connection with replacements set forth in clauses (x)(I), (II) or (III), as applicable, below; (vii) the rental value of Landlord's Building office and any other premises in the Building (not to exceed 1,000 square feet in the aggregate) utilized by the personnel of either Landlord, Landlord's Affiliates or Landlord's contractors, in connection with the repair, replacement, maintenance, operation and/or security thereof, and all office expenses, such as telephone, utility, stationery and similar expenses incurred in connection therewith; (viii) the cost of cleaning, janitorial and security services, including, without limitation, glass cleaning, snow and ice removal and garbage and waste collection and disposal; (ix) the cost of all interior and exterior landscaping and all temporary exhibitions located at or within the Project; (x) the cost of all alterations, repairs, replacements and/or improvements made at any time during and after the Base Operating Year by or on behalf of Landlord, whether structural or non structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not required by this Lease, and all tools and equipment related thereto; provided, that if under GAAP, any of the costs referred to in this clause (x) are required to be capitalized, then such costs shall not be included in Operating Expenses during and after the Base Operating Year unless they (I) are required by any Laws enacted after the date of this Lease, (II) have the effect of reducing expenses that would otherwise be included in Operating Expenses, or (III) constitute a replacement which in Landlord's reasonable judgment is prudent to make in lieu of repairs to the replaced item(s) (excluding in the case of this clause (III) the Capital Program Work and any portion of such replacement which consists of upgrading of the Building electrical, HVAC, telecommunications, or elevator systems (excluding upgrading which would be included in clauses (I) and (II)) or which are performed for cosmetic or aesthetic purposes)) (the cost of alterations, repairs, replacements and/or improvements described in clauses (I) and (III), together with interest thereon at the greater of (A) the Interest Rate in effect on December 31 of the Operating Year in which such costs were incurred or (B) the actual costs incurred by Landlord (not to exceed the Interest Rate) to finance such alterations, repairs, replacements and/or improvements described in clauses (I) and (III) of this clause (x), shall be amortized and included in Operating Expenses over the useful life of the item in question, as determined by Landlord in accordance with GAAP; the cost of alterations, repairs, replacements and/or improvements described in clause (II) of this clause (x) plus interest thereon, at the rate set forth above in this parenthetical, shall be included in Operating Expenses in the Operating Year in which such costs are incurred and in each Operating Year thereafter to the extent of the reduction in expenses resulting therefrom in such Operating Year until the entire cost thereof and interest thereon shall have been fully included in Operating Expenses); (xi) management fees equal to 2-1/2% of the aggregate rents, additional rents and other charges (excluding any amounts payable by other tenants in the Building and Tenant for miscellaneous charges and expenses such as, without limitations, overtime HVAC use, supervision charges or the freight elevator) payable to Landlord by tenants of the Building; provided, if during any relevant period, including the Base Operating Year, the rent, additional rent or other charges on which such management fee is calculated is abated, then, in such event, the management fee to be included in Operating Expenses for such period shall be increased to reflect the management fee (equal to 2-1/2%) which would have been included in Operating Expenses if such rent, additional rent or other charges would not have been abated; (xii) all reasonable costs and expenses of legal, bookkeeping, accounting and other professional services; (xiii) fees, dues and other contributions paid by or on behalf of Landlord to civic or other real estate organizations and any assessments, dues, levies or charges paid to any business improvement district or similar organization or to any entity on behalf of such an organization; and (xiv) subject to the limitations set forth above, all other fees, costs, charges and expenses properly allocable to the repair, replacement, maintenance, operation and/or security of the Project, in accordance with then prevailing customs and practices of first class office buildings in midtown Manhattan, City of New York. Operating Expenses shall reflect all rebates, credits and similar reductions received by or for the benefit of Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "Operating Expenses" shall not include the following:

(1) depreciation and amortization (except with respect to the alterations, repairs, replacements, and/or improvements described in clauses I, II and III of clause (x) of this Section 2.05(d));

(2) principal and interest payments and other costs incurred in connection with any financing or refinancing of the Project or any portion thereof (except as provided in clause (x) above);

(3) the cost of tenant improvements made for tenant(s) of the Building;

(4) brokerage commissions, consultant fees, and marketing, promotion and advertising expenses incurred in procuring tenants for the Building;

(5) the cost of any work or service (including, without limitation in connection with a cafeteria or dining facility, or athletic, luncheon or recreational club) performed for any tenant of the Building (including Tenant), whether at the expense of Landlord or such tenant, to the extent that such work or service is in excess of the work or service that Landlord is required to furnish Tenant under this Lease at the expense of Landlord;

(6) the cost of any electricity consumed in the Premises or in any other space in the Building demised to tenants;

(7) Taxes;

(8) legal fees incurred in preparing leases for tenants or in enforcing the terms of any lease;

(9) any cost to the extent Landlord is reimbursed therefor out of insurance proceeds or otherwise (Landlord hereby covenants and agrees to use reasonable efforts to collect any of the aforesaid amounts payable to Landlord, excluding litigation, and to prosecute such collection with due diligence) other than by means of operating expense reimbursement provisions contained in the leases of other tenants;

(10) franchise, estate, gift, mortgage recording, transfer gains, transfer, unincorporated business, commercial rent or income taxes imposed on Landlord;

(11) all compensation and fringe benefits of any leasing staff maintained by Landlord to procure tenants for the Building;

(12) rent concessions incurred in connection with procuring tenants to lease space in the Building including any costs related to procuring the surrender or modification of an existing lease of space in the Project;

(13) all amounts (other than management fees which shall be governed by Section 2.05(d)(xi) above) paid by Landlord to Affiliates of Landlord for goods and services in the Building to the extent the same materially exceed the costs of such goods or services supplied or rendered by unaffiliated third parties on a competitive basis in first class midtown Manhattan office buildings;

(14) legal fees and disbursements and other costs incurred by Landlord which would not have been incurred but for (i) the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord including any judgment or settlement and the arbitration and court costs in connection therewith and (ii) any bankruptcy of Landlord or similar proceeding;

(15) rent, additional rent and other charges payable by Landlord under any lease or sublease of space at the Building, which is assigned or further sublet to Landlord;

(16) Arbitration expenses to the extent unrelated to the costs and expenses includable in Operating Expenses;

(17) all costs incurred in connection with the acquisition or sale of development rights in connection with the Project or the conveyance of title to the Project;

(18) the cost to acquire, maintain, insure or replace works of art which are in the nature of "fine art" rather than decorative art work with no unusual value;

(19) any costs incurred by Landlord resulting solely by reason of Landlord's breach of the terms and conditions of a lease of space at the Project or any other contract or agreement in connection with the Building unless in Landlord's reasonable business judgment, the breach of such contract or agreement will have the effect of reducing expenses that would otherwise be included in Operating Expenses;

(20) all amounts paid by Landlord under the Superior Lease or any ground lease at the Project (other than amounts which constitute a reimbursement to the lessor under the Superior Lease or the ground lessor for items which would have been included in Operating Expenses under this Lease if the same were paid directly by Landlord) and all amounts paid by Landlord to consummate such Superior Lease or ground lease;

(21) all fines, penalties, interest and other late payment charges (other than as set forth in 2.05(d)(x) and costs of failing to take advantage of a prepayment discount);

(22) all costs of capital improvements and any other capital costs other than as expressly provided in Section 2.05(d)(x);

(23) all costs incurred by Landlord in connection with commercial concessions operated by Landlord to the extent such costs would not be included in Operating Expenses if such commercial concessions were operated by an entity other than Landlord;

(24) additions to Building reserves;

(25) dues paid for membership in trade associations or similar organizations other than such associations and organizations in which owners and managers of first class Manhattan office buildings are members but such costs will be allocated among the buildings owned or managed by Landlord or its Affiliates as applicable;

(26) costs of removing asbestos, PCB's or other hazardous materials or substances in or about the Project in connection with a capital abatement program (but excluding such removal costs incurred in the ordinary course of operating and maintaining the Project which shall be included in Operating Expenses);

(27) any costs for which Landlord is reimbursed by Tenant under another category of item included in Operating Expenses; and

(28) any costs associated with the sale, transfer or restructuring of the ownership of Landlord or the Project.

(e) "Operating Year" means each calendar year in which occurs any part of the Term.

(f) For each Operating Year, including the Operating Year in which the applicable Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date occurs, Tenant shall pay (each, an "Operating Payment") Tenant's Share of the amount, if any, by which Operating Expenses for such Operating Year exceed the Base Operating Amount.

(g) If during any relevant period (i) any rentable space in the Building above the ground floor shall be unoccupied, and/or (ii) the tenant or occupant of any space in the Building above the ground floor undertook to perform work or services therein in lieu of having Landlord perform the same and the cost thereof would have been included in Operating Expenses, then, in any such event, the Operating Expenses for such period shall be increased to reflect the Operating Expenses that would have been incurred if such space had been occupied or if Landlord had performed such work or services, as the case may be.

(h) Landlord may furnish to Tenant, prior to the commencement of each Operating Year, a statement setting forth Landlord's reasonable estimate of the Operating Payment for such Operating Year. Tenant shall pay to Landlord on the first day of each month during such Operating Year, an amount equal to 1/12th of landlord's estimate of the Operating Payment for such Operating Year. If Landlord shall not furnish any such estimate for an Operating Year or if Landlord shall furnish any such estimate for an Operating Year subsequent to the commencement thereof, then (A) until the first day of the month following the month in which such estimate is furnished to Tenant, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on the first day of each month an amount equal to the monthly sum payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Section 2.05 in respect of the last month of the preceding Operating Year; (B) after such estimate is furnished to Tenant, Landlord shall notify Tenant whether the installments of the Operating Payment previously made for such Operating Year were greater or less than the installments of the Operating Payment to be made in accordance with such estimate, and (x) if there is a deficiency, Tenant shall pay the amount thereof within thirty (30) days after such notification by Landlord, or (y) if there is an overpayment, Landlord shall, within thirty (30) days after such notification by Landlord refund to Tenant the amount thereof; and (C) on the first day of the month following the month in which such estimate is furnished to Tenant and monthly thereafter throughout such Operating Year Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to 1/12th of the Operating Payment shown on such estimate. Landlord may, during each Operating Year, furnish to Tenant a revised statement of Landlord's estimate of the Operating Payment for such Operating Year, and in such case, the Operating Payment for such Operating Year shall be adjusted and paid or refunded as the case may be, substantially in the same manner as provided in the preceding sentence.

(i) Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a Landlord's Statement for each Operating Year (and shall endeavor to do so within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each Operating Year). If Landlord's Statement shall show that the sums paid by Tenant, if any, under Section 2.05(h) exceeded the Operating Payment to be paid by Tenant for the applicable Operating Year, Landlord shall refund to Tenant the amount of such excess within thirty (30) days after the furnishing of such Landlord's Statement; provided, if such excess is not paid within one hundred fifty (150) days after the end of the applicable Operating Year, Landlord shall pay to Tenant such excess together with interest thereon at the Interest Rate from the date which is one hundred fifty (150) days after the applicable Operating Year through the date the refund is paid by Landlord; and if the Landlord's Statement shall show that the sums so paid by Tenant were less than the Operating Payment to be paid by Tenant for such Operating Year, Tenant shall pay the amount of such deficiency within thirty (30) days after the furnishing of such Landlord's Statement; provided, if such deficiency is not paid within thirty (30) days after the furnishing of such Landlord's Statement, Tenant shall pay to Landlord such deficiency together with interest thereon at the Interest Rate from the date which is thirty (30) days after the furnishing of such Landlord's Statement through the date the deficiency is paid by Tenant.

(j) (i) Tenant, upon notice given within one hundred eighty (180) days after Tenant's receipt of a Landlord's Statement, may elect to have Tenant's designated (in such notice) agent (who may be an employee of Tenant but who may not be paid on a contingency fee basis) examine such of Landlord's books and records (collectively "Records") as are directly relevant to such Landlord's Statement and Tenant shall be entitled, at its expense, to make copies of such Records to the extent relevant to Tenant's review. Tenant shall and shall cause its agent to treat all Records as confidential and only for the purposes herein intended and upon request of Landlord, shall confirm same in writing. Tenant shall not make any of the Records available, or disclose or communicate any of the contents of the Records directly or indirectly to any person or entity other than its agent, and other advisors for the sole purpose of evaluating and pursuing such disagreement with Landlord. As a condition to Tenant's right to review the Records, Tenant shall pay all sums required to be paid in accordance with the Landlord's Statement in question. If Tenant shall not give such notice within such one hundred eighty (180) day period, then such Landlord's Statement shall be conclusive and binding upon Tenant. Tenant and Tenant's employees, accountants and agents shall treat all Records as confidential, and, upon request by Landlord, shall confirm such confidentiality obligation in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, within 3-1/2 years after the expiration of the 1996 Operating Year, Tenant may deliver a notice of its election to review Landlord's Statement for the Operating Year 1996 with the first notice it delivers to Landlord under this Section 2.05(j)(ii) electing to review Landlord's statements for any subsequent operating year.

(ii) Tenant, within one hundred twenty (120) days after the date on which the Records are made available to Tenant, may send a notice ("Tenant's Statement") to Landlord that Tenant disagrees with the applicable Landlord's Statement, specifying in reasonable detail the basis for Tenant's disagreement and the amount of the Operating Payment Tenant claims is due (to the extent known to Tenant). If Tenant fails timely to deliver a Tenant's Statement, then such Landlord's Statement shall be conclusive and binding on Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall attempt to adjust such disagreement. If they are unable to do so Tenant shall notify Landlord, within one hundred fifty (150) days after the date on which the Records are made available to Tenant in connection with the disagreement in question, that Tenant desires to have such disagreement determined by an Arbiter, and promptly thereafter Landlord and Tenant shall designate a certified public accountant (the "Arbiter") whose determination made in accordance with this Section 2.05(j)(ii) shall be binding upon the parties. If Tenant timely delivers a Tenant's Statement, the disagreement referenced therein is not resolved by the parties and Tenant fails to notify Landlord of Tenant's desire to have such disagreement determined by an Arbiter within the one hundred fifty (150) day period set forth in the preceding sentence, then the Landlord's Statement to which such disagreement relates shall be conclusive and binding on Tenant. If the determination of the Arbiter shall substantially confirm the determination of Landlord, then Tenant shall pay the cost of the Arbiter. If the Arbiter shall substantially confirm the determination of Tenant, then Landlord shall pay the cost of the Arbiter. In all other events, the cost of the Arbiter shall be borne equally by Landlord and Tenant. The Arbiter shall be a member of an independent certified public accounting firm having at least three (3) accounting professionals, who are certified public accountants. If Landlord and Tenant shall be unable to agree upon the designation of the Arbiter within fifteen (15) days after receipt of notice from the other party requesting agreement as to the designation of the Arbiter, which notice shall contain the names and addresses of two or more certified public accountants who are acceptable to the party sending such notice, then either party shall have the right to request the American Arbitration Association (or any organization which is the successor thereto) (the "AAA") to designate as the Arbiter a certified public accountant whose determination made in accordance with this Section 2.05(j)(ii) shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties, and the cost of such certified public accountant shall be borne as provided above in the case of the Arbiter designated by Landlord and Tenant. Any determination made by an Arbiter shall not exceed the amount determined to be due in the first instance by Landlord's Statement, nor shall such determination be less than the amount claimed to be due by Tenant in Tenant's Statement, and any determination which does not comply with the foregoing shall be null and void and not binding on the parties, in which instance the parties will select a new certified public accountant to act as the Arbiter. In rendering such determination such Arbiter shall not add to, subtract from or otherwise modify the provisions of this Lease, including the immediately preceding sentence. Pending the resolution of any contest pursuant to this Section 2.05(j)(ii), and as a condition to Tenant's right to prosecute such contest, Tenant shall pay all sums required to be paid in accordance with the Landlord's Statement in question. If Tenant shall prevail in such contest, an appropriate refund shall be made by Landlord to Tenant. The term "substantially" as used in this Section 2.05(j)(ii), shall mean a variance of 5% or more of the Operating Payment in question. If Tenant shall prevail in such contest and the Arbiter shall confirm that the Operating Expenses was overstated by 10% or more of the Operating Expenses on which the Operating Payment was paid, then Landlord shall pay to Tenant, upon thirty (30) days demand by Tenant, the reasonable cost of the agent of Tenant which examined the Records in connection with such Operating Payment.

2.06 Tax and Operating Provisions. (a) In any case provided in Section 2.04 or 2.05 in which Tenant is entitled to a refund, Landlord may, in lieu of making such refund, credit or allow Tenant to recoup against future installments of Rent any amounts to which Tenant shall be entitled unless, after Tenant shall become entitled to such refund, Tenant demands Landlord pay such refund rather than credit such refund, in which case Landlord shall pay such refund to Tenant within thirty (30) days after demand by Tenant. Nothing in this Article 2 shall be construed so as to result in a decrease in the Fixed Rent. If this Lease shall expire before any such credit or recoupment shall have been fully applied, then (provided, that Tenant is not in default under this Lease) Landlord shall refund to Tenant the unapplied balance of such credit or recoupment. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, in the event that Landlord has not made an election to allow Tenant a credit against the Rent with respect to any refund due Tenant under Section 2.04 or 2.05 and Landlord has not paid Tenant within thirty (30) days after the payment was due, then Tenant on ten (10) days' notice to Landlord may recoup such amount due with interest at the Interest Rate by taking a recoupment against the Rent until such payment with all interest due thereon has been fully recouped.

(b) Landlord's failure to render or delay in rendering a Landlord's Statement with respect to any Operating Year or any component of the Operating Payment shall not prejudice Landlord's right to thereafter render a Landlord's Statement with respect to any such Operating Year or any such component, nor shall the rendering of a Landlord's Statement for any Operating Year prejudice Landlord's right to thereafter render a corrected Landlord's Statement for such Operating Year, provided, except with respect to a retroactive application of a Law or a new policy by a governmental authority, if Landlord shall fail to render a corrected Landlord's Statement with respect to any Operating Year or a corrected statement for any Tax Payment or installment thereof, in each case, within the earlier to occur of (i) three (3) years after the expiration of the applicable Operating Year or Tax Year (or in the case of Tax Statements, three (3) years after the last date on which costs applicable to the Tax Year in question were incurred) and (ii) five hundred forty-five (545) days after the expiration of the Term, then Landlord shall be deemed to have waived its claim to receive any additional Operating Payment or Tax Payment which would have been payable in connection with such corrected Landlord's Statement or corrected statement for Tax Payment. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, Landlord's failure to render or delay in rendering any statement with respect to any Tax Payment or installment thereof shall not prejudice Landlord's right to thereafter render such a statement, nor shall the rendering of a statement for any Tax Payment or installment thereof prejudice Landlord's right to thereafter render a corrected statement therefor.

(c) If in connection with a dispute with a tenant in the Building, a nonappealable decision by a court of competent jurisdiction, an arbiter in a fmal and binding arbitration or an accountant or other individual selected by Landlord and/or a tenant of the Building or the AAA or comparable body pursuant to the terms of the applicable lease which in each case is final, binding and nonappealable shall provide that Operating Expenses in any Operating Year included in the Term were overstated, then to the extent such overstatement resulted in Tenant paying an Operating Payment in excess of the Operating Payment Tenant would have paid if the Operating Expenses reflected such court's or arbiter's decision, to the extent applicable (a "Final Decision"), promptly after such decision, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a corrected Landlord's Statement together with payment of such excess; provided, if such court or arbiter shall finally decide the dispute later than 545 days after the expiration of the Term, Landlord shall not be required to refund such excess to Tenant. Landlord covenants and agrees to furnish Tenant with redacted copies of all relevant Final Decisions.

(d) Landlord and Tenant confirm that the computations under this Article 2 are intended to constitute a formula for agreed rental escalation and may or may not constitute an actual reimbursement to Landlord for Taxes and other costs and expenses incurred by Landlord with respect to the Project. If the Building shall be condominiumized, then Tenant's Operating Payments and Tax Payments shall, if necessary, be equitably adjusted such that Tenant shall thereafter continue to pay the same share of the Taxes and Operating Expenses of the Building as Tenant would pay in the absence of such condominimization.

(e) Each Tax Payment in respect of a Tax Year, and each Operating Payment in respect of an Operating Year, which (i) begins prior to the applicable Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date, or other date, with respect to space, other than Blocks, which Tenant is required pursuant to the terms of this Lease to commence paying Tax Payment and Operating Payments with respect to such space, and any tax refund pursuant to Section 2.04(f), shall be prorated to correspond to that portion of such Tax Year and Operating Year occurring after the applicable Tax and Operating Payment Commencement Date, or (ii) ends after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, and any tax refund pursuant to Section 2.04(f), shall be prorated to correspond to that portion of such Tax Year or Operating Year occurring within the Term.

2.07 Electric Charges. (a) If the Premises includes one or more entire floors, Tenant's demand for, and consumption of, electricity on such floors shall be determined by meter or meters installed (or, if existing, retrofitted) by Landlord at Landlord's expense. Tenant shall pay for such electric consumption within fifteen (15) days after rendition of bills therefor (which bills Landlord shall endeavor to provide monthly), which bills shall be rendered by or on behalf of Landlord separately for each meter.

(b) The amount payable by Tenant per "KW" and "KWHR" for electricity consumed within the Premises, whether determined by meters or as otherwise provided below, shall be 100% of the amount (as adjusted from time to time, "Landlord's Rate") at which Landlord from time to time purchases each KW and KWHR of electricity for the same period from the utility company (including all surcharges, taxes, fuel adjustments, taxes passed on to consumers by the public utility, and other sums payable in respect thereof). Landlord's Rate shall be determined by dividing the cost charged by said utility (averaged separately for KW and KWHRs) during each respective billing period by the number of KWs and KWHRs consumed by the Project as set forth on the utility company invoice for such period.

(c) If (i) the Premises includes one or more partial floors, (ii) any portion of Tenant's electric consumption (KW and KWHR) is measured on a meter that also measures the electric consumption of another tenant in the Building, (iii) Tenant occupies any full floors in the Premises prior to the installation of meters, or (iv) if a meter measuring Tenant's electric consumption (KW and KWHR) is malfunctioning, then in any such case Tenant's consumption (KW and KWHR) of electricity shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord, and Tenant shall pay 100% of Landlord's Rate as applied to such consumption (the "Actual Charge"); provided, that in no event shall Tenant pay less than $2.50 per rentable square foot per annum ($1.00 per rentable square foot per annum with respect to each Block during the period of Tenant's construction of initial Alterations in such Blocks (the "Minimum Charge").

(d) The Actual Charge shall be adjusted by Landlord from time to time if there is a change in Landlord's Rate, and may be adjusted by Landlord from time to time if, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, Tenant is not paying for the entire cost of Tenant's demand for, and consumption of, electricity, including, without limitation, by reason that additional electrical equipment is installed in the Premises, or if Tenant increases its hours of operation. If applicable, any adjustment to the Actual Charge shall be retroactive to the date of the relevant change in Tenant's consumption or in Landlord's Rate.

(e) If Tenant disagrees in good faith with any such determination or adjustment of the Actual Charge, Tenant shall notify Landlord thereof within ninety (90) days after landlord gives Tenant notice of such determination or adjustment or if Tenant believes (i) there is a change in Landlord's Rate or (ii) Tenant is paying in excess of the entire cost of Tenant's demand for and/or consumption of electricity, including, without limitation, by reason that electrical equipment is removed or altered in the Premises or if Tenant decreases its hours of operation, Tenant shall notify Landlord thereof. And in each case, Landlord shall retain, at Tenant's expense or Landlord's expense if the consultant substantially agrees with Tenant, an independent electrical consultant reasonably satisfactory to Tenant who shall survey the demand for, and consumption of, electricity by Tenant and, if applicable, each other tenant who shares such submeter, and the determination made by such electrical consultant shall be binding on Landlord and Tenant (provided, that in no event shall the charge to Tenant be less than the Minimum Charge). If Tenant fails to so disagree with any such determination or adjustment made by Landlord, or to request that Landlord obtain an independent electrical consultant, within such ninety (90) day period, such determination or adjustment shall be conclusive and binding on Tenant. Pending the determination of such consultant, Tenant shall pay the Actual Charge determined by Landlord, and upon such determination by the consultant, appropriate adjustment shall be made retroactive to the date of the relevant change with interest at the Interest Rate from the date each payment was made with respect to the relevant change (provided, that in the case of clauses (e)(i) and (ii), no adjustment will be made for any period which is forty-five (45) days prior to Tenant's notice to Landlord of the matters set forth in such clauses (e)(i) and (ii)). Landlord shall refund to Tenant any over payment as hereinabove provided within fifteen days after Landlord is notified of such consultants determination. Surveys of Tenant's electrical consumption shall be based upon the use of electricity during Business Hours on Business Days, and on such other days and hours when electricity is used in the Premises; and if cleaning services are provided by Landlord, such survey shall include Landlord's normal cleaning hours of five (5) hours per day for lighting within the Premises and for electrical equipment normally used for such cleaning. Surveys of Tenant's electrical consumption shall take into account that the Landlord's Rate or the electric consumption of Tenant during the period that the survey is conducted may be different than the Landlord's Rate or electric consumption of Tenant during the period covered by the Actual Charge that Tenant is contesting.

(f) Tenant shall at its cost furnish and install all replacement lighting, tubes, lamps, bulbs and ballasts required in the Premises.

(g) Landlord shall cooperate, at the sole cost and expense of Tenant, in Tenant's efforts to obtain electric utility incentives for which Tenant may be qualified, provided, that such efforts shall not in any way adversely impact Landlord, any tenants in the Building or the operation of the Building.

2.08 Manner of Payment. Tenant shall pay all Rent as the same shall become due and payable under this Lease either by wire transfer of immediately available federal funds or by check (subject to collection), drawn on a New York State bank, in each case at the times provided herein without notice or demand and without setoff or counterclaim. All Rent shall be paid in lawful money of the United States to Landlord at its office or such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, if Tenant fails to pay any Fixed Rent or recurring Additional Charges within five (5) days after the applicable due date or fails to pay any other Additional Charges within twenty (20) days after the applicable due date, then Tenant shall pay interest thereon at the Interest Rate from the date when such payment became due through and including the date such payment is received by Landlord. Any Additional Charges for which no due date is specified in this Lease shall be due and payable on the 10th day after the date of invoice.

Landlord Covenants

3.01 Landlord Services. (a) From and after the date that Tenant receives delivery of any Blocks (or in the case of cleaning from and after the date that Tenant first occupies the applicable Block for the conduct of Tenant's business, and not during any initial Alteration period or during the performance of Landlord's work) Landlord shall furnish Tenant with the following services in connection with such Blocks (collectively, "Landlord Services"):

(i) heat, ventilation and air-conditioning to the Premises during Business Hours on Business Days and from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday substantially in accordance with the design specifications set forth in Exhibit I attached hereto; if Tenant shall require heat, ventilation or air conditioning services through the Building's systems at any other times, Landlord shall furnish such service (A) in the case of a Business Day, upon receiving notice from Tenant by 3:00 p.m. of such Business Day and (B) in the case of a day other than a Business Day, upon receiving notice from Tenant by 1:00 p.m. of the immediately preceding Business Day which notice requirement in clause (A) and (B) above may be satisfied by delivering such notices to the building manager (who is currently Ed Fallon) by hand or by telecopy with confirmed receipt to (212) 397-7866 as such telecopy number may be changed by Landlord by notice to Tenant but during Business Hours only, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand Landlord's then established charges therefor (which, as of the date hereof is $165 per hour per zone (floors 23-29 being in the same zone) comprised of 8% for water, 59% for steam and 33% for electric energy and, from and after the date hereof, will not, unless otherwise required by Law, be comprised of any costs other than water, steam and electric energy or other utilities and Landlord will not increase its percentage profit factor in computing any of those components), provided, if other Building systems servicing the Premises service the premises leased by any other tenant in the Building and any such other Tenant requests heat, ventilation or air conditioning services during such time which Tenant is requesting such services then the charges therefor will be equitably apportioned by Landlord between such tenant and Tenant. If, as part of Tenant's initial Alterations to the Blocks or thereafter, Tenant intends to install a supplemental air conditioning system to serve the Premises, Landlord shall, at the request of Tenant, use reasonable efforts to make space available in the Building's mechanical areas located on the 25th floor of the Building for the placement of the mechanical equipment related to such supplemental air conditioning system. Tenant shall not be required to pay rent to Landlord for such space. Tenant shall, at its sole cost, maintain and service such system; provided, if such system is located in any part of the Building other than the Premises, Tenant shall be accompanied by a representative of Landlord who shall be made available to Tenant at reasonable times upon reasonable advance notice from Tenant and, other than during Business Hours on Business Days in connection with work that is not structural and does not affect the usage or proper functioning of the Building Systems, the actual cost incurred by Landlord for such representative shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within twenty (20) days after demand by Landlord. Landlord shall provide up to 100 tons of condenser water for such supplemental air conditioning system on a year-round basis through the Building's condenser water system based on Tenant's demonstrated need. Tenant shall have the right, upon payment to Landlord of Landlord's actual costs, to tap into the Building's condenser water system to allow Tenant to receive such condenser water. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after demand, Landlord's reasonable estimate of the actual cost of providing such condenser water (which, as of the date of this Lease, is $.08 per ton hour comprised of 90% for electric energy and 10% for water and from and after the date hereof, will not, unless otherwise required by Law be comprised of any costs other than water, electric energy or other utilities and Landlord will not increase its percentage profit factor in computing any of those components). Such condenser water shall be provided 24 hours a day and shall not exceed 88 degrees Fahrenheit at the entry point into the Premises. Wet connections to the Building's condenser water system are not permitted. Upon forty-five (45) days prior notice, Landlord shall perform any draindowns and refills required for Tenant's connection to the Building's condenser water system at the cost of Tenant;

(ii) steam in a manner consistent with a first class midtown Manhattan office building, if required by Tenant for any additional heating or permitted kitchen use, in which event Tenant shall pay to Landlord the cost of such steam as well as the cost of piping and other equipment or facilities required to supply steam to and distribute steam within the Premises; Landlord may install and maintain, at Tenant's expense, meters to measure Tenant's consumption of steam and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the quantities of steam shown on such meters and Landlord's charge for the production or purchase of such steam, on demand;

(iii) (A) passenger elevator service to each floor of the Premises at all times during Business Hours on Business Days, with at least two passenger elevators subject to call at all other times, and (B) except for the freight elevator dedicated to Equitable pursuant to and during the time periods set forth in that certain Lease dated as of July 20, 1995 between Landlord and Equitable (the "Equitable Lease"), a copy of which provision Landlord has previously delivered to Tenant, freight elevator service to the Premises on a first come-first served basis (i.e., no advance scheduling) during Business Hours on Business Days, and on a reserved basis at all other times upon the payment of Landlord's cost therefor (which, as of the date of this Lease is $65 per hour for the freight elevator and $65 per hour for the truck elevator comprised of 90% labor and 10% Landlord profit and which, after the date hereof, unless required by Law, shall be comprised of 90% labor and 10% profit); provided, during

Tenant's construction of its initial Alterations in the Blocks Tenant shall be entitled to receive up to 350 man-hours of such overtime freight elevator and truck elevator usage (for purposes of calculating such usage, freight and truck elevator time must be reserved jointly so that one (1) hour of freight elevator use will include one hour of truck elevator use and one hour of truck elevator use will include one hour of freight elevator use and 349 hours will remain after one hour of such use) without charge and the charge after such free usage for freight and truck elevator service during Tenant's initial Alterations in the Blocks during times other than Business Hours, on Business Days shall be comprised of labor only and no Landlord profit. The use of all elevators by Tenant shall be on a nonexclusive basis, except as otherwise provided herein. Landlord will maintain and operate all elevators servicing the Premises in a manner substantially consistent with Exhibit J attached hereto. Except as required by Law and except for the Elevator Reconfiguration set forth in Section 8.22, Landlord represents and warrants that as of the date hereof and covenants and agrees that throughout the Term the passenger elevators serving floors 23 through 29 of the Building provide service to those floors exclusively and serve no other floors of the Building above the lobby. Tenant shall be permitted to (x) install a security desk, in accordance with Exhibit H attached hereto, in the lobby of the Building adjacent to the elevator bank (4 elevators) serving floors 23 through 29, and (subject to the reasonable approval of Landlord as to the manner of use and design consistency with the remainder of the lobby) to maintain, at all times that Tenant is permitted access hereunder to the Premises, a security guard at such desk and (y) unless space serviced by such elevator bank serving floors 23 through 29 is leased or subleased by Landlord to any entity (other than Tenant) who refuses to be subject to the controlled access of Tenant's security desk, control access by persons other than Landlord, its employees, agents and contractors to such elevators servicing floors 23 through 29 of the Building in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as Tenant may control access to the Premises pursuant to this Lease; provided, that with respect to any entities to which Landlord has leased, or subleased space, such entities shall only be subject to reasonable controlled access of Tenant's security desk, at no cost to such entities; and further provided, that during any period that more than one full floor of the Blocks is occupied by any one or more entities other than Tenant, Tenant's Affiliates or Related Service Providers, at Landlord's option exercised by ten (10) days' notice to Tenant, Tenant's right to install and maintain the security desk and the related security guard shall be null and void and of no force and effect. During the three-year period after the Commencement Date of each Block, Tenant shall have the right to the exclusive use, during times other than Business Hours on Business Days, of one (1) passenger cab in the elevator bank serving such Blocks to transport personnel, hand tools and furniture in connection with the initial Alterations in such Blocks, provided, that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.03 hereof, Tenant shall be responsible for all damage caused to such elevator or the Building lobby arising from such use as provided in this sentence. Tenant shall install protective coverings reasonably acceptable to Landlord in the interior of such elevator and the Building lobby in order to protect the same from damage. If Tenant intends to move a substantial part of its furniture, equipment or files into or out of the Blocks, then provided Tenant coordinates such move with the building manager and provided Tenant is not in default of this Lease beyond any applicable notice and cure period, Tenant shall, from time to time as may be reasonable, be permitted to use, during times other than Business Hours on Business Days and other than times that Landlord intends to use such passenger cabs for repairs, maintenance or otherwise, one passenger cab serving the Blocks in connection with such moves (or all, except for one, available passenger cabs serving the Blocks after the Block F Commencement Date). Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.03 hereof, Tenant shall be responsible for all damage caused to such elevator cabs and to the Building lobby arising from such use in connection with such move. Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand Landlord's additional actual costs (including security and maintenance) of Tenant's use of the passenger cabs and Building lobby to transport construction personnel, hand tools and furniture in connection with the initial Alterations and in connection with such move. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, in no event shall passenger cabs be used to transport building materials or construction debris;

(iv) reasonable quantities of hot and cold water to the floor(s) on which the Premises are located for core lavatory, executive lavatory, pantry, drinking, sprinkler and cleaning purposes only in a manner consistent with first class midtown Manhattan office buildings; if Tenant requires water for any other purpose, Landlord shall furnish cold water at the Building core riser through a capped outlet located on each of the floors on which the Premises is located (within the core of the Building), and the cost of heating such water, as well as the cost of piping and supplying such water to the Premises, shall be paid by Tenant, provided, that Landlord will not charge Tenant a connection fee for connecting piping within the Premises to the capped outlet located on each of the floors of the Premises; Landlord may install and maintain, at Tenant's expense, meters to measure Tenant's consumption of cold water and/or hot water for such other purposes in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the quantities of cold water and hot water shown on such meters (including Landlord's standard charge for the production of such hot water, if produced by Landlord), on demand;

(v) electric energy in accordance with the specifications attached to this Lease as Exhibit K through presently installed electric facilities for Tenant's reasonable use of lighting and other electrical fixtures, appliances, supplemental air conditioning and equipment; in no event shall Tenant's consumption of electricity exceed the capacity of existing feeders to the Building or the risers or wiring serving the Premises as set forth on Exhibit L. If Tenant demonstrates the need for additional electric power for Tenant's use and occupancy of the Premises for the use permitted herein, and in Landlord's reasonable judgment (taking into account the then existing and future needs of other then existing and future tenants, and other needs of the Building), unallocated power is available in the Building, Landlord shall allocate additional electric energy to Tenant sufficient to provide Tenant with up to, and if reasonably necessary, more than 8 watts per useable square foot per floor (inclusive of electric energy already made available to Tenant as provided in Exhibit L attached to this Lease). Landlord reserves the right to discontinue the furnishing of electric energy to Tenant in the Premises at any time, upon prior notice, for a period of time reasonably necessary for Tenant to obtain electric energy directly from the public utility furnishing electric service to the Building. If Tenant is permitted by Law to obtain electric energy directly from the public utility company furnishing the same, Tenant may request Landlord to discontinue furnishing electric energy to Tenant in the Premises upon thirty (30) days prior notice. If Landlord or Tenant exercises such right of termination, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect and shall be unaffected thereby, except only that, from and after the effective date of such termination, Landlord shall not be obligated to furnish electric energy to Tenant. If Landlord so discontinues furnishing electric energy to Tenant, Tenant shall pay the electric charge, pursuant to Section 2.07 through the date of discontinuance and Tenant shall arrange to obtain electric energy directly from the public utility company furnishing electric service to the Building. Such electric energy may be furnished to Tenant by means of existing Building system feeders, risers and wiring to the extent the same is available, suitable and safe for such purpose and Landlord will not impose any additional charge for the use of such facilities;

(vi) cleaning services in accordance with Exhibit E attached hereto. Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand the costs incurred by Landlord for (A) extra cleaning work in the Premises required because of (x) misuse or neglect on the part of Tenant, its subtenants or their respective employees or visitors, (y) interior glass partitions or an unusual quantity of interior glass surfaces and (z) non-building standard materials or finishes installed in the Premises other than wood and stone flooring, carpeting or vinyl wall coverings, and (B) removal from the Premises and the Building of any refuse of Tenant in excess of that ordinarily accumulated in business office occupancy, including, without limitation, kitchen refuse, or at times other than Landlord's standard cleaning times. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord shall not be required to clean any portions of the Premises used for preparation, serving or consumption of food or beverages, training rooms, data processing or reproducing operations, film processing, infirmary, private lavatories or toilets or other special purposes requiring greater or more difficult cleaning work than office areas (collectively, "Extra Cleaning") and Tenant shall, except as hereinafter provided in this Section 3.01(a)(vi), retain Landlord's cleaning contractor to perform such cleaning at Tenant's expense. Landlord's cleaning contractor shall have access to the Premises after 6:00 p.m. and before 8:00 a.m. and not at other hours and shall have the right to use, without charge therefor, all light, power and water in the Premises reasonably required to clean the Premises. Tenant shall submit to Landlord's cleaning contractor, Tenant's specifications for the Extra Cleaning in the Premises and shall obtain from such contractor a bid for Extra Cleaning in the Premises. Provided that the bid submitted by such contractor is reasonably competitive, Tenant shall retain such contractor for the Extra Cleaning in the Premises. If such bid is not reasonably competitive, Tenant may retain another contractor reasonably acceptable to Landlord (which will utilize the same union local as Landlord's cleaning contractor) for the Extra Cleaning in the Premises; provided, that if Tenant retains a contractor other than Landlord's contractor, then (A) any reasonable out-of-pocket security expenses incurred from time to time by Landlord in supervising such contractor shall be paid by Tenant within thirty (30) days after demand therefor, (B) Tenant's contractor shall store all of its equipment and supplies and material within the Premises, and Landlord shall furnish no space therefor, and (C) Tenant shall bag and place all rubbish, garbage, waste and other debris in an area within the Premises reasonably designated by Landlord daily prior to 6:00 AM and Tenant will arrange with the contractor designated by Landlord or at Landlord's option, Landlord shall arrange, at Tenant's expense, for removal of such items from the Premises to the Building loading dock at such times as are reasonably designated by Landlord. The Extra Cleaning in the Premises shall be performed in a manner consistent with a first class midtown Manhattan office building. Tenant shall pay the contractor retained by Tenant directly for the cost of Extra Cleaning in the Premises and Landlord shall not be required to perform Extra Cleaning in the Premises; and

(vii) use of the Building's loading dock, (A) from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Business Hours or Business Days, on a first come-first serve basis (i.e., no advance scheduling) and no tenant in the Building, including Tenant, shall be permitted to advance schedule use of the Building's loading dock during such time periods and (B) on a reserved basis at all other times and Tenant shall pay Landlord's established charges for such after hours use of loading dock (which, as of the date of this Lease is $65 per hour for freight elevator and $65 per hour for the truck elevator comprised of 90% labor and 10% Landlord profit and which after the date hereof, unless required by Law, shall be comprised of 90% labor and 10% profit); provided, that Tenant shall not be required to pay Landlord's established charges for after hours use of the loading dock if it is paying Landlord's after hours charge for the freight elevator for the same period or is applying its free usage credit of the freight or truck elevator during its initial Alterations.

(viii) Landlord shall make available at no additional cost to Tenant reasonable shaft and conduit space in order for Tenant to receive reasonable and customary telecommunication and cable access from the companies or public utilities providing such services; provided, that during such access, Tenant shall be accompanied by a representative of Landlord who shall be made available to Tenant at reasonable times, upon reasonable advance notice from Tenant; and except when such representative is made available during Business Hours, on Business Days (during which period the representative shall be made available without charge), the actual cost to Landlord for such representative shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within twenty (20) days after demand by Landlord.

3.02 Other Building Services. (a) Except if and to the extent the following shall be Tenant's obligation pursuant to this Lease, Landlord shall, at Landlord's cost and expense (subject to reimbursement by Tenant as Operating Expenses to the extent provided for in Section 2.05 hereof) operate, maintain, repair and replace (if reasonably necessary) (i) all structural portions of the Building, such as, by way of example only, the roof, foundation, footings, exterior walls, load-bearing columns, ceiling and floor slabs, windows, window sills and sashes, (ii) all common and public service areas of the Building, including, without limitation, all elevators, corridors and lobbies, (iii) all Building systems (including, without limitation, the sprinkler and Class E system), serving the common and public service areas and the Premises (other than any distribution of such systems located in the Premises and installed by Tenant), in each case throughout the Term, and in such manner as is consistent with the maintenance, operation and repair standards of first class midtown Manhattan office buildings (the areas described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) are collectively called the "Landlord Obligation Areas").

(b) Landlord shall provide Building security in a manner which is consistent with a first class midtown Manhattan office building and shall maintain a security guard in the main lobby of the Building at all times.

(c) Landlord shall make available on each floor of the Blocks a connection to the cable television service providing such service to the Building.

3.03 General Provisions. (a) Landlord may stop or interrupt any Landlord Service, electricity, or other service and may stop or interrupt the use of any Building facilities and systems at such times as may be necessary and for as long as may reasonably be required by reason of accidents, strikes, or the making of repairs, alterations or improvements, or inability (other than the lack of funds) to secure a proper supply of fuel, gas, steam, water, electricity, labor or supplies, or by reason of any other cause beyond the reasonable control of Landlord; provided, that (i) Landlord shall not interrupt service of more than one passenger elevator at any one time during Business Hours on Business Days for repairs, ongoing maintenance, or renovations except in the case of an emergency, and (ii) if electric consumption in the Premises or any part thereof is required to be measured by meter, then except as provided in this Section 3.03 or Section 3.01(v), Landlord shall not permanently discontinue measuring such consumption by meter unless required by Law or a public utility tariff. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Lease, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant by reason of any stoppage or interruption of any Landlord Service, electricity or other service or the use of any Building facilities and systems for any reason. Landlord shall use reasonable diligence to make such repairs as may be required to machinery or equipment within the Project to provide restoration of any Landlord Service and, where the cessation or interruption of such Landlord Service has occurred due to circumstances or conditions beyond the Project boundaries, to cause the same to be restored by diligent application or request to the provider. Landlord shall take all steps as would be taken by owners of first class midtown Manhattan office buildings to restore such services at the earliest possible time, and shall conduct all repair and restoration work relating thereto in such manner as to minimize interference with or interruption of the conduct of Tenant's business in the Premises.

(b) Without limiting any of Landlord's other rights and remedies, if Tenant shall be in monetary default beyond any applicable grace period and which default is not being contested by a judicial proceeding or arbitration if provided for in this Lease. Landlord shall not be obligated to furnish to the Premises any supplemental service such as after hours heating, ventilation or air conditioning and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant by reason of any failure to provide, or discontinuance of, any such supplemental service. Landlord shall be obligated to restore such supplemental services if Tenant cures such default.

(c) "Business Hours" means 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. "Business Days" means all days except Saturday, Sundays, New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, the day following Thanksgiving, Christmas Day and any other days which are either (i) observed by both the federal and the state governments as legal holidays or (ii) designated as a holiday by the applicable Building Service Union Employee Service contract or Operating Engineers contract (which as of the date of this Lease are Good Friday, Columbus Day and Martin Luther King's Birthday).

(d) Any provision of this Lease which provides that Landlord or employees of Landlord shall perform a service for Tenant at Tenant's cost, charge or expense shall be deemed to mean that landlord or Landlord's designated contractor shall perform such service and Tenant shall pay such cost, charge or expense for such service to, at Landlord's election, either Landlord or such contractor (subject to the relevant provision of this Lease with respect to timing of payment, furnishing of backup and Tenant's dispute rights).

3.04 Additional Covenants. Landlord shall install the partition wall in the Building Lobby by the elevator serving the Blocks, in accordance with Exhibit N attached hereto.

Leasehold Improvements; Tenant Covenants

4.01 Initial Improvements. (a) Landlord shall perform or cause to be performed, in each Block, the work described on Exhibit G ("Landlord's Work"). All of Landlord's Work shall be performed by Landlord at Landlord's sole cost and expense. Subject . to delays by reason of Force Majeure and Tenant Delay, Landlord shall, with respect to each Block (other than the Delivered Blocks) (A) substantially complete Landlord's Work which, as set forth in Exhibit G, is a condition to delivery of such Block, on or before the applicable Commencement Date and (B) substantially complete such items of Landlord's Work which, as set forth in Exhibit G, are not a condition to delivery of such Block, on or prior to the date set forth in Exhibit G and if no date is set forth therein, then on the date that Tenant has substantially completed its Initial Alterations in the applicable Block and shall have given Landlord thirty (30) days' notice thereof. Tenant shall remove Tenant's Property from the Delivered Blocks and shall vacate and deliver to Landlord possession of the Delivered Blocks. Any items of Tenant's Property which remain in the Block B Space and the Block C Space after delivery of possession thereof to Landlord may, at the option of Landlord be deemed abandoned, and may be disposed of by Landlord, without accountability in such manner as Landlord shall determine at Tenant's reasonable expense. Tenant is not required to deliver all of the Delivered Blocks simultaneously to Landlord, but may deliver the Delivered Blocks in installments, provided, that each such delivery shall consist of full floor units or any space which was delivered to Tenant by landlord on the date hereof in less than full floor units. Subject to delay, by reason of Force Majeure and Tenant Delay, Landlord shall with respect to each of the Delivered Blocks (x) substantially complete Landlord's Work which, as set forth in Exhibit G, is a condition to delivery of such Delivered Block, within thirty (30) days after the later of fifteen (15)-days after Tenant shall have notify Landlord of the date it intends to vacate the Delivered Block and the date Tenant delivers to Landlord vacant session of the Delivered Block in the condition required in this Section 4.01 (the date Tenant so delivers to Landlord vacant possession of the Delivered Block is the "Tenant Delivery Date" and the day after such thirty (30) days is the "Stated Second Commencement Date") and (y) substantially complete such items of Landlord's Work which, as set forth in Exhibit G, is not a condition to delivery of such Blocks, on or prior to the date set forth in Exhibit G and if no date is set forth therein, then on the date that Tenant has substantially completed its Initial Alterations, in the applicable Delivered Block and shall have given Landlord thirty (30) days' notice thereof. On the applicable Commencement Date and Second Commencement Date, Tenant shall accept the Blocks in "as is" condition on such date, subject only to the requirements of this Section 4.01. All initial improvements which do not constitute Landlord's Work shall constitute Alterations and shall be performed by Tenant at Tenant's expense in accordance with Section 4.02 and any applicable provisions of Exhibit D. Possession of the Delivered Blocks in Delivery Condition, shall, subject to the terms of this Lease, be delivered to Tenant on the applicable Stated Second Commencement Date. If Landlord is unable to deliver possession of a Delivered Block to Tenant on or before the Stated Second Commencement Date in Delivery Condition, (x) the Stated Second Commencement Date shall be extended by one day for each day that Landlord shall be unable to deliver possession thereof in Delivery Condition (the Stated Second Commencement Date as the same may be extended is the "Second Commencement Date") and (y) Fixed Rent and Additional Charges payable pursuant to Sections 2.04 and 2.05 with respect to such undelivered Delivered Block shall be abated for (x) the number of days equal to the Block C and B Abatement Percentage, as applicable multiplied by the number of days that such failure to deliver continues beyond the Stated Second Commencement Date by reason other than Force Majeure and Tenant Delay (including, without limitation, the failure of Tenant to deliver possession of the Delivered Blocks to Landlord in the condition required in this Lease on the date required for such delivery) and (y) one day for each day that any of the Delivered Blocks are not delivered to Tenant in Delivery Condition beyond the Stated Second Commencement Date due to Force Majeure. The "Block C and B Abatement Percentage" means, with respect to the failure of landlord to deliver to Tenant possession of the Delivered Blocks on or prior to the Stated Second Commencement Date by reason other than the Force Majeure and Tenant Delay, (i) for the first thirty (30) days, 1.1 days, (ii) for the second thirty (30) days, 1.2 days, (iii) for the third thirty (30) days, 1.3 days, (iv) for the fourth thirty (30) days, 1.4 days and (v) for each day thereafter, 1.5 days. From the date Tenant delivers any of the Delivered Blocks to Landlord and until the applicable Second Commencement Date therefore, Tenant will not be responsible with respect to such Delivered Block to carry insurance or to indemnify Landlord, Superior Lessor and Superior Mortgagees for acts or omissions occurring in such Delivered Block other than the acts, omissions or negligence of Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers or any person claiming through or under Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers or any of the respective partners, directors, officers, agents, employees or contractors but shall otherwise be required to pay Fixed Rent, Tax Payments and Operating Payments, and perform all obligations it is otherwise required to perform with respect to such Delivered Blocks, other than obligations which arise out of Landlord's use of such Delivered Blocks during such period such as mechanics' liens arising from Landlord's Work, maintenance and repair of the Delivered Blocks, costs of electric consumption, compliance with Law related to Landlord's Work, and cleaning of the Delivered Block necessitated by Landlord's Work.

(b) Tenant shall have the right to install a supplemental air conditioning system to serve the Premises and, subject to the prior approval of Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, to install louvers to service such air cooled supplemental units in any portion of the exterior curtain wall on the floors where the Blocks are located except for (i) the west wall facing Avenue of the Americas, and (ii) the two window bays on the north and south walls nearest the west wall as more particularly described on Exhibit O attached hereto.

(c) As part of Tenant's initial Alterations to the Blocks, Tenant shall within 365 days after the Commencement Date or the Second Commencement Date (as the case may be) for each of the floors constituting Blocks perform the work set forth on Exhibit F annexed hereto ("Tenant's Required Work") with respect to such Blocks. Landlord shall allow Tenant an allowance in the amount of $20,000 for each full floor included in the Blocks plus 60 cents for each rentable square foot included in the Blocks (the "Tenant Required Work Allowance"), which allowance shall be applied against the cost and expense incurred by Tenant in connection with Tenant's Required Work. Tenant shall apply the entire Tenant Required Work Allowance for each Block only to the Tenant Required Work in such Block before being used for any other purpose. In the event that the cost and expense of Tenant's Required Work shall exceed the amount of the Tenant Required Work Allowance, Tenant shall be entirely responsible for such excess. In the event that the cost and expense of Tenant's Required Work shall be less than the amount of the Tenant Required Work Allowance, Tenant shall be allowed to retain any such excess. Tenant Required Work Allowance shall be paid to Tenant by official bank check drawn on a New York State Bank upon execution and delivery of this Lease by Landlord and Tenant.

(d) Landlord shall allow Tenant an allowance in the aggregate amount of $45 per rentable square foot for the Initial Blocks and an allowance for Block F Space equal to the amount calculated by multiplying $1,097,100 by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of months (including any partial months as a fraction) that the Block F Space is included in the demise hereunder and the denominator of which is 197 months (hereinafter called the "Work Allowance"), which allowance shall be solely applied against the cost and expense incurred by Tenant within three years after the applicable Commencement Date or the Second Commencement Date, as the case may be, in connection with (i) the performance of Tenant's initial Alterations in all or any part of the Blocks including without limitation permit costs and costs of construction related consultants, (ii) moving into the Blocks, (iii) services performed by Tenant's Registered Architect and Professional Engineer in connection with such initial Alterations therein, (iv) the purchase and installation of telecommunication equipment and furniture therein and (v) such other work, materials and services in connection with Tenant's initial occupancy therein which are reasonably approved by Landlord ("Tenant's Allowance Work"). Tenant may apply the Work Allowance with respect to any Block to the Tenant's Allowance Work incurred by Tenant in any other Block. In the event that the cost and expense of Tenant's Allowance Work shall exceed the amount of the Work Allowance, Tenant shall be entirely responsible for such excess. In the event that the cost and expense of Tenant's Allowance Work shall be less than the amount of the Work Allowance, then the amount of such difference shall be applied as a credit against the Rent payable hereunder by Tenant. Twenty-five percent of the Work Allowance for the Initial Blocks shall be payable on the execution and delivery of this Lease by Landlord and Tenant by official bank check drawn on a New York State Bank and twenty-five percent of the Work Allowance for the Block F Space shall be payable on the Block F Commencement Date by official bank check drawn on a New York State Bank (the "Initial Work Allowance"). The balance of the Work Allowance shall be payable as Tenant's Allowance Work progress within thirty (30) days after Tenant shall make periodic requisitions for portions thereof not to exceed in the aggregate the amount of the Work Allowance provided (A) together with the first such requisition for the Work Allowance for the Initial Blocks and for the Block F Space as applicable, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord the items required in clauses (i) and (ii) first appearing below with respect to the portion of the Tenant Work Allowance paid to Tenant prior to the first requisition for such Block (including evidence that such Tenant Work Allowance has been spent) and with respect to the Tenant Required Work Allowance, (B) all such requisitions shall be submitted no more frequently than once per month and (C) except as provided for in the next paragraph, no requisition shall include the last 10% of the Tenant Work Allowance until all the requirements for final payment of Tenant's Work Allowance as set forth in this Section 4.01(d) with respect to the Blocks have been complied with. Landlord shall pay directly to Tenant by a check drawn on a New York State bank an amount equal to the total cost of the portion of Tenant's Allowance Work for each Block referenced in such requisition, provided, that Tenant shall furnish to Landlord together with such requisition:

(i) copies of invoices from the contractors, materialmen and others performing the portion of Tenant's Allowance Work with respect to the applicable Block referenced in such requisition; and

(ii) a certificate from Tenant (executed by an officer of Tenant holding the office of vice-president or higher) and Tenant's Registered Architect stating that such portion of Tenant's Allowance Work with respect to the applicable Block has been substantially completed or substantially installed in accordance with Tenant's approved design drawings and specifications and that payment is due and owing for such work.

Prior to the final payment by Landlord of the last 10% of the Tenant's Work Allowance for the Blocks, in addition to the requirements set forth in this Section 4.01(d) above, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord to the extent not previously furnished to Landlord:

(iii) a certificate from Tenant and Tenant's Registered Architect stating that Tenant's Allowance Work and Tenant's Required Work with respect to the Blocks have been substantially completed in accordance with Tenant's approved design drawings and specifications;

(iv) all sign-off documents with respect to Tenant's Allowance Work and Tenant's Required Work with respect to the Blocks from all agencies having jurisdiction;

(v) written final unconditional lien waivers, from all contractors, materialmen and others performing Tenant's Allowance Work and Tenant's Required Work with respect to the Blocks or, if any of such lien waivers cannot be obtained by Tenant, notwithstanding its reasonable efforts to obtain the same, a written statement by Tenant, either that it has paid the contractor in question or the general contractor (in the event that the missing lien waiver is from a subcontractor) or that a dispute exists with the contractor and Tenant has reserved an amount sufficient to pay the amount in dispute;

(vi) copies of all licenses and permits required by governmental authorities for operation and occupancy of such Block (except to the extent of Tenant's inability to obtain such licenses and permits is delayed due to the failure of Landlord to sign applications, for governmental permits or remove a violation in accordance with and within the time periods provided in Section 4.02(j) and Section 2.02(b) hereof respectively;

(vii) as-built plans and specifications, with respect to Tenant's Allowance Work and Tenant's Required Work with respect to the Blocks; and (viii) copies of all guarantees and warranties issued to Tenant in connection with Tenant's Allowance Work and Tenant's Required Work with respect to the Blocks.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that Tenant has complied with all of the provisions of Section 4.02(d)(i)-(viii), except that Tenant has not been able to obtain a sign-off document, license or permit (individually or collectively a "Governmental Approval") as provided for in Section 4.02(d)(iv) or (vi) and the sole reason that Tenant has not been able to obtain such Governmental Approval is that the appropriate agency has not performed its inspection or taken such other ministerial action; then in such event Landlord will disburse to Tenant all but the last 2% of the Tenant Work Allowance and will disburse the final 2% upon receipt of the required Governmental Approval.

(e) If Landlord fails to pay the Work Allowance or any part thereof which is due and payable under this Lease on or before the due date therefor and such failure continues for fifteen (15) days after Tenant notifies Landlord of such failure (which notice shall state that Tenant intends to set off or recoup such amount against the next installment of Rent unless Landlord pays such amount to Tenant) (an "Offset Notice"), then Tenant may, in addition to any other remedies it may have for the failure to pay such amount, set-off or recoup such amount against Rent payable under this Lease, together with interest accrued thereon at the Interest Rate from the date which such amount became due and payable to the date of Landlord's payment or Tenant's recoupment of such amount. Any dispute with respect to Tenant's entitlement to all or any portion of the Work Allowance may be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof. If Landlord disputes Tenant's entitlement to all or any part of the Work Allowance, Landlord may nevertheless pay the amount of the disputed Work Allowance without prejudice to Landlord's dispute.

4.02 Alterations. (a) Tenant shall make no improvements, changes or alterations in or to the Premises or the Building ("Alterations") without Landlord's prior approval. Provided Tenant is not in default under this Lease beyond any notice and cure period, Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its approval to any Alteration that is not a Material Alteration (or to any Material Alteration to which it has otherwise in this Lease agreed to not unreasonably withhold its consent). Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Landlord's consent shall not be required with respect to work solely involving painting, decorating and/or wall covering ("Decorating"), provided, that, in each case such work does not require Tenant to obtain a building permit and (ii) Landlord shall be deemed not to have unreasonably withheld its consent to any Alteration if such Alteration requires the consent of any Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor and such consent shall have been withheld by such Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor. "Material Alteration" means an Alteration that (i) is not limited to the interior of the Premises or which affects the exterior (including the appearance) of the Building, (ii) is structural or affects the strength of the Building (except Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its approval with respect to one floor cut on each floor of the Premises for an internal staircase, core drill of slab, treaded rod and isolators for installation of equipment and increasing the live load), (iii) affects the usage or the proper functioning of any of the Building systems except if the usage or functioning of the Building System is not materially or adversely affected and the Alteration is limited to and does not affect any part of the Building other than the interior of the Premises, or (iv) requires a change to the Building's certificate of occupancy unless such change is limited to the certificate of occupancy for the Premises and is in connection with an Identified Ancillary use. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Alteration to which Landlord has consented requires access to the Building's shafts, risers, conduits, utility closets and machine rooms, then Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to reasonable and customary access and use of the Building's shafts, risers, conduits, utility closets and machine rooms in connection therewith subject to the reasonable requirements of Landlord, including, without limitation, the time periods and manner of access and supervision by personnel of Landlord; provided, that during such access, Tenant shall be accompanied by a representative of Landlord who shall be made available to Tenant at reasonable times, upon reasonable advance notice from Tenant; and except when such representative is made available during Business Hours, on Business Days (during which period the representative shall be made available without charge), the actual cost to Landlord for such representative shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within twenty (20) days after demand by Landlord.

(b) Tenant, in connection with any Alteration, shall comply with the Alteration Rules and Regulations set forth as Exhibit D, attached hereto. To the extent any of the provisions contained in Exhibit D conflict with the provisions of the Lease, the provisions of the Lease shall govern and control. To the extent any of the provisions contained in Exhibit D are modified or supplemented by Landlord after the date hereof, and as a result thereof, there is a conflict between the provisions of the Lease and the provisions of such modified or supplemented Exhibit D, the provisions of the Lease shall govern and control; provided, however, that in no event shall Landlord modify or supplement the provisions of Exhibit D, relating to the construction supervisory fee. Tenant shall not proceed with any Alteration which is not Decorating unless and until Landlord approves Tenant's plans and specifications therefor. Landlord shall, within twenty (20) days following receipt of Tenant's plans and specifications, advise Tenant of Landlord's approval or disapproval of such plans and specifications or any part thereof. If Landlord shall fail to approve or disapprove Tenant's plans and specifications or any part thereof within such twenty (20) days, Tenant shall have the right to give a reminder notice to Landlord and if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove Tenant's plans and specifications or any part thereof within two (2) Business Days after receipt of such reminder notice, Landlord shall be deemed to have approved such plans and specifications or the applicable part thereof. If Landlord shall disapprove such plans and specifications (or any part thereof), Landlord shall set forth its reasons for such disapproval in writing and in reasonable detail and itemize those portions of the plans and specifications so disapproved. Landlord shall advise Tenant with ten (10) days following receipt of Tenant's revised plans and specifications, or portions thereof, of Landlord's approval or disapproval of the revised plans and specifications or any portion thereof, and shall set forth Landlord's reasons for any such further disapproval in writing and in reasonable detail. If Landlord fails to approve or disapprove the revised plans and specifications or any portion thereof within such ten (10) days, Tenant shall have the right to give a reminder notice to Landlord and if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove Tenant's plans and specifications or any part thereof within two (2) Business Days after receipt of such reminder notice, Landlord shall be deemed to have approved the revised plans and specifications or such portions thereof. If Tenant's Plans and Specifications are in connection with an Alteration, other than a Material Alteration, Tenant may submit any dispute with Landlord as to the reasonableness of Landlord's disapproval of such plans and specifications to arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 hereof. Any review or approval by Landlord of plans and specifications with respect to any Alteration is solely for Landlord's benefit, and without any representation or warranty to Tenant with respect to the adequacy, correctness or efficiency thereof, its compliance with Laws or otherwise.

(c) Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the reasonable and customary fees of any architect or engineer employed by Landlord or any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee for such purpose) for reviewing plans and specifications and inspecting Alterations (other than Decorating).

(d) Except if the Tenant is a Qualified Tenant, before proceeding with any Alteration that will cost more than $250,000 (exclusive of the costs of Decorating and items constituting Tenant's Property), as estimated by a reputable contractor designated by Landlord and reasonably acceptable to Tenant, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord one of the following: (i) a cash deposit, (ii) a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond (issued by a corporate surety licensed to do business in New York reasonably satisfactory to Landlord) or (iii) an irrevocable, unconditional, negotiable letter of credit, issued by a bank and in a form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord; each to be equal to 110% of the cost of the Alteration, estimated as set forth above. Any such letter of credit shall be for one year and shall be renewed by Tenant each and every year until the Alteration in question is completed and shall be delivered to Landlord not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of the then current letter of credit, failing which Landlord may present the then current letter of credit for payment. Upon (A) the completion of the Alteration in accordance with the terms of this Section 4.02 and (B) the submission to Landlord of (x) proof evidencing the payment in full for said Alteration, (y) written unconditional lien waivers of mechanics' liens and other liens on the Project from all contractors performing said Alteration and (z) all submissions required pursuant to Section B4 of Exhibit D attached hereto, the security deposited with Landlord (or the balance of the proceeds thereof, if Landlord has drawn on the same) shall be returned to Tenant. Upon Tenant's failure properly to perform, complete and fully pay for any Alteration, as reasonably determined by Landlord, Landlord may, upon notice to Tenant, draw on the security deposited under this Section 4.02(d) to the extent Landlord deems necessary in connection with said Alteration; the restoration and/or protection of the Premises or the Project and the payment of any costs, damages or expenses resulting therefrom. Any cash security deposit being held by Landlord pursuant to this Section 4.02(d) will be held in escrow in an interest bearing account and all interest will accrue for the benefit of Tenant. Notwithstanding any provision in this Lease to the contrary as long as Tenant is a Qualified Tenant, no subtenant will be required to comply with the terms of this Section 4.02(d) unless Landlord has agreed to provide a nondisturbance agreement to such subtenant.

(e) Tenant shall obtain (and furnish, prior to commencement and prosecution of Alterations, copies to Landlord of) all necessary governmental permits and certificates for the commencement and prosecution of Alterations and for final approval thereof upon completion, and shall cause Alterations to be performed in compliance therewith, and in compliance with all Laws and in substantial compliance with the plans and specifications approved by Landlord. Alterations shall be diligently performed in a good and workmanlike manner, using new materials and equipment at least equal in quality and class to the then standards for the Building. Alterations other than Decorating shall be performed by contractors first approved by Landlord which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or by the contractors listed in Exhibit P hereto; provided, that any Alterations in and to the base building systems shall be performed only by contractors designated by Landlord, including, as of the date hereof the contractors listed on Exhibit P. Landlord may from time to time add and delete names from Exhibit P. If Landlord shall fail to approve or disapprove of any contractors within twenty (20) days after Tenant's request for Landlord's approval, Tenant shall have the right to give a reminder notice to Landlord and if Landlord fails to approve or disapprove such proposed contractor within two (2) Business Days after receipt of such reminder notice, Landlord shall be deemed to have approved such contractor. Tenant may submit any dispute with Landlord as to the reasonableness of Landlord's disapproval of such contractors to arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 hereof. The performance of any Alteration shall not be done in a manner which would violate Landlord's union contracts affecting the Project, or create any work stoppage, picketing, labor disruption, disharmony or dispute or any interference with the business of Landlord or any tenant or occupant of the Building. Tenant shall immediately stop the performance of any Alteration if Landlord notifies Tenant that continuing such Alteration would violate Landlord's union contracts affecting the Project, or create any work stoppage, picketing, labor disruption, disharmony or dispute or any interference with the business of Landlord or any tenant or occupant of the Building.

(f) Throughout the performance of Alterations, Tenant shall carry worker's compensation insurance in statutory limits, "all risk" Builders Risk coverage valued on a replacement cost basis and written on a completed value basis and general liability insurance with limits of not less than the limits required in Section 7.02, with completed operation endorsement, for any occurrence in or about the Project, under which Landlord and its agent and any Superior Lessor and Superior Mortgagee whose name and address have been furnished to Tenant shall be named as additional insureds (except with respect to worker's compensation and Builders Risk coverage, provided, that any insurance proceeds of the Builders Risk coverage covering Improvements and Betterments shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord as and when required in this Lease), with insurers which comply with the provisions of Section 7.02. Tenant shall furnish Landlord with evidence that such insurance is in effect at or before the commencement of Alterations and, on request, at reasonable intervals thereafter during the continuance of Alterations.

(g) Should any mechanics' or other liens be filed against any portion of the Project by reason of the acts or omissions of, or because of a claim against, Tenant or anyone claiming under or through Tenant, Tenant shall cause the same to be canceled or discharged of record by bond or otherwise within sixty (60) days after notice from Landlord. If Tenant shall fail to cancel or discharge said lien or liens within said 60-day period, Landlord may, upon 5 days' prior notice to Tenant, (which notice may be given at any time but not earlier than fifty-five (55) days after Landlord shall have sent the sixty (60) day notice provided above in this clause (g)) cancel or discharge the same and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all costs incurred in canceling or discharging such liens, together with interest thereon at the Interest Rate from the date incurred by Landlord to the date of payment by Tenant, such reimbursement to be made within fifteen (15) days after receipt by Tenant of a written statement from Landlord as to the amount of such costs. Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements and costs of suit), losses, liabilities or causes of action arising out of or relating to any Alteration, including, without limitation, any mechanics' or other liens asserted in connection with such Alteration.

(h) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after the completion of an Alteration other than Decorating, "as-built" drawings thereof. During the Term, Tenant shall keep records of Alterations other than Decorating costing in excess of $5,000 including plans and specifications, copies of contracts, invoices, evidence of payment and all other records customarily maintained in the real estate business relating to Alterations and the cost thereof and shall, within thirty (30) days after demand by Landlord, furnish to Landlord copies of such records.

(i) All Alterations to and Fixtures installed by Tenant in the Premises shall be fully paid for by Tenant in cash and shall not be subject to conditional bills of sale, chattel mortgages, or other title retention agreements.

(j) Provided Tenant complies with the provisions of this Section 4.02 and Exhibit D in connection with Alterations, Landlord shall, within ten (10) Business Days (or five (5) Business Days in connection with Tenant's initial Alterations in the Blocks) after request of Tenant, sign such applications for governmental permits as Tenant may reasonably require in connection with Alterations which have been consented to by Landlord.

4.03 Landlord's and Tenant's Property. (a) All fixtures, equipment, improvements and appurtenances attached to or built into the Premises, whether or not at the expense of Tenant other than Tenant's Property (collectively, "Fixtures"), shall be and remain a part of the Premises and shall not be removed by Tenant except that in connection with an Alteration, Tenant may remove such Fixtures; provided, that such removed Fixtures are replaced with Fixtures consistent with the Fixtures installed in the Building by other tenants in the Building and all damage to the Premises caused by such removal is repaired in connection with such Alteration. All Fixtures constituting Improvements and Betterments shall be the property of Tenant during the Term and, upon expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, shall become the property of Landlord. All Fixtures other than Improvements and Betterments shall, upon installation, be the property of Landlord. "Improvements and Betterments" means (i) all Fixtures, if any, installed at the expense of Tenant, whether installed by Tenant or by Landlord (i.e., excluding any Elevator Reconfiguration Work and Fixtures paid for by Landlord directly or by way of the Work Allowance or Tenant Required Work Allowance or any other work allowance paid by Landlord to Tenant in connection with Additional Space included in the Premises) and (ii) all carpeting in the Premises.

(b) All movable partitions, business and trade fixtures, special cabinet work, machinery and equipment, and all furniture, furnishings and other articles of movable personal property owned by Tenant its Affiliates, subtenants or Related Service Providers and located in the Premises (collectively, "Tenant's Property") shall be and shall remain the property of Tenant and may be removed by Tenant at any time during the Term; provided, that if any Tenant's Property is removed, Tenant shall repair any damage to the Premises or to the Building resulting from the installation and/or removal thereof.

(c) At or before the Expiration Date, or within fifteen (15) days after any earlier termination of this Lease, Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall remove Tenant's Property from the Premises (except such items thereof as Landlord shall have expressly permitted to remain, which shall become the property of Landlord), and Tenant shall repair any damage to the Premises or the Building resulting from any installation and/or removal of Tenant's Property. Any items of Tenant's Property which remain in the Premises after the Expiration Date, or more than fifteen (15) days after an earlier termination of this Lease, may, at the option of Landlord, be deemed to have been abandoned, and may be retained by Landlord as its property or disposed of by Landlord, without accountability, in such manner as Landlord shall determine, at Tenant's reasonable expense.

(d) Landlord, by notice (the "Fixture Notice") given to Tenant, may require Tenant, notwithstanding Section 4.03(a), to remove all or any Fixtures that do not constitute a standard office installation, such as, by way of example only, kitchens, vaults, safes, raised flooring and stairwells. Such notice shall be given (i) together with Landlord's consent to the installation of any Fixture (other than a Fixture installed as part of the initial Alterations in the Blocks), (ii) within thirty (30) days after Landlord receives Tenant's Fixture List, with respect to Fixtures installed in the Blocks as part of the initial Alterations in the Blocks, (iii) at any time prior to the earlier of (x) sixty (60) days after notice of Landlord's obligation to provide a Fixture Notice is delivered by Tenant to Landlord (which notice by Tenant shall not be delivered earlier than two hundred seventy (270) days prior to the Expiration Date) and (y) the Expiration Date or at any time not later than thirty (30) days after any earlier termination of the Lease, with respect to (A) Fixtures installed as part of Tenant's initial Alterations to the Blocks and not included in Tenant's Fixture List or (B) Fixtures, the installation of which was not consented to by Landlord or was not required to be consented to by Landlord. If Landlord shall give such notice, then Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall remove the same from the Premises, shall repair and restore the Premises to the condition existing prior to installation thereof and shall repair any damage to the Premises or to the Building due to such removal prior to the Expiration Date or earlier termination of this Lease (except that in the event of Fixtures installed as set forth in clause (iii) in connection with an early termination of this Lease, within thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice by Landlord) and the existence of such Fixtures and their removal by Tenant shall not constitute a holding over by Tenant. Promptly after Tenant completes its initial Alterations, Tenant shall provide to Landlord a list (the "Fixture List") of the Fixtures to be installed by Tenant in the Blocks. Notwithstanding any provisions herein to the contrary, at the Landlord's option Tenant shall remove the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit on or prior to the Expiration Date or within thirty (30) days of an earlier termination of this Lease.

4.04 Access and Changes to Building. (a) Landlord reserves the right, at any time, to make changes in or to the Project as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable, and Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant therefor, provided, that any such change does not materially and adversely interfere with Tenant's reasonable access to Avenue of the Americas, 51st Street, 52nd Street, the lobby, the concourse, 75 Rock Passage or the Premises and does not affect the first class nature of the Project or the services provided to Tenant. Landlord may install and maintain pipes, fans, ducts, wires and conduits within or through the walls, floors or ceilings of the Premises; provided, that same are concealed behind walls, below floors or above ceilings, and do not reduce the rentable square feet in the Premises beyond a de minimis extent in the aggregate. In exercising its rights under this Section 4.04, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Tenant's use of the Premises for the ordinary conduct of Tenant's business. Tenant shall not have any easement or other right in or to the use of any door or any passage or any concourse or any plaza connecting the Building with any subway or any other building or to any public conveniences, and the use of such doors, passages, concourses, plazas and conveniences may, without notice to Tenant, be regulated or discontinued at any time by Landlord, provided, that, subject to Force Majeure, requirements of Law and to temporary closures due to among other things, the need for repairs, improvements, maintenance and/or cleaning, Landlord shall not, during Business Hours on Business Days during the Term, close the access from the Building to the underground passage outside the Building ("75 Rock Passage") which connects the Building to the underground passage ("Adjacent Passage") providing access to 75 Rockefeller Plaza and the Rockefeller Center Concourse. Landlord makes no representation as to the permissibility of keeping the 75 Rock Passage or access thereto from the Building or access to the Adjacent Passage open under applicable Law or otherwise or the rights of Landlord with respect thereto. If the 75 Rock Passage or access thereto from the Building or access to the Adjacent Passage from the Project is closed, then Landlord shall promptly, upon the request of and cost of Tenant take such reasonable actions as may be requested by Tenant to cause the 75 Rock Passage, access thereto from the Building, and access to the Adjacent Passage from the Project, as applicable, to be reopened.

(b) Except for the space within the inside surfaces of all walls, hung ceilings, floors, windows and doors bounding the Premises, all of the Building, including, without limitation, exterior Building walls, core corridor walls and doors and any core corridor entrance, any terraces or roofs adjacent to the Premises, and any space in or adjacent to the Premises used for shafts, stacks, pipes, conduits, fan rooms, ducts, electric or other utilities, sinks or other Building facilities, and the use thereof, as well as access thereto through the Premises, are reserved to Landlord and are not part of the Premises. Landlord reserves the right to name the Building and to change the name or address of the Building at any time and from time to time; provided, that if Landlord changes the address of the Building, then at the request of Tenant and at Landlord's cost, Landlord shall make all appropriate filings with the United States Post Office, if any such filings are available, to continue delivering mail to the Building which is addressed to the prior address. Nothing in this Section 4.04(b) shall be construed to diminish Tenant's rights under Article 10, Section 4.02 or other express provisions of the Lease which permit Tenant access to shaft space or other non-Premises space in the Building nor shall this Section 4.04(b) be construed to prevent Tenant from making reasonable and customary use of the plenums in the Premises and areas behind nonstructural walls in the Premises for duct work, wiring and other customary uses.

(c) Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if at any time any windows of the Premises are either temporarily darkened or obstructed for less than 60 consecutive days or if at any time any windows of the Premises are temporarily darkened or obstructed by reason of any repairs, improvements, maintenance and/or cleaning in or about the Building (or permanently darkened or obstructed if required by Law) or covered by any translucent material for the purpose of energy conservation, or if any part of the Building, other than the Premises, is temporarily closed or inoperable. Landlord shall not permanently close or permanently render inoperable the entrance to the Building located at 51st Street, 52nd Street and Avenue of the Americas, the 75 Rock Passage, the elevators servicing the Premises, the truck elevator or the loading dock and the waiver of liability herein above provided in this clause (c) shall not apply if the same is permanently closed or permanently rendered inoperable; provided, that Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant if the same are required to be permanently closed or to be permanently rendered inoperable by Law or by condemnation. The phrase "Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant" as used in this Section 4.04(c) shall not be interpreted to restrict any right of Tenant to claim a constructive eviction if otherwise permitted by law.

(d) Landlord and persons authorized by Landlord shall have the right, upon prior notice to Tenant (except in an emergency, in which case, upon such notice, if any, which in Landlord's reasonable determination is appropriate), to enter the Premises (together with any necessary materials and/or equipment), to inspect or perform such work as Landlord may reasonably deem necessary or to exhibit the Premises to prospective purchasers or lenders or, during the last 24 months of the Term, to prospective tenants, or for any other reasonable purpose as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable. Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize interference with Tenant's use and enjoyment of the Premises and to exercise due care in entering and exiting the Premises. During the performance of any work of Landlord in or about the Premises, Landlord shall have the right to store in the Premises materials and equipment utilized in connection with such work, but only so much materials as would be consumed in one day and only such equipment as is reasonably necessary. Other than in connection with an emergency, Landlord shall not enter the Premises unless accompanied by a representative of Tenant; provided, that Tenant shall have made such representative available to Landlord upon reasonable prior notice (not to exceed one Business Day). Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 4.04(d), except (i) in emergencies, (ii) if required by Law or (iii) if the inability to gain access would materially and adversely affect another tenant in the Building or the operation of the Building or (iv) in the event Landlord has provided Tenant with prior reasonable notice and Landlord is accompanied by a representative of Tenant which Tenant shall make available to Landlord, Tenant shall be permitted to exclude Landlord from entering certain secure areas in the Premises from time to time designated by Tenant to Landlord in writing, not to exceed in the aggregate 10,000 square feet, provided, that Tenant shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against all costs (including without limitation, reasonable attorney fees and disbursements and costs of suit) losses, liabilities or causes of action arising out of or relating to the inability of Landlord to gain access to such secure area).

(e) Subject to the other provisions of this Lease, including without limitation clause 2 of the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit C, Tenant shall have access to the Premises 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

4.05 Repairs. Tenant shall keep the Premises (including, without limitation, all Fixtures which are not the responsibility of Landlord pursuant to this Lease to repair) in good condition and, upon expiration or earlier termination of the Term, shall surrender the same to Landlord in the same condition as when first occupied, reasonable wear and tear excepted (to the extent Tenant pays to Landlord (A) in accordance with Section 7.05(g) in connection with a casualty damage to Tenant's Improvements and Betterments one-half of the sum of (i) the insurance proceeds covering Tenant's Improvements and Betterments, (ii) the amount of any deductible under the policy insuring Tenant's Improvements and Betterments and (iii) the amount, if any, by which the cost of repairing and restoring Tenant's Improvements and Betterments as estimated by a reputable contractor designated by Landlord and reasonably acceptable to Tenant exceeds clauses (i) and (ii) above and (B) in connection with a condemnation proceeding affecting the Premises or any part thereof, any condemnation proceeds it receives in connection with Improvements and Betterments in the Premises, then Tenant may surrender the Premises to Landlord subject to damage by casualty or condemnation). Subject to the preceding sentence and except to the extent of the release of liability and waiver of subrogation provided in Section 7.03 hereof, Tenant's obligation shall include, without limitation, the obligation to repair all damage caused by Tenant, its agents, employees, invitees and licensees to the equipment and other installations in the Premises or anywhere in the Building. Any maintenance, repair or replacement to the windows (including, without limitation, any solar film attached thereto), the Building systems, the Building's structural components or any areas outside the Premises and which is Tenant's obligation to perform shall be performed by Landlord at Tenant's expense. Tenant shall be responsible to repair and replace as necessary any solar film attached to the exterior windows of the Premises, which repair shall be performed by Landlord at the expense of Tenant, to the extent such solar film was damaged after the applicable Commencement Date or Second Commencement Date with respect to the Blocks and with respect to any other space included in the Premises, on the date possession of such space is delivered to Tenant. Landlord and Tenant shall, on or promptly after each Commencement Date or Second Commencement Date or date possession is delivered to Tenant, as applicable, prepare a punchlist indicating which solar film in the applicable part of the Premises is damaged as of the date of the preparation of such punchlist and Landlord shall replace same as set forth in Exhibit G. Tenant shall not commit or allow to be committed any waste or damage to any portion of the Premises or the Building.

4.06 Compliance with Laws. (a) Tenant shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, orders and regulations (present, future, ordinary, extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen) of any governmental, public or quasi-public authority and of the New York Board of Underwriters, the New York Fire Insurance Rating Organization and any other entity performing similar functions, at any time duly in force (including without limitation, all building and fire codes, zoning requirements, asbestos law, environmental laws and ADA (collectively "Laws"), attributable to any work, installation, occupancy, use or manner of use by Tenant of the Premises or any part thereof. Nothing contained in this Section 4.06 shall require Tenant to make any physical changes to the Premises (other than Tenant's initial Alterations which shall include all Alterations necessary to make the Premises comply with Law, except (x) to the extent that the failure of the Premises to comply with any Laws applicable to demolished space on the applicable Commencement Date (with respect to the applicable Blocks other than the Delivered Blocks) or Second Commencement Date (with respect to the applicable Delivered Blocks) prevents Tenant from obtaining any governmental permit required by Tenant to perform its initial Alterations or materially increases the costs thereof, in which case, Landlord shall make such physical changes at Landlord's cost and expense (subject to reimbursement as an Operating Expense to the extent provided for in Section 2.05)), (y) for the performance of Landlord's Work or (z) the removal of any hazardous material including, without limitation, asbestos containing material) unless the same are necessitated by reason of (i) Tenant's manner of use of the Premises (in contrast to customary office use), (ii) the use by Tenant of the Premises for purposes other than normal and customary ordinary office purposes, (iii) any Alteration performed by or for Tenant (other than Landlord's Work and the elevator reconfiguration set forth in Section 8.22) or (iv) the breach by Tenant of any of its obligations under this Lease. Tenant shall procure and maintain all licenses and permits required for its business at the Premises.

(b) Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, as part of Tenant's initial Alterations, Tenant shall perform all work and make all installations necessary in order to fully sprinkler the Premises in compliance with the provisions of Local Law 5 of the New York City Administrative Code, as approved January 18, 1973, as amended from time to time (whether or not the Building is sprinklered or required to be sprinklered by such law); provided, that Landlord represents to Tenant that (i) each of the Blocks contain a standpipe tap for sprinkler installation (including gate valve, flow and tamper switches, and drain connections), (ii) there is currently a Class E System in the Building and on each applicable Commencement Date and Second Commencement Date there will be a class E connection on each floor of the applicable Blocks and (iii) each of the floors constituting the Blocks contain a valve tap connection to accommodate a horizontal sprinkler loop.

(c) Except if otherwise the obligation of Tenant pursuant to this Lease, Landlord shall, at Landlord's own cost and expense (subject to reimbursement as Operating Expenses to the extent provided for in Section 2.06), comply with all Laws affecting the Landlord Obligation Areas and all Laws that require physical changes in or to the Premises including without limitation all Laws in connection with Landlord's Work. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) Landlord shall maintain in effect a certificate of occupancy for the Building that shall allow the Premises to be used as general, administrative and executive offices (but Landlord shall have no obligation to modify such certificate of occupancy to permit any use other than general and executive offices uses (but Landlord will cooperate with Tenant pursuant to Section 4.02(a) to obtain changes to the certificate of occupancy for the Identified Ancillary Uses)); and (ii) Landlord shall comply with all laws imposed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration or other governmental agency relating to indoor air quality with respect to (A) the public and service areas of the Building, and (B) the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning services and systems furnished by landlord to the Premises (but only up to the point of delivery of such services and systems to the supply duct at the core wall on each floor of the Premises).

(d) Tenant, at its expense, after notice to Landlord, may contest, by appropriate proceedings prosecuted diligently and in good faith, the validity, or applicability to the Premises, of any Law, provided, that (a) Landlord shall not be subject to criminal penalty or to prosecution for a crime, or be required to pay any other fine or charge (unless Tenant pays such fine or fee) nor shall the Premises or any part thereof or the Project, or any part thereof, be subject to being condemned or vacated, nor shall the Project, or any part thereof, be subject to any lien or encumbrance, by reason of non-compliance or otherwise by reason of such contest; (b) before the commencement of such contest, Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against the cost thereof and against all liability for damages, interest, penalties and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), resulting from or incurred in connection with such contest or non-compliance; (c) such non-compliance or contest shall not constitute or result in any violation of any Superior Lease or Superior Mortgage, or if any such Superior Lease and/or Superior Mortgage shall permit such non-compliance or contest on condition of the taking of action or furnishing of security by Landlord, such action shall be taken and such security shall be furnished at the expense of Tenant; (d) if Tenant is not a Qualified Tenant, then Tenant shall furnish to Landlord such security at the expense of Tenant as Landlord shall reasonably require; (e) such non-compliance or contest shall not prevent Landlord or any tenant in the Building from obtaining any and all permits and licenses in connection with the operation of the Building or the performance of any alteration or improvement by such Tenant; (f) neither Landlord nor any other tenant in the Building shall be materially adversely affected by such noncompliance; and (g) Tenant shall keep Landlord advised as to the status of such proceedings. Without limiting the application of the above, Landlord shall be deemed subject to prosecution for a crime if Landlord, or its managing agent, or any officer, director, partner, shareholder or employee of Landlord or its managing agent, as an individual, is charged with a crime of any kind or degree whatever, whether by service of a summons or otherwise.

(e) Landlord may defer compliance with any Law with which it is obligated to comply hereunder, so long as Landlord shall be contesting the validity or applicability thereof in good faith by appropriate proceedings, provided, that (i) Tenant shall not be subject to criminal penalty or to prosecution for a crime, or be required to pay any other fine or charge (unless Landlord pays such other fine or charge), (ii) neither the Premises (or any part thereof) nor any part of the Project which affects the Premises or Tenant's use and occupancy thereof, shall be subject to being condemned or vacated, by reason of non-compliance or otherwise by reason of such contest, (iii) such non-compliance or contest shall not prevent Tenant from occupying the Premises or obtaining any permits and license required to enable Tenant to lawfully occupy the Premises or perform any Alterations (other than Decorations for which Landlord's consent is not required) approved by Landlord and (iv) Tenant shall not be materially adversely affected by such noncompliance.

4.07 Tenant Advertising. Tenant shall not use, and shall cause each of its Affiliates not to use, the name (other than the street address) or likeness of the Building or the Project in any advertising (by whatever medium) without Landlord's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Tenant shall not in any way represent, whether in advertising, correspondence or otherwise, that the Building or the Premises is part of Rockefeller Center or Rockefeller Plaza.

4.08 Right to Perform Tenant Covenants. If Tenant fails to perform any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord, any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee (each, a "Curing Party") may perform the same at the expense of Tenant (a) after such notice, if any, that the Curing Party determines is advisable under the circumstances in the case of emergency or in case such failure materially and adversely interferes with the use of space by any other tenant in the Building or with the efficient operation of the Building or may result in a violation of any Law, in a cancellation of any insurance policy maintained by Landlord, or a default under any Superior Mortgage and (b) in any other case if such failure continues beyond any applicable notice and grace period, and thereafter such failure is not remedied within three (3) Business Days after notice advising Tenant that the Curing Party will undertake such performance at Tenant's expense; provided, that the Curing Party shall have no obligation to undertake such performance even after such notice. If a Curing Party performs any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided above, Tenant shall pay to the Curing Party (as Additional Charges) the costs thereof, together with interest at the Interest Rate from the date incurred by the Curing Party until paid by Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after receipt by Tenant of a statement as to the amounts of such costs. If the Curing Party effects such cure by bonding any lien which Tenant is required to bond or otherwise discharge, Tenant shall obtain and substitute a bond for the Curing Party's bond and shall reimburse the Curing Party for the cost of the Curing Party's bond. "Interest Rate" means the lesser of (i) the base rate from time to time announced by Citibank, N.A. (or, if Citibank, N.A. shall not exist or shall no longer announce its base rate, the prime rate of such other New York Clearing House Association member bank in New York, New York, as shall be designated by Landlord in a notice to Tenant) to be in effect at its principal office in New York, New York (the "Prime Rate") plus 2% or (ii) the maximum rate permitted by law. The performance by any Curing Party of Tenant's obligation pursuant to this Section shall not waive any default arising out of Tenant's failure to perform such obligation.

4.09 Noise and Vibration.

(a) No noise, including without limitation, music or the playing of musical instruments, recordings, radios or televisions, which disturbs other tenants or occupants in the building, shall be made or permitted within the Premises. If at any time, any noise or vibration generated within the Premises, shall be audible or detectable outside of the Premises, and such noise or vibrations shall annoy or disturb other tenants or occupants of the Building, then:

(i) Landlord may so notify Tenant (the "Noise Notification"), and

(ii) Upon receipt of a Noise Notification, Tenant shall immediately take all steps necessary to:

(y) discontinue or cause discontinuance of any and all activities or conduct giving rise to such noise or vibration; or

(z) reduce the noise or vibrations to such a level that shall not annoy or disturb other tenants or occupants of the Building.

(b) If Landlord shall give a Noise Notification regarding a noise or vibration which is similar in location and general character to a noise or vibration that was the subject of any prior Noise Notification, within sixty (60) days after the date such prior Noise Notification was sent (such second notice, the "Repeat Noise Notification"), then in addition to the obligation of Tenant described in Section 4.09(a)(ii) hereinabove, Tenant shall, within ten (10) business days of its receipt of the Repeat Noise Notification, if requested by Landlord in the Repeat Noise Notification, provide to Landlord a Noise Abatement Plan (the "Tenant's Abatement Plan") which shall include identification of the source and cause of the noise or vibrations and a timetable for implementation of such Tenant Abatement Plan, to eliminate the noise and vibration that was subject to the Repeat Noise Notification. After receipt of the Tenant's Abatement Plan, and upon request of the Landlord, Tenant shall immediately permit Landlord reasonable access to the Premises for the purpose of Landlord and Landlord's designated agents inspecting the cause, source and location of the noise and vibration that is the subject of the Repeat Noise Notification. Landlord shall, within ten (10) business days after receipt of the Tenant's Abatement Plan, either: (i) advise Tenant that the Tenant Abatement Plan is acceptable (which acceptance shall not be unreasonably withheld); or (ii) advise Tenant that the Tenant Abatement Plan is not acceptable and set forth such actions which Landlord believes, in good faith, are necessary to permanently eliminate the offending noise and vibration (the "Landlord's Abatement Plan").

(c) Provided that Landlord and its agents have been provided with access to the Premises as provided in the prior paragraph (if Landlord requested such access), Landlord's failure to respond to the Tenant's Abatement Plan within ten (10) business days after receipt thereof shall be deemed an acceptance of the Tenant's Abatement Plan. The Landlord's Abatement Plan may include, without limitation, installation of soundproofing materials; except as otherwise provided in this Lease, relocating activities which are likely to involve generating offending noise or vibrations to portions of the Premises that are not adjacent, either vertically or horizontally, to portions of the Building that are occupied by other tenants or that transfer noise; installing automatic noise limiting governors on sound systems located in the Premises; and such other actions as Landlord may, in good faith, deem necessary to abate the noise.

(d) Upon receipt by Tenant of the Landlord's Abatement Plan (if Landlord provides a Landlord's Abatement Plan), Tenant may:

(i) Proceed with Tenant's Abatement Plan; or

(ii) Implement Landlord's Abatement Plan.

If Landlord has presented to Tenant a Landlord's Abatement Plan, Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after receipt of Landlord's Abatement Plan, notify Landlord of its election with respect to implementing Tenant's Abatement Plan or Landlord's Abatement Plan. Tenant shall diligently pursue implementation of such Tenant's Abatement Plan (or Landlord's Abatement Plan, if so elected by Tenant) to its completion.

(e) If Tenant fails to provide to Landlord a Tenant's Abatement Plan as herein provided, Landlord may provide a Landlord's Abatement Plan at any time within thirty (30) days of sending the Repeat Noise Notification, and Tenant shall diligently pursue implementation of Landlord's Abatement Plan.

(f) If Tenant implements the Tenant's Abatement Plan and such Plan does not reduce or eliminate the noise or vibration and the noise or vibration continues to disturb other tenants or occupants of the Building, Landlord may send a Noise Notification with respect to such noise or vibration (the "Final Noise Notification") which shall be accompanied by Landlord's Abatement Plan (if not previously furnished). Provided that Landlord's Abatement Plan satisfies the criteria in Section 4.09(b)(ii) hereof, Tenant shall promptly implement the Landlord's Abatement Plan and diligently pursue implementation of such Plan to its completion. If Tenant chooses to and does implement the Landlord's Abatement Plan after the Repeat Noise Notification, and the noise or vibration that caused the sending of a Repeat Noise Notification has not been remedied, then Landlord may send a Final Noise Notification and the parties shall follow the steps and procedures set forth herein as if such Final Noise Notification was a Repeat Noise Notification.

(g) Any dispute with respect to the terms of this Section regarding the source of any noise or vibration, or the good faith aspects of the Landlord's Abatement Plan, shall be resolved by arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, during such arbitration, Tenant shall be obligated to take such interim steps as are reasonable and necessary to abate the noise or vibration.

(h) If Tenant shall fail to comply with its obligations herein set forth, including, without limitation:

(i) Promptly, after receipt of a Noise Notification, discontinuing the activity or reducing the noise or vibration giving rise to such Noise Notification in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.09; or

(ii) Failing to provide to Landlord the Tenant's Abatement Plan at such time as is required; or

(iii) Failing to implement the Tenant's Abatement Plan or the Landlord's Abatement Plan in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.09 and to diligently pursue the implementation of such Plan, as applicable, then and in such event, Landlord shall have all rights provided under this Lease or in law or equity, including without Limitation landlord shall have the right to seek injunctive relief baring Tenant from continuing any actions giving rise to such default; or Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure such default by, among other things, taking any steps reasonably necessary to soundproof the Premises and eliminate such noise or vibration, all at Tenant's sole cost and expense, such sum to be treated as additional rent under the terms of this Lease. If Landlord should elect to take steps to cure such default as set forth in this prior sentence, Landlord shall, at all times, upon reasonable advance notice, (except that no notice shall be required in the event of any emergency such as where the noise or vibration would be reasonably likely to have a irreparable material effect on any other tenants or occupants of the Building), have access to the Premises to conduct any inspections or perform any work, and the same shall be without liability to Landlord.

(i) Notwithstanding any provision in Section 6.03 to the contrary:

(i) if Tenant fails in the keeping, observance or performance of any covenant or agreement of Tenant under Section 4.09(a)(ii) and if such default continues and is not cured within 3 Business Days after Landlord gives to Tenant a second notice specifying such failure;

(ii) if Tenant fails to provide to Landlord the Tenant's Abatement Plan at such time and as is required hereunder and if such default continues and is not cured within 7 Business Days after Landlord gives to Tenant a notice specifying such failure to provide the same; or

(iii) if Tenant fails to diligently implement the Tenant's Abatement Plan or the Landlord's Abatement Plan in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.09 and to diligently pursue the implementation of such Plan as applicable and if such default continues and is not cured within 10 days after Landlord gives to Tenant a notice specifying such failure to diligently implement the same;

then, in any of such cases, in addition to any other remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to give to Tenant a notice of intention to end the Term at the expiration of 5 Business Days from the date of the giving of such notice, and, in the event such notice is given, this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted shall terminate upon the expiration of such 5 Business Days with the same effect as if the last of such 5 Business Days were the Expiration Date, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided herein or pursuant to law. For all purposes of this Lease, including without limitation Sections 6.04 and 6.05, termination of this Lease pursuant to this Section 4.09(i), shall be treated as if this Lease were terminated pursuant to Section 6.03.

(j) The provisions of this Section 4.09 shall not, in any manner, limit the right or remedies afforded to Landlord in this Lease or otherwise at Law or in equity rising out of a default by Tenant, including, without limitation, any default arising out of the emanation of noise or vibration from the Premises.

(k) The provisions of this Section 4.09 shall not govern noise or vibrations generated from Alterations which are approved by Landlord and which are performed at times other than during Business Hours during Business Days, provided that such Alterations shall be performed in a commercially reasonable manner with respect to noise and vibrations.

Assignment and Subletting

5.01 Assignment; Etc. (a) Subject to Section 5.02, neither this Lease nor the term and estate hereby granted, nor any part hereof or thereof, shall be assigned, mortgaged, pledged, encumbered or otherwise transferred voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, and neither the Premises, nor any part thereof, shall be subleased, be licensed, be used or occupied by any person or entity other than Tenant or be encumbered in any manner by reason of any act or omission on the part of Tenant, and no rents or other sums receivable by Tenant under any sublease of all or any part of the Premises shall be assigned or otherwise encumbered, without the prior consent of Landlord. The sale of all or any part of Tenant's assets other than in the ordinary course of business which results in a reduction of Tenant's

Tangible Net Worth below that of a Qualified Tenant shall, notwithstanding that the Tenant under this Lease after such sale is the same Tenant under this Lease as prior to such sale, be deemed an assignment of this Lease whether such sale is made by one or more transactions. The dissolution or direct or indirect transfer of control of Tenant (however accomplished including, by way of example, the admission of new partners or members or withdrawal of existing partners or members, or transfers of interests in distributions of profits or losses of Tenant, issuance of additional stock, redemption of stock, stock voting agreement, or change in classes of stock) shall be deemed an assignment of this Lease regardless of whether the transfer is made by one or more transactions, or whether one or more persons or entities hold the controlling interest prior to the transfer or afterwards; provided, that the transfer of any such stock, partnership or other ownership interests of Tenant (other than the transfer of control of Tenant by one entity which controls Tenant or by several entities which are Affiliates or are acting under an agreement and collectively control Tenant) shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease if such stock, partnership or other ownership interests are listed on a national securities exchange (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) or is traded in the "over the counter" market with quotations reported by the National Association of Securities Dealers; and further provided, that any conversion of the form of entity of Tenant (however accomplished including, by way of example (i) the conversion of Tenant from a corporation to a limited liability company, partnership or trust or (ii) the change of jurisdiction of incorporation or registration) which does not directly or indirectly transfer control of Tenant, reduce the Tangible Net Worth of Tenant or reduce its liability for its obligations under this Lease shall not constitute an assignment of this Lease, provided, that the converted entity assumes by written instrument in the form of Exhibit Q attached to this Lease all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease and such conversion is for a valid business purpose and not to avoid any obligations under this Lease. No assignment or other transfer of this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted, and no subletting of all or any portion of the Premises (in each case whether or not Landlord's consent is required thereto) shall relieve Tenant of its liability under this Lease or of the obligation to obtain Landlord's prior consent to any further assignment, other transfer or subletting. Any attempt to assign this Lease or sublet all or any portion of the Premises in violation of this Article 5 shall be null and void.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.01(a), without the consent of Landlord, this Lease may be assigned (actually or deemed assigned) or the entire Premises may be sublet for substantially the balance of the Term to (i) an entity created by merger, reorganization (including by dissolution, stock transfer or change of classes of stock) or recapitalization of or with Tenant, either directly or indirectly, (ii) a purchaser of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets, or (iii) an entity which immediately prior to such assignment or subletting (which in the case of this clause (iii) such subletting may be for less than substantially the balance of the Term) was an Affiliate of Tenant and, as an Affiliate of Tenant, was immediately prior to the assignment or sublease, in occupancy of all or substantially all of the Premises in the case of an assignment or of the space to be demised by its sublease in the case of a sublease and such entity will no longer be an Affiliate of Tenant immediately after entering into such sublease or such assignment, provided, that in the case of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), that (A) Landlord shall have received a notice of such assignment or sublet from Tenant, (B) in the case of an assignment, the assignee assumes by written instrument in the form of Exhibit Q attached to this Lease all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease (but, in the case of clause (i) the same shall only be necessary if Tenant shall not be the surviving entity), (C) such assignment or sublease is for a valid business purpose and not to avoid any obligations under this Lease, and (D) the assignee's or subtenant's reputation and character is consistent with the other tenants in first class midtown Manhattan office buildings and such assignee or subtenant (except in the case of a sublease pursuant to clause (iii)) shall be, immediately after giving effect to such assignment or sublease, a Qualified Tenant. In the case of a sublease pursuant to clause (iii) the subtenant must have a Tangible Net Worth (whether directly or by a guarantee as provided in Section 5.04(d)(iv)) to qualify it as a Major Subtenant. A "Qualified Tenant" shall mean an entity with a Tangible Net Worth (or whose obligations under this Lease are guaranteed, pursuant to a guaranty in form and content reasonably acceptable to Landlord, by a guarantor with a Tangible Net Worth) at least equal to $250,000,000 or an entity (whether directly or by a guarantee as provided hereinabove) which shall have a Tangible Net Worth set forth in Article 11 and shall have delivered to Landlord the required Security pursuant to Article 11. If the Lease is assigned (actually or deemed assignment) pursuant to Sections 5.01(b) or (c), then if Warner Communications, Inc. (or any guarantor pursuant to Section 5.01(b)) shall (i) sell all or any part of its assets, other than in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) dissolve, merge, reorganize, or recapitalize, and as a result of the events in clause (i) or clause (ii) the Tangible Net Worth of Warner Communications Inc. (or such guarantor) shall be reduced below that of a Qualified Tenant, then, unless the Tenant is a Qualified Tenant, has provided a substitute guarantee in form and content reasonably acceptable to Landlord by a substitute guarantor with a Tangible Net Worth at least equal to $250,000,000 or has deposited with Landlord the Security required pursuant to Article 11, Warner Communications Inc. (or such guarantor) shall, or shall cause the Tenant to, deposit with Landlord the Security from time to time required pursuant to Article 11, as if Warner Communications Inc. (or such guarantor) were the Tenant hereunder.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 5.01(a), (but subject to compliance with Section 5.01(b)), without the consent of Landlord, Tenant may assign (by actual assignment and not by deemed assignment which deemed assignment may be governed by Section 5.01(b) hereof) this Lease or sublet all or any part of the Premises to an Affiliate of Tenant (with or without a written agreement in the case of a sublease); provided, that (i) Landlord shall have received a notice of such assignment or sublease from Tenant identifying the rentable square feet intended to be occupied by such Affiliate, the configuration of such space, and the identity of the Affiliate; and (ii) in the case of any such assignment, (A) the assignment is for a valid business purpose and not to avoid any obligations under this Lease, and (B) in the case of an assignment, the assignee assumes by written instruments substantially in the form attached to this Lease as Exhibit Q all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. "Affiliate" means, as to any designated person or entity, any other person or entity which controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, such designated person or entity. "Control" (and with correlative meaning, "controlled by" and "under common control with") means actual control or ownership or voting control, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of the voting stock, partnership interests or other beneficial ownership interests of the entity in question. This Section 5.01(c) shall govern assignments of this Lease and subletting of all or any part of the Premises to Affiliates of Tenant only to the extent such assignment or deemed assignment is not governed by Section 5.01(b) hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 5.01(a), as long as Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc. or any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry is the Tenant under this Lease, upon notice given to Landlord (which notice shall contain the rentable square feet intended to be occupied by the Related Service Providers, the configuration of such space and the identity of the Related Service Providers), such Tenant shall have the right, without being required to obtain the consent of Landlord, to permit portions of the Premises not exceeding 25,000 rentable square feet in the aggregate at any one time to be used for the uses permitted herein, by a Related Service Provider. The term "Related Service Providers" shall mean a person or entity which is not an Affiliate of Warner Communications Inc. or Time Warner, Inc. and (a) with whom Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner, Inc. or any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry has a significant ongoing relationship in connection with any of the permitted activities of Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., or any of such Affiliates then occupying all or a portion of the Premises, or (b) is a foundation or not for profit entity of which any director or executive officer of Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., or of any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry is a board member or holds a position as an executive officer. By way of illustration and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a significant ongoing business relationship may include an artist's production company which may provide artistic services to Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., or any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry from time to time, an investment bank or advisory firm providing services to Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry or officers or high level employees of Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., and their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry, a law or accounting firm providing professional services to Warner

Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., or any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry, a former employee or officer of Warner Communications Inc., Time Warner Inc., or any of their Affiliates whose primary business is the entertainment industry who is serving as a consultant or a company that operates the cafeteria, health club, travel agency or day care center permitted in Section 1.05.

5.02 Landlord's Right of First Offer. (a) If Tenant desires to assign this Lease or sublet all or part of the Premises (other than in accordance with Sections 5.01(b), (c) and (d), Tenant shall give to Landlord notice ("Tenant's Offer Notice") thereof, specifying (i) in the case of a proposed subletting, the location of the space to be sublet and the term of the subletting of such space, (ii) (A) in the case of a proposed assignment, Tenant's good faith offer of the consideration Tenant desires to receive or pay for such assignment or (B) in the case of a proposed subletting, Tenant's good faith offer of the annual rental (taking into account all relevant factors, including any free rent periods and construction allowances and unless otherwise indicated assuming that a subtenant will pay for Taxes, Operating Expenses and electricity in the same manner, and utilizing the same base year or base amount, as Tenant pays for such amounts under this Lease) which Tenant desires to receive for such proposed subletting (the "Sublet Rent") and (iii) the proposed assignment or sublease commencement date.

(b) Tenant's Offer Notice shall be deemed an offer from Tenant to Landlord whereby Landlord (or Landlord's designee) may, at Landlord's option, (i) sublease such space from Tenant (if the proposed transaction is a sublease of all or part of the Premises), or (ii) have this Lease assigned to it or terminate this Lease (if the proposed transaction is an assignment or a sublease of all or substantially all of the Premises). Said option may be exercised by Landlord by notice to Tenant within twenty (20) days after a Tenant's Offer Notice, together with all other information required pursuant to Section 5.02(a), has been given by Tenant to Landlord.

(c) If Landlord exercises its option under Section 5.02(b)(ii) to terminate this Lease, then this Lease shall terminate on the proposed assignment or sublease commencement date specified in the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice and all Rent shall be paid and apportioned to such date.

(d) If Landlord exercises its option under Section 5.02(b)(ii) to have this Lease assigned to it (or its designee), then Tenant shall assign this Lease to Landlord (or Landlord's designee) by an assignment in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and Tenant, effective on the proposed assignment or sublease commencement date specified in the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice. On such effective date, the appropriate party shall pay to the other 50% of the consideration, if any, specified in Tenant's Offer Notice (less, in the case of payment of such consideration from Tenant to Landlord, 50% of the costs referred to in Section 5.05(b)(i)-(iii)). If Tenant assigns this Lease to Landlord or Landlord's designee, then Tenant shall have no further liability under this Lease which arise from and after the effective date of such assignment.

(e) If Landlord exercises its option under Section 5.02(b)(i) to sublet the space Tenant desires to sublet, such sublease to Landlord or its designee (as subtenant) shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and Tenant at the rental set forth in the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice with respect to such sublet space, and shall be for the term set forth in the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice (provided, that if the Sublet Rent is greater than Tenant's Qualified Sublet Cost, then the rent which Landlord (or its designee) is required to pay to Tenant in respect of the sublet space shall be reduced by an amount equal to 50% of the amount by which the Sublet Rent exceeds Tenant's Qualified Sublet Cost. For purposes of this Section 5.02(e), "Tenant's Qualified Sublet Cost" for any sublet space subleased to Landlord (or its designee) in accordance with this Section 5.02 means the sum of (1) the portion of the annual Fixed Rent (and Tax Payments and Operating Payments, but only if the subtenant is not paying Taxes and Operating Expenses in the same manner and using the same base year and base amount as Tenant pays for such amounts under this Lease) which is attributable to such sublet space, plus (2) the costs referred to in Section 5.05(a)(iii) and (v) plus (3) the amount of any reasonable brokerage commissions and reasonable legal fees paid by

Tenant in connection with the sublease amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the sublease, plus (4) the cost of electricity for such sublet space at the rate payable by the Tenant under this Lease if the subtenant is paying for electricity on a rent inclusion basis. Further, the sublease:

(A) shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Lease except such as are irrelevant or inapplicable, and except as otherwise expressly set forth to the contrary in this Section 5.02(e);

(B) shall be upon the same terms and conditions as those contained in the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice and otherwise on the terms and conditions of this Lease, except such as are irrelevant or inapplicable and except as otherwise expressly set forth to the contrary in this Section 5.02(e);

(C) shall permit the sublessee, without Tenant's consent, freely to assign such sublease or any interest therein or to sublet all or any part of the sublet space provided, that each such sublease with respect to the Blocks (or the fourth floor which may be leased pursuant to this Lease in accordance with Section 1.06 hereof) will contain a covenant enforceable by Tenant that (I) if (1) the sublet space includes a partial floor in the Blocks or the fourth floor and (2) on the commencement date of any such sublease and on the commencement date of any further sublease by such sublessee or the effective date of any assignment by such sublessee, Tenant and/or any Affiliate of Tenant or Related Service Provider occupies any part of such floor, then any such assignee or subtenant of such partial floor shall not be (i) an entertainment company whose primary business is the music industry (a "Competitor") or (ii) EMI Entertainment World, Inc. or an Affiliate of EMI Entertainment World, Inc. whose primary business is the music industry and (II) if (1) the sublet space includes a full floor in the Blocks or the fourth floor and (2) on the commencement date of any such sublease and on the commencement date of any further sublease by such sublessee or the effective date of any assignment by such sublessee, Tenant, any Affiliate of Tenant or any Related Service Provider occupies the entire floor above and below such full floor, then any such assignee or subtenant of such full floor shall not be a Competitor, EMI Entertainment World, Inc. or an Affiliate of EMI Entertainment World, Inc. whose primary business is the music industry. Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, at any time that it is contemplating entering into negotiations with a subtenant for such sublease space, notify Tenant thereof and if within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice Landlord has not received a response from Tenant, Landlord may send to Tenant a second notice specifically referencing this clause (C) and if within three (3) days after receipt of such second notice, Tenant has not responded as to whether the proposed subtenant is a Competitor, Landlord shall, notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, be permitted to sublease such sublease space to the proposed subtenant. If Tenant shall have timely responded to such notice of Landlord, advising Landlord that such proposed subtenant is a Competitor, Tenant's characterization of such proposed subtenant as a Competitor shall not be conclusive on Landlord; provided, however, Landlord shall notify Tenant if Landlord disagrees with Tenant's characterization of such proposed subtenant as a Competitor. Any dispute as to whether a proposed subtenant is a Competitor may be submitted by either party to arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03.

(D) shall provide that any assignee or further subtenant of Landlord or its designee may, at the election of Landlord, make alterations, decorations and installations in such space or any part thereof, any or all of which may be removed, in whole or in part, by such assignee or subtenant, at its option, prior to or upon the expiration or other termination of such sublease, provided, that (1) such assignee or subtenant, at its expense, shall repair any damage caused by such removal and (2) if such sublease term expires earlier than one year prior to the Expiration Date then such assignee or subtenant, at its expense, shall remove such alterations, decorations and installations at the end of the sublease term and return the sublet space to substantially its condition before commencement of the sublet term, ordinary wear and tear excepted, unless within ten (10) days after request of Landlord, Tenant advises Landlord that all or any part of such alteration, decoration or installation need not be removed or Tenant shall have failed to respond to such request of Landlord within such ten (10) days and Landlord shall have sent a second request specifically referencing this clause (D) and Tenant shall have failed to respond to such second request within five (5) days; and

(E) shall provide that (1) the parties to such sublease expressly negate any intention that any estate created under such sublease be merged with any other estate held by either of said parties, (2) any assignment or subletting by Landlord or its designee (as the subtenant) may be for any purpose or purposes that Landlord shall deem appropriate (subject to the proviso in clause (C) above and Section 1.05 of the Lease), and (3) Landlord, at Tenant's expense, may make such alterations as may be reasonably required by Landlord to demise separately the subleased space consistent with Tenant's Offer Notice and to comply with any Laws relating to such demise, which are not the obligation of Landlord under this Lease.

(F) (i) Tenant shall not be responsible for any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease which arise with respect to the sublet space to Landlord or its designee during the term of the sublease, and (ii) to the extent that there is a default in the payment of rent or other charges (including, without limitation, holdover charges) with respect to the sublet premises, then Tenant will be allowed a credit against the Rent in such amounts (without duplication of any benefits conferred under clause (i)) and (iii) unless Tenant has consented to such Alteration of the sublet premises or Tenant has failed to respond to Landlord's request that such Alterations not be removed as provided for in Section 5.02(e)(D), Tenant will not be required to restore any Alteration made by Landlord (or its designee), or by any subtenant or assignee of Landlord (or its designee) upon the Expiration Date or such earlier termination of this Lease.

(f) Tenant shall not sublet the applicable space to a third party (i) at a rental (taking into account all relevant factors such as free rent periods, construction allowances and the base year, base amount and other calculations in connection with Taxes, Operating Payments and electricity and other elements of the economic package) discounted to present value at the Interest Rate) which is less (on a per rentable square foot basis per annum) than 90% of the Sublet Rent set forth in Tenant's Offer Notice discounted to present value at the Interest Rate or (ii) for a term which is ten percent (10%), more or less, than the term specified in Tenant's Offer Notice or (iii) is for a rentable square footage which is ten percent (10%), more or less, than the square footage specified in Tenant's Offer Notice without in each case complying once again with all of the provisions of this Section 5.02 and re-offering such space to Landlord at such lower rental, other term or other square footage. If Tenant offered in Tenant's Offer Notice to assign this Lease to Landlord, Tenant shall not be permitted to assign this Lease to a third party where Tenant pays (on a net present value basis computed at the Interest Rate, if such payments are to be made in installments) greater consideration or grants a greater concession to such third party for such assignment than 110% of the consideration offered to be paid or concession offered to be granted to Landlord in Tenant's Offer Notice without complying once again with all of the provisions of this Section 5.02 and re-offering to assign this Lease to Landlord and pay such consideration or grant such concession to Landlord.

5.03 Assignment and Subletting Procedures. (a) If Tenant delivers to Landlord a Tenant's Offer Notice with respect to any proposed assignment of this Lease or subletting of all or part of the Premises and Landlord does not timely exercise any of its options under Section 5.02, and Tenant thereafter desires to assign this Lease or sublet the space specified in Tenant's Offer Notice, Tenant shall notify Landlord (a "Transfer Notice") of such desire, which notice shall be accompanied by (i) a copy of the proposed assignment or sublease and all related agreements, the effective date of which shall be at least thirty (30) days after the giving of the Transfer Notice, (ii) a statement setting forth in reasonable detail the identity of the proposed assignee or subtenant, the nature of its business and its proposed use of the Premises, (iii) current financial information with respect to the proposed assignee or subtenant, including without limitation, its most recent financial statement, if available (provided, that, if unavailable, such unavailability shall be deemed a reasonable basis for Landlord's refusal to consent to an assignment or subletting), and (iv) such other information as landlord may reasonably request and Landlord's consent to the proposed assignment or sublease shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided, that:

(i) Such Transfer Notice shall be delivered to Landlord concurrently with or within one year after the delivery to Landlord of the applicable Tenant's Offer Notice;

(ii) In Landlord's reasonable judgment the proposed assignee or subtenant will use the Premises in a manner that (A) is in keeping with the then standards of the Building and (B) is limited to the use expressly permitted under this Lease;

(iii) The proposed assignee or subtenant is, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, of a reputation and character consistent with the other tenants in the Building, and (A) in the case of a proposed subtenant to whom Landlord shall have delivered a non-disturbance and attornment agreement pursuant to Section 5.04(d)(iv), such proposed subtenant is a Major Subtenant, and (B) in the case of a proposed assignee, such person or entity is of a Qualified Tenant;

(iv) In the case where Landlord has, or within the following six (6) months is scheduled to have comparable vacant space in the Building available for a comparable term, neither the proposed assignee or sublessee, nor any Affiliate of such assignee or sublessee, is then an occupant of any part of the Building;

(v) The proposed assignee or sublessee is not a person with whom Landlord is then actively negotiating or has within the prior three (3) months actively negotiated to lease space in the Building;

(vi) The form of the proposed sublease shall comply with the applicable provisions of this Article 5 and, if with a Major Subtenant, shall be otherwise reasonably satisfactory to Landlord;

(vii) There shall not be more than four (4) subtenants (other than Affiliates or Related Service Providers) in each floor of the Blocks and in any other floor in the Premises other than Blocks, there shall be not more than one (1) subtenant for every 10,000 square feet leased by Tenant on such floor;

(viii) Tenant shall not publicly advertise the rental rate or any description thereof to be paid by the proposed subtenant; and

(ix) Tenant shall reimburse Landlord on demand for any reasonable out of pocket costs actually incurred by Landlord in connection with said assignment or sublease, including, without limitation, the costs of making investigations as to the acceptability of the proposed assignee or subtenant, and legal costs incurred in connection with the granting of any requested consent;

(b) If Landlord consents to a proposed assignment or sublease and Tenant fails to execute and deliver the assignment or sublease to which Landlord consented within six (6) months after the giving of such consent, then Tenant shall again comply with this Article 5 before assigning this Lease or subletting all or part of the Premises.

(c) If Landlord fails to grant or deny consent to a proposed assignment or subletting within twenty (20) days after receipt of the relevant Transfer Notice (provided, that if the relevant Transfer Notice is not accompanied by the proposed assignment or sublease as provided in Section 5.03(i) but is accompanied by a detailed term sheet, Landlord's consent, if given, shall be deemed conditioned upon receipt of such proposed assignment or sublease which complies with the terms hereof within sixty (60) days after landlord's receipt of the Transfer Notice) Tenant shall have the right to give a reminder notice to Landlord (which notice shall state that Landlord shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed assignment or subletting if Landlord fails to grant or deny consent thereto within five (5) Business Days) and if Landlord fails to grant or deny consent to such proposed assignment or subletting within five (5) Business Days after receipt of such reminder notice, Landlord shall be deemed to have consented to such assignment or subletting. Landlord shall nevertheless, promptly after the request of Tenant, confirm in writing that such consent has been given. Any denial of consent to a proposed assignment or subletting shall be effective only if accompanied by a statement that sets forth in detail Landlord's reason(s) for denying such consent; provided, that in the case of any denial of consent by reason of a failure of the condition specified in Section 5.03(a)(iii), Landlord shall only be required to cite such Section in order to comply with this sentence.

(d) Whenever solely under this Section 5.03, a provision shall expressly provide for or require that a consent or approval or the exercise of a judgment by Landlord or Tenant shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed and a dispute or disagreement shall arise between Landlord and Tenant as to whether or not the withholding of the consent or approval in question is unreasonable or as to whether or not the exercise of any such judgment is unreasonable, the sole remedy of either party hereto shall be to send a notice to the other ("Hearing Notice") specifying the consent or approval which it alleges has been unreasonably withheld or delayed or the judgement which it alleges has been unreasonably exercised (collectively, "Dispute") and electing to have the Dispute resolved by an informal hearing ("Hearing") upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

A. The Hearing shall be at the offices of the individual designated in such notice ("Hearing Officer") from among the following individuals:

(1) The then Chairman or President of Galbreath Company, L. P.

(2) The then Chairman or President of Julien J. Studley, Inc.

(3) The then Chairman or President of Lassalle Partners

B. The Hearing shall be held on the date specified in the Hearing Notice (which shall be no less than three (3) Business Days nor more than five (5) Business Days after the Hearing Notice is received) and pursuant to substantive and procedural rules to be established by the Hearing Officer;

C. The Hearing Notice shall be delivered in the manner set forth in Section 8.01 for notice, to party on whom it is being served;

D. The determination by the Hearing Officer shall be conclusive upon the parties and shall be made within two (2) Business Days after the Hearing is completed;

E. If the party upon whom the Hearing Notice is served fails or refuses to participate in the Hearing, the Dispute shall be deemed resolved against such party;

F. If the Hearing Officer fails or refuses to participate in the Hearing, or if the party upon whom the Hearing Notice is served responds at the Hearing that Hearing Officer is not independent of the party serving the Hearing Notice, the party serving the Hearing Notice shall have the right to select an alternative Hearing Officer from the remaining individuals set forth in Paragraph A. If all of the individuals set forth in said Paragraph A hereof shall (i) fail or refuse to participate in the Hearing or (ii) fail to be independent, the provisions of this Section 5.03 shall be void and of no effect and such determination will be made by an arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof;

G. The Hearing Officer shall have the right only to interpret and apply the terms of this Section 5.03, and may not change any such terms or deprive any party to this Lease of any right or remedy expressly or impliedly provided in this Lease.

(e) Tenant at its election may deliver the Transfer Notice concurrently with the delivery of Tenant's Offer Notice for the same space and the time period for Landlord's consent to the assignment or sublease will run from the date the Transfer Notice is delivered to Landlord.

5.04 General Provisions. (a) If this Lease is assigned, whether or not in violation of this Lease, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee. If the Premises or any part thereof are sublet or occupied by anybody other than Tenant, whether or not in violation of this Lease, Landlord may, after default by Tenant, and expiration of Tenant's time to cure such default, collect rent from the subtenant or occupant. In either event, Landlord may apply the net amount collected against Rent, but no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions of Section 5.01(a), or the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as tenant, or a release of Tenant from the performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

(b) No assignment or transfer shall be effective until the assignee delivers to Landlord (i) evidence that the assignee, as Tenant hereunder, has complied with the requirements of Sections 7.02 and 7.03, and (ii) an agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit Q whereby the assignee assumes Tenant's obligations under this Lease which agreement shall not be required in the case of a deemed assignment pursuant to Section 5.01(a) or, if Tenant shall be the surviving entity, in the case of the Section 5.01(b)(i).

(c) Notwithstanding any assignment or transfer, whether or not in violation of this Lease, and notwithstanding the acceptance of any Rent by Landlord from an assignee, transferee, or any other party, the original named Tenant and each successor Tenant shall remain fully liable for the payment of the Rent and the performance of all of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease. The joint and several liability of Tenant and any immediate or remote successors in interest of Tenant shall not be discharged, released or impaired in any respect by any agreement made by Landlord extending the time to perform, or otherwise modifying, any of the obligations of Tenant under this Lease, or by any waiver or failure of Landlord to enforce any of the obligations of Tenant under this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant's continued liability exceed what its continuing liability would have been had the Lease not been modified except for those modifications which were consented to by Tenant and nothing in this Section 5.04(c) shall create liability on the part of Tenant in contradiction to Sections 5.02(d) and 5.02(e)(F).

(d) Each subletting by Tenant shall be subject to the following:

(i) No subletting shall be for a term (including any renewal or extension options contained in the sublease) ending later than one day prior to the Expiration Date.

(ii) No sublease shall be valid, and no subtenant shall take possession of the Premises or any part thereof, until there has been delivered to Landlord, both (A) an executed counterpart of such sublease, and (B) a certificate of insurance evidencing that (x) Landlord is an additional insured under the insurance policies required to be maintained by occupants of the Premises pursuant to Section 7.02, and (y) there is in full force and effect, the insurance otherwise required by Section 7.02.

(iii) Each sublease shall provide that it is subject and subordinate to this Lease, and that in the event of termination, reentry or dispossess by Landlord under this Lease Landlord may, at its option, take over all of the right, title and interest of Tenant, as sublessor, under such sublease, and such subtenant shall, at Landlord's option, attorn to Landlord pursuant to the then executory provisions of such sublease, except that Landlord shall not be liable for, subject to or bound by any item of the type that a Successor Landlord is not so liable for, subject to or bound by in the case of an attornment by Tenant to a Successor Landlord under Section 6.01(a), provided, that any subtenants which are Affiliates or Related Service Providers of Tenant and are subject to and subordinate to this

Lease shall not be required to attorn to Landlord, if such subtenant vacates and surrenders the portion of the Premises occupied by such subtenant to Landlord on.or prior to the termination of this Lease.

(iv) Notwithstanding clause (iii) above, Landlord shall, at Tenant's request execute and deliver to a Major Subtenant, a nondisturbance and attornment agreement substantially in the form attached to this Lease as Exhibit B, to Exhibit M attached hereto; provided, that (I) Tenant is not then in default under this Lease after notice and beyond applicable grace period, (II) the sublease with the Major Subtenant is a Qualifying Major Sublease, (III) Tenant has furnished evidence to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction that the subtenant is a Major Subtenant and will continue to be a Major Subtenant after execution and delivery of the sublease and (IV) such Major Subtenant executes and delivers to Landlord the subordination and nondisturbance agreement hereinafter referred to. A "Qualifying Major Sublease" shall mean a sublease from Tenant to a Major Subtenant to which Landlord shall have actually given its consent (not including where Landlord's consent is not required) pursuant to this Article 5, and which (A) consists of at least a full floor of the Blocks in the Building or at least 30,000 contiguous rentable square feet of space in the Premises which is on a floor which is not a Block (and in the case where a sublease includes a portion of a floor, the balance of the floor consists of a leasable configuration of at least 10,000 rentable square feet), (B) in the case of a Block, consists of contiguous space in the Blocks which includes the highest or lowest floor then comprising the Blocks or is in the Blocks and is contiguous to another floor which has been sublet by Tenant and with respect to which Landlord has executed and delivered one or more non-disturbance and attornment agreements hereunder, (C) provides that, at the time when the attornment provided for in the non-disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to becomes effective between Landlord and the Major Subtenant following the termination of the Lease, the rental payable thereunder, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the subtenant may be entitled thereunder, will be equal to or in excess (on a per rentable square foot basis) of the greater of (ww) the Fixed Rent and the recurring Additional Charges payable by Tenant under the Lease with respect to such space and (xx) the then fair market fixed rent and the fair market additional rent that a willing lessee would pay and a willing lessor would accept in an arms-length transaction as reasonably determined by Landlord (subject to arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 hereof) with respect to such space (D) consists of space that will be demised separately from the remainder of the Premises in accordance with all applicable Laws, (E) provides for other obligations of the Major Subtenant at least substantially identical to the obligations of Tenant under the Lease, (F) provides that if the Lease is terminated and Tenant has granted to any Major Subtenant any Major Tenant Right, then such Major Tenant Right shall be null and void with respect to such Major Subtenant after termination of this Lease in accordance with Section 8.28 hereof and (G) provides that if the Tangible Net Worth of the Major Subtenant (or the guarantor pursuant to this Section 5.04(d)(iv)) shall be reduced below that required of a Major Subtenant as a result of (i) the sale of all or any part of its assets, other than in the ordinary course of business or (ii) a dissolution, merger, reorganization or recapitalization, then such Major Subtenant (or such guarantor) shall deposit with Landlord a Security reasonably acceptable to Landlord and consistent with the provisions of Article 11 hereof (taking into account that the Tangible Net Worth required of the Major Subtenant is less than a Qualified Tenant and that the "Remaining Fixed Rent" shall mean the aggregate of the fixed rent payable for the term of the sublease from and after the date in question, without giving effect to any abatement, recoupment, offsets or credits against rent. In no event shall a Qualifying Major Sublease include a sublease to an Affiliate of Tenant or to a Related Service Provider. A "Major Subtenant" shall mean a subtenant with an aggregate Tangible Net Worth (or whose obligations under the sublease are guaranteed, pursuant to a guaranty, in form and content reasonably acceptable to Landlord and such guarantor, by a guarantor with a Tangible Net Worth as hereinafter provided) as determined by Ernst and Young, Coopers & Lybrand, Price Waterhouse, Deloitte & Touche, KPMG Peat Marwick or Arthur Andersen & Co. or their respective successors (each a "Big Six Accounting Firm") or other certified public accounting firm reasonably acceptable to Landlord with at least 40 certified public accountants, equal to or in excess of the amount determined by multiplying $250,000,000 by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of rentable square feet being subleased pursuant to such Qualifying Major Sublease and the denominator of which is 157,387 (the "Major Subtenant Percentage"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this clause (iv), any non-disturbance and attornment agreement delivered by Landlord pursuant to this clause (iv) shall, pursuant to this Lease, be conditional and by its terms expressly contain the condition such that, in the event of any termination of this Lease (x) other than by reason of (1) Tenant's default, (2) a rejection in bankruptcy by Tenant or (3) a voluntary surrender of the Lease by Landlord and Tenant, but (y) including a termination of the Lease by reason of casualty, condemnation or pursuant to Section 8.26 hereof, then any non-disturbance and attornment agreement to a Major Subtenant shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date.

(e) Each sublease shall provide that the subtenant may not assign its rights thereunder or further sublet the space demised under the sublease, in whole or in part, without Landlord's consent in accordance with Section 5.03(a) and without complying with all of the terms and conditions of this Article 5, including, without limitation, Section 5.05, which for purposes of this Section 5.04(e) shall be deemed to be appropriately modified to take into account that the transaction in question is an assignment of the sublease or a further subletting of the space demised under the sublease, as the case may be.

(f) Tenant shall not publicly advertise the availability of the Premises or any portion thereof as sublet space or by way of an assignment of this Lease, without first obtaining Landlord's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, provided, that Tenant shall in no event advertise the rental rate or any description thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord's consent shall not be required for Tenant to list the Premises or any portion thereof with brokers, subject to the proviso in the immediately preceding sentence.

5.05 Assignment and Sublease Profits. (a) If the aggregate of the amounts payable as fixed rent and as additional rent on account of Taxes, Operating Expenses and electricity by a subtenant under a sublease of any part of the Premises (other than a sublease pursuant to Sections 5.01(b) (c) or (d) or to Landlord (or its designee) pursuant to Section 5.02) and the amount of any Other Sublease Consideration payable to Tenant by such subtenant, whether received in a lump-sum payment or otherwise shall be in excess of Tenant's Basic Cost therefor at that time then, promptly after the collection thereof, Tenant shall pay to Landlord in monthly installments as and when collected, as Additional Charges, 50% of such excess. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord within sixty (60) days after the end of each calendar year and within sixty (60) days after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease a statement specifying each sublease in effect during such calendar year or partial calendar year, the rentable area demised thereby, the term thereof and a computation in reasonable detail showing the calculation of the amounts paid and payable by the subtenant to Tenant, and by Tenant to Landlord, with respect to such sublease for the period covered by such statement. "Tenant's Basic Cost" for sublet space at any time means the sum of (i) the portion of the Fixed Rent, Tax Payments and Operating Payments which is attributable to the sublet space, plus (ii) the amount payable by Tenant on account of electricity in respect of the sublet space, plus (iii) the amount of any costs reasonably incurred by Tenant in making changes (or paying for the cost of any changes made by the subtenant) in the layout and finish of the sublet space for the ,subtenant amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the sublease; provided, that if Tenant or such subtenant is not making any such changes or to the extent any such changes do not change any of the improvements previously installed or made by Tenant to the sublet space during the prior 12 months, then portion of the unamortized costs (amortized over the Term on a straight line basis) included within the sublease term incurred by Tenant for improvements made to the sublet space within 12 months prior to such subletting, (iv) the portion of the unamortized costs (amortized over the Term on a straight line basis) incurred by Tenant for equipment, furniture or other personal property sold to such subtenant, (v) the amount of any reasonable brokerage commissions and reasonable legal fees paid by Tenant in connection with the sublease amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the sublease plus (vi) the amount payable by Tenant for New York State Real Property Transfer Gains Tax and Real Property Transfer Taxes and New York City Real Property Transfer Tax. For purposes of this Section 5.05(a), the term "Other Sublease Consideration" shall mean all sums paid by (or for the benefit of) the subtenant for the furnishing of guaranteed services (in excess of Tenant's actual out of pocket cost to provide such services) by Tenant and the sale or rental of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture or other personal property.

(b) Upon any assignment of this Lease other than an assignment or deemed assignment pursuant to Section 5.01(b) (c) (d) or to Landlord (or its designee) pursuant to Section 5.02, Tenant shall pay to Landlord 50% of the Assignment Consideration received by Tenant for such assignment, after deducting therefrom (i) customary and reasonable closing expenses including without limitation any New York State Transfer Gains or Transfer Tax and New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, (ii) reasonable brokerage commissions and legal fees, (iii) the portion of the unamortized costs (amortized over the Term on a straight line basis) of the excess of the costs of Tenant's Alterations over Tenant's Work Allowance and the Required Work Allowance and (iv) the unamortized costs (amortized over the Term on a straight line basis) incurred by Tenant for equipment, furniture or other personal property sold to such assignee. For purposes of this Section 5.05(b), the term "Assignment Consideration" shall mean an amount equal to all sums and other considerations paid to Tenant by the assignee for or by reason of such assignment (including, but not limited to, sums paid for the furnishing of guaranteed services by Tenant and the sale or rental of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture, furnishings or other personal property).

5.06 Sublease of Space From Other Tenants. If Tenant desires to sublease space from a tenant in the Building or to obtain an assignment of such other tenant's lease with respect to space in the Building, and such other tenant is prohibited from subleasing its leased premises or assigning its lease to another tenant in the Building, then Tenant may, by notice to Landlord, request that Landlord waive such prohibition and provided no default has occurred under this Lease beyond any notice and grace period and Landlord does not have comparable space available to be leased within the following six (6) months for a comparable term, Landlord shall, within ten (10) days after such notice from Tenant, waive such prohibition in writing with respect to subletting or assignment, provided such subletting or assignment is otherwise consistent with the provisions of such other tenant's lease. If Landlord shall fail to respond within such ten (10) day period, Tenant may send a second notice (which second notice may not be delivered until at least ten (10) days has elapsed after the delivery of the first notice) specifically referencing this Section 5.06 to Landlord and if within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such second notice, landlord has not responded, then Landlord will be deemed to have waived such prohibition with respect to such subletting or assignment without further act.

Subordination; Default; Indemnity

6.01 Subordination. (a) This Lease is subject and subordinate to each mortgage (a "Superior Mortgage") and each underlying lease (a "Superior Lease") which may now or hereafter affect all or any portion of the Project or any interest therein, provided, that (i) in the case of the Indenture, the Superior Mortgagee under the Indenture, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Lease by Landlord and Tenant, shall have executed, acknowledged and delivered to Tenant the non-disturbance and attornment agreement attached to this Lease as Exhibit M-1, (ii) in the case of the Ground Lease (if the Superior Lessor thereunder shall no longer be Landlord or an Affiliate of Landlord or other entity which controls the management and operations of Landlord which is not an Affiliate of Landlord) or any other Superior Lease which may hereafter affect all or any portion of the Project or any interest therein, the Superior Lessor shall have executed, acknowledged and delivered a non-disturbance and attornment agreement containing the same substantive provisions as those set forth in the form attached to this Lease as Exhibit M-1 modified as necessary to reflect that the party granting the non-disturbance is a Superior Lessor rather than Superior Mortgagee and (iii) in the case of any Superior Mortgage which may hereafter affect all or any portion of the Project or any interest therein, the Superior Mortgagee thereunder shall have executed, acknowledged and delivered to Tenant a non-disturbance and attornment agreement containing substantially the same substantive provisions as those set forth in the form attached to this Lease as Exhibit M-2. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 6.01(a) to the contrary, if any such Superior Lessor or superior Mortgagee executes, acknowledges and delivers to Tenant a non-disturbance and attornment agreement in the form herein required, and Tenant either fails or refuses to execute and deliver such agreement within twenty (20) days after delivery of such agreement to Tenant, then this Lease shall automatically and without further act be deemed to be subject and subordinate to such Superior Lease or Superior Mortgage, as the case may be, and such non-disturbance and attornment agreement shall then be deemed to be in effect with respect to such Superior Lease or Superior Mortgage, as the case may be. If the foregoing conditions are satisfied, Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument as may be reasonably requested by Landlord, a Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee to evidence the subordination described in this Section 6.01(a), but no such instrument shall be necessary to make such subordination effective. The lessor under a Superior Lease is called a "Superior Lessor" and the mortgagee under a Superior Mortgage is called a "Superior Mortgagee." Tenant shall execute any amendment of this Lease reasonably requested by a Superior Mortgagee or a Superior Lessor (other than the Superior Lessor under the Ground Lease so long as such Superior Lessor is Landlord or an Affiliate of Landlord or other entity which controls the management and operations, of Landlord which is not an Affiliate of Landlord), provided, that such amendment shall not reduce or extend the Term, increase the Rent, reduce the area of the Premises, result in an increase in Tenant's obligations under this Lease or a reduction in the benefits available to Tenant (other than to a de minimis extent). In the event of the enforcement by a Superior Mortgagee of the remedies provided for by law or by such Superior Mortgage, or in the event of the termination or expiration of a Superior Lease, Tenant, upon request of such Superior Mortgagee, Superior Lessor or any person succeeding to the interest of such mortgagee or lessor (each, a "Successor Landlord"), shall automatically become the tenant of such Successor Landlord without change in the terms or provisions of this Lease (it being understood that Tenant shall, if requested, enter into a new lease on terms identical to those in this Lease for the then remaining Lease Term); provided, that except as otherwise provided in the nondisturbance and attornment agreement between Tenant and such Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor any Successor Landlord shall not be (i) liable for any act, omission or default of any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord); (ii) liable for the return of any monies paid to or on deposit with any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord), except to the extent such monies or deposits are delivered to such Successor Landlord; (iii) subject to any offset, claims or defense that Tenant might have against any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord); (iv) bound by any Rent which Tenant might have paid for more than the current month to any prior landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord) unless actually received by such Successor Landlord; (v) bound by any covenant to perform or complete any construction in connection with the Project or the Premises or to pay any sums to Tenant in connection therewith; or (vi) bound by any waiver or forbearance under, or any amendment, modification, abridgement, cancellation or surrender of, this Lease made without the consent of such Successor Landlord. Upon request by such Successor Landlord, Tenant shall execute and deliver an instrument or instruments, reasonably requested by such Successor landlord, confirming the attornments provided for herein, but no such instrument shall be necessary to make such attornment effective.

(b) Tenant shall give each Superior Mortgagee and each Superior Lessor (which is not an Affiliate of Landlord) a copy of any notice of default served upon Landlord, provided, that Tenant has been notified of the address of such mortgagee or lessor. If Landlord fails to cure any default as to which Tenant is obligated to give notice pursuant to the preceding sentence within the time provided for in this Lease, then each such mortgagee or lessor shall have an additional thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice within which to cure such default or if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary if, within such thirty (30) days, any such mortgagee or lessor has commenced and is diligently pursuing the remedies necessary to cure such default (including, without limitation, commencement of foreclosure proceedings or eviction proceedings, if necessary to effect such cure), in which event this Lease shall not be terminated and Tenant shall not exercise any other rights or remedies under this Lease or otherwise while such remedies are being so diligently pursued. Nothing herein shall be deemed to imply that Tenant has any right to terminate this Lease or any other right or remedy, except as may be otherwise expressly provided for in this Lease.

(c) Without limiting the generality of this Section 6.01, this Lease is subject and subordinate to (i) a certain Superior Lease, dated February 25, 1959, between Martha F. Keeping, as lessor, and 91078 Corporation, as lessee, a memorandum of which was recorded in the office of the Register of the City of New York, County of New York in Liber 5068 of Conveyances, Page 489, as assigned by a series of assignments (the "Ground Lease"), pursuant to which assignments Landlord holds the ground lessor and ground lessee interest in such Ground Lease as of the date hereof and (ii) a certain Mortgage Spreader and Consolidation Agreement and Trust Indenture dated as of March 20, 1984 (the "Indenture") made between O&Y Equity Corp., Olympia & York Holdings Corporation, FAME Associates, Olympia & York 2 Broadway Land Company and Olympia & York 2 Broadway Company (collectively "Companies"), as mortgagor, and Bank of New York (as successor to NationsBank of Tennessee, N.A., successor to Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company), as Trustee, as mortgagee. Section 6.6D(1) and Section 6.6D(3) of the Indenture provide as follows:

"D. The Companies will not:

"(1) receive or collect, or permit the receipt or collection of, any rental or other payments under any Lease more than one month in advance of the respective periods in respect of which they are to accrue, except that (i) in connection with the execution and delivery of any Lease or of any amendment to any Lease, rental payments hereunder may be collected and received in advance in an amount not in excess of three months' rent and/or a security deposit may be required thereunder in an amount up to any amount permitted by law (provided, that such deposits are maintained in accordance with applicable law) and (ii) the Companies may receive and collect escalation charges in accordance with the terms of each Lease;"

"(3) enter into any Lease that does not contain terms to the effect as follows:

(a) the Lease and the rights of the tenants thereunder shall be subject and subordinate to the rights of the Trustee under this Indenture;

(b) the Lease has been assigned as collateral security by the landlord thereunder to the Trustee under this Indenture but that the landlord thereunder is entitled to receive and collect all rental and other payments thereunder unless and until contrary notice is received from the Trustee;

(c) in the case of any foreclosure hereunder, the rights and remedies of the tenant in respect of any obligations of any successor landlord thereunder shall be nonrecourse as to any assets of such successor landlord other than its equity in the building in which the leased premises are located; and

(d) the tenant's obligation to pay rent and any additional rent shall not be subject to any abatement, deduction, counterclaim or setoff as against any mortgagee or purchaser upon the foreclosure of any of the Properties by reason of any landlord default occurring prior to such foreclosure."

This Lease falls within the definition of "Lease" referred to in the above quoted language from the Indenture. Landlord acknowledges that if Tenant and the Superior Mortgagee under the Indenture or any Superior Mortgagees or Superior Lessors enter into a nondisturbance and attornment agreement to which Landlord is a party or to which Landlord has consented, any terms thereof which are inconsistent with this Section 6.01 shall be superseded by such nondisturbance and attornment agreement.

6.02 Estoppel Certificate. Each party shall, at any time and from time to time, within ten (10) days after request by the other party, execute and deliver to the requesting party (or to such person or entity as the requesting party may designate) a statement certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), certifying the Commencement Date, the Second Commencement Date, the Expiration Date and the dates to which the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges have been paid and stating whether or not, to the best knowledge of such party, the other party is in default in performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, and, if so, specifying each such default of which such party has knowledge, it being intended that any such statement shall be deemed a representation and warranty to be relied upon by the party to whom such statement is addressed. Landlord and Tenant also shall include or confirm in any such statement such other information concerning this Lease as Landlord or Tenant may reasonably request.

6.03 Default. This Lease and the term and estate hereby granted are subject to the limitation that:

(a) if Tenant defaults in the payment of any Rent, and Tenant fails to cure such default by making such payment of Rent in immediately available federal funds within ten (10) calendar days after Landlord gives to Tenant a first notice specifying such default and two (2) Business Days after Landlord gives Tenant a second notice (which second notice shall be given no earlier than eight (8) calendar days after the date such ten (10) day first notice shall have been given) specifying such default; provided, that if Tenant, prior to the expiration of such two (2) Business Day second notice, notified Landlord that Tenant disputes all or any part of this Rent payment, specifying the basis for Tenant's dispute, Tenant shall nevertheless pay the full amount of the disputed charge but without prejudice to Tenant's dispute), or

(b) if Tenant defaults in the keeping, observance or performance of any covenant or agreement (other than a default of the character referred to in Sections 6.03(a) or (c)), and if such default continues and is not cured within thirty (30) calendar days after Landlord gives to Tenant a first notice specifying the same and ten (10) Business Days after Landlord gives Tenant a second notice (which second notice shall be given no earlier than twenty (20) days after the date such thirty (30) calendar day first notice shall have been given), or, in the case of a default which for causes beyond Tenant's reasonable control cannot with due diligence be cured prior to the expiration of such ten (10) Business Day second notice, if Tenant shall not prior to the expiration of such ten (10) Business Day second notice, (i) advise Landlord of Tenant's intention duly to institute all steps necessary to cure such default and (ii) institute and thereafter diligently prosecute to completion within one year (subject to delay due to Force Majeure not to exceed sixty (60) days) after receipt of the second notice all steps necessary to cure the same,

(c) if this Lease or the estate hereby granted would, by operation of law or otherwise, devolve upon or pass to any person or entity other than Tenant, except as expressly permitted by Article 5 and such default continues for thirty (30) calendar days after Landlord gives to Tenant a first notice specifying such default, and for ten (10) calendar days after Landlord gives Tenant a second notice (which second notice shall be given no earlier than twenty (20) calendar days after the date such thirty (30) calendar day first notice shall have been given), then, in any of cases set forth in clause (a), (b) and (c) above, in addition to any other remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, Landlord shall be entitled to give to Tenant a notice of intention to end the Term at the expiration of five (5) Business Days from the date of the giving of such notice, and, in the event such notice is given, this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted shall terminate upon the expiration of such five (5) Business Days with the same effect as if the last of such five (5) Business Days were the Expiration Date, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided herein or pursuant to law.

6.04 Re-entry by Landlord. If this Lease shall terminate as in Section 6.03 provided, Landlord or Landlord's agents and servants may immediately or at any time thereafter re-enter into or upon the Premises, or any part thereof, either by summary dispossess proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law, without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and may repossess the same, and may remove any persons therefrom, to the end that Landlord may have, hold and enjoy the Premises. The words "re-enter" and "re-entering" as used in this Lease are not restricted to their technical legal meanings. Upon such termination or re-entry, Tenant shall pay to Landlord any Rent then due and owing (in addition to any damages payable under Section 6.05).

6.05 Damages. If this Lease is terminated under Section 6.03, or if Landlord re-enters the Premises under Section 6.04, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as damages, at the election of Landlord, either:

(a) a sum which, at the time of such termination, represents the then value of the excess, if any, of (1) the aggregate of the Rent which, had this Lease not terminated, would have been payable hereunder by Tenant for the period commencing on the day following the date of such termination or re-entry to and including the Expiration Date over (2) the aggregate fair rental value of the Premises for the same period (for the purposes of this clause (a) the amount of Additional Charges which would have been payable by Tenant under Sections 2.04 and 2.05 shall, for each calendar year ending after such termination or re-entry, be deemed to be an amount equal to the amount of such Additional Charges payable by Tenant for the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which such termination or re-entry shall occur) each discounted to present value at the Interest Rate, or

(b) sums equal to the Rent that would have been payable by Tenant through and including the Expiration Date had this Lease not terminated or had Landlord not re-entered the Premises, payable upon the due dates therefor specified in this Lease; provided, that if Landlord shall relet all or any part of the Premises for all or any part of the period commencing on the day following the date of such termination or re-entry to and including the Expiration Date, Landlord shall credit Tenant with the net rents received by Landlord from such reletting, such net rents to be determined by first deducting from the gross rents as and when received by Landlord from such reletting the expenses incurred or paid by Landlord in terminating this Lease and of re-entering the Premises and of securing possession thereof, as well as the expenses of reletting, including, without limitation, altering and preparing the Premises for new tenants, brokers' commissions, and all other expenses properly chargeable against the Premises and the rental therefrom in connection with such reletting, it being understood that any such reletting may be for a period equal to or shorter or longer than said period; and further provided, that (i) in no event shall Tenant be entitled to receive any excess of such net rents over the sums payable by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease, (ii) in no event shall Tenant be entitled, in any suit for the collection of damages pursuant to this Section 6.05(b), to a credit in respect of any net rents from a reletting except to the extent that such net rents are actually received by Landlord prior to the commencement of such suit, (iii) if the Premises or any part thereof should be relet in combination with other space, then proper apportionment on a square foot rentable area basis shall be made of the rent received from such reletting and of the expenses of reletting, (iv) if the Premises or any part thereof shall be relet for a term greater than the unexpired term hereof, then the expenses of reletting, including the costs of altering the Premises for the new tenant, broker's commissions and all other expenses properly chargeable against the Premises, shall be equitably apportioned, based on the term of such reletting between the period prior to and after the Expiration Date and (v) Landlord shall have no obligation to so relet the Premises and Tenant hereby waives any right Tenant may have, at law or in equity, to require Landlord to so relet the Premises.

Suit or suits for the recovery of any damages payable hereunder by Tenant, or any installments thereof, may be brought by Landlord from time to time at its election, and nothing contained herein shall require Landlord to postpone suit until the date when the Term would have expired but for such termination or re-entry.

6.06 Other Remedies. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed as limiting or precluding the recovery by Landlord against Tenant of any sums or damages to which, in addition to the damages particularly provided above, Landlord may lawfully be entitled by reason of any default hereunder on the part of Tenant.

6.07 Right to Injunction. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall also have the right of injunction. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Landlord of any of its obligations under this Lease, Tenant shall also have the right of injunction. The specified remedies to which Landlord or Tenant may resort hereunder are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies or means of redress to which Landlord or Tenant may lawfully be entitled, and Landlord or Tenant may invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity as if specific remedies were not herein provided for, except that to the extent any rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit is provided to Tenant for the failure of Landlord to perform its obligations under this Lease to deliver Tenant all or any part of the Premises, such rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit shall be the maximum monetary remedy available to Tenant as a result of Landlord's failure to perform such obligation or deliver that portion of the Premises for which Tenant is receiving a rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit. In the event that the same act or omission by Landlord would entitle Tenant to more than one rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit under different provisions of this Lease, it will be Tenant's option to elect which rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit it will receive. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein (i) if Tenant is entitled to receive a rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit, such rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit shall be calculated as if the Fixed Rent payable per rentable square foot was reduced by 18 cents, (ii) if Tenant is entitled to a rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit under different provisions of this Lease for the same harm suffered by Tenant, Tenant shall be entitled to a rent offset, recoupment, abatement or credit of only one applicable provision.

6.08 Certain Waivers. Tenant waives and surrenders all right and privilege that Tenant might have under or by reason of any present or future law to redeem the Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease after Tenant is dispossessed or ejected therefrom by process of law or under the terms of this Lease or after any termination of this Lease. Landlord and Tenant each waive trial by jury in any action in connection with this Lease other than in connection with an action based in tort.

6.09 No Waiver. Failure by either party to declare any default immediately upon its occurrence or delay in taking any action in connection with such default shall not waive such default but such party shall have the right to declare any such default at any time thereafter. Any amounts paid by a party hereto may be applied by the recipient, in the recipient's discretion, to any items then owing under this Lease. Receipt by a party hereto of a partial payment shall not be deemed to be an accord and satisfaction (notwithstanding any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment) nor shall such receipt constitute a waiver of the obligation to make full payment. No act or thing done by Landlord or its agents shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept such surrender shall be valid unless in writing and signed by Landlord and by each Superior Lessor and Superior Mortgagee whose lease or mortgage provides that any such surrender may not be accepted without its consent.

6.10 Holding Over. If Tenant holds over without the consent of Landlord after expiration or termination of this Lease (including by reason of Force Majeure which is unrelated to the Project), Tenant shall pay as holdover rental for each month of the holdover tenancy an amount equal to the Holdover Percentage multiplied by the greater of (i) the fair market rental value of the Premises for such month (as reasonably determined by Landlord) or (ii) the Rent which Tenant was obligated to pay for the month immediately preceding the end of the Term (giving no effect to any rent abatement, offset or other applicable reduction). No holding over by Tenant after the Term shall operate to extend the Term. "Holdover Percentage" means, with respect to any holdover by Tenant after the expiration or termination of this Lease (I) for the first thirty (30) days of such holdover tenancy, 110%, (II) for the second thirty (30) days of such holdover tenancy, 120%, (III) for the third thirty (30) days of such holdover tenancy, 130%, (IV) for the fourth thirty (30) days of such holdover tenancy, 140%, (V) thereafter until the first anniversary of such holdover, 150% and (VI) thereafter, 200%; provided, however, if Tenant advises Landlord within six months prior to the Expiration Date that it intends to hold over, its reason for such holdover and its reasonable estimate of the expected holdover period then for the first ninety (90) days of such holdover tenancy the Holdover Percentage shall be 100% , and thereafter the Holdover Percentage will increase as hereinabove provided in clauses (I)-(VI) as if such 91st day was the first day of the holdover period to a maximum of 200% commencing four hundred fifty (450) days after expiration or termination of this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the acceptance of any rent paid by Tenant pursuant to this Section 6.10 shall not preclude Landlord from commencing and prosecuting a holdover or summary eviction proceeding.

6.11 Attorneys' Fees. If either party places the enforcement of this Lease or any part thereof, or the collection of any Rent or other payment due or to become due hereunder, or recovery of the possession of the Premises, in the hands of an attorney, or files suit upon the same, the prevailing party shall, within thirty (30) days after demand, be reimbursed by the losing party for its reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and court costs.

6.12 Nonliability and Indemnification. (a) Neither Landlord, any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee, nor any partner, director, officer, shareholder, principal, agent, servant, employee or contractor of Landlord, any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee (whether disclosed or undisclosed), shall be liable to Tenant, any Affiliate of Tenant, any Related Service Provider or any partner, director, officer, shareholder, principal, agent, servant, employee or contractor of Tenant, its Affiliates or Related Service Providers (collectively the "Tenant Group") for (i) any loss, injury or damage to Tenant, the Tenant Group or to any other person, or to its or their property, irrespective of the cause of such injury, damage or loss, nor shall the aforesaid parties be liable for any loss of or damage to property of Tenant or the Tenant Group or of others entrusted to employees of Landlord; provided, that, except to the extent of the release of liability and waiver of subrogation provided in Section 7.03 hereof, the foregoing shall not be deemed to relieve Landlord or any partner, director, officer, shareholder, principal, agent, servant, employee or contractor of Landlord (collectively the "Landlord Group") or any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee, respectively, of any liability to the extent resulting from the negligence of such. party, its agents, servants or employees in the operation or maintenance of the Premises or the Building, (ii) any loss, injury or damage described in clause (i) above caused by other tenants or persons in, upon or about the Building, or caused by operations in construction of any private (other than by or on behalf of Landlord), public or quasi-public work, or (iii) even if negligent, consequential damages arising out of any loss of use of the Premises or any equipment, facilities or other Tenant's Property therein.

(b) Tenant shall indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, all Superior Lessors and all Superior Mortgagees and each of their respective partners, directors, officers, shareholders, principals, agents and employees (each, an "Indemnified Party"), from and against any and all claims arising from or in connection with (i) the conduct or management of the Premises or of any business therein, or any work or thing done, or any condition created, in or about the Premises, (ii) any act, omission or negligence of Tenant, the Tenant Group or any person claiming through or under Tenant, the Tenant Group or any of their respective partners, directors, officers, agents, employees or contractors, (iii) any accident, injury or damage occurring in, at or upon the Premises after the Commencement Date or the Second Commencement Date, as applicable, (iv) any default by Tenant or the Tenant Group in the performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, (v) any brokerage commission or similar compensation claimed to be due by reason of any proposed subletting or assignment by Tenant or the Tenant Group (irrespective of the exercise by Landlord of any of the options in Section 5.02(a)), (vi) any exercise of its right of self help pursuant to Section 8.24 and (vii) any noise or vibration generated within the Premises (including, without limitation, any amounts paid or credited to other tenants, or occupants of the Building as a result thereof and any lost revenue of Landlord from other tenants or occupants of the Building (such as in connection with the termination of a then existing lease as a result of such noise or vibration) whether such amounts paid or credited or such lost revenue constitutes direct, consequential or other damages); together with all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred in connection with each such claim or action or proceeding brought thereon, including, without limitation, all attorneys' fees and disbursements; provided, that the foregoing indemnity shall not apply to the extent such claim results from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnified Party or its contractor which is not covered by the waiver of subrogation set forth in Section 7.03 hereof. If any action or proceeding is brought against any Indemnified Party by reason of any such claim, Tenant, upon notice from such Indemnified Party shall resist and defend such action or proceeding (by counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party or designated by Tenant's insurance carrier). This clause (b) is expressly subject to Section 6.13.

(c) Neither any director, officer, shareholder, principal, agent, servant or employee of Tenant, its Affiliates or Related Service Providers (whether disclosed or undisclosed), shall be liable to Landlord or any Indemnified Party for any loss, injury or damage to Landlord, an Indemnified Party, or to any other person, or to its or their property which is not caused by the negligence of such director, officer, shareholder, principal, agent, servant or employee.

(d) If either Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be (the "Indemnitee"), receives written notice of any third party claim or potential claim or the commencement of any action or proceeding that could give rise to any obligation on the part of Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be, to provide indemnification (the "Indemnitor") pursuant to this Section, the Indemnitee shall promptly give the Indemnitor notice thereof (the "Indemnification Notice"); provided, however, that the failure to give the Indemnification Notice promptly shall not impair the Indemnitee's right to indemnification in respect of such claim, action or proceeding unless, and only to the extent that, the lack of prompt notice adversely affects the ability of the Indemnitor to defend against or diminish the losses arising out of such claim, action or proceeding. Delivery of the Indemnification Notice shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Indemnitor under the provisions for the indemnification contained in this Lease. The Indemnification Notice shall include copies of any notice or other document received from any third party in respect of any such asserted claim. The Indemnitor shall have the right to assume the defense of a third party claim or suit described in this Section 6.12 at its own cost and expense and with counsel of its own choosing; provided, however, such counsel is reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitee (except if the counsel is provided by the Indemnitor's insurer, in which case the counsel designated by the insurer will be satisfactory); the Indemnitee is kept fully informed of all material developments and is furnished copies of all papers; the Indemnitee is given the opportunity, at its option, to participate at its own cost and expense and with counsel of its own choosing (which shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnitor, except if the counsel is provided by the Indemnitee's insurer, in which case the counsel designated by the insurer will be satisfactory) in the defense of such claim or suit; and the Indemnitor diligently prosecutes the defense of such claim or suit. If all of the conditions of the foregoing provision are not satisfied the Indemnitee shall have the right, without impairing any of its rights to indemnification as provided herein, to assume and control the defense of such claim or suit and to settle such claim or suit. If the Indemnitor is defending any third party claim or suit pursuant to this Section, (i) the Indemnitee shall make available to the Indemnitor any books, records or other documents within its control that are necessary or appropriate for such defense and (ii) the Indemnitor shall not be liable for any settlement agreed to by the Indemnitee unless such settlement is approved in writing by the Indemnitor.

6.13 Consequential Damages. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, neither Landlord nor Tenant may collect from the other consequential damages for any claim arising out of this Lease, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease.

Insurance: Casualty: Condemnation

7.01 Compliance with Insurance Standards. (a) Tenant shall not violate, or permit the violation of, any condition imposed by any insurance policy then issued in respect of the Project and shall not do, or permit anything to be done, or keep or permit anything to be kept in the Premises, which would subject Landlord, any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee to any liability or responsibility for personal injury or death or property damage, or which would increase any insurance rate in respect of the Project over the rate which would otherwise then be in effect or which would result in insurance companies of good standing refusing to insure the Project in amounts reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, or which would result in the cancellation of, or the assertion of any defense by the insurer in whole or in part to claims under, any policy of insurance in respect of the Project.

(b) If, by reason of any failure of Tenant to comply with this Lease, the premiums on Landlord's insurance on the Project shall be higher than they otherwise would be, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, on demand, for that part of such premiums attributable to such failure on the part of Tenant. A schedule or "make up" of rates for the Project or the Premises, as the case may be, issued by the New York Fire Insurance Rating Organization or other similar body making rates for insurance for the Project or the Premises, as the case may be, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated and of the several items and charges in the insurance rate then applicable to the Project or the Premises, as the case may be.

7.02 Tenant's and Landlord's Insurance. (a) Tenant shall maintain at all times during the Term (a) "all risk" property insurance covering all present and future Tenant's Property and Tenant's Improvements and Betterments to a limit of not less than the full replacement cost thereof, and (b) commercial general liability insurance, including a contractual liability endorsement, and personal injury liability coverage, in respect of the Premises and the conduct or operation of business therein, with Landlord and its managing agent, if any, and each Superior Lessor and Superior Mortgagee whose name and address shall have been furnished to Tenant, as additional insureds, with limits of not less than $5,000,000 combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage liability in any one occurrence and (c) boiler, air conditioning and machinery insurance, if there is a boiler, supplementary air conditioning or pressure object or similar equipment in the Premises, with Landlord and its managing agent, if any, and each Superior Lessor and Superior Mortgagee whose name and address shall have been furnished to Tenant, as additional insureds, with limits of not less than the full replacement cost of Tenant's Property and Tenant's Improvements and Betterments if such insurance policy is part of the insurance policy required to be maintained pursuant to Section 7.02(a) and otherwise with limits of not less than $5,000,000 and (d) when Alterations are in process, the insurance specified in Section 4.02(f) hereof and (e) if alcoholic beverages are being sold at the Premises, liability insurance for sellers of alcoholic beverages with limits of not less than $1,000,000. Such insurance may be carried under blanket or umbrella policies covering the Premises and other properties owned or leased by Tenant; provided, that each such policy shall comply in all respects with this Section 7.02, shall specify the portion of the total coverage of such policies that is allocated to the Premises in the amounts required in this Section 7.02 and shall provide that the amount of coverage afforded under such policies with respect to the Premises shall not be reduced by claims under such policies with respect to such other properties. The limits of such insurance shall not limit the liability of Tenant. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and any additional insureds, on or prior to the Commencement Date, such fully paid-for policies or certificates of insurance, in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord issued by the insurance company or its authorized agent. Tenant shall procure and pay for renewals of such insurance from time to time before the expiration thereof, and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and any additional insureds such renewal policy or a certificate thereof at least fifteen (15) days before the expiration of any existing policy. All such policies shall be issued by companies licensed to do business in New York State and rated by Best's Insurance Reports or any successor publication of comparable standing as A-VIII or better or the then equivalent of such rating, and all such policies shall contain a provision whereby the same cannot be cancelled, allowed to lapse or modified unless Landlord and any additional insureds are given at least fifteen (15) days' prior written notice of such cancellation, lapse or modification. The proceeds of policies providing "all risk" property insurance of Tenant's Property and Improvements and Betterments shall be payable to Tenant, provided, that any insurance proceeds covering Improvements and Betterments shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord as and when required in this Lease. Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in connection with the collection of any insurance monies that may be due in the event of loss and Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord such proofs of loss and other instruments which may be required to recover any such insurance monies. Landlord may from time to time require that the amount of the insurance to be maintained by Tenant under this Section 7.02 be increased, so that the amount thereof is equal to the amount of insurance generally required of tenants by prudent landlords of comparable first class buildings in midtown Manhattan.

(b) Landlord, at Landlord's expense (subject to inclusion in Operating Expense), shall at all times during the Term maintain with insurance companies licensed to do business in New York State and rated by Best's Insurance Reports or any successor publication of comparable standing as A-VIII or better or the then equivalent of such rating, all risk insurance to the extent of 100% of the replacement cost of the Building (but excluding Tenant's Property and Tenant's Improvements and Betterments).

7.03 Subrogation Waiver. Landlord and Tenant shall each include in each of its insurance policies (insuring the Building in case of Landlord, and insuring Tenant's Property and Improvements and Betterments in the case of Tenant, against loss, damage or destruction by fire or other casualty) a waiver of the insurer's right of subrogation against the other party (including such parties' employees and Affiliates within the Building and, to the extent a permitted subtenant waives its insurer's right of subrogation against Landlord in the applicable sublease, such subtenant) during the Term or, if such waiver should be unobtainable or unenforceable, (a) an express agreement that such policy shall not be invalidated if the insured waives the right of recovery against any party responsible for a casualty covered by the policy before the casualty or (b) any other form of permission for the release of the other party. Each party hereby releases the other party with respect to any claim (including a claim for negligence) which it might otherwise have against the other party for loss, damage or destruction with respect to its property occurring during the Term to the extent to which it is, or is required to be, insured under a policy or policies containing a waiver of subrogation or permission to release liability. Nothing contained in this Section 7.03 shall be deemed to relieve either party of any duty imposed elsewhere in this Lease to repair, restore or rebuild or to nullify any abatement of rents provided for elsewhere in this Lease.

7.04 Condemnation. (a) If there shall be a total taking of the Building in condemnation proceedings or by any right of eminent domain, this Lease and the term and estate hereby granted shall terminate as of the date of taking of possession by the condemning authority and all Rent shall be prorated and paid as of such termination date. If there shall be a taking of any material (in Landlord's reasonable judgment) portion of the Land or the Building (whether or not the Premises are affected by such taking), then Landlord may terminate this Lease and the term and estate granted hereby by giving notice to Tenant within sixty (60) days after the date of taking of possession by the condemning authority; provided, that if no part of the Premises is subject to such taking, Landlord shall be entitled to terminate this Lease only if Landlord then terminates substantially all other leases for office space in the Building. If there shall be a taking of the Premises of such scope (but in no event less than 20% thereof) that the untaken part of the Premises would in Tenant's reasonable judgment be uneconomic to operate, or a taking of the Building of such a scope that Tenant is deprived of reasonable access to the Premises or of Landlord services so that it would be in Tenant's reasonable judgment uneconomic to operate the Premises then Tenant may terminate this Lease and the term and estate granted hereby by giving notice to Landlord within sixty (60) days after the date of taking of possession by the condemning authority. If either Landlord or Tenant shall give a termination notice as aforesaid, then this Lease and the term and estate granted hereby shall terminate as of the date of such notice and all Rent shall be prorated and paid as of such termination date. In the event of a taking of the Premises which does not result in the termination of this Lease (i) the term and estate hereby granted with respect to the taken part of the Premises shall terminate as of the date of taking of possession by the condemning authority and all Rent shall be appropriately abated for the period from such date to the Expiration Date and (ii) Landlord shall with reasonable diligence restore the remaining portion of the Premises (exclusive of Tenant's Property) as nearly as practicable to its condition prior to such taking.

(b) In the event of any taking of all or a part of the Building, Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award in the condemnation proceeding, including, without limitation, any award made for the value of the estate vested by this Lease in Tenant or any value attributable to the unexpired portion of the Term, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord any and all right, title and interest of Tenant now or hereafter arising in or to any such award or any part thereof, and Tenant shall be entitled to receive no part of such award; provided, that nothing shall preclude Tenant from intervening in any such condemnation proceeding to claim or receive from the condemning authority any compensation to which Tenant may otherwise lawfully be entitled in such case in respect of Tenant's Property, moving expenses or the unamortized cost (as shown on Tenant's financial statements) of all Alterations made by Tenant to the Premises (or if the Lease shall not be terminated, then to the portion of the Premises so taken by the condemning authority) at Tenant's expense (without the use of any work allowance provided by Landlord with respect to the Premises and less any Rent abatement provided to Tenant with respect to such Premises upon the commencement of occupancy by Tenant; provided, that if such taking shall include only a portion of the Premises and this Lease shall not be terminated by reason thereof, any work allowance or rent abatement provided by Landlord with respect to such Premises shall be appropriately prorated based on the rentable area of the taken portion of the Premises); provided, that the same do not include any value of the estate vested by this Lease in Tenant or of the unexpired portion of the Term and do not reduce the amount available to Landlord or materially delay the payment thereof.

(c) If all or any part of the Premises shall be taken for a limited period, Tenant shall be entitled, except as hereinafter set forth, to that portion of the award for such taking which represents compensation for the use and occupancy of the Premises, for the taking of Tenant's Property and for moving expenses, and Landlord shall be entitled to that portion which represents reimbursement for the cost of restoration of the Premises. This Lease shall remain unaffected by such taking and Tenant shall continue responsible for all of its obligations under this Lease to the extent such obligations are not affected by such taking and shall continue to pay in full all Rent when due. If the period of temporary use or occupancy shall extend beyond the Expiration Date, that part of the award which represents compensation for the use and occupancy of the Premises shall be apportioned between Landlord and Tenant as of the Expiration Date. Any award for temporary use and occupancy for a period beyond the date to which the Rent has been paid shall be paid to, held (in an interest bearing account) and applied by Landlord as a trust fund for payment of the Rent thereafter becoming due.

(d) In the event of any taking which does not result in termination of this Lease, (i) Landlord, whether or not any award shall be sufficient therefor, shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair the remaining parts of the Building and the Premises (other than those parts of the Premises which constitute Tenant's Property) to substantially their former condition to the extent that the same may be feasible (subject to reasonable changes which Landlord deems desirable) and so as to constitute a complete and rentable Building and Premises and (ii) Tenant, whether or not any award shall be sufficient therefor, shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair the remaining parts of the Premises which constitute Tenant's Property, to substantially their former condition to the extent that the same may be feasible, subject to reasonable changes which shall be deemed Alterations.

7.05 Casualty. (a) If the Building or the Premises shall be partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (each, a "Casualty") and if this Lease is not terminated as provided below, then (i) Landlord shall repair and restore the Building and the Premises (including Tenant's Improvements and Betterments but excluding Tenant's Property) with reasonable dispatch (but Landlord shall not be required to perform the same on an overtime or premium pay basis) after notice to Landlord of the Casualty and the collection of the insurance proceeds attributable to such Casualty and (ii) Tenant shall repair and restore in accordance with Section 4.02 all Tenant's Property with reasonable dispatch after Landlord's restoration provided in clause (i) above is substantially completed. Except as provided in Section 4.05, upon Tenant's receipt from Landlord of (x) a waiver of Landlord's right to cancel the Lease as provided in Section 7.05 as a result of such casualty, (y) confirmation that Landlord has collected the insurance proceeds attributable to such casualty as provided for in clause (i) above (or has received the first advance thereof, if such insurance proceeds are paid to Landlord in installments or has commenced restoration) and (z) a copy of the Estimate; then, the proceeds of insurance covering Tenant's Improvements and Betterments shall be paid to Landlord, and, concurrently with the collection of such insurance proceeds, Tenant shall pay to Landlord (A) the amount of any deductible under the policy insuring Tenant's Improvements and Betterments and (B) the amount, if any, by which the cost of repairing and restoring Tenant's Improvements and Betterments as estimated by the Contractor exceeds the available insurance proceeds therefor. All such sums will be held by Landlord (or by Tenant, in the case of insurance proceeds for Betterments and Improvements until Tenant is required to pay such proceeds to Landlord as provided herein) in an interest bearing account in a New York State bank in trust for the benefit of Tenant and Landlord, as applicable, and (except as otherwise provided herein) may only be utilized by Landlord for the restoration of Tenant's Improvements and Betterments. In the event this Lease is terminated then 50% of any remaining portion of such amount, deposited with Landlord by Tenant plus accrued interest, will be refunded to Tenant by Landlord. In the event that the cost to restore Tenant's Improvements and Betterments is less than the amount deposited by Tenant with Landlord, then, in such event, 50% of the amount of such surplus plus any accrued interest thereon will be promptly refunded by Landlord to Tenant, and if landlord fails to do so, then upon ten (10) days' notice given by Tenant to Landlord, Tenant may recoup such amount plus interest at the Interest Rate against the Rents from the date of Tenant's notice.

(b) If all or part of the Premises shall be rendered untenantable by reason of a Casualty, the Fixed Rent and the Additional Charges under Sections 2.04 and 2.05 shall be abated in the proportion that the untenantable area of the Premises bears to the total area of the Premises, and the Additional Charges for electricity which are not billed on a metered basis shall be abated for the portion of the Premises that is untenantable for the period from the date of the Casualty to the earlier of (i) the date the Premises is made tenantable (provided, that if the Premises would have been tenantable at an earlier date but for Tenant having failed to cooperate with Landlord, as reasonably requested by Landlord, in effecting repairs or restoration or collecting insurance proceeds (including, without limitation, by reason of Tenant failing to pay to Landlord the amounts set forth in clauses (A) and (B) of Section 7.05(a)), then the Premises shall be deemed to have been made tenantable on such earlier date and the abatement shall cease) or (ii) the date Tenant or any subtenant reoccupies a portion of the Premises (in which case the Fixed Rent and the Additional Charges allocable to such reoccupied portion shall be payable by Tenant from the date of such occupancy), provided, that Tenant and its subtenants will not be deemed to be in occupancy during such periods of time solely by reason of Tenant restoring Tenant's Property. Landlord's determination of the date the Premises is tenantable shall be controlling unless Tenant disputes same by notice to Landlord within ten (10) days after Tenant receives notice of such determination by Landlord, and pending resolution of such dispute, Tenant shall pay Rent in accordance with Landlord's determination which dispute may be resolved by arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if by reason of any act or omission by Tenant, the Tenant Group, any subtenant or any of their respective partners, directors, officers, servants, employees, agents or contractors, Landlord, any Superior Lessor or any Superior Mortgagee shall be unable to collect all of the insurance proceeds (including, without limitation, rent insurance proceeds) applicable to the Casualty, then, without prejudice to any other remedies which may be available against Tenant, Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to such uncollected insurance proceeds within twenty (20) days after demand. Nothing contained in this Section 7.05 shall relieve Tenant from any liability that may exist as a result of any Casualty.

(c) If by reason of a Casualty (i) the Building shall be totally damaged or destroyed, (ii) the Building shall be so damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are damaged or destroyed) that repair or restoration shall require more than two hundred seventy (270) days or the expenditure of more than 33% of the full insurable value of the Building (which, for purposes of this Section 7.05(c), shall mean replacement cost less the cost of footings, foundations and other structures below the street and first floor of the Building) immediately prior to the Casualty, each as determined by the Contractor, then in any such case Landlord may terminate this Lease by notice given to Tenant within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Casualty; provided, that Landlord may only terminate this Lease if Landlord then also terminates the leases of all or substantially all of the other office tenants in the Building. In the event of any termination of this Lease under this Section 7.05(c), Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount, if any, due in accordance with Section 7.06 below.

(d) (i) Within sixty (60) days after Landlord has actual knowledge of any Casualty, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant an estimate prepared by a reputable contractor selected by Landlord and reasonably acceptable to Tenant setting forth such contractor's estimate as to the time reasonably required to repair the damage in order to make the Premises tenantable and to substantially restore access to the Premises by use of the passenger elevators other than any Long Lead Work which the Contractor estimates will take more than three hundred fifteen (315) days from the date of such Casualty to repair (the "Required Restoration Work") (the contractor designated by Landlord pursuant to this sentence is called the "Contractor" and the estimate prepared by the Contractor is called the "Estimate").

(ii) If at least 25,000 rentable square feet of space in the Premises shall be rendered untenantable by reason of a Casualty and the period set forth in the applicable Estimate exceeds three hundred fifteen (315) days' from the date of such Casualty, Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease by notice (a "Termination Notice") to Landlord given not later than thirty (30) days following Tenant's receipt of such Estimate.

(iii) If Landlord shall not substantially complete the Required Restoration Work such that more than 25,000 rentable square feet of space in the Premises remains untenantable by reason of such Casualty on or before the date (the "Outside Date") which is four hundred ten (410) days after the date of such Casualty (provided, that the Outside Date shall be extended to the extent that Landlord is delayed in substantially completing the Required Restoration Work by reason of Tenant Delay and/or Force Majeure; and further provided, that any such extension of the Outside Date by reason of Force Majeure shall not exceed sixty (60) days), then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by giving a Termination Notice to Landlord on or before the earlier to occur of (x) the date that Landlord substantially completes the Required Restoration Work or (y) the date that is thirty (30) days after the Outside Date.

(iv) If Tenant timely gives a Termination Notice pursuant to this Section 7.05(d), this Lease shall terminate on the 20th day after such notice is given by Tenant and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease. Upon any such termination, Tenant's liability for Fixed Rent and Additional Charges hereunder with respect to the Premises shall cease as of the date of such termination, and any prepaid portion of Rent with respect to the Premises for any period after such date shall be refunded by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days after such termination date. In the event of any termination of this Lease under this Section 7.05(d), whether as to all or a portion of the Premises, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount, if any, due in accordance with Section 7.06 below.

(v) Anything to the contrary contained in this Section 7.05(d) notwithstanding, if any Casualty occurs during the last three (3) years of the Term, all references in this Section 7.05(d) to "315 days" and "410 days" shall be deemed to be replaced with the following number of days (provided, that such number of days shall be extended if and to the extent Landlord is delayed in substantially completing the Required Restoration Work by reason of Tenant Delay):

(A) if such Casualty occurs during the 12-month period commencing on the date that is three (3) years prior to the last day of the Term, "240 days" and "365 days," respectively;

(B) if such Casualty occurs during the 12-month period commencing on the date that is two (2) years prior to the last day of the Term, "180 days" and "270 days," respectively; and

(C) if such Casualty occurs during the last 12 months of the Term, "120 days" and "180 days," respectively.

(e) "Long Lead Work" means any item of repair to Tenant's Improvements and Betterments which is not a stock item and must be specifically manufactured, fabricated or installed or is of such an unusual, delicate or fragile nature that there is a substantial risk that (i) there will be a delay in its manufacture, fabrication, delivery or installation, or (ii) after delivery, such item will need to be reshipped or redelivered, so that the item of work in question would delay the completion of the standard items of such work even though the items of Long Lead Work in question are (A) ordered together with the other items required for such work and (B) then installed or performed (after the manufacture or fabrication thereof) in order and sequence that such Long Lead Work and other items of work are normally installed or performed in accordance with good construction practice.

(f) If in case of a Casualty, Landlord shall be delayed in completing the repair and restoration that Landlord is obligated to perform under this Section 7.05 by reason of Force Majeure, Landlord shall promptly notify Tenant of the occurrence of such Force Majeure and, to the extent possible, Landlord's good faith estimate of the duration of such Force Majeure delays and, if requested by Tenant from time to time, Landlord shall update Tenant as to the status of such Force Majeure delays.

(g) Landlord shall not carry any insurance on Tenant's Property or on Tenant's Improvements and Betterments and shall not be obligated to repair or replace Tenant's Property. Tenant shall look solely to its insurance (which may have been paid to Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Lease) for recovery of any damage to or loss of Tenant's Property or Tenant's Improvements and Betterments (but subject to Landlord's obligation to restore as provided herein). Tenant shall notify Landlord promptly of any Casualty in the Premises.

(h) This Section 7.05 shall be deemed an express agreement governing any damage or destruction of the Premises by fire or other casualty, and Section 227 of the New York Real Property Law providing for such a contingency in the absence of an express agreement, and any other law of like import now or hereafter in force, shall have no application.

7.06 Certain Termination Payments. In the event of any termination of this Lease as to all or any portion of the Premises pursuant to Sections 6.03, 7.04, 7.05, 8.26 or otherwise by Tenant exercising a right of termination, then Tenant shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the excess of (i) Tenant's Work Allowance and Tenant Required Work Allowance theretofore paid by Landlord to Tenant over (ii) the costs and expense incurred by Tenant for construction of its Tenant's Allowance Work (excluding Tenant Property but including any cancellation fee incurred by Tenant as a result of the cancellation of its purchase order for Tenant Property due to the termination of this Lease) and Tenant's Required Work. In the event of a termination of this Lease for any reason, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a portion of the Fixed Rent equal to eighteen cents per annum per rentable square foot for the Blocks which would have been payable by Tenant from the time of such termination through and including the original Expiration Date set forth in Section 1.03 (without giving effect to any extension of the Term pursuant to Article 9 hereof) had this Lease not terminated discounted to present value at nine percent (9%) per annum. Any payment required to be made under this Section 7.06 shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on or before the date that such termination becomes effective; provided, that if Tenant claims that no payment is required to be paid by Tenant under this Section 7.06, Tenant shall so notify Landlord in Tenant's termination notice. Any such payment (or notice that no such payment is required to be paid) shall be accompanied by invoices or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord establishing the amount of such payment or that no payment is due. If Landlord disputes the amount of any payment by Tenant under this Section 7.06 and it is subsequently determined that the amount so paid by Tenant was less than the amount due to Landlord hereunder, then the termination of this Lease as to the applicable space shall nevertheless be effective and Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount of such underpayment together with interest at the Interest Rate from the date such amount was first due from Tenant through and including the date paid.

Miscellaneous Provisions

8.01 Notice. All notices, demands, consents, approvals, advises, waivers or other communications (each, a "Notice") which may or are required to be given by either party to the other under this Lease shall be in writing and shall be sent (a) by United States Mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or (b) by a nationally recognized overnight carrier (which provides for receipted delivery in the ordinary course of its business), in each case addressed to the party to be notified at the address for such party specified in the first paragraph of this Lease, or to such other place as the party to be notified may from time to time designate by at least five (5) days' notice to the notifying party (with a copy, in the case of each Notice to Landlord, to Landlord's Managing Attorney, c/o Olympia & York Companies (U.S.A.), 237 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017 and with a copy, in the case of each Notice to Tenant, to (i) Warner Music Group, Inc., 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York 10019, Attn: Senior Vice President Business and Legal Affairs, (ii) Time Warner Inc., 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York 10019, Attn: Director of Real Estate Service, and (iii) Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019, Attn: Joseph E. Browdy). Each notice shall be deemed to have been given on the second Business Day after such notice is deposited in the United States Mail or, in the case of delivery by a recognized overnight courier, on the Business Day after deposit (prior to its deadline for overnight delivery) with such overnight courier. Notices from Landlord or Tenant may be given by their respective attorneys and Notice by Landlord may be given by Landlord's managing agent, if any.

8.02 Building Rules. Tenant shall comply with, and Tenant shall cause the Tenant Group, including Tenant's licensees, employees, contractors, agents and invitees to comply with, the rules of the Building set forth in Exhibit C, as the same may be reasonably modified or supplemented by Landlord from time to time for the safety, care and cleanliness of the Premises and the Building and for preservation of good order therein. If Tenant disputes the reasonableness of any such modification or supplement, Tenant shall, unless compliance will materially and adversely affect Tenant; nevertheless comply until the dispute is finally resolved in Tenant's favor by arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 or otherwise. Landlord shall not be obligated to enforce the rules of the Building against Tenant or any other tenant of the Building or any other party (unless Tenant is adversely affected with respect to Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises in any material respect and Tenant notifies Landlord thereof, specifying in reasonable detail the manner in which Tenant's use or occupancy is being so adversely affected). Unless Landlord shall willfully fail to use reasonable efforts to so enforce said rules (and Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises is adversely affected in any material respect by reason of such failure by Landlord, and Tenant notifies Landlord thereof, specifying in reasonable detail the manner in which Tenant's use or occupancy is being so adversely affected), Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant by reason of the violation by any tenant or other party of the rules of the Building; provided, that Landlord shall not enforce the rules of the Building in a manner which discriminates against Tenant. If any rule of the Building shall conflict with any provision of this Lease, such provision of this Lease shall govern.

8.03 Severability. If any term or provision of this Lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected, and each provision of this Lease shall be valid and shall be enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

8.04 Certain Definitions. (a) "Landlord" means only the owner, at the time in question, of the Building or that portion of the Building of which the Premises are a part, or of a lease of the Building or that portion of the Building of which the Premises are a part, so that in the event of any transfer or transfers of title to the Building or of Landlord's interest in a lease of the Building or such portion of the Building, the transferor shall be and hereby is relieved and freed of all obligations of Landlord under this Lease accruing after such transfer, and it shall be deemed, without further agreement, that such transferee has assumed all obligations of Landlord during the period it is the holder of Landlord's interest under this Lease.

(b) "Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant" or words of similar import mean that Tenant is not entitled to terminate this Lease, or to claim actual or constructive eviction, partial, or total, or to receive any abatement or diminution of Rent, or to be relieved in any manner or any of its other obligations. under this Lease, or to be compensated for loss or injury suffered or to enforce any other right or kind of liability whatsoever against Landlord under or with respect to this Lease or with respect to Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises unless otherwise specifically provided in this Lease to the contrary.

8.05 Quiet Enjoyment. Tenant shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises, subject to the other terms of this Lease and to Superior Leases and Superior Mortgages, provided, that Tenant pays the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges to be paid by Tenant within the time periods and grace periods provided for herein and performs all of Tenant's covenants and agreements contained in this Lease.

8.06 Limitation of Landlord's Personal Liability. Tenant shall look solely to Landlord's interest in the Project for the recovery of any judgment against Landlord, and no other property or assets of Landlord or Landlord's partners, officers, directors, shareholders or principals, direct or indirect, disclosed or undisclosed, shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedure for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies under or with respect to this Lease. For purposes of the preceding sentence, "Landlord's interest in the Project" shall be deemed to include proceeds of a sale (net of transaction costs), financing or refmancing (but only to the extent the proceeds of a sale, financing or refmancing exceed (i) the amount of any indebtedness that was paid with the proceeds of such sale, financing or refmancing plus (ii) all transaction costs associated with such sale or refmancing) of the Building or the Project (or any portion thereof), or of Landlord's estate or interest therein, provided, that Tenant (A) shall have delivered a notice to Landlord asserting a claim for a breach of Landlord's obligations under this Lease prior to the receipt by Landlord of such proceeds, (B) shall have commenced an appropriate proceeding against Landlord asserting such breach within six (6) months after the date such notice was delivered to Landlord and (C) shall be diligently prosecuting such claim to completion, and Tenant shall have the right to look to such proceeds only as to the subject matter of such action.

8.07 Counterclaims. If Landlord commences any summary proceeding or action for nonpayment of Rent or to recover possession of the Premises, Tenant shall not interpose any counterclaim of any nature or description in any such proceeding or action, unless Tenant's failure to interpose such counterclaim in such proceeding or action would result in the waiver of Tenant's right to bring such claim in a separate proceeding under applicable law.

8.08 Survival. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, all obligations and liabilities of Landlord or Tenant to the other which accrued before the expiration or other termination of this Lease and all such obligations and liabilities which by their nature or under the circumstances can only be, or by the provisions of this Lease may be, performed after such expiration or other termination, shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Lease. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to any indemnity under this Lease, and with respect to Tax Payments, Operating Payments and any other amounts payable under this Lease', shall survive the expiration or other termination of this Lease except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease.

8.09 Certain Remedies. If Tenant requests Landlord's consent and Landlord fails or refuses to give such consent, Tenant shall not be entitled to any damages for any withholding by Landlord of its consent, it being intended that Tenant's sole remedy shall be an action for specific performance or injunction, and that such remedy shall be available only in those cases where this Lease provides that Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent. Tenant may submit any dispute as to the reasonableness of Landlord's failure or refusal to give consent to be resolved by arbitration in accordance with Section 9.03 hereof. No dispute relating to this Lease or the relationship of Landlord and Tenant under this Lease shall be resolved by arbitration unless this Lease expressly provides for such dispute to be resolved by arbitration.

8.10 No Offer. The submission by Landlord of this lease in draft form shall be solely for Tenant's consideration and not for acceptance and execution. Such submission shall have no binding force or effect and shall confer no rights nor impose any obligations, including brokerage obligations, on either party unless and until both Landlord and Tenant shall have executed a lease and duplicate originals thereof shall have been delivered to the respective parties.

8.11 Captions; Construction. The table of contents, captions, headings and titles in this Lease are solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect its interpretation. This Lease shall be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing this Lease to be drafted. Each covenant, agreement, obligation or other provision of this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed, shall be deemed and construed as a separate and independent covenant of Tenant, not dependent on any other provision of this Lease.

8.12 Amendments. This Lease may not be altered, changed or amended, except by an instrument in writing signed by the party to be charged.

8.13 Broker. Each party represents to the other that such party has dealt with no broker other than Jones Lang Wootton USA ("Broker") in connection with this Lease or the Building, and each party shall indemnify and hold the other harmless from and against all loss, cost, liability and expense (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) arising out of any claim for a commission or other compensation by any broker other than Broker who alleges that it has dealt with the indemnifying party in connection with this Lease or the Building. Landlord shall enter into a separate agreement with Broker which provides that, if this Lease is executed and delivered by both Landlord and Tenant, Landlord shall pay to Broker a commission to be agreed upon between Landlord and Broker, subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of such agreement.

8.14 Merger. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has not made and is not making, and Tenant, in executing and delivering this Lease, is not relying upon, any warranties, representations, promises or statements, except to the extent that the same are expressly set forth in this Lease. This Lease embodies the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and all prior agreements, understanding and statements, oral or written, with respect thereto are merged in this Lease.

(d) If Landlord shall fail to substantially complete the Phase II Capital Program Work on or before the Phase II Target Date as such date may be extended by one or more events of Force Majeure or Tenant Delay (the "Phase II Delay") then as Tenant's sole remedy for such failure, Tenant shall be entitled to a credit against Rent equal to the product of (x) the appropriate Rent Factor in effect from time to time during the period of the Phase II Delay, (y) the rentable square footage of the Blocks that comprise the Premises from time to time during the occurrence of the Phase II Delay and (z) 20%. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, if Tenant is entitled to a credit against Rent as a result of a Phase I Delay and a Phase II Delay during the same period of time, Tenant shall only be entitled to a Rent Credit for the Phase I Delay and no Rent Credit for the Phase II Delay.

(e) In the event of any dispute between Landlord and Tenant with respect to the appropriateness of any credit due under this Section 8.21, such dispute may be submitted by either Landlord or Tenant to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof.

8.22 Elevator Reconfiguration. (a) Promptly after the request of Tenant, Landlord shall, at the cost and expense of Tenant, perform or caused to be performed the work ("Elevator Reconfiguration") in order to extend down to the concourse level of the Building the elevators which service the Blocks, including, without limitation, any appropriate reconfiguration of the areas in the concourse level of the Building. Landlord shall request bids for the Elevator Reconfiguration Work from at least three (3) contractors approved by Tenant. Landlord will review with Tenant all responses to the bid packages and will cooperate with Tenant in the negotiating and modifying the bids. Acceptance by Landlord of the contract for the Elevator Reconfiguration Work will be subject to Tenant's reasonable approval. Without first obtaining Tenant's consent, Landlord may not modify, or consent to any material change to the contract for the Elevator Reconfiguration Work nor may Landlord dismiss the contractor except for commercially reasonable cause. Landlord will cooperate with Tenant and provide status reports as to the Elevator Reconfiguration Work and will allow Tenant's consultants to inspect such work from time to time. At the request of Tenant, the Elevator Reconfiguration may be performed for one or more elevators which service the Block at one or more times during the Term.

(b) Bills shall be rendered monthly covering work performed by the Landlord during the preceding month. In addition to being reimbursed for its. actual out of pocket cost, in connection with the Elevator Reconfiguration, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a construction supervision fee of 2% of the amount payable pursuant to the Elevator Reconfiguration Contract to reimburse Landlord for its internal supervisory costs in connection with such work. All amounts payable by Tenant for Elevator Reconfiguration to be done by Landlord pursuant to this Section 8.22 shall be paid by Tenant as required by the contract for the Elevator Reconfiguration (the "Elevator Reconfiguration Contract") and otherwise within fifteen (15) days after the submission to Tenant of statements, bills or invoices therefore and accompanied by a certificate from Landlord and Landlord's Registered Architect or Landlord's project manager stating that such portion of the Elevator Reconfiguration Work has been substantially completed or substantially installed in accordance with Tenant's approved design drawings and specifications. Prior to the final payment by Tenant, in addition to the requirements set forth in this Section 8.22(b) above, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant to the extent not previously furnished to Tenant a certificate from an executive officer of Landlord and Landlord's Registered Architect stating that the Elevator Reconfiguration Work has been substantially completed in substantial conformity with Tenant's approved design drawings and specifications. Such statements, bills or invoices shall be conclusive and binding on Tenant unless Tenant shall notify Landlord within thirty (30) days after its receipt of such statement, bill or invoice that it disputes the correctness thereof, specifying the particular respects in which the statement, bill or invoice is claimed to be incorrect. Pending the resolution of such dispute by agreement between the parties or otherwise, Tenant shall pay all amounts due in accordance with the statement, bill or invoice, but such payment shall be without prejudice to Tenant's right to dispute same. If the dispute shall be resolved in Tenant's favor, Landlord shall, within five (5) days after Tenant's demand pay Tenant the amount of the overpayment, if any, resulting from Tenant's compliance with such statement, bill or invoice. In the event of any dispute between Landlord and Tenant with respect to any payment due under this Section 8.22, such dispute' may be submitted by either Landlord or Tenant to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 hereof.

(c) Landlord shall not require Tenant to restore the elevators and the concourse level of the Building to the condition which existed immediately prior to the reconfiguration thereof.

Any review or approval by Tenant of plans and specifications with respect to the Elevator Reconfiguration Work is solely for Tenant's benefit, and without any representation or warranty to Landlord with respect to the adequacy, correctness or efficiency thereof, its compliance with Laws or otherwise.

8.23 Force Majeure. If, by reason of strike, lockouts or other labor or industrial troubles, governmental pre-emption in connection with a national emergency, any rule, order or regulation of any governmental agency applicable to the Building or to the party obligated to perform, conditions of supply or demand that are affected by war or other national, state or municipal emergency, fire or other casualty, acts of God such as (by way of example only) tornado, earthquake, hurricane, washout or storm, civil disturbance, act of the public enemy, riot, sabotage, blockade, embargo, explosion or any other cause beyond Landlord's reasonable control, whether or not similar to any of the causes hereinabove stated (collectively, "Force Majeure"), such party shall be unable to perform any obligation that such party is obligated to perform, then such party's obligation to perform shall be excused for the duration of such Force Majeure, and, except as otherwise set forth in this Lease, this Lease and the other party's rights and obligations hereunder shall not be affected, impaired or excused. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 8.23, any party's failure timely to fulfill an obligation required to be fulfilled by such party under this Lease shall not be excused or deemed to be an event of Force Majeure if (a) said obligation is an obligation to pay money, (b) said failure shall be attributable to such party's lack of funds and (c) the provisions of this Lease expressly limit the extent to which such obligations shall be limited by Force Majeure.

8.24 Tenant's Right To Perform Landlord's Obligations. (a) If (i) for any reason, (other than (a) a Casualty (except for any Casualty for which Tenant does not have or has waived the right to cancel this Lease and Landlord has not restored the Premises or that portion of the Building which affects the Premises prior to the Outside Date (as such may be extended by Force Majeure as provided in Section 7.05 hereof or Tenant Delay), or (b) Tenant Delay) there is a failure to furnish any service or install any improvement, (other than any service or improvement in connection with the elevators in the Building) which in each case is exclusively for the benefit of Tenant and services the Premises exclusively ("Exclusive Services") and as a result thereof the conduct of Tenant's normal business operations in a material portion of the Premises shall be materially impaired (any or all of the foregoing hereinafter sometimes referred to as an "Interruption"), (ii) the curing of such Interruption would require payments to be made in connection with or work to be performed, or otherwise affect any space, outside the Premises but would not require access to another tenant's premises (unless such other tenant shall consent to such access by Tenant or its agents) and would not adversely affect any other tenant and Tenant obtains the decision of an arbitrator in accordance with Section 9.03 that an Interruption has occurred and Landlord does not immediately (as practicable under the circumstances) after such arbitration decision commence and diligently prosecute action to remedy such Interruption then, in any such event, and upon the giving of five (5) days' notice to Landlord (which notice shall expressly state that Tenant intends to exercise its self-help remedy in accordance with this Section 8.24), Tenant shall have the right (but not the obligation) to furnish any Exclusive Services which Landlord shall have failed to furnish. Tenant's cure of any Interruption which will require work to be performed or otherwise affect any Landlord Obligation Area or elsewhere outside the Premises shall be effected by Landlord's staff, its employees or its independent contractors, unless such staff, its employees or its independent contractors fail to respond to Tenant's direction in which event Tenant may secure other competent independent contractors. Without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Lease, Tenant shall have no right to perform any obligation or furnish any service that Landlord has failed to perform or furnish unless (x) the cure by Tenant of such Interruption will not require Tenant to access another tenant's premises (unless such other tenant shall consent to such access by Tenant or its agents), (y) such failure of Landlord results in an Interruption and (z) the cure by Tenant of such Interruption would not adversely affect another tenant. Nothing contained in this Article 8 shall be construed to permit Tenant to cause Landlord's managing agent for the Building to be removed or replaced.

(b) If (i) for any reason (other than Tenant Delay) there is a failure to furnish any of the services which Landlord is required to furnish pursuant to this Lease, (ii) the curing of such failure would not require work to be performed, or otherwise adversely affect any space, in the Landlord Obligation Areas (other than corridors entirely within the Premises and windows abutting the exterior of the Premises) or elsewhere outside of the Premises, (iii) such failure continues for thirty (30) days after notice by Tenant to Landlord; provided, that if the cure of such failure cannot with due diligence be performed within such 30-day period, such 30-day period shall be extended for so long as Landlord shall be diligently prosecuting the performance of such cure and (iv) such failure continues for ten (10) days after a second notice by Tenant to Landlord (which notice shall expressly state that Landlord has not performed within the time period set forth in clause (iii) above and that Tenant intends to exercise its self-help remedy in accordance with this Section 8.24(b)), then Tenant shall have the right to furnish any such Landlord's services as Landlord shall have failed to perform.

(c) If Tenant exercises its self-help remedy in accordance with clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 8.24, Landlord shall pay to Tenant the reasonable costs incurred by Tenant in furnishing such Landlord's services which Landlord failed to furnish within thirty (30) days after receipt by Landlord of a detailed statement as to the amount of such costs. If Landlord fails to pay such amounts within thirty (30) days after receipt of Tenant's statement, then such amounts will accrue interest at the Interest Rate from the date such costs were incurred by Tenant, until such amount is either paid by Landlord or recouped by Tenant against the Rent. If Landlord fails to pay any such amounts when due, Tenant may recoup such amounts due against the Rents payable hereunder. The rights granted Tenant under this Section 8.24 shall be in addition to any other remedies Tenant may have under this Lease and by Law except as provided in Section 6.07 hereof. Tenant will not be deemed to have taken occupancy of the portion of the Premises solely by reason of Tenant exercising its self help rights under this Section 8.24 with respect to an Interruption caused by Landlord's failure to cure an Interruption resulting from a Casualty for which Tenant does not have or has waived the right to cancel this Lease pursuant to Section 7.05 of this Lease and Landlord has not restored the Premises or the Building prior to the Outside Date (as extended by Force Majeure as provided in Section 7.05 hereof or Tenant Delay.)

(d) For all purposes of Section 8.24 and Section 8.25, a material portion of the Premises shall mean at least 5,000 contiguous rentable square feet of the Premises or at least 10,000 rentable square feet of the Premises (regardless of contiguity).

8.25 Tenant Abatement Rights. If, for any reason other than a Casualty or Tenant Delay, there is a failure to furnish any of the services which Landlord is required to furnish pursuant to this Lease, or to make any repairs or replacements which Landlord is required to make pursuant to this Lease, or to perform any other obligation of Landlord under this Lease or if Landlord performs any repair, replacement, alteration, addition, improvement or installation in or about the Premises which, if any, Landlord is required to make under this Lease (other than in connection with the exercise by Landlord of its self-help remedy set forth in Section 4.08) and as a result of any of the foregoing a material portion of the Premises shall be untenantable (an "Eviction") for five (5) Business Days or ten (10) Business Days in the case of Force Majeure after notice from Tenant, then Fixed Rent and the Additional Charges payable under Sections 2.04 and 2.05 and the Additional Charges for electricity which are not billed on a submetered basis shall abate solely with respect to the portion or portions of the Premises that are untenantable from the day after such five (5) Business Day or ten (10) Business Days in the case of Force Majeure until such space is no longer untenantable. The rights granted Tenant under this Section 8.25, shall be in addition to any other remedies Tenant may have under this Lease and by Law except as provided in Section 6.07 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord fails to perform the Elevator Reconfiguration Work, Antenna installation or Emergency Generator work which Landlord is required to perform pursuant to this Lease, if any, promptly as determined by an arbitrator pursuant to Section 9.03, hereof (but subject to extension due to Casualty, Force Majeure or Tenant Delay), then there will be deemed to be an Eviction for purposes of this Section 8.25 only with respect to 1% of the Premises).

8.26 Tenant Termination Rights. If, by reason of an Eviction, 50,000 or more rentable square feet of the Premises are untenantable (A) for reasons other than Force Majeure for sixty (60) or more consecutive days after notice from Tenant to Landlord, (B) for reasons other than Force Majeure for ninety (90) or more days in any consecutive 12-month period (such reference to ninety (90) days being deemed to refer to the number of days that the applicable space is so untenantable after Tenant has given Landlord notice of each occurrence of such untenantability), or (C) as a result of Force Majeure for three hundred sixty five (365) or more consecutive days after notice from Tenant to Landlord (such sixty (60), ninety (90) and three hundred sixty five (365) day periods to be extended for up to an additional ninety (90) days during which time Landlord is diligently prosecuting to cure the cause of such untenantability), then in each such case Tenant may, by notice given to Landlord on or before the earlier to occur of (x) the date that the applicable portion of the Premises is rendered tenantable and (y) the date that is thirty (30) days after the end of such sixty (60), ninety (90) or three hundred sixty five (365) day period (as so extended), as applicable, terminate this Lease. If Tenant timely gives a termination notice in accordance with this Section 8.26, (time being of the essence in connection with such termination notice) this Lease shall terminate on the 20th day after such notice is given by Tenant and Tenant shall vacate the Premises and surrender the same to Landlord in the same manner required for surrender of the Premises on the Expiration Date in accordance with the terms of this Lease. Upon any such termination, Tenant's liability for Fixed Rent and Additional Charges hereunder with respect to the Premises shall cease as of the date of such termination, and any prepaid portion of Rent with respect to the Premises for any period after such date shall be refunded by Landlord to Tenant within thirty (30) days after Landlord receives Tenant's termination notice. In the event of any termination of this Lease under. this Section 8.26, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount, if any, due in accordance with Section 7.06 above. Any notice given by Tenant pursuant to this Section 8.26 as to the occurrence of an Eviction which renders all or a portion of the Premises untenantable shall not be effective unless such notice expressly states that such notice is being given pursuant to this Section 8.26 and that Tenant may have the right to terminate this Lease in accordance with the provisions of this Section 8.26. The rights granted Tenant under this Section 8.26 shall be in addition to any other remedies Tenant may have under this Lease and by Law except as provided in Section 6.07 hereof.

8.27 Effect of Rejection by Landlord. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that this Lease is being executed and exchanged by the parties in contemplation of a bankruptcy case involving Landlord and Landlord agrees that, in connection with any bankruptcy case involving Landlord, Landlord shall not reject this Lease. If, notwithstanding the agreement by Landlord in the preceding sentence, in connection with any bankruptcy case involving Landlord, this Lease shall be rejected by Landlord or any legal representative of Landlord, and if Tenant shall elect to retain its rights under this Lease under Section 365(h)(1)(A)(ii) or other then applicable provision of the Federal Bankruptcy Code, then Tenant's occupancy of the Premises for the remainder of the Term shall be on all of the same terms and conditions set forth in this Lease as though such rejection had not occurred.

8.28 Major Rights. (a) "Major Rights" means:

Tenant or an Affiliate of Tenant), shall be in actual occupancy of not less than 70% of the rentable square feet of the Blocks, Tenant shall have the option (the "Renewal Option") to extend the term of this Lease for one additional five (5) year period (the "Renewal Term"), to commence at the expiration of the initial Term.

(b) The Renewal Option shall be exercised with respect to all space then included in the Premises and shall be exercisable by Tenant giving notice to Landlord (the "Renewal Notice") at least 18 months before the last day of the initial Term. If Tenant shall not give Landlord the Renewal Notice at the time and in the manner set forth above, the Renewal Option shall terminate and be deemed waived by Tenant. Time is of the essence with respect to the giving of the Renewal Notice.

9.02 Renewal Rent and Other Terms. (a) The Renewal Term shall be upon all of the terms and conditions set forth in this Lease, except that (i) Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments, shall be as determined pursuant to the further provisions of this Section 9.02; (ii) Tenant shall accept the Renewal Premises in its "as is" condition at the commencement of the Renewal Term, and any provisions of this Lease with respect to initial work to be performed by Landlord, payment of a work allowance and any free rent period for Fixed Rent and Additional Charges shall not be applicable during the Renewal Term, provided, that Tenant's acceptance of the Renewal Premises in its "as is" condition at the commencement of the Renewal Term, shall not relieve Landlord of its obligations under this Lease except with respect to Landlord's Work; and (iii) Tenant shall have no option to renew this Lease beyond the expiration of the Renewal Term.

(b) The per annum Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments for the Premises for the Renewal Term shall be the greater of (i) the annual Discounted Fair Market Rent and (ii) the annual Fixed Rent (less, with respect to the Blocks, eighteen cents per rentable square foot per annum) and annual Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments payable immediately prior to the Expiration Date. "Fair Market Fixed Rent" means the fixed annual rent that, as of the commencement of the Renewal Term, a willing lessee would pay and a willing lessor would accept for the Premises during the Renewal term in an arms-length transaction, taking into account all relevant factors at the time in question including the Fair Market Additional Rent. "Fair Market Additional Rent" means (x) the annual Tax Payments which would be payable with a Base Tax Amount equal to the sum of one-half of the Taxes for the Tax Year commencing on July 1, 2011 and one half of the Taxes for the Tax Year commencing on July 1, 2012, and (y) the annual Operating Payments which would be payable if the Base Operating Year were the calendar year 2012. "Discounted Fair Market Rent" means (i) the Fair Market Fixed Rent multiplied by the Renewal Percentage plus (ii) the Fair Market Additional Rent. "Renewal Percentage" means 95%.

(c) If Tenant timely exercises the Renewal Option, Landlord shall notify Tenant (the "Rent Notice") within thirty (30) days after Landlord's receipt of the Renewal Notice of Landlord's determination of the Discounted Fair Market Rent ("Landlord's Determination"). If the annual Discounted Fair Market Rent in Landlord's Determination is less than the annual Fixed Rent (less, with respect to the Blocks, eighteen cents per rentable square foot per annum) and Additional Charges payable immediately prior to the Expiration Date, then Tenant shall pay annual Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments for the Renewal Term in an amount equal to the annual Fixed Rent (less, with respect to the Blocks, eighteen cents per rentable square foot per annum) payable immediately prior to the Expiration Date and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments, using the Same Base Tax Amount and Base Operating Year as prior to the Expiration Date. If the annual Discounted Fair Market Rent in Landlord's Rent Notice is greater than the annual Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments payable immediately prior to the Expiration Date, Tenant shall notify Landlord ("Tenant's Notice"), within thirty (30) days after Tenant's receipt of the Rent Notice, whether Tenant accepts or disputes Landlord's Determination, and if Tenant disputes Landlord's Determination, Tenant's Notice shall set forth Tenant's determination of the Discounted Fair Market Rent ("Tenant's Determination"). If Tenant fails to give Tenant's Notice within such thirty (30) day period, Tenant shall be deemed to have accepted Landlord's Determination.

(d) If Tenant timely disputes Landlord's Determination and Landlord and Tenant fail to agree as to the Discounted Fair Market Rent within twenty (20) days after Landlord's receipt of Tenant's Determination, then the Discounted Fair Market Rent shall be determined as follows: Such dispute shall be resolved by arbitration conducted in accordance with the Real Estate Arbitration Rules (Expedited Procedures) of the AAA, except that the provisions of Section 9.03 shall supersede any conflicting or inconsistent provisions of said rules.

(e) If Tenant disputes Landlord's Determination and if the final determination of Discounted Fair Market Rent shall not be made on or before the first day of the Renewal Term, then pending such final determination, Tenant shall pay, as Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments for the Renewal Term, an amount equal to the greater of the annual Fixed Rent (less, with respect to the Blocks, eighteen cents per rentable square foot per annum) and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments then payable by Tenant under the Lease and Tenant's Determination. If, based upon the final determination of the Discounted Fair Market Rent, the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges for Tax Payments and Operating Payments made by Tenant for such portion of the Renewal Term were less than the Discounted Fair Market Rent therefor, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount of such deficiency within thirty (30) days after demand therefor together with interest payable from the date such deficiency was due until the date paid.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article 9, if, at any time after Tenant's delivery of the Renewal Notice and before the commencement of the Renewal Term, this Lease shall be terminated, then such Renewal Notice shall be null and void and of no further force and effect and Tenant shall have no further right or option to extend the Term.

9.03 Arbitration. (a) If this Lease shall require any dispute (other than as provided in Section 2.05(j)(ii)) between Landlord and Tenant to be settled by arbitration, then each party shall have the right to submit such dispute to arbitration; which shall be conducted in Manhattan in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules (Expedited Procedures) of the AAA, except that the provisions of this Section 9.03 shall supersede any conflicting or inconsistent provisions of said rules. The party requesting arbitration shall do so by giving notice to that effect to the other party, specifying in said notice the nature of the dispute,and that said dispute shall be determined in the City of New York, by a panel of three (3) arbitrators in accordance with this Section 9.03. Landlord and Tenant shall each appoint their arbitrator within five (5) days after the giving of notice by either party. If either Landlord or Tenant shall fail timely to appoint an arbitrator, the appointed arbitrator shall select the second arbitrator, who shall be impartial, within five (5) days after such party's failure to appoint. The arbitrators so appointed shall meet and shall, if possible, determine such matter within ten (10) days after the second arbitrator is appointed and their determination shall be binding on the parties. If for any reason such two arbitrators fail to agree on such matter within such period of ten (10) days, then either Landlord or Tenant may request ENDISPUTE/JAMS (or any organization which is the successor thereto or any other arbitration or mediation organization, including, without limitation, the AAA, which will provide an impartial arbitrator that is an active or retired state or federal judge) to appoint an arbitrator who shall be impartial within seven (7) days of such request and both parties shall be bound by any appointments so made within such 7-day period. The third arbitrator (and the second arbitrator if selected by the other arbitrator as provided above) only shall subscribe and swear or affirm to an oath fairly and impartially to determine such dispute. Within seven (7) days after the third arbitrator has been appointed, each of the first two arbitrators shall submit their respective determinations to the third arbitrator who must select one or the other of such determinations (whichever the third arbitrator believes to be correct or closest to a correct determination) within seven (7) days after the first two arbitrators shall have submitted their respective determinations to the third arbitrator, and the selection so made shall in all cases be binding upon the parties, and judgment upon such decision may be entered into any court having jurisdiction. In the event of the failure, refusal or inability of an arbitrator to act, a successor shall be appointed within ten (10) days as hereinbefore provided. In the case of all disputes to be determined by arbitration in accordance with this Section 9.03, the arbitrator shall be experienced in the issue with which the arbitration is concerned and shall have been actively engaged in such field for a period of at least ten (10) years before the date of his appointment. The third arbitrator shall be an active or retired New York State or federal judge experienced with the subject matter with which the arbitration is concerned and shall schedule a hearing where the parties and their advocates shall have the right to present evidence, call witnesses and experts and cross-examine the other party's witnesses and experts. Either party shall have the right, at any time, to make a motion to the third arbitrator to grant summary judgment as to any question of law.

(b) Landlord and Tenant agree to sign all documents and to do all other things necessary to submit any such matter to arbitration and further agree to, and hereby do, waive any and all rights they or either of them may at any time have to revoke their agreement hereunder to submit to arbitration and to abide by the decision rendered thereunder. For such period, if any, as this agreement US-arbitrate is not legally binding or the arbitrator's award is not legally enforceable, the provisions requiring arbitration shall be deemed deleted and matters to be determined by arbitration shall be subject to litigation.

(c) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the losing party shall pay the fees and expenses for all arbitrators.

Tenant Antenna

10.01 Tenant Antenna. (a) Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a completed Rooftop Installation Questionnaire substantially in the form of Exhibit X to this Lease with respect to the Antenna (or any modification thereof). Tenant may, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 10.01, (i) use those portions of the roof of the Building designated on Exhibit Y attached hereto to install, maintain and operate one satellite dish antenna and related equipment, mountings and support structures (collectively, with all wiring and cabling the "Antenna") in accordance with Exhibit Y and to run lines therefrom through the Building's shafts, conduits and plenums into the Premises in accordance with Exhibit Y as shall be reasonably required in connection with the operation of the Antenna subject to Landlord's prior reasonable approval in all respects and (ii) to run lines through the Building's shafts, conduits and plenums (not to exceed two inch conduit) to its antenna located at 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York ("75 Rock Conduit"). Tenant's use of the roof of the Building is a non exclusive use and Landlord may permit the use of any other portion of the roof by any other person for any use including installation of other antennas and related equipment and support structures. Tenant shall use all reasonable efforts to ensure that its use of the roof does not impair such other person's data transmission and reception via its respective antennas and support equipment including, without limitation, as a precondition to installation of the Antenna, Tenant shall cause an intermodulation test to be performed to insure that the Antenna does not interfere with any other antenna.

If Tenant's construction, installation, maintenance, repair, operation, or use of the Antenna shall interfere with the rights of landlord (including, without limitation, Landlord's right reasonably to use the remainder of the roof) or other tenants in the Building or if after the date of this Lease other tenants' construction, installation, maintenance, repair, operation or use of their antenna shall interfere with Tenant's Antenna; Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord or such other tenants in eliminating such interference, provided, that the cost of remedying such interference shall be borne by the party which is causing such interference, unless such party was using the roof in the manner causing such interference prior in time to the use of the Antenna causing such interference by Tenant, in which case the cost of remedying such interference shall be borne by Tenant. Except if Landlord reasonably determines that another tenant in the Building was using the roof in a manner causing such interference prior in time to the use of the Antenna by Tenant, Landlord shall at the request and cost of Tenant use commercially reasonable efforts (which may include commencement and prosecution with reasonable diligence appropriate legal proceeding) to prevent other tenants in the Building from interfering with or impairing Tenant's data reception via Tenant's Antenna. Tenant shall secure and keep in full force and effect, form and after the time Tenant begins construction and installation of the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit, such supplementary insurance with respect to the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit as Landlord may reasonably require, provided, that the same shall not be in excess of that which would customarily be required from time to time by landlords of first class midtown Manhattan office buildings, with respect to similar installations.

(b) Tenant shall comply with all Laws applicable to the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit. Landlord makes no. warranties as to the permissibility of an Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit under applicable Laws, the suitability of the roof of the Building for the installation thereof or the need for consent from the owner of 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York or otherwise for the installation thereof. If Landlord's structural engineer deems it reasonably necessary that there be structural reinforcement of the roof or other structural requirements in connection with the installation of the Antenna, Landlord shall perform same at Tenant's reasonable cost within a commercially reasonable period of time taking into account the nature of the work after Tenant delivers to Landlord final plans and specifications with respect to the installation of the Antenna and Tenant shall not perform any such installation prior to the completion of any such structural reinforcement or other structural requirements; provided, that, if in connection with such installation any asbestos must be removed from the shafts and conduits in the Building, landlord shall remove same, at Landlord's expense (subject to reimbursement as part of Operating Expenses). The installation of the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit shall be a Material Alteration subject to Article 4 (except that Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent thereto). For the purpose of installing, servicing or repairing the Antenna, Tenant shall have access to the roof of the Building at reasonable times upon reasonable notice to Landlord and Landlord shall have the right to require, as a condition to such access, that Tenant (or its employee, contractor or other representative) at all times be accompanied by a representative of Landlord whom Landlord shall make available upon reasonable notice (except that such accompaniment shall be required in the case of an emergency only if practicable). All work required to be performed to the roof and other parts of the Building outside of the Premises in connection with the installation of the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit (including, without limitation, any roof penetrations, structural modifications and reroofing) shall be performed by Landlord at Tenant's expense.

(c) Tenant's consumption (KW and KWHR) of electricity for use of the Antenna shall be reasonably estimated by Landlord, and Tenant shall pay the Actual Charge for such consumption. The Actual Charge for Tenant's consumption of electricity for use of the Antenna shall be adjusted by Landlord from time to time as provided in Section 2.07(d) and any good faith disagreement by Tenant with Landlord's determinations of the Actual Charge shall be determined in accordance with Section 2.07(e).

(d) Tenant shall be responsible for all costs and expenses for repairs and maintenance of the roof or any other part of the Project which directly result from Tenant's use of the roof for the construction, installation, maintenance, repair, operation, and use or removal of the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 10.01, Landlord may, at Tenant's expense (or at Landlord's expense if Landlord is accommodating another tenant or benefitting Landlord), on not less than thirty (30) days' prior notice, relocate the Antenna to another location on the roof of the Building, provided, that Landlord does not, except during such relocation, either materially interfere with or adversely affect the receipt of and/or transmission of microwaves or other similar signals, and Tenant shall cooperate in all reasonable respects with Landlord in any such relocations. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the reasonable actual out of pocket cost thereof within thirty (30) days after receipt of statements therefor.

(f) The rights granted in this Section 10.01 are given in connection with, and as part of the rights created under, this Lease and are not separately transferable or assignable. Tenant shall use the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit solely in connection with activities permitted under Section 1.05. Tenant shall not sell any services arising out of the use of the Antenna and the 75 Rock Conduit (i) to any other tenant other than Affiliates of Tenant or (ii) to the general public.

(g) If the installation of the Antenna or any act or omission relating thereto should revoke, negate or in any manner impair or limit any roof warranty, or guaranty obtained by Landlord, then Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any loss or damage sustained or costs or expenses incurred by Landlord as a result of such revocation, negation, impairment or limitation with thirty (30) days after receipt of statements therefor.

(h) In no event shall Tenant run any lines from Tenant's Antenna to any location other than space leased by Tenant in the Building.

(vi) "Tangible Net Worth" shall mean the owner's equity of the entity in question, computed in accordance with generally accepted

11.02 Tenant shall be required to provide Landlord with, at Tenant's option exercised from time to time, a Security Deposit or, at Tenant's election, a Security Letter as a condition to the assignment of this Lease or sublease pursuant to Section 5.01(b) without the consent of Landlord (a "Section 5.01(b) Assignment") if:

(i) the then Tenant under this Lease (whether directly or by a guarantee as provided in Section 5.01(b)) after giving effect to such Section 5.01(b) Assignment has a Tangible Net Worth of less than One Hundred Fifty Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars as of the date of such Section 5.01(b) Assignment, then, such Tenant shall provide Landlord with a Security Deposit or a Security Letter in an amount equal to the Remaining Fixed Rent, measured as of the date of such 5.01(b) Assignment or such later date on which neither Tenant's Tangible Net Worth, nor that of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b), shall be at least One Hundred Fifty Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars, for the period commencing on (x) the date of such 5.01(b) Assignment or such later date on which neither Tenant's Tangible Net Worth nor that of any guarantor (nor substitute guarantor) of Tenant's obligation under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) shall be less than One Hundred Fifty Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars and ending on (y) the date on which Tenant or any guarantor (or substitute guarantor) of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) establishes that it has achieved a Tangible Net Worth of One Fifty Hundred Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars or more; provided, however, that Tenant shall again be required to provide the appropriate Security Deposit or Security Letter, required pursuant to this Section 11.02 if neither Tenant nor any guarantor (or substitute guarantor) of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) shall have a Tangible Net Worth equal to or in excess of One Hundred Fifty Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars at any time; or

(ii) the then Tenant under this Lease (whether directly or by a guarantee as provided in Section 5.01(b)) has a Tangible Net Worth of One Hundred Fifty Million ($150,000,000.00) Dollars or more, but less than Two Hundred Fifty Million ($250,000,000.00) Dollars as of the date of such Section 5.01(b) Assignment, then Tenant shall provide Landlord with a Security Deposit or a Security Letter in an amount equal to the 60% of the Remaining Fixed Rent, measured as of the date of such 5.01(b) Assignment or such later date on which neither Tenant's Tangible Net Worth nor that of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) shall be at least Two Hundred Fifty Million ($250,000,000.00) Dollars, for the period commencing on (x) the date of such 5.01(b) Assignment or such later date on which neither Tenant's Tangible Net Worth nor that of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) shall be at least Two Hundred Fifty Million ($250,000,000.00) Dollars and ending on (y) the date on which Tenant or any guarantor (or substitute guarantor) of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) establishes that it has achieved a Tangible Net Worth of Two Hundred Fifty Million ($250,000,000.00) Dollars or more; provided, however, that Tenant shall again be required to provide the appropriate Security Deposit or Security Letter required pursuant to Section 11.02 if neither Tenant nor any guarantor (nor substitute guarantor) of Tenant's obligations under this Lease as provided in Section 5.01(b) shall have a Tangible Net Worth equal to or in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Million ($250,000,000.00) Dollars.

At all times that Security is required to be provided by Tenant to Landlord, the Security may be (xx) reduced at the end of each calendar year upon written request of Tenant, provided, that Tenant is not then in default under this Lease beyond applicable notice and cure period, or (yy) increased by Landlord upon any Offer Space being added to the Premises upon written notice from Landlord to Tenant, in each case by recalculating the Security required to be provided by Tenant in accordance with the formula provided in the applicable clause (i) and (ii) of this Section 11.02; whereupon, (aa) if Tenant has provided Landlord with a Security Deposit, Landlord shall return to Tenant the required reduction in the Security (provided Tenant is not then in monetary or material nonmonetary default of this Lease, in which case, such Security reduction shall be returned to Tenant if and when such default is cured) or Tenant shall pay to Landlord the required increase in the Security, as applicable and (bb) if Tenant shall have provided Landlord with a Security Letter, such Security Letter shall be replaced by a new Security Letter in the amount of the required Security (provided, in the case where the Security Letter is decreased, Tenant is not then in monetary or material nonmonetary default of this Lease, in which case, such Security Letter shall be replaced with such new Security Letter if and when such default is cured). Tenant at any time may substitute a Security Letter for the Security Deposit or a Security Deposit for a Security Letter. At any one time, Tenant will only be required to maintain the security provided under clause (i) or (ii) of this Section 11.02.

11.03 (a) If Tenant defaults beyond any applicable notice and grace period in the full and prompt payment and performance of any Tenant's covenants and obligations under this Lease, including, but not limited to, the payment of Fixed Rent and Additional Charges, Landlord may, but shall not be required to, use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security for the payment of any Fixed Rent and Additional Charges or any other sums as to which Tenant is in default beyond any applicable notice and grace period or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default, beyond any applicable notice or cure period in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, including, but not limited to, any damages or deficiency in the reletting of the Premises, whether such damages or deficiency accrue before or after summary proceedings or other re-entry by Landlord. If Landlord shall so use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the Security, Tenant shall within three Business Days after demand deposit with Landlord a sum equal to the amount so used, applied or retained, as Security as aforesaid, failing which Landlord shall have the same rights and remedies as for the non-payment of Fixed Rent beyond the applicable grace period. The Security, or any balance or portion thereof to which Tenant is entitled, shall be returned or paid over to Tenant within thirty (30) days following the occurrence of the applicable event described in Section 11.02 hereof for the return of such Security, the Expiration Date or the early termination of this Lease, as applicable. In the event of any sale, transfer or leasing of Landlord's interest in the Building, whether or not in connection with a sale, transfer or leasing of the Land to a vendee, transferee or lessee, Landlord shall have the right to transfer the unapplied part of the Security to which Tenant is entitled to the vendee, transferee or lessee and, provide that such transferee shall assume the obligations of Landlord under this Article 11, Landlord shall be released by Tenant from all liability for the return or payment thereof, and Tenant shall look solely to the new Landlord for the return or payment of the same. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall apply to every subsequent sale, transfer, leasing or other cessation of the interest of such successors in the Building, whether in whole or in part, provided such successor pays over any unapplied part of said Security to any vendee, transferee or lessee of the Building, and that such transferee shall assume the obligations of Landlord under this Article 11, whereupon such successor shall be relieved of all liability with respect thereto. Landlord shall not transfer the unapplied portion of the Security except as provided in this Section 11.03(a) nor shall Landlord pledge, hypothecate or otherwise collaterally assign such Security other than a Superior Mortgagee in which case the rights of such Superior Mortgagee shall be no greater than the rights of Landlord with respect to such Security. Except in connection with a permitted assignment of this Lease, Tenant shall not assign or encumber or attempt to assign or encumber the monies deposited herein as Security or any interest thereon to which Tenant is entitled, and neither Landlord not its successors or assigns shall be bound by any such assignment, encumbrance, attempted assignment or attempted encumbrance. In any event, in the absence of evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord of an assignment of the right to receive the Security, or the remaining balance thereof, Landlord may return the Security to the original Tenant regardless of one or more assignments of this Lease. Any Security Deposit made by Tenant hereunder shall be deposited by Landlord in a separate interest bearing account at a banking institution located in New York State insured by a federal agency and otherwise reasonably acceptable to Landlord and Tenant or which is required by the Superior Mortgagee which is not an Affiliate of Landlord, and at the request of Tenant, shall be invested in securities issued or guaranteed by the United States of America, with a term not to exceed three months. Landlord shall pay to Tenant annually all interest earned and payments on a Security Deposit held by Landlord.

(b) (i) In lieu of the cash Security Deposit provided for in this Article 11, Tenant may be at any time during the term hereof deliver to Landlord and, shall, except as otherwise provided herein, maintain in effect at all times when required hereunder, an unconditional irrevocable letter of credit, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord in the amount of the Security required pursuant to this Lease, issued by a banking corporation reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and having its principal place of business or its duly licensed branch or agency in the State of New York. Such letter of credit shall have an expiration date no earlier than the first anniversary of the date of issuance thereof and shall be automatically renewed from year to year unless terminated by the issuer thereof by notice to Landlord given not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration thereof and shall be transferable by Landlord without the consent of Tenant, subject to the limits contained in Section 11.03 hereof, or the issuer of the Security Letter at the cost of the Tenant. Except as otherwise provided herein, Tenant shall, throughout the term of this Lease deliver to, in the event of the termination of any such letter of credit, replacement letters of credit in lieu thereof (each such letter of credit and such extensions or replacements thereof, as the case may be, is herein referred to as a "Security Letter") no later than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of the preceding Security Letter. The term of such Security Letter shall be not less than one year and shall be automatically renewable from year to year as aforesaid. If Tenant shall fail to obtain any replacement of a Security Letter within the time limits set forth in this Subsection (b)(i), Landlord may draw down the full amount of the existing Security Letter and retain the same as security hereunder in which case the proceeds thereof shall be held and applied as a Security Deposit pursuant to this Article 11. Each Security Letter shall provide that such letter of credit may be drawn down by Landlord upon presentation to the issuing bank of Landlord's sight draft drawn on the issuing bank without accompanying memoranda or statement of beneficiary except a statement that Landlord is entitled to draw upon such Security Letter pursuant to the provisions of this Lease.

(ii) In the event that Tenant defaults beyond any applicable notice and grace period in respect of any of the terms, provisions, covenants and conditions of this Lease and Landlord utilizes all or any part of the Security represented by the Security Letter, Landlord may, in addition to exercising all other of its rights provided in this Section 11.03, retain the unapplied and unused balance of the principal amount of the Security Letter as Security for the faithful performance and observance by Tenant thereafter of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease, and may use, apply, or retain the whole or any part of said balance on all of the same terms and conditions hereinabove set forth in this Section 11.03. In the event of a sale of the Building, Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to deliver a replacement Security Letter naming the new Landlord as beneficiary, provided, that such new Landlord has assumed the obligations of Landlord arising after the date of such sale and, if Tenant shall fail to deliver the same within ten (10) Business Days after written demand therefor, to draw down the existing Security Letter and transfer the proceeds as security hereunder to the new Landlord.

(iii) If Landlord shall present the Security Letter for payment and be entitled to retain or apply only a portion of the proceeds as provided herein and this Lease shall have not theretofore been terminated, then Landlord shall refund to Tenant the balance of such proceeds, provided, that Tenant shall deposit with Landlord a new Security Letter in the amount of the Security required pursuant to this Lease.

11.04 Wherever in this Article 11 reference is made to Tenant establishing that it has achieved a Tangible Net Worth of a specified amount, Tenant shall do so by providing Landlord with an audited consolidated balance sheet and Statement of Changes in Capital of Tenant prepared by a Big Six Accounting Firm, in reasonable detail, together with a report by such Big Six Accounting Firm, setting forth that they have made an examination of Tenant's consolidated financial statements and Statement of Changes in Capital in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and that, in their opinion, said consolidated financial statements and Statement of Changes in Capital present fairly the consolidated financial position, results of operations and changes in financial position of Tenant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

11.05 The provisions and conditions of this Article 11, shall apply to and continue to be binding upon the Tenant herein named and any entity that succeeds to Tenant's interest in this Lease pursuant to Article 5 hereof, notwithstanding any assignment of this Lease by the Tenant herein named or any further assignment(s) of this Lease, whether made with or without the consent of Landlord.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have executed this Lease as of the day and year first written above.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The rights of each tenant in the entrances, corridors, elevators and escalators servicing the Building are limited to ingress and egress from such tenant's premises for the tenant and its employees, licensees and invitees, and no tenant shall use, or permit the use of, the entrances, corridors, escalators or elevators for any other purpose (except for internal corridors where Tenant leases the entire floor, in which case such corridors may be used for other purposes provided such use does not violate Law or any insurance requirements). No tenant shall invite to the tenant's premises, or permit the visit of, persons in such numbers or under such conditions as to interfere with the use and enjoyment of any of the plazas, entrances, corridors, escalators, elevators and other facilities of the Building by any other tenants. Fire exits and fire stairways are for emergency use only, and they shall not be used for any other purpose by the tenants, their employees, licensees or invitees. No tenant shall encumber or obstruct, or permit the encumbrance or obstruction of, any of the sidewalks, plazas, entrances, corridors, escalators, elevators, fire exits or stairways of the Building. Landlord reserves the right to control and operate the public portions of the Building and the public facilities, as well as facilities furnished for the common use of the tenants, in such manner as it in its reasonable judgment deems best for the benefit of the tenants generally.

2. Landlord may refuse admission to the Building outside of Business Hours on Business Days to any person not known to the watchman in charge or not having a pass issued by Landlord or the tenant whose premises are to be entered or not otherwise properly identified, and Landlord may require all persons admitted to or leaving the Building outside of Business Hours on Business Days to provide appropriate identification. Tenant shall be responsible for all persons for whom it issues any such pass and shall be liable to Landlord for all acts or omissions of such persons. Any person whose presence in the Building at any time shall, in the judgment of Landlord, be prejudicial to the safety, character or reputation of the Building or of its tenants may be ejected therefrom. During any invasion, riot, public excitement or other commotion, Landlord may prevent all access to the Building by closing the doors or otherwise for the safety of the tenants and protection of property in the Building.

3. Only Landlord or persons approved by Landlord (which approval will not be unreasonably withheld), shall be permitted to furnish to the Premises ice, drinking water, food, beverage, linen, towel, barbering, bootblacking, floor polishing, cleaning or other similar services.

4. No awnings or other projections shall be attached to the outside walls of the Building. No curtains, blinds, shades or screens which are different from the standards adopted by Landlord for the Building shall be attached to or hung in, or used in connection with, any exterior window or door of the premises of any tenant, without the prior written consent of Landlord. Such curtains, blinds, shades or screens must be of a quality, type, design and color, and attached in the manner approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

5. No lettering, sign, advertisement, notice or object shall be displayed in or on the exterior windows or doors, or on the outside of any tenant's premises, or at any point inside any tenant's premises where the same might be visible outside of such premises, without the prior written consent of Landlord. In the event of the violation of the foregoing by any tenant, Landlord may remove the same without any liability, and may charge the expense incurred in such removal to the tenant violating this rule. Interior signs, elevator cab designations and lettering on doors and the Building directory shall, if and when approved by Landlord (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed (i) for interior signs and lettering in the area, within any Block which is occupied only by Tenant, its Affiliates and Related Service Providers, which is visible from the passenger elevator serving such Block, and (ii) the elevator cab designation in such passenger elevator for Tenant, its Affiliates or Related Service Providers occupying such Block), be inscribed, painted or affixed for each tenant by Landlord at the expense of such tenant, and shall be of a size, color and style reasonably acceptable to Landlord.

6. The sashes, sash doors, skylights, windows and doors that reflect or admit light and air into the halls, passageways or other public places in the Building shall not be covered or obstructed by any tenant, nor shall any bottles, parcels or other articles be placed on the window sills or on the peripheral air conditioning enclosures, if any.

7. No showcases or other articles shall be put in front of or affixed to any part of the exterior of the Building, nor, except as provided in clause 5, placed in the halls, corridors or vestibules.

8. No bicycles, vehicles, animals, fish or birds of any kind shall be brought into or kept in or about the premises of any tenant or the Building.

9. Nothing shall be done or permitted in the premises of any tenant which would impair or interfere with the use or enjoyment by any other tenant of any space in the Building.

10. No tenant, nor any tenant's contractors, employees, agents, visitors or licensees, shall at any time bring into or keep upon the premises or the Building any inflammable, combustible, explosive, or otherwise hazardous or dangerous fluid, chemical, substance or material (except in such amounts and types as generally used in cleaning first class office buildings in midtown Manhattan, provided such materials are not stored in the Premises).

11. Additional locks or bolts of any kind which shall not be operable by the Grand Master Key for the Building shall not be placed upon any of the doors or windows by any tenant, nor shall any changes be made in locks or the mechanism thereof which shall make such locks inoperable by said Grand Master Key. Additional keys for a tenant's premises and toilet rooms shall be procured only from Landlord who may make a reasonable charge therefor. Each tenant shall, upon the termination of its tenancy, turn over to Landlord all keys of stores, offices and toilet rooms, either furnished to, or otherwise procured by, such tenant, and in the event of the loss of any keys furnished by Landlord, such tenant shall pay to Landlord the cost thereof. During the Term, Tenant shall not be required to furnish to Landlord keys for the Tenant security areas set forth in Section 4.04(d).

Except as otherwise specified provided in the Lease, all labor and engineering costs incurred by Landlord in connection with any moving specified in this rule, including, except as otherwise provided in the Lease, a reasonable charge for overhead shall be paid by tenant to Landlord, on demand.

13. Landlord reserves the right to inspect all objects and matter to be brought into the Building and to exclude from the Building all objects and matter which violate any of these Rules and Regulations or the lease of which this Exhibit is a part. Landlord may require any person leaving the Building with any package or other object or matter to submit a pass, listing such package or object or matter, from the tenant from whose premises the package or object or matter is being removed, but the establishment and enlargement of such requirement shall not impose any responsibility on Landlord for the protection of any tenant against the removal of property from the premises of such tenant. Landlord shall in no way be liable to any tenant for damages or loss arising from the admission, exclusion or ejection of any person to or from the premises or the Building under the provisions of this Rule or of Rule 2 hereof.

16. Landlord shall have the right to reasonably prescribe the weight and position of safes and other objects of excessive weight, and no safe or other object whose weight exceeds the lawful load for the area upon which it would stand shall be brought into or kept upon any tenant's premises. If, in the reasonable judgment of Landlord, it is necessary to distribute the concentrated weight of any heavy object, the work involved in such distribution shall be done at the expense of the tenant and in such manner as Landlord shall reasonably determine.

17. No machinery or mechanical equipment other than ordinary portable business machines may be installed or operated in any tenant's premises without Landlord's prior written consent which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and in no case (even where the same are of a type so excepted or as so consented to by Landlord) shall any machines or mechanical equipment be so placed or operated as to disturb other tenants; but machines and mechanical equipment which may be permitted to be installed and used in a tenant's premises shall be so equipped, installed and maintained by such tenant as to prevent any disturbing noise, vibration or electrical or other interference from being transmitted from such premises to any other area of the Building.

18. Landlord, its contractors, and their respective employees shall have the right to use, without charge therefor, all light, power and water in the premises of any tenant while cleaning or making repairs or alterations in the premises of such tenant.

19. No premises of any tenant shall be used for lodging of sleeping or for any immoral or illegal purpose.

20. The requirements of tenants will be attended to only upon application at the office of the Building. Employees of Landlord shall not perform any work or do anything outside of their regular duties, unless under special instructions from Landlord.

21. Canvassing, soliciting and peddling in the Building are prohibited and each tenant shall cooperate to prevent the same.

The water and wash closets and other plumbing fixtures in or serving any tenant's premises shall not be used for any purpose other than the purposes of which they were designed or constructed, and no sweepings, rubbish, rags, acids or other foreign substances shall be deposited therein. All damages resulting from any misuse of the fixtures shall be borne by the tenant who, or whose servants, employees, agents, visitors or licensees shall have, caused the same. Any cuspidors or containers or receptacles used as such in the premises of any tenant, or for garbage or similar refuse, shall be emptied (except for garbage recepticals which are required to be emptied by Landlord in accordance with the Lease), cared for and cleaned by and at the expense of such tenant.

28. If the Premises be or become infested with vermin as a result of the use or any misuse or neglect of the Premises by Tenant, its agents, employees, visitors or licensees, Tenant shall at Tenant's expense cause the same to be exterminated from time to time to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord and shall employ such exterminators and such exterminating company or companies as shall be designated by Landlord, or if none is so designated as reasonably approved by Landlord.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. (a) Mortgagee hereby consents to the execution and delivery of the Lease by Landlord. Mortgagee acknowledges that it has received a copy of the Lease and has no objections to the terms and conditions thereof.

(b) Tenant covenants and agrees that the Lease now is and shall at all times continue to be subordinate to the Mortgage. Tenant, upon request, shall execute and deliver any certificate or other instrument which the Mortgagee may reasonably request to confirm said subordination by Tenant.

2. Tenant certifies that (i) Tenant is the owner and holder of the'tenant's interest under the Lease, (ii) the Lease is presently in full force and effect and unmodified, (iii) no rent or additional rent payable under the Lease has been paid more than one (1) month in advance of its due date (it being expressly agreed that any rent abatements, set-offs, recoupment rights, or deductions expressly provided for in the Lease shall not be deemed an advance payment of rent or additional rent under this Agreement), (iv) no default exists under the Lease, and (v) there are no offsets or defenses as of the date hereof to the payment of the rents, additional rents or other sums payable under the Lease.

3. As long as no default exists under the Lease which has continued after notice and beyond the expiration of any applicable grace period as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), Mortgagee shall not name Tenant as a party defendant to any action for foreclosure or other enforcement of the Mortgage (unless required by law), nor shall the Lease be terminated by Mortgagee in connection with, or by reason of, foreclosure or other proceedings for the enforcement of the Mortgage, or by reason of a transfer of the Landlord's interest under the Lease pursuant to the taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) whether in connection with a bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise, nor shall Tenant's use or possession of the Demised Premises be interfered with by Mortgagee (except to the extent permitted under the Lease), except that the person acquiring, or succeeding to, the interests of the Landlord in the Property as a result of any such action or proceeding or taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) (including, without limitation, Mortgagee), and such person's successors and assigns (any of the foregoing being hereinafter referred to as the "Successor"), shall not be:

(a) subject to any credits, offsets, recoupment rights, defenses or claims which Tenant might have against any prior Landlord, except that, subject to the terms hereof, a Successor shall be subject to any credits, offsets, recoupment rights, and defenses to which Tenant may be entitled pursuant to the express provisions of the Lease; nor

(b) bound by any rent or additional rent which Tenant might have paid for more than one (1) month in advance to any prior Landlord other than in accordance with the express provisions of the Lease (i.e. periodic Operating Payments or escrow payments on account of Tax Payments), unless such prepayment shall have been made with Mortgagee's prior written consent; nor

(c) liable for any act or omission of any prior Landlord except as expressly provided in this Agreement, it being understood that the foregoing is not intended to (i) relieve a Successor of any liability arising by reason of its acts or omissions from and after the date the Successor succeeds to the rights of the prior Landlord, including a continuation of the failure of the prior Landlord to perform its obligations under the Lease, in which case the

Successor upon receipt of notice of such continuation from Tenant shall have a reasonable period of time to remedy same (it being agreed that to the extent a time period is granted to Landlord in the Lease for such remedy, such time period shall be deemed a reasonable period of time for purposes of this clause (i) and if no time period is specified and the Successor is Mortgagee, in determining a reasonable period of time, the parties shall take into account that Mortgagee acts as a trustee), or (ii) deny Tenant the benefit of any rent offset right, recoupment rights, abatement or credit to which Tenant is entitled under the express provisions of the Lease, subject to the express terms hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Successor shall not be liable to Tenant for any claim Tenant may have against a prior Landlord under the provisions of Section 6.12 of the Lease (by way of example, the Successor shall not be liable for any loss or damage to Tenant caused by the negligence of a prior Landlord or its agents, servants, employees or contractors); nor

(d) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any Landlord's Work with respect to any Block of space or any Offer Space or the Capital Program Work (as such terms are defined in the Lease); provided, however, that if the Successor shall fail to complete any such work, then Tenant shall have the following rights (which shall be the sole and exclusive remedies available to Tenant as against the Successor for such failure): (i) in the case of the Successor's failure to complete the Landlord's Work with respect to any Block of space Tenant shall, subject to the terms hereof, have the rights described in Section 1.03, 4.01 and 8.24 (with respect to Punch List Work (as defined in the Lease) only) of the Lease, and (ii) in the case of Successor's failure to complete the Offer Space or Capital Program Work Tenant shall, subject to the terms hereof, have the rights described in Section 8.21 of the Lease. The Successor's failure to complete any such. work shall not constitute a default by the Successor under the Lease giving rise to any remedies other than as expressly set forth in this paragraph (d); nor

(e) be required to account for any security deposit other than any security deposit actually delivered to the Successor; nor

(f) liable for any payment to Tenant of any sums or the granting to Tenant of any credit in the nature of a contribution towards the cost of preparing, furnishing or moving into the Demised Premises or any portion thereof, or otherwise (except to the extent provided in paragraphs (a) and (d)(i) above), provided, however, that subject to the provisions of Section 18 hereof the Successor shall be responsible to pay to Tenant any unpaid portion of the Tenant Work Allowance and the Tenant Required Work Allowance (as such terms are defined in the Lease and collectively referred to herein as "Landlord's Contributions") as and when the same are due and payable under the Lease; provided, further, however, that the sole and exclusive remedy available to Tenant as against the Successor in the event the Successor shall fail to pay any or all of the Landlord's Contributions shall be to exercise the set-off and/or recoupment rights described in Section 4.01(e) of the Lease and the Successor's failure to make any such payment shall not constitute a default by the Successor under the Lease giving rise to any remedies other than the set-off and/or recoupment rights expressly set forth in such Section 4.01(e). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgagee shall have the right (but not the obligation) if Landlord shall default in funding all or any portion of the Landlord's Contributions to pay such amounts to Tenant; nor

(g) bound by any modification of the Lease made without the written consent of Mortgagee, including without limitation any agreement by Tenant to surrender the Lease. Mortgagee agrees not to unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its consent to a modification of the Lease.

4. (a) If the interest of the Landlord under the Lease shall be transferred by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for enforcement of the Mortgage in which Tenant has not been named as party defendant or pursuant to a taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) whether in connection with a bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise, the Lease shall not be terminated or affected thereby but shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor and Tenant and Tenant shall be bound to the Successor, and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Successor shall be bound to Tenant, under all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease for the balance of the term thereof remaining, with the same force and effect as if the Successor were the Landlord, and Tenant does hereby (i) agree to attorn to the Successor, including Mortgagee if it be the Successor, as its landlord, (ii) affirm its obligations under the Lease, and (iii) agree to make payments of all sums due under the Lease to the Successor, said attornment, affirmation and agreement to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments, upon the Successor succeeding to the interest of the Landlord under the Lease, provided that if the Successor requests, without implying any obligation to do so on the Successor's part, Tenant will confirm the attornment described herein to the Successor in writing. Tenant waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect that may give or purport to give it any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect the Lease or the obligations of Tenant thereunder by reason of any foreclosure or similar proceeding.

(b) Provided the Lease has not been previously cancelled or terminated, if (i) Mortgagee or any other Successor shall acquire title to the Property or Landlord's interest therein upon foreclosure in an action in which Mortgagee shall have been required to name Tenant as a party defendant, and (ii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), then, in such event, Mortgagee or any other Successor (as the case may be) shall enter into a new lease with Tenant upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Lease, except that (x) the obligations and liabilities of Mortgagee or other Successor (as the case may be) under any such new lease shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (y) the expiration date of such new lease shall coincide with the Expiration Date provided for in Section 1.02 of the Lease (as the same may have been extended in accordance with the terms of Article 9 of the Lease or otherwise consented to in writing by Mortgagee). Tenant shall execute any such new lease and shall attorn to Mortgagee or the other Successor (as the case may be) so as to establish direct privity between Mortgagee or such other Successor (as the case may be) and Tenant.

(c) If (i) Landlord, as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee appointed in a bankruptcy case of Landlord, obtains an order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the rejection of the Lease in accordance with §365 of the Bankruptcy Code (as hereinafter defined), and Tenant elects to retain its rights under the Lease in accordance with §365(h) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) Mortgagee or any other Successor shall acquire title to the Property upon foreclosure or by the acceptance of a deed in lieu thereof or by any other means, and (iii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice) then, in such event, Mortgagee or any other Successor (as the case may be) shall enter into a new lease with Tenant upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Lease, except that (x) the obligations and liabilities of Mortgagee or other Successor (as the case may be) under any such new lease shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (y) the expiration date of such new lease shall coincide with the Expiration Date provided for in Section 1.02 of the Lease (as the same may have been extended in accordance with the terms of Article 9 of the Lease or otherwise consented to in writing by Mortgagee) of the Lease. Tenant shall execute any such new lease and shall attorn to Mortgagee or the other Successor (as the case may be) so as to establish direct privity between Mortgagee or such other Successor (as the case may be) and Tenant.

5. (a) Tenant shall notify Mortgagee of any default, breach or other failure (a "Default") by Landlord under the Lease which would entitle Tenant to cancel or terminate the Lease or abate the rents, additional rents or other sums payable thereunder or to exercise any self-help or set-off rights thereunder. If Landlord fails to cure any Default which would entitle Tenant to cancel or terminate the Lease within the time period, if any, provided for in the Lease and such Default is of a nature (i) which can be cured by the payment of money, then Mortgagee shall have an additional 10 days within which to cure such Default after receipt of Tenant's notice that Landlord has failed to cure same and the Lease shall not be cancelled or terminated unless Mortgagee shall have failed to cure such Default (without implying any obligation to do so) prior to the expiration of such 10 days, or (ii) which cannot be cured by the payment of money, then Tenant shall notify (the "Second Notice") Mortgagee that Landlord has failed to cure such Default within such time period as is provided for such cure under the Lease (or if no such period is provided, within a reasonable period of time) and Mortgagee shall have an additional 30 days after receipt of such Second Notice within which to cure such Default or if such Default cannot be cured within that time with the exercise of reasonable diligence, then such additional time as may be necessary to cure the same with the exercise of reasonable diligence; and if, within such 30 days, Mortgagee has either cured such Default or has commenced or given Tenant notice of its intention to commence and thereafter diligently commences and diligently pursues the remedies necessary to cure such Default (including, without limitation, commencement of foreclosure proceedings or eviction proceedings, if necessary to effect such cure), then and in such event the Lease shall not be terminated and Tenant shall not exercise any other rights or remedies under the Lease or otherwise while such remedies are being so diligently pursued, other than Tenant's right to (a) any abatement, deduction, counterclaim, recoupment right or set-off of any rent or additional rent expressly set forth in the Lease, or (b) self-help in accordance with Section 8.24 of the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgagee's additional cure period under clause (ii) above shall not exceed 90 days in the case of Tenant's termination rights under clauses (A) and (B) of Section 8.26 of the Lease or 180 days in the case of Tenant's termination right under clause (C) of Section 8.26 of the Lease. Nothing herein shall be deemed to imply that Tenant has any right to terminate the Lease or any other right or remedy, except as may be otherwise expressly provided for in the Lease.

(b) Tenant's rights under this paragraph 5 and under paragraph 3(a) hereof are expressly conditioned upon (i) Tenant delivering to Mortgagee copies of all notices delivered by Tenant relating to a Default which is the subject of Tenant's claim concurrent with their delivery to Landlord (provided that if Tenant fails to deliver a copy of the notice of a Default to Mortgagee as required hereby, Tenant's right to cancel or terminate the Lease shall not be waived, but Mortgagee's additional cure period will be extended for a period equal to-the period of time Landlord had to cure such Default, such additional cure period shall not be deemed to have commenced until Tenant shall have delivered the requisite notice to Mortgagee and Tenant shall not cancel or terminate the Lease prior to the expiration of such additional cure period without such Default having been cured), and (ii) Mortgagee being provided the opportunity by Tenant to monitor and participate in any arbitration or other proceeding related to a Default. Tenant shall deliver to Mortgagee concurrent with delivery to or receipt from Landlord or the arbitrators determining any dispute, a copy of any submission, claim, demand, order or pleading served by or upon Tenant or delivered to or received from the arbitrators. Mortgagee shall have the right to appear before and make presentations to the arbitrators determining any dispute.

(c) Any termination of the Lease by Tenant as the result of any claimed Default by Landlord thereunder without compliance with the applicable provisions of this paragraph 5 shall be without force or effect and shall be void ab initio.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement:

(a) In the event that a receiver, trustee or any other similar person or entity acting in like capacity is appointed for the Property or Landlord's interest therein, in any action or proceeding, then provided the Lease has not been cancelled or terminated and for so long as Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), Mortgagee will neither consent to nor cause or instruct such receiver, trustee or other similar person or entity to (i) disturb Tenant in its possession of the Demised Premises (except to the extent permitted under the Lease), (ii) diminish Tenant's rights under the Lease, or (iii) terminate the Lease (except to the extent permitted under the Lease). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Mortgagee will file an objection to such receiver, trustee or other similar person or entity taking any of the actions described in clauses (i) through (iii) above provided Tenant shall deliver Mortgagee notice of same and will cooperate with Tenant in its efforts to oppose and defeat such receiver, trustee or similar person with respect to such actions;

(b) In the event that (i) Landlord becomes the subject of a bankruptcy case under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) Landlord, as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee approved in the bankruptcy case of Landlord, seeks an order of the bankruptcy court or other court of competent jurisdiction (the "Bankruptcy Court"), authorizing the rejection of the Lease, then for so long as Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease, Mortgagee will file an objection to such party's motion seeking to reject the Lease;

(c) In the event that (i) Landlord, or a trustee in bankruptcy of the Landlord, obtains an order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the rejection of the Lease in accordance with §365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Tenant elects to retain its rights under the Lease in accordance with §365(h) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) Mortgagee or any other Successor shall acquire possession and control of the Property, and (iii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease

after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice) then, in such event, Mortgagee or such other Successor (as the case may be) shall enter into a new lease with the Tenant on the then executory terms of the original Lease, as provided in this Agreement, if and to the extent that Mortgagee or such other Successor has the legal right and power to do so; and

(d) Mortgagee acknowledges and agrees that (i) if Landlord, as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee appointed in the bankruptcy case of the Landlord, obtains an order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the rejection of the Lease in accordance with §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (ii) Tenant elects to retain its rights under the Lease in accordance with §365(h) of the Bankruptcy Code, (x) the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to remain in full force and effect, and (y) Tenant shall have all of Tenant's rights and remedies provided under the Lease, including, without limitation, such right as may be provided in the Lease to offset or recoup against any and all rents due and payable by Tenant under the Lease, or under any new lease entered into pursuant to this Agreement, any damages occurring after the date of rejection caused by the non-performance of any obligation of Landlord under the Lease or any new lease entered into pursuant to this Agreement. Tenant's right of offset or recoupment provided for in this paragraph (d) shall survive any transfer of the Property in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise and shall be binding upon Landlord, Mortgagee or any other Successor.

7. Provided Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice) and the Lease has not been cancelled or terminated, Mortgagee agrees that in the event Landlord shall become the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, (a) Mortgagee shall consent to the use of cash collateral (as such term is defined in Section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code) for the performance of the obligations of the Landlord under the Lease, (b) Mortgagee shall consent to the inclusion in any cash collateral order or stipulation of an assumption by Landlord of the Lease under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code (without waiving the right of Mortgagee to object to any other provision of any cash collateral order or committing Mortgagee to agree to any other provision of a cash collateral stipulation), (c) Mortgagee will file and pursue an objection to any rejection by Landlord of the Lease, and (d) Mortgagee will file and pursue an objection to the confirmation of any plan of reorganization of Landlord that provides for the rejection of the Lease. The provisions of paragraph 6 above and of this paragraph 7 shall be of no further force or effect from and after the date that the principal amount-secured by the Mortgage has been reduced to an amount not to exceed $500,000,000, provided that the Mortgage continues to encumber both the Property and the fee interest in the property known as 237 Park Avenue, New York, New York at that time.

8. Mortgagee agrees that, provided Tenant is not then in default under this Agreement or the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of applicable grace periods as and to the extent provided under the Lease or otherwise (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), with respect to any sublease (other than a sublease to an Affiliate of Tenant or Related Service Provider whether pursuant to Sections 5.01(b),

(c) and (d) of the Lease or otherwise) which (a) consists of at least one full floor of the Blocks (as defined in the Lease) or at least 30,000 contiguous rentable square feet of space in the Demised Premises which is on a floor which is not a Block (and in the case where a sublease includes a portion of a floor, the balance of the floor consists of a leaseable configuration of at least 10,000 rentable square feet), (b) in the case of a Block, consists of contiguous space in the Blocks which includes the highest or lowest floor then comprising the Blocks or is in the Blocks and is contiguous to another floor all of which has been sublet by Tenant and with respect to which Mortgagee has executed and delivered one or more non-disturbance and attornment agreements hereunder with respect to all of such floor, (c) provides for a rental which, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the subtenant may be entitled thereunder, is equal to or in excess (on a per rentable square foot basis) of the greater of (i) annual Fixed Rent and the annualized recurring Additional Charges (as such terms are defined in the Lease) payable by Tenant under the Lease with respect to such space from time to time throughout the term, and (ii) the fair market fixed rent and the fair market additional rent, each of (i) and (ii) above to be valued at the time when the attornment provided for in the non-disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to becomes effective between Mortgagee and the subtenant following the termination of the Lease (or if the rental to be paid by the subtenant shall be less (on a per rentable square foot basis) than the greater of (i) and (ii) above, if such subtenant agrees, in the non-disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to, that such rental will automatically and without condition become so equal to the greater of (i) and (ii) above (subject to arbitration in the manner provided in Section 9.03 of the Lease if the parties do not agree on the fair market rent or fair market additional rent within ten days after such attornment if Landlord claims that clause (ii) is the operative measure of rent to be paid by the subtenant), if, as and when the attornment provided for in such non-disturbance and attornment agreement becomes effective between Mortgagee and the subtenant following the termination of the Lease), (d) consists of space that will be demised separately from the remainder of the Demised Premises in accordance with all applicable laws, (e) provides for other obligations of the subtenant not materially less favorable to Landlord under such sublease than the obligations of Tenant under the Lease (and shall require compliance, to the extent applicable, with Sections 5.04(d)(iv)(F) and (G) and 8.28 of the Lease), and (f) Landlord has executed and delivered to such subtenant a non-disturbance agreement in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.04(d)(iv) of the Lease, then Mortgagee shall, at Tenant's request, execute and deliver to such subtenant a non-disturbance and attornment agreement substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B provided and upon condition that (i) Tenant has furnished to Mortgagee reasonably satisfactory evidence that the subtenant has a financial worth sufficient to timely fulfill its obligations under such sublease as a primary tenant (and not as a subtenant), including any increase in such financial obligations which may become effective as provided above but in no event shall such subtenant's financial worth be less than a Major Subtenant (as defined in the Lease), (ii) the sublease is in a form consistent with the requirements of Article 5 of the Lease and otherwise reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee, and (iii) the subtenant executes and delivers to Landlord such non-disturbance and attornment agreement. Any dispute as to the creditworthiness of a prospective subtenant may be submitted to determination by arbitration in the manner provided in Section 9.03 of the Lease as if such provisions were set forth herein and "Mortgagee" were substituted for "Landlord" therein, and any such determination shall be binding upon Mortgagee and Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this paragraph 8, any non disturbance and attornment agreement delivered by Mortgagee pursuant to this paragraph 8 shall be conditional and by its terms expressly contain the condition such that, in the event of any termination of the Lease (x) other than by reason of (1) Tenant's default, (2) a rejection of the Lease in bankruptcy by Tenant, or (3) subject to the terms hereof, a voluntary surrender of the Lease by agreement between Landlord and Tenant, but (y) including a termination of the Lease by reason of a casualty, condemnation or pursuant to Section 8.26 of the Lease, then any non-disturbance and attornment agreement to a subtenant shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date, provided, that if the Lease is terminated with respect to less than all of the Demised Premises, only such non-disturbance and attornment agreements to subtenants who sublease any of such space with respect to which the Lease is terminated shall automatically and without further act of the parties terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date. In addition, to the extent any such non-disturbance and attornment agreement relates to a subtenant which is a partnership of professionals (including, without limitation, attorneys, accountants and investment bankers), such agreement shall provide that no provision of such sublease providing in substance for the exculpation from personal liability of the partners of such partnership shall be binding on Mortgagee or any other Successor unless such subtenant shall, on the date the attornment provided in such non-disturbance and attornment agreement becomes effective between Mortgagee and such subtenant, post with Mortgagee or such other Successor as security for such subtenant's obligations under its sublease, cash or a clean, unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit (in form and from a bank reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee) in either case in an amount equal to the greater of (i) the annual fixed rent and annualized recurring charges (without regard to any abatement, credits or offsets) payable at such time (such security to be increased from time to time to reflect increases in such fixed rent and recurring charges) by such subtenant to Mortgagee, and (ii) the security required to be provided by the subtenant under the terms of the Lease, unless such cash or letter of credit was previously delivered to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the Lease.

9. Tenant shall deliver to Mortgagee copies of all notices under the Lease concurrent with delivery to or receipt from Landlord (including, without limitation, default notices, notices establishing delivery and commencement dates and notices commencing arbitration proceedings but excluding routine operational notices such as requests for overtime services). No notice shall be effective as to Mortgagee unless properly served upon Mortgagee in the manner provided herein.

10. This Agreement may not be modified except by an agreement in writing signed by Tenant and Mortgagee or their respective successors-in-interest. In addition, any modification of this Agreement which would adversely affect Landlord shall require the consent of Landlord provided that Landlord is not in default under the terms of the Lease or the Mortgage beyond any notice and cure period. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns including, without limitation, with respect to Mortgagee, the grantee under a deed in lieu of foreclosure and/or the purchaser of the Demised Premises at a foreclosure sale or at any sale of the Demised Premises following the granting of a deed in lieu of foreclosure or following foreclosure.

11. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way impair or affect the lien created by the Mortgage except as specifically set forth herein.

12. Landlord, Tenant and Mortgagee agree that this Agreement satisfies any condition or requirement in the Lease relating to the granting of a non-disturbance agreement by Mortgagee. Mortgagee and Tenant further agree that in the event there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions hereof and the terms and provisions of the Lease dealing with non-disturbance by Mortgagee or the provisions of the Mortgage referred to in Section 6.01(c) of the Lease (as they relate to Tenant's rights and obligations), the terms and provisions hereof shall be controlling.

13. All notices, demands, consents, approvals, advices, waivers or other communications (each, a "Notice") which may or are required to be given by either party to the other under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sent (a) by hand, (b) by United States Mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested or (c) by a nationally recognized overnight carrier (which provides for receipted delivery in the ordinary course of its business), in each case addressed to the party to be notified at the address for such party specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement, or to such other place in the continental United States as the party to be notified may from time to time designate by at least 15 days' notice to the notifying party (with copy in the case of Mortgagee to Kelley Drye & Warren, 101 Park Avenue, 30th floor, New York, New York, Attention: David Retter, Esq.). Each Notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date such Notice is actually received as evidenced by a written receipt therefor, and in the event of failure to deliver by reason of changed address of which no Notice was given or refused to accept deliver, as of the date of such failure. Tenant shall also deliver a copy of any Notice provided to Mortgagee under paragraph 5 hereof to Landlord at the address and in the manner provided in the Lease, excluding Notices which Tenant shall previously or concurrently have delivered to or received from Landlord.

14. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of paragraph (3)(c) set forth in Section 6.01(c) of the Lease shall be effective and run to the benefit of any Successor, including Mortgagee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Mortgagee acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of paragraph (3)(d) set forth in Section 6.01(c) of the Lease shall be deemed null and void and of no effect as against Tenant to the extent inconsistent with the express terms of the Lease and this Agreement.

15. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. If any term of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term to any person or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered will be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together will be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

16. If at any time this Agreement is rejected by Mortgagee in any case under the Bankruptcy Code involving Mortgagee as debtor, then Mortgagee agrees that the Lease shall be deemed to be superior to the Mortgage and not subordinate thereto.

17. Each party warrants and represents to the other parties that the execution and delivery of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the representing party; and that the person who signs this Agreement on behalf of such party is duly authorized to do so.

18. Anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if Mortgagee shall acquire title to the Property, or shall otherwise become liable for any obligations of Landlord under the Lease or hereunder, Mortgagee shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Mortgagee's then interest, if any, in the Property (as such interest is defined in Section 8.06 of the Lease) and Tenant shall look solely and exclusively to such interest of Mortgagee, if any, in the Property for the payment and discharge of any obligations, imposed upon Mortgagee hereunder or under the Lease. Tenant agrees that with respect to any money judgment that may be obtained or secured by Tenant against Mortgagee, Tenant shall look solely to the estate or interest owned by Mortgagee and the Property (as such interest is defined in Section 8.06 of the Lease) and Tenant shall not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Mortgagee. Nothing contained in this Section 18 shall be construed to diminish or impair Tenant's abatement, offset, credit or self-help rights under the express provisions of the Lease.

19. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which, when so executed and delivered, shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

inter alia, (the "Sublet Premises") in the building forming a part of the Property,

WHEREAS, Subtenant has entered into a certain agreement of sublease dated as of , with Tenant (the "Sublease") covering the Sublet Premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Subtenant covenants and agrees that the Sublease now is and shall at all times continue to be subject and subordinate in each and every respect to the Mortgage. Subtenant, upon request, shall execute and deliver any certificate or other instrument which the Mortgagee may reasonably request to confirm said subordination by Subtenant.

2. Subtenant certifies that (i) Subtenant is the owner and holder of the subtenant's interest under the Sublease, (ii) the Sublease is presently in full force and effect and unmodified, (iii) no rent or additional rent payable under the Sublease has been paid more than one (1) month in advance of its due date, (iv) no default exists under the Sublease, and (v) there are no offsets or defenses as of the date hereof to the payment of the rents, additional rents or other sums payable under the Sublease.

3. As long as no default exists under the Sublease which has continued after notice and beyond the expiration of any applicable grace period as and to the extent provided in the Sublease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Subtenant to further notice if Tenant or the Landlord (as defined below) has previously provided such notice) and, subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below, Mortgagee shall not name Subtenant as a party defendant to any action for foreclosure or other enforcement of the Mortgage (unless required by law), nor shall the Sublease be terminated by Mortgagee in connection with, or by reason of, foreclosure or other proceedings for the enforcement of the Mortgage, or by reason of a transfer of the landlord's interest under the Overlease pursuant to the taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device), nor shall Subtenant's use or possession of the Sublet Premises be interfered with by Mortgagee, unless the Tenant or 1290 Associates, LLC or any successor owner of the Property (the "Landlord") would have had such right if the Mortgage had not been granted, except that the person acquiring or succeeding by or through Mortgagee to the interests of the Landlord under the Overlease as a result of any such action or proceeding (including Mortgagee should it acquire or succeed to such interests), and such person's successors and assigns (any of the foregoing being hereinafter referred to as the "Successor"), shall not be:

(a) subject to any credits, offsets, defenses or claims which Subtenant might have against any prior sublessor or landlord; nor

(b) bound by any rent or additional rent which Subtenant might have paid for more than one month in advance to any prior sublessor or landlord, unless such prepayment shall have been made with Mortgagee's prior written consent; nor

(c) liable for any act or omission of any prior: sublessor or landlord; nor

(d) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any improvement to the Sublet Premises or the building forming a part of the Property; nor

(e) required to account for any security deposit other than any security deposit actually delivered to the Successor; nor

(f) liable for any payment to Subtenant of any sums, or the granting to Subtenant of any credit, in the nature of a contribution towards the cost of preparing, furnishing or moving into the Sublet Premises or any portion thereof; nor

(g) bound by any modification of the Sublease which results in the Sublease no longer conforming to the parameters set forth in the Overlease for the granting by Landlord of a non-disturbance agreement to a subtenant made without the written consent of Mortgagee.

4. If the interest of the Landlord in the Property shall be transferred by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for enforcement of the Mortgage or pursuant to a taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) and the Overlease shall have previously terminated (and the Sublease shall have become a direct lease between Subtenant and Landlord pursuant to a non-disturbance and attornment agreement between such parties) or shall be terminated concurrent with or subsequent to such foreclosure, other enforcement proceeding or taking, then subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below, Subtenant shall be bound to the Successor, and, except as provided in this Agreement, the Successor shall be bound to Subtenant, under all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Sublease for the balance of the term thereof remaining, with the same force and effect as if the Successor were the Tenant under the Sublease, and Subtenant does hereby (i) agree to attorn to the Successor, including Mortgagee if it be the Successor, as its landlord, (ii) affirm its obligations under the Sublease (subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below), and (iii) agree to make payments of all sums due under the Sublease (as same may be adjusted pursuant to the terms of paragraph 5 below) to the Successor, said attornment, affirmation and agreement to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments, upon the Successor succeeding to the interest of the Tenant under the Sublease, provided that if the Successor requests, without implying any obligation to do so on the Successor's part, Subtenant will confirm the attornment described herein to the Successor in writing. Subtenant waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect that may give or purport to give it any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect the Sublease or the obligations of Subtenant thereunder by reason of any foreclosure of similar proceeding.

5. (a) Subtenant agrees that to the extent the Sublease provides for a rental which, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the Subtenant may be entitled thereunder, is less than the greater of (on a per rentable square foot basis) (i) the annual Fixed Rent and annualized recurring Additional Charges (as such terms are defined in the Overlease) payable by Tenant under the Overlease with respect to the Sublet Premises (the "Overlease Rent") and (ii) the fair market fixed rent and the fair market additional rent (collectively referred to as the "Fair Market Rent") as reasonably determined by the Successor with respect to the Sublet Premises, Subtenant agrees that the rental payable under the Sublease will automatically and without condition become equal to the greater of the Overlease Rent and the Fair Market Rent, if, as and when the attornment provided for herein becomes effective between Mortgagee or any other Successor and the Subtenant. If Subtenant disagrees with the Successor's determination of the Fair Market Rent, then the amount of the Fair Market Rent will be determined by arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 of the Overlease, provided that pending resolution of the dispute, Subtenant shall pay rent based on the Successor's determination with appropriate adjustment being made after final resolution of the dispute. Subtenant further agrees that the Sublease shall at all times be subject to and comply with the provisions of Sections 5.04(d)(iv)(F) and (G) and 8.28 of the Overlease.

(b) In addition, Subtenant agrees that no provision of the Sublease providing in substance for the exculpation from personal liability of the partners of Subtenant shall be binding on Mortgagee or any other Successor unless Subtenant shall, on the date the attornment provided herein becomes effective between Mortgagee or any other Successor and Subtenant, post with Mortgagee or such Successor as security for Subtenant's obligations under the Sublease, cash or a clean, unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit (in form and from a bank reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee or such Successor) in either case in an amount equal to the greater of (i) the annual fixed rent and recurring charges (without regard to any abatements, credits or offsets) payable at such time (such security to be increased from time to time to reflect increases in such fixed rent and recurring charges) by Subtenant to Mortgagee or such other Successor as same may be modified in accordance with the terms of paragraph (a) above, and (ii) the security required to be provided by Subtenant under the terms of the Overlease, unless such cash or letter of credit was previously delivered to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the Overlease.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the agreements of the Mortgagee hereunder (on behalf of itself and any other Successor) shall be effective only in the event the cause of termination of the Overlease is (x) the default of Tenant thereunder, (y) a rejection of the Overlease in bankruptcy by Tenant or (z) a voluntary surrender of the Overlease by agreement between Landlord and Tenant and consented to by Mortgagee (to the extent required under the Agreement referred to in paragraph 13 below) and if the Overlease is cancelled, terminated or expires (in whole or in part but including the Sublet Premises) for any other reason (including, without limitation, by reason of a casualty or condemnation or the exercise by Tenant of any termination or cancellation right or remedy provided in the Overlease, at law or in equity or by reason of Tenant's failure to exercise the Renewal Option (as defined in the Overlease)), then this Agreement shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date of the Overlease (or portion thereof) or the day preceding the commencement of the Renewal Term (as defined in the Overlease), as the case may be.

6. In the event the Overlease is terminated and Subtenant becomes a direct tenant of Landlord pursuant to the terms of a non-disturbance and attornment agreement between such parties, Subtenant shall notify Mortgagee of any default by Landlord under the Sublease which would entitle Subtenant to cancel the Sublease or abate the rents, additional rents or other sums payable thereunder or to exercise any self-help or set-off rights thereunder. If Landlord fails to cure any default as to which Subtenant is obligated to give notice pursuant to the preceding sentence within the time provided for in the Sublease, Subtenant shall provide Mortgagee notice of such occurrence and Mortgagee shall then have an additional 30 days after receipt of such notice within which to cure such default or if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary if, within such 30 days, Mortgagee shall give Subtenant notice of its intention to diligently pursue the remedies necessary to cure such default (including, without limitation, commencement of foreclosure proceedings or eviction proceedings if necessary to effect such cure) and thereafter does diligently pursue such remedies and cure, in which event the Sublease shall not be terminated and Subtenant shall not exercise any other rights or remedies under the Sublease or otherwise while such remedies are being so diligently pursued by Mortgagee, other than Subtenant's right, subject to Section 8.28 of the Overlease, to (a) any abatement, deduction, counterclaim or set-off of any rent or additional rent expressly set forth in the Sublease, or (b) self-help in accordance with the express provisions of the Sublease, or (c) terminate the Sublease in accordance with the provisions thereof in connection with a casualty or condemnation affecting the Sublet Premises or the Property. For purposes hereof, the term Sublease shall include any successor direct lease between Subtenant and Landlord.

7. This Agreement may not be modified except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties or their respective successors-in-interest. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns.

8. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way impair or affect the lien created by the Mortgage except as specifically set forth herein.

9. Subtenant agrees that in the event there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions hereof and the terms and provisions of the Sublease dealing with non-disturbance by Mortgagee or the provisions of the Mortgage referred to in Section 6.01(c) of the Overlease (as they relate to Tenant's rights and obligations), the terms and provisions hereof shall be controlling.

10. All notices, demands or requests made pursuant to, under, or by virtue of the Sublease or this Agreement must be in writing and mailed to the party whom the notice, demand or request is being made by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, at its address set forth above. Any party may change the place that notices and demands are to be sent by written notice delivered in accordance with this Agreement.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Subtenant acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of paragraph (3)(c) set forth in Section 6.01(c) of the Overlease shall be effective and run to the benefit of Mortgagee or any other Successor.

12. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. If any term of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term to any person or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered will be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together will be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

13. Tenant is executing this Agreement for the purpose of confirming that this Agreement satisfies any condition or requirement in the Overlease or the Subordination, Non-Disturbance and Attornment Agreement dated January , 1996 between Tenant, Landlord and Mortgagee relating to the granting of a non-disturbance agreement by Mortgagee to a subtenant of Tenant.

14. Anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if Mortgagee shall acquire title to the Property, or shall otherwise become liable for any obligations of Landlord under the Lease or hereunder, Mortgagee shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Mortgagee's then interest, if any, in the Property and Subtenant shall look solely and exclusively to such interest of Mortgagee, if any, in the Property for the payment and discharge of any obligations imposed upon Mortgagee hereunder or under the Lease. Subtenant agrees that with respect to any money judgment that may be obtained or secured by Subtenant against Mortgagee, Subtenant shall look solely to the estate or interest owned by Mortgagee in the Property and Subtenant shall not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Mortgagee.

consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Tenant covenants and agrees that the Lease now is and shall at all times continue to be subordinate to the Mortgage. Tenant, upon request, shall execute and deliver any certificate or other instrument which the Mortgagee may reasonably request to confirm said subordination by Tenant.

2. Tenant certifies that (i) Tenant is the owner and holder of the tenant's interest under the Lease, (ii) the Lease is presently in full force and effect and unmodified, (iii) no rent or additional rent payable under the Lease has been paid more than one (1) month in advance of its due date (it being expressly agreed that any rent abatements, set-offs, recoupment rights or deductions expressly provided for in Lease shall not be deemed an advance payment of rent or additional rent under this Agreement), (iv) no default exists under the Lease, and (v) there are no offsets or defenses as of the date hereof to the payment of the rents, additional rents or other sums payable under the Lease except as disclosed in writing by Tenant in the estoppel certificate being delivered by Tenant to Mortgagee contemporaneously herewith.

3. As long as no default exists under the Lease which has continued after notice and beyond the expiration of any applicable grace period as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), Mortgagee shall not name Tenant as a party defendant to any action for foreclosure or other enforcement of the Mortgage (unless required by law), nor shall the Lease be terminated by Mortgagee in connection with, or by reason of, foreclosure or other proceedings for the enforcement of the Mortgage, or by reason of a transfer of the Landlord's interest under the Lease pursuant to the taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) whether in connection with a bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise, nor shall Tenant's use or possession of the Demised Premises be interfered with by Mortgagee (except to the extent permitted under the Lease), except that the person acquiring, or succeeding to, the interests of the Landlord in the Property as a result of any such action or proceeding or taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) (including, without limitation, Mortgagee), and such person's successors and assigns (any of the foregoing being hereinafter referred to as the "Successor"), shall not be:

(a) subject to any credits, offsets, recoupment rights, defenses or claims which Tenant might have against any prior Landlord, except that, subject to the terms hereof, a Successor shall be subject to any credits, offsets, recoupment

rights, and defenses to which Tenant may be entitled pursuant to the express provisions of the Lease; nor

(b) bound by any rent or additional rent which Tenant might have paid for more than one (1) month in advance to any prior Landlord other than in accordance with the express provisions of the Lease (i.e. periodic Operating Payments or escrow payments on account of Tax Payments), unless such prepayment shall have been made with Mortgagee's prior written consent; nor

(c) liable for any act or omission of any prior Landlord except as expressly provided in this Agreement, it being understood that the foregoing is not intended to (i) relieve a Successor of any liability arising by reason of its acts or omissions from and after the date the Successor succeeds to the rights of the prior Landlord, including a continuation of the failure of the prior Landlord to perform its obligations under the Lease, in which case the Successor upon receipt of notice of such continuation from Tenant shall have a reasonable period of time to remedy same (it being agreed that to the extent a time period is granted to Landlord in the Lease for such remedy, such time period shall be deemed a reasonable period of time for purposes of this clause (i) and if no time period is specified and the Successor is Mortgagee, in determining a reasonable period of time, the parties shall take into account that Mortgagee acts as a trustee, or (ii) deny Tenant the benefit of any rent offset right, recoupment rights, abatement or credit to which Tenant is entitled under the express provisions of the Lease, subject to the express terms hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Successor shall not be liable to Tenant for any claim Tenant may have against a prior Landlord under the provisions of Section 6.12 of the Lease (by way of example, the Successor shall not be liable for any loss or damage to Tenant caused by the negligence of a prior Landlord or its agents, servants, employees or contractors); nor

(d) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any Landlord's Work with respect to any Block of space or any Offer Space or the Capital Program Work (as such terms are defined in the Lease); provided, however, that. if the Successor shall fail to complete any such work, then Tenant shall have the following rights (which shall be the sole and exclusive remedies available to Tenant as against the Successor for such failure): (i) [OMIT IF NO LONGER APPLICABLE: in the case of the Successor's failure to complete the Landlord's Work with respect to any Block of space Tenant shall, subject to the terms hereof, have the rights described in Section 1.03, 4.01 and 8.24 (with respect to Punch List Work (as defined in the Lease) only) of the Lease], [OMIT IF

NO LONGER APPLICABLE: and (ii) in the case of Successor's failure to complete the Offer Space or Capital Program Work Tenant shall, subject to the terms hereof, have the rights described in Section 8.21 of the Lease.] The Successor's failure to complete any such work shall not constitute a default by the Successor under the Lease giving rise to any remedies other than as expressly set forth in this paragraph (d); nor

(f) liable for any payment to Tenant of any sums or the granting to Tenant of any credit in the nature of a contribution towards the cost of preparing, furnishing or moving into the Demised Premises or any portion thereof, or otherwise (except to the extent provided in paragraphs (a) [and (d) (i)] above), provided, however, that subject to the provisions of Section 15 hereof the Successor shall be responsible to pay to Tenant any unpaid portion of the [OMIT ANY THAT ARE NO LONGER APPLICABLE: Tenant Work Allowance and the Tenant Required Work Allowance (as such terms are defined in the Lease and collectively referred to-herein as "Landlord's Contributions")] as and when the same are due and payable under the Lease; provided, further, however, that the sole and exclusive remedy available to Tenant as against the Successor in the event the Successor shall fail to pay any or all of the Landlord's Contributions shall be to exercise the set-off and/or recoupment rights described in Section 4.01(e) of the Lease and the Successor's failure to make any such payment shall not constitute a default by the Successor under the Lease giving rise to any remedies other than the set-off and/or recoupment rights expressly set forth in such Section 4.01(e). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgagee shall have the right (but not the obligation) if Landlord shall default in funding all or any portion of the Landlord's Contributions to pay such amounts to Tenant; nor

(g) bound by any modification of the Lease made without the written consent of Mortgagee, including without limitation any agreement by Tenant to surrender the Lease. Mortgagee agrees not to unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its consent to a modification of the Lease.

4. (a) If the interest of the Landlord under the Lease shall be transferred by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for enforcement of the Mortgage in which Tenant has not been named as party defendant or pursuant to a taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) whether in connection with a bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise, the Lease shall not be terminated or affected thereby but shall continue in full force and effect as a direct lease between the Successor and Tenant and Tenant shall be bound to the Successor, and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Successor shall be bound to Tenant, under all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease for the balance. of the term thereof remaining, with the same force and effect as if the Successor were the Landlord, and Tenant does hereby (i) agree to attorn to the Successor, including Mortgagee if it be the Successor, as its landlord, (ii) affirm its obligations under the Lease, and (iii) agree to make payments of all sums due under the Lease to the Successor, said attornment, affirmation and agreement to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments, upon the Successor succeeding to the interest of the Landlord under the Lease, provided that if the Successor requests, without implying any obligation to do so on the Successor's part, Tenant will confirm the attornment described herein to the Successor in writing. Tenant waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect that may give or purport to give it any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect the Lease or the obligations of Tenant thereunder by reason of any foreclosure or similar proceeding.

(b) Provided the Lease has not been previously cancelled or terminated, if (i) Mortgagee or any other Successor shall acquire title to the Property or Landlord's interest therein upon foreclosure in an action in which Mortgagee shall have been required to name Tenant as a party defendant, and (ii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall. imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), then, in such event, Mortgagee or any other Successor (as the case may be) shall enter into a new lease with Tenant upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Lease, except that (x) the obligations and liabilities of Mortgagee or other Successor (as the case may be) under any such new lease shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (y) the expiration date of such new lease shall coincide with the Expiration Date provided for in Section 1.02 of the Lease (as the same may have been extended in accordance with the terms of Article 9 of the Lease or otherwise consented to in writing by Mortgagee). Tenant shall execute any such new lease and shall attorn to Mortgagee or the other Successor (as the case may be) so as to establish direct privity between Mortgagee or such other Successor (as the case may be) and Tenant.

(c) If (i) Landlord, as debtor-in-possession, or any trustee appointed in a bankruptcy case of Landlord, obtains an order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing the rejection of thee Lease in accordance with §365 of the Bankruptcy Code (as hereinafter defined), and Tenant elects to retain its rights under the Lease in accordance with §365(h) of the Bankruptcy

Code, (ii) Mortgagee or any other Successor shall acquire title to the Property upon foreclosure or by the acceptance of a deed in lieu thereof or by any other means, and (iii) Tenant is not in default under the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of all applicable cure periods as and to the extent provided in the Lease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice) then, in such event, Mortgagee or any other Successor (as the case may be) shall enter into a new lease with Tenant upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Lease, except that (x) the obligations and liabilities of Mortgagee or other Successor (as the case may be) under any such new lease shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (y) the expiration date of such new lease shall coincide with the Expiration Date provided for in Section 1.02 of the Lease (as the same may have been extended in accordance with the terms of Article 9 of the Lease or otherwise consented to in writing by Mortgagee) of the Lease. Tenant shall execute any such new lease and shall attorn to Mortgagee or the other Successor (as the case may be). so as to establish direct privity between Mortgagee or such other Successor (as the case may be) and Tenant.

5. (a) Tenant shall notify Mortgagee of any default, breach or other failure (a "Default") by Landlord under the Lease which would entitle Tenant to cancel or terminate the Lease or abate the rents, additional rents or other sums payable thereunder or to exercise any self-help or set-off rights thereunder. If Landlord fails to cure any Default which would entitle Tenant to cancel or terminate the Lease within the time period, if any, provided for in the Lease and such Default is of a nature (i) which can be cured by the payment of money, then Mortgagee shall have an additional 10 days within which to cure such Default after receipt of Tenant's notice that Landlord has failed to cure same and the Lease shall not be cancelled or terminated unless Mortgagee shall have failed to cure such Default (without implying any obligation to do so) prior to the expiration of such 10 days, or (ii) which cannot be cured by the payment of money, then Tenant shall notify (the "Second Notice") Mortgagee that Landlord has failed to cure such Default within such time period as is provided for such cure under the Lease (or if no such period is provided, within a reasonable period of time) and Mortgagee shall have an additional 30 days after receipt of such Second Notice within which to cure such Default or if such Default cannot be cured within that time with the exercise of reasonable diligence, then such additional time as may be necessary to cure the same with the exercise of reasonable diligence; and if, within such 30 days, Mortgagee has either cured such Default or has commenced or given Tenant notice of its intention to commence and thereafter diligently commences and diligently pursues the remedies necessary to cure such Default (including, without limitation, commencement of foreclosure proceedings or eviction proceedings, if necessary to effect such cure), then and in such event the Lease shall not be terminated and Tenant shall not exercise any other rights or remedies under the Lease or otherwise while such remedies are being so diligently pursued, other than Tenant's right to (a) any abatement, deduction, counterclaim, recoupment right or set-off of any rent or additional rent expressly set forth in the tease, or (b) self-help in accordance with Section 8.24 of the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mortgagee's additional cure period under clause (ii) above shall not exceed 90 days in the case of Tenant's termination rights under clauses (A) and (B) of Section 8.26 of the Lease or 180 days in the case of Tenant's termination right under clause (C) of Section 8.26 of the Lease. Nothing herein shall be deemed to imply that Tenant has any right to terminate the Lease or any other right or remedy, except as may be otherwise expressly provided for in the Lease.

(b) Tenant's rights under this paragraph 5 and under paragraph 3(a) hereof are expressly conditioned upon (i) Tenant delivering to Mortgagee copies of all notices delivered by Tenant relating to a Default which is the subject of Tenant's claim concurrent with their delivery to Landlord (provided that if Tenant fails to deliver a copy of the notice of a Default to Mortgagee as required hereby, Tenant's right to cancel or terminate the Lease shall not be waived, but Mortgagee's additional cure period will be extended for a period equal to the period of time Landlord had to cure such Default, such additional cure period shall not be deemed to have commenced until Tenant shall have delivered the requisite notice to Mortgagee and Tenant shall not cancel or terminate the Lease prior to the expiration of such additional cure period without such Default having been cured), and (ii) Mortgagee being provided the opportunity by Tenant to monitor and participate in any arbitration or other proceeding related to a Default. Tenant shall deliver to Mortgagee concurrent with delivery to or receipt from Landlord or the arbitrators determining any dispute, a copy of any submission, claim, demand, order or pleading served by or upon Tenant or delivered to or received from the arbitrators. Mortgagee shall have the right to appear before and make presentations to the arbitrators determining any dispute.

(c) Any termination of the Lease by Tenant as the result of any claimed Default by Landlord thereunder without compliance with the applicable provisions of this paragraph 5 shall be without force or effect and shall be void ab initio.

6.(3) Mortgagee agrees that, provided Tenant is not then in default under this Agreement or the Lease after notice and beyond the expiration of applicable grace periods as and to the extent provided under the Lease or otherwise (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Tenant to further notice if Landlord has previously provided such notice), with respect to any sublease (other than a sublease to an Affiliate of Tenant or Related Service Provider whether pursuant to Sections 5.01(b), (c) and (d) of the Lease or otherwise) which (a) consists of at least one full floor of the Blocks (as defined in the Lease) or at least 30,000 contiguous rentable square feet of space in the Demised Premises which is on a floor which is not a Block (and in the case where a sublease includes a portion of a floor, the balance of the floor consists of a leaseable configuration of at least 10,000 rentable square feet), (b) in the case of a Block, consists of contiguous space in the Blocks which includes the highest or lowest floor then comprising the Blocks or is in the Blocks and is contiguous to another floor all of which has been sublet by Tenant and with respect to which Mortgagee has executed and delivered one or more non-disturbance and attornment agreements hereunder with respect to all of such floor, (c) provides, for a rental which, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the subtenant may be entitled thereunder, is equal to or in excess (on a per rentable square foot basis) of the greater of (i) annual Fixed Rent and the annualized recurring Additional Charges (as such terms are defined in the Lease) payable by Tenant under the Lease with respect to such space from time to time throughout the term, and (ii) the fair market fixed rent and the fair market additional rent, each of (i) and (ii) above to be valued at the time when the attornment provided for in the non-disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to becomes effective between Mortgagee and the subtenant following the termination of the Lease (or if the rental to be paid by the subtenant shall be less (on a per rentable square foot basis) than the greater of (i) and (ii) above, if such subtenant agrees, in the non disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to, that such rental will automatically and without condition become so equal to the greater of (i) and (ii) above (subject to arbitration in the manner provided in Section 9.03 of the Lease if the parties do not agree on the fair market rent or fair market additional rent within ten days after such attornment if Landlord claims that clause (ii) is the operative measure of rent to be paid by the subtenant), if, as and when the attornment provided for in such non-disturbance and attornment agreement becomes effective between Mortgagee and the subtenant following the termination of the Lease), (d) consists of space that will be demised separately from the remainder of the Demised Premises in accordance with all applicable laws, (e) provides for other obligations of the subtenant not materially less favorable to Landlord under such sublease than the obligations of Tenant under the Lease (and shall require compliance, to the extent applicable, with Sections 5.04(d)(iv)(F) and (G) and 8.28 of the Lease), and (f) Landlord has executed and delivered to such subtenant a non-disturbance agreement in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.04(d)(iv) of the Lease, then Mortgagee shall, at Tenant's request, execute and deliver to such subtenant a non-disturbance and attornment agreement substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B. provided and upon condition that (i) Tenant has furnished to Mortgagee reasonably satisfactory evidence that the subtenant has a financial worth sufficient to timely fulfill its obligations under such sublease as a primary tenant (and not as a subtenant), including any increase in such financial obligations which may become effective as provided above but in no event shall such subtenant's financial worth be less than a Major Subtenant (as defined in the Lease), (ii) the sublease is in a form consistent with the requirements of Article 5 of the Lease and otherwise reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee, and (iii) the subtenant executes and delivers to Landlord such non-disturbance and attornment agreement. Any dispute as to the creditworthiness of a prospective subtenant may be submitted to determination by arbitration in the manner provided in Section 9.03 of the Lease as if such provisions were set forth herein and "Mortgagee" were substituted for "Landlord" therein, and any such determination shall be binding upon Mortgagee and Tenant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this paragraph 6, any non-disturbance and attornment agreement delivered by Mortgagee pursuant to this paragraph 6 shall be conditional and by its terms expressly contain the condition such that, in the event of any termination of the Lease (x) other than by reason of (1) Tenant's default, (2) a rejection of the Lease in bankruptcy by Tenant, or (3) subject to the terms hereof, a voluntary surrender of the Lease by agreement between Landlord and Tenant, but (y) including a termination of the Lease by reason of a casualty, condemnation or pursuant to Section 8.26 of the Lease, then any non-disturbance and attornment agreement to a subtenant shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date, provided, that if the Lease is terminated with respect to less than all of the Demised Premises, only such non-disturbance and attornment agreements to subtenants who sublease any of such space with respect to which the Lease is terminated shall automatically and without further act of the parties terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date. In addition, to the extent any such non-disturbance and attornment agreement relates to a subtenant which is a partnership of professionals (including, without limitation, attorneys, accountants and investment bankers), such agreement shall provide that no provision of such sublease providing in substance for the exculpation from personal liability of the partners of such partnership shall be binding on Mortgagee or any other Successor unless such subtenant shall, on the date the attornment provided in such non-disturbance and attornment agreement becomes effective between Mortgagee and such subtenant, post with Mortgagee or such other Successor as security for such subtenant's obligations under its sublease, cash or a clean, unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit (in form and from a bank reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee) in either case in an amount equal to the greater of (i) the annual fixed rent and annualized recurring charges (without regard to any abatement, credits or offsets) payable at such time (such security to be increased from time to time to reflect increases in such fixed rent and recurring charges) by such subtenant to Mortgagee, and (ii) the security required to be provided by the Subtenant under the terms of the Lease, unless such cash or letter of credit was previously delivered to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the Lease.

7. Tenant shall deliver to Mortgagee copies of all notices under the Lease concurrent with delivery to or receipt from Landlord (including, without limitation, default notices, notices establishing delivery and commencement dates and notices commencing arbitration proceedings but excluding routine operational notices such as requests for overtime services). No notice shall be effective as to Mortgagee unless properly served upon Mortgagee in the manner provided herein.

8. This Agreement may not be modified except by an agreement in writing signed by Tenant and Mortgagee or their respective successors-in-interest. In addition, any modification of this Agreement which would adversely affect Landlord shall require the consent of Landlord provided that Landlord is not in default under the terms of the Lease or the Mortgage beyond any notice and cure period. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns including, without limitation, with respect to Mortgagee, the grantee under a deed in lieu of foreclosure and/or the purchaser of the Demised Premises at a foreclosure sale or at any sale of the Demised Premises following the granting of a deed in lieu of foreclosure or following foreclosure.

9. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way impair or affect the lien created by the Mortgage except as specifically set forth herein.

10. Landlord, Tenant and Mortgagee agree that this Agreement satisfies any condition or requirement in the Lease relating to the granting of a non-disturbance agreement by Mortgagee. Mortgagee and Tenant further agree that in the event there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions hereof and the terms and provisions of the Lease dealing with non-disturbance by Mortgagee, the terms and provisions hereof shall be controlling.

11. All notices, demands, consents, approvals, advices, waivers or other communications (each, a "Notice") which may or are required to be given by either party to the other under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sent (a) by hand, (b) by United States Mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, return receipt requested or (c) by a nationally recognized overnight carrier (which provides for receipted delivery in the ordinary course of its business), in each case addressed to the party to be notified at the address for such party specified in the first paragraph of this Agreement, or to such other place in the continental United States as the party to be notified may from time to time designate by at least 15 days' notice to the notifying party (with copy in the case of Mortgagee to & nbsp;).

Each Notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date such Notice is actually received as evidenced by a written receipt therefor, and in the event of failure to deliver by reason of changed address of which no Notice was given or refused to accept deliver, as of the date of such failure. Tenant shall also deliver a copy of any Notice provided to Mortgagee under paragraph 5 hereof to Landlord at the address and in the manner provided in the Lease, excluding Notices which Tenant shall previously or concurrently have delivered to or received from Landlord.

12. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. If any term of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term to any person or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered will be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together will be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

13. If at any time this Agreement is rejected by Mortgagee in any case under the Bankruptcy Code involving Mortgagee as debtor, then Mortgagee agrees that the Lease shall be deemed to be superior to the Mortgage and not subordinate thereto.

14. Each party warrants and represents to the other parties that the execution and delivery of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the representing party; and that the person who signs this Agreement on behalf of such party is duly authorized to do so.

15. Anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if Mortgagee shall acquire title to the Property, or shall otherwise become liable for any obligations of Landlord under the Lease or hereunder, Mortgagee shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Mortgagee's then interest, if any, in the Property (as such interest is defined in Section 8.06 of the Lease) and Tenant shall look solely and exclusively to such interest of Mortgagee, if any, in the Property for the payment and discharge of any obligations imposed upon Mortgagee hereunder or under the Lease. Tenant agrees that with respect to any money judgment that may be obtained or secured by Tenant against Mortgagee, Tenant shall look solely to the estate or interest owned by Mortgagee and the Property (as such interest is defined in Section 8.06 of the Lease) and Tenant shall not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Mortgagee. Nothing contained in this Section 15 shall be construed to diminish or impair Tenant's abatement, offset, credit or self-help rights under the express provisions of the Lease.

16. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which, when so executed and delivered, shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

Subtenant certifies that (i) Subtenant is the owner and holder of the subtenant's interest under the Sublease, (ii) the Sublease is presently in full force and effect and unmodified, (iii) no rent or additional rent payable under the Sublease has been paid more than one (1) month in advance of its due date, (iv) no default exists under the Sublease, and (v) there are no offsets or defenses as of the date hereof to the payment of the rents, additional rents or other sums payable under the Sublease.

3. As long as no default exists under the Sublease which has continued after notice and beyond the expiration of any applicable grace period as and to the extent provided in the Sublease (and provided that nothing shall imply any right of Subtenant to further notice if Tenant or the Landlord (as defined below) has previously provided such notice) and, subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below, Mortgagee shall not name Subtenant as a party defendant to any action for foreclosure or other enforcement of the Mortgage (unless required by law), nor shall the Sublease be terminated by Mortgagee in connection with, or by reason of, foreclosure or other proceedings for the enforcement of the Mortgage, or by reason of a transfer of the landlord's interest under the Overlease pursuant to the taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device), nor shall Subtenant's use or possession of the Sublet Premises be interfered with by Mortgagee, unless the Tenant or 1290 Associates, LLC or any successor owner of the Property (the "Landlord") would have had such right if the Mortgage had not been granted, except that the person acquiring or succeeding by or through Mortgagee to the interests of the Landlord under the Overlease as a result of any such action or proceeding (including Mortgagee should it acquire or succeed to such interests), and such person's successors and assigns (any of the foregoing being hereinafter referred to as the "Successor"), shall not be:

(a) subject to any credits, offsets, defenses or claims which Subtenant might have against any prior sublessor or landlord; nor

(b) bound by any rent or additional rent which Subtenant might have paid for more than one month in advance to any prior sublessor or landlord, unless such prepayment shall have been made with Mortgagee's prior written consent; nor

(c) liable for any act or omission of any prior sublessor or landlord; nor

(d) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any improvement to the Sublet Premises or the building forming a part of the Property; nor

(e) required to account for any security deposit other than any security deposit actually delivered to the Successor; nor

(f) liable for any payment to Subtenant of any sums, or the granting to Subtenant of any credit, in the nature of a contribution towards the cost of preparing, furnishing or moving into the Sublet Premises or any portion thereof; nor

(g) bound by any modification of the Sublease which results in the Sublease no longer conforming to the parameters set forth in the Overlease for the granting by Landlord of a non-disturbance agreement to a subtenant made without the written consent of Mortgagee.

4. If the interest of the Landlord in the Property shall be transferred by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings for enforcement of the Mortgage or pursuant to a taking of a deed in lieu of foreclosure (or similar device) and the Overlease shall have previously terminated (and the Sublease shall have become a direct lease between Subtenant and Landlord pursuant to a non-disturbance and attornment agreement between such parties) or shall be terminated concurrent with or subsequent to such foreclosure, other enforcement proceeding or taking, then subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below, Subtenant shall be bound to the Successor, and, except as provided in this Agreement, the Successor shall be bound to Subtenant, under all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Sublease for the balance of the term thereof remaining, with the same force and effect as if the Successor were the Tenant under the Sublease, and Subtenant does hereby (i) agree to attorn to the Successor, including Mortgagee if it be the Successor, as its landlord, (ii) affirm its obligations under the Sublease (subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below), and (iii) agree to make payments of all sums due under the Sublease (as same may be adjusted pursuant to the terms of paragraph 5 below) to the Successor, said attornment, affirmation and agreement to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments, upon the Successor succeeding to the interest of the Tenant under the Sublease, provided that if the Successor requests, without implying any obligation to do so on the Successor's part, Subtenant will confirm the attornment described herein to the Successor in writing. Subtenant waives the provisions of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect that may give or purport to give it any right or election to terminate or otherwise adversely affect the Sublease or the obligations of Subtenant thereunder by reason of any foreclosure of similar proceeding.

5. (a) Subtenant agrees that to the extent the Sublease provides for a rental which, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the Subtenant may be entitled thereunder, is less than the greater of (on a per rentable square foot basis) (i) the annual Fixed Rent and annualized recurring Additional Charges (as such terms are defined in the Overlease) payable by Tenant under the Overlease with respect to the Sublet Premises (the "Overlease Rent") and (ii) the fair market fixed rent and the fair market additional rent (collectively referred to as the "Fair Market Rent") as reasonably determined by the Successor with respect to the Sublet Premises, Subtenant agrees that the rental payable under the Sublease will automatically and without condition become equal to the greater of the Overlease Rent and the Fair Market Rent, if, as and when the attornment provided for herein becomes effective between Mortgagee or any other Successor and the Subtenant. If Subtenant disagrees with the Successor's determination of the Fair Market Rent, then the amount of the Fair Market Rent will be determined by arbitration pursuant to Section 9.03 of the Overlease, provided that pending resolution of the dispute, Subtenant shall pay rent based on the Successor's determination with appropriate adjustment being made after final resolution of the dispute. Subtenant further agrees that the Sublease shall at all times be subject to and comply with the provisions of Sections 5.04(d) (iv) (F) and (G) and 8.28 of the Overlease.

(b) In addition, Subtenant agrees that no provision of the Sublease providing in substance for the exculpation from personal liability of the partners of Subtenant shall be binding on Mortgagee or any other Successor unless Subtenant shall, on the date the attornment provided herein becomes effective between Mortgagee or any other Successor and Subtenant, post with Mortgagee or such Successor as security for Subtenant's obligations under the Sublease, cash or a clean, unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit (in form and from a bank reasonably satisfactory to Mortgagee or such Successor) in either case in an amount equal to the greater of (i) the annual fixed rent and recurring charges (without regard to any abatements, credits or offsets) payable at such time (such security to be increased from time to time to reflect increases in such fixed rent and recurring charges) by Subtenant to Mortgagee or such other Successor as same may be modified in accordance with the terms of paragraph (a) above, and (ii) the security required to be provided by Subtenant under the terms of the Overlease, unless such cash or letter of credit was previously delivered to Landlord in accordance with the provisions of the Overlease.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the agreements of the Mortgagee hereunder (on behalf of itself and any other Successor) shall be effective only in the event the cause of termination of the Overlease is (x) the default of Tenant thereunder (y) a rejection of the Overlease in bankruptcy by Tenant, or (z) a voluntary surrender of the Overlease by agreement between Landlord and Tenant and consented to by Mortgagee (to the extent required under the Agreement referred to in paragraph 12 below) and if the Overlease is cancelled, terminated or expires (in whole or in part but including the Sublet Premises) for any other reason (including, without limitation, by reason of a casualty or condemnation or the exercise by Tenant of any termination or cancellation right or remedy provided in the Overlease, at law or in equity or by reason of Tenant's failure to exercise the Renewal Option (as defined in the Overlease)), then this Agreement shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date of the Overlease (or portion thereof) or the day preceding the commencement of the Renewal Term (as defined in the Overlease), as the case may be.

6. In the event the Overlease is terminated and Subtenant becomes a direct tenant of Landlord pursuant to the terms of a non-disturbance and attornment agreement between such parties, Subtenant shall notify Mortgagee of any default by Landlord under the Sublease which would entitle Subtenant to cancel the Sublease or abate the rents, additional rents or other sums payable thereunder or to exercise any self-help or set-off rights thereunder. If Landlord fails to cure any default as to which Subtenant is obligated to give notice pursuant to the preceding sentence within the time provided for in the Sublease, Subtenant shall provide Mortgagee notice of such occurrence and Mortgagee shall then have an additional 30 days after receipt of such notice within which to cure such default or if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary if, within such 30 days, Mortgagee shall give Subtenant notice of its intention to diligently pursue the remedies necessary to cure such default (including, without limitation, commencement of foreclosure proceedings or eviction proceedings if necessary to effect such cure) and thereafter does diligently pursue such remedies and cure, in which event the Sublease shall not be terminated and Subtenant shall not exercise any other rights or remedies under the Sublease or otherwise while such remedies are being so diligently pursued by Mortgagee, other than Subtenant's right, subject to Section 8.28 of the Overlease, to (a) any abatement, deduction, counterclaim or set-off of any rent or additional rent expressly set forth in the Sublease, or (b) self-help in accordance with the express provisions of the Sublease, or (c) terminate the Sublease in accordance with the provisions thereof in connection with a casualty or condemnation affecting the Sublet Premises or the Property. For purposes hereof, the term Sublease shall include any successor direct lease between Subtenant and Landlord.

7. This Agreement may not be modified except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties or their respective successors-in-interest. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns.

8. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way impair or affect the lien created by the Mortgage except as specifically set forth herein.

9. Subtenant agrees that in the event there is any inconsistency between the terms and provisions hereof and the terms and provisions of the Sublease dealing with non-disturbance by Mortgagee, the terms and provisions hereof shall be controlling.

10. All notices, demands or requests made pursuant to, under, or by virtue of the Sublease or this Agreement must be in writing and mailed to the party whom the notice, demand or request is being made by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, at its address set forth above. Any party may change the place that notices and demands are to be sent by written notice delivered in accordance with this Agreement.

11. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. If any term of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such term to any person or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered will be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together will be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

12. Tenant is executing this Agreement for the purpose of confirming that this Agreement satisfies any condition or requirement in the Overlease or the Subordination, Non-Disturbance and Attornment Agreement dated , between Tenant, Landlord and Mortgagee relating to the granting of a non-disturbance agreement by Mortgagee to a subtenant of Tenant.

13. Anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if Mortgagee shall acquire title to the Property, or shall otherwise become liable for any obligations of Landlord under the Lease or hereunder, Mortgagee shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Mortgagee's then interest, if any, in the Property and Subtenant shall look solely and exclusively to such interest of Mortgagee, if any, in the Property for the payment and discharge of any obligations imposed upon Mortgagee hereunder or under the Lease. Subtenant agrees that with respect to any money judgment that may be obtained or secured by Subtenant against Mortgagee, Subtenant shall look solely to the estate or interest owned by Mortgagee in the Property and Subtenant shall not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Mortgagee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

US PICK, PACK AND SHIPPING SERVICES AGREEMENT between

WARNER-ELEKTRA-ATLANTIC CORPORATION ("WEA")
and

CINRAM DISTRIBUTION LLC ("Company")

Dated as of October 24, 2003

Capitalized terms not defined where they appear in the text are defined in Paragraph 13.

1. Appointment. (a)

(i) WEA hereby appoints Company to render, and Company shall render, PP&S Services for one hundred percent (100%) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph 1(a)(i), from and after the effective date of a Recorded Music Major Transaction (the "RMMT Effective Date"), the appointment of Company hereunder shall instead be to render, and Company shall render, PP&S Services for at least the Specified Percentage (and, at WEA's election, more than the Specified Percentage) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof. WEA shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that the Combined Entity's use of PP&S Services hereunder (i.e., mix of New Releases and Catalog Titles) following the RMMT Effective Date remains generally consistent with WEA's use of PP&S Services hereunder prior to the RMMT Effective Date. The "Specified Percentage" equals the fraction, expressed as a percentage: (A) the numerator of which shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Products picked, packed and shipped in the Territory by Company for WEA under this Agreement (and/or by WEA on its own behalf, if applicable) during the twelve (12) complete calendar months immediately preceding the RMMT Effective Date (the "WEA Output"); and (B) the denominator of which shall be the WEA Output plus one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Records in physical formats picked, packed and shipped for sale in the Territory by or for the recorded music business of the applicable Major during the same twelve (12)-month period. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the WEA Output no units of products picked, packed and shipped by Company (and/or WEA, if applicable) for WHV or its affiliates shall be included.

(iii) WEA shall be solely responsible for: (A) all sales solicitation of Products; (B) processing of all orders of units of Products by customers; (C) invoicing and collection of customer accounts; and (D) the processing and issuance of credits to customers.

(b) Reservation of Rights. WEA hereby reserves all rights in and to Products not otherwise expressly granted to Company herein.

(c) Reports. Company shall prepare for WEA all of the same shipments, returns and inventory reports in the same format and detail that WEA's systems provided as of the date of this Agreement (it being understood that Company shall not be required to prepare for WEA any reports that would require Company to incur additional out-of-pocket expenses in order to provide them, unless WEA agrees to pay any such actual out-of-pocket expenses) and shall supply WEA with such reports on at least a monthly basis during the Term. If Company provides more detailed reports to any other party during the Term, Company shall, at WEA's request, provide such more detailed reports to WEA hereunder as of the date that Company commences providing such more detailed reports to such other party, but subject to the same terms and conditions under which such reports are provided to such other party (e.g., any additional fees or amounts charged to such party for such more detailed reports). Monthly and quarterly shipments and return reports shall include at least the following information: selection number, artist name, selection title, product configuration, gross units shipped, units actually returned, net units and Fees. Nothing in such reports shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company.

(d) Facilities. Company shall utilize "first-class" facilities either directly or, subject to WEA's prior approval, by subcontract, for the prompt, timely, and satisfactory performance of the PP&S Services committed hereunder. All distribution center locations used by Company in connection with Products shall be subject to WEA's prior approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld). WEA hereby acknowledges that those distribution facilities owned and/or leased by WEA in the Territory immediately prior to the commencement of the Term and which are being acquired by Company pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Acquired Facilities") currently constitute "first-class" facilities and shall be deemed. approved by WEA for Company's use hereunder in connection with Products. For the avoidance of doubt, WEA shall have no right to require Company to provide Services hereunder at any Facility other than the Acquired Facilities and Company shall have the right to close or relocate any of the Acquired Facilities so long as Company ensures no degradation to Service Level Requirements, shipping time, turnaround times or increased costs to WEA as a result of such closure or change in location. Company acknowledges that warehouses included in the Acquired Facilities permit [] of all units of Products Ordered to be delivered as required pursuant to such Order in the Territory within [] using standard shipping methods.

(e) Company's Undertakings.

(i) Company shall render Services for WEA to all locations throughout the Territory for all orders for Products as designated by WEA. The Services: (A) shall be rendered on a so-called "label blind" basis; (B) shall be rendered in at least the same general manner, subject to at least the same general standards and in at least the same general quality as provided by Company to all other parties whose products are distributed by Company in the Territory, but if any such services are not part of the standard Services otherwise provided to WEA hereunder and the provision of such services is at a higher cost to Company, then if WEA requests such services, such services shall be provided to WEA hereunder, but subject to the same terms and conditions provided to such other party. [] provided, however, that nothing contained in this clause (B) shall limit Company's obligations set forth in Paragraph 7 hereof; (C) shall be rendered in at least the same manner, subject to at least the same standards and in at least the same quality as was provided to WEA's affiliates for the products of WEA's affiliates immediately prior to the commencement of the Term; (D) shall be rendered in accordance with "first-class" standards that meet the highest quality available in the industry; and (E) shall be rendered in accordance with, or exceed, each of the service level requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto being the "Service Level Requirements"); provided, however, that to the extent that the standards set forth in clauses (B) and (D) of this Paragraph are not being met as of the commencement of the Term, Company shall have a period of [] from the commencement of the Term in which to meet such standards.

(ii) Company shall ship each Product without alteration in the same configuration and format designated by WEA.

(iii) Company shall accept the return of all units of Products previously distributed by or on behalf of WEA in the Territory prior to the commencement of the Term.

(f) Compliance with Law; Code of Conduct. Company shall comply (i) with all laws and regulations in connection with Company's undertakings under this Agreement, except where the failure to do so individually or in the aggregate is immaterial; and (ii) subject to relevant local laws including privacy laws, with the code of conduct attached as Schedule B hereto.

(g) Quarterly Meetings. At least once every calendar quarter, WEA may meet with Company's Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) and Chief Financial Officer (or equivalent) to assess Company's performance under this Agreement and its ongoing ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(h) Shipping. If WEA is responsible for shipping expenses, should WEA so elect, WEA shall have the right to: (i) select the shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for shipping of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder (and, in doing so, assume the risk of loss for such units of Products in transit); or (ii) in lieu of selecting such shipping agent(s), require that Company submit to WEA any proposed shipping agent(s) which Company wishes to utilize hereunder for WEA's prior written approval. If, in a particular instance, WEA is not responsible for shipping expenses or WEA does not exercise its rights pursuant to the preceding sentence, Company shall utilize the same shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for the shipping of a majority of the other products shipped by or on behalf of Company.

(i) Additional Services. At WEA's reasonable request, Company shall provide WEA with assembly, packing and shipping services for "point of sale," promotional and merchandising materials to be utilized in connection with Products. Such services shall be provided by Company to WEA on a non-exclusive basis only (and only to the extent that WEA so requests any such services) and, to the extent so requested, shall be provided to WEA [*]. Notwithstanding this Paragraph 1(i), Company shall only be required to provide such services if either WEA (either itself or through any of its affiliates) provided such services on its own behalf prior to the commencement of the Term or if Company then-currently provides such services to any party (in which case, if WEA requests such services and Company is not contractually prohibited from providing such services to WEA, they shall be provided to WEA on the same terms and conditions as are provided to such other party).

2. Title. Title to units of Products hereunder (including all copyrights and trademarks contained therein) shall remain in WEA or WEA's affiliates. Company acknowledges that Products (including all intellectual property contained therein and relating thereto) are protected under copyright laws and that WEA is the rightful owner or license holder of such copyrights. Company acknowledges that any removal of any such materials from Company's approved facilities without WEA's written approval, and any distribution of any such materials in the Territory without WEA's written approval, is an infringement of WEA's copyright. Company shall bear the risk of loss for units of Products in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit during any shipping of Products between Facilities (to the extent that Company is responsible for paying such shipping expenses).

3. Ordering Products. WEA shall cause the manufacture of and delivery to Company of such stocks of Products as shall be determined by WEA in WEA's sole discretion.

4. Company's Financial Obligations. WEA shall not be responsible for payment of any of Company's (or Company's affiliates') indirect or general overhead charges or the salaries of Company's (or Company's affiliates') employees or agents. All costs associated with the rendering of Services shall be borne by Company. All charges for all packaging materials (including boxes and filler materials) are at the cost of Company. All actual, out-of-pocket, non-overhead freight charges incurred by or on behalf of Company for shipping of units of Products from Company's distribution warehouse facilities to WEA's customers or otherwise at WEA's request shall be borne by WEA. To the extent that any shipping costs hereunder are to be borne by WEA, WEA shall only be required to pay Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs charged by such shipping company for the shipment of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder, and such costs shall be reimbursed to Company by WEA within [] following Company's rendition of such invoice to WEA []. Company shall be solely responsible for all costs or expenses related to the shipping of units of Products from WEA's manufacturer to the extent that Company or Company's affiliate is then-currently WEA's manufacturer to Company's distribution Facilities and for the cost of any shipping between any Facilities (except if such shipping was requested by WEA).

5. Terms of Sale of Products. WEA shall determine all terms of sale for Products.

6. Other Obligations. (a) Storage. Company shall accept and store all units of Products delivered to or otherwise held by Company hereunder at no charge; provided, however, that with respect to any particular Product, Company shall not be required to store more units of such Product than is necessary to satisfy the next [] demand (such determination as to what constitutes [] demand shall be made jointly by WEA and Company based, where possible, upon actual, gross units of Products ordered during the prior [] and shall be made for all Products no more frequently than semi-annually during the Term commencing no sooner than [] after the commencement of the Term). With respect to units of Products so determined to be in excess of a [] demand therefor, Company shall notify WEA of the specific units of Products constituting such excess and within [] following WEA's receipt of such notice, WEA shall (in WEA's sole discretion) either: (i) remove such excess units of Products (at WEA's expense); (ii) direct Company to destroy such excess units of Products (at WEA's expense); or (iii) direct Company to store such excess either: (x) at a Facility at a cost to WEA of [] or (y) offsite at Company's or Company's affiliates leased facility approved in advance, in writing, by WEA and the actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense charged by such facility to Company for such storage shall be reimbursed to Company by WEA. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 6(a) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice, [*]. Products shall be kept segregated from all of Company's other products or merchandise. The risk of loss, due to any reason, of units of Products in Company's possession or control shall be borne by Company, as further described herein; provided, however, that to the extent any such loss was directly caused by a WEA Employee, Company shall not bear the risk of loss except to the extent such loss is or would have been covered by Company's property insurance as required under this Agreement and as set forth on Schedule C hereto.

(b) Insurance. During the Term, Company shall: (i) comply with all provisions set forth on Schedule C hereto; and (ii) at Company's sole cost and expense, maintain adequate insurance coverage for: (A) all Products while such Products are in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit to or from Company or its designees to any Facility; and (B) the other matters set forth on Schedule C hereto. The insurance required hereunder is not intended to limit Company's liability as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(c) Computer Access. In order that WEA be able to monitor daily shipment, returns and inventory activity of Products, Company shall give WEA access to Company's computer system for the purpose of providing WEA with real-time information stored therein relating to Products at Company's expense (but no access shall be allowed to information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company). Such system shall provide WEA with all of the same types of reports and information currently provided by, and as may be available from, Company's computer systems in connection with other products distributed by Company. In connection therewith, Company shall work with WEA to ensure that WEA is provided with at least the same level of reports and information that WEA's own systems provided as of the commencement of the Term. Nothing in such reports or information provided shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company. Such access shall be available to WEA [] a day, [] days a week, at all times during the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Company may perform system maintenance and upgrades during which such systems may not be available; provided, however, that such downtime does not exceed [] per week. []

(d) Inspection. Subject to the provisions set forth below, during the Term and for a period of [] following the expiration or termination of the Term, WEA shall have the right to inspect each WEA Facility and any other facility utilized by Company in connection with Products, or the provision of Services hereunder, during regular business hours (utilizing either WEA's own employees, third-party advisers or representatives, insurers, or other experts retained by WEA). WEA may conduct such inspections of each Facility or other facility up to []. During any such inspection, WEA may conduct physical inventories of units of Products in Company's possession or under Company's control. WEA shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products, or any personal data possessed by Company during the inspections permitted under this Paragraph 6(d).

(e) Security. Company shall maintain security standards that are at least equivalent to those provided by other "first-class" distributors in the Territory, both in the segregated area of the WEA Facilities for Products and throughout the WEA Facilities, and shall at all times employ the utmost care and diligence to prevent loss, damage, theft, disappearance, unauthorized destruction or usage of Products. Company's security procedures shall be subject to WEA's prior written approval. Company shall maintain such procedures as approved by WEA and as may reasonably be given to Company from time to time throughout the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company's security measures (which shall include closed-circuit television monitoring, pass-protected access, employee checking and spot searching, etc.) shall be sufficient to ensure that Products and the intellectual property embodied in such Products are in no way compromised, stolen, "leaked" to the public (e.g., copying of recordings embodied on Products which may lead to the availability of such recordings to the public via the Internet or similar means) or otherwise made available to any unauthorized parties; provided, however, that for a period of [] from the commencement of the Term, such security measures need be no more stringent than those currently in place at the Acquired Facilities. Upon discovery of (i) loss, damage, theft, disappearance, or destruction of Products exceeding []; or (ii) any unauthorized usage of Products, Company shall notify WEA as soon as reasonably possible, and in any event within [*] following such discovery, and shall include in such notification sufficient detail to allow WEA to investigate such incident (each, a "Security Breach Notice"). Regardless of Company's compliance with all security measures set forth herein or with procedures approved by WEA, Company shall be liable as provided herein for the loss, damage, theft, disappearance, destruction or unauthorized usage of any Products.

(f) Salvage. At all times and regardless of whether Company or its insurers are required to compensate WEA for loss as required under this Agreement, WEA shall retain the sole right to salvage for damaged Products. Company shall not surrender damaged Products to insurers or any other party for destruction or disposal without obtaining WEA's prior written consent.

(g) WEA Employees.. Company shall throughout the Term, at the request of WEA, provide up to a maximum of [] full-time employees of WEA or its affiliates (the "WEA Employees") with, at Company's expense: (i) reasonable office accommodations at such WEA Facilities utilized for distribution and/or warehousing as may be specified from time to time by WEA; (ii) individual computers; (iii) copy services and any other similar office services in order to permit them to carry out their functions; and (iv) all other reasonable support functions as provided to them as of the date of this Agreement. Company shall also provide telephone, Internet and fax access for each WEA Employee, and WEA shall reimburse Company for Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs therefor. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 6(g) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice; [*] WEA shall be responsible for the direction of, and all compensation and related obligations for, the WEA Employees. The WEA Employees shall operate in accordance with WEA's code of conduct and Company's standard code of conduct contained in its employee policy manual at the applicable WEA Facility (which code of conduct shall be subject to WEA's reasonable approval) and all other lawful policies adopted by Company from time to time governing the conduct of all of its employees and contractors. In the performance of their tasks, the WEA Employees shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company.

7. Technology. Company shall reasonably update the WEA Facilities at Company's cost to keep up with new technology requirements, including investing in technology, systems, equipment and processes to automate distribution processes, packaging and assembly to provide at least the same level of quality and service provided by other "first-class" distributors of Records in the Territory. In the event that any investment in a fundamental new technology (e.g., the conversion to automated systems) results in a decrease in Company's net costs (i.e., taking into account the cost of Company's said investment in implementing such new technology) by more than ten percent (10%), the Fees shall be adjusted so that the net cost benefit is shared equally between WEA and Company. Company shall maintain and update its information and technology capabilities, at Company's reasonable cost, to meet reasonable WEA requirements and maintain competitive services for WEA and its customers.

8. Invoices and Payments. (a) Rendition of Invoices. For each month of the Term, Company shall prepare and render invoices to WEA on a weekly basis setting forth all Fees owed by WEA hereunder for such week. Except with respect to shipping charges to be borne by WEA as provided in Paragraph 4, the amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable by WEA to Company in US dollars on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoice; [] Company shall submit all such invoices to WEA electronically pursuant to instructions given by WEA to Company from time to time (and in paper form, to the extent WEA so requests) and to the extent that Company's and WEA's computer systems do not already provide for the electronic submission of all such invoices, Company shall use Company's reasonable efforts to work with WEA starting upon the commencement of the Term to create a system whereby all such invoices can be submitted electronically to WEA.

(b) Audits. WEA shall have the right, at WEA's sole expense, to examine (and/or to appoint representatives to examine) Company's (and Company's affiliates') books and records in order to: (i) verify the correctness of any invoice prepared and rendered by Company in accordance with Paragraph 8(a); (ii) establish the applicability of the provisions contained in Paragraphs 11 and/or 14; or (iii) otherwise establish compliance by Company with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that only independent, third-party auditors (i.e., auditors other than WEA's then-current outside auditor) shall be utilized for the review of Company's books and records. Independent third party auditors shall have access to all information necessary to perform their duties, however nothing in any report provided to WEA or its affiliates by any such independent third party auditors shall impart to WEA or its affiliates any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services. If any such audit reveals that WEA and/or WEA's affiliates have been overcharged, Company shall reimburse WEA in the amount of the overcharge. If any such audit reveals that WEA has been overcharged by an amount exceeding [] for the audit period, Company shall reimburse WEA in the amount of the overcharge plus all fees paid by WEA to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit and any other actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense incurred by WEA in connection with such audit. [] Regardless of the number of audits conducted hereunder revealing the same specific overcharge to WEA, Company shall not be required to repay to WEA the amount of any such overcharge more than once. WEA's audit right shall survive the expiration or termination of the Term for [] Company shall retain all books and records related to the performance of Services hereunder after the expiration or termination of the Term for so long as WEA may need to perform audits hereunder, but in no event for more than [] after the rendition of the invoice with respect to the Services to which such invoice relates; provided, however, that before Company destroys any books or records, Company shall deliver written notice of such intent to destroy to WEA not more than [], and not less than [], before the intended date of destruction. WEA shall have [*] after receipt of such notice to request copies of the books and records to be destroyed, in which case Company shall make copies of such books and records and deliver the same to WEA (but excluding information related to other customers of Company) at WEA's expense (but at Company's expense if such copies are of electronic files). As used herein, "books and records" shall include, without limitation, physical data and data stored in any electronic, magnetic or optical format.

9. Post-Term Procedures. (a) Upon the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall immediately cause the cessation of all Services and shall have no further rights or obligations with respect to Products except as provided herein; provided, however, that upon WEA's request, Company shall fill any then-currently outstanding orders for units of Products pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Within [*] following the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall provide WEA with a list of all units of Products in Company's possession or control on such date. The mere expiration or termination of the Term shall not affect any obligations of WEA to pay for Services rendered by Company prior to such expiration or termination or any other obligation that is expressly provided herein to survive the expiration or termination of the Term.

(b) Within [] following the expiration of the Term or [] following the early termination of the Term, WEA shall remove from the Facilities, or order at WEA's expense the destruction of all units of Products in Company's possession or control. The determination whether to remove or destroy such units of Products shall be made by WEA in WEA's sole discretion.

10. Warranties, Representations, Covenants and Indemnities. (a) Company warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) Company has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by Company shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and

(iii) subject to WEA's rights in the Products and WEA's warranties and representations set forth below, any items prepared by or otherwise furnished by Company in connection with Products and Company's performance of Services hereunder will not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any party.

(b) Company agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold WEA and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 10(b) only, "WEA") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by Company of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; and/or (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with the execution of the work under this Agreement (including as a result of product liability claims) whether such damages or injuries are or are alleged to be based upon Company's active or passive negligence or participation in the wrong or upon any breach of any statutory duty or obligation on the part of Company (except to the extent such damages or injuries directly result from any act of WEA's employees located at Company's facilities and are not otherwise covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule C hereto, or result from a breach of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant of WEA contained herein). The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with Company's written approval. WEA shall give Company prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and Company shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's sole expense. WEA shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of WEA's choice and at WEA's expense.

(c) WEA warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) WEA has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by WEA shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) Material embodied in Products as supplied by WEA shall not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any third party. As used herein "Material" shall include all musical compositions, names, biographical materials and likenesses, photographic, video or motion picture images, sound recordings, intellectual properties, packaging and artwork.

harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by WEA of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with any act of WEA's employees located at Company's facilities, except to the extent such damages and injuries are covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule C hereto; and/or (iii) any products liability claims for manufacturing defects directly related to Products not manufactured by Company, any affiliate of Company or on behalf of Company. The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with WEA's written approval. Company shall give WEA prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and WEA shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of WEA's choice and at WEA's sole expense. Company shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's expense.

11. Breach, Cure and Termination. (a) WEA may terminate the Term by written notice to Company following either: (i) a breach of this Agreement by Company that is specified in Paragraph 11(b); or (ii) any other material breach of this Agreement by Company. [] There shall be a cure period of [] following written notice to Company, for any breach referred to in Paragraph 11(a)(ii).

(b) The breaches of this Agreement referred to in Paragraph 11 (a)(i) are any of the following: [*]

(ix) any willful and malicious breach by Company of any material provision hereof.

(c) In addition, WEA may terminate the Term:

(i) by written notice to Company within [*] following the later of: (A) a Change of Control; and (B) written notice to WEA from Company that a Change of Control has occurred;

(ii) by written notice to Company following an Insolvency Event;

(iii) by written notice to Company following either: (A) the termination of the term of the US Manufacturing Agreement other than as a result of a breach by WEA or the expiration of the term thereunder by passage of time or (B) any material breach by Company under the US Manufacturing Agreement (i.e., a breach which would then-currently permit WEA to terminate the term thereof and with respect to which WEA's right to terminate has not been waived); and

(iv) upon [*] written notice to Company, following the occurrence of a Recorded Music Major Transaction; provided, however, that in no event shall any termination under this clause (iv) be effective prior to the date which is eighteen (18) months from the commencement of the Term.

(d) Any termination of this Agreement under this Paragraph 11 will not relieve Company of liability for breaches hereof arising prior to such termination nor shall it relieve WEA from any liability to pay for Services rendered prior to such termination.

(i) If because of an "act of God", inevitable accident, fire, lockout, strike or other labor dispute, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy or other cause of a similar nature not reasonably within Company's control (a "Force Majeure Event"), Company is materially hampered in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, or its normal business operations are delayed or become impossible or commercially impracticable, then Company shall have the option, by giving WEA written notice, to suspend its obligations under this Agreement affected by such Force Majeure Event, effective upon receipt by WEA of such notice, for the duration of any such contingency. Should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 11(e), such suspension shall not constitute a breach hereunder and Company shall not be subject to price rebates under Paragraph 14 with respect to any occurrences during the pendency of such suspension. Immediately upon Company's assertion of its right to suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WEA shall have the right to distribute Products itself or through third parties during the pendency of such suspension. Further, should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WEA shall, on and. from the date which is [*] months after the occurrence of (which may be earlier than Company's assertion of suspension under) a Force Majeure Event, have the right to terminate the Term of this Agreement by notice in writing to Company unless prior to the date of such termination Company has by notice in writing to WEA ended the suspension of Company's obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, should WEA exercise its right of termination under this Paragraph 11(e), no cure period shall be associated with Company's failure to perform its obligations hereunder.

(ii) In addition, within [*] of becoming aware of any circumstance or event which may reasonably be anticipated to cause or constitute a Force Majeure Event, Company shall notify WEA of such circumstance or event. For the avoidance of doubt, such notice shall not constitute an assertion by Company of its right to suspend its obligations hereunder.

(iii) If for any reason, Company is unable to provide any Services hereunder in connection with any Order(s) for a period exceeding [*] and such inability is reasonably likely to result in Company being unable to meet the Service Level Requirements set forth herein, WEA shall have the right to immediately contract with a third party to provide all or any portion of such services for such period of time as may be reasonably necessary for WEA to obtain the services required to fulfill any such Order(s). Once WEA is reasonably satisfied that Company is again able to provide the required Services, WEA shall return the contracted Services to Company as soon as it is reasonably able to do so, provided, however, that the return of such Services to Company shall be subject to any reasonable commitment WEA has made to the applicable third party that such Services would remain with such third party for a period of time. Company shall reimburse WEA upon demand for any and all incremental out-of-pocket charges that WEA reasonably incurs as a result of transferring its Services under this Paragraph 11(e)(iii).

(f) If WEA purports to terminate this Agreement under this Paragraph 11, each party hereto shall have the right to seek any remedy or other relief available under applicable law (except as limited by Paragraph 15(o)), and each party hereto shall have the right to assert any defenses available under applicable law; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall any party from whom WEA obtains services in substitution for any or all Services to be provided hereunder have any liability whatsoever to Company arising out of or related to any actual or purported termination of this Agreement by WEA, even if in violation of this Agreement and Company shall take no action against any such party in connection with the provision of such services by such party to WEA.

12. Confidentiality. (a) Each of Company and WEA shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Recipient") to, maintain in confidence the material terms of this Agreement, except that WEA may disclose this Agreement on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 15(c) or to third parties and WEA affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph). The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply to information that: (i) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (ii) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (iii) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (iv) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (v) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process; provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (v) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; (vi) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded; or (vii) is required to be disclosed by a party in order to perform its obligations under the Agreement; provided that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who have a need to know such information and who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph 12. No party hereto shall make a press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

(b) Company shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (i) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (ii) relates to the Products (including, without limitation, shipment and return volumes, shipping destinations, pricing information and other terms of sale). WEA shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and their directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (x) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (y) relates to the pricing, methods of distribution or other proprietary information of Company. The restrictions in the two preceding sentences shall not apply to information that: (A) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (B) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (C) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (D) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (E) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process; provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (E) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; or (F) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, WEA and its affiliates shall be permitted to disclose any information on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 16(c) or to third parties and WEA affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph).

(c) The obligations of WEA and Company under Paragraphs 12(a) and 12(b) shall survive for [*] years following the expiration or termination of the Term.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Paragraph 12, the parties hereby agree that, as of the earliest of: (A) the date of the public announcement of discussions relating to the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Transaction"); (B) the date of the public announcement of the Transaction; and (C) the date of the execution of an agreement (with or without conditions) to enter into the Transaction, each party (and each employee, representative or other agent of such party) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the Transaction and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure.

(ii) The parties acknowledge that: (A) (x) the identity of any existing or future party (or any affiliate of such party) to the Transaction; and (y) any specific pricing information or other commercial terms, including the amount of any fees, expenses, rates or payments arising in connection with the Transaction, are not included in the meaning of the terms "tax treatment" and "tax structure" as referred to in clause (i) of this Paragraph 12(d); and (B) nothing in this Agreement shall in any way limit any party's ability to consult any tax advisor (including a tax advisor independent from all other entities involved in the Transaction) regarding the tax treatment or tax structure of the Transaction.

This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements or arrangements between the parties, both written and oral, hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, except that nothing in Paragraph 3 shall limit the obligations of Company under the US Manufacturing Agreement. Any party to this Agreement may: (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party hereto; (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained herein or in any document delivered by the other party pursuant hereto; or (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other party hereto contained herein. Any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party to be bound thereby. Any waiver of any term or condition shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or a subsequent waiver of the same term or condition, or a waiver of any other term or condition, of this Agreement. The failure of either hereto party to assert any of its rights hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any of such rights.

(c) Assignment. Company shall not have the right without WEA's prior written consent (which consent may be granted or withheld in the sole discretion of WEA) to assign this Agreement or any of the rights granted to Company hereunder; provided, however, that Company shall be permitted to assign this Agreement to Parent and any wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. [*]

(f) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each of the parties hereto and their respective permitted assigns.

(g) Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given or made (and shall be deemed to have been duly given or made upon receipt) by delivery in person, by courier service, by telecopy or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested) to the respective parties at the following addresses (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified in a notice given in accordance with this Paragraph 15(g)):

(j) No Agency. WEA and Company each shall have the status of an independent contractor and nothing herein contained shall contemplate or constitute WEA as Company's agent or employee or Company as WEA's agent or employee. This Agreement does not constitute or acknowledge any partnership or joint venture between WEA and Company.

(k) No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except for the provisions of Paragraphs 10(b) and 10(d) relating to indemnified parties, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the parties hereto and their permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other party any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

(l) GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS EXECUTED IN AND TO BE PERFORMED ENTIRELY WITHIN THAT STATE. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. NOTHING IN THIS PARAGRAPH 15(l) SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF EITHER PARTY HERETO TO SERVE LEGAL PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW. THE CONSENTS TO JURISDICTION SET FORTH IN THIS PARAGRAPH 15(l) SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE GENERAL CONSENTS TO SERVICE OF PROCESS IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND SHALL HAVE NO EFFECT FOR ANY PURPOSE EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN THIS PARAGRAPH 15(l) AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONFER RIGHTS ON ANY PARTY OTHER THAN THE PARTIES HERETO.

(m) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH PARTY HERETO: (i) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER; AND (ii) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTY HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS PARAGRAPH 15(m) .

Schedule C

Insurance Coverage

NOTE: The following insurance requirements are intended to provide insurance coverage under this Agreement and each of the other service agreements being entered into between the parties hereto and their affiliates as of the date hereof. Accordingly, to the extent any such other agreements require insurance coverage thereunder that is duplicative of the insurance coverage provided for below, such insurance coverage need not be duplicated under such other agreements.

Property Insurance, Including Extra Expense and Business Interruption: Company at all times and at its own cost and expense shall insure WEA's property as defined and required in this Agreement under so-called "all risk" policies of insurance, including but not limited to coverage for extended perils, earthquake, windstorm, flood, and collapse; open cargo, war risk cargo and terrorism. Company shall purchase an insurance policy that indemnifies WEA for non-physical damage to source material, if available on a commercially reasonable basis and is warranted by the risk profile of the Company. WEA's property shall consist of and not be limited to source material, finished goods and inventory, returned stock, master recordings, digital files, DVDs, CDs and all printing and packaging material.

Either dedicated policies or portfolio (blanket) coverage forms may provide the "all risk" property insurance, providing that the per occurrence limit of insurance available with respect to the WEA property at any Company location for property damage, business interruption, and extra expense shall not be less than [] except, that coverage for California Earthquake shall be no less than [] per occurrence and in aggregate; and Terrorism for WEA Manufacturing Alsdorf shall be no less than [*] per occurrence and in aggregate. Further, the limits of insurance applicable to the extended perils and the perils of earthquake, flood and terrorism shall be an annual aggregate. The deductible on said policies shall be the sole responsibility of Company and be of no greater amount than is commercially reasonable for a company of its financial standing. These policies shall be primary to any policy maintained by or on behalf of WEA. WEA may, at any time, review the amount of insurance required hereunder, and may, from time to time, but in no event more than annually, require a lower or higher amount depending on the best available estimate of the aggregate exposure to loss arising from damage to WEA's property under this Agreement.

The open cargo and war risk cargo insurance policies shall provide per shipment limits of indemnity of no less than [] and contain a warehouse coverage endorsement. In the event that the [] limit of insurance is not adequate to fully insure any given shipment under this Agreement, Company shall purchase additional insurance to cover the full replacement cost of the shipment. The deductible on these policies shall be no greater than what is commercially reasonable for an enterprise with Company's financial standing. The deductible shall be the responsibility of Company and this coverage shall be primary to any coverage maintained by WEA.

All policies shall provide for a reimbursement value with respect to WEA's property at replacement cost for new property of like kind and quality, with no deduction for depreciation, and shall include WEA, its partners, officers, employees, and affiliates as loss payees under the policies as their interest may appear, and shall provide that no act or omission on the part of Company as the title insured shall prejudice a direct claim by the additional insured. All property policies shall include a waiver of subrogation in favor of WEA. Further, Company agrees to secure terms with its insurer that in the event that Company fails to pay premium resulting in a cancellation of coverage that WEA will be given the opportunity to maintain coverage for its insured property under the policy; and Company will reimburse WEA within [*] of notice for the expense incurred.

Public Liability Insurance: Company shall also be required to obtain and maintain comprehensive general liability insurance and a follow-form "umbrella liability" policy, providing insurance against claims for bodily injury, including death, property damage, personal and advertising injury, blanket contractual liability, broad form property damage liability, explosion, collapse and underground hazard, and products and completed operations, for such claims occurring or alleged to have occurred in the course of any operations or activities contemplated by this Agreement, in such amounts as from time to time are carried by prudent owners of comparable operations, but in no event less than [] per occurrence and [] in the annual aggregate, and covering as additional insureds all the WEA individuals and entities for which and to the extent it is responsible under this Agreement.

Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability Insurance:

The Workers' Compensation policy shall include the following coverage:

1.	Coverage A	Statutory
2.	Coverage B	Employers' Liability

Bodily Injury by Accident	[*] each accident
Bodily Injury by Disease	[*] policy limit
Bodily Injury by Disease	[*] each employee

Company shall maintain any other employment related insurance coverage required by any jurisdiction having control over any employees or operations used in connection with this Agreement.

Automobile Liability Insurance: Company shall purchase and maintain automobile liability and follow-form "umbrella liability" insurance for all owned, non-owned and hired vehicles with limits of not less than [*] combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage. This insurance coverage must include all automotive and truck equipment used in the performance of the work under this Agreement, and must include the loading and unloading of same.

Environmental Liability Insurance: In the event Company encounters and must perform or engage a contractor to perform work related to the remediation or abatement of "hazardous material" which includes, without limitation, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous materials, hazardous waste, hazardous or toxic substances, or related materials defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Section 9601, et seq.), the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Action of 1986 (Pub. L. No. 99-499, 100 stat. 1613 (1986)), the Hazardous Material Transportation Act, as amended (49 U.S.C. Section 1801, et seq.) and in the regulations adopted and publications promulgated pursuant thereto, or any other federal, state or local environmental law, ordinance, rule, or regulation (or applicable law in any jurisdiction outside the US), Company, or any contractor performing such work on behalf of Company, shall provide "contractor's pollution liability" insurance, as applicable to the work to be performed, covering claims from third party injury and property damage as a result of pollution conditions emanating from on-site, under the site, or off the site arising out of its operations and completed operations. Completed operations coverage shall remain in effect for no less than []. Minimum liability limits, including excess liability coverage, shall be [] each occurrence and [*] in the aggregate.

The automobile liability insurance must contain provisions for thirty (30) days prior written notice of cancellation, nonrenewal, material change or reduction of insurance sent by certified mail return receipt requested, and waiver of subrogation in favor of WEA, additional insureds and all other such entities, as maybe reasonably requested by WEA.

Provisions Applicable to All Policies of Insurance Required Hereunder: Policies of insurance shall be underwritten by an insurer with an AM Best rating of no less than A- and a financial size class of VII or better (or an equivalent rating from an alternate rating agency), and may be an admitted or non-admitted carrier. Any insurer not meeting these criteria must be approved in writing by WEA's risk management department whose authorization shall not be unreasonably withheld. Satisfactory evidence of insurance shall be provided before the commencement of this Agreement and shall be evidenced at each renewal by a binder and certificate of insurance at least ten (10) days before expiration of coverage and upon request of WEA, on an annual basis or as necessitated by a material change in coverage or legal action. Company shall forward to WEA a copy of all required policy forms upon request. With respect to property located outside the U.S, any loss payable to WEA shall be adjusted and paid in the currency of the United States of America, subject to the rate of exchange published in The Wall Street Journal on the date of the loss. If Company elects to maintain insurance for property located outside the US, where the policy is denominated in a currency other than the US dollar, such policy limits and deductibles shall at all times be sufficient to meet the US dollar denominated requirements set forth on this Schedule C.

Each of WEA and Company agrees to negotiate in good faith to attempt to resolve any disagreement which in any way affects any insurance required to be carried hereunder. In the event that such good faith negotiation does not result in the resolution of any such disagreement within a fifteen (15) day period, the parties shall retain an arbitrator to make a fair and reasonable determination as to any such disagreement (the "Insurance Arbitrator"). The Insurance Arbitrator shall be a retired executive or attorney with substantial experience in the insurance industry, preferably in the field of manufacturing, shall be independent of each of WEA and Company, and shall endeavor to provide a determination of any dispute among the parties within thirty (30) days of being retained, but in each case, as quickly as possible. The parties shall jointly appoint the Insurance Arbitrator and the identity of the Insurance Arbitrator shall be satisfactory to each of the parties. The parties shall share equally in the cost and expense of retaining the Insurance Arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree upon a person to act as the Insurance Arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the fifteen (15) day negotiation period specified in this Paragraph 6, then the Arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in conformance with the rules established by the American Arbitration Association. Any determination made by the Insurance Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of the parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Company shall at all times including during the pendency of any dispute and until such time as such dispute is resolved be required to continue to procure insurance policies at its sole expense in full force and effect as required in this Agreement and as specified herein.

US MANUFACTURING AND PACKAGING AGREEMENT

and

CINRAM MANUFACTURING, INC. ("Company")

Dated as of October 24, 2003

Capitalized terms not defined where they appear in the text are defined in Paragraph 14.

1. Appointment. (a)

(i) WEA hereby appoints Company to render, and Company shall render, M&P Services for one hundred percent (100%) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph 1(a)(i), from and after the effective date of a Recorded Music Major Transaction (the "RMMT Effective Date"), the appointment of Company hereunder shall instead be to render, and Company shall render, M&P Services for at least the Specified Percentage (and, at WEA's election, more than the Specified Percentage) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof. WEA shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that the Combined Entity's ordering of units of Products and Components hereunder (i.e., mix of New Releases and Catalog Titles and special packaging orders) following the RMMT Effective Date remains generally consistent with WEA's ordering of units of Products and Components hereunder prior to the RMMT Effective Date. The "Specified Percentage" equals the fraction, expressed as a percentage: (A) the numerator of which shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Products manufactured and packaged by Company for WEA under this Agreement (and/or by WEA on its own behalf, if applicable) during the twelve (12) complete calendar months immediately preceding the RMMT Effective Date (the "WEA Output"); and (B) the denominator of which shall be the WEA Output plus one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Records, in any Optical Disc format, manufactured and packaged for sale in the Territory by or for the recorded music business of the applicable Major during the same twelve (12)-month period. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the WEA Output no units manufactured or packaged by the Company (and/or WEA, if applicable) for WHV or its affiliates shall be included.

(b) Reservation of Rights. WEA hereby reserves all rights in and to Products not otherwise expressly granted to Company herein.

(c) Reports. Company shall prepare for WEA all of the same production, shipments and inventory reports in the same format and detail that WEA's systems provided as of the date of this Agreement (it being understood that Company shall not be required to prepare for WEA any reports that would require Company to incur additional out-of-pocket expenses in order to provide them, unless WEA agrees to pay any such actual out-of-pocket expenses) and shall supply WEA with such reports on at least a monthly basis during the Term. If Company provides more detailed reports to any other party during the Term, Company shall, at WEA's request, provide such more detailed reports to WEA hereunder as of the date that Company commences providing such more detailed reports to such other party by subject to the same terms and conditions under which such reports are provided to such other party (e.g., any additional fees or amounts charged to such party for such more detailed reports). Nothing in such reports shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company.

2. Title. Title to units of Components and Products manufactured and packaged hereunder (including all copyrights and trademarks contained therein) shall remain in WEA or WEA's affiliates. Company acknowledges that Products (including all intellectual property contained therein and relating thereto) are protected under copyright laws and that WEA is the rightful owner or license holder of such copyrights. Company acknowledges that any removal of any such materials from Company's approved facilities without WEA's written approval, and any distribution of any such materials in the Territory without WEA's written approval, is an infringement of WEA's copyright. Company shall bear the risk of loss for units of Products in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit from Company or its designees to any Facility; provided, however, that WEA shall bear the risk of loss for any units of Products in transit for which WEA is responsible for paying the shipping.

3. Services. (a) Level of Services. [*] In addition, the Services:

(i) shall be rendered on a so-called "label-blind" basis;

(ii) shall be rendered in at least the same general manner, subject to at least the same general standards and in at least the same general quality as provided by Company to all other parties whose Records are manufactured and/or packaged by Company in the Territory [*].

[*]. This Paragraph 3(a)(ii) shall not require that Company provide WEA with the automated services provided in Company's Huntsville Facility or otherwise require Company to provide any new services to WEA if the cost of providing such services would be similarly unreasonably burdensome to Company; provided, however, that nothing in this sentence shall limit Company's obligations set forth in Paragraph 6;

(iii) shall be rendered in at least the same manner, subject to at least the same standards and in at least the same quality as was provided to WEA's affiliates at the Acquired Facilities for the products of WEA's affiliates immediately prior to the commencement of the Term;

(iv) shall be rendered in accordance with "first-class" standards that meet the highest quality available in the industry;

(v) shall be rendered in accordance with, or exceed, each of the service level requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto being the "Service Level Requirements"); and

(vi) shall, to the extent rendered for production of Products in CD or DVD format, be rendered in accordance with the technical specifications set forth on Schedule B hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule B hereto being the "Technical Specifications").

Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the standards set forth in clauses (ii) and (iv) above are not being met as of the commencement of the Term, Company shall have a period of ninety (90) days from the commencement of the Term in which to meet such standards.

(b) Copy Protection and Digital Rights Management. WEA may from time to time require the integration of copy protection and digital rights management technology into certain Products. Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that it is equipped to provide such technology and shall obtain necessary licenses from the supplier therefor. WEA shall, unless otherwise agreed, be responsible for the copy protection or digital rights management technology license fees and the cost of any packaging adaptation necessary to provide notification of the use of such technology as may be required by the applicable law in the country of sale, and (except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Paragraph 3(b)) all other costs relating to copy protection and digital rights management shall be borne by Company. Company shall report units manufactured and technologies used to WEA on a monthly basis to facilitate the administration of the copy protection and digital rights management license fees. Company shall assist WEA in assessing and testing new copy protection and digital rights management technologies, and on [] notice will make provision for new copy protection and digital rights management technologies to be implemented, but only so long as such new technologies are available to Company for use. To the extent that the actual, documented, out-of-pocket, non-overhead cost to Company for the assessment, testing and implementation of such new copy protection and digital rights management technologies exceeds [] in the aggregate in respect of any Contract Year, then WEA shall reimburse Company for any such excess (but solely to the extent that WEA requested that Company assess, test or implement such new technology). To the extent that any other parties serviced by Company actually utilize any such new copy protection and digital rights management technology, WEA's obligation to reimburse Company for any such excess shall be reduced pro rata based on the total number of Company's customers utilizing the new copy protection and digital rights management technology. If WEA has already reimbursed Company pursuant to the preceding sentence and subsequently is entitled to a pro rata reduction as provided herein, Company shall refund such amount within thirty (30) days of the date such other party begins utilizing such new copy protection and digital rights management technology.

(c) Fees. M&P Services shall be furnished at the prices set forth on Schedules C and H hereto and as set forth in this Paragraph 3(c), as they may be modified from time to time by operation of Paragraphs 12 and 15 (the "Fees"). [*].

(d) Subcontracting. Company may subcontract a portion of its obligations under this Agreement to any one or more of the subcontractors on Schedule D hereto (each an "Approved Subcontractor"). Company may subcontract to a subcontractor that is not an Approved Subcontractor only with the prior consent of WEA. Any such subcontracting by Company shall not relieve Company of its obligations hereunder. Orders hereunder shall not be subcontracted to a greater degree than any other orders. In addition, Company shall ensure that any subcontractors comply with all obligations of Company hereunder. WEA may from time to time designate organizations as prohibited subcontractors under this Agreement if WEA reasonably believes such organizations would not be likely to be able to adhere to the provisions of this Agreement.

(e) Compliance with Law: Code of Conduct. Company shall comply (i) with all laws and regulations in connection with Company's undertakings under this Agreement, except where the failure to do so individually or in the aggregate is immaterial; and (ii) subject to relevant local laws including privacy laws, with the code of conduct attached as Schedule E hereto.

(f) Delivery of Source Materials. WEA shall, at WEA's sole expense, deliver to Company (or to such suppliers as Company may designate) all Source Materials. WEA shall retain title to all Source Materials supplied to Company or its designees, including all digital files derived from such Source Materials. Company shall maintain systems at no charge to WEA so as to be able to receive Source Materials in digital form and online, which shall include metadata and digital proofs.

(g) Ordering.

(i) It shall be WEA's responsibility to determine its production requirements and to order units of Components and Products. All Orders for units of Components and Products shall be evidenced by a written purchase order. Orders must include all information necessary to properly identify the Components and Products to be manufactured and packaged, including artist, title, catalog number and quantity. Company shall use the entire UPC or EAN codes to identify all Components and Products.

(ii) Prior to manufacture, and Order must be Workable. Company shall deliver finished goods units of Components and Products to WEA's designated locations within the applicable time periods set forth on Schedule A hereto. All of the time periods set forth on Schedule A hereto are referred to as the applicable Turnaround Times for the manufacture of Components and for units of Products in each configuration, respectively, and are measured from the time the Order is Workable.

(iii) At the times that WEA submits Orders, to the extent that an Order is for multiple selections, WEA shall have the right to determine the priority in which the Orders should be filled (that is, it shall have the right to determine and designate which part of the Order is to be delivered within the shorter of the applicable Turnaround Times and which part of the Order is to be delivered within the longer of the applicable Turnaround Times).

(iv) For each item (i.e., a particular Product) in an Order, there shall be an allowable fulfillment deviation as set forth below:

Order Size in Units	Deviation for Catalog Titles	Deviation for New Releases
0-10,000	[]	[]
10,001-50,000	[]	[]
50,001-300,000	[]	[]
300,001 and up	[]	[]

Orders filled within such deviation shall be deemed to be satisfied, and WEA shall pay Company on the actual number of units delivered at the rate(s) charged by Company pursuant to the original Order to which such deviation relates.

(h) Quarterly Meetings. At least once every calendar quarter, WEA may meet with Company's Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) and Chief Financial Officer (or equivalent) to assess Company's performance under this Agreement and its ongoing ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(i) Shipping Costs. Company shall bear the cost and expense of shipping of any and all units of Products, Components or other materials manufactured hereunder from the point of manufacture to: (i) any distribution or warehouse Facility; and (ii) from any distribution or warehouse Facility to any other distribution or warehouse Facility, so long as such movement described in (ii) above is at the direction of Company in its own discretion. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, WEA shall be responsible for the cost and expense of all other shipments hereunder. To the extent that any shipping costs hereunder are to be borne by WEA but are actually paid by Company, WEA shall only be required to pay Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs charged by such shipping agent for the shipment of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder, and such costs shall be reimbursed to Company by WEA within [*] business days following Company's rendition of such invoice to WEA (but in no event shall WEA be required to make any such payment of such invoice prior to Company's payment of such invoice to such shipping agent). If WEA is responsible for shipping expenses, should WEA so elect, WEA shall have the right to: (i) select the shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for shipping of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder (and, in doing so, assume the risk of loss for such units of Products in transit); or (ii) in lieu of selecting such shipping agent(s), require that Company submit to WEA any proposed shipping agent(s) which Company wishes to utilize hereunder for WEA's prior written approval. If, in a particular instance, WEA is not responsible for shipping expenses or WEA does not exercise its rights pursuant to the preceding sentence, Company shall utilize the same shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for the shipping of a majority of the other products shipped by or on behalf of Company.

(j) No Unauthorized Manufacture. Company acknowledges that WEA may suffer substantial damages as a result of the unauthorized manufacture of Components or Products. Therefore, Company agrees that: (i) Company shall produce only those quantities of units of Components and Products as are specified in a written Order issued by WEA and subject to the terms set forth herein; (ii) Company shall deliver the units of Components and Products specified in each Order only to the recipient and location designated by WEA in such order; and (iii) upon WEA's request from time to time, Company shall deliver to WEA separate written confirmation of each manufacturing run made of each Product and Component pursuant to each Order, including the date of the manufacturing run and the number of units produced during the run.

(k) Additional Services. At WEA's reasonable request, Company shall provide WEA with manufacturing and packaging services for "point of sale," promotional and merchandising materials to be utilized in connection with Products. Such services shall be provided by Company to WEA on a non-exclusive basis only (and only to the extent that WEA so requests any such services) and, to the extent so requested, shall be provided to WEA [*]. Notwithstanding this Paragraph 3(k), Company shall only be required to provide such services if either WEA (either itself or through any of its affiliates) provided such services on its own behalf prior to the commencement of the Term or if Company then-currently provides such services to any party (in which case, if WEA requests such services and Company is not contractually prohibited from providing such services to WEA, they shall be provided to WEA on the same terms and conditions as are provided to such other party).

4. Company's Financial Obligations. WEA shall not be responsible for payment of any of Company's (or Company's affiliates') indirect or general overhead charges or the salaries of Company's (or Company's affiliates') employees or agents. All costs associated with the rendering of Services shall be borne by Company. Such costs to be borne by Company include any patent royalties or other similar royalties or license fees payable in connection with the manufacture of products and Components (subject to the provisions of Paragraph 3(c)(i)), which costs, for the avoidance of doubt, exclude mechanical royalties, record royalties and copy protection and digital rights management (i.e., DRM) technology license fees.

5. Other Obligations. (a) Storage of Source Materials, Components and Finished Units of Products. Company shall accept and store all Source Materials and Inventory delivered to or otherwise held by Company hereunder at no charge; provided, however, that with respect to any particular Product, Company shall not be required to store more Source Materials or Inventory than is necessary to satisfy the next [] demand (such determination as to what constitutes [] demand shall be made jointly be WEA and Company based, where possible, upon actual, gross units ordered during the prior [] and shall be made for all Source Materials and Inventory no more frequently than semi-annually during the Term commencing no sooner than [] after the commencement of the Term). With respect to Source Materials and Inventory so determined to be in excess of a [] demand therefor, Company shall notify WEA of the specific Source Materials and/or Inventory constituting such excess and within [] following WEA's receipt of such notice, WEA shall (in WEA's sole discretion) either: (i) remove such excess Source Materials and/or Inventory (at WEA's expense); (ii) direct Company to destroy such excess Source Materials and/or Inventory (at WEA's expense); or (iii) direct Company to store such excess either (x) at a Facility at a cost to WEA of [] or (y) offsite at Company's or Company's affiliates' leased facility approved in advance, in writing by WEA and the actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense charged by such facility to Company for such storage shall be reimbursed to Company by WEA. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 5(a) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable sixty (60) days from the date of the rendition of such invoice; []. All Source Materials and all Inventory shall be WEA's property and shall be kept segregated from any other property. Upon receipt of a written request from WEA, Company shall return to WEA, at WEA's cost, any materials supplied by WEA which have not been utilized in the manufacture or packaging of units of Components or Products or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement and which are then in Company's possession or control. The risk of loss, due to any reason, of Source Materials or Inventory in Company's possession or control shall be borne by Company, as further described herein; provided, however, that to the extent any such loss was directly caused by a WEA Employee, Company shall not bear the risk of loss, except to the extent such loss is or would have been covered by Company's property insurance as required under this Agreement and as set forth on Schedule F hereto. WEA shall own all manufacturing parts (for Components and Products) and all derivatives and/or duplicates thereof fabricated in connection with the production process, including all Components, photographic films and color keys, if any, duplicate audio tapes (analog or digital), glass Masters and running Masters and all digital files derived from any of the foregoing. Company shall not destroy any of the Source Materials, Inventory or elements derived therefrom without prior written authorization from WEA; provided, however, that Company may destroy certain such derived elements (i.e., glass Masters and metal parts) to the extent that such elements are generally destroyed by Company in the ordinary course of production. Company shall also, at Company's cost, maintain, protect and backup any and all Source Materials and derivatives in an organized environment to allow for easy access by both Company and WEA.

(b) Insurance. During the Term, Company shall: (i) comply with all provisions set forth on Schedule F hereto; and (ii) at Company's sole cost and expense, maintain adequate insurance coverage for: (A) all Source Materials and Inventory while such items are in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit to or from Company or its designees to any Facility; and (B) the other matters set forth on Schedule F hereto. The insurance required under this Paragraph 5(b) is not intended to limit Company's liability as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(c) Computer Access. In order that WEA be able to monitor daily shipments, receipt, production and inventory activity in connection with Components and Products, Company shall give WEA access to Company's computer system for the purpose of providing WEA with real-time information stored therein relating to Components and Products at Company's expense (but no access shall be allowed to information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company). Such system shall provide WEA with all of the same types of reports and information currently provided by, and as may be available from, Company's computer systems in connection with other products and components manufactured and/or packaged by Company. In connection therewith, Company shall work with WEA to ensure that WEA is provided with at least the same level of reports and information that WEA's own systems provided as of the commencement of the Term. Nothing such reports or information provided shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company. Such access shall be available to WEA [] at all times during the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Company may perform system maintenance and upgrades during which such systems may not be available; provided, however, that such downtime does not exceed [].

(d) Inspection. Subject to the provisions set forth below, during the Term and for a period of [] following the expiration or termination of the Term, WEA shall have the right to inspect each WEA Facility and any other facility utilized by Company in connection with Components or Products or the provision of Services hereunder, during regular business hours (utilizing either WEA's own employees, third party advisers or representatives, insurers, or other experts retained by WEA). WEA may conduct such inspections of each WEA Facility or other facility up to []. During any such inspection, WEA may conduct physical inventories of units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control. WEA shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products, or any personal data possessed by Company, during the inspections permitted under this Paragraph 5(d).

(e) Security. Company shall maintain security standards that are at least equivalent to those provided by other "first-class" manufacturers and packagers in the Territory, both in the segregated area of the WEA Facilities for property of WEA and throughout the WEA Facilities, and shall at all times employ the utmost care and diligence to prevent loss, damage, theft, disappearance, unauthorized destruction or usage of such property of WEA. Company's security procedures shall be subject to WEA's prior written approval. Company shall maintain such procedures as approved by WEA and as may reasonably be given to Company from time to time throughout the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company's security measures (which shall include closed-circuit television monitoring, pass-protected access, employee checking and spot searching, etc.) shall be sufficient to ensure that all Source Materials and Inventory and the intellectual property embodied in such Source Materials and Inventory are in no way compromised, stolen, "leaked" to the public (e.g., copying of recordings embodied on Products which may lead to the availability of such recordings to the public via the Internet or similar means) or otherwise made available to any unauthorized parties; provided, however, that for a period of [] from the commencement of the Term, such security measures need be no more stringent than those currently in place at the Acquired Facilities. Upon discovery of: (i) loss, damage, theft, disappearance, or destruction of Source Materials or Inventory exceeding []; or (ii) any unauthorized usage of Source Materials or Inventory, Company shall notify WEA as soon as reasonably possible, and in any event within [*] following such discovery, and shall include in such notification sufficient detail to allow WEA to investigate such incident (each, a "Security Breach Notice"). Regardless of Company's compliance with all security measures set forth herein or with procedures approved by WEA, Company shall be liable as provided herein for the loss, damage, theft, disappearance, destruction or unauthorized usage of any property of WEA.

(f) Salvage. At all times and regardless of whether Company or its insurers are required to compensate WEA for loss as required under this Agreement, WEA shall retain the sole right to salvage for damaged Inventory. Company shall not surrender damaged Inventory to insurers or any other party for destruction or disposal without obtaining WEA's prior written consent.

(g) WEA Employees. Company shall throughout the Term, at the request of WEA, provide up to a maximum of [] full-time employees of WEA or its affiliates (the "WEA Employees") with, at Company's expense: (i) reasonable office accommodations at such WEA Facilities utilized for manufacturing and/or packaging as may be specified from time to time by WEA; (ii) individual computers; (iii) copy services and any other similar office services in order to permit them to carry out their functions; and (iv) all other reasonable support functions as provided to them as of the date of this Agreement. Company shall also provide telephone, Internet and fax access for each WEA Employee, and WEA shall reimburse Company for Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs therefor. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 5(g) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice; [*]. WEA shall be responsible for the direction of, and all compensation and related obligations for, the WEA Employees. The WEA Employees shall operate in accordance with WEA's code of conduct and Company's standard code of conduct contained in its employee policy manual at the applicable WEA Facility (which code of conduct shall be subject to WEA's reasonable approval) and all other lawful policies adopted by Company from time to time governing the conduct of all of its employees and contractors. In the performance of their tasks, the WEA Employees shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company.

6. Technology. Throughout the Term, Company shall reasonably update its manufacturing and packaging lines at the WEA Facilities at Company's cost to keep up with new technology requirements and to maintain at least the same level of technology utilized by other "first-class" manufacturers and packagers of Records in the Territory, including machinery and equipment that is reasonably available to provide automated assembly of packaging, inclusion of inserts and application of stickers, shrinkwrap and security materials. Company shall maintain and update its information and technology capabilities at the WEA Facilities, at Company's cost, to meet reasonable WEA requirements and maintain competitive services for WEA and its customers. [*]

7. Invoices and Payments. (a) Rendition of Invoices. During the Term, Company shall prepare and render invoices to WEA with respect to each shipment of units of Components and Products Ordered hereunder. Except with respect to shipping charges to be borne by WEA as provided in Paragraph 3(i), the amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable by WEA to Company in US dollars on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoice; []. Such invoices shall contain "per SKU" line item detail with special handling or other miscellaneous charges indicated separately in the form and manner consistent with Company's general form of invoice. The aforementioned invoices shall be denominated in US dollars. Company shall submit all such invoices to WEA electronically pursuant to reasonable instructions given by WEA to Company from time to time (and in paper form, to the extent WEA so requests) and to the extent that Company's and WEA's computer systems do not already provide for the electronic submission of all such invoices, Company shall use Company's reasonable efforts to work with WEA starting upon the commencement of the Term to create a system whereby all such invoices can be submitted electronically to WEA. For the avoidance of doubt, WEA shall only be liable for payments hereunder if WEA (or WEA's designee) has received the shipment of the relevant finished units of Components and Products reflected in such invoice.

(b) Audits. WEA shall have the right, at WEA's sole expense, to examine (and/or to appoint representatives to examine) Company's (and Company's affiliates') books and records in order to: (i) verify the correctness of any invoice prepared and rendered by Company in accordance with Paragraph 7(a); (ii) establish the applicability of the provisions contained in Paragraphs 10, 12 and/or 15; or (iii) otherwise establish compliance by Company with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that only independent, third party auditors (i.e., auditors other than WEA's then-current outside auditor) shall be utilized for the review of Company's books and records. Independent third party auditors shall have access to all information necessary to perform their duties, however nothing in any report provided by WEA or its affiliates by any such independent third party auditors shall impart to WEA or its affiliates any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services. If any such audit reveals that WEA and/or WEA's affiliates have been overcharged, Company shall reimburse WEA in the amount of the overcharge. If any such audit reveals that WEA has been overcharged by an amount exceeding [] for the audit period, Company shall reimburse WEA in the amount of the overcharge plus all fees paid by WEA to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit and any other actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense incurred by WEA in connection with such audit. []. Regardless of the number of audits conducted hereunder revealing the same specific overcharge to WEA, Company shall not be required to repay to WEA the amount of any such overcharge more than once. WEA's audit right shall survive the expiration or termination of the Term for []. Company shall retain all books and records related to the performance of Services hereunder after the expiration or termination of the Term for so long as WEA may need to perform audits hereunder, but in no event for more than [] after the rendition of the invoice with respect to the Services to which such invoice relates; provided, however, that before Company destroys any books or records, Company shall deliver written notice of such intent to destroy to WEA [] before the intended date of destruction. WEA shall have [] after receipt of such notice to request copies of the books and records to be destroyed, in which case Company shall make copies of such books and records and deliver the same to WEA (but excluding information related to other customers of Company) at WEA's expense (but at Company's expense if such copies are of electronic files). As used herein, "books and records" shall include, without limitation, physical data stored in any electronic, magnetic or optical format.

8. Post-Term Procedures. (a) Upon the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall immediately cause the cessation of all Services and shall have no further rights or obligations with respect to Products except as provided herein; provided, however, that upon WEA's request, Company shall fill any then-currently outstanding orders for units of Components and Products pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Within [*] following the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall provide WEA with a list of all Source Materials and units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control on such date. The mere expiration or termination of the Term shall not affect any obligation of WEA to pay for Services rendered by Company prior to such expiration or termination or any other obligation that is expressly provided herein to survive the expiration or termination of the Term.

(b) Within [] following the expiration of the Term or [] following the early termination of the Term, WEA shall remove from the Facilities, at WEA's expense, or order at WEA's expense the destruction of: (i) all units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control; and (ii) all Source Materials in Company's possession or control. The determination whether to remove or destroy such items shall be made by WEA in WEA's sole discretion.

9. Warranties, Representations, Covenants and Indemnities. (a) Company warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) Company has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by Company shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) subject to WEA's rights in the Products and Components and WEA's warranties and representations set forth below, any items prepared by or otherwise furnished by Company in connection with Components or Products and Company's performance of Services hereunder will not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any party.

(b) Company agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold WEA and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 9(b) only, "WEA") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by Company of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; and/or (ii) any and all damages injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with the execution of the work under this Agreement (including as a result of any products liability claims), whether such damages or injuries are or are alleged to be based upon Company's active or passive negligence or participation in the wrong or upon any breach of any statutory duty or obligation on the part of Company (except to the extent such damages or injuries directly result from any act of WEA's employees located at Company's facilities and are not otherwise covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule F hereto, or result from a breach of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant of WEA contained herein). The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with Company's written approval. WEA shall give Company prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and Company shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's sole expense. WEA shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of WEA's choice and at WEA's expense.

(c) WEA warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) WEA has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by WEA shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) Material embodied in Products and Components as supplied by WEA shall not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any third party. As used herein "Material" shall include all musical compositions, names, biographical materials and likenesses, photographic, video or motion picture images, sound recordings, intellectual properties, packaging and artwork.

(d) WEA agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold Company and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 9(d) only, "Company") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by WEA of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; and/or (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with any act of WEA's employees located at Company's facilities, except to the extent such damages and injuries are covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule F hereto. The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with WEA's written approval. Company shall give WEA prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and WEA shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of WEA's choice and at WEA's sole expense. Company shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's expense.

10. Breach, Cure and Termination. (a) WEA may terminate the Term by written notice to Company following either: (i) a breach of this Agreement by Company that is specified in Paragraph 10(b); or (ii) any other material breach of this Agreement by Company. [] There is no cure period associated with any breach referred to in Paragraph 10(a)(i). There shall be a cure period of [] days, following written notice to Company, for any breach referred to in Paragraph 10(a)(ii).

(b) The breaches of this Agreement referred to in Paragraph 10(a)(i) are any of the following:

(viii) any willful and malicious breach by Company of any material provision hereof.

(c) In addition, WEA may terminate the Term:

(i) by written notice to Company within [*] following the later of: (A) a Change of Control; and (B) written notice to WEA from Company that a Change of Control has occurred;

(ii) by written notice to Company following an Insolvency Event; and

(iii) by written notice to Company following either: (A) the termination of the term of the US PP&S Agreement, other than (x) as a result of a breach by WEA or the expiration of the term thereunder by passage of time or (y) the termination of the term of the US PP&S Agreement under Paragraph 11(c)(iv) thereof; or (B) any material breach by Company under the US PP&S Agreement (i.e., a breach which would then-currently permit WEA to terminate the term thereof and with respect to which WEA's right to terminate has not been waived).

(d) Any termination of this Agreement under this Paragraph 10 will not relieve Company of liability for breaches hereof arising prior to such termination nor shall it relieve WEA from any liability to pay for Services rendered prior to such termination.

(i) If because of an "act of God", inevitable accident, fire, lockout, strike or other labor dispute, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy or other cause of a similar nature not reasonably within Company's control (a "Force Majeure Event"), Company is materially hampered in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, or its normal business operations are delayed or become impossible or commercially impracticable, then Company shall have the option, by giving WEA written notice, to suspend its obligations under this Agreement affected by such Force Majeure Event, effective upon receipt by WEA of such notice, for the duration of any such contingency. Should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(e), such suspension shall not constitute a breach hereunder and Company shall not be subject to price rebates under Paragraph 15 with respect to any occurrences during the pendency of such suspension. Immediately upon Company's assertion of its right to suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WEA shall have the right to manufacture and/or package Products itself or through third parties during the pendency of such suspension. Further, should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WEA shall, on and from the date which is [*] after the occurrence of (which may be earlier than Company's assertion of suspension under) a Force Majeure Event, have the right to terminate the Term of this Agreement by notice in writing to Company unless prior to the date of such termination Company has by notice in writing to WEA ended the suspension of Company's obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, should WEA exercise its right of termination under this Paragraph 10(e), no cure period shall be associated with Company's failure to perform its obligations hereunder. No liability or obligation of Company under any provision hereof, other than those directly affected by a Force Majeure Event, shall be in any way limited or forgiven as a result of any Force Majeure Event.

(ii) In addition, within [*] of becoming aware of any circumstance or event which may reasonably be anticipated to cause or constitute a Force Majeure Event, Company shall notify WEA of such circumstance or event. For the avoidance of doubt, such notice shall not constitute an assertion by Company of its right to suspend its obligations hereunder.

(iii) If for any reason, Company is unable to provide any Services hereunder in connection with any Order(s) for a period exceeding [*] and such inability is reasonably likely to result in Company being unable to meet the Service Level Requirements set forth herein,

WEA shall have the right to immediately contract with a third party to provide all or any portion of such services for such period of time as may be reasonably necessary for WEA to obtain the services required to fulfill any such Order(s). Once WEA is reasonably satisfied that Company is again able to provide the required Services, WEA shall return the contracted Services to Company as soon as it is reasonably able to do so; provided, however, that the return of such Services to Company shall be subject to any reasonable commitment WEA has made to the applicable third party that such Services would remain with such third party for a period of time. Company shall reimburse WEA upon demand for any and all incremental out-of-pocket charges that WEA reasonably incurs as a result of transferring its Services under this Paragraph 10(e)(iii).

(f) If WEA purports to terminate this Agreement under this Paragraph 10, each party hereto shall have the right to seek any remedy or other relief available under applicable law (except as limited by Paragraph 16(n)), and each party hereto shall have the right to assert any defenses available under applicable law; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall any party from whom WEA obtains services in substitution for any or all Services to be provided hereunder have any liability whatsoever to Company arising out of or related to any actual or purported termination of this Agreement by WEA, even if in violation of this Agreement and Company shall take no action against any such party in connection with the provision of such services by such party to WEA.

11. Anti-Piracy Activities. Company (and WEA, to the extent applicable to a content provider) shall at all times use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with industry standard procedures associated with anti-piracy activities including: (i) the IRMA anti-piracy compliance program; (ii) the IFPI anti-piracy compliance program; and (iii) all other measures and procedures described in the RIAA Draft CD Plant Good Business Practices set forth therein.

12. Adjustments. [*]

(d) [*]

(g) Each of WEA and Company agrees to negotiate in good faith to attempt to resolve any disagreement which may arise in connection with the implementation or interpretation of the terms and provisions of this Paragraph 12. In the event that such good faith negotiation does not result in the resolution of any such disagreement within a fifteen (15)-day period, the parties shall retain an arbitrator to make a fair and reasonable determination as to any such disagreement (the "Arbitrator"). The Arbitrator shall be a retired executive or attorney with substantial experience in the field of manufacturing, preferably in the manufacturing of Optical Discs, shall be independent of each of WEA and Company, and shall endeavor to provide a determination of any dispute among the parties within thirty (30) days of being retained, but in each case, as quickly as possible. The parties shall jointly appoint the Arbitrator and the identity of the Arbitrator shall be satisfactory to each of the parties. The parties shall share equally in the cost and expense of retaining the Arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree upon a person to act as the Arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the fifteen (15)-day negotiation period specified in this Paragraph 12(g), then the Arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in conformance with the rules established by the American Arbitration Association. Any determination made by the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of the parties.

13. Confidentiality. (a) Each of Company and WEA shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Recipient") to, maintain in confidence the material terms of this Agreement, except that WEA may disclose this Agreement on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 16(c) or to third parties and WEA affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph). The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply to information that: (i) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (ii) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (iii) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (iv) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (v) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (v) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; (vi) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded; or (vii) is required to be disclosed by a party in order to perform its obligations under the Agreement; provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who have a need to know such information and who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph 13. No party hereto shall make a press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

(b) Company shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its' affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (i) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (ii) relates to the Products. WEA shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its' affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (x) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (y) relates to the pricing, methods of manufacture or other proprietary information of Company. The restrictions in the two preceding sentences shall not apply to information that: (A) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (B) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (C) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (D) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (E) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (E) shall notify the other party at least five

(5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; or (F) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, WEA and its affiliates shall be permitted to disclose any information on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 16(c) or to third parties and WEA affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph).

(c) The obligations of WEA and Company under Paragraphs 13(a) and 13(b) shall survive for [*] following the expiration or termination of the Term.

to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the Transaction and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure.

(ii) The parties acknowledge that: (A)(x) the identity of any existing or future party (or any affiliate of such party) to the Transaction; and (y) any specific pricing information or other commercial terms, including the amount of any fees, expenses, rates or payments arising in connection with the Transaction, are not included in the meaning of the terms "tax treatment" and "tax structure" as referred to in clause (i) of this Paragraph 13(d); and (B) nothing in this Agreement shall in any way limit any party's ability to consult any tax advisor (including a tax advisor independent from all other entities involved in this Transaction) regarding the tax treatment or tax structure of the Transaction.

6. Company recognizes that wages are essential to meeting employees' basic needs. Company shall comply, at a minimum, with all applicable wage and hour laws, including minimum wage, overtime, maximum hours, piece rates and other elements of compensation, and shall provide legally mandated benefits. If local laws do not provide for overtime pay, Company shall pay at least regular wages for overtime work. Schedule F

NOTE: The following insurance requirements are intended to provide insurance coverage under this Agreement and each of the other service agreements being entered into between the parties hereto and their affiliates as of the date hereof. Accordingly, to the extent any such other agreements require insurance coverage thereunder that is duplicative of the insurance coverage provided for below, such insurance coverage need not be duplicated under such other agreements.

1. Property Insurance, Including Extra Expense and Business Interruption: Company at all times and at its own cost and expense shall insure WEA's property as defined and required in this Agreement under so-called "all risk" policies of insurance, including but not limited to coverage for extended perils, earthquake, windstorm, flood, and collapse; open cargo, war risk cargo and terrorism. Company shall purchase an insurance policy that indemnifies WEA for non-physical damage to source material, if available on a commercially reasonable basis and is warranted by the risk profile of the Company. WEA's property shall consist of and not be limited to source material, finished goods and inventory, returned stock, master recordings, digital files, DVDs, CDs and all printing and packaging material.

Either dedicated policies or portfolio (blanket) coverage forms may provide the "all risk" property insurance, providing that the per occurrence limit of insurance available with respect to the WEA property at any Company location for property damage, business interruption, and extra expense shall not be less than [] except, that coverage for California Earthquake shall be no less than [] per occurrence and in aggregate; and Terrorism for WEA Manufacturing Alsdorf shall be no less than [*] per occurrence and in aggregate. Further, the limits of insurance applicable to the extended perils and the perils of earthquake, flood and terrorism shall be an annual aggregate. The deductible on said policies shall be the sole responsibility of Company and be of no greater amount than is commercially reasonable for a company of its financial standing. These policies shall be primary to any policy maintained by or on behalf of WEA. WEA may, at any time, review the amount of insurance required hereunder, and may, from time to time, but in no event more than annually, require a lower or higher amount depending on the best available estimate of the aggregate exposure to loss arising from damage to WEA's property under this Agreement.

The open cargo and war risk cargo insurance policies shall provide per shipment limits of indemnity of no less than [] and contain a warehouse coverage endorsement. In the event that the [] limit of insurance is not adequate to fully insure any given shipment under this Agreement, Company shall purchase additional insurance to cover the full replacement cost of the shipment. The deductible on these policies shall be no greater than what is commercially reasonable for an enterprise with Company's financial standing. The deductible shall be the responsibility of Company and this coverage shall be primary to any coverage maintained by WEA.

All policies shall provide for a reimbursement value with respect to WEA's property at replacement cost for new property of like kind and quality, with no deduction for depreciation, and shall include WEA, its partners, officers, employees, and affiliates as loss payees under the policies as their interest may appear, and shall provide that no act or omission on the part of Company as the title insured shall prejudice a direct claim by the additional insured. All property policies shall include a waiver of subrogation in favor of WEA. Further, Company agrees to secure terms with its insurer that in the event that Company fails to pay premium resulting in a cancellation of coverage that WEA will be given the opportunity to maintain coverage for its insured property under the policy; and Company will reimburse WEA within [*] of notice for the expense incurred.

2. Capitalized terms not defined where they appear in the text are defined in Paragraph 13.

1. Appointment. (a)

(i) WMI hereby appoints Company to render, and Company shall render, PP&S Services for one hundred percent (100%) of Products for direct shipment to retail customers in the Exclusive Territory in accordance with the terms hereof. Additionally, Company shall have non-exclusive rights to render and shall, at the request of WMI, render PP&S Services for Records intended for sale or other disposition in the Non-Exclusive Territory in accordance with the terms hereof.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph 1(a)(i), from and after the effective date of a Recorded Music Major Transaction (the "RMMT Effective Date"), the appointment of Company hereunder shall instead be to render, and Company shall render, PP&S Services for at least the Specified Percentage (and, at WMI's election, more than the Specified Percentage) of Products in the Exclusive Territory in accordance with the terms hereof. WMI shall, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that the Combined Entity's use of PP&S Services hereunder (i.e., mix of New Releases and Catalog Titles) following the RMMT Effective Date remains generally consistent with WMI's use of PP&S Services hereunder prior to the RMMT Effective Date. The "Specified Percentage" equals the fraction, expressed as a percentage: (A) the numerator of which shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the number of Unites of Products picked, packed and shipped for sale in the Exclusive Territory by Company for WMI under this Agreement (and/or by WMI on its own behalf, if applicable) during the twelve (12) complete calendar months immediately preceding the RMMT Effective

Date (the "WMI Output"); and (B) the denominator of which shall be the WMI Output plus one hundred percent (100%) of the number of Units of Records in physical formats picked, packed and shipped for sale in the Exclusive Territory by or for the recorded music business of the applicable Major during the same twelve (12)-month period. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the WMI Output no Units of Products picked, packed and shipped by Company (and/or WMI, if applicable) for WHV or its affiliates shall be included.[*]

(iv) WMI and its affiliates shall be solely responsible for: (A) all sales solicitation of Products; (B) processing of all orders of Units of Products by customers; (C) invoicing and collection of customer accounts; and (D) the processing and issuance of credits to customers.

(b) Reservation of Rights. WMI hereby reserves all rights in and to Products not otherwise expressly granted to Company herein.

(c) Reports. Company shall prepare for WMI and its affiliates the shipments, returns and inventory reports in the same format and details as were received by WMI or its affiliates prior to this Agreement and shall supply WMI and its affiliates with such reports on at least a monthly basis during the Term. If Company provides more detailed reports to any other party during the Term, Company shall, at WMI's or its affiliates' request, provide such more detailed reports to WMI and its affiliates hereunder as of the date that Company commences providing such more detailed reports to such other party but subject to the same terms and conditions under which such reports are provided to such other party (e.g., any additional fees or amounts charged to such party for such more detailed reports). Monthly and quarterly shipments and return reports shall include at least the following information: selection number, artist name, selection title, product configuration, gross units shipped, units actually returned, net units and Fees. Nothing in such reports shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company.

(d) Facilities. Company shall utilize "first-class" facilities either directly or, subject to WMI's prior approval, by subcontract, for the prompt, timely, and satisfactory performance of the PP&S Services committed hereunder. All distribution center locations used by Company in connection with Products shall be subject to WMI's prior approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld). WMI hereby acknowledges that those distribution facilities owned and/or leased by WMI in the Territory immediately prior to the commencement of the Term and which are being acquired by Company pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement currently constitute "first-class" facilities and shall be deemed approved by WMI for Company's use hereunder in connection with Products.

(e) Company's Undertakings.

(i) Company shall render Services for WMI to all locations throughout the territory for all orders for Products as designated by WMI. The Services: (A) shall be rendered on a so-called "label blind" basis; (B) shall be rendered in at least the same general manner, subject to at least the same general standards and in at least the same general quality as provided by Company to all other parties whose products are distributed by Company in the Territory, [] (D) shall be rendered in accordance with "first-class" standards that meet the highest quality available in the industry; and (E) shall be rendered in accordance with, or exceed, each of the service level requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto being the "Service Level Requirements"); provided, however, that, to the extent that the standards set forth in clauses (B) and (D) of this Paragraph are not being met as of the commencement of the Term, Company shall have a period of [] from the commencement of the Term in which to meet such standards.

(ii) Company shall ship each product without alteration in the same configuration and format designated by WMI.

(iii) Company shall accept the return of all Units of Products previously distributed by or on behalf of WMI in the Territory prior to the commencement of the Term.

(f) Compliance with Law; Code of Conduct. Company shall comply (i) with all laws and regulations in connection with Company's undertakings under this Agreement, except where the failure to do so individually or in the aggregate is immaterial; and (ii) subject to relevant local laws including privacy laws, with the code of conduct attached as Schedule B hereto.

(g) Quarterly Meetings. At least once every calendar quarter, WMI may meet with Company's Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) and Chief Financial Officer (or equivalent) to assess Company's performance under this Agreement and its ongoing ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(h) Shipping. If WMI is responsible for shipping expenses, should WMI so elect, WMI shall have the right to: (i) select the shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for shipping of Units of Products and/or other materials hereunder (and, in doing so, assume the risk of loss for such units of Products in transit); or (ii) in lieu of selecting such shipping agent(s), require that Company submit to WMI any proposed shipping agent(s) which Company wishes to utilize hereunder for WMI's prior written approval. If, in a particular instance, WMI is not responsible for shipping expenses or WMI does not exercise its rights pursuant to the preceding sentence, Company shall utilize the same shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for the shipping of a majority of the other products shipped by or on behalf of Company.

(i) Additional Services. At WMI's reasonable request, Company shall provide WMI with assembly, packing, and shipping services for "point of sale," promotional and merchandising materials to be utilized in connection with Products. Such services shall be provided by Company to WMI on a non-exclusive basis only (and only to the extent that WMI so requests any such services) and, to the extent so requested, shall be provided to WMI [*]. Notwithstanding this Paragraph 1(i), Company shall only be required to provide such services if either WMI (either itself or through any of its affiliates) provided such services on its own behalf prior to the commencement of the Term or if Company then-currently provides such services to any party (in which case, if WMI requests such services and Company is not contractually prohibited from providing such services to WMI, they shall be provided to WMI on the same terms and conditions as are provided to such other party). If Company provides any Services to WEA under the US PP&S Agreement, then Company shall provide such Services to WMI hereunder but only to the extent that is reasonably feasible for Company to do so.

(j) Location of Company's Distribution Facility. Any change of location of WMI's current distribution facility located in Alsdorf, Germany (the "Alsdorf Facility") shall require the prior written approval of WMI (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld); [*].

(k) Enhanced Services. Company shall work with WMI to provide cost-effective solutions to the increasing demands of WMI's business. These currently include shelf-ready product, consolidation of direct distribution to other territories, distribution services inclusive of certain generic charges such as copyright and/or royalty, local language packing slips and enhancement of customer requested data.

2. Title. Title to Units of Products hereunder (including all copyrights and trademarks contained therein) shall remain in WMI or WMI's affiliates. Company acknowledges that Products (including all intellectual property contained therein and relating thereto) are protected under copyright laws and that WMI is the rightful owner or license holder of such copyrights. Company acknowledges that any removal of any such materials from Company's approved facilities without WMI's written approval, and any distribution of any such materials in the Territory without WMI's written approval, is an infringement of WMI's copyright. Company shall bear the risk of loss for Units of Products in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit during any shipping of Products between Facilities (to the extent that Company is responsible for paying such shipping expenses).

3. Ordering Products. WMI and its affiliates shall cause the manufacture of and delivery to Company of such stocks of Products as shall be determined by WMI in WMI's sole discretion.

4. Company's Financial Obligations. WMI shall not be responsible for payment of any of Company's (or Company's affiliates') indirect or general overhead charges or the salaries of Company's (or Company's affiliates') employees or agents. All costs associated with the rendering of Services shall be borne by Company. All charges for all packaging materials (including boxes and filler materials) are at the cost of Company. All actual, out-of-pocket, non-overhead freight charges incurred by or on behalf of Company for shipping of Units of Products from Company's distribution warehouse facilities to WMI's customers or otherwise at WMI's request shall be borne by WMI. To the extent that any shipping costs hereunder are to be borne by WMI, WMI shall only be required to pay Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs charged by such shipping company for the shipment of Units of Products and/or other materials hereunder and such costs shall be reimbursed to Company within [*] following Company's rendition of such invoice to WMI (but in no event shall WMI be required to make any such payment prior to Company's payment of such invoice to such shipping agent). Company shall be solely responsible for all costs or expense's related to the shipping of Units of Products between Facilities to the extent that such movements were made at Company's own request or direction.

5. Terms of Sale of Products. WMI shall determine all terms of sale for Products.

6. Other Obligations. (a) Storage. Company shall accept and store all Units of Products delivered to or otherwise held by Company hereunder in accordance with the provisions of Schedule C hereto. Products shall be kept segregated from all of Company's other products or merchandise. The risk of loss, due to any reason, of Units of Products in Company's possession or control shall be borne by Company, as further described herein; provided, however, that to the extent any such loss was directly caused by a WMI Employee, Company shall not bear the risk of loss except to the extent such loss is or would have been covered by Company's property insurance required under this Agreement and as set forth on Schedule D hereto.

(b) Insurance. During the Term, Company shall: (i) comply with all provisions set forth on Schedule D hereto; and (ii) at Company's sole cost and expense, maintain adequate insurance coverage for: (A) all Products while such Products are in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit to or from Company or its designees to any Facility; and (B) the other matters set forth on Schedule D hereto. The insurance required hereunder is not intended to limit Company's liability as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(c) Computer Access. In order that WMI and its affiliates are able to monitor daily shipments, receipt, production and inventory activity of Products, Company shall give WMI access to Company's computer system for the purpose of providing WMI with real-time information stored therein relating to Products at Company's expense (but no access shall be allowed to information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company). Such system shall provide WMI with all of the same types of reports and information currently provided by, and as may be available from, Company's computer systems in connection with other products distributed by Company. In connection therewith, Company shall work with WMI to ensure that WMI is provided with at least the same level of reports and information that WMI's own systems provided as of the commencement of the Term. Nothing in such reports or information provided shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company. Such access shall be available to WMI twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, at all times during the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Company may perform system maintenance and upgrades during which such systems may not be available; provided, however, that such downtime does not exceed six (6) hours per week. Throughout the Term, Company shall, at Company's cost, reasonably maintain and enhance its IT services so as to be of a comparable standard to those offered by "first-class" distributors in the Territory.

(d) Inspection. Subject to the provisions set forth below, during the Term and for a period of [] following the expiration or termination of the Term, WMI shall have the right to inspect each WMI Facility and any other facility utilized by Company in connection with Products, or the provision of Services hereunder, during regular business hours (utilizing either WMI's own employees, third-party advisers or representatives, insurers, or other experts retained by WMI). WMI may conduct such inspections of each Facility or such other facility up to []. During any such inspection, WMI may conduct physical inventories of Units of Products in Company's possession or under Company's control. WMI shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company during the inspections permitted under this Paragraph 6(d).

(e) Security. Company shall maintain security standards that are at least equivalent to those provided by other "first-class" distributors, both in the segregated area of the WMI Facilities for Products and throughout the WMI Facilities, and shall at all times employ the utmost care and diligence to prevent loss, damage, theft, disappearance, unauthorized destruction or usage of Products. Company's security procedures shall be subject to WMI's prior written approval. Company shall maintain such procedures as approved by WMI and as may reasonably be given to Company from time to time throughout the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company's security measures (which shall include closed-circuit television monitoring, pass-protected access, employee checking and spot searching, etc.) shall be sufficient to ensure that Products and the intellectual property embodied in such Products are in no way compromised, stolen, "leaked" to the public (e.g., copying of recordings embodied on Products which may lead to the availability of such recordings to the public via the Internet or similar means) or otherwise made available to any unauthorized parties; provided, however, that for a period of [] from the commencement of the Term, such security measures need be no more stringent than those currently in place at the Alsdorf Facility. Upon discovery of: (i) loss, damage, theft, disappearance, or destruction of Products exceeding []; or (ii) any unauthorized usage of Products, Company shall notify WMI as soon as reasonably possible, and in any event within [*] following such discovery, and shall include in such notification sufficient detail to allow WMI to investigate such incident (each, a "Security Breach Notice"). Regardless of Company's compliance with all security measures set forth herein or with procedures approved by WMI, Company shall be liable as provided herein for the loss, damage, theft, disappearance, destruction or unauthorized usage of any Products.

(f) Salvage. At all times and regardless of whether Company or its insurers are required to compensate WMI for loss as required under this Agreement, WMI shall retain the sole right to salvage for damaged Products. Company shall not surrender damaged Products to insurers or any other party for destruction or disposal without obtaining WMI's prior written consent.

(g) WMI Employees. Company shall throughout the Term, at the request of WMI, provide up to a maximum of [] full-time employees of WMI or its affiliates (the "WMI Employees") who are responsible for stock control with, at Company's expense: (i) reasonable office accommodations at such Facilities utilized for distribution and/or warehousing as may be specified from time to time by WMI; (ii) individual computers; (iii) copy services and any other similar office services in order to permit them to carry out their functions; (iv) office meal/pantry/refreshment and recreational and similar facilities similar to those provided by Company's employees at such facilities; and (v) all other reasonable support functions as provided to them as of the date of this Agreement. Company shall also provide telephone, Internet and fax access for each WMI Employee, and WMI shall reimburse Company for Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs therefore. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 6(g) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice; [*]. WMI shall be responsible for the direction of, and all compensation and related obligations for WMI Employees. WMI shall retain the right of direction of the employees, and such employees shall not be integrated into the Company's business. The WMI Employees shall operate in accordance with WMI's code of conduct and Company's standard code of conduct contained in its employee policy manual at the applicable WMI Facility (which code of conduct shall be subject to WMI's reasonable approval) and all other lawful policies adopted by Company from time to time governing the conduct of all of its employees and contractors. In the performance of their tasks, the WMI Employees shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company.

7. Technology. Company shall reasonably update the WMI Facilities at Company's cost to keep up with new technology requirements, including investing in technology, systems, equipment and processes to automate distribution processes, packaging and assembly to provide at least the same level of quality and service provided by other "first-class" distributors of Records in the Territory. In the event that any investment in a fundamental new technology (e.g., the conversion to automated systems) results in a decrease in Company's net costs (i.e., taking into account the cost of Company's said investment in implementing such new technology) by more than ten percent (10%), the Fees shall be adjusted so that the net cost benefit is shared equally between WMI and Company. [*]

8. Invoices and Payments. (a) Rendition of Invoices. Except with respect to shipping charges to be borne by WMI as provided in Paragraph 3(i), in the case of WMI affiliates and licensees for each month of the Term, Company shall prepare and render invoices in Euros to such WMI affiliates and licensees on the 15th day of each such month setting forth all Fees owed by WMI hereunder with respect to such affiliates and licensees. The amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable in Euros by the WMI affiliates and directly by licensees to Company on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoices []. At WMI's sole election, Company shall prepare and render invoices in Euros to such nominated WMI affiliates and licensees with respect to each completed and shipped Order of Products setting forth all Fees owed by WMI hereunder with respect to such nominated affiliates and licenses. The amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable in Euros by the WMI affiliates and directly by licensees to Company on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoices []. If any WMI affiliate or licensee disputes an amount contained in an invoice but has already paid to Company such amount, the WMI affiliate or licensees may withhold the disputed amount from amounts otherwise owed to Company hereunder during the pendency of such dispute. The invoices for all units hereunder will follow the same format as current invoices but at a minimum shall contain "per SKU" line item detail with special handling or other miscellaneous charges indicated separately in the form and manner consistent with Company's general form of invoice. Company shall submit all such invoices to WMI electronically pursuant to instructions given by WMI to Company from time to time (and in paper form, to the extent WMI so requests) and to the extent that Company's and WMI's computer systems do not already provide for the electronic submission of all such invoices, Company shall use Company's reasonable efforts to work with WMI starting upon the commencement of the Term to create a system whereby all such invoices can be submitted electronically to WMI.

(b) Audits. WMI shall have the right, at WMI's sole expense, to examine (and/or to appoint representatives to examine) Company's (and Company's affiliates') books and records in order to: (i) verify the correctness of any invoice prepared and rendered by Company in accordance with Paragraph 8(a); (ii) establish the applicability of the provisions contained in Paragraphs 11 and/or 15; or (iii) otherwise establish compliance by Company with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that only independent, third-party auditors (i.e., auditors other than WMI's then-current outside auditor) shall be utilized for the review of Company's books and records. Independent third party auditors shall have access to all information necessary to perform their duties, however nothing in any report provided to WMI or its affiliates by any such independent third party auditors shall impart to WMI or its affiliates any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services. If any such audit reveals that WMI and/or WMI's affiliates have been overcharged, Company shall reimburse WMI in the amount of the overcharge. If any such audit reveals that WMI and/or its affiliates have been overcharged by an amount exceeding [] for the audit period, Company shall reimburse WMI in the amount of the overcharge plus all fees paid by WMI to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit and any other actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense incurred by WMI in connection with such audit. [] Regardless of the number of audits conducted hereunder revealing the same specific overcharge to WMI, Company shall not be required to repay to WMI the amount of any such overcharge more than once. WMI's audit right shall survive the expiration or termination of the Term for [*].

[]. Company shall retain all books and records related to the performance of Services hereunder after the expiration or termination of the Term for so long as WMI or its affiliates may need to perform audits hereunder, but in no event for more than [] after the rendition of the invoice with respect to the Services to which such invoice relates; provided, however, that before Company destroys any books or records, Company shall deliver written notice of such intent to destroy to WMI [] before the intended date of destruction. WMI shall have [] after receipt of such notice to request copies of the books and records to be destroyed, in which case Company shall make copies of such books and records and deliver the same to WMI (but excluding information related to other customers of Company) at WMI's expense (but at Company's expense if such copies are of electronic files). As used herein, "books and records" shall include, without limitation, physical data and data stored in any electronic, magnetic or optical format.

9. Post-Term Procedures. (a) Upon the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall immediately cause the cessation of all Services and shall have no further rights or obligations with respect to Products except as provided herein; provided, however, that upon WMI's request, Company shall fill any then-currently outstanding orders for Units of Products pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Within ten (10) business days following the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall provide WMI with a list of all Units of Products in Company's possession or control on such date. The mere expiration or termination of the Term shall not affect any obligations of WMI to pay for Services rendered by Company prior to such expiration or termination or any other obligation that is expressly provided herein to survive the expiration or termination of the Term.

(b) Within [] following the expiration of the Term or [] following the early termination of the Term, WMI shall remove from the Facilities, or order at WMI's expense the destruction of all Units of Products in Company's possession or control. The determination whether to remove or destroy such Units of Products shall be made by WMI in WMI's sole discretion.

10. Warranties, Representations, Covenants and Indemnities. (a) Company warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) Company has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by Company shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) subject to WMI's rights in the Products and WMI's warranties and representations set forth below, any items prepared by or otherwise furnished by Company in connection with Products and Company's performance of Services hereunder will not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any party.

WMI shall give Company prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and Company shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's sole expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure. WMI shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of WMI's choice and at WMI's expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure.

(c) WMI warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) WMI has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by WMI shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) Material embodied in Products as supplied by WMI shall not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any third party. As used herein "Material" shall include all musical compositions, names, biographical materials and likenesses, photographic, video or motion picture images, sound recordings, intellectual properties, packaging and artwork.

(d) WMI agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold Company and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 10(d) only, "Company") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of : (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by WMI of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting there from) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with any act of WMI's employees located at Company's facilities, except to the extent such damages and injuries are covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule D hereto; and/or (iii) any products liability claims for manufacturing defects directly related to Products not manufactured by Company, any affiliate of Company or on behalf of Company. The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with WMI's written approval. Company shall give WMI prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and WMI shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of WMI's choice and at WMI's sole expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure. Company shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure.

11. Breach, Cure and Termination. (a) WMI may terminate the Term by written notice to Company, following either: (i) a breach of this Agreement by Company that is specified in Paragraph 11(b); or (ii) any other material breach of this Agreement by Company. [] There shall be a cure period of [], following written notice to Company, for any breach referred to in Paragraph 11(a)(ii).

(b) The breaches of this Agreement referred to in Paragraph 11(a)(i) are any of the following:

(viii) any willful and malicious breach by Company of any material provision hereof.

(c) In addition, WMI may terminate the Term:

(i) by written notice to Company within nine (9) months following the later of: (A) a Change of Control; and (B) written notice to WMI from Company that a Change of Control has occurred;

(ii) by written notice to Company following an Insolvency Event;

(iii) by written notice to Company following either: (A) the termination of the term of the International Manufacturing Agreement or the International Administrative Services Agreement, in each case other than as a result of breach by WMI or the expiration of the term thereunder by passage of time; or (B) any material breach by Company under the International Manufacturing Agreement (i.e., a breach which would then-currently permit WMI to terminate the term thereof and with respect to which WMI's right to terminate has not been waived); and

(iv) upon [] written notice to Company, following the occurrence of a Recorded Music Major Transaction; provided, however, that in no event shall any termination under this clause (iv) be effective prior to the date which is [] from the commencement of the Term.

(d) Any termination of this Agreement under this Paragraph 11 will not relieve Company of liability for breaches hereof arising prior to such termination nor shall it relieve WMI from any liability to pay for Services rendered to such termination.

(i) If because an "act of God", inevitable accident, fire, lockout, strike or other labor dispute, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy or other cause of a similar nature not reasonably within Company's control (a "Force Majeure Event"), Company is materially hampered in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, or its normal business operations are delayed or become impossible or commercially impracticable, then Company shall have the option, by giving WMI written notice, to suspend its obligations under this Agreement affected by such Force Majeure Event, effective upon receipt by WMI of such notice, for the duration of any such contingency. Should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 11(e), such suspension shall not constitute a breach hereunder and Company shall not be subject to price rebates under Paragraph 15 with respect to any occurrences during the pendency of such suspension. Immediately upon Company's assertion of its right to suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WMI shall have the right to distribute Products itself or through third parties during the pendency of such suspension. Further, should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WMI shall, on and from the date which is [*] after the occurrence of (which may be earlier than Company's assertion of suspension under) a Force Majeure Event, have the right, in its sole discretion, to: (A) terminate the Term of this Agreement by notice in writing to Company; or (B) require Company to implement its Disaster Recovery Plan, in each case unless Company has previously by notice in writing to WMI ended the suspension of Company's obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, should WMI exercise its right of termination under this Paragraph 11(e), no cure period shall be associated with Company's failure to perform its obligations hereunder.

(ii) In addition, within [*] becoming aware of any circumstances or event which may reasonably be anticipated to cause or constitute a Force Majeure Event, Company shall notify WMI of such circumstance or event. For the avoidance of doubt, such notice shall not constitute an assertion by Company of its right to suspend its obligations hereunder.

(iii) If for any reason, Company is unable to provide any Services hereunder in connection with any Order(s) for a period exceeding [*] and such inability is reasonably likely to result in Company being unable to meet the Service Level Requirements set forth herein, WMI shall have the right to immediately contract with a third party to provide all or any portion of such services for such period of time as may be reasonably necessary for WMI to obtain the services required to fulfill any such Order(s). Once WMI is reasonably satisfied that Company is again able to provide the required Services, WMI shall return the contracted Services to Company as soon as it is reasonably able to do so: provided, however, that the return of such Services to Company shall be subject to any reasonable commitment WMI has made to the applicable third party that such Services would remain with such third party for a period of time. Company shall reimburse WMI upon demand for any and all incremental out-of-pocket charges that WMI reasonably incurs as a result of transferring its Services under this Paragraph 11(e)(iii).

(f) If WMI purports to terminate this Agreement under this Paragraph 11, each party hereto shall have the right to seek any remedy or other relief available under applicable law (except as limited by paragraph 15(o)), and each party hereto shall have the right to assert any defenses available under applicable law; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall any party from whom WMI obtains services in substitution for any or all Services to be provided hereunder have any liability whatsoever to Company arising out of or related to any actual or purported termination of this Agreement by WMI, even if in violation of this Agreement and Company shall take no action against any such party in connection with the provision of such services by such party to WMI.

12. Confidentiality. (a) Each of Company and WMI shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Recipient") to, maintain in confidence the material terms of this Agreement, except that WMI may disclose this Agreement on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 15(c) or to third parties and WMI affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph). The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply to information that: (i) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (ii) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (iii) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (iv) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (v) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (v) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; (vi) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded; or (vii) its required to be disclosed by a party in order to perform its obligations under the Agreement; provided that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who have a need to know such information and who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph 12. No party hereto shall make a press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

(b) Company shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (i) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (ii) relates to the Products (including, without limitation, shipment and return volumes, shipping destinations, pricing information and other terms of sale); WMI shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and their directors, officers, employees and agents to maintain in confidence all information that: (x) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder, and (y) relates to the pricing, methods of distribution or other proprietary information of Company. The restrictions in the two preceding sentences shall not apply to information that: (A) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (B) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (C) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (D) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (E) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (E) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; or (F) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, WMI and its affiliates shall be permitted to disclose any information on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 15(c) or to third parties and WMI affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph).

Company shall purchase an insurance policy that indemnifies WMI for non-physical damage to source material, if available on a commercially reasonable basis and is warranted by the risk profile of the Company. WMI's property shall consist of and not be limited to source material, finished goods and inventory, returned stock, master recordings, digital files, DVDs, CDs and all printing and packaging material.

Either dedicated policies or portfolio (blanket) coverage forms may provide the "all risk" property insurance, providing that the per occurrence limit of insurance available with respect to the WMI property at any Company location for property damage, business interruption, and extra expense shall not be less than [] except, that coverage for California Earthquake shall be no less than [] per occurrence and in aggregate; and Terrorism for WMI Manufacturing Alsdorf shall be no less than [*] per occurrence and in aggregate. Further, the limits of insurance applicable to the extended perils and the perils of earthquake, flood and terrorism shall be an annual aggregate. The deductible on said policies shall be the sole responsibility of Company and be of no greater amount than is commercially reasonable for a company of its financial standing. These policies shall be primary to any policy maintained by or on behalf of WMI. WMI may, at any time, review the amount of insurance required hereunder, and may, from time to time, but in no event more than annually, require a lower or higher amount depending on the best available estimate of the aggregate exposure to loss arising from damage to WMI's property under this Agreement.

The open cargo and war risk cargo insurance policies shall provide per shipment limits of indemnity of no less than [] and contain a warehouse coverage endorsement. In the event that the [] limit of insurance is not adequate to fully insure any given shipment under this Agreement, Company shall purchase additional insurance to cover the full replacement cost of the shipment. The deductible on these policies shall be no greater than what is commercially reasonable for an enterprise with Company's financial standing. The deductible shall be the responsibility of Company and this coverage shall be primary to any coverage maintained by WMI.

All policies shall provide for a reimbursement value with respect to WMI's property at replacement cost for new property of like kind and quality, with no deduction for depreciation, and shall include WMI, its partners, officers, employees, and affiliates as loss payees under the policies as their interest may appear, and shall provide that no act or omission on the part of Company as the title insured shall prejudice a direct claim by the additional insured. All property policies shall include a waiver of subrogation in favor of WMI. Further, Company agrees to secure terms with its insurer that in the event that Company fails to pay premium resulting in a cancellation of coverage that WMI will be given the opportunity to maintain coverage for its insured property under the policy; and Company will reimburse WMI within [*] of notice for the expense incurred.

Public Liability Insurance: Company shall also be required to obtain and maintain comprehensive general liability insurance and a follow-form "umbrella liability" policy, providing insurance against claims for bodily injury, including death, property damage, personal and advertising injury, blanket contractual liability, broad form property damage liability, explosion, collapse and underground hazard, and product and completed operations, for such claims occurring or alleged to have occurred in the course of any operations or activities contemplated by this Agreement, in such amounts as from time to time are carried by prudent owners of comparable operations, but in no event less than [] per occurrence and [] in the annual aggregate, and covering as additional insureds all the WMI individuals and entities for which and to the extent it is responsible under this Agreement.

Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability Insurance:

The Workers' Compensation policy shall include the following coverage:

1. Coverage A	Statutory
2. Coverage B	Employers' Liability
Bodily Injury by Accident	[*] each accident
Bodily Injury by Disease	[*] policy limit

Bodily Injury by Disease [*] each employee

Company shall maintain any other employment related insurance coverage required by any jurisdiction having control over any employees or operations used in connection with this Agreement.

Automobile Liability Insurance: Company shall purchase and maintain automobile liability and follow-form "umbrella liability" insurance for all owned, non-owned and hired vehicles with limits of not less than [*] combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage. This insurance coverage must include all automotive and truck equipment used in the performance of the work under this Agreement, and must include the loading and unloading of same.

Environmental Liability Insurance: In the event Company encounters and must perform or engage a contractor to perform work related to the remediation or abatement of "hazardous material" which includes, without limitation, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous materials, hazardous waste, hazardous or toxic substances, or related materials defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Section 9601, et seq.), the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Action of 1986 (Pub. L. No. 99-499, 100 stat. 1613 (1986)), the Hazardous Material Transportation Act, as amended (49 U.S.C. Section 1801, et seq.) and in the regulations adopted and publications promulgated pursuant thereto, or any other federal, state or local environmental law, ordinance, rule, or regulation (or applicable law in any jurisdiction outside the US), Company, or any contractor performing such work on behalf of Company, shall provide "contractor's pollution liability" insurance, as applicable to the work to be performed, covering claims from third party injury and property damage as a result of pollution conditions emanating from on-site, under the site, or off the site arising out of its operations and completed operations. Completed operations coverage shall remain in effect for no less than [] after final completion. Minimum liability limits, including excess liability coverage, shall be [] each occurrence and [*] in the aggregate.

The automobile liability insurance must contain provisions for thirty (30) days prior written notice of cancellation, nonrenewal, material change or reduction of insurance sent by certified mail return receipt requested, and waiver of subrogation in favor of WMI, additional insureds and all other such entities, as may be reasonably requested by WMI.

Provisions Applicable to All Policies of Insurance Required Hereunder: Policies of insurance shall be underwritten by an insurer with an AM Best rating of no less than A- and a financial size class of VII or better (or an equivalent rating from an alternate rating agency), and may be an admitted or non-admitted carrier. Any insurer not meeting these criteria must be approved in writing by WMI's risk management department whose authorization shall not be unreasonably withheld. Satisfactory evidence of insurance shall be provided before the commencement of this Agreement and shall be evidenced at each renewal by a binder and certificate of insurance at least ten (10) days before expiration of coverage and upon request of WMI, on an annual basis or as necessitated by a material change in coverage or legal action. Company shall forward to WMI a copy of all required policy forms upon request. With respect to property located outside the US, any loss payable to WMI shall be adjusted and paid in the currency of the United States of America, subject to the rate of exchange published in The Wall Street Journal on the date of the loss. If Company elects to maintain insurance for property located outside the US, where the policy is denominated in a currency other than the US dollar, such policy limits and deductibles shall at all times be sufficient to meet the US dollar denominated requirements set forth on this Schedule D.

Each of WMI and Company agrees to negotiate in good faith to attempt to resolve any disagreement which in any way affects any insurance required to be carried hereunder. In the event that such good faith negotiation does not result in the resolution of any such disagreement within a fifteen (15) day period, the parties shall retain an arbitrator to make a fair and reasonable determination as to any such disagreement (the "Insurance Arbitrator"). The Insurance Arbitrator shall be a retired executive or attorney with substantial experience in the insurance industry, preferably in the field of manufacturing, shall be independent of each of WMI and Company, and shall endeavor to provide a determination of any dispute among the parties within thirty (30) days of being retained, but in each case, as quickly as possible. The parties shall jointly appoint the Insurance Arbitrator and the identity of the Insurance Arbitrator shall be satisfactory to each of the parties. The parties shall share equally in the cost and expense of retaining the Insurance Arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree upon a person to act as the Insurance Arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the fifteen (15) day negotiation period specified in this Paragraph 6, then the Arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in conformance with the rules established by the American Arbitration Association. Any determination made by the Insurance Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of the parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Company shall at all times including during the pendency of any dispute and until such time as such dispute is resolved be required to continue to procure insurance policies at its sole expense in full force and effect as required in this Agreement and as specified herein.

INTERNATIONAL MANUFACTURING AND PACKAGING AGREEMENT

WEA INTERNATIONAL INC. ("WMI")

and

WARNER MUSIC MANUFACTURING EUROPE GmbH (to be renamed CINRAM GmbH) ("Company")

Dated as of October 24, 2003

Capitalized terms not defined where they appear in the text are defined in Paragraph 14.

1. Appointment. (a)

(i) WMI hereby appoints Company to render, and Company shall render, M&P Services for one hundred percent (100%) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof. Additionally, Company shall have non-exclusive rights to render and shall, at the request of WMI, render M&P Services for Products for WMI and WMI's affiliates located outside the Territory.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph 1(a)(i), from and after the effective date of a Recorded Music Major Transaction (the "RMMT Effective Date"), the appointment of Company hereunder shall instead be to render, and Company shall render, M&P Services for at least the Specified Percentage (and, at WMI's election, more than the Specified Percentage) of Products in accordance with the terms hereof. WMI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that the Combined Entity's ordering of units of Products and Components hereunder (i.e., mix of New Releases and Catalog Titles and special packaging orders) following the RMMT Effective Date remains generally consistent with WMI's ordering of units of Products and Components hereunder prior to the RMMT Effective Date. The "Specified Percentage" equals the fraction, expressed as a percentage: (A) the numerator of which shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Products manufactured and packaged for sale in the Territory by Company for WMI under this Agreement (and/or by WMI on its own behalf, if applicable) during the twelve (12) complete calendar months immediately preceding the RMMT Effective Date (the "WMI Output"); and (B) the denominator of which shall be the WMI Output plus one hundred percent (100%) of the number of units of Records, in any Optical Disc format, manufactured and packaged for sale in the Territory by or for the recorded music business of the applicable Major during the same twelve (12)-month period. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the WMI Output no units manufactured or packaged by Company (and/or WMI, if applicable) for WHV or its affiliates shall be included.

(iii) Notwithstanding Paragraphs 1(a)(i) and 1(a)(ii), in relation to Excluded Products WMI shall be entitled to appoint a third party manufacturer and packager. WMI shall include Company in the tender process.

(b) Reservation of Rights. WMI hereby reserves all rights in and to Products not otherwise expressly granted to Company herein.

(c) Reports. Company shall prepare for WMI the production, shipments and inventory reports in the same format and details as were received by WMI or its affiliates prior to this Agreement and shall supply WMI and its affiliates with such reports on at least a monthly basis during the Term. If Company provides more detailed reports to any other party during the Term, Company shall, at WMI's request, provide such more detailed reports to WMI hereunder as of the date that Company commences providing such more detailed reports to such other party but subject to the same terms and conditions under which such reports are provided to such other party (e.g., any additional fees or amounts charged to such party for such more detailed reports). Nothing in such reports shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company.

2. Title. Title to units of Components and Products manufactured and packaged hereunder (including all copyrights and trademarks contained therein) shall remain in WMI or WMI's affiliates. Company acknowledges that Products (including all intellectual property contained therein and relating thereto) are protected under copyright laws and that WMI is the rightful owner or license holder of such copyrights. Company acknowledges that any removal of any such materials from Company's approved facilities without WMI's written approval, and any distribution of any such materials in the Territory without WMI's written approval, is an infringement of WMI's copyright. Company shall bear the risk of loss for units of Products in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit from Company or its designees to any Facility, provided, however, that WMI shall bear the risk of loss for any units of Products in transit for which WMI is responsible for paying the shipping.

3. Services. (a) Level of Services. [*] In addition, the Services:

(i) shall be rendered on a so-called "label blind" basis;

(ii) shall be rendered in at least the same general manner, subject to at least the same general standards and in at least the same general quality as provided by Company to all other parties whose Records are manufactured and/or packaged by Company in the Territory, [*]. This Paragraph 3(a)(ii) shall not require that Company provide any new services to WMI if the cost of providing such services would be unreasonably burdensome to Company; provided, however, that nothing in this sentence shall limit Company's obligations set forth in Paragraph 6;

(iii) [*]

(iv) shall be rendered in accordance with "first-class" standards that meet the highest quality available in the industry;

(v) shall be rendered in accordance with, or exceed, each of the service level requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule A hereto being the "Service Level Requirements"); and

(vi) shall, to the extent rendered for the production of Products in CD or DVD format, be rendered in accordance with the technical specifications set forth on Schedule B hereto (the requirements set forth on Schedule B hereto being the "Technical Specifications").

Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the standards set forth in clauses (ii) and (iv) above are not being met as of the commencement of the Term, Company shall have a period of ninety (90) days from the commencement of the Term in which to meet such standards.

(b) Copy Protection and Digital Rights Management. WMI may from time to time require the integration of copy protection and digital rights management technology into certain Products. Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that it is equipped to provide such technology and shall obtain necessary licenses from the supplier therefore. WMI shall, unless otherwise agreed, be responsible for the copy protection or digital rights management technology license fees and the cost of any packaging adaptation necessary to provide notification of the use of such technology as may be required by the applicable law in the country of sale, and (except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Paragraph 3(b)) all other costs relating to copy protection and digital rights management shall be borne by Company. Company shall report units manufactured and technologies used to WMI on a monthly basis to facilitate the administration of the copy protection and digital rights management license fees. Company shall assist WMI in assessing and testing new copy protection and digital rights management technologies, and on forty-five (45) days' notice will make provision for new copy protection and digital rights management technologies to be implemented, but only so long as such new technologies are available to Company for use. To the extent that the actual, documented, out-of-pocket, non-overhead cost to Company for the assessment, testing and implementation of such new copy protection and digital rights management technologies exceeds [*] in the aggregate in respect of any Contract Year, then WMI shall reimburse Company for any such excess (but solely to the extent that WMI requested that Company assess, test or implement such new technology). To the extent that any other parties serviced by Company actually utilize any such new copy protection and digital rights management technology, WMI's obligation to reimburse Company for any such excess shall be reduced pro rata based on the total number of Company's customers utilizing the new copy protection and digital rights management technology. If WMI has already reimbursed Company pursuant to the preceding sentence and subsequently is entitled to a pro rata reduction as provided herein, Company shall refund such amount within thirty (30) days of the date such other party begins utilizing such new copy protection and digital rights management technology. Implementation of copy protection or digital rights management technology shall not be considered a factor that shall impact capacity or production time downstream of the mastering process. WMI and Company further agree that pursuant to Article 6.4 Directive 2001/29/EC on the Harmonization of Certain Aspects of Copyright and related Rights in the Information Society, each will accommodate statutory privileges relating to use regardless of the use of any such copy protection technology or digital rights management technology.

(c) Fees. The Packaging Services shall be furnished at the prices set forth on Schedule C and Schedule D hereto and as set forth in this Paragraph 3(c), as they may be modified from time to time by operation of Paragraphs 12 and 15 (the "Printing and Packaging Fees"), and the Manufacturing Services shall be furnished at the prices set forth on Schedule D hereto and as set forth in this Paragraph 3(c), as may be modified from time to time by operation of Paragraphs 12 and 15 (the "Manufacturing Fees" and, together with the Printing and Packaging Fees, the "Fees"). Unless otherwise indicated, all amounts set forth in this Agreement including the Schedules hereto are denominated in Euros. [*]

(d) Subcontracting. Company may subcontract a portion of its obligations under this Agreement to any one or more of the subcontractors on Schedule E hereto (each an "Approved Subcontractor"). Company may subcontract to a subcontractor that is not an Approved Subcontractor only with the prior consent of WMI. Any such subcontracting by Company shall not relieve Company of its obligations hereunder. Orders hereunder shall not be subcontracted to a greater degree than any other orders. In addition, Company shall ensure that any subcontractors comply with all obligations of Company hereunder. WMI may from time, to time designate organizations as prohibited subcontractors under this Agreement if WMI reasonably believes such organizations would not be likely to be able to adhere to the provisions of this Agreement.

(e) Compliance with Law; Code of Conduct. Company shall comply (i) with all laws and regulations in connection with Company's undertakings under this Agreement, except where the failure to do so individually or in the aggregate is immaterial; and (ii) subject to relevant local laws including privacy laws, with the code of conduct attached as Schedule F hereto.

(f) Delivery of Source Materials. (i) WMI or its affiliates shall, at WMI's sole expense, deliver to Company (or to such suppliers as Company may designate) all Source Materials. WMI shall retain title to all Source Materials supplied to Company or its designees, including all digital files derived from such Source Materials. Company shall maintain systems at no charge to WMI so as to be able to receive Source Materials, metadata and digital proofs in digital form and online, which shall include Wamnet.

(ii) All products ordered by WMI or its affiliates and manufactured and finished by Company shall be delivered at Company's expense to Company's central warehouse located in Alsdorf, Germany, or to the extent that Company elects to re-locate such Facility, then to such relocated Facility.

(g) Ordering. (i) It shall be WMI's responsibility to determine its production requirements and to order Units of Products. All Orders for Units of Products shall be evidenced by a written purchase order and may be placed by WMI or any of its affiliates or any third party licensees. Orders must include all information necessary to properly identify the Products to be manufactured and packaged, including artist, title, catalog number, full UPC/EAN and quantity. Company shall use the entire UPC or EAN codes to identify all Products.

(ii) Prior to manufacture, an Order must be Workable. Company shall deliver Units of Products to WMI's designated locations within the applicable time periods set forth on Schedule A hereto. All of the time periods set forth on Schedule A hereto are referred to as the applicable Turnaround Times for the manufacture of Units of Products in each configuration, respectively, and are measured from the time the Order is Workable.

(iii) At the times that WMI submits Orders, to the extent that an Order is for multiple selections, WMI shall have the right to determine the priority in which the Orders should be filled (that is, it shall have the right to determine and designate which part of the Order is to be delivered within the shorter of the applicable Turnaround Times and which part of the Order is to be delivered within the longer of the applicable Turnaround Times).

(iv) For each item (i.e., a particular Product) in an Order, there shall be an allowable fulfillment deviation as set forth below:

Order Size in Units	[]	[]
0-10,000	[]	[]
10,001-50,000	[]	[]
50,001-300,000	[]	[]
300,001 and up	[]	[]

Orders filled within such deviation shall be deemed to be satisfied, and WMI shall pay Company on the actual number of units delivered at the rate(s) charged by Company pursuant to the original Order to which such deviation relates.

(h) Quarterly Meetings. At least once every calendar quarter, WMI may meet with Company's Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent) and Chief Financial Officer (or equivalent) to assess Company's performance under this Agreement and its ongoing ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(i) Shipping Costs. Company shall bear the cost and expense of shipping of any and all units of Products, Components or other materials manufactured hereunder from the point of manufacture to Company's central Facility located in Alsdorf, Germany or to the extent that Company elects to re-locate such Facility, then to such other new Facility. Company shall also be solely responsible for the cost and expense of any shipping between any of Company's Facilities, so long as such movement is at the direction of Company in its own discretion. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, WMI shall be responsible for the cost and expense of all other shipments hereunder. To the extent that any shipping costs hereunder are to be borne by WMI but are actually paid by Company, WMI shall only be required to pay Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs charged by such shipping agent for the shipment of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder and, such costs shall be reimbursed to Company by WMI within [*] following Company's rendition of such invoice to WMI (but in no event shall WMI be required to make any such payment of such invoice prior to Company's payment of such invoice to such shipping agent). If WMI is responsible for shipping expenses, should WMI so elect, WMI shall have the right to: (i) select the shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for shipping of units of Products and/or other materials hereunder (and, in doing so, assume the risk of loss for such units of Products in transit); or (ii) in lieu of selecting such shipping agent(s), require that Company submit to WMI any proposed shipping agent(s) which Company wishes to utilize hereunder for WMI's prior written approval. If, in a particular instance, WMI is not responsible for shipping expenses or WMI does not exercise its rights pursuant to the preceding sentence, Company shall utilize the same shipping agent(s) utilized by Company for the shipping of a majority of the other products shipped by or on behalf of Company.

(j) No Unauthorized Manufacture. Company acknowledges that WMI may suffer substantial damages as a result of the unauthorized manufacture of Components or Products. Therefore, Company agrees that: (i) Company shall produce only those quantities of units of Components and Products as are specified in a written Order issued by WMI and subject to the terms set forth herein; (ii) Company shall deliver the units of Components and Products specified in each Order only to the recipient and location designated by WMI in such order; and (iii) upon WMI's request from time to time, Company shall deliver to WMI separate written confirmation of each manufacturing run made of each Product and Component pursuant to each Order, including the date of the manufacturing run and the number of units produced during the run.

(k) Additional Services. At WMI's reasonable request, Company shall provide WMI with manufacturing and packaging services for "point of sale," promotional and merchandising materials to be utilized in connection with Products. Such services shall be provided by Company to WMI on a non-exclusive basis only (and only to the extent that WMI so requests any such services) and, to the extent so requested, shall be provided to WMI [*]. Notwithstanding this Paragraph 3(k), Company shall only be required to provide such services if either WMI (either itself or through any of its affiliates) provided such services on its own behalf prior to the commencement of the Term or Company then-currently provides such services to any party (in which case, if WMI requests such services and Company is not contractually prohibited from providing such services to WMI, they shall be provided to WMI on the same terms and conditions as are provided to such other party). If Company provides any Services to WEA under the US Manufacturing Agreement, then Company shall provide such Services to WMI hereunder but only to the extent that it is reasonably feasible for Company to do so at the WMI Facilities.

4. Company's Financial Obligations. WMI shall not be responsible for payment of any of Company's (or Company's affiliates') indirect or general overhead charges or the salaries of Company's (or Company's affiliates') employees or agents. All costs associated with the rendering of Services shall be borne by Company. Such costs to be borne by Company include any patent royalties or other similar royalties or license fees payable in connection with the manufacture of Products and Components (subject to the provisions of Paragraph 3(c)(i)), which costs, for the avoidance of doubt, exclude mechanical royalties, record royalties and copy protection and digital rights management (i.e., DRM) technology license fees.

5. Other Obligations. (a) Storage of Source Materials and Components. Company shall accept and store all Source Materials and units of Components delivered to or otherwise held by Company hereunder at no charge; provided, however, that with respect to any particular Product, Company shall not be required to store more Source Materials or units of Components than is necessary to satisfy the next [] demand (such determination as to what constitutes [] demand shall be made jointly by WMI and Company based, where possible, upon actual, gross units ordered during the prior [] period and shall be made for all Source Materials and Components no more frequently than semi-annually during the Term commencing no sooner than [] after the commencement of the Term). With respect to Source Materials and units of Components so determined to be in excess of a [] demand therefor, Company shall notify WMI of the specific Source Materials and/or units of Components constituting such excess and within [] following WMI's receipt of such notice, WMI shall (in WMI's sole discretion) either: (i) remove such excess Source Materials and/or units of Components (at WMI's expense); (ii) direct Company to destroy such excess Source Materials and/or units of Components (at WMI's expense); or (iii) direct Company to store such excess: either (x) at a Facility at a cost to WMI of [] or (y) offsite at Company's or Company's affiliates' leased facility approved in advance, in writing by WMI and the actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense charged by such facility to Company for such storage shall be reimbursed to Company by WMI. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 5(a) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice; [*]. All Source Materials and all units of Components shall be WMI's property and shall be kept segregated from any other property. Upon receipt of a written request from WMI, Company shall return to WMI, at WMI's cost, any materials supplied by WMI which have not been utilized in the manufacture or packaging of units of Components or Products or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement and which are then in Company's possession or control. The risk of loss, due to any reason, of Source Materials or units of Components in Company's possession or control shall be borne by Company, as further described herein; provided, however, that to the extent any such loss was directly caused by a WMI Employee, Company shall not bear the risk of loss, except to the extent such loss is or would have been covered by Company's property insurance as required under this Agreement as set forth on Schedule G hereto. WMI shall own all manufacturing parts (for Components and Products) and all derivatives and/or duplicates thereof fabricated in connection with the production process, including all Components, photographic films and color keys, if any, duplicate audio tapes (analog or digital), glass Masters and running Masters and all digital files derived from any of the foregoing. Company shall not destroy any of the Source Materials, units of Components or elements derived therefrom without prior written authorization from WMI; provided, however, that Company may destroy certain such derived elements (i.e., glass Masters and metal parts) to the extent that such elements are generally destroyed by Company in the ordinary course of production. Company shall also, at Company's cost, maintain, protect and backup any and all Source

Materials and derivatives in an organized environment to allow for easy access by both Company and WMI.

(b) Insurance. During the Term, Company shall: (i) comply with all provisions set forth on Schedule G hereto; and (ii) at Company's sole cost and expense, maintain adequate insurance coverage for: (A) all Source Materials and Inventory while such items are in Company's possession, under Company's control or in transit to or from Company or its designees to any Facility; and (B) the other matters set forth on Schedule G hereto. The insurance required under this Paragraph 5(b) is not intended to limit Company's liability as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

(c) Computer Access. In order that WMI and its affiliates are able to monitor daily shipments, receipt, production and inventory activity in connection with Components and Products, Company shall give WMI access to Company's computer system for the purpose of providing WMI with real-time information stored therein relating to Components and Products at Company's expense (but no access shall be allowed to information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company). Such system shall provide WMI with all of the same types of reports and information currently provided by, and as may be available from Company's computer systems in connection with other products and components manufactured and/or packaged by Company. In connection therewith, Company shall work with WMI to ensure that WMI is provided with at least the same level of reports and information that WMI's own systems provided as of the commencement of the Term. Nothing in such reports or information provided shall impart any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services or any personal data possessed by Company. Such access shall be available to WMI [] at all times during the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Company may perform system maintenance and upgrades during which such systems may not be available; provided, however, that such downtime does not exceed []

(d) Inspection. Subject to the provisions set forth below, during the Term and for a period of [] following the expiration or termination of the Term, WMI shall have the right to inspect each WMI Facility and any other facility utilized by Company in connection with Components or Products or the provision of Services hereunder, during regular business hours (utilizing either WMI's own employees, third party advisers or representatives, insurers, or other experts retained by WMI). WMI may conduct such inspections of each WMI Facility or such other facility up to [].

[*] During any such inspection, WMI may conduct physical inventories of units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control. WMI shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products, or any personal data possessed by Company, during the inspections permitted under this Paragraph 5(d).

(e) Security. Company shall maintain security standards that are at least equivalent to those provided by other "first-class" manufacturers and packagers in the Territory, both in the segregated area of the WMI Facilities for property of WMI and throughout the WMI Facilities, and shall at all times employ the utmost care and diligence to prevent loss, damage, theft, disappearance, unauthorized destruction or usage of such property of WMI.

Company's security procedures shall be subject to WMI's prior written approval. Company shall maintain such procedures as approved by WMI and as may reasonably be given to Company from time to time throughout the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company's security measures (which shall include closed-circuit television monitoring, pass-protected access, employee checking and spot searching, etc.) shall be sufficient to ensure that all Source Materials and Inventory and the intellectual property embodied in such Source Materials and Inventory are in no way compromised, stolen, "leaked" to the public (e.g., copying of recordings embodied on Products which may lead to the availability of such recordings to the public via the Internet or similar means) or otherwise made available to any unauthorized parties; provided, however, that for a period of [] from the commencement of the Term, such security measures need be no more stringent than those currently in place at the Acquired Facilities. Upon discovery of: (i) loss, damage, theft, disappearance, or destruction of Source Materials or Inventory exceeding [] or (ii) any unauthorized usage of Inventory, Company shall notify WMI as soon as reasonably possible, and in any event within [*] following such discovery, and shall include in such notification sufficient detail to allow WMI to investigate such discovery (each, a "Security Breach Notice"). Regardless of Company's compliance with all security measures set forth herein or with procedures approved by WMI, Company shall be liable as provided herein for the loss, damage, theft, disappearance, destruction or unauthorized usage of any property of WMI.

(f) Salvage. At all times and regardless of whether Company or its insurers are required to compensate WMI for loss as required under this Agreement, WMI shall retain the sole right to salvage for damaged Inventory. Company shall not surrender damaged Inventory to insurers or any other party for destruction or disposal without obtaining WMI's prior written consent.

(g) WMI Employees. Company shall throughout the Term, at the request of WMI, provide up to a maximum of [] full-time employees of WMI or its affiliates (the "WMI Employees") with, at Company's expense: (i) reasonable office accommodations at such Facilities of Company utilized for manufacturing and/or packaging in the Territory as may be specified from time to time by WMI; (ii) individual computers; (iii) copy services and any other similar office services in order to permit them to carry out their functions; (iv) office meal/pantry/refreshment and recreational and similar facilities similar to those provided to Company's employees at such facilities; and (v) all other reasonable support functions as provided to them as of the date of this Agreement. Company shall also provide telephone, Internet and fax access for each WMI Employee, and WMI shall reimburse Company for Company's actual, documented, out-of-pocket costs therefor. Amounts owing under this Paragraph 5(g) shall be invoiced by Company at month end and shall be payable [] from the date of the rendition of such invoice; [*] WMI shall be responsible for the direction of, and all compensation and related obligations for, the WMI Employees. The WMI Employees shall operate in accordance with WMI's code of conduct and Company's standard code of conduct contained in its employee policy manual at the applicable WMI Facility (which code of conduct shall be subject to WMI's reasonable approval) and all other lawful policies adopted by Company from time to time governing the conduct of all of its employees and contractors. In the performance of their tasks, the WMI Employees shall not have access to any competitively-sensitive information relating to any other party's products or any personal data possessed by Company.

6. Technology. Throughout the Term, Company shall reasonably update its manufacturing and packaging lines at the WMI Facilities at Company's cost to keep up with new technology requirements and to maintain at least the same level of technology utilized by other "first-class" manufacturers and packagers of Records in the Territory, including machinery and equipment that is reasonably available to provide automated assembly of packaging, inclusion of inserts and application of stickers, shrinkwrap and security materials. Company shall maintain and update its information and technology capabilities at the WMI Facilities, at Company's cost, to meet reasonable WMI requirements and maintain competitive services for WMI and its customers. [*]

7. Invoices and Payments. (a) Rendition of Invoices. Except with respect to shipping charges to be borne by WMI as provided in Paragraph 3(i), in the case of WMI affiliates and licensees for each month of the Term, Company shall prepare and render invoices in Euros to such WMI affiliates and licensees on the [] of each such month setting forth all Fees owed by WMI hereunder with respect to such affiliates and licensees. The amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable in Euros by the WMI affiliates and directly by licensees to Company on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoices []. At WMI's sole election, Company shall prepare and render invoices in Euros to such nominated WMI affiliates and licensees with respect to each completed and shipped Order of Products setting forth all Fees owed by WMI hereunder with respect to such nominated affiliates and licenses. The amount due to Company pursuant to each such invoice shall be due and payable in Euros by the WMI affiliates and directly by licensees to Company on or before [] following Company's rendition of such invoices [*]. If any WMI affiliate or licensee disputes an amount contained in an invoice but has already paid to Company such amount, the WMI affiliate or licensees may withhold the disputed amount from amounts otherwise owed to Company hereunder during the pendency of such dispute. The invoices for all units hereunder will follow the same format as current invoices but at a minimum shall contain "per SKU" line item detail with special handling or other miscellaneous charges indicated separately in the form and manner consistent with Company's general form of invoice. Company shall submit all such invoices to WMI electronically pursuant to instructions given by WMI to Company from time to time (and in paper form, to the extent WMI so requests) and to the extent that Company's and WMI's computer systems do not already provide for the electronic submission of all such invoices, Company shall use Company's reasonable efforts to work with WMI starting upon the commencement of the Term to create a system whereby all such invoices can be submitted electronically to WMI. For the avoidance of doubt, WMI affiliates shall only be liable for any payments hereunder provided that they have received the complete Orders for the relevant finished units of Components and Products reflected in such invoice.

(b) Audits. WMI shall have the right, at WMI's sole expense, to examine (and/or to appoint representatives to examine) Company's (and Company's affiliates') books and records in order to: (i) verify the correctness of any invoice prepared and rendered by Company in accordance with Paragraph 7(a); (ii) establish the applicability of the provisions contained in Paragraphs 10, 12 and/or 15; or (iii) otherwise establish compliance by Company with its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that only independent, third-party auditors (i.e., auditors other than WMI's then-current outside auditor) shall be utilized for the review of Company's books and records. Independent third party auditors shall have access to all information necessary to perform their duties, however nothing in any report provided to WMI or its affiliates by any such independent third party auditors shall impart to WMI or its affiliates any competitively-sensitive information about Company, Company's affiliates or any third parties for which Company renders any services. If any such audit reveals that WMI and/or WMI's affiliates have been overcharged, Company shall reimburse WMI in the amount of the overcharge. If any such audit reveals that WMI or WMI's affiliates have been overcharged by an amount exceeding three percent (3%) for the audit period, Company shall reimburse WMI in the amount of the overcharge plus all fees paid by WMI to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit and any other actual, documented, out-of-pocket expense incurred by WMI in connection with such audit. [] Regardless of the number of audits conducted hereunder revealing the same specific overcharge to WMI, Company shall not be required to repay WMI the amount of any such overcharge more than once. WMI's audit right shall survive the expiration or termination of the Term for []. Company shall retain all books and records related to the performance of Services hereunder after the expiration or termination of the Term for so long as WMI or its affiliates may need to perform audits hereunder, but in no event for more than [] the rendition of the invoice with respect to the Services to which such invoice relates, provided, however, that before Company destroys any books or records, Company shall deliver written notice of such intent to destroy to WMI [] before the intended date of destruction. WMI shall [*] after receipt of such notice to request copies of the books and records to be destroyed, in which case Company shall make copies of such books and records and deliver the same to WMI (but excluding information related to other customers of Company) at WMI's expense (but at Company's expense if such copies are of electronic files). As used herein, "books and records" shall include, without limitation, physical data and data stored in any electronic, magnetic or optical format.

8. Post-Term Procedures. (a) Upon the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall immediately cause the cessation of all Services and shall have no further rights or obligations with respect to Products except as provided herein; provided, however, that upon WMI's request, Company shall fill any then-currently outstanding orders for units of Components and Products pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Within [*] following the expiration or termination of the Term, Company shall provide WMI with a list of all Source Materials and units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control on such date. The mere expiration or termination of the Term shall not affect any obligation of WMI to pay for Services rendered by Company prior to such expiration or termination or any other obligation that is expressly provided herein to survive the expiration or termination of the Term.

(b) Within [] following the expiration of the Term or [] following the early termination of the Term, WMI shall remove from the Facilities, at WMI's expense, or order at WMI's expense the destruction of: (i) all units of Components and Products in Company's possession or control; and (ii) all Source Materials in Company's possession or control. The determination whether to remove or destroy such items shall be made by WMI in WMI's sole discretion. Any Source Materials to be returned shall be returned to WMI, at WMI's cost, and the cost of any return of any Components to be returned shall be the subject of negotiation between the parties hereto unless such Components were supplied by WMI, in which case such Components shall be returned without charge.

9. Warranties, Representations, Covenants and Indemnities. (a) Company warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) Company has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; (ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by Company shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) subject to WMI's rights in the Products and Components and WMI's warranties and representations set forth below, any items prepared by or otherwise furnished by Company in connection with Components or Products and Company's performance of the Services hereunder will not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any party.

(b) Company agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold WMI and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 9(b) only, "WMI") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by Company of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; and/or (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with the execution of the work under this Agreement (including as a result of products liability claims), whether such damages or injuries are or are alleged to be based upon Company's active or passive negligence or participation in the wrong or upon any breach of any statutory duty or obligation on the part of Company (except to the extent such damages or injuries directly result from any act of WMI's employees located at Company's facilities and are not otherwise covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder as set forth on Schedule G hereto, or result from a breach of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant of WMI contained herein). The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with Company's written approval. WMI shall give Company prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and Company shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's sole expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure. WMI shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of WMI's choice and at WMI's expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure.

(c) WMI warrants, represents and/or covenants, as the case may be, that: (i) WMI has the right, power and authority to enter into and fully perform this Agreement;

(ii) no agreement of any kind heretofore entered into by WMI shall interfere in any manner with the complete performance of this Agreement; and (iii) Material embodied in Products and Components as supplied by WMI shall not violate any law or infringe upon the rights of any third party. As used herein "Material" shall include all musical compositions, names, biographical materials and likenesses, photographic, video or motion picture images, sound recordings, intellectual properties, packaging and artwork.

(d) WMI agrees to and does hereby indemnify, save and hold Company and its affiliates, and each of their respective officers, directors and employees (collectively, for the purposes of this Paragraph 9(d) only, "Company") harmless to the maximum extent permitted by law from any and all loss and damage (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as and when incurred) arising out of, connected with or as a result of: (i) any inaccuracy, inconsistency with, failure of, or breach or threatened breach by WMI of any warranty, representation, agreement, undertaking or covenant contained in this Agreement; and/or (ii) any and all damages or injuries of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting therefrom) to any persons, whether employees of Company or otherwise, and to any property caused by, resulting from, arising out of or occurring in connection with any act of WMI's employees located at Company's facilities, except to the extent such damages and injuries are covered by the property insurance Company is required to maintain hereunder at set forth on Schedule G hereto. The foregoing indemnity shall be applicable only to such claims as have been reduced to judgment or settled with WMI's written approval. Company shall give WMI prompt notice of any claim to which the foregoing indemnity applies and WMI shall assume the defense of any such claim through counsel of WMI's choice and at WMI's sole expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure. Company shall have the right to participate in such defense through counsel of Company's choice and at Company's expense; provided, however, that the relevant law on Civil Procedure provides for this procedure.

10. Breach, Cure and Termination. (a) WMI may terminate the Term by written notice to Company following either: (i) a breach of this Agreement by Company that is specified in Paragraph 10(b); or (ii) any other material breach of this Agreement by Company. [] There shall be a cure period of [] following written notice to Company, for any breach referred to in Paragraph 10(a)(ii) .

(b) The breaches of this Agreement referred to in Paragraph 10(a)(i) are any of the following:

(viii) any willful and malicious breach by Company of any material provision hereof.

(c) In addition, WMI may terminate the Term:

(i) by written notice to Company within [*] following the later of: (A) a Change of Control; and (B) written notice to WMI from Company that a Change of Control has occurred;

(ii) by written notice to Company following an Insolvency Event; and

(iii) by written notice to Company following either: (A) the termination of the term of the International PP&S Agreement or the International Administrative Services Agreement, other than (x) as a result of a breach by WMI or the expiration of the term thereunder by passage of time or (y) the termination of the term of the International PP&S Agreement under Paragraph 11(c)(iv) thereof; or (B) any material breach by Company under the International PP&S Agreement (i.e., a breach which would then-currently permit WMI to terminate the term thereof and with respect to which WMI's right to terminate has not been waived).

(d) Any termination of this Agreement under this Paragraph 10 will not relieve Company of liability for breaches hereof arising prior to such termination nor shall it relieve WMI from any liability to pay for Services rendered prior to such termination.

(i) If because of an "act of God", inevitable accident, fire, lockout, strike or other labor dispute, riot or civil commotion, act of public enemy or other cause of a similar nature not reasonably within Company's control (a "Force Majeure Event"), Company is materially hampered in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, or its normal business operations are delayed or become impossible or commercially impracticable, then Company shall have the option, by giving WMI written notice, to suspend its obligations under this Agreement affected by such Force Majeure Event, effective upon receipt by WMI of such notice, for the duration of any such contingency. Should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(e), such suspension shall not constitute a breach hereunder and Company shall not be subject to price rebates under Paragraph 15 with respect to any occurrences during the pendency of such suspension. Immediately upon Company's assertion of its right to suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WMI shall have the right to manufacture and/or package Products itself or through third parties during the pendency of such suspension. Further, should Company suspend its obligations under this Agreement, WMI shall, on and from the date which is [*] after the occurrence of (which may be earlier than Company's assertion of suspension under) a Force Majeure Event, have the right, in its sole discretion, to: (i) terminate the Term of this Agreement by notice in writing to Company; or (ii) require Company to implement its Disaster Recovery Plan; in each case unless Company has previously by notice in writing to WMI ended the suspension of Company's obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, should WMI exercise its right of termination under this Paragraph 10(e), no cure period shall be associated with Company's failure to perform its obligations hereunder. No liability or obligation of Company under any provision hereof, other than those affected by a Force Majeure Event hereunder, shall be in any way limited or forgiven as a result of any Force Majeure Event.

(ii) In addition, [*] of becoming aware of any circumstance or event which may reasonably be anticipated to cause or constitute a Force Majeure Event, Company shall notify WMI of such circumstance or event. For the avoidance of doubt, such notice shall not constitute an assertion by Company of its right to suspend its obligations hereunder.

(iii) If for any reason, Company is unable to provide any Services hereunder in connection with any Order(s) for a period exceeding [*] and such inability is reasonably likely to result in Company being unable to meet the Service Level Requirements set forth herein, WMI shall have the right to immediately contract with a third party to provide all or any portion of such services for such period of time as may be reasonably necessary for WMI to obtain the services required to fulfill any such Order(s). Once WMI is reasonably satisfied that Company is again able to provide the required Services, WMI shall return the contracted Services to Company as soon as it is reasonably able to do so; provided, however, that the return of such Services to Company shall be subject to any reasonable commitment WMI has made to the applicable third party that such Services would remain with such third party for a period of time. Company shall reimburse WMI upon demand for any and all incremental out-of-pocket charges that WMI reasonably incurs as a result of transferring its Services under this Paragraph 10(e)(iii).

(f) If WMI purports to terminate this Agreement under this Paragraph 10, each party hereto shall have the right to seek any remedy or other relief available under applicable law (except as limited by Paragraph 16(n)), and each party hereto shall have the right to assert any defenses available under applicable law; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall any party from whom WMI obtains services in substitution for any or all Services to be provided hereunder have any liability whatsoever to Company arising out of or related to any actual or purported termination of this Agreement by WMI, even if in violation of this Agreement and Company shall take no action against any such party in connection with the provision of such services by such party to WMI.

11. Anti-Piracy Activities. Company (and WMI, to the extent applicable to a content provider) shall at all times use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with industry standard procedures associated with anti-piracy activities including: (i) the IRMA anti-piracy compliance program; (ii) the IFPI anti-piracy compliance program; and (iii) all other measures and procedures described in the RIAA Draft CD Plant Good Business Practices set forth therein.

12. Adjustments. (a) [*]

(b) [*]

conditions applicable to such other party (e.g., order volumes, quality requirements and materials used).

(e) Each of WMI and Company agrees to negotiate in good faith to attempt to resolve any disagreement which may arise in connection with the implementation or interpretation of the terms and provisions of this Paragraph 12. In the event that such good faith negotiation does not result in the resolution of any such disagreement within a fifteen (15)-day period, the parties shall retain an arbitrator to make a fair and reasonable determination as to any such disagreement (the "Arbitrator"). The Arbitrator shall be a retired executive or attorney with substantial experience in the field of manufacturing, preferably in the manufacturing of Optical Discs, shall be independent of each of WMI and Company, and shall endeavor to provide a determination of any dispute among the parties within thirty (30) days of being retained, but in each case, as quickly as possible. The parties shall jointly appoint the Arbitrator and the identity of the Arbitrator shall be satisfactory to each of the parties. The parties shall share equally in the cost and expense of retaining the Arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree upon a person to act as the Arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the expiry of the fifteen (15)-day negotiation period specified in this Paragraph 12(e), then the Arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in conformance with the rules established by the American Arbitration Association. Any determination made by the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of the parties.

13. Confidentiality. (a) Each of Company and WMI shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Recipient") to, maintain in confidence the material terms of this Agreement, except that WMI may disclose this Agreement on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 16(c) or to third parties and WMI affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph). The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply to information that: (i) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (ii) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (iii) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (iv) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (v) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (v) shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; (vi) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded; or (vii) is required to be disclosed by a party in order to perform its obligations under the Agreement; provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who have a need to know such information and who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph 13. No party hereto shall make a press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

(b) Company shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (i) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (ii) relates to the Products. WMI shall, and shall cause its affiliates, and its and its affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents to, maintain in confidence all information that: (x) is in its or their possession by reason of Company's performance of Services hereunder; and (y) relates to the pricing, methods of manufacture or other proprietary information of Company. The restrictions in the two preceding sentences shall not apply to information that: (A) becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by such Recipient contrary to this Agreement; (B) was available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure to such Recipient; (C) becomes available to such Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than any other Recipient unless such Recipient knows that such source is bound by a confidentiality agreement or is otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to such Recipient by a contractual obligation; (D) is independently developed by such Recipient without reference to confidential information received from any other party; (E) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or legal process, provided that any Recipient disclosing pursuant to this clause (E), shall notify the other party at least five (5) days prior to such disclosure so as to allow such other party an opportunity to protect such information through protective order or otherwise; or (F) is required to be disclosed by any listing agreement with, or the rules or regulations of, any security exchange on which securities of such Recipient or any of its affiliates are listed or traded. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, WMI and its affiliates shall be permitted to disclose any information on a confidential basis in connection with a potential Recorded Music Major Transaction, to a potential assignee under Paragraph 16(c) or to third parties and WMI affiliates as may be necessary in the ordinary course of business (provided, that any such disclosure shall be limited to those persons who agree to be bound by the provisions of this Paragraph).

(c) The obligations of WMI and Company under Paragraphs 13(a) and 13(b) shall survive for [*] following the expiration or termination of the Term.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Paragraph 13, the parties hereby agree that, as of the earliest of: (A) the date of the public announcement of discussions relating to the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Transaction"); (B) the date of the public announcement of the Transaction; and (C) the date of the execution of an agreement (with or without conditions) to enter into the Transaction, each party (and each employee, representative or other agent of such party) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of the Transaction and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such party relating to such tax treatment and tax structure.

(ii) The parties acknowledge that: (A)(x) the identity of any existing or future party (or any affiliate of such party) to the Transaction; and (y) any specific pricing information or other commercial terms, including the amount of any fees, expenses, rates or payments arising in connection with the Transaction, are not included in the meaning of the terms "tax treatment" and "tax structure" as referred to in clause (i) of this Paragraph 13(d); and (B) nothing in this Agreement shall in any way limit any party's ability to consult any tax advisor (including a tax advisor independent from all other entities involved in the Transaction) regarding the tax treatment or tax structure of the Transaction.

WMI shall have the right without Company's consent to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, to any subsidiary, parent company or affiliate of WMI, or to any third party acquiring all or substantially all of WMI's assets or equity; provided, however, that in each case, notwithstanding such assignment, WMI at all times shall remain directly and fully liable to Company for the performance of the obligations of WMI hereunder.

Code Of Conduct For Manufacturers

At Warner Music International, we are committed to:

- a standard of excellence in every aspect of our business and in every corner of the world;
- ethical and responsible conduct in all of our operations;
- respect for the rights of all individuals; and
- respect for the environment.

We expect these same commitments to be shared by all manufacturers of Warner Music's products and merchandise. At a minimum, we require that all manufacturers of WMI products and merchandise meet the following standards:

Child Labor	Manufacturers will not use child labor.
	The Term "child" refers to a person younger than 15 (or 14 where local law allows) or, if higher, the local legal minimum age for employment or the age for completing compulsory education.
	Manufacturers employing young persons who do not fall within the definition of "children" will also comply with any laws and regulations applicable to such persons.
Involuntary Labor	Manufacturers will not use any forced or involuntary labor, whether prison, bonded, indentured or otherwise.
Coercion and Harassment	Manufacturers will treat each employee with dignity and respect, and will not use corporal punishment, threats of violence or other forms of physical, sexual, psychological or verbal harassment or abuse.
Nondiscrimination	Manufacturers will not discriminate in hiring and employment practices, including salary, benefits, advancement, discipline, termination or retirement, on the basis of race, religion, age, nationality, social or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender, political opinion or disability.
Association	Manufacturers will respect the rights of employees to associate, organize and bargain collectively in a lawful and peaceful manner, without penalty or interference.

Health and Safety	Manufacturers will provide employees with a safe and healthy workplace in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, ensuring at a minimum reasonable access to potable water and sanitary facilities; fire safety; and adequate lighting and ventilation. Manufacturers will also ensure that the same standard of health and safety are applied in any housing that they provide for employees.
Compensation	We expect manufacturers to recognize that wages are essential to meeting employees' basic needs. Manufacturers will, at a minimum, comply with all applicable wage and hour laws and regulations, including those relating to a minimum wages, overtime, maximum hours, piece rates and other elements of compensation, and provide legally mandated benefits. Except in extraordinary business circumstances, manufacturers will not require employees to work more than the lesser of (a) 48 hours per week and 12 hours overtime or (b) the limits on regular and overtime hours allowed by local law or, where local law does not limit the hours of work, the regular work week plus 12 hours overtime. In addition, except in extraordinary business circumstances, employees will be entitled to at least one day off in every seven-day period.
	Manufacturers will compensate employees for overtime hours at such premium rate as is legally required or, if there is no legally prescribed premium rate, at a rate at least equal to the regular hourly compensation rate.
	Where local industry standards are higher than applicable legal requirements, we expect manufacturers to meet the higher standards.
Protection of the Environment	Manufacturers will comply with all applicable environmental laws and regulations
Other Laws	Manufacturers will comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including those pertaining to the manufacture, pricing, sale and distribution of merchandise. All references to "applicable laws and regulations" in this Code of Conduct include local and national codes, rules and regulations as well as applicable treaties and voluntary industry standards.
Subcontracting	Manufacturers will not use subcontractors for the manufacture of Warner Music products and merchandise or components thereof without Warner Music International's express written consent, and only after the subcontractor has entered into a written commitment with Warner Music International to comply with this Code of Conduct.

Monitoring and Compliance	Manufacturers will authorize Warner Music International and its designated agents (including third parties) to engage in monitoring activities to confirm compliance with this Code of Conduct, including unannounced on-site inspections of manufacturing facilities and employer-provided housing; reviews of books and records relating to employment matters; and private interviews with employees. Manufacturers will maintain on site all documentation that may be needed to demonstrate compliance with this Code of Conduct.
Publication	Manufacturers will take appropriate steps to ensure that the provisions of this Code of Conduct are communicated to employees, including the prominent posting of a copy of this Code of Conduct, in the local language and in a place readily accessible to employees, at all times.

Schedule G

Insurance Coverage

NOTE: The following insurance requirements are intended to provide insurance coverage under this Agreement and each of the other service agreements being entered into between the parties hereto and their affiliates as of the date hereof. Accordingly, to the extent any such other agreements require insurance coverage thereunder that is duplicative of the insurance coverage provided for below, such insurance coverage need not be duplicated under such other agreements.

Property Insurance, Including Extra Expense and Business Interruption: Company at all times and at its own cost and expense shall insure WMI's property as defined and required in this Agreement under so-called "all risk" policies of insurance, including but not limited to coverage for extended perils, earthquake, windstorm, flood, and collapse; open cargo, war risk cargo and terrorism. Company shall purchase an insurance policy that indemnifies WMI for non-physical damage to source material, if available on a commercially reasonable basis and is warranted by the risk profile of the Company. WMI's property shall consist of and not be limited to source material, finished goods and inventory, returned stock, master recordings, digital files, DVDs, CDs and all printing and packaging material.

Either dedicated policies or portfolio (blanket) coverage forms may provide the "all risk" property insurance, providing that the per occurrence limit of insurance available with respect to the WMI property at any Company location for property damage, business interruption, and extra expense shall not be less than five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) except, that coverage for California Earthquake shall be no less than one hundred fifty million ($150,000,000) per occurrence and in aggregate; and Terrorism for WMI Manufacturing Alsdorf shall be no less than two hundred fifty-five million ($255,000,000) per occurrence and in aggregate. Further, the limits of insurance applicable to the extended perils and the perils of earthquake, flood and terrorism shall be an annual aggregate. The deductible on said policies shall be the sole responsibility of Company and be of no greater amount than is commercially reasonable for a company of its financial standing. These policies shall be primary to any policy maintained by or on behalf of WMI. WMI may, at any time, review the amount of insurance required hereunder, and may, from time to time, but in no event more than annually, require a lower or higher amount depending on the best available estimate of the aggregate exposure to loss arising from damage to WMI's property under this Agreement.

The open cargo and war risk cargo insurance policies shall provide per shipment limits of indemnity of no less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) and contain a warehouse coverage endorsement. In the event that the five million dollars ($5,000,000) limit of insurance is not adequate to fully insure any given shipment under this Agreement, Company shall purchase additional insurance to cover the full replacement cost of the shipment. The deductible on these policies shall be no greater than what is commercially reasonable for an enterprise with Company's financial standing. The deductible shall be the responsibility of Company and this coverage shall be primary to any coverage maintained by WMI.

All policies shall provide for a reimbursement value with respect to WMI's property at replacement cost for new property of like kind and quality, with no deduction for depreciation, and shall include WMI, its partners, officers, employees, and affiliates as loss payees under the policies as their interest may appear, and shall provide that no act or omission on the part of Company as the title insured shall prejudice a direct claim by the additional insured. All property policies shall include a waiver of subrogation in favor of WMI. Any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in conformance with the rules established by the American Arbitration Association. Any determination made by the Insurance Arbitrator shall be final and binding on each of the parties. For the avoidance of doubt, Company shall at all times including during the pendency of any dispute and until such time as such dispute is resolved be required to continue to procure insurance policies as its sole expense in full force and effect as required in this Agreement and as specified herein.

The Building and the land described in Exhibit B attached hereto (the "Land") are collectively called the "Property". The parties agree that for all purposes of this Lease, the Building shall be deemed to have a rentable area of 582,428 square feet and the Premises other than the Concourse Space shall be deemed to have a total rentable area of 82,266 square feet (the "Rentable Square Footage"), subject to adjustment as provided in Article 37 hereof.

1.2 The term of this Lease ("Term") shall commence on the date hereof ("Commencement Date") and shall end at 11:59 p.m. July 30, 2014 (the

1.3 The rents shall consist of:

(a) fixed rent ("Fixed Rent") at the annual rate of:

(i) for the Concourse Space the product of 2,500 square feet (subject to adjustments as provided in this subsection) and Fifteen and 00/100 ($15.00) Dollars from the Commencement Date through and including the Expiration Date. Landlord and Tenant agree that they will equally share the cost to have the Concourse Space measured based on the standard in effect on the date hereof of the Real Estate Board of New York and based on such measurement, the 2,500 square feet of the Concourse Space will be adjusted and the Fixed Rent payable under this subsection (i) will also be adjusted.

(ii) the product of the Rentable Square Footage and Thirty-Four and 42/100 ($34.42) Dollars from the Commencement Date through and including December 31, 2008, and

(c) Tenant shall pay all Fixed Rent and Additional Charges in lawful money of the United States to Landlord and at the election of Landlord by (i) wire transfer to an account designated by Landlord or (ii) by good and sufficient check (subject to collection) drawn on a bank which is a member of the New York Clearinghouse at Landlord's address set forth above (attention: Accounts Receivable Department), or such other place as Landlord shall hereafter designate by notice to Tenant.

Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance or pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease or at law.

(a) (1) The term “Taxes” shall mean the aggregate amount of all real estate and personal property taxes and any general or special assessments (excluding penalties and late interest thereon but including interest on assessments payable in installments) assessed or imposed upon or in respect of the Property, including (i) taxes and assessments in respect of any air rights or development rights now or hereafter appurtenant to, or used in connection with the construction of, the Building, (ii) fees, taxes and charges in respect of any vaults, vault space or other space within or outside the boundaries of the Land, (iii) Business Improvement District assessments and other assessments for public improvements or benefits to the Building, the Land, or the locality in which the Land is situated, and (iv) taxes, assessments and charges in respect of any fixtures, equipment, facilities, systems or personal property of Landlord serving or

(2) All income, estate, succession, inheritance, gift, transfer, franchise profit, use, occupancy, gross receipts, rental, capital gains, capital stock and income taxes of Landlord shall be excluded from Taxes; provided, however, that if the method of taxation of real estate is changed and as a result thereof any other tax or assessment, however denominated, including any franchise, income, profit, use, occupancy, gross receipts or rental tax, shall be imposed upon Landlord or the owner of the Property or the rents or income there from, in substitution for or in addition to, in whole or in part, any of the taxes or assessments listed in the preceding sentence, such other tax or assessment shall be included in and deemed part of Taxes, but calculated for this purpose as if the Property and all appurtenances thereto (including development rights) were the only property of Landlord.

(3) The amount of any special assessments for public improvements or benefits to be included in Taxes for any year (and such installments shall be the maximum permissible amount thereof), in the case where the same may at the option of the taxpayer be paid in installments, shall be limited to the amount of the installment due in respect of such year, together with any interest payable in connection therewith (other than interest or penalties payable by reason of the delinquent payment of such installments).

(b) The term “Tax Year” shall mean each period from July 1 through June 30 (or such other fiscal period as may hereafter be adopted by the City of New York as the fiscal year for any tax, levy or charge included in Taxes).

(c) The term “Base Tax Year” shall mean the Tax Year July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005.

(d) The term “Tax Expenses” shall mean all reasonable expenses, including attorneys’ fees and disbursements and experts’ and other witnesses’ fees and disbursements, incurred by Landlord in seeking to reduce the amount of any assessed valuation of the Land and/or the Building, in contesting the amount or validity of any Taxes, or in seeking a refund of any Taxes.

Such payments shall be made as provided in Section 4.3. Payments with respect to any partial Tax Year which falls within the Term shall be appropriately pro rated.

4.3 Landlord shall give Tenant, prior to or after commencement of each calendar year, a notice setting forth Landlord’s reasonable estimate of the payments to be made by Tenant on account of Taxes during such year. Tenant shall make such payments in installments in the same manner that Taxes for such Tax Year are due and payable by Landlord, whether to the City of New York or to a Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee. Such payment will be retroactive to the later to occur of the Commencement Date or the first month of such calendar year if Landlord’s notice is given after the commencement of such calendar year, provided, however, that if payments to be made by Tenant on account of Taxes are retroactive to the Commencement Date and the Commencement Date is other than the first day of the month in which the same occurs, then any such payments in respect of the month in which the Commencement Date occurs shall be prorated). Landlord may amend such estimate by notice given to Tenant from time to time to reflect additional information about Taxes that comes to Landlord’s attention or to correct any error made in any prior estimate; said notice may require an increase in monthly payments or a separate individual payment and Tenant’s payments shall be adjusted or made as provided in said notice. Promptly after receipt by Landlord of bills for such Taxes, Landlord shall give Tenant copies thereof and the computation of Tenant’s payment on account thereof, and (i) in the event of a deficiency, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the amount thereof within fifteen (15) Business Days after demand therefor, or (ii) in the event of an overpayment, Landlord shall promptly refund to Tenant the amount thereof.

4.4 If Landlord receives a refund of Taxes for any Tax Year, Landlord shall either pay to Tenant Tenant’s Tax Percentage of the net refund after deducting from such refund the costs and expenses of obtaining same (to the extent that such costs and expenses were not included in Tax Expenses); provided, however, such payment or credit to Tenant shall in no event exceed Tenant’s Tax Payment paid for such Tax Year. Only Landlord shall be authorized to contest Taxes. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the Contrary, Tenant shall not be responsible for any Tax Payment payable under this Article that is not billed to Tenant within two (2) years after Landlord makes the corresponding payment of taxes.

(iii) The term “Class A office buildings” shall mean the class of office buildings defined as such under the current Agreement with Local 32B-32J.

(iv) The term “regular hourly wage rate” shall include all payments of every kind (excluding, however, fringe benefits) then payable to or in respect of Porters, computed on the basis of the total undiscounted annual amount payable to or in respect of Porters pursuant to the Agreement, provided, however, if any union agreement shall require the regular employment of Porters on days or during hours when overtime or other premium pay rates are in effect, then the “regular hourly wage rate,” as used above and subject to the other adjustments provided for herein, shall be deemed to mean the actual weekly wage rate, divided by the actual hours in a calendar week during which Porters are required to be employed (if, for example, as of the Commencement Date, an agreement between RAB and Local 32B-32J shall require the regular employment of Porters for forty (40) hours during a calendar week at a minimum hourly wage rate of $3.00 for the first thirty (30) hours, and premium or overtime hourly wage rate of $4.50 for the remaining ten (10) hours, the minimum regular hourly wage rate under this Article 38B, as of the Commencement Date, shall be deemed to be the total weekly wage rate of $135.00 divided by the total number of required hours of employment, forty (40), or $3.375). If no Agreement shall be in effect as of any such January 1 with reference to which the regular hourly wage rate for Porters is to be determined, then the applicable computations and payments under this Lease shall be made upon the basis of the regular hourly wage rate (determined in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Article) being paid by Landlord or by the contractor performing the cleaning services for Landlord on such January 1 to or in respect of Porters, and thereafter appropriate retroactive adjustment shall be made when the regular hourly wage rate payable to or in respect of such Porters is determined pursuant to

Agreement. For the purposes hereof, if the regular hourly wage rate of Porters shall increase during any Operating Year the regular hourly wage rate "in effect as of January 1" of such Operating Year shall be adjusted for the portion of the year for which the increase shall be effective. The Wage Rate and Base Wage Rate shall be calculated by dividing the annual undiscounted cost for a Porter receiving the regular hourly wage rate, by the number of hours that a Porter is expected to work in the calendar year involved. In determining said number of hours, Landlord's management may make reasonable estimates of the average number of days or hours not worked by an average Porter, where such days or hours are not specified by, or vary with individual circumstances pursuant to, the union contract. In calculating the regular hourly wage rate Landlord shall apply such procedures and practices as are generally applied in such calculations by the owners of Class A office buildings in the midtown area of the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, and any dispute or controversy as to or relating to the calculation of the "Wage Rate" shall be determined by arbitration, which arbitration shall be by three arbitrators each of whom shall have at least ten years' experience in the supervision of the operation and management of Class A office buildings in Manhattan.

(v) The term "Porters" shall mean that classification of employee engaged in the general maintenance and operation of office buildings classified as "others" in the current Agreement, or failing such classification in any subsequent Agreement, the most nearly comparable classification in such Agreement.

(vi) The term "Base Wage Rate" shall mean the Wage Rate in effect as of January 1, 2004.

(b) The term "Wage Rate Multiple" shall mean 82,266, but subject to adjustment as provided in Article 37 hereof.

(c) In the event that the Wage Rate in effect as of the January 1 of any Operating Year shall exceed the Base Wage Rate, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Charges for such Operating Year, an amount (the "Operating Payment") equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the number of cents (including any fraction of a cent) by which the Wage Rate exceeds the Base Wage Rate, by (b) the Wage Rate Multiple. By or after the start of the Operating Year commencing January 1, 2003 and by or after the start of each Operating Year thereafter, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant an Escalation Statement relating to such Operating Year and a statement of the Base Wage Rate, showing the escalation, if any, which shall be due hereunder from Tenant to Landlord and the additional rent then payable by Tenant to Landlord shall be paid as provided below. The obligation of Tenant to pay additional rent pursuant to this Section is not predicated upon the rendition by Landlord of any cleaning service to the Premises or upon the employment by Landlord of Porters or cleaners or by the application to Landlord or to the Building of the collective bargaining agreements referred to above. Tenant acknowledges that the payment of Additional Charges to Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section is intended to be an escalation payment to provide additional rent to Landlord and is not a measurement of actual increased costs incurred by Landlord in the operation of the Building.

5.2 Any such adjustment payable by reason of the provisions of this Section shall commence to be payable in equal monthly installments, as of the first day of the period for which the Wage Rate shall exceed the Base Wage Rate, and after Landlord shall furnish Tenant with an Escalation Statement relating to such Operating Year, all monthly installments of rental shall reflect one-twelfth of the annual amount of such adjustment until a new adjustment becomes effective pursuant to the provisions of this Section; provided, however, that if said Escalation Statement is furnished to Tenant after the commencement or effective date of any change in the Wage Rate, there shall be promptly paid by Tenant to Landlord, an amount equal to the portion of such adjustment allocable to the period prior to the date upon which said Escalation Statement is furnished to Tenant. In the event that the Wage Rate shall be changed or shall change more frequently than once a year, the adjustment hereunder shall similarly be made by Landlord in a supplemental Escalations Statement furnished by Landlord to Tenant, so as to reflect such change in the monthly installments due hereunder, and the effective date of each such change. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Tenant shall not be responsible for payment of any Operating Payment payable under this Article that is not billed to Tenant within one (1) years after the expiration of the appropriate calendar year.

SUBORDINATION TO MORTGAGES, LEASES AND DECLARATION OF RESTRICTIONS

6.1 (a) This Lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder shall be subject and subordinate to all ground leases, overriding leases and underlying leases of the Land and/or the Building now or hereafter existing and to all mortgages now or hereafter existing affecting the Land and/or the Building and/or any of such leases, whether or not such mortgages also cover other lands and/or buildings and/or leases, to each and every advance made or hereafter to be made under such mortgages, and to all renewals, modifications, replacements and extensions of such leases and mortgages, and spreaders and consolidations of such mortgages. This Section shall be self-operative and no further instrument of subordination or priority (as described in the first sentence of this Section) shall be required. In confirmation of such subordination or priority Tenant shall promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver any instrument that Landlord, the Lessor under any such lease or the holder of any such mortgage may reasonably request to evidence such subordination or priority; and if Tenant fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any such instrument within ten (10) days after request therefor, Tenant hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Landlord as Tenant's attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, to execute and deliver such instrument on behalf of Tenant. Any lease to which this Lease is subject and subordinate is herein called a "Superior Lease," and the Lessor of a Superior Lease is herein called a "Superior Lessor." Any mortgage to which this Lease is subject and subordinate is herein called a "Superior Mortgage" and the holder of a Superior Mortgage is herein called a "Superior Mortgagee."

(b) Landlord agrees to make a reasonable effort to obtain from the Superior Lessor and the Superior Mortgagee for the benefit of Tenant an agreement, in recordable form, to the effect that if such Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee or any successor or assign of such Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee shall take any action to enforce it's rights, or if such Superior Lease shall terminate or be terminated by reason of a default by the tenant thereunder, then, provided no Event of Default shall have occurred and then be continuing hereunder, such Superior Lessor, Superior Mortgagee, or such successor or assign, as the case may be, will not make Tenant a party defendant to, or otherwise name or join Tenant in, such action and, upon termination of such Superior Lease, will recognize Tenant as the direct tenant of such landlord or such successor or assign, as the case may be, on the same terms and conditions as are contained in this Lease, except that such Superior Lessor, Superior Mortgagee or successor or assign shall not be (i) liable for any previous act or omission of Landlord under this Lease, (ii) subject to any offsets or defenses, not expressly provided in this Lease, which theretofore accrued to the Tenant against Landlord, (iii) liable for any security deposited by Tenant which has not been transferred to such holder, (iv) bound by any previous prepayment of more than one month's rent, other than overpayments in respect of Taxes or Operating Expenses, (v) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any construction of the Premises or any portion thereof demised by this Lease, (vi) bound by an obligation to make any payment to, or on behalf of, the Tenant or provide any services or perform any repairs, maintenance or restoration provided for under this Lease to be performed before the date that such holder succeeded to the interest of Landlord under this Lease or bound by any obligation to make any payment to Tenant with respect to construction performed by, or on behalf of, Tenant at the Premises, and (vii) bound by any obligation to repair, replace, rebuild or restore the Premises demised in the event of damage by fire or other casualty, or in the event of partial condemnation, in any such case in excess of the insurance proceeds or condemnation award actually collected by such holder.

6.2 If any act or omission of Landlord would give Tenant the right, immediately or after lapse of a period of time, to cancel or terminate this Lease, or to claim a partial or total eviction, Tenant shall not exercise such right until (a) Tenant gives notice of such act or omission to Landlord and to each Superior Mortgagee and Superior

Lessor whose name and address were previously furnished to Tenant, and (b) a reasonable period of time for remedying such act or omission elapses following the time when such Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor becomes entitled under such Superior Mortgage or Superior Lease to remedy same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Landlord is entitled under this Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy). Tenant is hereby advised that the Superior Lessor is 75 Plaza LLC, with an address c/o Park Lane Investments LLC, 240 Greenwich Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut 06830 and the Superior Mortgagee is German American Capital Corporation with an address at 31 West 52nd Street, New York, New York 10019.

6.3 Tenant covenants and agrees that if for any reason a Superior Lease (including a Superior Lease through which Landlord derives its leasehold estate in the Premises) is terminated, or if the holder of a Superior Mortgage succeeds to the interest of Landlord hereunder, then at the option of the then holder of the reversionary interest in the Premises demised by this Lease, Tenant will attorn to such holder and will recognize such holder as the Tenant's Landlord under this Lease, except that such holder shall not be (i) liable for any previous act or omission of Landlord under this Lease, (ii) subject to any offsets or defenses, not expressly provided in this Lease, which theretofore accrued to the Tenant against Landlord, (iii) liable for any security deposited by Tenant which has not been transferred to such holder, (iv) bound by any previous prepayment of more than one month's rent, other than overpayments in respect of Taxes or Operating Expenses, (v) bound by any covenant to undertake or complete any construction of the Premises or any portion thereof demised by this Lease, (vi) bound by any obligation to make any payment to, or on behalf of, the Tenant or provide any services or perform any repairs, maintenance or restoration provided for under this Lease to be performed before the date that such holder succeeded to the interest of Landlord under this Lease or bound by any obligation to make any payment to Tenant with respect to construction performed by, or on behalf of, Tenant at the Premises, and (vii) bound by any obligation to repair, replace, rebuild or restore the Premises demised in the event of damage by fire or other casualty, or in the event of partial condemnation, in any such case in excess of the insurance proceeds or condemnation award actually collected by such holder. Tenant agrees to execute and deliver, at any time and from time to time, upon the request of Landlord or of the Lessor under any such Superior Lease or holder of any Superior Mortgage any instrument which may be necessary or appropriate to evidence such attornment and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord or such Lessor under such Superior Lease or holder of a Superior Mortgage the attorney-in-fact, irrevocable, of the Tenant to execute and deliver for and on behalf of Tenant any such instrument. Tenant further waives the provision of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in effect which may give or purport to give the Tenant any right of election to terminate this Lease or to surrender possession of the Premises in the event any proceeding is brought by the Lessor under any Superior Lease or holder of a Superior Mortgage to terminate the same, and agrees that unless and until such Lessor, in connection with any such proceeding, shall elect to terminate this lease and the rights of Tenant hereunder, this Lease shall not be affected in any way whatsoever by any such proceeding.

6.4 If any prospective or actual Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor requires any modification of this Lease, Tenant shall, upon notice thereof from Landlord, promptly execute and deliver to Landlord the instrument accompanying said notice from Landlord to effect such modification if such instrument does not except to a de minimis extent adversely affect Tenant's rights under this Lease and does not increase except to a de minimis extent Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

6.5 Tenant hereby irrevocably waives all rights it has, if any, in connection with any zoning lot merger or transfer of development rights in respect of the Property, including any rights it has to be a party to, to contest, or to execute, any declaration of restrictions which would cause the Property to be merged with any other zoning lot. This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to any declaration of restrictions or any other document of similar nature and purpose now or hereafter affecting the Property. In confirmation of such waiver and subordination, Tenant shall promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver any instrument that Landlord reasonably requests.

QUIET ENJOYMENT

7.1 So long as Tenant pays all Fixed Rent and Additional Charges and performs all of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, in each case within the periods after notice (if any) and grace provided for in this Lease, Tenant shall peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises without hindrance, ejection or molestation by Landlord or any person lawfully claiming through or under Landlord, subject to the provisions of this Lease and to any Superior Leases and Superior Mortgages. This covenant shall be construed as a covenant running with the Land and shall not be construed as a personal covenant of Landlord except to the extent of Landlord's interest in this Lease.

7.2 Landlord shall indemnify Tenant against any loss, damage or expense which Tenant may suffer or incur if Tenant is evicted from the Premises as the result of Landlord's default under any Superior Lease not caused by a default by Tenant under this Lease.

ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING AND MORTGAGING

8.1 Tenant shall not, voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, except as provided in Article 8 hereof: (a) assign or otherwise transfer this Lease, (b) sublet the Premises or any part thereof, or allow same to be used, occupied or utilized by any person other than Tenant or (c) mortgage, pledge, encumber or otherwise hypothecate this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant may permit Tenant's Affiliates to occupy portions of the Premises, subject to all applicable provisions of this Lease. Tenant will promptly advise Landlord in writing of the identity of all Tenant's Affiliates who begin or terminate occupancy of any portion of the Premises.

8.2 (a)

(i) If and so long as Tenant is a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company or other entity, the following shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Lease under Section 8.1, prohibited by said Section: one or more sales or transfers of stock, partnership interests, membership interests or equity interests, voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, or the issuance of new stock, partnership interests, membership interests or equity interests, by which an aggregate of more than 49% of Tenant's stock, partnership interests, membership interests or equity interests, directly or indirectly, by sale of an interest in Tenant or that of any of Tenant's Affiliates, shall be vested in a party or parties who are not stockholders, partners or members as of the date hereof; provided however, that if following such transaction, Tenant will meet the Financial Test (as defined herein), Landlord's consent thereto will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(ii) The sale of all or substantially all of Tenant's assets which results in a Tenant failing to meet the Financial Test, notwithstanding that the Tenant under this Lease after such sale is the same Tenant under this Lease as prior to such sale, shall be deemed an assignment of this Lease whether such sale is made by one or more transactions.

(iii) This Section shall not apply to transactions with a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or entity into or with which Tenant is merged or consolidated or to which substantially all of Tenant's assets are transferred or to any corporation, partnership or limited liability company which controls or is controlled by Tenant or is under common control with Tenant if (x) the successor to Tenant meets the Financial Test, and (y) proof satisfactory to Landlord that Tenant meets the Financial Test is delivered to Landlord at least ten (10) days prior to the effective date of any such transactions. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to and Landlord's consent shall not be required in connection with, sales or transfers by persons other than "insiders" in the shares of any corporation all the outstanding voting stock of which is listed on a national securities exchange (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) or is traded in the over-the-counter market with quotations reported by the National Association of Securities Dealers through its automated system for reporting quotations.

(b) (i) As used herein the term "Financial" Test shall mean a Leverage Ratio (as defined herein) of less than 3.5.

(ii) "Leverage Ratio" of Tenant or Qualified Guarantor (as defined herein), as the case might be, means a ratio, determined as of the end of the most recent fiscal period for such entity for which financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP (as defined herein), certified by a financial officer of such entity as fairly presenting the financial condition and results of operations of such entity have been delivered to Landlord, of: (x) consolidated indebtedness (including, without limitation, all guarantees, capital leases and mandatorily redeemable preferred stock, but excluding undrawn letters of credit) net of aggregate unrestricted cash and cash equivalents of Tenant or Qualified Guarantor and its Subsidiaries in excess of $50,000,000; provided that in no event shall indebtedness determined pursuant to this clause (x) in respect of any calculation of the Leverage Ratio be reduced by more than $200,000,000 on the basis of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents, to (y) the sum of (a) net income for such entity for the latest 12 months or four quarters reflected in such certified financial statements and, to the extent reflected as a charge in the calculation of such net income, (b) interest expense, (c) provisions for taxes, and (d) depreciation and amortization expense.

8.3 If this Lease is assigned, whether or not in violation of the provisions of this Lease, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee. If the Premises or any part thereof is sublet or occupied by any person other than Tenant, whether or not in violation of this Lease, Landlord may, after default by Tenant and expiration of Tenant's time to cure such default, collect rent from the subtenant or occupant. In either event, Landlord may apply the net amount collected to Fixed Rent and Additional Charges herein reserved, but no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection shall be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions of this Article, or the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as Tenant, or a release of Tenant from the performance by Tenant of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. The consent by Landlord to any assignment, mortgaging, subletting or occupancy by others shall not relieve Tenant of the obligation to obtain the consent of Landlord to any other or further assignment, mortgaging, subletting or occupancy by others not expressly permitted by this Article.

8.4 Any assignment or transfer, whether or not Landlord's consent is required, shall be made only if and shall not be effective until the assignee executes, acknowledges and delivers to Landlord an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord whereby the assignee assumes the obligations of Tenant under this Lease and whereby the assignee agrees that the provisions of this Article shall, notwithstanding such assignment or transfer, continue to be binding upon it in respect of all future assignments and transfers. Notwithstanding any assignment or transfer, whether or not in violation of the provisions of this Lease, and notwithstanding the acceptance of Fixed Rent or Additional Charges by Landlord from an assignee, transferee, or any other person, the original Tenant herein named and any and all successors in interest of the original Tenant herein named shall remain fully liable (jointly and severally with any immediate or remote successor in interest, including the then Tenant) for the payment of Fixed Rent and Additional Charges and for the other obligations of Tenant under this Lease.

8.5 The liability under this Lease of the original Tenant herein named and any immediate or remote successor in interest of the original Tenant herein named shall not be discharged, released or impaired in any respect by any agreement or stipulation made by Landlord with the then Tenant extending the time of, or modifying any of the obligations under, this Lease, or by any waiver or failure of Landlord to enforce any of the obligations of Tenant under this Lease.

8.6 Neither the listing of any name other than that of Tenant, whether on the door of the Premises or the Building directory, or otherwise, nor the acceptance by Landlord of any check drawn by a person other than Tenant in payment of Fixed Rent or Additional Charges, shall operate to vest in any person any right or interest in this Lease or in the Premises, nor shall same be deemed to be the consent of Landlord to any assignment or transfer of this Lease or to any sublease of the Premises or to the occupancy thereof by any person other than Tenant.

8.7 Except as specifically provided to the contrary in this Article, if Tenant desires to assign this Lease or sublet all or any part of the Premises, including any assignment or sublet in connection with any proceeding under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any federal, state or foreign law of like impact (collectively, "Insolvency Laws"), Tenant shall give notice thereof to Landlord, which notice shall be accompanied by a term sheet setting forth the material business terms of such proposed assignment or sublease. (i) If such notice is given in connection with a proposed assignment of this Lease, other than an assignment of the type referred to in Section 8.2 hereof, then such notice shall be deemed an offer from Tenant to Landlord whereby Landlord may, at Landlord's option, terminate this Lease. (ii) If such notice is given in connection with a proposed sublease of a portion of the Premises to a party other than a Tenant's Affiliate, then such notice shall be deemed an offer from Tenant to Landlord whereby Landlord (or Landlord's designee) may, at its option, sublease such space (hereinafter referred to as the "Leaseback Space") from Tenant upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The option in question may be exercised by Landlord by notice to Tenant at any time within thirty (30) days after such notice given by Tenant to Landlord, and during such 30-day period Tenant shall not assign this Lease or sublet such space to any person.

8.8 If Landlord exercises its option to sublet the Leaseback Space, such sublease to Landlord or its designee (as subtenant) ("Landlord's Sublease") shall be at the rentals and for the same term as set forth in the term sheet described in Section 8.7 hereof, and such Landlord's Sublease shall:

(a) be expressly subject to all of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions of the Lease except such as are irrelevant or inapplicable, and except as otherwise expressly set forth to the contrary in this Article;

(b) be upon terms and conditions consistent with those contained in the term sheet described in Section 8.7 hereof, except such as are irrelevant or inapplicable and except as otherwise expressly set forth to the contrary in this Article.

(c) give the sublessee the unqualified and unrestricted right, without Tenant's permission, to assign such Landlord's Sublease or any interest therein and/or to sublet the Leaseback Space or any part or parts of the Leaseback Space and to make any and all changes, alterations, and improvements in the space covered by such Landlord's Sublease as Landlord deems necessary or desirable;

(d) provide that any assignee or further subtenant of Landlord may, at the election of Landlord, be permitted to make alterations, decorations and installations in the Leaseback Space or any part thereof as Landlord deems necessary or desirable and shall also provide in substance that any such alterations, decorations and installations in the Leaseback Space therein made by any assignee or subtenant of Landlord may be removed, in whole or in part, by such assignee or subtenant, at its option, prior to or upon the expiration or other termination of such assignment or sublease provided that such assignee or subtenant, at its expense, shall repair any damage and injury to that portion of the Leaseback Space so sublet caused by such removal; provided, however, that if the proposed sublease delivered to Landlord sets forth that the subtenant named therein shall use the space "as is" and make no alterations throughout the term of the sublease, or is required to restore the space to its pre-existing condition, then Landlord shall, or shall cause its assignee or subtenant to, restore the Leaseback Space substantially to its pre-existing condition to the extent required under the proposed sublease unless the term of such proposed sublease expires within the last year of the term of this Lease;

(e) also provide that (i) the parties to a Landlord's Sublease expressly negate any intention that any estate created under such Landlord's Sublease be merged with any other estate held by either of said parties, (ii) occupancy of the Premises by Landlord or its assignee or subtenant shall be for a use in conformance with Section 2.1 of this Lease (except that occupancy of the Premises pursuant to a Landlord's Sublease may be for any lawful purpose, if such Landlord's Sublease is for all or a portion of the Premises, provided such portion of the Premises constitutes at a full floor,

(iii) Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall and will at all times provide and permit reasonably appropriate means of ingress to and egress from the Leaseback Space so sublet by Tenant to Landlord, (iv) Landlord shall make such alterations as shall be reasonably required or deemed necessary by Landlord to physically separate the Leaseback Space from the balance of the Premises and to comply with any laws and requirements of public authorities relating to such separation, and Tenant will promptly reimburse Landlord for the reasonable cost thereof on demand, and (v) at the expiration of the term of a Landlord's Sublease, Tenant will accept the space covered by such Landlord's Sublease in its then existing condition, subject to the obligations of the Landlord as tenant under such Landlord's Sublease to make such repairs thereto as may be necessary to preserve the premises demised by such Landlord's Sublease in reasonable order and condition, and subject to the condition as to restoration set forth in (d) above; and

(f) Tenant shall have no obligation, at the expiration or earlier termination of the term of this Lease, to remove any alteration, installation or improvement made in the Leaseback Space by Landlord or its assignee or subtenant. Performance by Landlord, under a Landlord's Sublease, shall be deemed performance by Tenant of any similar obligation under this Lease and any default under any such Landlord's Sublease shall not give rise to a default under a similar obligation contained in this Lease, nor shall Tenant be liable for any default under this Lease or deemed to be in default hereunder if and to the extent such default arises directly from any act or omission of the tenant under such Landlord's Sublease or arises directly from any act or omission of any occupant holding under or pursuant to any such Landlord's Sublease (including, without limitation, as to payment of Fixed Rent and/or Additional Charges), and

Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant from any loss, damage or expense which Tenant may suffer or incur arising out of the leasing or occupancy of the space demised under a Landlord's Sublease, except to the extent the same arises from any act or omission of Tenant.

8.9 If Landlord exercises its option pursuant to Section 8.7 to terminate this Lease, then this Lease shall terminate on the date that the assignment was to be effective or the sublet was to commence, and Fixed Rent and Additional Charges shall be apportioned as of such date.

8.10 If Landlord does not exercise an option provided to it pursuant to Section 8.7 and Tenant is not in default of any of its obligations under this Lease beyond the applicable period after notice (if any) and grace provided for herein, Landlord's consent (which shall be in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord) to the proposed assignment or sublease shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided and upon condition that:

(a) Tenant has complied with the provisions of this Article,

(b) in Landlord's judgment the proposed assignee or subtenant is a reputable person of good character and is engaged in a business and the Premises will be used in a manner which (i) is in keeping with the then standards of the Building, (ii) is limited to the use expressly permitted under Section 2.1, and (iii) will not violate any negative covenant as to use contained in any other lease of space in the Building,

(c) neither the proposed assignee or subtenant nor any person that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the proposed assignee or subtenant or any person who controls the proposed assignee or subtenant, is then an occupant of any part of the Building, and Landlord has other space in the Building available to let to such proposed assignee or subtenant that is substantially comparable in square footage to the space covered by this Lease or the space proposed to be sublet by Tenant, as applicable,

(d) the proposed assignee or subtenant is not a person with whom Landlord is then actively negotiating or in the prior six-month period was negotiating to lease space in the Building, and

(e) there shall not be more than two subtenants (excluding Tenant's Affiliates) on each floor of the Premises that is 20,000 square feet or less and no more than four subtenants (excluding Tenant's Affiliates) on each floor of the Premises that is more than 20,000 square feet, at any time.

8.11 Except to the extent the same are incurred by Landlord as subtenant under a Landlord's Sublease, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord on demand for any reasonable costs incurred by Landlord in connection with any proposed assignment or sublease, whether or not consented to by Landlord, including the cost of making investigations as to the acceptability of the proposed assignee or subtenant, and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements in connection with the granting of any requested consent.

8.12 Except as provided in Section 8.8(f) as to any subletting to Landlord or its designee, with respect to any subletting to any other subtenant and/or acceptance of rent or additional rent by Landlord from any other subtenant, (a) Tenant shall remain fully liable for the payment of Fixed Rent and Additional Charges due and to become due hereunder and for all of the other obligations of Tenant under this Lease and (b) Tenant shall remain fully liable for all acts and omissions of any licensee or subtenant or any person claiming through or under any licensee or subtenant that are in violation of any of the obligations of Tenant under this Lease, and any such violation shall be deemed to be a violation by Tenant. Notwithstanding any such subletting, no other or further subletting of the Premises by Tenant or any person claiming through or under Tenant shall be made except in compliance with and subject to the provisions of this Article. If Landlord declines to give its consent to any proposed assignment or sublease, or if Landlord exercises its option under Section 8.7, Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against liability in connection with any claims made against Landlord by the proposed assignee or subtenant or by any brokers or other persons claiming a commission or similar compensation in connection with the proposed assignment or sublease.

8.13 If (a) Landlord does not exercise an option provided to it under Section 8.7 and Landlord consents to a proposed assignment or sublease and (b) Tenant fails to execute and deliver the assignment or sublease to which Landlord consented within one hundred eighty (180) days after the giving of such consent, then Tenant shall again be required to comply with the provisions of this Article (as if Tenant had not requested such consent) before assigning this Lease or subletting all or any part of the Premises.

8.14 In respect of every permitted sublease (except a Landlord's Sublease):

(a) no sublease shall be for a term ending later than the day before the Expiration Date,

(b) no sublease shall be valid, and no subtenant shall take possession of the Premises or any part thereof, until an executed counterpart of such sublease has been delivered to Landlord,

(c) each sublease shall provide that it is subject and subordinate to this Lease and to the matters to which this Lease is or shall be subordinate, and that in the event of termination, reentry or dispossess by Landlord under this Lease, Landlord may, at its option, take over all of the right, title and interest of Tenant, as sublessor, under such sublease, and such subtenant shall, at Landlord's option, attorn to Landlord pursuant to the then executory provisions of such sublease and execute and deliver such instruments as Landlord may reasonably request to evidence and confirm such attornment, except that Landlord shall not be (i) liable for any previous act or omission of Tenant under such sublease, (ii) subject to any offset which had accrued to such subtenant against Tenant, (iii) bound by any previous modification of such sublease not consented to by Landlord or by any prepayment of more than one month's rent or additional rent, (iv) obligated to make any payment to or on behalf of such subtenant or to perform any repairs or other work in the subleased space or the Building beyond Landlord's obligations under this Lease, or (v) required to account for any security deposit other than any actually delivered to Landlord,

(d) the rental and other terms and conditions of each sublease shall be substantially the same as those contained in the proposed sublease furnished to Landlord pursuant to Section 8.7 (except that the rental may deviate by up to 5%), and

(e) Tenant shall not publicly advertise the rental rate or any description thereof to be paid by the proposed subtenant or assignee.

8.15 If Landlord does not exercise an option provided to it under Section 8.7 and Landlord gives its consent to any assignment of this Lease (other than an assignment pursuant to Section 8.2 hereof) or to any sublease (other than to a Tenant's Affiliate), Tenant shall in consideration therefor pay to Landlord:

(a) in the case of an assignment, an amount equal to 50% of all sums and other consideration paid to Tenant by the assignee or any other person for or in connection with such assignment (including sums paid for the sale of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture, furnishings or other personal property, less the then net unamortized or undepreciated cost thereof determined on the basis of Tenant's federal income tax return, but excluding the obligations assumed by the assignee to pay all rent and other sums and charges due under this Lease from and after the effective date of such assignment), less reasonable expenses incurred by Tenant for legal expenses, brokerage and fix-up in connection with such assignment,

(b) in the case of a sublease, an amount equal to 50% of all rents, additional charges or other consideration payable to Tenant, plus any sums paid for the sale or rental of Tenant's fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furnishings or other personal property, less the then net unamortized or undepreciated cost thereof determined on a straight line basis over the term of the Lease to the extent that the sum thereof is in excess of the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges accruing during the term of the sublease in respect of the subleased space (at the rate per square foot payable by Tenant hereunder), less reasonable expenses incurred by Tenant for legal expenses, brokerage and fix-up in connection with such sublease. The deduction for the net unamortized or undepreciated cost of Tenant's fixtures, etc. and sublessee's expenses shall be made in equal monthly installments over the term of the sublease. The sums payable under this subsection shall be paid to Landlord as and when paid by the subtenant or any other person to Tenant. For the purpose of this subsection 8.15(b), the determination of amounts due Landlord in connection with a sublease shall be made in respect of each sublease on an individual basis.

8.16 If Tenant at any time requests Landlord to sublet the Premises for Tenant's account, Landlord is authorized to receive keys for such purpose without releasing Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease, and Tenant hereby releases Landlord of and from any liability for loss or damage to any Tenant's Property in connection with such subletting, provided Landlord exercises reasonable care to prevent damage to Tenant's Property.

8.17 Landlord shall, at Tenant's request and expense execute and deliver to a Major Subtenant (as defined herein), a nondisturbance and attornment agreement; provided, that (I) Tenant is not then in default under this Lease after notice and beyond applicable grace period, (II) the sublease with the Major Subtenant is a Qualifying Major Sublease (as defined herein), (III) Tenant has furnished evidence to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction that the subtenant is a Major Subtenant and will continue to be a Major Subtenant after execution and delivery of the sublease and (IV) such Major Subtenant executes and delivers to Landlord the subordination and nondisturbance agreement reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and consistent with this Section 8.17. A "Qualifying Major Sublease" shall mean a sublease from Tenant to a Major Subtenant to which Landlord shall have actually given its consent (not including where Landlord's consent is not required) and which (A) consists of a full floor or multiple full floors in the Building, (B) provides that, at the time when the attornment provided for in the non-disturbance and attornment agreement hereinafter referred to becomes effective between Landlord and the Major Subtenant following the termination of this Lease, the rental payable thereunder, after taking into account any free rent periods, credits, offsets or deductions to which the subtenant may be entitled thereunder, will be equal to or in excess (on a per rentable square foot basis) of the greater of (ww) the Fixed Rent and the recurring Additional Charges payable by Tenant under this Lease with respect to such space and (xx) rent provided for in the Qualifying Major Sublease, and (C) provides for other obligations of the Major Subtenant at least substantially identical to the obligations of Tenant under this Lease. A "Major Subtenant" shall mean a subtenant with an aggregate tangible net worth which is reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this clause, any non-disturbance and attornment agreement delivered by Landlord pursuant to this clause shall, pursuant to this Lease, be conditional and by its terms expressly contain the condition such that, in the event of any termination of this Lease (x) other than by reason of (1) Tenant's default, (2) a rejection in bankruptcy by Tenant or (3) a voluntary surrender of this Lease by Landlord and Tenant, but (y) including a termination of this Lease by reason of casualty or condemnation, hereof, then any non-disturbance and attornment agreement to a Major Subtenant shall, automatically and without further act of the parties, terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the applicable termination date.

COMPLIANCE WITH LEGAL AND INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

9.1 Tenant shall give prompt notice to Landlord of any notice it receives of the violation of any Legal Requirements or Insurance Requirements in respect of the Premises or the use or occupancy thereof. Tenant shall, at Tenant's expense, comply with all Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements relating to the Premises or the use or occupancy thereof, except that Tenant shall not be required to comply with any Legal Requirement or Insurance Requirement requiring structural alteration of the Premises unless the necessity therefor results from (a) Alterations, (b) Tenant's specific manner of use of the Premises (as opposed to general office use), (c) the specific manner of conduct of Tenant's business or operation of its installations, equipment or other property therein, (d) any cause or condition created by or at the instance of Tenant, or (e) the breach of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Tenant shall pay all the costs, expenses, fines, penalties and damages imposed upon Landlord or any Superior Lessors or Superior Mortgagees by reason of or arising out of Tenant's failure to fully and promptly comply with and observe the provisions of this Section. However, Tenant need not comply with any Legal Requirement so long as Tenant is contesting the validity thereof or the applicability thereof to the Premises in accordance with Section 9.2. Landlord shall comply with or cause compliance with all Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements affecting the Building and all other Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements affecting the Premises but may similarly defer compliance so long as Landlord is contesting the validity or applicability thereof. If any public authority or insurance body requires or recommends any additional sprinkler heads or changes to the sprinkler system in or serving the Premises, Tenant shall, at its expense, promptly make and supply such additional sprinkler heads or changes, except that if prior to the date hereof a violation has been issued against the Premises with respect to the sprinkler heads or sprinkler system in the Premises, Landlord at its expense will be responsible for curing such violation.

9.2 Tenant, at its expense, after notice to Landlord, may contest by appropriate proceedings prosecuted diligently and in good faith the validity or applicability to the Premises of any Legal Requirements provided that (a) neither Landlord nor any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee is subject to criminal penalty or to prosecution for a crime, and neither the Building nor any part thereof is subject to being condemned or vacated, by reason of noncompliance or otherwise by reason of such contest, (b) before the commencement of such contest, Tenant furnishes to Landlord either (i) a completion bond of a corporate surety licensed to do business in the State of New York and reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, which bond shall be, as to its provisions and form, reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, in an amount at least equal to 110% of the cost of such compliance (as estimated by a reputable and experienced contractor selected by Tenant and reasonably satisfactory to Landlord), or (ii) other security in place of such bond reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, and (c) such noncompliance or contest does not constitute or result in any violation of any Superior Lease or Superior Mortgage (or if any Superior Lease and/or Superior Mortgage permits such noncompliance or contest only if Landlord takes some specified action or furnishes security, such action is taken and/or such security is furnished at the expense of Tenant). Tenant shall keep Landlord advised as to the status of such proceedings and Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against liability in connection with such contest or noncompliance.

Without limiting the application of the above, Landlord, any Superior Lessor and any Superior Mortgagee shall be deemed subject to prosecution for a crime if Landlord or any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee, or any managing agent for the Building, or any officer, director, partner, shareholder or employee of Landlord or of any managing agent for the Building or of any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee, is charged with a crime of any kind or degree, whether by service of a summons or otherwise.

INSURANCE

10.1 Tenant shall not violate or permit the violation of any Insurance Requirements and shall not do, or permit anything to be done, or keep or permit anything to be kept in the Premises which would subject Landlord or any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee to liability or responsibility for bodily injury or death or property damage, or which would increase any insurance rate in respect of insurance maintained by Landlord over the rate which would otherwise then be in effect, or which would result in an insurance company refusing to insure all or any part of the Property or any contents thereof in amounts reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, or which would result in the cancellation of or the assertion of any defense by the insurer in whole or in part to claims under any policy of insurance maintained by Landlord.

10.2 If, by reason of (a) any failure of Tenant to comply with the provisions of Section 9.1 or Section 10.1, (b) Tenant's use of the Premises, or (c) any cause or condition created by or at the instance of Tenant, including, without limitation, the making of or failure to make any Alterations or repairs, the premiums on any insurance maintained by Landlord shall be higher than they otherwise would be, Landlord shall give Tenant notice of such occurrence, and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord on demand for that part of such premiums attributable to such failure on the part of Tenant. A schedule or "make up" of rates for any insurance maintained by Landlord issued by the New York Fire Insurance Rating Organization or other similar body making rates shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated and of the several items and charges in the insurance rate then applicable to such insurance.

10.3 Tenant, at its expense, shall maintain Commercial General Liability insurance, including but not limited to a contractual liability endorsement, in respect of the Premises and the conduct or operation of business therein, with Landlord and its managing agent, if any, and any Superior Lessors and Superior Mortgagees whose names and addresses were furnished to Tenant, as additional insureds, with limits of not less than $10,000,000 per occurrence and $10,000,000 annual aggregate Bodily Injury and Property Damage liability. The limits of such insurance shall not limit the liability of Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and all additional insureds certificates of insurance evidencing all coverages issued by the insurance company or its authorized agent prior to the Commencement Date. All such policies shall include 30 days written notice of cancellation or material change. Tenant shall procure and pay for renewals of such insurance from time to time before the expiration thereof. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and all additional insureds certificates of insurance at least 30 days prior to the expiration of said policies. All such policies shall be issued by a licensed insurance companies with an A.M. Best's (or its successor) rating of A-VIII or better or the then equivalent of such rating. Tenant is hereby advised that as of the date hereof the Superior Lessor and the Superior Mortgagee are as provided in Section 6.2 hereof.

10.4 Tenant shall maintain in full force and effect a policy of All Risk Property covering the Tenant's furniture, fixtures, improvements and betterments in an amount not less than 100% of the total cost of all Tenant's property. All such policies shall be issued by a licensed insurance company with an A.M. Best's rating of A-VIII or better or the then equivalent of such rating. A certificate of insurance evidencing coverage shall be issued to Landlord prior to the Commencement date and Tenant shall deliver to Landlord and all additional insureds certificates of insurance at least 30 days prior to the expiration of said policies.

10.5 Each party shall have included in each of its All Risk Property insurance policies (insuring the Building and Landlord's property therein in the case of Landlord, and insuring Tenant's Property in the case of Tenant) a waiver of the insurer's right of subrogation against the other party or, if such waiver is unobtainable or unenforceable, (a) an express agreement that such policy shall not be invalidated if the insured waives the right of recovery against any party responsible for a loss covered by the policy before the loss, or (b) any other form of permission for the release of the other party. If such waiver, agreement or permission is not, or ceases to be, obtainable from either party's then current insurance company, the insured party shall so notify the other party promptly after learning thereof, and shall use its best efforts to obtain same from another insurance company, without thereby incurring any liability or expense not expressly provided for in this Lease. If such waiver, agreement or permission is obtainable only by payment of an additional charge, the insured party shall so notify the other party promptly after learning thereof, and the insured party shall not be required to obtain said waiver, agreement or permission unless the other party pays the additional charge therefor. Each party hereby releases the other in respect of any claim which it might otherwise have against the other for loss, damage or destruction of or to its property to the extent to which it is insured under a policy containing a waiver of subrogation or express agreement that such policy shall not be invalidated or permission to release liability, as provided above in this Section. If notwithstanding the recovery of insurance proceeds by either party for loss, damage or destruction of or to its property, the other party is liable to the first party in respect thereof or is obligated under this Lease to make replacement, repair, restoration or payment, then, provided the first party's right of full recovery under its insurance policy is not thereby prejudiced or otherwise adversely affected, the amount of the net proceeds of the first party's insurance against such loss, damage or destruction shall be offset against the second party's liability to the first party therefor, or shall be made available to the second party to pay for replacement, repair or restoration, as the case may be. Nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to (i) relieve either party of any duty imposed elsewhere in this Lease to repair, restore or rebuild or (ii) nullify any abatement or reduction of rents provided for elsewhere in this Lease.

10.6 Landlord may from time to time, but not more frequently than once every year, require that the amount of Commercial General Liability insurance to be maintained by Tenant under Section 10.3 be reasonably increased to an amount not in excess of the amount then customarily required by owners of comparable first class office buildings in Manhattan to be maintained by tenants of space similar in size, location and construction to the Premises.

10.7 The insurance required to be carried by Tenant pursuant to the provisions of this Article 10 may, at Tenant's option, be effected by blanket and/or umbrella policies issued to Tenant covering the Premises and other properties owned or leased by Tenant or any Tenant's Affiliate, provided such policies otherwise comply with the provisions of this Lease and allocate to the Premises the specified coverage, including, without limitation, the specified coverage for all insureds required to be named as insureds hereunder, without possibility of reduction or coinsurance by reason of, or because of damage to, any other properties named therein.

10.8 Landlord shall, throughout the term, maintain in effect, such insurance with respect to the Building and Landlord's property against loss due to fire and such other casualties, and such comprehensive general liability insurance, as are required by the Master Lease.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

11.1 Tenant shall and shall cause its subtenants and licensees, and its and their respective directors, officers, partners, employees, agents, contractors and invitees, to observe and comply with the rules and regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D, and such reasonable changes therein (whether by modification, elimination or addition) as Landlord at any time or times makes and notifies Tenant of which in Landlord's reasonable judgment are necessary or desirable for the reputation, safety, care or appearance of the Building, or the preservation of good order therein, or the operation or maintenance of the Building. Such rules and regulations as changed from time to time are herein called the "Rules and Regulations." In case of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Lease and any of the Rules and Regulations, the provisions of this Lease shall control.

11.2 The Rules and Regulations shall be uniformly applied and enforced against the tenants of the Building other than Landlord-Related Occupants.

ALTERATIONS

12.1 Tenant may from time to time, at its expense, make such alterations ("Alterations") to the Premises as Tenant reasonably considers necessary for the conduct of its business in the Premises, provided and upon condition that: (a) the Alterations are non-structural and the structural integrity of the Building is not affected, (b) the Alterations are to the interior of the Premises, no part of the Building outside of the Premises is affected, and the outside appearance of the Building is not affected, (c) the proper functioning of the mechanical, electrical, sanitary and other service systems of the Building is not adversely affected, and (d) no change in the Certificate of Occupancy for the Building will result from the Alterations or be required as a result thereof. Before proceeding with any Alteration (other than painting and other strictly decorative work), Tenant shall submit to Landlord for Landlord's approval (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) a description of such Alteration and if such Alteration will cost more than $200,000 or require the issuance of a building permit Tenant shall also supply scaled and dimensioned plans and specifications for the work to be done prepared by a registered architect or licensed professional engineer, and Tenant shall not proceed with such work until it obtains such approval. Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand the reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses of any outside architect or engineer hired by Landlord for the purpose of (i) reviewing said plans and specifications and (ii) inspecting the Alterations to determine whether the same are being performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and all Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements including the fees or cost of any architect, engineer or draftsman for such purposes. Before proceeding with any Alteration that will cost more than $200,000 (exclusive of the cost of decorating work and items constituting Tenant's Property), as estimated, at Tenant's expense, by a reputable and experienced contractor reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, Tenant shall obtain and deliver to Landlord either, at Landlord's option, (x) a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond reasonably satisfactory to Landlord issued by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the State of New York and reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, each in an amount equal to 125% of such estimated cost and in form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, or (y) such other security as shall be reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. Tenant shall fully and promptly comply with and observe the Rules and Regulations then in force in respect of making Alterations. Any review or approval by Landlord of any plans or specifications in respect of any Alterations is solely for Landlord's benefit and without any representation or warranty to Tenant as to the adequacy, correctness or efficiency thereof or as to the compliance of such plans and specifications with Legal Requirements or Insurance Requirements.

12.2 Tenant, at its expense, shall obtain all necessary governmental permits and certificates for the commencement and prosecution of Alterations and for final approval thereof upon completion, and shall cause Alterations to be performed in compliance therewith and with all applicable Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements. Landlord, upon the request of Tenant, shall join in any applications for any permits, approvals or certificates required to be obtained by Tenant in connection with any Alteration approved by Landlord, if such approval is required hereunder, (including requesting the Superior Lessor so to join in) and shall otherwise cooperate with Tenant in connection therewith, and Tenant shall pay any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith. Alterations shall be diligently performed in a good and workmanlike manner, using new materials and equipment at least equal in quality and class to the then standards for the Building established by Landlord. Alterations shall be performed by contractors first approved by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed unless such Alteration affects the base building system, in which case Tenant must use the Building designated contractors. Alterations shall be performed in such a manner as not to violate union contracts affecting the Property, or to create any work stoppage, picketing, labor disruption or dispute or any interference with the business of Landlord or any tenant of the Building. In addition, Alterations shall be performed in such a manner as not to otherwise unreasonably interfere with or delay and as not to impose any additional expense upon Landlord in the construction, maintenance, repair, operation or cleaning of the Building, and if any such additional expense is incurred by Landlord as a result of Tenant's performance of Alterations, Tenant shall pay such additional expense to Landlord on demand. Throughout the performance of Alterations, Tenant shall carry, or cause its contractors to carry, workers' compensation insurance in statutory limits, "Builder's Risk" insurance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, and comprehensive general liability insurance, with completed operations endorsement, for any occurrence in or about the Building, under which Landlord and its managing agent and any Superior Lessors and Superior Mortgagees whose names and addresses were furnished to Tenant shall be named as additional insureds, in such limits as Landlord may reasonably require, with insurers reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. Tenant shall furnish Landlord with reasonably satisfactory evidence that such insurance is in effect before the commencement of Alterations and, on request, at reasonable intervals during the continuance of Alterations. If any Alterations involve the removal of any fixtures, equipment or other property in the Premises which are not Tenant's Property, such fixtures, equipment or other property shall be promptly replaced at Tenant's expense with new fixtures, equipment or other property of like utility and at least equal value. Upon completion of any Alterations (other than mere decorations) Tenant shall deliver to Landlord scaled and dimensioned reproducible mylars of "as-built" plans for such Alteration and a copy on a diskette format.

12.3 Tenant, at its expense, shall promptly procure the cancellation or discharge of all notices of violation arising from or otherwise connected with Alterations, or any other work, labor, services or materials done for or supplied to Tenant or any person claiming through or under Tenant which are issued by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York or any other public authority having or asserting jurisdiction. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against liability in connection with any and all mechanics' and other liens and encumbrances filed in connection with Alterations, or any other work, labor, services or materials done for or supplied to Tenant or any person claiming through or under Tenant, including security interests in any materials, fixtures or articles so installed in the Premises. Tenant, at its expense, shall procure the satisfaction or discharge of record of all such liens and encumbrances within 30 days after the Tenant receives notice of the filing thereof.

LANDLORD'S AND TENANT'S PROPERTY; REMOVAL AT END OF TERM

13.1 All fixtures, equipment, improvements and appurtenances, including utility lines and equipment, attached to or built into the Premises before or after the Commencement Date, whether by or at the expense of Landlord or Tenant, shall be and remain a part of the Premises, shall be deemed the property of Landlord and shall not be removed by Tenant except as provided in Section 13.2.

13.2 All movable partitions, business and trade fixtures, machinery and equipment, communications equipment and office equipment, whether or not attached to or built into the Premises, which are, or were, installed in the Premises by Tenant, or any predecessor in interest thereto, without expense to Landlord and which can be removed without structural damage to the Building, and all furniture, furnishings and other articles of movable personal property owned by Tenant, or any predecessor in interest thereto, and located in the Premises (collectively, "Tenant's Property") shall be and shall remain the property of Tenant and may be removed by Tenant at any time during the Term, provided that if any Tenant's Property is installed or removed, Tenant shall repair or pay the cost of repairing any damage to the Premises or to the Building resulting from the installation and/or removal thereof, other than repainting and purely decorative repairs. At or before the Expiration Date, or within 15 days after an earlier termination date, Tenant, at its expense, shall remove from the Premises all Tenant's Property, and Tenant shall repair any damage to the Premises and the Building resulting from any installation and/or removal of Tenant's Property. Any other items of Tenant's Property which remain in the Premises after the Expiration Date, or after 15 days following an earlier termination, may, at the option of Landlord, be deemed to have been abandoned, and in such case such items may be retained by Landlord as its property or disposed of by Landlord without accountability in such manner as Landlord shall determine at Tenant's expense.

13.3 At the time of Landlord's approval of Tenant's plans and specifications for any Alterations, Landlord may include in its approval a requirement that any Alterations which are of a structural nature and/or are of a type not normally found in Manhattan general business offices shall, at Landlord's option, be removed from the Premises by the Tenant at the end of the Term. If Landlord notifies Tenant at any time prior to or not more than 45 days after the Expiration Date or date or sooner termination of this Lease that any such Alterations are to be removed, Tenant shall remove such Alterations not later than such Expiration Date or date of sooner termination unless such request is made after such Expiration Date or date of sooner termination (or is made prior to such Expiration Date or date of sooner termination and the Tenant acting with reasonable promptness is not able to so remove the same prior to the Expiration Date or date of sooner termination), in which event the same shall be so removed by the Tenant with reasonable promptness after the receipt of such request. The cost and expense of any such removal (including removal by Landlord upon Tenant's failure to do so as provided herein) and the cost of repairing any damage to the Premises or the Building arising from such removal, shall be paid by the Tenant upon demand.

REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE

14.1 Tenant shall, at its expense, take good care of the Premises, the fixtures and appurtenances therein and any Tenant's Property. Tenant shall be responsible for and shall promptly make all repairs, interior and exterior, structural and nonstructural, ordinary and extraordinary, in and to the Premises and the Building the need for which arises out of (a) the performance by Landlord or others or existence of any Work or installations in and to the Premises to prepare the Premises for occupancy by Tenant, or any predecessor in interest thereto, Alterations or other work by Tenant, (b) the installation, use or operation of Tenant's Property, (c) the moving of Tenant's Property in or out of the Premises or the Building, or (d) the act, omission, misuse or neglect of or by Tenant or any subtenant or licensee, or their respective employees, agents, contractors or invitees. Tenant, at its expense, shall promptly repair or replace all scratched, damaged or broken doors and glass in and about the Premises and shall, subject to the terms of this Lease, be responsible for all repairs, painting, maintenance and replacement of wall and floor coverings in the Premises and for the repair and maintenance of all fixtures and equipment therein. Any repairs required to be made by Tenant to the mechanical, electrical, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning or other systems shall be performed only by contractors approved by Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to make any repairs or replacements necessitated by, or repair any damage caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord and/or Landlord's servants, contractors, employees or representatives.

14.2 Landlord shall make all repairs, structural and otherwise, interior and exterior, as and when needed in or to the Building and the systems servicing the Building as a whole (including the Premises) and including the mechanical, electrical, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, elevator, plumbing, sanitary, life-safety and other service systems of the Building providing Building-wide services and the public portions of the Building, both exterior and interior) in conformity with standards applicable to first-class office buildings in Manhattan, City, State and County of New York of comparable age and quality, except for those repairs for which Tenant or any other tenant is responsible.

14.3 Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant, nor shall Tenant's obligations under this Lease be reduced or abated in any manner, by reason of any inconvenience, annoyance, interruption or injury to Tenant's business arising from Landlord's making any repairs or changes which Landlord is required or permitted to make. In making any such repairs or changes, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to limit the duration of any such interruptions.

ELECTRIC ENERGY

15.1 (a) Landlord, at Landlord's expense, shall furnish electrical energy in the Premises for Tenant's reasonable use of normal office equipment and such lighting, electrical appliances, general office computers, fax machines, photocopiers and other machines and equipment as are reasonably incidental thereto, or as Landlord shall otherwise permit to be installed in the Premises, through the feeders, wiring installations and facilities heretofore installed in the Building and, to the extent not previously installed, shall install at Landlord's cost and expense at least one (1) submeter on each floor of the Premises to measure Tenant's consumption of electrical energy. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Charges hereunder, on demand made from time to time but no more frequently than monthly, for its use of electrical energy in the Premises as evidenced by the aforesaid submeter(s), based upon both consumption and demand factors, at the seasonally adjusted rate then payable by Landlord to the utility company providing service to the Building (net of any energy rebates or energy cost savings received by Landlord with respect to the Building), plus an amount equal to three percent (3%) thereof to reimburse Landlord for its overhead, administration, and supervision in connection therewith. For purposes of this Article, the rate to be paid by Tenant shall include any taxes, energy charges, demand charges, fuel adjustment charges, rate adjustment charges, or other charges actually imposed in connection therewith. If any tax is imposed upon Landlord's receipts from the sale or resale of electrical energy to Tenant by any federal, state, city or local authority, the pro-rata share of such tax allocable to the electrical energy service received by Tenant shall be passed onto and paid by Tenant as Additional Charges if and to the extent permitted by law. Upon request, Landlord shall make available to Tenant a copy of its bill from the Utility Company and any other documentation reasonably requested by Tenant in order to confirm the charges billed to Tenant pursuant to this Section. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Landlord will only provide sufficient electricity to the Concourse Space for lighting.

(b) Landlord's failure during the term of this Lease to prepare and deliver any statements or bills under this Article or Landlord's failure to make a demand under this Article or any other provisions of this Lease, shall not in any way be deemed to be a waiver of, or cause Landlord to forfeit or surrender its rights to collect, any amount of Additional Charges which may have become due pursuant to this Article during the term of this Lease. Tenant's liability for any amounts due under this Article shall continue unabated during the remainder of the term of this Lease and shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, provided, that Tenant shall not be responsible for payment of any of Additional Charges payable under this Article that are not billed to Tenant within one (1) year after the expiration of the calendar year in which such costs were incurred.

(c) In order that Landlord may at all times have all necessary information which it requires in order to maintain and protect its equipment, Tenant agrees that Tenant will not make any material alteration or material addition to the electrical equipment and/or appliances in the Premises without the prior written consent of Landlord in each instance (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and will promptly advise Landlord of any other alteration or addition to such electrical equipment and/or appliances; provided, however, that Tenant shall not be required to advise

Landlord of any de minimis alterations or additions, such as the installation of additional personal computers, lamps and other ordinary office equipment of low energy usage, unless, if taken in the aggregate, such alterations and additions are no longer de minimis.

(d) Landlord may, at its option, upon not less than ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Tenant (or such longer time as may be required to make arrangements with the electric utility for direct service provided Tenant exercises its best efforts to complete said arrangements as soon as possible), discontinue the furnishing of electric current to the Premises or any part thereof and, in such event, the Tenant shall contract for the supplying of such electric current thereto with the public service company supplying electric current to the neighborhood and the Landlord shall supply its suitable and safely cable risers, conduits and feeders to serve the Premises available, for the purpose of supplying such electric current. Landlord agrees that it will not discontinue the furnishing of electric current to the Premises in the manner provided herein unless required to do so by a Legal Requirement, or in connection with a program to convert all or substantially all of the office space in the Building not occupied by Landlord or Landlord Affiliates to an alternate form of electrical supply.

(e) Except as may be otherwise provided in this Lease, the Tenant shall, at its own expense, purchase and install all lamps, starters and ballasts (including replacements thereof) used in the lighting fixtures in the Premises.

15.2 In the event that Tenant shall require electric current for use in the Premises in excess of such reasonable quantity to be furnished as provided in this Lease and if, in the Landlord's reasonable judgment, such excess requirements cannot be furnished unless additional risers, conduits, feeders, switchboards and/or appurtenances are installed in the Building, Landlord, upon written request of the Tenant, will proceed with reasonable diligence to install such additional risers, conduits, feeders, switchboards and/or appurtenances provided the same and the use thereof shall be permitted by applicable Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements and shall not cause permanent damage or injury to the Building or the Premises or cause or create a dangerous or hazardous condition or entail excessive or unreasonable alterations or repairs or interfere with or disturb other tenants or occupants of the Building, and the Tenant agrees to pay all direct costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord in connection with such installation and to maintain on deposit with the Landlord such security for the payment by the Tenant of all such costs and expenses as the Landlord shall from time to time reasonably request.

15.3 Landlord shall not be liable or responsible to Tenant for any loss, damage or expense that Tenant sustains or incurs if either the quantity or character of electric service is changed or interrupted or is no longer available or suitable for Tenant's requirements unless due to the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents, employees or contractors.

HEAT, VENTILATION AND AIR CONDITIONING

16.1 Landlord shall, subject to energy conservation requirements of governmental authorities, supply during Business Hours of Business Days heat, air conditioning (including such cooling during the period from April 15 to October 15 (the "AC Season"), as is comparable to other first-class office buildings in Manhattan) and ventilation to all portions of the Premises, if any, which are served by the Building's air conditioning and ventilation systems, but the electric current consumed in furnishing air conditioning and ventilation to such portions of the Premises shall be paid for by the Tenant in the manner provided in Article 15 hereof. Landlord will, subject to energy conservation requirements or governmental authorities, provide such heating, air conditioning and ventilation to meet substantially the same specifications with respect to air temperature and air volume as has been provided to Tenant during calendar years to 2002 and 2003. Landlord will promptly furnish to Tenant a schedule of such specifications. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord will not be required to provide heating, ventilation or air conditioning during non-Business Hours, on non-Business Days or during the non-AC Season unless Tenant pays the charges as otherwise provided herein. Tenant agrees to lower and close the venetian blinds on all windows of the Premises facing the sun whenever said air conditioning system is in operation and Tenant will at all times abide with all regulations and requirements which Landlord may reasonably prescribe for the proper functioning and protection of said air conditioning system. Landlord will, when and to the extent reasonably requested by Tenant, furnish additional heat, air conditioning and ventilation services and Tenant will pay to the Landlord its building standard charge therefor (which charges will, if applicable, be pro rated as reasonably determined by Landlord among all tenants requesting such service), a schedule of such charges in effect on the date hereof being attached hereto as Exhibit E. No representation is made by Landlord with respect to the adequacy or fitness of such air conditioning or ventilation to maintain temperatures as may be required for, or because of, the operation of any computer, data processing or other equipment of Tenant, and where air conditioning or ventilation is required for any such purpose, Landlord assumes no responsibility, and shall have no liability, for any loss or damage, however sustained, in connection therewith.

16.2 The performance by Landlord of its obligations under Section 16.1 is conditioned upon Tenant's connected load not exceeding five watts per rentable square foot of the Premises (which Landlord represents is available at the Premises) and upon the occupancy of the Premises not exceeding one individual per 125 square feet of rentable area in the Premises. Landlord covenants and agrees that in the event Tenant on the date hereof has and is utilizing more than five watts per rentable square foot, Landlord will not reduce such excess capability without first obtaining Tenant's consent thereto, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Use of the Premises or any part thereof in a manner exceeding the heating, ventilating and/or air-conditioning design conditions (including occupancy and connected electrical load), or rearrangement of partitioning which interferes with normal operation of the heating, ventilating and/or air conditioning in the Premises, or the use of computer or data processing machines or other machines or equipment, may require changes in the heating, ventilating and/or air-conditioning systems servicing the Premises in order to provide comfortable occupancy. Such changes shall be made at Tenant's expense as Alterations in accordance with the provisions of Article 12, but only to the extent permitted and upon the conditions set forth in that Article. In furtherance thereof, if Tenant installs a supplemental cooling system to service the Premises, said system shall be installed and maintained at the sole cost and expense of Tenant and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Charges, a per ton hook-up fee and an annual per ton charge for condenser water at Landlord's building standard charges therefor.

OTHER SERVICES, SERVICE INTERRUPTION AND BUILDING DIRECTORY

17.1 Landlord shall furnish adequate hot and cold water to the Premises for drinking, lavatory and normal cleaning purposes. If Tenant uses water for any other purpose, Landlord may install and maintain, at Tenant's expense, meters to measure Tenant's consumption of cold water and/or hot water for such other purpose. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord on demand for the cost of cold water and hot water shown on such meters, which cost will also include any sewer rents or charges imposed thereon.

17.2 Landlord shall cause the common area and sidewalks of the Building to be kept reasonably clean and free from snow and ice, and shall cause the Premises, including the exterior and interior of the exterior windows, to be cleaned in a manner standard to the Building pursuant to the specifications attached hereto as Exhibit F. Landlord shall not be required to clean (x) any portions of the Premises used for preparation, serving or consumption of food or beverages, training rooms, data processing or reproducing operations or private lavatories or toilets or (y) the Concourse Space. Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand the costs incurred by Landlord for (a) extra cleaning work in the Premises required because of (i) the act, omission, misuse or neglect of the Premises or any portion thereof Tenant or any subtenant or licensee, or their respective employees, agents, contractors or invitees, (ii) use of portions of the Premises for special purposes requiring greater or more difficult cleaning work than required in normal office areas, (iii) unusual quantity of interior glass partitions or unusual quantity of interior glass surfaces, and (iv) special materials or finishes (other than carpet) installed by Tenant, any predecessor in interest thereto, or its subtenants, (b) collection and removal from the Premises and the Building of any refuse or rubbish of Tenant in excess of that ordinarily accumulated in general office occupancy.

17.3 Landlord shall provide passenger elevator service to the Premises during Business Hours, and Landlord shall have at least one passenger elevator subject to call at all other times. It Tenant requires freight elevator service at any times, or more than one passenger elevator at any time other than during Business Hours, Landlord shall furnish such service upon not less than one Business Day's advance notice from Tenant, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand Landlord's then established building-wide charges therfor, a schedule of such charges in effect on the date hereof being attached hereto as Exhibit E. The use of the elevators shall be subject to the Rules and Regulations. It is understood and agreed that Landlord may remove elevators from service for upgrading and/or repairs, but that unless required to do so by conditions beyond the Landlord's reasonable control, no more than two (2) elevators in the elevator bank now servicing Tenants will be removed from service at any particular time. Subject to the Rules and Regulations, Tenant may have access to the Building at all times.

17.4 Landlord shall have the right, without affecting Tenant's obligations under this Lease, to temporarily stop or interrupt or reduce service of any of the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, electric, sanitary, elevator, sprinkler, water or other Building systems, or to temporarily stop or interrupt or reduce any other services required or Landlord under this Lease (whether or not specified in Article 16 or in this Article), whenever and for so long as may be necessary, by reason of (a) Force Majeure Events or (b) the making of repairs, additions, changes or replacements which Landlord is required or permitted to make or in good faith deems necessary.

17.5 Landlord will, at the written request of Tenant, maintain listings on the Building directory, if any, of the names of Tenant and any other person, firm or corporation in occupancy of the Premises or any part thereof as permitted hereunder, and the names of any officers or employees of any of the foregoing, provided that the names so listed shall not use more than Tenant's Operating Percentage of the space in the Building directory system. If Landlord maintains a concierge desk and/or a pass/I.D. card entry system in the Building lobby, Tenant will be incorporated into any such system.

17.6 Tenant, provided it complies with the other provisions of the Lease with respect to an Alteration, may install an electronic key card lock system on the entrances to the Premises provided that Landlord is provided, at no charge, with a sufficient number of access cards or keys to allow Building personnel to access the Premises in accordance with the terms of this Lease.

17.7 Landlord at its cost will maintain the central Class E System in the Building lobby required by the applicable Legal Requirements. Tenant will be responsible for the Class E System in the Premises and for the connection to the central Class E System in the Building lobby.

17.8 Landlord will 24 hours a day 7 days a week maintain an attendant in the lobby of the Building. Landlord will maintain the present card key access system located in the lobby of the Building. During Non-Business Hours and on Non-Business Days Landlord may limit access to the Building to only one of the entrances on the West 51st or West 52nd Street. Landlord will maintain and monitor the existing closed circuit television system that monitors public area at the Building. Landlord at its election may replace or upgrade any of the foregoing security systems, but Landlord will not be required to make such upgrades. If Tenant requests that Landlord provide additional security and Tenant agrees to pay the reasonable cost therefore, Landlord shall provide such additional security.

ARTICLE 18

ACCESS, NOTICE OF OCCURENCES, WINDOWS,
NAME OF BUILDING AND NO DEDICATION

18.1 Except for the space below the hung ceiling and above the floor and bounded by the interior surfaces of the walls, windows and doors bounding the Premises, all of the Building, including exterior Building walls, core corridor walls and doors and any core corridor entrances, any terraces or roofs adjacent to the Premises and any space in or adjacent to the Premises used for shafts, stacks, pipes, conduits, fan rooms, ducts, electric or other utilities, sinks or other Building facilities, and the use thereof, as well as access thereto through the Premises for the purposes of operation, maintenance, decoration and repair, are reserved to Landlord. Landlord shall have the right, at any time, without affecting any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, to install, erect, use and maintain pipes, ducts and conduits in and through the Premises (provided that any such pipes, ducts or conduits are either located within walls or placed adjacent to walls and appropriately furred), and to make such changes, alterations, additions and improvements in or to the Building and common areas as Landlord deems necessary or desirable.

18.2 Landlord and its agents shall have the right to enter and/or pass through and/or be on the Premises at any time or times to examine the Premises and to show it to actual or prospective Superior Lessors or Superior Mortgages or prospective purchasers of the Building or prospective tenants during the six months of the term hereof or during the 30-day period during which Landlord is considering to terminate the Lease or enter into a Landlord Sublease as provided in Article 8 hereof or at any time with respect to the 12th floor if Landlord is considering to exercise its options pursuant to Article 38 hereof. Landlord, its agents and contractors (including cleaning contractors), and their respective employees, (a) shall have the right to enter and/or pass through and/or be on the Premises to clean the Premises and to make such repairs, alterations and improvements in or to the Building as Landlord is required or desires to make (except that access for Landlord's cleaning contractor and its employees to clean the Premises on Business Days shall be only from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m.) and (b) shall have the right to use, without charge therfor, all light, power, and water in the Premises while cleaning or making repairs or alterations in the Premises. Landlord shall have the right to take all materials into and on the Premises that may be required in connection therewith and such acts shall not be deemed an actual or constructive eviction and shall have no effect upon Tenant's obligations under this Lease. If during the last thirty (30) days of the Term, Tenant has removed all or substantially all Tenant's Property from the Premises, Landlord may, without notice to Tenant, immediately enter the Premises and alter, renovate and decorate the Premises, and such acts shall not be deemed an actual or constructive eviction and shall have no effect upon Tenant's obligations under this lease.

18.3 If at any time any windows of the Premises are temporarily darkened or obstructed by reason of any repairs, improvements, maintenance and/or cleaning in or about the Building, or are permanently darkened or obstructed due to Legal Requirements or Insurance Requirements, or if any part of the Building other than the Premises is temporarily or permanently closed or inoperable, any such occurrence shall not be deemed an actual or constructive eviction and shall have no effect upon Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

18.4 Landlord may adopt any name for the Building, and Landlord shall have the right to change the name and/or address of the Building at any time and from time to time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Building shall not be named for a Tenant Competitor (as defined herein) for as long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. Tenant continues to rent and occupy at least 80,000 square feet in the Premises and Tenant maintains either its headquarters or principal offices of its music business in the Premises. The term "Tenant Competitor" shall mean a company whose primary business is the music industry and Tenant's principal business continues to be in the music industry.

18.5 Landlord and its agents shall have the right to permit access to the Premises at any time, whether or not Tenant shall be present, (a) by any receiver, trustee, sheriff, marshal, or other public official entitled to, or purporting to be entitled to, such access (i) for the purpose of taking possession of or removing any property of Tenant or of any other occupant of the Premises, or (ii) for any other lawful purpose, or (b) by any representative of the fire, police, building, sanitation or other department of instrumentality of any borough, city, state, or federal government. Nothing contained in, nor any action taken by Landlord under this Section, shall be deemed to constitute recognition by Landlord that any person other than Tenant has any right or interest in this Lease or the Premises.

18.6 Tenant shall give prompt notice to Landlord of any of the following of which Tenant becomes aware: (a) any occurrence in or about the Premises for which Landlord might be liable, (b) any fire or other casualty in the Premises, (c) any damage to or defect in the Premises, including the fixtures, equipment and appurtenances therof, for the repair of which Landlord might be responsible, and (d) any damage to or defect in any part of the Building's sanitary, electrical, sprinkler, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, plumbing, elevator or other systems in or passing through the Premises.

18.7 If an excavation is made upon land adjacent to or under the Building, or is authorized to be made, Tenant shall afford to the person causing or authorized to cause such work as said person deems necessary or desirable to preserve and protect the Building from injury or damage and to support same by proper foundations, and same shall not be deemed an actual or constructive eviction and shall have no effect on Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

18.8 Prior to any entry by Landlord into the Premises (other than routine cleaning, and except emergency situations), Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to give reasonable advance notice thereof to Tenant (which may be by telephone, email, or fax), and Tenant shall have the right to have a representative accompany Landlord's personnel during the course of any such entry. If Tenant is not present when for any reason entry into the Premises is necessary or permissible, Landlord or Landlord's agents may enter same by a master key, or may forcibly enter same, without rendering Landlord or such agents liable therefore (if during such entry Landlord or such agents accord reasonable care to Tenant's Property), and such entry shall not be deemed an actual or constructive eviction and shall have no effect upon Tenant's obligations under this Lease.

18.9 In exercising its rights under this Article 18, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts under the circumstances to avoid undue disruption of Tenant's business. However, Landlord shall not be required to do work in and about the Premises during non-Business Hours in other Class A office buildings in Midtown Manhattan.

NON-LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

19.1 Neither Landlord nor any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee shall be liable to Tenant for any loss, injury or damage to Tenant or to any other person, or to its or their property, irrespective of the cause of such injury, damage or loss, unless caused by or resulting from the negligence of willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents, contractors, employees or the Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee, in the operation or maintenance of the Premises or the Building. Neither Landlord nor any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee shall be liable (a) for any damage caused by other tenants or persons in, on or about the Building, or (b) even if resulting from negligence or willful misconduct, for consequential damages of Tenant or any subtenant or licensee or Tenant.

19.2 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, Tenant shall look solely to the estate and property of Landlord in and to the property in the event of any claim against Landlord or any partner, director, officer, agent or employee of Landlord arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant or Tenant's use of the Premises, and the liability of Landlord arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant or Tenant's use of Premises, shall be limited to such estate and property of Landlord. No other properties or assets of Landlord or any partner, director, officer, agent or employee or Landlord shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedures for the satisfaction of any judgment (or other judicial process) or for the satisfaction of any other remedy of Tenant arising out of or in connection with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant or Tenant's use of the Premises, and if Tenant acquires a lien on or interest in any other properties or assets by judgment or otherwise, Tenant shall promptly release such lien or interest in such other properties and assets by executing, acknowledging and delivering to Landlord an instrument to that effect prepared by Landlord's attorneys.

19.3 Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against liability in connection with (a) the conduct or management of the Premises or of any business therein, or any work or thing done, or any condition created (other than by Landlord, Superior Landlord or Superior Mortgagee) in or about the Premises during the Term or during the period of time, if any, prior to the Commencement Date that Tenant is given access to the Premises, including, without limitations, the performance of any Alterations by or on behalf of Tenant, (b) any act, omission or negligence of Tenant or any subtenant or licensee or their respective employees, agents contactors, or invitees, (c) any accident, injury or damage, (unless caused solely by the negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, Superior Landlord or Superior Mortgagee) occurring in, at or upon the Premises, (d) the failure of Tenant or any subtenant or licensee or their respective employees, agents, contractors, or invitees to comply with those Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements which are to be complied with by Tenant pursuant to the terms of this Lease, or (e) any other breach of default by Tenant under this Lease.

19.4 Landlord shall indemnify Tenant against liability in connection with (a) Landlord's operation or management of the Building (other than the Premises), or any work or thing done, or any condition created, by Landlord in or about the Building during the Term, (b) any act, omission or negligence of Landlord or its employees, agents, contractors or invitees, (c) the failure of Landlord or its employees, agents, contractors or invitees to comply with those Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements which are to be complied with by Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Lease, or (d) any other breach or default by Landlord under this Lease.

19.5 If any claim, action or proceeding is made or brought against a party indemnified under Section 19.3 or 19.4 hereof ("Indemnitee"), then upon demand by Indemnitee, the indemnifying party ("Indemnitor"), at Indemnitor's sole cost and expense, shall resist or defend such claim, action or proceeding in Indemnitee's name, if necessary, by the attorneys for Indemnitor's insurance carrier (if such claim, action or proceeding is covered by insurance), or otherwise by such attorneys as Indemnitee shall approve, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and Indemnitee shall cooperate, at no cost to itself unless reimbursed by Indemnitor, with Indemnitor's counsel or such insurance carrier, in the defense of such claim. Indemnitee shall not enter into any settlement of any such claim without the prior written consent of Indemnitor, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. Indemnitee shall notify Indemnitor promptly of any claim, action or proceeding made or brought against Indemnitee as to which indemnification may be sought hereunder. If Indemnitee shall fail to timely notify Indemnitor of a claim and, as a result of such failure, Indemnitor's insurance coverage is prejudiced, or Indemnitor is otherwise materially prejudiced in the defense of such claim, Indemnitor shall be released from its obligation to indemnify Indemnitee, but only to the extent of such prejudice.

DAMAGE OR DESTRUCTION

20.1 If the Building is partially or totally damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (and this Lease is not terminated as provided in this Article), Landlord shall, at Landlord's cost and expense, repair the damage and restore and rebuild the Building (except for Tenant's Property) with reasonable diligence after notice to it of the damage or destruction.

20.2 If all or part of the Premises is damaged or destroyed or rendered completely or partially untenantable by fire or other casualty, Fixed Rent and any Additional Charges payable under Article 4 and Article 5 shall be reduced in the proportion that the untenantable area of the Premises bears to the total rentable square feet of the Premises for the period from the date of the damage or destruction to (a) the date the damage to the Premises is substantially repaired and possession thereof is tendered to Tenant or (b) if the Building and not the Premises is so damaged or destroyed, the date on which the Premises is made tenantable; provided, however, should Tenant reoccupy a portion of the Premises during the period in which repair work is taking place and prior to the date the Premises is substantially repaired or made tenantable, Fixed Rent and any Additional Charges payable under Article 4 and Article 5 allocable to such reoccupied portion, based upon the proportion which area of the reoccupied portion of the Premises bears to the total rentable square feet of the Premises, shall be payable by Tenant from the date of such occupancy.

20.3 If the Premises is materially (i.e., 50% or more) damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or if the Building is so damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (whether or not the Premises is damaged or destroyed) that its repair or restoration requires the expenditure (as reasonably estimated by a reputable contractor or architect designated by Landlord) of more than 40% of the full insurable value of the Building immediately prior to the fire or other casualty (each a "Substantial Casualty"), then in either such case Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving Tenant notice to such effect within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of the fire or other casualty and Fixed Rent and any Additional Charges payable under Article 4 and Article 5 shall be prorated and adjusted as of the date of such damage or destruction.

20.4 If a Substantial Casualty shall occur and Landlord shall not elect to terminate this Lease under Section 20.3 hereof, Landlord shall send a notice to Tenant within ninety (90) days thereafter setting forth Landlord's estimate of the length of time necessary to restore the Premises to a tenantable condition. If Landlord's estimate exceeds eighteen (18) months from the date of the Substantial Casualty, then Tenant may elect to terminate this Lease upon written notice to Landlord within fifteen (15) days after receipt of Landlord's notice. If Tenant does not elect to terminate this Lease, and the restoration of the Premises is not substantially completed within such 18-month period, then Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon notice to Landlord effective as of the sixtieth day following Tenant's termination notice, provided the restoration has not been substantially completed by such sixtieth day.

20.5 Tenant shall not be entitled to terminate this Lease except as set forth in Section 20.4, and no damages, compensation or claim shall be payable by Landlord for inconvenience, loss of business or annoyance arising from any repair or restoration of any portion of the Premises or of the Building pursuant to this Article. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to make such repair or restoration in such manner as not unreasonably to interfere with Tenant's use and occupancy of the Premises, but Landlord shall not be required to do such repair or restoration work at times other than during Business Hours, except for work of a type which is customarily done during non-Business Hours in other Class A office buildings in midtown Manhattan.

20.6 Landlord will not carry insurance of any kind on Tenant's Property and shall not be obligated to repair any damage to or replace Tenant's Property.

20.7 The provisions of this Article shall be deemed an express agreement governing any case of damage or destruction of the Premises by fire or other casualty, and Section 227 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, providing for such a contingency in the absence of an express agreement, and any other law of like import, now or hereafter in force, shall have no application in such case and are hereby waived by the parties hereto.

EMINENT DOMAIN

21.1 Except as otherwise provided in Section 21.5, if all or substantially all of the Building or the Premises is taken by condemnation or in any other manner for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of vesting of title on such taking ("Date of Taking"), and Fixed Rent and any Additional charges payable under Article 4 and Article 5 shall be prorated and adjusted as of such date.

21.2 Except as otherwise provided in Section 21.5, if any material part (but less than all or substantially all) of the Building or the Land is so taken, this Lease shall be unaffected by such taking, except that (a) Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving Tenant notice to that effect within ninety (90) days after the Date of Taking, and (b) if 25% or more of the Premises is so taken and the remaining area of the Premises is not reasonably sufficient for Tenant to continue feasible operation of its business, Tenant may terminate this Lease by giving Landlord notice to that effect within ninety (90) days after the Date of Taking. This Lease shall terminate on the date that such notice from Landlord or Tenant to the other shall be given, and Fixed Rent and Additional Charges shall be prorated and adjusted as of such termination. Upon such partial taking and this Lease continuing in force as to any part of the Premises, Fixed Rent and Tenant's Tax Percentage and Tenant's Operating Percentage shall be equitably adjusted according to the rentable area remaining.

21.3 Except as otherwise provided in Section 21.5, Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award or payment in connection with any taking without deduction therefrom for any estate vested in Tenant by this Lease or otherwise and Tenant shall receive no part of such award. Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to all such awards or payments. The foregoing, however, shall not preclude Tenant from recovering a separate award for Tenant's moving expenses and Tenant's Property if such award does not reduce and is not payable out of the award for the Property.

21.4 Except as otherwise provided in Section 21.5, in the event of any taking of less than the whole of the Building and/or Land which does not result in termination of this Lease, Landlord, whether or not any award or awards shall be sufficient for the purpose, shall proceed with reasonable diligence to repair the remaining parts of the Building (other than Tenant's Property) to substantially their former condition to the extent that same is feasible (subject to reasonable changes which Landlord deems desirable) and so as to constitute the Building complete and tenantable.

21.5 If the temporary use or occupancy of all or any part of the Premises is taken by condemnation or in any other manner for any public or quasi-public use or purpose for a duration of one year or less, this Lease and the Term shall remain unaffected by such taking and Tenant shall continue to be responsible for all of its obligations under this Lease (except to the extent prevented from so doing by reason of such taking). In such event Tenant shall be entitled to claim, prove and receive the entire award for such taking unless the period of temporary use or occupancy extends beyond the Expiration Date, in which event Landlord shall be entitled to claim, prove and receive that portion of the award attributable to the restoration of the Premises and the balance of such award shall be apportioned between Landlord and Tenant as of the Expiration Date. If such temporary use or occupancy terminates prior to the Expiration Date, Tenant, at its own expense, shall restore the Premises as nearly as possible to its condition prior to the taking.

SURRENDER AND HOLDING OVER

22.1 On the Expiration Date or on any earlier termination of this Lease or on any reentry by Landlord on the Premises, Tenant shall quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord "broom clean" and in good order, condition and repair, except for ordinary wear and tear, damage or destruction by fire and other casualty and such other damage as Landlord is required to repair or restore under this Lease, and Tenant shall remove all Tenant's Property therefrom except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. No act or thing done by Landlord or its agents or employees shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of this Lease or the Premises, and no agreement to accept such surrender shall be valid unless in writing and signed by Landlord.

22.2 If Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the termination of this Lease without the execution of a new lease, Tenant, at the option of Landlord, shall be deemed to be occupying the Premises as a Tenant from month to month, subject to all of the other terms and conditions of this Lease insofar as the same are applicable to a month-to-month tenancy, but at a monthly rental equal to 150% of the monthly Fixed Rent last payable by Tenant hereunder, plus all Additional Charges payable hereunder. In addition, Tenant will indemnify, and hold Landlord harmless from all loss, damage or expense that Landlord may suffer or incur (including, without limitation, losses resulting from Landlord's inability to give possession of the Premises to another tenant or to any owner in fee of the Property or any Superior Landlord) resulting from such holding over by Tenant. Nothing contained in this Section shall (i) imply any right of Tenant to remain in the Premises after the termination of this Lease without the execution of a new lease, (ii) imply any obligation of Landlord to grant a new lease or (iii) be construed to limit any right or remedy that Landlord has against Tenant as a holdover tenant or trespasser.

22.3 Tenant expressly waives, for itself and for any person claiming through or under Tenant, any rights which Tenant or any such person may have under the provisions of Section 2201 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules and of any similar or successor law of same import then in force, in connection with any holdover proceedings which Landlord may institute to enforce the terms and conditions of this Lease.

DEFAULT

23.1 This Lease is subject to the limitations that whenever Tenant makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or files a voluntary petition under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or any successor thereto or any state law dealing with relief of debtors (collectively the "Insolvency Laws"), or an involuntary petition alleging an act of bankruptcy or insolvency is filed against Tenant under any Insolvency Laws, or whenever a petition is filed by or against Tenant under the reorganization provisions of any Insolvency Laws, or whenever a petition is filed by Tenant under the arrangement provisions of any Insolvency Laws, or whenever a receiver of Tenant or of or for the property of Tenant is appointed, then Landlord (a) if such event occurs without the acquiescence of Tenant, at any time after the event continues for sixty (60) days, or (b) in any other case at any time after the occurrence of any such event, may give Tenant a notice of intention to terminate this Lease at the expiration of five days from the date of service of such notice of intention, and upon the expiration of said five-day period this Lease, whether or not the Term had commenced, shall terminate with the same effect as if that day were the Expiration Date, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided in Article 25.

23.2 This Lease is subject to the further limitations that:

(a) if Tenant defaults in the payment of any Fixed Rent or Additional Charges and such default continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant, or

(b) if Tenant, whether by action or inaction, is in default of any of its obligations under this Lease (other than a default in the payment of Fixed Rent or

Additional Charges) and such default continues and is not remedied within thirty (30) days after Landlord gives to Tenant a notice specifying the same, or, in the case of a default which with due diligence cannot be cured within a period of thirty (30) days and the continuance of which for the period required for cure will not (i) subject Landlord or any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee to prosecution for a crime (as more particularly described in Section 9.2) or (ii) result in a default under any Superior Lease or any Superior Mortgage, if Tenant does not, (x) within said 30-day period advise Landlord of Tenant's intention to take all steps necessary to remedy such default, (y) duly commence within said 30-day period and thereafter diligently prosecute to completion all steps necessary to remedy the default, and (z) complete such remedy within a reasonable time after the date of said notice from Landlord, or

(c) if any event occurs or any contingency arises whereby this Lease, by operation of law or otherwise, devolves upon or passes to any person other than Tenant, except as expressly permitted by Article 8, or

(d) if Tenant vacates and abandons the Premises without properly securing the same, then in any of said cases Landlord may give to Tenant a notice of intention to terminate this Lease at the expiration of ten (10) days from the date of the service of such notice of intention, and upon the expiration of said ten-day period this Lease, whether or not the Term had commenced, shall terminate with the same effect as if that day were the Expiration Date, but Tenant shall remain liable for damages as provided in Article 25.

RE-ENTRY BY LANDLORD

24.1 If Tenant defaults in the payment of any Fixed Rent or Additional Charges and such default continues for ten (10) days after notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant, or if this Lease terminates as provided in Article 23, Landlord or Landlord's agents may immediately or at any time thereafter re-enter the Premises, or any part thereof, either by summary dispossess proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law, or by force or otherwise, without being liable for indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and may repossess same, and may remove any person therefrom, to the end that Landlord may have, hold and enjoy the Premises. The word "re-enter" as used herein, is not restricted to its technical legal meaning. If this Lease is terminated under the provisions of Article 23, or if Landlord re-enters the Premises under the provisions of this Article, or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossess or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Tenant shall thereupon pay to Landlord Fixed Rent and Additional Charges payable to the time of such termination of this Lease, or of such recovery of possession of the Premises by Landlord, as the case may be, and shall also pay to Landlord damages as provided in Article 25.

24.2 In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall have the right of injunction to enjoin such breach or threatened breach. The special remedies to which Landlord may resort hereunder are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies to which Landlord may lawfully be entitled at any time and such party may invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity as if specific remedies were not provided for herein.

24.3 If this Lease is terminated under the provisions of Article 23, or if Landlord re-enters the Premises under the provisions of this Article, or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossess or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Landlord shall be entitled to retain all monies, if any, paid by Tenant to Landlord, whether as advance rent, security or otherwise, but such monies shall be credited by Landlord against any Fixed Rent or Additional Charges due from Tenant at the time of such termination or re-entry or, at Landlord's option, against any damages payable by Tenant under Article 25 or pursuant to law.

25.1 If this Lease is terminated under the provisions of Article 23, or if Landlord re-enters the Premises under the provisions of Article 24, or in the event of the termination of this Lease, or of re-entry, by or under any summary dispossess or other proceeding or action or any provision of law by reason of default hereunder on the part of Tenant, Tenant shall pay to Landlord as damages, at the election of Landlord, either:

(a) a sum which at the time of such termination of this Lease or at the time of any such re-entry by Landlord, as the case may be, represents the then value of the excess, if any, of (i) the aggregate amount of Fixed Rent and Additional Charges which would have been payable by Tenant (conclusively presuming the average monthly Additional Charges to be the same as were payable for the twelve-month period, or if less than twelve (12) months have then elapsed since the Commencement Date, the partial year, immediately preceding such termination or re-entry) for the period commencing with such earlier termination of this Lease or the date of any such re-entry, as the case may be, and ending with the date that would have been the Expiration Date if this Lease had not so terminated or if Landlord had not so re-entered the Premises, over (ii) the aggregate rental value of the Premises for the same period, both discounted to their present value at the rate of 4% per annum, or

(b) sums equal to the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges which would have been payable by Tenant had this Lease not so terminated, or had Landlord not so re-entered the Premises, payable upon the due dates therefor (as provided in this Lease) following such termination or such re-entry until the date that would have been the Expiration Date if this Lease had not so terminated or if Landlord had not so re-entered the Premises, provided however, that if Landlord shall relet the Premises during said period, Landlord shall credit Tenant with the net rents received by Landlord from such reletting, such net rents to be determined by first deducting from the gross rents as and when received by Landlord from such reletting the expenses incurred by Landlord in terminating this Lease or in re-entering the Premises and in securing possession thereof, as well as the expenses of reletting, including altering and preparing the Premises for new Tenants, brokers' commissions, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, and all other expenses, it being understood that any such reletting may be for a period shorter or longer than what would have been the unexpired portion of the Term if this Lease had not so terminated or if Landlord had not so re-entered the Premises, but in no event shall Tenant be entitled to receive any excess of such net rents over the sums payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, nor shall Tenant be entitled in any suit for the collection of damages pursuant to this subdivision to a credit in respect of any net rents from a reletting, except to the extent that such net rents are actually received by Landlord. If the Premises or any part thereof is relet in combination with other space, then proper apportionment on a per square foot basis shall be made of the rent received from such reletting and of the expenses of reletting. If the Premises or any part thereof is relet by Landlord for what would have been the unexpired portion of the Term if this Lease had not so terminated, or if Landlord had not so re-entered the Premises, before presentation of proof of such damages to any court, commission or tribunal, the amount of rent set forth in any lease(s) in connection with such reletting shall, prima facie, be the fair and reasonable rental value for the Premises, or part thereof, so relet during the term of the reletting. Landlord shall have the right to relet the Premises or any part thereof at such rental or rentals and upon such other terms and conditions, which may include concessions and free rent periods, as Landlord, in its sole discretion, shall determine. Landlord shall not be liable in any way for its failure or refusal to relet the Premises or any part thereof, or if the Premises or any part thereof is relet, for its failure to collect the rent under such reletting, and no such refusal or failure to relet or failure to collect rent shall release or affect Tenant's liability for damages or otherwise under this Lease.

25.2 Suit or suits for the recovery of such damages, or any installments thereof, may be brought by Landlord from time to time at its election, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to require Landlord to postpone suit until the date when the Term would have expired if this Lease had not so terminated or had Landlord not so re-entered the Premises. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or preclude recovery by Landlord against Tenant of any sums or damages to which, in addition to the damages particularly provided above, Landlord may lawfully be entitled by reason of any default of Tenant hereunder. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or prejudice the right of Landlord to prove for and obtain as damages by reason of the termination of this Lease or re-entry on the Premises for the default of Tenant under this Lease an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute or rule of law in effect at the time when, and governing the proceedings in which, such damages are to be proved whether or not such amount is greater than, equal to, or less than any of the sums referred to in Section 25.1.

25.3 In addition, if this Lease is terminated under the provisions of Article 23, or if Landlord re-enters the Premises under the provisions of Article 24, Tenant agrees that:

(a) the Premises then shall be in the same condition as that in which Tenant has agreed to surrender the same to Landlord on the Expiration Date,

(b) Tenant shall have performed prior to any such termination or re-entry any obligation of Tenant contained in this Lease for the making of any Alteration or for restoring or rebuilding the Premises or the Building, or any part thereof, and

(c) for the breach of any obligation of Tenant set forth above in this Section, Landlord shall be entitled immediately, without notice or other action by Landlord, to recover, and Tenant shall pay as and for liquidated damages therefor the cost of performing such obligation (as estimated by an independent contractor selected by Landlord).

WAIVERS

26.1 Tenant, on behalf of itself and any and all persons claiming through or under Tenant, does hereby waive and surrender all right and privilege which it, they or any of them might have under or by reason of any present or future law, to redeem the Premises or to have a continuance of this Lease after being dispossessed or ejected therefrom by process of law or under the terms of this Lease or after the termination of this Lease.

26.2 If Tenant is in arrears in payment of Fixed Rent or Additional Charges, Tenant waives its right, if any, to designate the items to which any payments made by Tenant are to be credited, and Landlord may apply any payments made by Tenant to such items as Landlord sees fit, irrespective of any designation or request by Tenant as to the items to which any such payments shall be credited.

26.3 To the maximum extent permitted by law, Landlord and Tenant hereby waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either against the other on any matter arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, including any claim of injury or damage, and any emergency and other statutory remedy in respect thereof.

26.4 Tenant shall not interpose any counterclaim in any summary proceeding commenced by Landlord to recover possession of the Premises (other than mandatory counterclaims) and shall not seek to consolidate such proceeding with any action which may have been or will be brought by Tenant or any other person.

26.5 The failure of either party to insist in any one or more instances upon the strict performance of any one or more of the obligations contained in this Lease, or to exercise any election herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of the performance of such one or more obligations contained in this Lease or of the right to exercise such election, but same shall continue and remain in full force and effect in respect of any subsequent breach, act or omission. The receipt by Landlord of Fixed Rent or Additional Charges with knowledge of breach by Tenant of any obligation contained in this Lease shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach.

CURING TENANT'S DEFAULTS AND COSTS OF ENFORCEMENT

27.1 If Tenant defaults in the performance of any of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, Landlord, without thereby waiving such default, may (but shall not be obligated to) perform same for the account and at the expense of Tenant, without notice in case of emergency, and in any other case only if such default continues after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date Landlord gives Tenant notice of the default. Bills for any expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with any such performance by it for the account of Tenant, and bills for all costs, expenses and disbursements of every kind and nature, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, involved in collecting or endeavoring or endeavoring to enforce any rights against Tenant, under or in connection with this Lease or pursuant to law, including any such cost, expense and disbursement involved in instituting and prosecuting summary proceedings or in recovering possession of the Premises after default by Tenant or upon the Expiration Date or sooner termination of this Lease, and interest on all sums advanced by Landlord under this Section at the Lease Interest Rate, may be sent by Landlord to Tenant monthly, or immediately, at Landlord's option, and such amounts shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such bills.

BROKER

28.1 Tenant represents and warrants that no broker procured this Lease and that Tenant had no conversations or negotiations with any broker concerning the leasing of the Premises. Tenant shall indemnify Landlord against liability in connection with a breach of Tenant's representation and warranty in this Section and in connection with any claim for a brokerage commission arising out of any conversations or negotiations had by Tenant with any broker. Landlord represents and warrants that no broker procured this Lease. Landlord shall indemnify Tenant against liability in connection with a breach of Landlord's representation and warranty in this Section and in connection with any claim for a brokerage commission arising out of any conversations or negotiations had by Landlord with any broker.

NOTICES

29.1 Any notice, consent, approval or other communication required or permitted to be given by either party to the other or to any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee (collectively, "Notices" and individually, "Notice") must be in writing and, except as otherwise provided in the succeeding Sections, shall be deemed to have been properly given only if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, posted in a United States post office station or letter box in the continental United States, addressed to Landlord or Tenant as the receiving party at its address set forth at the head of this Lease (Attention: Director of Real Estate Services in the case of Notices to Landlord), and addressed to any Superior Lessor or Superior Mortgagee to it at the last address of which Landlord or Tenant (whichever may be giving the Notice) was notified.

A Notice shall be deemed to have been given on the third business day after the day so mailed. Either party may, by notice as aforesaid, designate a different address for Notices intended for it. At any time that Tenant consists of more than one person, a Notice of Tenant shall be effective if given to any one of said persons.

29.2 Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Section 29.1, any Notice from Landlord to Tenant of a default by Tenant hereunder may be given by hand delivery, with a concurrent copy of such Notice sent to Tenant by mail as provided in Section 29.1; such Notice of default given in that manner will be deemed given when hand delivered.

29.3 Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Section 29.1, (a) Notices from Tenant to Landlord requesting after-hours or special services pursuant to Article 16 or Article 17 shall be given by hand delivery to the Building manager or any other person in the Building designated by Landlord to receive such Notices, and (b) any Notice may be given by telefax or hand delivery either in case of an emergency or in case United States certified and registered mail are both not then operating. Such Notices will be deemed given on the date so sent by telefax or hand delivery.

29.4 Landlord shall have the right to assume that any Notice from Tenant signed by any person purporting to be an officer of Tenant if Tenant is a corporation, member of Tenant if Tenant is a limited liability company or a partner in Tenant if Tenant is a partnership is duly authorized and approved by and binding on Tenant, and Tenant shall be bound by such Notice whether or not the person signing the Notice was actually authorized and approved by Tenant.

ARTICLE 30

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES AND MEMORANDUM OF LEASE

30.1 Each party shall, at any time and from time to time, as requested by the other party, execute and deliver to the other party within ten (10) days after receipt of such request a statement (a) certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if modified, that same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), (b) certifying the dates to which Fixed Rent and Additional Charges have been paid, (c) stating whether or not, to the best knowledge of the signing party, the other party is in default in performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, and, if so, specifying each such default of which the signing party has knowledge, and (d) stating whether or not, to the best knowledge of the signing party, any condition or event exists which with the giving of notice or passage of time, or both, would constitute such a default, and, if so, specifying each such condition or event. Any statement delivered pursuant to this Section shall be deemed a representation and warranty that may be relied upon by the party requesting the statement and by others with whom such party may be dealing, regardless of independent investigation. Tenant also shall include in any such statement such other information concerning this Lease as any prospective Superior Mortgagee or Superior Lessor may require or as Landlord may reasonably request.

30.2 Tenant shall not record this Lease nor any short form or memorandum of lease, nor any amendment or modification of this Lease.

FORCE MAJEURE

31.1 The obligations of Tenant or Landlord under this Lease (other than the obligation to pay Fixed Rent and Additional Charges) shall not be affected, impaired or excused and neither party shall have any liability to the other (regardless of whether such party is required to proceed with reasonable diligence or to use reasonable efforts), because such party is unable to fulfill, or is delayed in fulfilling, any of its obligations under this Lease by reason of any of the following ("Force Majeure Events"): fire or other casualty; acts of God; war; riot or other civil disturbance; accident; emergency; strike or other labor trouble; governmental preemption of priorities or other controls in connection with a national or other public emergency; difficulty in securing proper amounts of or failure or defect in the supply or quality of fuel, gas, steam, water, electricity, supplies or labor; or any other event preventing or delaying Landlord from fulfilling any obligation, whether similar or dissimilar, beyond such party's reasonable control.

CONSENTS

32.1 If Tenant requests Landlord's consent and Landlord fails or refuses to give such consent, Tenant shall not be entitled to any damages for any withholding by Landlord of its consent. Tenant's sole remedy for Landlord's refusal to give the requested consent shall be an action for specific performance or injunction. Furthermore, Tenant shall be entitled to seek specific performance an injunction only in those cases where this Lease provides that Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent or where as a matter of law Landlord may not unreasonably withhold its consent.

ARTICLE 33

RENT CONTROL

33.1 If any Fixed Rent or Additional Charges shall become uncollectible, reduced or required to be refunded because of any Legal Requirements, Tenant shall enter into such agreements and take such other steps (without additional expense to Tenant) as Landlord requests and as may be legally permissible to permit Landlord to collect the maximum rents which from time to time during the continuance of such legal rent restriction may be legally permissible (but not in excess of the amounts reserved therefor under this Lease). Upon the termination of such legal rent restriction, whether during the Term or after the Expiration Date, (a) Fixed Rent and Additional Charges shall be payable in accordance with the amounts reserved herein for the periods following such termination and (b) Tenant shall pay to Landlord, to the maximum extent legally permissible, an amount equal to (i) the Fixed Rent and Additional Charges that would have been paid pursuant to this Lease but for such legal rent restriction, less (ii) the rent and additional rent actually paid by Tenant during the period such legal rent restriction was in effect.

MISCELLANEOUS

34.1 Tenant expressly acknowledges and agrees that Landlord has not made and is not making, and Tenant, in executing and delivering this Lease, is not relying upon, any warranties, representations, promises or statements except to the extent that they are expressly set forth in this Lease. All prior understandings and agreements between the parties are merged in this Lease, which alone fully and completely expresses the agreement of the parties and which are entered into after full investigation.

34.2 No agreement shall be effective to change, modify, waive, release, discharge, terminate or effect an abandonment of this Lease, in whole or in part, unless such agreement is in writing, refers expressly to this Lease and is signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, modification, waiver, release, discharge, termination or effectuation of the abandonment is sought.

34.3 Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, the obligations under this Lease shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of the parties hereto with the same effect as if mentioned in each instance where a party is named or referred to; provided, however, that (a) no violation of the provisions of Article 8 shall operate to vest any rights in any successor or assignee of Tenant and (b) the provisions of this Section shall not be construed as modifying the conditions of limitation contained in Article 23. No provision in this Lease shall be construed for the benefit of any third party except as expressly provided herein.

34.4 Submission by Landlord of this Lease or other documents pertaining to the subject matter hereof for review and/or execution by Tenant shall not confer any rights or impose any obligations on either party unless and until both Landlord and Tenant execute this Lease and duplicate originals thereof are delivered to the respective parties.

34.5 Irrespective of the place of execution or performance, this Lease shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. If any provision of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, for any reason and to any extent, is invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease and the application of that provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected but rather shall be enforced to the extent permitted by law. The table of contents, captions, headings and titles in this Lease are solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect its interpretation. This Lease shall be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing this Lease to be drafted. Each obligation of Tenant under this Lease shall be deemed and construed as a separate and independent covenant of Tenant, not dependent on any other provision of this Lease.

34.6 All terms and words used in this Lease, regardless of the number or gender in which they are used, shall be deemed to include any other number and any other gender as the context may require.

34.7 This Lease may be executed in counterparts and shall constitute the agreement of Landlord and Tenant whether or not their signatures appear in a single copy hereof.

34.8 If Landlord (i) fails for any reason to provide heat, water, elevator, electric and/or other services required to be furnished by Landlord under this Lease, or (ii) fails to complete repairs or other necessary work required to be performed by Landlord pursuant to this Lease, (and such failure shall not have been caused by a casualty, condemnation, force majeure, the negligence or default of Tenant, or any subtenant or occupant of the Premises or portion thereof (other than a Recapture Subtenant), or any agents or employees of the foregoing) and, in either such case, such failure substantially and materially interferes with Tenant's use of all or any portion of the Premises thereby requiring, as would be determined by using commercially reasonable standards, Tenant to discontinue such use for more than five (5) consecutive business days (an "Interruption"), and such failure shall not have been caused by the negligence or default of Tenant, or any subtenant or occupant of the Premises or portion thereof, (other than a Recapture Subtenant), or any agents or employees of the foregoing, then and in that event, following written notice to Landlord thereof, the Fixed Annual Rent and Additional Charges hereunder allocable to such portion or portions of the Premises shall abate (pro rata according to the duration of the interference and the proportion of the total usable floor area of the disruption.

34.9 Tenant presently has data closets located on the 9th floor and concourse of the Building (the "Data Closets"). Provided that this Lease is in full force and effect, Tenant during the term of this Lease may access the Data Closets or any Replacement Data Closet (as defined herein) on reasonable advance notice to Landlord. Tenant with respect to the Data Closets shall comply with all other terms of this Lease. Landlord, at its cost, may relocate (a "Replacement Data Closet") the Data Closets or a Replacement Data Closet to other locations in the Building provided such Replacement Data Closet is of substantially equal quality and size as the one it is replacing, Landlord will not disconnect the Data Closets or a Replacement Data Closets until the Replacement Data Closets have been completed.

SIGNAGE

35.1 Subject to the provisions of Section 35.2, Tenant shall have the right to place signs ("Upper Bank Sign") containing Tenant's name, or, subject to the reasonable consent of Landlord, any Affiliate of Tenant which is in occupancy of a material portion of the Premises, on the interior Building wall adjacent to the upper bank elevator lobby; provided, that such signage shall be installed only in the locations on such wall reasonably acceptable to

Landlord, shall meet the design criteria then in effect for the Building and does not exceed 12 by 36 inches. Tenant may place signage in 14.12466% of the shadow boxes in the Building lobby, containing Tenant's name or subject to the reasonable consent of Landlord any Affiliate of Tenant which is in occupancy of a material portion of the Premises, provided that Landlord may reasonably designate the shadow boxes, and the signage will meet the design criteria then in effect for the Building. All such signage shall be installed, maintained and repaired by Landlord at Tenant's reasonable expense. During such periods that Tenant has installed an Upper Bank Sign, Landlord agrees that it will not allow any other tenant of the building to place in the same vicinity of the Upper Bank Sign a sign that is equal to or larger than Tenant's unless such tenant is in occupancy in the Building of 100,000 or more square feet.

35.2 The provisions of Section 35.1 shall be null and void and of no further force and effect, and Landlord shall have the right to remove any signage theretofore installed pursuant to Section 35.1, at the cost of Tenant, (i) during any period that Tenant together with its Affiliates in the Premises shall be in occupancy (x) of less than 20,000 rentable square feet in the Building or (y) between 20,000 and 80,000 square feet and the Premises is not the principal executive offices of Warner Music Group Inc. (which right to install such sign as provided in Section 35.1 shall be reinstated when and if such occupancy requirement is satisfied) or (ii) if the Term shall expire or terminate.

35.3 If a tenant has a sign (the "Large Tenant Sign") in the upper bank elevator lobby and such tenant is in occupancy of more than 100,000 square feet in the Building, then provided that (i) this Lease is still in full force and effect, and (ii) Tenant still continues to occupy at least 50,000 square feet and the Building is the worldwide headquarters for Warner Music Group Inc., then as long as Tenant continues to meet conditions (i) and (ii); Tenant at its election, can maintain a sign in the upper bank elevator lobby that is proportional to the Large Tenant Sign. This signage right is in lieu of the Upper Bank Sign. This can be illustrated by the following example: If a Large Tenant Sign is 1,000 square inches and such tenant is in occupancy of 160,000 square feet and Tenant is in occupancy of 80,000 square feet, then Tenant if it elects may maintain a sign of 500 square inches in the upper bank elevator lobby.

[INTENTIONALLY OMITTED.]

ADDITIONAL SPACE

37.1 Landlord agrees, subject to the terms of this Article 37, to deliver to Tenant and Tenant agrees to accept and lease on or after May 1, 2004 the entire rentable portion of the 32nd floor and the 33rd floor (collectively, the "Additional Floors" and individually an "Additional Floor").

37.2 Landlord shall not be required to perform any work to the Additional Floors except that it shall deliver such to Tenant in vacant and broom clean condition. In the event Tenant is in default hereunder or this Lease is no longer in full force and effect, then Landlord at its option will not be required to deliver the Additional Floors. Landlord may deliver the Additional Floors on separate dates.

37.3 If Landlord fails to deliver either or both of the Additional Floors the term of this Lease shall not be extended nor will Tenant have a right to cancel this Lease. Tenant's sole remedy will be if an Additional Floor has not been delivered to Tenant by May 1, 2005 (as such date may be extended due to a Force Majeure Event or for any delay caused by Tenant) is to deliver a notice to Landlord that Tenant is electing to cancel its obligation to accept delivery of such Additional Floor. If Landlord fails to deliver such Additional Floor within 30 days after Tenant delivers such notice, then Tenant's obligation to accept and Landlord's obligation to deliver such Additional Floor shall be terminated. This Section shall be an express provision to the contrary for purposes of Section 223-a of the New York Real Property Law and any other law of like import now or hereafter in effect.

37.4 Promptly after the delivery of each Additional Floor, Landlord and Tenant shall execute a confirmatory instrument acknowledging the modification of the pertinent terms of this Lease, including, without limitation, modifying the Rentable Square Footage of the Premises, Tenant's Tax Percentage and the Wage Rate Multiple as a result of Landlord's delivery of the Additional Floor. Exhibit H designates Rentable Square Footage, Tenant's Tax Percentage and Wage Rate Multiple for each of the Additional Floors pursuant to this Article.

LANDLORD RELOCATION OPTION

38.1 Landlord may, at its option, on only one occasion, elect by notice to Tenant to substitute for all or part of the 12th Floor of the Premises other office space in the Building (the "Substitute Space") provided that such Substitute Space is on a higher floor in the Building. Landlord will identify in a notice the portion of the Premises it has elected to recapture (the "Recapture Space") and the Substitute Space. To exercise the foregoing right Landlord, at its sole cost and expense, must relocate Tenant's installations from the Recapture Space to the Substitute Space. The Substitute Space shall contain at least 100% of the useable square foot area of the Recapture Space. Landlord's notice shall be accompanied by a plan of the Substitute Space, such notice or the plan shall set forth the usable square feet of the Substitute Space and the anticipated date of relocation.

38.2 Tenant shall vacate and surrender the Recapture Space and occupy the Substitute Space promptly (and, in any event, no later than five (5) days) after notice that Landlord has substantially completed (including telephone and data lines, to the extent existing in the Recapture Space) the work to be performed by Landlord in the Substitute Space pursuant to this Article, provided that, in either case, the work shall have been substantially completed on the date Landlord's notice states such substantial completion has occurred. In any such event, from and after the earlier of the date on which Tenant vacates and surrenders the Recapture Space or the date which is 5 days after notice that Landlord has substantially completed the work to be performed by Landlord in the Substitute Space pursuant to this Section, this Lease shall no longer apply to the Recapture Space, except with respect to obligations which accrued on or prior to such surrender date, and shall apply to the Substitute Space, and otherwise Tenant shall pay the same Fixed Rent and Additional Charges with respect to the Substitute Space as was payable with respect to the Recapture Space.

38.3 Landlord shall have no liability to Tenant with respect to such Substitute Space other than Landlord shall (a) promptly reimburse Tenant for Tenant's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (taking into account the nature of the move) of moving from the Recapture Space to the Substitute Space and (b) at Landlord's sole expense, prepare the Substitute Space in substantially the same manner as the Recapture Space including any Alterations made to such space but taking into account the condition of the Recapture Space on the date Landlord gives such notice to Tenant that it seeks to relocate Tenant.

38.4 Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord so as to facilitate the prompt completion by Landlord of its obligations under this Article and the prompt surrender by Tenant of the Recapture Space and to relocate to the Substitute Space. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, Tenant shall provide to Landlord promptly any approvals or instructions and any plans and specifications or any other information reasonably requested by Landlord. Landlord shall have the right to remove any floor covering, wall covering, cabinet work, decoration and any Tenant's property, to the Substitute Space.

SUPERIOR LEASE

39.1 Landlord represents and warrants that (i) the Superior Lease currently in effect is that certain Indenture of Lease dated March 11, 1993 originally between 75 Plaza/West 51st Associates and Time Warner Inc. 39.2 Landlord agrees to use its good faith efforts (short of litigation or arbitration or payment of any sum of money not required to be paid pursuant to the Master Lease) to obtain from the Superior Lessor any required approvals or consents reasonably requested by Tenant, and Landlord shall forward to the Superior Lessor without delay any requests as Tenant may submit for approval and/or consent from the Superior Lessor to which the Landlord has consented.

39.3 Landlord covenants and agrees that (except for those matters which arise and Tenant's default hereunder) it shall not, by any act or omission, do or permit to be done anything that would cause the Master Lease to be amended (which amendment adversely affects Tenant's interest under this Lease), cancelled, terminated (except as a result of a casualty or condemnation) or forfeited, shall pay when due to the Superior Lessor all rent and additional rent that is payable pursuant to the terms of the Master Lease and shall perform all the other terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Master Lease (including, without limitation, the maintenance of the insurance on the Building required thereunder), subject to the obligation of Tenant to observe and perform the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have duly executed this Lease as of the day and year first above written.

No tenant shall obstruct, or permit the obstruction of any of the common areas. Landlord reserves the right to control and operate the common areas and the other public facilities, as well as any other facilities furnished for the common use of the tenants, in such manner as Landlord in its reasonable judgment deems best for the benefit of the tenants generally, including the right to allocate certain elevators for delivery service and the right to designate which Building entrances shall be used by persons making deliveries in the Building. No doormat of any kind whatsoever shall be placed or left in any public hall or outside any entry door of any tenant's premises.

A.2. Landlord may refuse admission to the Building outside of Business Hours to any person not known to the watchman or other person in charge or not having a pass issued by Landlord or the tenant whose premises are to be entered. Landlord may require all persons admitted to or leaving the Building to provide appropriate

identification, in which case Landlord shall supply identification cards and be reimbursed by the tenant for its identification cards at Landlord's cost plus 5%. Each tenant shall be responsible for all persons for whom it issues any such pass and shall be liable to Landlord for all acts or omissions of such persons. Each tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of any lost identification cards and will reimburse Landlord at cost plus 5% for replacement of identification cards. Landlord shall have the right but shall not be obligated to require all persons entering the Building to sign a register, to be announced to the tenant such person is visiting, and/or to be accepted as a visitor by such tenant or to be otherwise properly identified (and, if not so accepted or identified, Landlord may exclude such persons from the Building) and Landlord shall have the right but shall not be obligated to require persons leaving the Building to sign a register or to surrender the pass given to such person. Any person whose presence in the Building at any time shall, in the judgment of the Landlord, be prejudicial to the safety, character or reputation of the Building or of its tenants may be denied access to the Building or may be ejected therefrom. During the continuance of any Force Majeure Events, Landlord may prevent all access to the Building by closing the doors or otherwise if and to the extent required for the safety of the tenants and protection of property in the Building. Landlord may institute, revise and discontinue such security measures, systems and requirements as Landlord deems appropriate.

A.3. No tenant shall obtain or accept for use in its premises drinking water, food, beverage, towel, barbering, bootblacking, floor polishing, cleaning or other services from any persons prohibited by Landlord from furnishing such services. Such services shall be furnished only at such hours, and under such reasonable regulations, as may be fixed by Landlord from time to time.

A.4. The cost of repairing any damage to the common areas or to any other public facilities or to any equipment or other facilities used in common with other tenants, or to any adjoining building or property, or to any other parts of the Building or to any equipment or facilities therein, caused by a tenant, subtenant or licensee of such tenant or their respective employees, agents, contractors or invitees, shall be paid by such tenant.

A.5. No awnings or other projections shall be attached to the outside of the Building. No curtains, blinds, shades or screens which are different from the standards adopted from time to time by Landlord for the Building shall be attached to or hung in, or used in connection with, any exterior window or door of the premises of any tenant without the prior consent of Landlord. Such curtains, blinds, shades or screens must be of a quality, type, design and color, and attached in the manner approved by Landlord. Lighting which is visible from the outside of the Building shall be in accordance with the standards adopted from time to time by Landlord for the Building.

A.6. No lettering, sign, advertisement, notice or object shall be displayed in or on the exterior windows or doors, or on the outside of any tenant's premises, or at any point inside any tenant's premises where the same might be visible outside of such premises, without the prior consent of Landlord. Interior signs, elevator cab designations and lettering on doors and the Building directory shall, if and when approved by Landlord, be inscribed, painted or affixed for each tenant by Landlord at the expense of such tenant, and shall be of a size, color and style acceptable to Landlord.

A.7. The sashes, sash doors, skylights, windows and doors that reflect or admit light and air into the halls, passageways or other common areas shall not be covered or obstructed by any tenant, nor shall any bottles, parcels or other articles be placed on the window sills or on the peripheral heating or air conditioning enclosures, if any.

A.8. No showcases or other articles shall be put in front of or affixed to any part of the exterior of the Building or of any tenant's premises or placed in the common areas.

A.9. No noise which in the judgment of Landlord might disturb other tenants in the Building shall be made or permitted by any tenant. Nothing shall be done or permitted in the premises of any tenant which would impair or interfere with the use or enjoyment by any other tenant in the Building.

A.10. No additional locks or bolts of any kind shall be placed upon any of the doors or windows by any tenant, nor shall any changes be made in locks or the mechanism thereof, except where keys therefor are given to Landlord. Additional keys for a tenant's premises and toilet rooms located outside the tenant's premises shall be procured only from Landlord who may make a reasonable charge therefor. Each tenant shall, upon the termination of its lease, turn over to Landlord all keys to the Building and any facilities therein, either furnished to, or otherwise procured by, such tenant, and in the event of the loss of any keys furnished by Landlord, such tenant shall pay to Landlord the cost thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a tenant may, subject to obtaining Landlord's prior consent, install a security system in its premises which uses master codes or cards instead of keys, provided that such tenant provides Landlord with the master code or card for such system. No tenant shall lend or furnish to any public messenger the keys to any toilet rooms.

A.11. All removals, or the carrying in or out of any safes, freight, furniture, packages, boxes, crates or any other object or matter of any description must take place during such hours and in such elevators, and in such manner as Landlord or its agent may determine from time to time are appropriate. No persons shall be employed to move safes or other heavy objects unless reasonably acceptable to Landlord and, if so required by law, unless such persons hold a Master Rigger's license. Arrangements must be made by each tenant with Landlord for moving large quantities of furniture and equipment into or out of the Building. All labor and engineering costs incurred by Landlord in connection with any moving specified in this Rule, including a reasonable charge for overhead and profit, and the cost of overtime or extra work for Landlord's or Landlord's agent's employees, shall be paid by the tenant to Landlord, on demand.

A.12. Landlord reserves the right to inspect all objects to be brought into the Building and to exclude from the Building all objects which violate any of these Rules and Regulations or this Lease. Landlord shall have the right but shall not be obligated to require any person leaving the Building with any package or other object to submit a pass, listing such package or object, from the tenant from whose premises the package or object is being removed, but the establishment and enforcement of such requirement shall not impose any responsibility on Landlord for the protection of any tenant against the removal of property from the premises of such tenant. Landlord shall in no way be liable to any tenant for damages or loss arising from the admission, exclusion or ejection of any person to or from the premises or the Building under the provisions of this Rule or of Rule 2 hereof. Landlord shall have the right but shall not be obligated to institute a package acceptance system whereby all packages intended for tenants of the Building are delivered to a central location designated by Landlord and are thereafter called for by tenants or redistributed by Landlord's employees, as Landlord may elect.

A.13. No tenant shall occupy or permit any portion of its premises to be occupied for (a) the possession, storage, manufacture or sale of liquor, narcotics or tobacco in any form, (b) gambling activities, (c) the conduct of obscene, pornographic or similar disreputable activities, (d) public assembly purposes, (e) lodging or sleeping, or (f) any immoral or illegal purpose.

A.14. Landlord shall have the right to prohibit any tenant's advertising or identifying sign which, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, tends to impair the reputation of the Building or its desirability, and upon notice from Landlord such tenant shall refrain from and discontinue such advertising or identifying sign.

A.l5. No tenant shall place a load upon any floor that exceeds the floor load per square foot that such floor was designed to carry. Landlord shall have the right to prescribe the weight and position of safes and other objects of excessive weight, and no safe or other object whose weight exceeds the lawful load for the area upon which it would stand shall be brought into or kept upon any tenant's premises. If in the judgment of Landlord the concentrated weight of any heavy object should be distributed, the work involved in such distribution shall be done at the expense of the tenant and in such manner as Landlord shall determine.

A.16. No machinery or mechanical equipment other than ordinary portable business machines may be installed or operated in any tenant's premises without Landlord's prior consent which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, and in no case (even where same are of a type so excepted or as so consented to by Landlord) shall any machines or mechanical equipment be so placed or operated as to disturb other tenants. Machines and mechanical equipment permitted to be installed and used in a tenant's premises shall be so equipped, installed and maintained by such tenant as to prevent any disturbing noise, vibration or electrical or other interference from being transmitted from such premises to any other area of the Building.

A.17. The requirements of tenants will be attended to only upon application at the office of the Building. Employees of Landlord or its managing agent shall not perform any work or do anything outside of their regular duties unless under special instructions from Landlord.

A.18. Canvassing, soliciting and peddling in the Building are prohibited and each tenant shall cooperate to prevent same.

A.19. No tenant shall cause or permit any unusual or objectionable odors to emanate from its premises which would annoy other tenants or create a public or private nuisance. No cooking shall be done in the premises of any tenant except as is expressly permitted in such tenant's lease.

A.20. Nothing shall be done or permitted in any tenant's premises, and nothing shall be brought into or kept in any tenant's premises, which would impair or interfere with any of the Building's services or the proper and economic heating, ventilating, air conditioning, cleaning or other servicing of the Building, or the use or enjoyment by any other tenant of its premises, nor shall any tenant install any ventilating, air-conditioning, electrical or other equipment of any kind which in the reasonable judgment of Landlord might cause any such impairment or interference.

A.21. No acids, vapors or other materials shall be discharged or permitted to be discharged into the waste lines, vents or flues of the Building. The water and wash closets and other plumbing fixtures in or serving any tenant's premises shall not be used for any purpose other than the purposes for which they were designed or constructed, and no sweepings, rubbish, rags, acids or other foreign substances shall be deposited therein. Nothing shall be swept or thrown into the common areas or into or on any heating or ventilating vents or registers or plumbing apparatus in the Building, or on adjoining buildings or land or the street. Any cuspidors or containers or receptacles used as such or for garbage or similar refuse in the premises of any tenant shall be emptied, cared for and cleaned by and at the expense of such tenant.

A.22. All entrance doors in each tenant's premises shall be left locked and all windows shall be left closed by the tenant when the tenant's premises are not in use. Entrance doors shall not be left open at any time. Each tenant, before closing and leaving its premises at any time, shall turn out all lights.

A.23. Hand trucks not equipped with rubber tires, side guards and such other safeguards as Landlord may require shall not be used within the Building. No hand trucks shall be used in passenger elevators.

A.24. All windows in each tenant's premises shall be kept closed, and all blinds therein above the ground floor shall be lowered as reasonably required because of the position of the sun, during the operation of the Building air-conditioning system to cool or ventilate the tenant's premises. If Landlord elects to install any energy saving film on the windows of the Building or to install energy saving windows in place of the present windows, each tenant shall cooperate with the reasonable requirements of Landlord in connection with such installation and thereafter the maintenance and replacement of the film and/or windows and shall permit Landlord to have access to the tenant's premises at reasonable times during Business Hours to perform such work.

A.25. Each tenant at its own expense shall cause all portions of its premises used for the storage, preparation, service or consumption of food or beverages to be cleaned daily in a manner satisfactory to Landlord, and to be exterminated against infestation by vermin, rodents or roaches regularly and, in addition, whenever evidence of any infestation is discovered. No tenant shall permit any person to enter its premises or the Building for the purpose of providing such extermination services other than persons first approved by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.

A.26. No tenant, subtenant or licensee, or any contractor, employee, agent or invitee of any tenant, subtenant or licensee shall at any time bring into or keep upon any premises or the Building any inflammable, combustible, explosive, hazardous, toxic or otherwise dangerous fluid, chemical or substance other than customary office cleaning products.

A.27. No tenant shall mark, paint, drill into, or in any way deface, any part of its premises or the Building. No boring, cutting or stringing of wires or instruments shall be permitted except with the prior consent of, and as directed by, Landlord. No telephone, cable or other wires shall be installed by any tenant except in a manner reasonably approved by Landlord. No tenant shall lay linoleum, or other similar floor covering so that the same shall come in direct contact with the floor of its premises, and, if linoleum or other similar floor covering is desired to be used, an interlining of builder's deadening felt shall be first affixed to the floor by a paste or other material, soluble in water, the use of cement or other similar adhesive material being expresslyprohibited.

A.28. No bicycles, vehicles, animals (except seeing eye dogs), fish or birds of any kind shall be brought into or kept in or about the premises of any tenant.

A.29. All paneling, doors, trim or other wood products not considered furniture shall be of fire-retardant materials. Before installation of any such materials, certification of the materials' fire-retardant characteristics shall be submitted to Landlord, and such materials shall be installed in a manner approved by Landlord.

A.30. Whenever any tenant submits to Landlord any plan, agreement or other document for the consent or approval of Landlord, such tenant shall pay to Landlord, on demand, a processing fee in the amount of the reasonable fees for the review thereof, including the services of any architect, engineer or attorney employed by Landlord to review such plan, agreement or documents.

A.31. Landlord reserves the right to rescind, alter, waive or add any rule or regulation at any time when, in Landlord's judgment, Landlord deems it necessary, desirable or proper for the best interest of the Building or for the best interest of the tenants generally. No alteration, rescission, waiver or addition of any rule or regulation in favor of one tenant shall operate as an alteration, rescission, waiver or addition in favor of any other tenant. Landlord shall not be responsible to any tenant for the nonobservance or violation by any other tenant of any of the Rules and Regulations.

"Tenant":	Warner Music Group Inc.
"Subtenant"/"Assignor":	The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States
"Lease":	Lease dated as of February 1, 1996, as amended by a First Amendment to Lease dated as of January 1, 1997, and as further amended by a Second Amendment of Lease dated as of January 1, 1997, between the predecessor-in-interest of Landlord and the predecessor-in-interest of Tenant, wherein Landlord leased to Tenant the Premises located at the Building.
"Assignee":	The Bank of New York
"Assignment":	Assignment and Assumption of Sublease dated as of October 5, 2001 between Assignor and Assignee, as same may be amended, modified, extended or restated from time to time as permitted in this Agreement.
"Sublease":	Sublease dated April 13, 1999 between Tenant and Subtenant, as same may be amended, modified, extended or restated from time to time, as may be permitted hereunder.

Ladies/Gentlemen:

You have requested Landlord's consent to the Assignment. Such consent is hereby granted on the terms and conditions, and in reliance upon the representations and warranties, set forth in this letter (this "Agreement").

1. (a) Tenant represents and warrants to Landlord and Assignee that (i) the Lease and the Sublease are in full force and effect; (ii) the Lease has not been assigned or encumbered except by the Sublease and by the assignment of the Lease to Tenant; (iii) Tenant knows of no defense or counterclaim to the enforcement of the Lease; and (iv) Tenant is not entitled to any reduction, offset or abatement of the rent payable under the Lease.

(b) Subtenant represents and warrants to Landlord and Assignee that (i) the Sublease is in full force and effect; (ii) the Sublease has not been assigned, encumbered, modified, extended or supplemented; (iii) Subtenant knows of no defense or counterclaim to the enforcement of the Sublease; and (iv) Subtenant is not entitled to any reduction, offset or abatement of the rent payable under the Sublease.

(c) Assignor and Assignee each represents and warrants to Landlord that (i) the Assignment constitutes the complete agreement between Assignor and Assignee with respect to the subject matter thereof; and (ii) a true and complete copy of the Assignment is attached hereto.

(d) Landlord represents and warrants that the (i) Lease is in full force and effect, and (ii) to the best of Landlord's knowledge Tenant is not in default of any of its obligations or covenants, and has not breached any of its representations or warranties, under the Lease.

2. The Assignment shall be subject and subordinate to the Lease, and all of its provisions. Neither Tenant, Subtenant nor Assignee shall take, permit or suffer any action which would violate the provisions of the Lease or this Agreement.

3. Landlord's obligations to Tenant and Subtenant in respect of the Sublease are governed only by the Lease (as to Tenant only, and not as to Subtenant) and the agreement, dated April 16, 1999 by Landlord, Tenant and Subtenant consenting to the Sublease (the "Sublease Consent"). Landlord's obligations to Assignee are only as expressly provided in this Agreement. Landlord shall not be bound or estopped by any provision of the Assignment, including any provision purporting to impose any obligations upon Landlord (except as provided in Paragraph 6 of this Agreement). Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a consent to, approval of, or ratification by Landlord of, any of the particular provisions of the Assignment or any plan or drawing referred to or contained therein (except as may be expressly provided herein). Landlord has not reviewed or approved any provision of the Assignment.

4. If Tenant, Subtenant or Assignee violates any of the terms of this Agreement, or if any representation by Tenant, Subtenant or Assignee is this Agreement is untrue in any material respect, or if Assignor or Assignee takes any action which would constitute a default under the Lease, then Landlord may declare the Lease to be in default and, upon expiration of applicable notice and/or cure periods (if any), avail itself of all remedies provided at law or equity or in the Lease with respect to defaults.

5. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 6 of this Agreement, if the Lease is terminated prior to the stated expiration date provided therein, the Assignment, on the date of such termination, shall likewise terminate. In connection with such termination, Assignee, at its sole expense, shall surrender the Premises to Landlord, in the manner provided for in the Lease, including the removal of all its personal property from the Premises and from any part of the Building to which it is not otherwise entitled to occupancy and repair all resulting damage to the Premises and the Building. Except as otherwise provided in the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to retain any property and personal effects which remain in the Premises or the Building on the date of termination of the Lease, without any obligation or liability to Assignee, and to retain any net proceeds realized from the sale thereof, without waiving Landlord's rights with respect to any default by Tenant, Subtenant or Assignee under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph and the provisions of the Lease, the Sublease and the Assignment. If Assignee shall fail to vacate and surrender the Premises in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, Landlord shall be entitled to all of the rights and remedies which are available to a landlord against a tenant holding over after the expiration of a term, and, any such holding over shall be deemed a default under the Lease. In addition, Assignee agrees that it will not seek, and it expressly waives any right to seek, any stay of the prosecution of, or the execution of any judgment awarded in, any action by Landlord to recover possession of the Premises. Assignee may not vacate the Premises on a Sunday or a holiday. If the Assignment terminates on a Sunday or a holiday, Assignee must comply with this paragraph by the end of the preceding Saturday or business day. This paragraph shall survive the earlier termination of the Lease, Sublease and the Assignment.

6. If the Lease is terminated before the stated expiration date stated therein, Assignee shall attorn to Landlord or any such party upon the then executory terms of the Lease and/or Sublease for the remainder of the stated term of the Sublease, and Landlord or such other party shall recognize Assignee's occupancy rights, provided further that such party's obligations to Assignee shall be governed by the terms of the Lease and this Agreement. The party to whom Assignee attorns shall, under such circumstances, agree not to disturb Assignee in its use and enjoyment of the Premises, provided Assignee performs all of its obligations under the Assignment. Such party shall not be required to honor or credit Assignee for (a) any payments of rent made to Tenant or Subtenant for more than one month in advance or for any other payment owing by, or on deposit with, Tenant or Subtenant for the credit of Assignee, (b) any obligation to perform any work or make any payment to Assignee pursuant to a work letter, the Assignment or otherwise (other than repair or maintenance work with respect to the Premises required of the Landlord under the Lease), (c) any security deposit not in Landlord's actual possession, (d) any obligation of, or liability resulting from any act or omission of Tenant or Subtenant, (e) any amendment of the Assignment not expressly consented to by Landlord, or (f) any defenses, abatements, reductions, counterclaims or offsets assertable against Tenant or Subtenant. This provision is self-operative, whether or not, as a matter of law, the Assignment may terminate upon the expiration or termination of the term of the Lease. Assignee, however, agrees to give Landlord or such other party, on request, an instrument acknowledging an attornment according to these terms. No attornment pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed a waiver or impairment of Landlord's rights under the Lease to pursue any remedy not inconsistent with such attornment. Tenant or Subtenant shall deliver to Landlord or such other party any security deposit which Tenant or Subtenant is then holding under the Assignment and Assignee shall reimburse Landlord or such other party for any costs that may be incurred by it in connection with such attornment, including reasonable legal fees and disbursements.

7. Tenant, Subtenant and Assignee each agrees that:

(a) none of Landlord's, shareholders, partners, directors, officers, agents or employees, directly or indirectly, shall be liable for Landlord's performance under the Lease or this Agreement;

(b) Landlord's liability with respect to this Agreement shall be limited to the value of Landlord's interest in the Land and the Building (as defined in the Lease);

(c) it will not seek to satisfy any judgement against Landlord out of the assets of any person or entity other than Landlord (but only to the extent provided in clause (b) above); and

(d) the obligations of Landlord under this Agreement and those not yet accrued under the Lease shall not be binding upon Landlord after the sale, conveyance, assignment or transfer by Landlord of its interest in the Land and the Building, and Tenant, Subtenant and Assignee shall look solely to the transferee for the satisfaction of such obligations. Any such transferee shall be deemed to have assumed all Landlord's obligations under this Agreement.

8. Assignor and Assignee each represents and warrants that no rent or other consideration is being paid or is payable by Assignee for the right to use or occupy the Premises or for the use, sale or rental of any fixtures, leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture or other personal property, except as expressly provided for in the Assignment. Landlord agrees to look to Tenant for any so-called ''profit sharing" under Section 5.05 of the Lease only to the extent Tenant is entitled to any profits from the transactions contemplated by the Assignment; to the extent any so-called "profit sharing" would otherwise be due and payable to Landlord arising out of the Assignment and Tenant is not entitled to same, Landlord agrees to look solely to Subtenant for any such amounts.

9. Landlord represents and warrants that (i) the Lease is unmodified except as provided herein and in full force and effect, (ii) Fixed Rent and Additional Charges have been paid through the date hereof, and (iii) to the best knowledge of the undersigned, Tenant is not in default of its obligations under the Lease and no event has occurred which with the giving of notice or passage of time, or both, would constitute such a default.

10. The Lease, the Sublease Consent and this Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to Landlord's consent to the Assignment. This Agreement may not be changed except in writing signed by each party hereto.

11. All statements, notices and other communications given pursuant to this Agreement must be in writing and must be delivered personally with receipt acknowledged, or sent by a nationally recognized reputable overnight courier (against a receipt of delivery), or by registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses set forth above or at such other address as any party may designate upon not less than 10 days prior notice given in accordance with this paragraph. Any such communication shall be deemed delivered when personally delivered, or on the date received or rejected as indicated by the receipt if sent by overnight courier or by the return receipt if sent by mail.

12. This Agreement will be construed and governed by New York law.

13. Landlord's rights and remedies under this Agreement shall be in addition to every other right or remedy available to it under the Lease, at law, in equity or otherwise and Landlord shall be able to assert its rights and remedies at the same time as, before, or after its assertion of any other right or remedy to which it is entitled without in any way diminishing such other rights or remedies. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not impair the validity and enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

14. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns, except as provided in Paragraph 7(d) above and except that it shall not inure to the benefit of any successor or assign of Tenant, Subtenant or Assignee whose status was acquired in violation of the Lease, the Sublease Consent or this Agreement.

15. Each of the persons executing this Agreement on behalf of Landlord, Tenant, Subtenant and Assignee represents that he or she is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Agreement on behalf of such party, and that each of Landlord, Tenant, Subtenant and Assignee has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement.

16. Subtenant and Assignee, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify Landlord against, and hold Landlord harmless from, all costs, damages and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, arising out of any claims for brokerage commissions, finders fees or other compensation by reason of any person or entity claiming to have dealt with Subtenant or Assignee in connection with the Assignment or procuring possession of the Premises. Subtenant and Assignee, at their sole expense, may defend any such claim and settle any such claim at their expense, but only Landlord may approve the text of any stipulation, settlement agreement, consent order, judgment or decree entered into on its behalf unless the effect thereon is to absolve or release Landlord of or from all liability or obligation for any such claim without any payment performance or admission of liability or fault required from Landlord. The provisions of this Paragraph 16 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease or the Sublease.

17. Assignee agrees to indemnify Landlord against, and hold it harmless from any and all losses, costs, expenses, claims and liabilities including, but not limited to, reasonable counsel fees, arising from any accident, injury or damage whatsoever caused to any person or to the property of any person and occurring during the term of the Assignment occurring in or about the Premises unless caused by Landlord's, or Landlord's employees or contractors, negligence or willful misconduct. If any proceeding is brought against Landlord by reason of any such claim, Assignee shall be responsible for Landlord's costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in connection therewith. If any action or proceeding is brought against Landlord by reason of any such claims, Assignee upon written notice from Landlord, shall, at Assignee's sole cost and expense, resist or defend such action or proceeding using counsel reasonably approved by Landlord, but may not settle any such claim without Landlord's prior written approval unless the effect thereof is to absolve or release Landlord of or from all liability or obligation for any such claim without any payment, performance or admission of liability or fault required from Landlord. The provisions of this Paragraph 17 shall survive the expiration of earlier termination of the term of the Assignment or the Lease. The indemnity and any right granted to Landlord pursuant to this paragraph shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, Landlord's rights under the Lease. The provisions of Section 7.03 of the Lease shall apply as between Landlord and Subtenant and shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference except that reference therein to "Tenant" shall be deemed to be "Subtenant."

18. Landlord's consent to the Assignment pursuant to this Agreement does not include consent to any modification, supplement or amendment of the Assignment, or to any further subletting of the Premises, or to any additional subleasing of the Premises, each of which requires Landlord's prior written consent. If Tenant, Subtenant or Assignee desires Landlord's consent to any such other action it must specifically and separately request such consent.

19. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Assignment, nor any acceptance of rent or other consideration from Assignee by Landlord or Landlord's agent shall operate to waive, modify, impair, release or in any manner affect Tenant's liability or obligations under the Lease or the Subtenant's liability or obligations under the Sublease.

20. If there shall be any conflict or inconsistency between the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement or the Lease, the Sublease and the Assignment, then the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement or the Lease shall prevail. If there shall be any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and the Lease; such conflict or inconsistency shall be determined for the benefit of, and by, Landlord.

21. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL IN ANY CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING OUT OF, OR RELATING TO, THIS AGREEMENT.

22. Assignee agrees to pay, upon demand, Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket fees and disbursements incurred in connection with and related to the preparation and execution of this Agreement.

23. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

3. The Sublease, the Consent, the Consent to Assignment and this Agreement constitute the entire agreement of the parties with respect to Tenant's consent to the assignment of the Sublease. This Agreement may not be changed except in writing signed by the party to be charged.

5. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of the Sublease.

9. Tenant's consent to the assignment of the Sublease does not include consent to any further assignment of the Sublease or sub-subletting of the Sublet Space, each of which shall be governed by the terms of the Sublease.

10. Subtenant agrees to pay and/or reimburse Tenant for any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by Tenant and/or Landlord in connection with this Agreement and the transactions consented to hereby.

11. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement, nor any acceptance of rent or other consideration from Subtenant or Assignee by Tenant or Tenant's agent shall operate to waive, modify, impair, release or in any manner affect the liability or obligations of Subtenant or Assignee under the Sublease.

12. This Agreement and the consent of Tenant granted hereunder is expressly subject to and conditioned upon any consent rights of Landlord under the Lease and/or the Consent.

13. [intentionally omitted.]

14. Subtenant and Assignee agree to file any New York State and/or New York City real property transfer tax returns which may be required, and to pay any taxes which may be due, in connection with the transaction consented to hereby. Subtenant and Assignee jointly and severally agree to indemnify and hold Tenant harmless from and against the failure by any of them to timely comply with the provisions of this Paragraph. The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the expiration of the term of the Sublease.

RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), is entered into as of this 1st day of March, 2004, by and between WMG Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Edgar Bronfinan, Jr. (the "Executive"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the respective meanings set forth in the "Employment Agreement" (as defined herein).

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, WMG Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), an indirect majority owned subsidiary of Parent and a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation, and the Executive have entered into an employment agreement, dated as of March 1, 2004 (the "Employment Agreement"), pursuant to which the Executive is to purchase on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Purchase Agreement between the Company and Time Warner Inc., dated as of November 24, 2003; the Closing Date is hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date," and is the date hereof) the restricted stock provided for herein (the "Restricted Stock Award"); and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Parent (the "Board") has determined, pursuant to the Employment Agreement, to sell to the Executive the restricted stock reflecting the Restricted Stock Award effective as of the Effective Date, such grant to be subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Restricted Stock. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Parent hereby sells to the Executive, and the Executive hereby purchases from Parent, effective as of the Effective Date (which is the date hereof), 2,883.9136 shares of Class A Common Stock of Parent (the "Restricted Shares") for an aggregate purchase price of $2,883,913.60. The Board acknowledges to the Executive that such purchase price is the fair market value of the Restricted Shares on the Effective Date (the "Initial Value"), determined without regard to any restrictions applicable thereto other than restrictions which by their terms do not lapse. The Restricted Shares shall vest in accordance with Section 2 and Section 5 hereof.

2. Vesting.

(a) Service-Based Restricted Stock. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, one-third of the Restricted Shares (the "Service-Based Restricted Stock"), shall vest and become non-forfeitable in four equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date, such that one hundred percent (100%) of the Service-Based Restricted Stock shall be vested and non-forfeitable on the day prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that any unvested Service-Based Restricted Stock shall become vested and non-forfeitable upon a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company (A) due to his death, (B) by the Company due to his Disability or without Cause or (C) by the Executive for Good Reason, in each case on or after a "Change in Control" (as defined in Section 2(b)(iii)(6)) or, in the case of a termination by the Company without Cause or a termination by the Executive for Good Reason, in anticipation of a Change in Control (a termination described in the foregoing proviso being referred to hereinafter as a "CIC Termination").

(b) Performance-Based Restricted Stock. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, two-thirds of the Restricted Shares (the "Performance-Based Restricted Stock") shall contingently vest in equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversary of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date (the "Service Condition"), but shall not be considered to be fully vested until and unless the condition described in Section 2(b)(i) or 2(b)(ii), as applicable, has been satisfied (each such condition, a "Performance Condition").

(i) With respect to one-half of the Performance-Based Restricted Stock, the Performance Condition shall be the occurrence of a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event.

(ii) With respect to the other one-half of the Performance-Based Restricted Stock, the Performance Condition shall be the occurrence of a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 2(b), and also as and if used elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "2X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) two times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and "Fair Market Value" (as defined below) of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(2) "3X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) three times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and Fair Market Value of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(3) "2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event" shall mean (A) the first sale in an underwritten offering of Parent's Class A Common Stock pursuant to a registration statement on Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Form S-1 or otherwise under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") (an "IPO"), at a per share price which implies an aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the time of the IPO of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, (B) following an IPO, or any transaction other than an IPO which causes Parent's Class A Common Stock, or all or substantially all of the securities into which such Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, to be listed for trading on a national securities exchange or quoted on an automated quotation system, the average closing price of Parent's Class A Common Stock, or such securities into which Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, on the primary exchange on which, or system over which, it is traded over any 20 consecutive trading days is such that the implied aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the end of such 20 consecutive trading days, based on such average price, is at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, determined as of the first of such 20 consecutive trading days, or (C) a Bonus Liquidity Event occurs which results in a combination of cash and readily marketable securities being paid or provided to the Investors having an aggregate value (as determined by the Board in good faith as of the time of receipt) of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value.

(4) "3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event" has the same meaning as a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, except that the term "2X Investor Equity Value" each time it appears in Section 2(b)(iii)(3) above shall be replaced with "3X Investor Equity Value."

(5) "Bonus Liquidity Event" shall mean a Change in Control, or other event (e.g., a leveraged recapitalization in which the proceeds are paid out to the Investors as dividends and/or redemptions), in which consideration is paid to Investors in respect of the Investor Equity in the form of cash, readily marketable securities or a combination of both.

(6) "Change in Control" shall mean a "Change of Control," as defined in the certificate of incorporation of Parent, as amended from time to time.

(7) "Fair Market Value" shall mean the price at which the asset in question would change hands in an arms' length sale between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with neither being under any compunction to buy or sell and each with full knowledge of all relevant facts, as determined by, in the Executive's sole discretion, an investment bank or other valuation firm chosen by the Executive from among a list of no less than five such banks and/or firms (all of which must be experienced in the valuation of privately held companies) provided to the Executive by the Company; provided that, in determining Fair Market Value of the securities of any member of the Parent Group, the chosen investment bank or valuation firm shall be instructed to use a methodology which takes into account the free cash flow, revenue and EBITDA and such other methodologies and characteristics as may be relevant and shall be instructed (A) to adjust the Fair Market Value of the securities to take into account the illiquidity of securities which are not publicly traded and (B) to make no adjustment on account of any control premium. Notwithstanding the above, the Fair Market Value of any freely tradable security which is of a class listed for trading on an established securities market or established trading system shall be the average of the high and low trading prices of such class of securities, as reported on the primary market or trading system on which such securities are listed on the date Fair Market Value is determined.

(8) "Investment" means the aggregate investment by the Investors in the equity securities of any member of the Parent Group on and prior to the Effective Date, including expenses, which is anticipated to be approximately $1.25 billion.

(9) "Investor Equity" shall mean all equity securities of all members of the Parent Group, including common and preferred stock and warrants, options and other instruments convertible or exercisable into, or redeemable for, common or preferred stock, either (A) purchased or otherwise received by the Investors on or prior to the Effective Date or (B) received by the Investors following the Effective Date, without cost to the Investors, in respect of the equity securities described in the preceding clause (B).

(10) "Investors" shall mean all of (i) Thomas H. Lee Equity Fund V, L.P., (ii) Thomas H. Lee Parallel Fund V, L.P., (iii) Thomas H. Lee Equity (Cayman) Fund V, L.P., (iv)

Putnam Investments Holdings, LLC, (v) Putnam Investments Employees' Securities Company I LLC, (vi) Putnam Investments Employees' Securities Company II LLC, (vii) 1997 Thomas H. Lee Nominee Trust, (viii) Thomas H. Lee Investors Limited Partnership, (ix) Bain Capital Partners Integral Investors, LLC, (x) Bain Capital VII Coinvestment Fund, LLC, (xi) BCIP TCV, LLC, (xii) Providence Equity Partners IV, L.P., (xiii) Providence Equity Operating Partners IV, L.P. and (xiv) Lexa Partners LLC, or any affiliate of any of them, in each case which purchases Investor Equity on or prior to the Effective Date.

(11) "Parent Group" shall mean Parent, Midco, the Company and each direct or indirect subsidiary of any of them.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Service Condition applicable to each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock shall be deemed to have been attained upon a CIC Termination.

(c) The term "Vested Restricted Shares," as used herein, shall mean (i) each share of Service-Based Restricted Stock on and following the time that the vesting condition set forth in Section 2(a) hereof has been actually or deemed satisfied as to such share, (ii) each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock on and following the time that both the Service Condition and the Performance Condition have been actually or deemed satisfied as to such share, (iii) to the extent applicable, each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock not described in the immediately preceding clause (ii) on and following its "Initial Call Date" (as defined in Section 5(b)(iii)) if, on such Initial Call Date and without regard to Section 5(b)(x), such share would be subject to the Call Option at a Call Price equal to the Fair Market Value of such share (as opposed to the lower of the Fair Market Value or the Initial Value of such share) and (iv) each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock not described in the immediately preceding clauses (ii) and (iii) on an following the day prior to the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, so long as the Executive remains employed by the Company on such day. Restricted Shares which have not become Vested Restricted Shares are hereinafter referred to as "Unvested Restricted Shares."

3. Taxes. The Executive shall pay to the Company or Parent promptly upon request, and in any event at the time the Executive recognizes taxable income in respect of the Restricted Stock Award, an amount equal to the taxes the Company or Parent determines it is required to withhold under applicable tax laws with respect to the Restricted Shares. Such payment shall be made in the form of cash. As a condition to the effectiveness of the Restricted Stock Award, the Executive shall make a timely and valid election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") to realize taxable income in respect of the grant of the Restricted Stock Award, in an amount equal to the Initial Value less the purchase price paid for the Restricted Shares. Notwithstanding the above, because the Company and the Executive acknowledge that the purchase price for the Restricted Shares is equal to the Initial Value, so long as the Executive makes a timely and valid Code Section 83(b) election in respect of the Restricted Shares the Company and the Executive agree that no tax is due, and no withholding is necessary, upon or on account of the Executive's purchase of the Restricted Shares.

4. Certificates. Certificates evidencing the Restricted Shares shall be issued by Parent and shall be registered in the Executive's name on the stock transfer books of Parent promptly after the date hereof, but shall remain in the physical custody of Parent or its designee at all times prior to, in the case of any particular Restricted Shares, the date such Restricted Shares become Vested Restricted Shares. As a condition to the receipt of this Restricted Stock Award, the Executive shall deliver to Parent a stock power, duly endorsed in blank, relating to the Restricted Shares.

5. Effect of Termination of Employment.

(a) Upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, the Restricted Shares shall be subject to the Call Option described in Section 5(b) below. Such a termination may be (i) by the Company for Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason (a "5(a)(i) Termination") or (ii) by the Company without Cause (including on account of the Executive's Disability), by the Executive for Good Reason or upon the Executive's death (a "5(a)(ii) Termination").

(b) Call Option.

(i) Other than as set forth in the second sentence of Section 5(b)(x), upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of the Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive, on and after the Initial Call Date any or all of the Restricted Shares. The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Restricted Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be as follows:

(1) In the event of a 5(a)(i) Termination, (A) as to Unvested Restricted Shares, the lower of the Fair Market Value of the Called Shares on the date of the "Call Notice" (as defined below) or the Initial Value of the Called Shares, and (B) as to Vested Restricted Shares, the Fair Market Value of the Called Shares on the date of the Call Notice.

(2) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination, as to shares of Service-Based Restricted Stock and Performance-Based Restricted Stock which are Vested Restricted Shares immediately prior to such termination, or which become Vested Restricted Shares upon such termination solely because such termination is a CIC Termination, the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares.

(3) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination (other than a CIC Termination), as to shares of Service-Based Restricted Stock which are Unvested Restricted Shares immediately prior to such termination, and as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock as to which the Service Condition has not been met at the time of such termination, the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(4) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination where a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, but not a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, has occurred prior to such termination, (A) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 3X Investor Equity Value and the Applicable EBITDA Target is attained, then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition had been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value of such shares which are Called Shares on the date of the Call Notice, and (B) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is less than the 3X Investor Equity Value or the Applicable EBITDA Target is not attained then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition had been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(5) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination where neither a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event nor a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event has occurred prior to such termination, (A) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 3X Investor Equity Value and the Applicable EBITDA Target is attained then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition has been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares, (B) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, but less than the 3X Investor Equity Value, and the Applicable EBITDA Target is attained then, as to one-half of the shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition had been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares, and as to the other one-half of the shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition had been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares and (C) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is less than the 2X Investor Equity Value or the Applicable EBITDA Target is not attained then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met, but the Service Condition had been met (either prior to such termination or at such termination if such termination is a CIC Termination), the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(ii) For purposes of Section 5(b)(i)(4) and (5), the "Applicable EBITDA Target" shall have been deemed attained in connection with a 5(a)(ii) Termination if, for the fiscal year (A) ending immediately prior to such termination, if such termination occurs during the first nine months of a fiscal year or (B) in which such termination occurs, if such termination occurs during the last three months of a fiscal year, the Parent Group has attained or exceeded 85% of the target earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"); provided that EBITDA shall be calculated in same manner as calculated in the Parent Group's bank plan dated November 2003 (attached hereto as Exhibit 1), including but not limited to the exclusion of non-recurring and extraordinary expenses. For this purpose, the target EBITDA for the fiscal years in 2004 through 2011 shall be $360 million, $450 million, $477 million, $506 million, $543 million, $579 million and $618 million and $655 million, respectively. The Company and the Executive acknowledge that, as of tile date hereof, the Company's fiscal year ends on November 30, and agree that if such fiscal year changes the targets set forth in the preceding sentence shall be adjusted in a mutually acceptable manner intended to make them neither more difficult nor less difficult to attain.

(iii) The "Initial Call Date" shall mean (A) with respect to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock as to which the Service Condition, but not the Performance Condition, has been attained at the time of a 5(a)(ii) Termination, (I) if such termination occurs within the first nine months of a fiscal year, the later of the date of such termination or the date of delivery of the Parent Group's audited financial statements in respect of the fiscal year immediately preceding such termination and (II) if such termination occurs during the last three months of a fiscal year, the date of delivery of the Parent Group's audited financial statements in respect of such fiscal year or (B) in all other cases, the date of termination of the Executive's employment with the Company.

(iv) For purposes of Section 5(b)(i), the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the initial Employment Period (i.e., on the day prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date) in connection with either the Company or the Executive giving the other a notice of non-renewal, as described in Section 1 of the Employment Agreement, shall be deemed to be a Section 5(a)(ii) Termination.

(v) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in accordance with Section 15 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice") at any time following the Initial Call Date. The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(vi) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall tender to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, (the date on which the Company receive such certificate or certificates, the "Call Date"). Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefore, in cash.

(vii) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(viii) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the time of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call Price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(ix) Any Restricted Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(x) This Section 5(b) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Restricted Shares contained in the "Stockholders' Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 5(b) shall be ineffective as to each Vested Restricted Share on and following the later of (I) an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system and (II) the date on which such share becomes a Vested Restricted Share.

6. Rights as a Stockholder; Dividends.

(a) The Executive shall be the record owner of the Restricted Shares unless and until such shares are sold or otherwise disposed of, and as record owner shall be entitled to all rights of a common stockholder of Parent, including, without limitation, voting rights, if any, with respect to the Restricted Shares; provided that (i) any cash or in-kind dividends paid with respect to Restricted Shares which are not Vested Restricted Shares shall be withheld by Parent and shall be paid to the Executive, without interest, only when, and if, such Restricted Shares shall become Vested Restricted Shares (provided, however, that in the event of a rights offering in which the Restricted Shares are entitled to participate, the Executive shall be entitled to subscribe for and purchase any securities made available in such rights offering with respect to all Restricted Shares, whether or not such Restricted Shares are Vested Restricted Shares), and (ii) the Restricted Shares shall be subject to the limitations on transfer and encumbrance set forth in this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement to be executed and entered into by and between Parent, the Investors, the Executive and the other parties thereto on or about the Effective Date (the "Stockholders' Agreement"), as annexed hereto as Exhibit 2. As soon as practicable following the vesting of any Restricted Shares, certificates for such Vested Restricted Shares shall be delivered to the Executive or to the Executive's legal representative along with the stock powers relating thereto.

(b) At or promptly following an IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Restricted Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-1 filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Restricted Shares.

7. Restrictive Legend. All certificates representing Restricted Shares shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws, unless and to the extent determined inapplicable or unnecessary by Parent:

THE SHARES OF STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND AN OPTION TO PURCHASE SET FORTH IN A CERTAIN RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT BETWEEN WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST). AND A STOCKHOLDERS' AGREEMENT TO WHICH WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) ARE PARTIES, WHICH AGREEMENTS ARE BINDING UPON ANY AND ALL OWNERS OF ANY INTEREST IN SAID SHARES. SAID AGREEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF WMG PARENT CORP. AND COPIES THEREOF WILL BE FURNISHED WITHOUT CHARGE TO ANY OWNER OF SAID SHARES UPON REQUEST.

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THESE SECURITIES HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO DISTRIBUTION OR RESALE, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, MORTGAGED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SUCH SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, UNLESS WMG PARENT CORP. HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Transferability.

(a) The Restricted Shares may not, at any time prior to becoming Vested Restricted Shares, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Executive and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute an assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance; and provided further that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to a sale of Restricted Shares in compliance with the obligations, if any, of the holder thereof to sell such shares pursuant to the "drag along" provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement.

(b) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Restricted Shares upon or subsequent to their vesting, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement; provided, that, Vested Restricted Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Vested Restricted Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 8(b) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Vested Restricted Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

9. Securities Laws. The Executive represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Restricted Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Restricted Shares in violation of the Securities Act or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of Parent such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in the Parent.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring of the Restricted Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Restricted Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Restricted Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Restricted Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; (iii) in any event, the exemption from registration under Rule 144 will not be available for at least one (1) year and even then will not be available unless a public market then exists for such shares, adequate information concerning Parent is then available to the public, and other terms and conditions of Rule 144 are complied with and (iv) there is now no registration statement on file with the SEC with respect to the Restricted Shares and, except as set forth in Section 6(b) hereof or in the Stockholders' Agreement, there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon any Restricted Shares becoming Vested Restricted Shares, the Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, the warranties and agreements as the Board may reasonably determine are legally required in order to comply with applicable securities laws.

10. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.

(a) If from time to time during the term of this Agreement there is any stock split-up, stock dividend, stock distribution or other reclassification of Parent's Class A Common Stock, any and all new, substituted or additional securities to which the Executive is entitled by reason of his ownership of the Restricted Shares shall be immediately subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) If the Parent's Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent's successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Restricted Shares.

11. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), is entered into as of this of , 2004, by and between WMG Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Lyor Cohen (the "Executive"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the respective meanings set forth in the "Employment Agreement" (as defined herein).

R E C I T A L S:

WHEREAS, WMG Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Parent and a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation, and the Executive have entered into an employment agreement, dated as of January 25, 2004 (the "Employment Agreement"), pursuant to which the Executive is to be granted on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Purchase Agreement between the Company and Time Warner Inc., dated as of November 24, 2003; the Closing Date is hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date") the restricted stock award provided for herein (the "Restricted Stock Award"); and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Parent (the "Board") has determined, pursuant to the Employment Agreement, to grant the Restricted Stock Award to the Executive effective as of the Effective Date, such grant to be subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grant of Restricted Stock Award. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, Parent hereby grants, effective as of the Effective Date, to the Executive a Restricted Stock Award consisting of shares of Class A Common Stock of Parent (the "Restricted Shares"). The Board will advise the Executive in writing on or immediately following the Effective Date of the fair market value of one share of Class A Common Stock on the Effective Date (the "Initial Value"), determined without regard to any restrictions applicable thereto other than restrictions which by their terms do not lapse. The Restricted Shares shall vest in accordance with Section 2 and Section 5 hereof.

2. Vesting.

(a) Service-Based Restricted Stock. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, one-third of the Restricted Shares (the "Service-Based Restricted Stock"), shall vest and become non-forfeitable in four equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date, such that one hundred percent (100%) of the Service-Based Restricted Stock shall be vested and non-forfeitable on the day prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that any unvested Service-Based Restricted Stock shall become vested and non-forfeitable upon a Change in Control.

(b) Performance-Based Restricted Stock. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, two-thirds of the Restricted Shares (the "Performance-Based Restricted Stock") shall contingently vest in equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversary of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date (the "Service Condition"), but shall remain subject to forfeiture as described below until and unless the condition described in Section 2(b)(i) or 2(b)(ii), as applicable, has been satisfied (each such condition, a "Performance Condition").

(i) With respect to one-half of the Performance-Based Restricted Stock, the Performance Condition shall be the occurrence of a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event.

(ii) With respect to the other one-half of the Performance-Based Restricted Stock, the Performance Condition shall be the occurrence of a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 2(b), and also as and if used elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "2X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) two times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and "Fair Market Value" (as defined below) of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(2) "3X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) three times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and Fair Market Value of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(3) "2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event" shall mean (A) the first sale in an underwritten offering of Parent's Class A Common Stock pursuant to a registration statement on Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Form S-1 or otherwise under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") (an "IPO"), at a per share price which implies an aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the time of the IPO of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, (B) following an IPO, or any transaction other than an IPO which causes Parent's Class A Common Stock, or all or substantially all of the securities into which such Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, to be listed for trading on a national securities exchange or quoted on an automated quotation system, the average closing price of Parent's Class A Common Stock, or such securities into which Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, on the primary exchange on which, or system over which, it is traded over any 20 consecutive trading days is such that the implied aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the end of such 20 consecutive trading days, based on such average price, is at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, determined as of the first of such 20 consecutive trading days, or (C) a Bonus Liquidity Event (provided that the consideration paid to the Investors may be in the form of cash, readily marketable securities or a combination of both) occurs which results in a combination of cash and readily marketable securities being paid or provided to the Investors having an aggregate value (as determined by the Board in good faith as of the time of receipt) of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value.

(iv) "3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event" has the same meaning as a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, except that the term "2X Investor Equity Value" each time it appears in Section 2(b)(iii)(3) above shall be replaced with "3X Investor Equity Value."

(v) "Fair Market Value" shall mean the price at which the asset in question would change hands in an arms' length sale between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with neither being under any compunction to buy or sell and each with full knowledge of all relevant facts, as determined by, in the Executive's sole discretion, an investment bank or other valuation firm chosen by the Executive from among a list of no less than five such banks and/or firms (all of which must be experienced in the valuation of privately held companies) provided to the Executive by the Company; provided that, in determining Fair Market Value of the securities of any member of the Parent Group, the chosen investment bank or valuation firm shall be instructed to use a methodology which takes into account the free cash flow, revenue and EBITDA and such other methodologies and characteristics as may be relevant.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Service Condition applicable to each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock shall be deemed to have been attained upon a Change in Control.

(c) Performance-Based Restricted Stock as to which both the Service Condition and the Performance Condition has been actually or deemed satisfied, and shares of Service-Based Restricted Stock as to which the vesting condition set forth in Section 2(a) hereof has been actually or deemed satisfied, are hereinafter referred to as "Vested Restricted Shares."

3. Taxes. The Executive shall pay to the Company or Parent promptly upon request, and in any event at the time the Executive recognizes taxable income in respect of the Restricted Stock Award, an amount equal to the taxes the Company or Parent determines it is required to withhold under applicable tax laws with respect to the Restricted Shares. Such payment shall be made in the form of cash. As a condition to the effectiveness of the Restricted Stock Award, the Executive shall make a timely and valid election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") to realize taxable income in respect of the grant of the Restricted Stock Award, in an amount equal to the Initial Value.

4. Certificates. Certificates evidencing the Restricted Shares shall be issued by Parent and shall be registered in the Executive's name on the stock transfer books of Parent promptly after the date hereof, but shall remain in the physical custody of Parent or its designee at all times prior to, in the case of any particular Restricted Shares, the date such Restricted Shares become Vested Restricted Shares. As a condition to the receipt of this Restricted Stock Award, the Executive shall deliver to Parent a stock power, duly endorsed in blank, relating to the Restricted Shares.

5. Effect of Termination of Employment.

(a) For Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason. Upon the Executive's termination of employment with the Company (i) by the Company for Cause, or (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, then all Restricted Shares which are not Vested Restricted Shares at the time of such termination shall be forfeited by the Executive.

(b) Termination by the Company without Cause, by the Executive for Good Reason or upon the Executive's death or Disability. Upon a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company (i) due to his death, (ii) by the Company due to his Disability or without Cause or (iii) by the Executive for Good Reason, then all of the vesting conditions shall be deemed satisfied as to all Restricted Shares, and all Restricted Shares shall become Vested Restricted Shares.

(c) Call Option.

(i) If the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of the Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive any or all of the Vested Restricted Shares. The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Vested Restricted Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be as follows:

(1) In the event of a termination of employment described in Section 5(a) above, the lower of the Fair Market Value of the Called Shares on the date of the "Call Notice" (as defined below) or the Initial Value of the Called Shares.

(2) In the event of a termination described in Section 5(b) above, as to shares of Service-Based Restricted Stock and Performance-Based Restricted Stock which are Vested Restricted Stock immediately prior to such termination (i.e., without taking account of the vesting acceleration described in Section 5(b)), and as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted

Stock for which the Performance Condition, but not the Service Condition, has been met prior to such termination, the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares.

(3) In the event of a termination described in Section 5(b) above, as to shares of Service-Based Restricted Stock which are not Vested Restricted Stock immediately prior to such termination, the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(4) In the event of a termination described in Section 5(b) above where a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, but not a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event, has occurred prior to such termination, (A) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 3X Investor Equity Value then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value of such shares which are Called Shares on the date of the Call Notice, and (B) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is less than the 3X Investor Equity Value then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(5) In the event of a termination described in Section 5(b) above where neither a 2X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event nor a 3X Restricted Stock Liquidity Event has occurred prior to such termination, (A) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 3X Investor Equity Value then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares, (B) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, but less than the 3X Investor Equity Value, then, as to one-half of the shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares, and as to the other one-half of the shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares and (C) if the Fair Market Value of the Investor Equity at the time of such termination is less than the 2X Investor Equity Value then, as to shares of Performance-Based Restricted Stock for which the Performance Condition had not been met prior to such termination, the Call Price shall be the lower of the Fair Market Value on the date of the Call Notice of such shares which are Called Shares or the Initial Value of such Called Shares.

(ii) For purposes of Section 5(c)(i), the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the initial Employment Period (i.e., on the day prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date) in connection with either the Company or the Executive giving the other a notice of non-renewal, as described in Section 1 of the Employment Agreement, shall be deemed to be a termination described in Section 5(b) above.

(iii) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in accordance with Section 15 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice") at any time following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company. The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(iv) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall tender to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, (the date on which the Company receive such certificate or certificates, the "Call Date"). Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefore, in cash.

(v) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(vi) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the time of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call Price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(vii) Any Vested Restricted Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(viii) The Section 5(c) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Restricted Shares contained in the "Stockholders Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 5(c) shall become ineffective on and following an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system.

6. Rights as a Stockholder; Dividends.

(a) The Executive shall be the record owner of the Restricted Shares unless and until such shares are forfeited pursuant to Sections 2 or 5 hereof or sold or otherwise disposed of, and as record owner shall be entitled to all rights of a common stockholder of Parent, including, without limitation, voting rights, if any, with respect to the Restricted Shares; provided that (i) any cash or in-kind dividends paid with respect to Restricted Shares which are not Vested Restricted Shares shall be withheld by Parent and shall be paid to the Executive, without interest, only when, and if, such Restricted Shares shall become Vested Restricted Shares (provided, however, that in the event of a rights offering in which the Restricted Shares are entitled to participate, the Executive shall be entitled to subscribe for and purchase any securities made available in such rights offering with respect to all Restricted Shares, whether or not such Restricted Shares are Vested Restricted Shares), and (ii) the Restricted Shares shall be subject to the limitations on transfer and encumbrance set forth in this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement to be executed and entered into by and between Parent, the Investors, the Executive and the other parties thereto on or about the Effective Date (the "Stockholders' Agreement"), as annexed hereto as Exhibit A. As soon as practicable following the vesting of any Restricted Shares, certificates for such Vested Restricted Shares shall be delivered to the Executive or to the Executive's legal representative along with the stock powers relating thereto.

(b) At or promptly following an IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Restricted Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-1 filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Restricted Shares.

7. Restrictive Legend. All certificates representing Restricted Shares shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws, unless and to the extent determined inapplicable or unnecessary by Parent:

> THE SHARES OF STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND AN OPTION TO PURCHASE SET FORTH IN A CERTAIN RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT BETWEEN WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) AND A STOCKHOLDERS' AGREEMENT TO WHICH WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) ARE PARTIES, WHICH AGREEMENTS ARE BINDING UPON ANY AND ALL OWNERS OF ANY INTEREST IN SAID SHARES. SAID AGREEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF WMG PARENT CORP. AND COPIES THEREOF WILL BE FURNISHED WITHOUT CHARGE TO ANY OWNER OF SAID SHARES UPON REQUEST.
> THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THESE

> SECURITIES HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO DISTRIBUTION OR RESALE, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, MORTGAGED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SUCH SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, UNLESS WMG PARENT CORP. HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Transferability.

(a) The Restricted Shares may not, at any time prior to becoming Vested Restricted Shares, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Executive and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Company; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute an assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance; and provided further that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to a sale of Restricted Shares in compliance with the obligations, if any, of the holder thereof to sell such shares pursuant to the "drag along" provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement.

(b) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Restricted Shares upon or subsequent to their vesting, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement; provided, that, Vested Restricted Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Vested Restricted Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 8(b) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Vested Restricted Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

9. Securities Laws. The Executive represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Restricted Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Restricted Shares in violation of the Securities Act or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of Parent such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in the Parent.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring of the Restricted Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Restricted Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Restricted Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Restricted Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; (iii) in any event, the exemption from registration under Rule 144 will not be available for at least one (1) year and even then will not be available unless a public market then exists for such shares, adequate information concerning Parent is then available to the public, and other terms and conditions of Rule 144 are complied with and (iv) there is now no registration statement on file with the SEC with respect to the Restricted Shares and, except as set forth in Section 6(b) hereof or in the Stockholders' Agreement, there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon any Restricted Shares becoming Vested Restricted Shares, the Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, the warranties and agreements as the Board may reasonably determine are legally required in order to comply with applicable securities laws.

10. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.

(a) If from time to time during the term of this Agreement there is any stock split-up, stock dividend, stock distribution or other reclassification of Parent's Class A Common Stock, any and all new, substituted or additional securities to which the Executive is entitled by reason of his ownership of the Restricted Shares shall be immediately subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) If the Parent's Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent's successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Restricted Shares.

11. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. This provision does not prohibit the Executive from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Executive's attorneys or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal or tax advice or as otherwise required by law, regulation or stock exchange rule.

12. Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of the Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

13. Waiver. Any right of Parent contained in the Agreement may be waived in writing by the Board. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach.

14. No Rights to Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Executive any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant or director of any member of the Parent Group.

15. Notices. Any notice, consent, request or other communication made or given in accordance with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when actually received or, if mailed, three days after mailing by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or one business day after mailing by a nationally recognized express mail delivery service with instructions for next-day delivery, to those persons listed below at their following respective addresses or at such other address or person's attention as each may specify by notice to the others:

16. Beneficiary. The Executive may file with the Board a written designation of a beneficiary on such form as may be prescribed by the Board and may, from time to time, amend or revoke such designation. If no designated beneficiary survives the Executive, the executor or administrator of the Executive's estate shall be deemed to be the Executive's beneficiary. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the respective meanings set forth in the "Employment Agreement" (as defined herein).

WHEREAS, Warner Music Group Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), an indirect majority owned subsidiary of Parent, or one of Parent's direct or indirect subsidiaries, and the Executive have entered into an employment agreement, the "Employment Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Parent (the "Board") has determined that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to grant to the Executive as of the date hereof (the "Effective Date") an option to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock of Parent ("Common Stock"), as provided for herein (the "Stock Option Award");

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grant. Parent hereby grants to the Executive an option (the "Option") to purchase shares of Common Stock (such shares of Common Stock, the "Option Shares"), on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. This Option is not intended to be treated as an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. This grant is subject to the Executive having executed the Stockholders' Agreement entered into by and between Parent, the "Investors" (as defined below) and the other parties thereto prior to the Effective Date, as it may be amended from time to time (the "Stockholders' Agreement"). A copy of the Stockholders' Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof, is annexed hereto as Exhibit A. The number and type of Option Shares purchasable hereunder shall be subject to adjustment as and in the manner provided in Section 9(a) below.

2. Incorporation by Reference, Etc. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the respective meanings set forth in the Employment Agreement.

3. Option Price. The price at which the Executive shall be entitled to purchase the Option Shares upon the exercise of all or any portion of this Option shall be $1,179.00 per share. Such exercise price shall be subject to adjustment as and in the manner provided in Section 9(a) below.

4. Expiration Date. Subject to Section 6 hereof, the Option shall expire at the end of the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time ("ET") on the day preceding the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Option Period").

5. Exercisability of the Option.

(a) Service-Based Option. Except as may otherwise be provided herein, the Option shall become vested and exercisable as to one-third of the shares subject thereto (the "Service-Based Option") in four equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date, such that one hundred percent (100%) of the Service-Based Option shall be vested and exercisable on the day prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that the unvested portion of the Service-Based Option shall become vested and exercisable upon a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company (A) due to his death, (B) by the Company due to his Disability or without Cause or (C) by the Executive for Good Reason, in each case on or after a "Change in Control" (as defined in Section 5(b)(iii)(6)) or, in the case of a termination by the Company without Cause or a termination by the Executive for Good Reason, in anticipation of a Change in Control (a termination described in the foregoing proviso being referred to hereinafter as a "CIC Termination").

(b) Performance-Based Option. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Option shall become contingently vested as to two-thirds of the shares subject thereto (the "Performance-Based Option") in four equal installments on the day prior to each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Effective Date provided that the Executive remains employed with the Company on each such date (the "Service Condition"), but shall not be considered to be fully vested and exercisable until and unless the condition described in Section 5(b)(i) or 5(b)(ii), as applicable, has been satisfied (each such condition, a "Performance Condition").

(i) With respect to one-half of the Performance-Based Option, the Performance Condition shall be the actual or deemed occurrence of a 2X Option Vesting Event.

(ii) With respect to the other one-half of the Performance-Based Option, the Performance Condition shall be the actual or deemed occurrence of a 3X Option Vesting Event.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 5(b), and also as and if used elsewhere in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "2X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) two times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and "Fair Market Value" (as defined below) of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(2) "3X Investor Equity Value" shall mean (X) three times the Investment minus (Y) the aggregate amount of cash and Fair Market Value of readily marketable securities or other assets (determined at the time of receipt) received by the Investors in respect of the Investor Equity prior to or coincident with the time of determination.

(3) "2X Option Vesting Event" shall mean (A) the first sale in an underwritten offering of Parent's Class A Common Stock pursuant to a registration statement on Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Form S-1 or otherwise under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") (an "IPO"), at a per share price which implies an aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the time of the IPO of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, (B) following an IPO, or any transaction other than an IPO which causes Parent's Class A Common Stock, or all or substantially all of the securities into which such Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, to be listed for trading on a national securities exchange or quoted on an automated quotation system, the average closing price of Parent's Class A Common Stock, or such securities into which Class A Common Stock is converted or for which it is exchanged, on the primary exchange on which, or system over which, it is traded over any 20 consecutive trading days is such that the implied aggregate value of the Investor Equity at the end of such 20 consecutive trading days, based on such average price, is at least the 2X Investor Equity Value, determined as of the first of such 20 consecutive trading days, or (C) a Bonus Vesting Event occurs which results in a combination of cash and readily marketable securities being paid or provided to the Investors having an aggregate value (as determined by the Board in good faith as of the time of receipt) of at least the 2X Investor Equity Value.

(4) "3X Option Vesting Event" has the same meaning as a 2X Option Vesting Event, except that the term "2X Investor Equity Value" each time it appears in Section 5(b)(iii)(3) above shall be replaced with "3X Investor Equity Value."

(5) "Bonus Vesting Event" shall mean a Change in Control, or other event (e.g., a leveraged recapitalization in which the proceeds are paid out to the Investors as dividends and/or redemptions), in which consideration is paid to Investors in respect of the Investor Equity in the form of cash, readily marketable securities or a combination of both.

(6) "Change in Control" shall mean a "Change of Control," as defined in the certificate of incorporation of Parent, as amended from time to time.

(7) "Fair Market Value" shall mean the price at which the asset in question would change hands in an arms' length sale between a willing buyer and a willing seller, with neither being under any compunction to buy or sell and each with full knowledge of all relevant facts, as determined by the Board in good faith; provided that, in determining Fair Market Value of the securities of any member of Parent Group, the Board shall take into account the free cash flow, revenue and EBITDA and such other methodologies and characteristics as it may determine to be relevant, and shall (A) adjust the Fair Market Value of the securities to take into account the illiquidity of securities which are not publicly traded and (B) make no adjustment on account of any control premium. Notwithstanding the above, the Fair Market Value of any freely tradable security which is of a class listed for trading on an established securities market or established trading system shall be the average of the high and low trading prices of such class of securities, as reported on the primary market or trading system on which such securities are listed on the date Fair Market Value is determined.

(8) "Investment" means $1.25 billion.

(9) "Investor Equity" shall mean all equity securities of all members of Parent Group, including common and preferred stock and warrants, options and other instruments convertible or exercisable into, or redeemable for, common or preferred stock, either (A) purchased or otherwise received by the Investors on or prior to the Effective Date or (B) received by the Investors following the Effective Date, without cost to the Investors, in respect of the equity securities described in the preceding clause (A).

(11) "Parent Group" shall mean Parent, the Company and each direct or indirect subsidiary of any of them.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Service Condition applicable to the Performance-Based Option shall be deemed to have been attained upon a CIC Termination.

(c) The term "Vested Option," as used herein, shall mean (i) the portion of the Service-Based Option on and following the time that the vesting condition set forth in Section 5(a) hereof has been actually or deemed satisfied as to such portion, (ii) the portion of the Performance-Based Option on and following the time that both the Service Condition and the Performance Condition have been actually or are deemed to have been satisfied as to such portion and (iii) the portion of the Performance-Based Option not described in the immediately preceding clause (ii) on and following the day prior to the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, so long as the Executive remains employed by the Company on such day. The portion of the Option which has not become the Vested Option is hereinafter referred to as the "Unvested Option."

(d) The Option may be exercised only as to the Vested Option, and only by written notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (or a successor form provided by Parent) delivered in person or by mail in accordance with Section 11(a) hereof and accompanied by payment therefor. The purchase price of the Option Shares shall be paid by the Executive to Parent (A) by certified check or wire transfer (using such wire transfer instructions as are provided by Parent or the Company), (B) by transferring to Parent shares of Common Stock, if and in the manner approved by Parent, (C) on or after an IPO, by a broker-assisted "cashless exercise" procedure if and in the manner approved by the Board or a designated committee thereof, or (D) by any other method approved in writing by the Board or a designated committee thereof. If requested by Parent, the Executive shall promptly deliver his copy of this Agreement evidencing the Option to the Secretary of Parent who shall endorse thereon a notation of such exercise and promptly return such Agreement to the Executive. Upon payment of the applicable purchase price and the issuance of the Option Shares in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Option Shares shall be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

6. Effect of Termination of Employment on Option.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive's employment may be terminated (i) by the Company for Cause (a "6(a)(i) Termination"), (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, other than a Retirement (a "6(a)(ii) Termination"), (iii) by the Company without Cause (including on account of Disability), by the Executive for Good Reason or on account of the Executive's death (a "6(a)(iii) Termination") or (iv) by the Executive on account of Retirement (a "6(a)(iv) Termination"). For purposes of the preceding sentence, (A) "Retirement" shall mean the Executive's voluntary termination of employment with the Company on or after the age of 62, after no less than 10 years of employment with the Company (B) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the failure of the Company to offer the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a Section 6(a)(iii) Termination and (C) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the Company's offering the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a 6(a)(ii) Termination.

(b) The Unvested Option, if any, shall immediately terminate upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company and its affiliates for any reason; provided, however, that the portion of the Unvested Option which is the portion of the Performance-Based Option as to which the Service Condition, but not the Performance Condition, has been attained at the time of a 6(a)(iii) Termination or a 6(a)(iv) Termination (the "Tail Option") shall terminate upon the six-month anniversary of the termination to the extent that the applicable Performance Condition has not been attained as of such six-month anniversary.

(c) The Vested Option shall remain exercisable by the Executive until, as applicable, (i) the date of a 6(a)(i) Termination, (ii) thirty (30) days following the date of a 6(a)(ii) Termination, (iii) one hundred and twenty (120) days following the date of a 6(a)(iii) Termination and (iv) the last day of the Option Period, in the case of a 6(a)(iv) Termination. Notwithstanding the above, the portion of the Tail Option as to which the Performance Condition is attained on or prior to the six-month anniversary of a 6(a)(iii) Termination or 6(a)(iv) Termination shall remain exercisable by the Executive until (A) one hundred and twenty (120) days following the attainment of the applicable Performance Condition, in the case of a 6(a)(iii) Termination, and (B) the last day of the Option Period, in the case of a 6(a)(iv) Termination.

(d) Any Option Shares purchased by the Executive through the exercise of the Option shall be subject to the Call Option described in this Section 6(d).

(i) Other than as set forth in the second sentence of Section 6(d)(vii), upon and following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive any or all of the Option Shares (whether purchased pursuant to the exercise of the Vested Option prior to, on or following such termination of employment). The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Option Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be (i) in the case of a 6(a)(i) Termination, the lower of the purchase price of such Called Shares or the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable "Call Notice" (as defined below) and (ii) in the case of any other termination of employment, the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable Call Notice.

(ii) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in accordance with Section 9 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice"). The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(iii) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall tender to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable. Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefor, in cash.

(iv) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(v) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the time of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call Price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(vi) Any Option Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(vii) This Section 6(d) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Option Shares contained in the "Stockholders' Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 6(d) shall be ineffective as to each Option Share on and following an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system.

(e) Compliance with Legal Requirements. The granting and exercising of the Option, and any other obligations of the Company under this Agreement shall be subject to all applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and to such approvals by any regulatory or governmental agency as may be required. Parent, in its sole discretion, may postpone the issuance or delivery of Option Shares as Parent may consider appropriate and may require the Executive to make such representations and furnish such information as it may consider appropriate in connection with the issuance or delivery of Option Shares in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

(f) Transferability.

(i) The Option shall not be transferable by the Executive other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and any such purported transfer shall be void and unenforceable against Parent; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute a transfer or encumbrance.

(ii) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Option Shares, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement; provided, that, Option Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Option Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 6(f)(ii) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Option Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

(g) Rights as Stockholder.

(i) The Executive shall not be deemed for any purpose to be the owner of any shares of Common Stock subject to this Option unless, until and to the extent that (A) this Option shall have been exercised pursuant to its terms, (B) the Executive shall have executed the Stockholders' Agreement, (C) Parent shall have issued and delivered to the Executive the Option Shares, and (D) the Executive's name shall have been entered as a stockholder of record with respect to such Option Shares on the books of Parent. The Executive acknowledges that the Option and the Option Shares shall be subject to the Stockholders' Agreement and, in the event of a conflict between any term or provision contained herein and any terms or provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement, the applicable terms and provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement will govern and prevail except with respect to Sections 6(d) and 9(c) hereof.

(ii) At or promptly following an IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Option Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-1 filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Option Shares.

(h) Tax Withholding. Prior to the delivery of a certificate or certificates representing the Option Shares, the Executive must pay in the form of a certified check to Parent or the Company (as designated by Parent) any such additional amount as Parent (or the Company) determines that it is required to withhold under applicable federal, state or local tax laws in respect of the exercise or the transfer of Option Shares; provided that the Board or an authorized committee thereof may, in its sole discretion, allow such withholding obligation to be satisfied by withholding Option Shares otherwise deliverable upon exercise of the Option or by any other method.

7. Restrictive Legend. Unless otherwise determined by Parent, all certificates representing Stock shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws:

THE SHARES OF STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND AN OPTION TO PURCHASE SET FORTH IN A CERTAIN STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT BETWEEN WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) AND A STOCKHOLDERS AGREEMENT TO WHICH WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) ARE PARTIES, WHICH AGREEMENTS ARE BINDING UPON ANY AND ALL OWNERS OF ANY INTEREST IN SAID SHARES. SAID AGREEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF WMG PARENT CORP. AND COPIES THEREOF WILL BE FURNISHED WITHOUT CHARGE TO ANY OWNER OF SAID SHARES UPON REQUEST.

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THESE SECURITIES HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO DISTRIBUTION OR

RESALE, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, MORTGAGED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SUCH SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, UNLESS WMG PARENT CORP. HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Securities Laws. As a condition to the exercise of the Option, unless otherwise determined by Parent, the Executive will be required to represent, warrant and covenant as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Option Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Option Shares in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of Parent such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in the Parent.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring the Option Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Option Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such Option Shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Option Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and constitute "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Option Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; and (iii) there is now no registration statement on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Option Shares and there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon the exercise of any Option, and as a condition thereof, Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, warranties and agreements as Parent may reasonably request in order to comply with applicable securities laws or with this Agreement.

9. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.; Change in Control.

(a) The Option shall be subject to adjustment or substitution as to the number, price, kind or class of a share of stock subject thereto, the exercise price thereof and otherwise, in each case as determined by the Board to be equitable and necessary to preserve the rights of the Executive hereunder, (i) in the event of changes in the Common Stock or in the capital structure of Parent by reason of stock or extraordinary cash dividends, stock splits, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, combinations, exchanges, or other relevant changes in capitalization occurring after the Effective Date or (ii) in the event of any change in applicable laws or any change in circumstances which results in or would result in any substantial dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, the Executive hereunder, or which otherwise warrants equitable adjustment because it interferes with the intended operation of this Agreement; provided that any such adjustment shall be made by the Board with the intent of preserving the value of the Option. The Board shall give the Executive notice of any and all adjustments hereunder and, upon notice, such adjustment shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error.

(b) If Parent's Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent's successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Option Shares.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event of a Change in Control, the Board may in its discretion and upon at least 10 days' advance notice to the Executive, cancel any portion or all of the Option and pay to the Executive, in cash or stock, or any combination thereof, the value of the cancelled portion of the Option based upon the excess, if any, of the price per share of Common Stock received or to be received by other shareholders of the Company in the event over the per-share exercise price of the Option.

10. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. This provision does not prohibit the Executive from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Executive's attorneys or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal or tax advice or as otherwise required by law, regulation or stock exchange rule.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT
by and between
WARNER MUSIC GROUP INC.
and
Michael D. Fleisher

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement'') is entered into as of this 21st day of December, 2004 by and between Warner Music Group Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Michael D. Fleisher (the "Executive").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to engage the Executive to serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company on the terms and conditions contained herein and the Executive wishes to accept such engagement on the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, including the mutual covenants herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. This Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder (hereinafter referred to as the "Employment Period") shall be effective on the January 1, 2005 (the "Effective Date") and, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date.

2. Position, Duties and Representations.

(a) During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be employed as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and shall report solely to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO"). Subject to the ultimate authority of the CEO, the Executive shall have direct management responsibility for, and authority for the operations of, the treasury, tax, accounting, investor relations, financial analysis, information technology and real estate departments of the Company. The Executive's services to the Company shall be performed primarily at the offices of the Company located in New York City, subject to travel requirements necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Excluding periods of vacation, sick leave and disability to which the Executive is entitled during the Employment Period, the Executive agrees, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities. During the Employment Period, the Executive may (i) serve on corporate boards or committees with the consent of the CEO, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) serve on civic, educational, philanthropic or charitable boards or committees, (iii) passively own not more than three percent (3%) of the outstanding capital stock or any corporation whose stock is publicly traded and (iv) manage personal investments.

(c) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that, other than prohibitions generally imposed by law, there is no "Contract" (as defined in Section 6(d)) or other restriction or agreement in effect that would prohibit or otherwise limit the Executive's ability to enter into or negotiate this Agreement, become an employee or officer of the Company or to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary at an annual rate equal to $800,000 ("Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's usual payroll practices.

(b) Annual Bonus. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in respect of each calendar year ending during the Employment Period, with a target of $800,000. The amount of each Annual Bonus shall be established by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof in consultation with the CEO and shall be based on individual and Company performance. The Annual Bonus may be higher or lower than the target using criteria consistent with that applicable to the annual bonuses of other senior executives of the Company other than the CEO and the Chairman of United States recorded music operation of the Warner Recorded Music Business. Notwithstanding the above, the Annual Bonus in respect of the first 2005 calendar year shall be no less than $800,000. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Employment Period ends due to the expiration of the Agreement on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date, the Executive shall nevertheless be eligible to receive an Annual Bonus in respect of the last calendar year of the Employment Term, and the amount of such Annual Bonus shall be determined using criteria consistent with those generally used in respect of prior calendar years.

(c) Equity. On the Effective Date, the Executive shall purchase from WMG Parent Corp. shares of Parent's Class A Common Stock (the "Restricted Stock Award") pursuant to the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

(d) Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans and arrangements of the Company and its affiliates on terms and conditions no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally provided to other senior executive officers of the Company.

(e) Business Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive prompt reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in the performance of his duties hereunder, subject to the submission of such written documentation as the Company may reasonably require in accordance with its standard expense reimbursement practices and policies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will reimburse the Executive for first class travel and first class hotel accommodations in connection with travel undertaken in the performance of his duties hereunder.

(f) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to no less paid vacation for each year commencing with the Effective Date as is made available generally to senior executives of the Company; provided that such paid vacation shall be no less than four weeks per year; and provided further that unused vacation pay in any year may not be carried forward.

4. Termination. The Employment Period and the Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate under the following circumstances:

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment and the Employment Period shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period after having established the Executive's Disability, by giving to the Executive a "Notice of Termination" (as defined in Section 4(d)). For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" means personal injury, illness or other cause which has rendered the Executive unable to substantially perform his material duties and responsibilities hereunder for a period of 120 consecutive days, or 120 out of 180 consecutive days, as determined jointly by a physician selected by the Company reasonably acceptable to the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and a physician selected by the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and reasonably acceptable to the Company. If such physicians cannot agree as to whether the Executive has suffered a Disability, they shall jointly select a third physician who shall make such determination.

(b) With or Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period with or without "Cause" (as defined below) by giving to the Executive a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means (i) the willful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially his material duties with the Company (other than any such failure resulting from the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after a written demand for performance is delivered to the Executive by the Board which identifies the manner in which the Board believes that the Executive has not performed the Executive's duties and the Executive, after a period established by the Board and communicated in writing to the Executive (which period may be no less than 20 days), has failed to cure such failure to the reasonable satisfaction of the Board, (ii) the willful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company or its affiliates, (iii) the Executive's conviction of, or pleading guilty to, a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or dishonesty or (iv) a determination by the Board that any of the Executive's representations made in Section 2(c) of this Agreement were untrue when made (provided that the Company informs the Executive within ninety (90) days of the majority of the members of the Board having actual knowledge of such breach). A termination of the Executive by the Company for Cause shall not be effective unless and until the Company has delivered to the Executive, along with the Notice of Termination, a copy of a resolution duly adopted by a majority of the Board (excluding the Executive, if he is a member of the Board) stating that the Board has determined to terminate the Executive for Cause; provided, however, that no such resolution shall be permitted to be adopted without the Company having afforded the Executive the opportunity to make a presentation to the Board and to answer any questions its members may ask him.

(c) With or Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment and the Employment Period with "Good Reason" (as defined below) or, on and after the first anniversary of the Effective Date, without Good Reason, in each case by giving to the Company a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" means, without the Executive's express written consent:

(i) (x) a change in the duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities) of the Executive that is inconsistent in any material and adverse respect with the Executive's position(s), duties, responsibilities or status with the Company and its affiliates on the Effective Date, or (y) an adverse change in the Executive's title or offices;

(ii) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement, including but not limited to any reduction in the target or maximum attainable Annual Bonus;

(iii) the Company requiring the Executive to be based at any office or location other than at an office commensurate with the Executive's position at the headquarters of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, New York;

(iv) any purported termination by the Company of the Executive's employment otherwise than as permitted by this Agreement, it being understood that any such purported termination shall not be effective for any purpose of this Agreement; or

(v) a failure by the Company to cause any successor to expressly assume this Agreement pursuant to Section 8(c) hereof.

Without limiting the generality of any of the foregoing, Good Reason shall include (i) any change in reporting line such that the Executive no longer reports to the CEO, (ii) the appointment of any person other than the Executive or Lyor Cohen as the Company's President, Chief Operating Officer or the equivalent or (iii) the appointment of a Co-Chief Financial Officer.

A termination by the Executive with Good Reason shall be effective only if the Executive delivers to the Company a Notice of Termination for Good Reason within 60 days after learning of the circumstances constituting Good Reason; provided, however, that if such Notice of Termination describes, as Good Reason, only one or more of the circumstances described in clause (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Section 4(c) and, within 30 days following the delivery of such

Notice of Termination, the Company has cured such circumstances to the reasonable satisfaction of the Executive, then such Notice of Termination shall be ineffective and no Good Reason shall be deemed to exist.

(d) Notice of Termination. Any termination by the Company with or without Cause or on account of Disability, or by the Executive with or without Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other party given in accordance with Section 9(e). For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision of this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the termination date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the proposed termination date; provided, however, that the information in clause (ii) shall not be required in the event of any termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

5. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination.

(a) Death or Disability. lf the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of the Executive's death or on account of Disability, the Company shall:

(i) pay to the Executive or the Executive's estate, as applicable, a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid: (A) the Executive's Base Salary through the end of the month in which such termination occurred, (B) any earned and accrued but unpaid Annual Bonus for any Fiscal Year ending prior to such termination, (C) any accrued vacation pay, (D) any unpaid reimbursable business expenses due to the Executive in accordance with Section 3(e) (the amounts described in the preceding clauses (A) – (D), the "Accrued Amounts"), (E) the Executive's Base Salary for an additional twelve month period and (F) a pro-rated target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) such target Annual Bonus by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365; and

(ii) provide those death or disability benefits to which the Executive is entitled at the date of the Executive's death or Disability under any benefit plans, policies or arrangements of the Company.

(b) Cause or Without Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company with Cause, or (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, the Company shall pay to the Executive a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts.

(c) Without Cause or With Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company without Cause or (ii) by the Executive with Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits:

(i) to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts;

(ii) an amount equal to the sum of: (i) the Executive's Base Salary and (ii) the target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of such termination, payable in substantially equal monthly installments on the first day of each of the first 12 calendar months following termination (subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Section 6 during such payment period);

(iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) the actual Annual Bonus which the Executive would have earned in respect of such Fiscal Year had he remained employed for the entire such Fiscal Year by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365, payable at the time bonuses are generally payable to the Company's senior executives in respect of such Fiscal Year; and

(iv) The Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, shall continue to participate in the Company's group health and life insurance plans (or be provided comparable medical and life insurance coverage), at Company expense, until the earlier of the first anniversary of such termination or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health or life insurance plan, as applicable, of another employer.

(d) In General. The Executive shall have no rights upon his termination of employment with the Company, other than those set forth in each of Section 5(a), (b) or (c), as applicable, to any compensation or any other benefits from the Company under this Agreement, provided that amounts which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, program or arrangement of the Company or any of its affiliates available to employees generally (other than any severance plan or program), shall be payable in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement.

6. Restrictive Covenants. Without in any way limiting or waiving any right or remedy accorded to the Company or any limitation placed upon the Executive by law, the Executive hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Solicitation. The Executive agrees that during the Employment Period and for six months after the expiration or termination thereof (the "Non-Solicitation Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly:

(i) hire or make an offer of employment to, or supervise, any employee at the level of Vice President or above (each, a "Restricted Executive") of the Company or other direct or indirect subsidiary or controlled affiliate of the Company (the Company and all such other subsidiaries or controlled affiliates being referred to hereinafter as the "Restricted Operations") on the Executive's own behalf, or on behalf or any person, firm or entity (other than a Restricted Operation);

(ii) attempt to persuade any Restricted Executive to (1) terminate his employment with a Restricted Operation, (2) refrain from extending his employment with a Restricted Operation, (3) refrain from entering into a new employment arrangement with a Restricted Operation or (4) enter into any employment arrangement with any competitor of a Restricted Operation;

(iii) hire, or make an offer of employment to, or enter into, or solicit or offer to enter into, any "Contract" (as hereinafter defined) with, any "Artist" (as hereinafter defined) on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any person, firm or entity, if the activities which are the subject of such hiring, employment or Contract are in any way competitive with a Restricted Operation; or

(iv) attempt to persuade any Artist to (1) terminate his or her relationship or Contract with a Restricted Operation, (2) refrain from extending his or her relationship or Contract with a Restricted Operation, (3) refrain from entering into a new Contract with a Restricted Operation or (4) enter into any relationship or Contract with any competitor of a Restricted Operation.

(b) Confidentiality. The Executive shall not at any time disclose or reveal to any person, firm or entity, or make use of (otherwise than for the benefit of the Company or its affiliates), any trade secrets or information of a secret or confidential nature, including without limitation, matters of a business nature, such as information about costs, profits, markets, leases, details of recording agreements, distribution agreements, customer Contracts, manufacturing processes, financial information, technical and production know-how, developments, inventions, processes or administrative procedures, concerning the business or affairs of a Restricted Operation, which the Executive may have acquired in the course of or incident to the Executive's employment with the Company, and the Executive confirms that all such information

("Confidential Information") is the exclusive property of the Company and/or such Restricted Operation. This paragraph shall not apply to disclosures by the Executive (i) in the proper performance of his obligations under this Agreement during the Employment Period or to officers, employees, lawyers and accountants of a Restricted Operation, (ii) to the Executive's legal counsel in connection with seeking legal advice related hereto, (iii) to the Executive's accountants in connection with seeking financial or tax advice related hereto, or (iv) as required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or regulatory agency or other governmental authority. Nothing herein shall prevent the Executive, subsequent to the termination or expiration of his employment hereunder, from using or availing himself of general technical skills, knowledge and experience, including that pertaining to or derived from the non-confidential aspects of a Restricted Operation. The term "Confidential Information" shall not include information generally available and known to the public other than as a result of a breach of this Section 6(b) by the Executive. The Executive agrees to hold as Company property all Confidential Information and all books, papers and other data, and all copies thereof and therefrom, in any way relating to the businesses of a Restricted Operation, whether made or received by the Executive, and, on termination of employment, or upon demand by the Company, to deliver the same to the Company.

(c) Intellectual Property. Any copyrights, "Musical Compositions" (as hereinafter defined), trademarks, patents, patent applications, inventions, developments and processes which the Executive during the Employment Period may develop which may reasonably be expected to be usable by a Restricted Operation in the ordinary course of its business shall belong to Company and/or the relevant Restricted Operation. Furthermore, the Executive agrees to execute any copyright assignment or other instruments as any Restricted Operation may deem reasonably necessary (at such Restricted Operation's expense) to evidence, establish, maintain, protect, enforce, and/or defend any and all of such Restricted Operation's interests under this Section 6(c). All such interests shall vest in the relevant Restricted Operation whether or not such instrument is requested, executed or delivered. If the Executive shall not so execute and deliver any such instrument after reasonable notice and opportunity to do so, the Company shall have the right to do so in the Executive's name and the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed the Executive's attorney-in-fact for such purposes, which power is coupled with an interest.

(d) Definitions. For the purposes of Section 6 of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Artists" means (A) any singer or musician, or other person furnishing the services or works of an artist to a Restricted Operation pursuant to a Contract with a Restricted Operation pursuant to which such singer, musician or other person is required to provide exclusive services for the making or delivering of master "Recordings" (as hereinafter defined) to such Restricted Operation or (B) any writer, producer or other talent who has entered into a Contract with a Restricted Operation or who has otherwise provided services to a Restricted Operation excepting, in the case of both clauses (A) and (B) above, any such person who is required to provide services to any person or party other than a Restricted Operation on an exclusive basis pursuant to a Contract that was not entered into in connection with any violation by the Executive of this Agreement.

(ii) "Contract" means any contract, other agreement, commitment, binding arrangement, binding understanding or binding relationship (whether written or oral and whether express or implied).

(iii) "Musical Compositions" means a musical composition or medley consisting of words and/or music, or any dramatic material and bridging passages whether in form of instrumental and/or vocal music, prose or otherwise, irrespective of length.

(iv) "Recordings" means any recording of sound, whether or not coupled with a visual image, by any method or format and on any substance or material, whether now or hereafter known, which is used or useful in the recording, production and/or manufacture of Records or for any other exploitation of sound, excluding television and movies (other than music videos or the promotion thereof), consumer electronics and electronic games.

(v) "Records" means gramophone discs, magnetic tapes, compact discs, other storage media and any other device or appliance used for emitting sounds (whether or not accompanied by visual images) incorporating the Recordings.

(e) Severability; Blue-Pencilling. Each section, subsection or part thereof under this Section 6 constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction. If any of such covenants or such other provisions of this Agreement are found to be invalid or unenforceable by a final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(f) Necessity; Enforcement. The parties hereto have considered carefully the necessity for protection of each Restricted Operation against the Executive's disclosures of Confidential Information and other actions referred to in this Section 6, and the nature and scope of such protection. The parties agree and acknowledge that the duration and scope applicable to the covenants set forth in this Section 6 are fair, reasonable and necessary, and that the Executive has received adequate consideration for such obligations. Accordingly, the Executive agrees that, in addition to any other relief to which the Company may be entitled, the Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief (without the requirement of posting any bond or other security) from a court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of restraining the Executive from any actual or threatened breach of the covenants contained in this Section 6.

7. Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold the Executive harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, liabilities, losses, judgments, fines, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the reimbursement of reasonable attorneys' fees, settlement expenses, punitive damages and the advancement of legal fees and expenses, as such fees and expenses are incurred by the Executive) arising from or relating to (a) claims relating to the Company or any or direct or indirect parents or subsidiaries or (b) the Executive's service with or status as an officer, director, employee, agent or representative of the Company or any of its direct or indirect parents or subsidiaries or in any other capacity in which the Executive serves or have served at the request of the Board or the CEO for the benefit of any such entity. Without limiting the foregoing, in connection with any such claim, demand, action, cause of action, liability, loss, judgment or fine, the Executive shall have the right (i) to be represented by separate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Company, at the Company's sole cost and expense, and (ii) to have the Company pay the cost and expense of any bond that the Executive may be required to post in order to appeal an adverse decision. The Company's obligations under this Section 7 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other rights the Executive may have against the Company to indemnification or advancement of expenses, whether by statute, contract or otherwise (including, without limitation, the Executive's entitlement to indemnification and the payment or reimbursement of expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) to the extent provided in and/or permitted by the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company. The Company shall maintain directors and officers liability insurance in commercially reasonably amounts (as reasonably determined by the Board), and the Executive shall be covered under such insurance to the same extent as any other senior executive of the Company. The Executive hereby undertakes to repay any advances paid to him pursuant to this Section 7 if a final judgment adverse to the Executive establishes that he is not entitled to be indemnified under this Agreement or otherwise. The Company hereby acknowledges that the undertaking set forth in the previous sentence satisfies all requirements for any similar undertakings in the by-laws or other corporate documents of the Company. The Company shall not take any action that would impair the Executive's right to indemnification, other than in connection with a claim by the Company that the Executive is not entitled to indemnification in accordance with the standards set forth in this Section 7.

8. Successors.

(a) This Agreement is personal to the Executive and without the prior written consent of the Company shall not be assignable by the Executive otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's legal representatives.

(b) This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and its successors and, other than as set forth in Section 8(c), shall not be assignable by the Company without the prior written consent of the Executive (which shall not be unreasonable withheld).

(c) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to expressly assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place. As used in this Agreement, "Company" shall mean the Company as hereinbefore defined and any successor to its business and/or assets as aforesaid which assumes and agrees to perform this Agreement by operation of law, or otherwise.

9. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and performed entirely therein. The parties hereto agree that exclusive jurisdiction of any dispute regarding this Agreement shall be the state or federal courts located in New York, New York.

(b) In the event of any termination of the Executive's employment hereunder, the Executive shall be under no obligation to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the obligations of the Company under this Agreement, and there shall be no offset against amounts due the Executive under this Agreement on account of future earnings by the Executive. Any amounts due to the Executive under this Agreement upon termination of employment are considered to be reasonable by the Company and are not in the nature of a penalty.

(c) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

and shall be deemed to have been duly given when so delivered personally or, if mailed or sent by overnight courier, upon delivery; provided, that, a refusal by a party to accept delivery shall be deemed to constitute receipt.

(f) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(g) The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such Federal, state or local taxes as shall be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

(h) This Agreement is the joint product of the Company and the Executive and each provision hereof has been subject to the mutual consultation, negotiation and agreement of the Company and the Executive and shall not be construed for or against either party hereto.

(i) Subject to any other documents which may be entered into by the Executive and the Company on or after the Effective Date (including without limitation the Restricted Stock Award Agreement), this Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contained herein and, upon this Agreement becoming effective, supersedes all prior communications, representations and negotiations in respect thereto, whether or not in writing.

Notwithstanding the above, because the Company and the Executive acknowledge that the purchase price for the Restricted Shares is equal to the Initial Value, so long as the Executive makes a timely and valid Code Section 83(b) election in respect of the Restricted Shares the Company and the Executive agree that no tax is due, and no withholding is necessary, upon or on account of the Executive's purchase of the Restricted Shares.

4. Certificates. Certificates evidencing the Restricted Shares shall be issued by Parent and shall be registered in the Executive's name on the stock transfer books of Parent promptly after the date hereof, but shall remain in the physical custody of Parent or its designee at all times prior to, in

5. Effect of Termination of Employment.

(a) Upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, the Restricted Shares shall be subject to the Call Option described in Section 5(b) below. For purposes of this Agreement, such a termination may be (i) by the Company for Cause or on account of the Executive's Disability, by the Executive without Good Reason or on account of the Executive's death (a "5(a)(i) Termination") or (ii) by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason (a "5(a)(ii) Termination").

(b) Call Option.

(i) Other than as set forth in the second sentence of Section 5(b)(ix), upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of the Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive, on and after the Initial Call Date any or all of the Restricted Shares, The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Restricted Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be as follows:

(2) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination, as to each Called Share of Service-Based Restricted Stock and Performance- Based Restricted Stock which is a Vested Restricted Share immediately prior to the Initial Call Date of such share, or which becomes a Vested Restricted Share upon termination of employment solely because such termination is a CIC Termination, the Fair Market Value of such share on the date of the applicable Call Notice

(3) In the event of a 5(a)(ii) Termination, as to each Called Share of Service-Based Restricted Stock and Performance-Based Restricted Stock which is an Unvested Restricted Share immediately prior to the Initial Call Date of such share (other than such a share which becomes a Vested Restricted Share upon termination of employment solely because such termination is a CIC Termination), the lower of the Fair Market Value of such share on the date of the applicable Call Notice or the Initial Value of such share.

(ii) The "Initial Call Date" shall mean (A) with respect to each share of Performance-Based Restricted Stock as to which the Service Condition, but not the Performance Condition, has been attained at the time of a 5(a)(ii) Termination, the earlier of (I) the date the Performance Condition is first attained with respect to such share and (II) the six-month anniversary of the 5(a)(ii) Termination, or (B) in all other cases, the date of termination of the Executive's employment with the Company.

(iii) For purposes of Section 5(b)(i), (A) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the failure of the Company to offer the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a 5(a)(ii) Termination and (B) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the Company's offering the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a 5(a)(i) Termination.

(iv) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in Accordance with Section 16 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice") at any time following the Initial Call Date. The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(v) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall tender to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable. Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefore, in cash.

(vi) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(vii) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the lime of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call Price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(viii) Any Restricted Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(ix) This Section 5(b) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Restricted Shares contained in the "Stockholders' Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 5(b) shall be ineffective as to each Vested Restricted Share on and following the later of (I) an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system and (II) the date on which such share becomes a Vested Restricted Share.

6. Rights as a Stockholder: Dividends.

(a) The Executive shall be the record owner of the Restricted Shares unless and until such shares are sold or otherwise disposed of, and as record owner shall be entitled to all rights of a common stockholder of Parent, including, without limitation, voting rights, if any, with respect to the Restricted Shares; provided that (i) any cash or in-kind dividends paid with respect to Restricted Shares which are not Vested Restricted Shares shall be withheld by Parent and shall be paid to the Executive, without interest, only when, and if, such Restricted Shares shall become Vested Restricted Shares (provided, however, that in the event of a rights offering in which the Restricted Shares are entitled to participate, the Executive shall be entitled to subscribe for and purchase any securities made available in such rights offering with respect to all Restricted Shares, whether or not such Restricted Shares are Vested Restricted Shares), and (ii) the Restricted Shares shall be subject to the limitations on transfer and encumbrance set forth in this Agreement and the stockholders' agreement executed and entered into by and between Parent, the Investors and the other parties thereto prior to the Effective Date (such stockholders' agreement, as it may be amended, superseded or replaced from time to time, the "Stockholders' Agreement"). A copy of the Stockholders' Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof, is annexed hereto as Exhibit A. As soon as practicable following the vesting of any Restricted Shares, certificates for such Vested Restricted Shares shall be delivered to the Executive or to the Executive's legal representative along with the stock powers relating thereto.

(b) At or promptly following an IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Restricted Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-l filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Restricted Shares.

7. Restrictive Legend. All certificates representing Restricted Shares shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws, unless and to the extent determined inapplicable or unnecessary by Parent:

THE SHARES OF STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND AN OPTION TO PURCHASE SET FORTH IN A CERTAIN RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT BETWEEN WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) AND A STOCKHOLDERS' AGREEMENT TO WHICH WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) ARE PARTIES, WHICH AGREEMENTS ARE BINDING UPON ANY AND ALL OWNERS OF ANY INTEREST IN SAID SHARES. SAID AGREEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF WMG PARENT CORP. AND COPIES THEREOF WILL BE FURNISHED WITHOUT CHARGE TO ANY OWNER OF SAID SHARES UPON REQUEST.

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THESE SECURITIES HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO DISTRIBUTION OR RESALE, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, MORTGAGED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SUCH SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, UNLESS WMG PARENT CORP. HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Transferability.

(a) The Restricted Shares may not, at any time prior to becoming Vested Restricted Shares, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Executive and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Parent; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute an assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance; and provided further that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to a sale of Restricted Shares in compliance with the obligations, if any, of the holder thereof to sell such shares pursuant to the "drag along" provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement.

(b) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Restricted Shares upon or subsequent to their vesting, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement; provided, that, subject to the provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement, Vested Restricted Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Vested Restricted Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 8(b) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof and of the Stockholders' Agreement, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Vested Restricted Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

9. Securities Laws. The Executive represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Restricted Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Restricted Shares in violation of the Securities Act or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of Parent such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in the Parent.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring of the Restricted Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Restricted Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Restricted Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Restricted Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; (iii) in any event, the exemption from registration under Rule 144 will not be available for at least one (1) year and even then will not be available unless a public market then exists for such shares, adequate information concerning Parent is then available to the public, and other terms and conditions of Rule 144 are complied with and (iv) there is now no registration statement on file with the SEC with respect to the Restricted Shares and, except as set forth in Section 6(b) hereof or in the Stockholders' Agreement, there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon any Restricted Shares becoming Vested Restricted Shares, the Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, the warranties and agreements as the Board may reasonably determine are legally required in order to comply with applicable securities laws.

10. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.

(a) If from time to time during the term of this Agreement there is any stock split-up, stock dividend, stock distribution or other reclassification of Parent's Class A Common Stock, any and all new, substituted or additional securities to which the Executive is entitled by reason of his ownership of the Restricted Shares shall be immediately subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(b) If the Parent's Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent's successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Restricted Shares.

11. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. This provision does not prohibit the Executive from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Executive's attorneys or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal or tax advice or as otherwise required by law, regulation or stock exchange rule.

12. Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, and each other provision of the Agreement shall be severable and enforceable to the extent permitted by law.

13. Waiver. Any right of Parent contained in the Agreement may be waived in writing by the Board. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach.

14. No Rights to Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Executive any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant or director of the Company or its affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of the Company or its affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to remove, terminate or discharge the Executive at any time for any reason whatsoever.

8. Transferability.

(a) The Restricted Shares may not, at any lime prior to becoming Vested Restricted Shares, be assigned, alienated, pledged, attached, sold or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the Executive and any such purported assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance shall be void and unenforceable against the Parent; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute an assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment, sale, transfer or encumbrance; and provided further that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to a sale of Restricted Shares in compliance with the obligations, if any, of the holder thereof to sell such shares pursuant to the "drag along" provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement.

(b) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Restricted Shares upon or subsequent to their vesting, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement and the Stockholders' Agreement; provided, that, subject to the provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement, Vested Restricted Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Vested Restricted Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 8(b) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof and of the Stockholders' Agreement, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Vested Restricted Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Restricted Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Restricted Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Restricted Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they arc subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; (iii) in any event, the exemption from registration under Rule 144 will not be available for at least one (1) year and even then will not be available unless a public market then exists for such shares, adequate information concerning Parent is then available to the public, and other terms and conditions of Rule 144 are complied with and (iv) there is now no registration statement on file with the SEC with respect to the Restricted Shares and, except as set forth in Section 6(b) hereof or in the Stockholders' Agreement, there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon any Restricted Shares becoming Vested Restricted Shares, the Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, the warranties and agreements as the Board may reasonably determine are legally required in order to comply with applicable securities laws.

10. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.

13. Waiver. Any right of Parent contained in the Agreement may be waived in writing by the Board. No waiver of any right hereunder by any party shall operate as a waiver of any other right, or as a waiver of the same right with respect to any subsequent occasion for its exercise, or as a waiver of any right to damages. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to constitute a waiver of any other breach or a waiver of the continuation of the same breach.

14. No Rights to Employment. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Executive any right to be retained, in any position, as an employee, consultant or director of the Company or its affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the right of the Company or its affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to remove, terminate or discharge the Executive at any time for any reason whatsoever.

Notwithstanding the above, the Fair Market Value of any freely tradable security which is of a class listed for trading on an established securities market or established trading system shall be the average of the high and tow trading prices of such class of securities, as reported on the primary market or trading system on which such securities are listed on the date Fair Market Value is determined.

(8) "Investment" means $1.25 billion.

(9) "Investor Equity" shall mean all equity securities of all members of Parent Group, including common and preferred stock and warrants, options and other instruments convertible or exercisable into, or redeemable for, common or preferred stock, either (A) purchased or otherwise received by the Investors on or prior to March 1, 2004 or (B) received by the Investors following March 1, 2004, without cost to the Investors, in respect of the equity securities described in the preceding clause (A).

(11) "Parent Group" shall mean Parent, the Company and each direct or indirect subsidiary of any of them.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Service Condition applicable to the Performance-Based Option shall be deemed to have been attained upon a CIC Termination.

(c) The term "Vested Option," as used herein, shall mean (i) the portion of the Service-Based Option on and following the time that the vesting condition set forth in Section 5(a) hereof has been actually or deemed satisfied as to such portion, (ii) the portion of the Performance-Based Option on and following the time that both the Service Condition and the Performance Condition have been actually or are deemed to have been satisfied as to such portion and (iii) the portion of the Performance-Based Option not described in the immediately preceding clause (ii) on and following the day prior to the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, so long as the Executive remains employed by the Company on such day. The portion of the Option which has not become the Vested Option is hereinafter referred to as the "Unvested Option."

(d) The Option may be exercised only as to the Vested Option, and only by written notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (or a successor form provided by Parent) delivered in person or by mail in accordance with Section 11(a) hereof and accompanied by payment therefor. Upon payment of the applicable purchase price and the issuance of the Option Shares in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Option Shares shall be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

6. Effect of Termination of Employment on Option.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive's employment may be terminated (i) by the Company for Cause (a "6(a)(i) Termination"), (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, other than a Retirement (a "6(a)(ii) Termination"), (iii) by the Company without Cause (including on account of Disability), by the Executive for Good Reason or on account of the Executive's death (a "6(a)(iii) Termination") or (iv) by the Executive on account of Retirement (a "6(a)(iv) Termination"). For purposes of the preceding sentence, (A) "Retirement" shall mean the Executive's voluntary termination of employment with the Company on or after the age of 62, after no less than 10 years of employment with the Company, (B) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the failure of the Company to offer the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a Section 6(a)(iii) Termination and (C) the termination of the Executive's employment at the end of the term of the Employment Agreement following the Company's offering the Executive continued employment at a base salary not less than that in effect at the end of such term shall be deemed to be a 6(a)(ii) Termination.

(b) The Unvested Option, if any, shall immediately terminate upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company and its affiliates for any reason; provided, however, that the portion of the Unvested Option which is the portion of the Performance-Based Option as to which the Service Condition, but not the Performance Condition, has been attained at the time of a 6(a)(iii) Termination or a 6(a)(iv) Termination (the "Tail Option") shall terminate upon the six-month anniversary of the termination to the extent that the applicable Performance Condition has not been attained as of such six-month anniversary.

(c) The Vested Option shall remain exercisable by the Executive until, as applicable, (i) the date of a 6(a)(i) Termination, (ii) thirty (30) days following the date of a 6(a)(ii) Termination, (iii) one hundred and twenty (120) days following the date of a 6(a)(iii) Termination and (iv) the last day of the Option Period, in the case of a 6(a)(iv) Termination. Notwithstanding the above, the portion of the Tail Option as to which the Performance Condition is attained on or prior to the six-month anniversary of a 6(a)(iii) Termination or 6(a)(iv) Termination shall remain exercisable by the Executive until (A) one hundred and twenty (120) days following the attainment of the applicable Performance Condition, in the case of a 6(a)(iii) Termination, and (B) the last day of the Option Period, in the case of a 6(a)(iv) Termination.

(d) Any Option Shares purchased by the Executive through the exercise of the Option shall be subject to the Call Option described in this Section 6(d).

(i) Other than as set forth in the second sentence of Section 6(d)(vii), upon and following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive any or all of the Option Shares (whether purchased pursuant to the exercise of the Vested Option prior to, on or following such termination of employment). The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Option Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be (i) in the case of a 6(a)(i) Termination, the lower of the purchase price of such Called Shares or the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable "Call Notice" (as defined below) and (ii) in the case of any other termination of employment, the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable Call Notice.

(ii) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in accordance with Section 9 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice"). The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(iii) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall tender to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable. Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefor, in cash.

(iv) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(v) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the time of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call Price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(vi) Any Option Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(vii) This Section 6(d) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Option Shares contained in the "Stockholders' Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 6(d) shall be ineffective as to each Option Share on and following an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system.

(e) Compliance with Legal Requirements. The granting and exercising of the Option, and any other obligations of the Company under this Agreement shall be subject to all applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and to such approvals by any regulatory or governmental agency as may be required. Parent, in its sole discretion, may postpone the issuance or delivery of Option Shares as Parent may consider appropriate and may require the Executive to make such representations and furnish such information as it may consider appropriate in connection with the issuance or delivery of Option Shares in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

(f) Transferability.

(i) The Option shall not be transferable by the Executive other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and any such purported transfer shall be void and unenforceable against Parent; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute a transfer or encumbrance.

(ii) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Option Shares, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement; provided, that, Option Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 (collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit of the Executive and/or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is in compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Option Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 6(f)(ii) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Option Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

(g) Rights as Stockholder.

(i) The Executive shall not be deemed for any purpose to be the owner of any shares of Common Stock subject to this Option unless, until and to the extent that (A) this Option shall have been exercised pursuant to its terms, (B) the Executive shall have executed the Stockholders' Agreement, (C) Parent shall have issued and delivered to the Executive the Option Shares, and (D) the Executive's name shall have been entered as a stockholder of record with respect to such Option Shares on the books of Parent. The Executive acknowledges that the Option and the Option Shares shall be subject to the Stockholders' Agreement and, in the event of a conflict between any term or provision contained herein and any terms or provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement, the applicable terms and provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement will govern and prevail except with respect to Sections 6(d) and 9(c) hereof.

(ii) At or promptly following an IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Option Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-l filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Option Shares.

(h) Tax Withholding. Prior to the delivery of a certificate or certificates representing the Option Shares, the Executive must pay in the form of a certified check to Parent or the Company any such additional amount as Parent (or the Company) determines that it is required to withhold under applicable federal, state or local tax laws in respect of the exercise or the transfer of Option Shares; provided that the Board or an authorized committee thereof may, in its sole discretion, allow such withholding obligation to be satisfied by withholding Option Shares otherwise deliverable upon exercise of the Option or by any other method.

(i) Additional Terms. This Agreement shall be supplemented by the additional terms set out in Exhibit 6(i).

7. Restrictive Legend. Unless otherwise determined by Parent, all certificates representing Stock shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws;

THE SHARES OF STOCK REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AND AN OPTION TO PURCHASE SET FORTH IN A CERTAIN STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT BETWEEN WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) AND A STOCKHOLDERS AGREEMENT TO WHICH WMG PARENT CORP. AND THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THIS CERTIFICATE (OR HIS PREDECESSOR IN INTEREST) ARE PARTIES, WHICH AGREEMENTS

ARE BINDING UPON ANY AND ALL OWNERS OF ANY INTEREST IN SAID SHARES. SAID AGREEMENTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF WMG PARENT CORP. AND COPIES THEREOF WILL BE FURNISHED WITHOUT CHARGE TO ANY OWNER OF SAID SHARES UPON REQUEST.

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THESE SECURITIES HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO DISTRIBUTION OR RESALE, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, MORTGAGED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR SUCH SECURITIES UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AND ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, UNLESS WMG PARENT CORP. HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Securities Laws. As a condition to the exercise of the Option, unless otherwise determined by Parent, the Executive will be required to represent, warrant and covenant as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Option Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Option Shares in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of Parent such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in Parent.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring the Option Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Option Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such Option Shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Option Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and constitute "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Option Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; and (iii) there is now no registration statement on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Option Shares and there is no commitment on the part of Parent to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon the exercise of any Option, and as a condition thereof, Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, warranties and agreements as Parent may reasonably request in order to comply with applicable securities laws or with this Agreement.

9. Adjustments for Stock Splits, Stock Dividends, etc.; Change in Control.

(a) The Option shall be subject to adjustment or substitution as to the number, price, kind or class of a share of stock subject thereto, the exercise price thereof and otherwise, in each case as determined by the Board to be equitable and necessary to preserve the rights of the Executive hereunder, (i) in the event of changes in the Common Stock or in the capital structure of Parent by reason of stock or extraordinary cash dividends, stock splits, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, combinations, exchanges, or other relevant changes in capitalization occurring after the Effective Date or (ii) in the event of any change in applicable laws or any change in circumstances which results in or would result in any substantial dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, the Executive hereunder, or which otherwise warrants equitable adjustment because it interferes with the intended operation of this Agreement; provided that any such adjustment shall be made by the Board with the intent of preserving the value of the Option. The Board shall give the Executive notice of any and all adjustments hereunder and, upon notice, such adjustment shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error.

(b) If Parent's Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent's successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Option Shares.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event of a Change in Control, the Board may in its discretion and upon at least 10 days' advance notice to the Executive, cancel any portion or all of the Option and pay to the Executive, in cash or stock, or any combination thereof, the value of the cancelled portion of the Option based upon the excess, if any, of the price per share of Common Stock received or to be received by other shareholders of the Company in the event over the per-share exercise price of the Option.

10. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. This provision does not prohibit the Executive from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Executive's attorneys or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal or tax advice or as otherwise required by law, regulation or stock exchange rule.

Schedule A

UK Resident Executive

1. Tax Indemnity

Without prejudice to Section 6(h) of the Agreement ("Tax Withholding"), the Executive unconditionally and irrevocably agrees as a condition of his right to exercise the Option:

1.1 unless the directors of the Company determine otherwise in writing, to enter into a tax election under section 431(1) of Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 ("ITEPA") to fully dis-apply the provisions of Chapter 2 of Part 7 of ITEPA in respect of restricted securities in such form as is approved or agreed with the Inland Revenue under the terms of paragraph 431(5) of ITEPA (a sample copy of which is attached to the Agreement as Exhibit C); and

1.2 to place the Company in funds and to indemnify the Company in respect of all liability to income tax which the Company is liable to account for on behalf of the Executive directly to any taxation authority (including, but without limitation, through the UK PAYE system) and all liability to social security which the Company is liable to account for on behalf of the Executive to any taxation authority (including, but without limitation, primary class 1 (employee's) national insurance contributions in the UK) which arises as a consequence of or in connection with the exercise of the Option, provided that (where and to the extent permissible by law) the Board or an authorised committee thereof may, in its sole discretion, allow the obligation set out in the paragraph 1.2 to be satisfied by withholding Option Shares otherwise deliverable upon exercise of the Option or by any other method; and

1.3 to sign, promptly, all documents required by the Company to effect the terms of this provision.

2. Relevance of contract of employment

2.1 The provisions set out in paragraph 3 of this Schedule arc without prejudice to the terms set out in Section 11(c) of the Agreement ("No Rights to Employment").

2.2 The grant of the Option will not form part of the Executive's entitlement to remuneration or benefits pursuant to his Employment Contract or any other contract of employment. The existence of a contract of employment between any person and the Company or any member of the Parent Group does not give such person any right or entitlement to have an option granted to him in respect of any number of shares of Common Stock or any expectation that such an option will or might be granted to him whether subject to any conditions or at all.

2.3 The rights and obligations of the Executive under the terms of his contract of employment with the Company or any member of the Parent Group shall not be affected by the grant of the Option.

2.4 The rights granted to the Executive upon the grant of the Option shall not afford the Executive any rights or additional rights to compensation or damages in consequence of the loss or termination of his office or employment with the Company or any member of the Parent Group for any reason whatsoever.

2.5 The Executive shall not be entitled to any compensation or damages for any loss or potential loss which he may suffer by reason of being or becoming unable to exercise the Option or the Option not vesting in consequence of the loss or termination of his office or employment with the Company or any member of the Parent Group for any reason (including, without limitation, any breach of contract by his employer) or in any other circumstances whatsoever.

2.6 Benefits received under this Agreement are not pensionable in any circumstances.

3. Third party rights

3.1 Subject to paragraphs 3.2 and 3.3 below, the Company (and any other member of the Parent Group of which the Executive is an officer or employee or has a liability to pay income tax or social security in the UK by virtue of the Executive being an officer or employee of any member of the Parent Group) (the "Third Party") may rely upon and enforce the terms of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this schedule against the Executive.

3.2 The third party rights referred to in paragraph 3.1 may only be enforced by the relevant third subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 (the "1999 Act") and all other relevant terms of this Agreement.

3.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement and unless the Company or the Parent (on behalf of any other Third Party which is not the Company) agree otherwise in writing, the Parent and the Executive may not rescind or vary any of the provisions of this schedule so as to extinguish or alter the Third Party's rights under this paragraph 3 without his prior written consent and accordingly section 2(l)(a) to (c) of the 1999 Act shall not apply with respect to the Third Party's rights under paragraph 3.1.

3.4 Except as provided in this paragraph, a person who is not a party to this Agreement has no right under the 1999 Act to rely upon or enforce any term of this schedule but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

4. Governing law and jurisdiction

4.1 Without prejudice to the terms of Section 11(g) of the Agreement, the terms of this schedule shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales (and the terms of the Agreement insofar as they relate to the enforcement of any right or obligation set out in this Schedule).

4.2 To the extent that any party seeks to enforce any right or obligation set out in this Schedule:

4.2.1 each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales over any claim, dispute or matter arising under or in connection the terms of this schedule;

4.2.2 each party irrevocably waives any objection which it may have now or later to proceedings being brought in the courts of England and Wales and any claim that proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum; and

4.2.3 each party further irrevocably agrees that a judgement in any proceedings brought in the courts of England and Wales shall be conclusive and binding upon each party and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

Exhibit B

NOTICE OF OPTION EXERCISE

To exercise your option to purchase shares of WMG Parent Corp. ("Parent") common stock ("Shares"), please fill out this form and return it to the Corporate Secretary of Parent, together with a certified check in the amount of the exercise price due, which is the product of the number of Shares with respect to which you are exercising the Option and the per share exercise price of $1,179.00. whose National Insurance Number is	[Insert NINO]
and
the Company (of which the Executive is an officer or an employee)	[Insert name of Company that employs the Executive] of Company Registration Number	[Insert number]

2. Purpose of Election

This joint election is made pursuant to section 431(1) or 431(2) Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003 (ITEPA) and applies where employment-related securities, which are restricted securities by reason of section 423 ITEPA, are acquired.

The effect of an election under section 431(1) is that, for the relevant Income Tax and NIC purposes, the employment-related securities and their market value will be treated as if they were not restricted securities and that sections 425 to 430 ITEPA do not apply. An election under section 431(2) will ignore one or more of the restrictions in computing the charge on acquisition. Additional Income Tax will be payable (with PAYE and NIC where the securities are Readily Convertible Assets).

Should the value of the securities fall following the acquisition, it is possible that Income Tax/NIC that would have arisen because of any future chargeable event (in the absence of an election) would have been less than the Income Tax/NIC due by reason of this election. Should this be the case, there is no Income Tax/NIC relief available under Part 7 of ITEPA 2003; nor is it available if the securities acquired are subsequently transferred, forfeited or revert to the original owner.

3. Application

This joint election is made not later than 14 days after the date of acquisition of the securities by the employee and applies to:

Number of securities	[Insert number of shares]

5. Declaration

This election will become irrevocable upon the later of its signing or the acquisition of employment-related securities to which this election applies.

In signing this joint election, we agree to be bound by its terms as stated above.

Note: Where the election is in respect of multiple acquisitions, prior to the date of any subsequent acquisition of a security it may be revoked by agreement between the employee and employer in respect of that and any later acquisition.

(b) The Unvested Option, if any, shall immediately terminate upon the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company and its affiliates for any reason; provided, however, that the portion of the Unvested Option which is the portion of the Performance Based Option as to which the Service Condition, but not the Performance Condition, has been attained at the time of a 6(a)(iii) Termination or a 6(a)(iv) Termination (the "Tail Option") shall terminate upon the six-month anniversary of the termination to the extent that the applicable Performance Condition has not been attained as of such six-month anniversary.

(c) The Vested Option shall remain exercisable by the Executive until, as applicable, (i) the date of 6(a)(i) Termination, (ii) thirty (30)days following the date of a 6(a)(ii) Termination, (iii) one hundred and twenty (120) days following the date of a 6(a)(iii) Termination and (iv) the last day of the Option Period, in the case of a 6(a)(iv) Termination. (d) Any Option Shares purchased by the Executive through the exercise of the Option shall be subject to the Call Option described in this Section 6(d).

(i) Other than as set forth in the second sentence of Section 6(d)(vii), upon and following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason (or no reason), Parent shall have the right and option (the "Call Option"), but not the obligation, to purchase, or to cause any member of Parent Group designated by Parent (the "Call Assignee") to purchase, from the Executive any or all of the Option Shares (whether purchased pursuant to the exercise of the Vested Option prior to, on or following such termination of employment). The purchase price (the "Call Price") of the Option Shares subject to purchase under this provision (the "Called Shares") shall be (i) in the case of a 6(a)(i) Termination, the lower of the purchase price of such Called Shares or the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable "Call Notice" (as defined below and (ii) in the case of any other termination of employment, the Fair Market Value of such Called Shares on the date of the applicable Call Notice.

(ii) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, may exercise the Call Option by delivering or mailing to the Executive (or to his estate, if applicable), in accordance with Section 9 of this Agreement, written notice of exercise (a "Call Notice"). The Call Notice shall specify the date thereof, the number of Called Shares and the Call Price.

(iii) Within ten (10) days after his receipt of the Call Notice, the Executive (or his estate) shall render to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, at its principal office the certificate or certificates representing the Called Shares, duly endorsed in blank by the Executive (or his estate) or with duly endorsed stock powers attached thereto, all in form suitable for the transfer of such shares to Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable. Upon its receipt of such shares, Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall pay to the Executive the aggregate Call Price therefor, in cash.

(iv) Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, will be entitled to receive customary representations and warranties from the Executive regarding the sale of the Called Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Call Option as may reasonably requested by Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, including but not limited to the representation that the Executive has good and marketable title to the Called Shares to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims and other encumbrances.

(v) If Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, delivers a Call Notice, then from and after the time of delivery of the Call Notice the Executive shall no longer have any rights as a holder of the Called Shares subject thereto (other than the right to receive payment of the Call price as described above), and such Called Shares shall be deemed purchased in accordance with the applicable provisions hereof and Parent or the Call Assignee, as applicable, shall be deemed to be the owner and holder of such Called Shares.

(vi) Any Option Shares as to which the Call Option is not exercised will remain subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the continuation of Parent's or the Call Assignee's, as applicable, right to exercise the Call Option.

(vii) This Section 6(d) is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any rights and obligations of the Executive and Parent in respect of the Option Shares contained in the "Stockholders' Agreement" (as defined below). Notwithstanding the above, this Section 6(d) shall be ineffective as to each Option Share on and following an IPO or any other event which causes the Class A Common Stock, or other securities for which all or substantially all of the Class A Common Stock may have been exchanged, to be or become listed for trading on or over an established securities market or established trading system.

(e) Compliance with Legal Requirements. The granting and exercising of the Option, and any other obligations of the Company under this Agreement shall be subject to all applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and to such approvals by any regulatory or governmental agency as may be required. Parent, in its sole discretion, may postpone the issuance or delivery of Option Shares as Parent may consider appropriate and may require the Executive to make such representations and furnish such information as it may consider appropriate in connection with the issuance or delivery of Option Shares in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

(f) Transferability.

(i) The Option shall not be transferable by the Executive other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and any such purported transfer shall be void and unenforceable against the Company; provided that the designation of a beneficiary shall not constitute a transfer or encumbrance.

(ii) Prior to an IPO, neither the Executive nor any transferee of the Executive (including any beneficiary, executor or administrator) shall assign, alienate, pledge, attach, sell or otherwise transfer or encumber the Option Shares, except in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement; provided, that, Option Shares may be transferred (i) by will or the laws of descent, or (ii) with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), by the Executive without consideration to (A) any person who is a "family member" of the Executive, as such term is used in the instructions to SEC Form S-8 collectively, the "Immediate Family Members"); (B) a trust solely for the benefit to the Executive and or Immediate Family Members; or (C) any other transferee as may be approved by the Board in its sole discretion (collectively, the "Permitted Transferees"); provided, that, the Executive gives the Board advance written notice describing the terms and conditions of the proposed transfer and the Board notifies the Executive in writing that such a transfer is compliance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that, the restrictions upon any Option Shares transferred in accordance with this Section 6(f)(ii) shall apply to the Permitted Transferee, such transfer shall be subject to the acceptance by the Permitted Transferee of the terms and conditions hereof, and any reference in this Agreement or the Stockholders' Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed to refer to the Permitted Transferee, except that (a) prior to an IPO, Permitted Transferees shall not be entitled to transfer any Option Shares other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, with the Board's approval (which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion), to a trust solely for the benefit of the Permitted Transferee, and (b) the consequences of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall continue to be applied with respect to the Permitted Transferee to the extent specified in this Agreement.

(g) Rights as Stockholder

(i) The Executive shall not be deemed for any purpose to be the owner of any shares of Common Stock to this Option unless, until and to the extent that (A) this Option shall have been exercised pursuant to its terms, (B) the Executive shall have executed the Stockholders' Agreement, (C) the Company shall have issued and delivered to the Executive the Option Shares, and (D) the Executive's name shall have been entered as a stockholder of record with respect to such Option Shares on the books of the Company. The Executive acknowledges that the Option and the Option Shares shall be subject to the Stockholders' Agreement and, in the event of a conflict between any term or provision contained herein and any terms or provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement the applicable terms and provisions of the Stockholders' Agreement will govern and prevail except with respect to Sections 6(d) and 9(c) hereof.

(ii) At or promptly following a IPO or any other transaction which makes Parent eligible to use SEC Form S-8, Parent shall register all of the Option Shares (whether or not vested) on Form S-8 or an equivalent registration statement (including, at Parent's option, on the Form S-1 filed in connection with an IPO), and use reasonable commercial efforts to keep such registration effective so long as the Executive continues to hold any of the Option Shares.

(h) Tax Withholding. Prior to the delivery of a certificate or certificates representing the Option Shares, the Executive must pay in the form of a certified check to Parent any such additional amount as Parent determines that it is required to withhold under applicable federal, state or local tax laws in respect of the exercise or the transfer of Option Shares; provided that the Board or an authorized committee thereof may, in its sole discretion, allow such withholding obligation to be satisfied by withholding Option Shares otherwise deliverable upon exercise of the Option or by any other method.

7. Restrictive Legend. Unless otherwise determined by the Company, all certificates representing Stock shall have affixed thereto a legend in substantially the following form, in addition to any other legends that may be required under federal or state securities laws:

HAS RECEIVED AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, WHICH OPINION IS SATISFACTORY TO IT, TO THE EFFECT THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.

8. Securities Laws. As a condition to the exercise of the Option, unless otherwise determined by the Company, the Executive will be required to represent, warrant and covenant as follows:

(a) The Executive is acquiring the Option Shares for his own account and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, any distribution of the Option Shares in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any rule or regulation under the Securities Act or in violation of any applicable state securities law.

(b) The Executive has had such opportunity as he has deemed adequate to obtain from representatives of the Company such information as is necessary to permit him to evaluate the merits and risks of his investment in the Company.

(c) The Executive has sufficient experience in business, financial and investment matters to be able to evaluate the risks involved in acquiring the Option Shares and to make an informed investment decision with respect to such investment.

(d) The Executive can afford the complete loss of the value of the Option Shares and is able to bear the economic risk of holding such Option Shares for an indefinite period.

(e) The Executive understands that (i) the Option Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act and constitute “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; (ii) the Option Shares cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from registration is then available; and (iii) there is now no registration statement on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Option Shares and there is no commitment on the part of the Company to make any such filing.

(f) In addition, upon, the exercise of any Option, and as a condition thereof, Executive will make or enter into such other written representations, warranties and agreements as Parent may reasonably request in order to comply with applicable securities laws or with this Agreement.

(a) The Option shall be subject to adjustment or substitution as to the number, price, kind or class of a share of stock subject thereto, the exercise price thereof and otherwise, in each case as determined by the Board to be equitable and necessary to preserve the rights of the Executive hereunder, (i) in the event of changes in the Common Stock or in the capital structure of Parent by reason of stock or extraordinary cash dividends, stock splits, reverse stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, combinations, exchanges, or other relevant changes in capitalization occurring after the Effective Date or (ii) in the event of any change in applicable laws or any change in circumstances which results in or would result in any substantial dilution or enlargement of the rights granted to, or available for, the Executive hereunder, or which otherwise warrants equitable adjustment because it interferes with the intended operation of this Agreement; provided that any such adjustment shall be made by the Board with the intent of preserving the value of the Option. The Board shall give the Executive notice of any and all adjustments hereunder and, upon notice, such adjustment shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes absent manifest error.

(b) If Parent’s Class A Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for, or stockholders of Parent receive by reason of any distribution in total or partial liquidation, securities of another corporation, or other property (including cash), pursuant to any merger of Parent or acquisition of its assets, then the rights of Parent under this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Parent’s successor and this Agreement shall apply to the securities or other property received upon such conversion, exchange or distribution in the same manner and to the same extent as the Option Shares.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event of a Change in Control the Board may in its discretion and upon at least 10 days’ advance notice to the Executive, cancel any portion or all of the Option and pay to the Executive, in cash or stock, or any combination thereof, the value of the cancelled portion of the Option based upon the excess, if any, of the price per share of Common Stock received or to be received by other shareholders of the Company in the event over the per share exercise price of the Option.

10. Confidentiality of the Agreement. The Executive agrees to keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. This provision does not prohibit the Executive from providing this information on a confidential and privileged basis to the Executive's attorneys or accountants for purposes of obtaining legal or tax advice or as otherwise required by law, regulation or stock exchange rule.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT
by and between
WMG ACQUISITION CORP.
and
Edgar Bronfman, Jr.

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of this 1st day of March, 2004 by and between WMG Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Edgar Bronfman, Jr. (the "Executive").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company, which is a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of WMG Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Midco"), and an indirect majority owned subsidiary of WMG-Parent Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), has entered into a Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Time Warner Inc. dated as of November 24, 2003, whereby the Company will purchase the "Warner Recorded Music Business" and the "WMG Publishing Business" (as such terms are defined in the Purchase Agreement and as referred to hereafter as the "Business") from Time Warner Inc.; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to engage the Executive to serve as its Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer on the terms and conditions contained herein and the Executive wishes to accept such engagement on the terms and conditions contained herein.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, including the mutual covenants herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. This Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company hereunder (hereinafter referred to as the "Employment Period") shall be effective on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Purchase Agreement; the Closing Date is hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Date," and is the date hereof) and, unless earlier terminated pursuant to Section 4 hereof, shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date; provided that the Employment Period shall be automatically extended by one year upon the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date and upon each subsequent anniversary of the Effective Date unless, no less than ninety (90) days prior to the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date or any such subsequent anniversary either the Company or the Executive gives the other party written notice of non-renewal in accordance with Section 10(f) hereof, in which case the Employment Period shall end on the anniversary of the Effective Date immediately following the receipt of such notice.

2. Position, Duties and Representations.

(a) During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be employed as the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall report solely to the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). The Executive shall be responsible for oversight and management of all operations and activities of the Company, Parent, Midco and the direct or indirect subsidiaries and controlled affiliates of each of them (the "Company Group"), and all employees of any member of the Company Group shall report, directly or indirectly, to the Executive. The Executive's services to the Company shall be performed primarily at the offices of the Company located in New York City, subject to travel requirements necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Excluding periods of vacation, sick leave and disability to which the Executive is entitled during the Employment Period, the Executive agrees, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities. During the Employment Period and the "Non-Competition Period" (as defined in Section 6(a)), the Executive may (i) serve on corporate, civic, educational, philanthropic or charitable boards or committees, (ii) passively own not more than three percent (3%) of the outstanding capital stock of any corporation whose stock is publicly traded, or (iii) manage personal investments. In addition, during the Employment Period, the Executive may engage in any other activity (other than as an employee) which is not competitive with any activity of the Company Group (other than a de minimis activity of the Company Group) at the time the Executive commences engaging in such activity, so long as such activity does not interfere with the performance of the Executive's responsibilities and duties hereunder, and the amount of time the Executive spends on all such activities is insignificant.

(c) The Executive represents and warrants to the Company that, other than prohibitions generally imposed by law, there is no "Contract" (as defined in Section 6(d)) or other restriction or agreement in effect that would prohibit or otherwise limit the Executive's ability to enter into or negotiate this Agreement, become an employee or officer of the Company or to discharge the responsibilities and duties assigned to the Executive hereunder.

3. Compensation.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary at an annual rate equal to $1,000,000 ("Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's usual payroll practices; provided, however, that Base Salary shall be reviewed for discretionary increases by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof no less often than annually commencing no later than the first anniversary of the Effective Date.

(b) Annual Bonus. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in respect of each full or partial fiscal year of the Company (a "Fiscal Year" which, as of the Effective Date, is the period December 1 through November 30) ending during the Employment Period, with a target of 300% of Base Salary, a minimum of $0 and a maximum of 600% of Base Salary (pro rated for partial Fiscal Years of employment), based on the attainment of Company, individual, Company Group or other performance targets established by the Board or the Compensation Committee thereof in consultation with the Executive.

(c) Special Bonus. The Company expects to implement a special bonus plan or arrangement (the "Special Bonus Plan") for senior management based upon costs savings attained in respect of the Company Group and/or members or operations thereof, in amounts and in accordance with criteria established by the Board or Compensation Committee thereof. The Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Special Bonus Plan, if so established, on terms and conditions substantially the same as those applicable to other senior executives of the Company determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee; provided that the Executive acknowledges that the amount awarded to any particular executive may depend, wholly or in part, on the cost savings within the such executive's area of responsibility.

(d) Equity. On the Effective Date, the Executive shall purchase from the Company, and the Company shall sell to the Executive, shares of Parent's Class A Common Stock (the "Restricted Stock Award") representing as of the Effective Date 3.02% of the fully diluted Class A Common Stock of Parent (2.75% of the fully diluted Common Stock of the Parent, including both Class A and Class L Common Stock of Parent), which award shall be governed by the Restricted Stock Award Agreement annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

(e) Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans and arrangements of the Company and its affiliates on terms and conditions no less favorable in the aggregate than those generally provided to other senior executive officers of the Company.

(f) Business Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive prompt reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Executive in the performance of his duties hereunder, subject to the submission of such written documentation as the Company may reasonably require in accordance with its standard expense reimbursement practices and policies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will reimburse the Executive for first class travel and first class hotel accommodations in connection with travel undertaken in the performance of his duties hereunder.

(g) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to no less paid vacation for each year commencing with the Effective Date as is made available generally to senior executives of the Company; provided that such paid vacation shall be no less than four weeks per year; and provided further that unused vacation pay in any year may not be carried forward.

4. Termination. The Employment Period and the Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate under the following circumstances:

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment and the Employment Period shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period after having established the Executive's Disability, by giving to the Executive a "Notice of Termination" (as defined in Section 4(d)). For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" means personal injury, illness or other cause which has rendered the Executive unable to substantially perform his material duties and responsibilities hereunder for a period of 120 consecutive days, or 120 out of 180 consecutive days, as determined jointly by a physician selected by the Company reasonably acceptable to the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and a physician selected by the Executive (or, if he is incapacitated, his legal representative) and reasonably acceptable to the Company. If such physicians cannot agree as to whether the Executive has suffered a Disability, they shall jointly select a third physician who shall make such determination.

(b) With or Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment and the Employment Period with or without "Cause" (as defined below) by giving to the Executive a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means (i) the willful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially his material duties with the Company (other than any such failure resulting from the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after a written demand for performance is delivered to the Executive by the Board which identifies the manner in which the Board believes that the Executive has not performed the Executive's duties and the Executive, after a period established by the Board and communicated in writing to the Executive (which period may be no less than 20 days), has failed to cure such failure to the reasonable satisfaction of the Board, (ii) the willful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company or its affiliates, (iii) the Executive's conviction of, or pleading guilty to, a felony involving moral turpitude or dishonesty or (iv) a determination by the Board that any of the Executive's representations made in Section 2(c) of this Agreement were untrue when made. A termination of the Executive by the Company for Cause shall not be effective unless and until the Company has delivered to the Executive, along with the Notice of Termination, a copy of a resolution duly adopted by a majority of the Board (excluding the Executive, if he is a member of the Board) stating that the Board has determined to terminate the Executive for Cause; provided, however, that no such resolution shall be permitted to be adopted without the Company having afforded the Executive the opportunity to make a presentation to the Board and to answer any questions its members may ask him.

(c) With or Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment and the Employment Period with or without "Good Reason" (as defined below) by giving to the Company a Notice of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" means, without the Executive's express written consent:

(i) (x) a change in the duties or responsibilities (including reporting responsibilities) of the Executive that is inconsistent in any material and adverse respect with the Executive's position(s), duties, responsibilities or status with the Company and its affiliates on the Effective Date, or (y) an adverse change in the Executive's title or offices, including but not limited to the Executive no longer serving as Chief Executive Officer of the Company;

(ii) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement, including but not limited to any reduction in the target or maximum attainable Annual Bonus;

(iii) any willful breach by the Company of any other material obligation of the Company under this Agreement;

(iv) the Company requiring the Executive to be based at any office or location other than at an office commensurate with the Executive's position at the headquarters of the Company in the Borough of Manhattan, New York;

(v) any purported termination by the Company of the Executive's employment otherwise than as permitted by this Agreement, it being understood that any such purported termination shall not be effective for any purpose of this Agreement;

(vi) a failure of Executive to be elected or reelected to the Board, or as Chairman thereof; or

(vii) a failure by the Company to cause any successor to expressly assume this Agreement pursuant to Section 8(c) hereof.

A termination by the Executive with Good Reason shall be effective only if the Executive delivers to the Company a Notice of Termination for Good Reason within 60 days after learning of the circumstances constituting Good Reason. Notwithstanding the above, if (A) such Notice of Termination describes, as Good Reason, only one or more of the circumstances described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi) of this Section 4(c) and (B) within 30 days following the delivery of such Notice of Termination, the Company has cured such circumstances to the reasonable satisfaction of the Executive, then such Notice of Termination shall be ineffective and no Good Reason shall be deemed to exist. The parties agree and acknowledge that, solely for purposes of this Agreement, the cessation of the Executive's employment with the Company at the end of the Employment Period (or such other time as the Company and the Executive may agree) following Executive's provision to the Company of a written notice of non-renewal of the Employment Period, as provided in Section 1 of this Agreement, shall be deemed to be a termination by the Executive without Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. Any termination by the Company with or without Cause or on account of Disability, or by the Executive with or without

Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other party given in accordance with Section 10(f). For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination " means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision of this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the termination date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the proposed termination date; provided, however, that the information in clause (ii) shall not be required in the event of any termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

5. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination.

(a) Death or Disability. If the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of the Executive's death or on account of Disability, the Company shall:

(i) pay to the Executive or the Executive's estate, as applicable, a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid: (A) the Executive's Base Salary through the end of the month in which such termination occurred, (B) any earned and accrued but unpaid Annual Bonus for any Fiscal Year ending prior to such termination, (C) any earned and accrued but unpaid Special Bonus, (D) any accrued vacation pay, (E) any unpaid reimbursable business expenses due to the Executive in accordance with Section 3(h) (the amounts described in the preceding clauses (A) - (E), the "Accrued Amounts"), (F) the Executive's Base Salary for an additional twelve month period and (G) a pro-rated target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) such target Annual Bonus by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365;

(ii) provide those death or disability benefits to which the Executive is entitled at the date of the Executive's death or Disability under any benefit plans, policies or arrangements of the Company; and

(iii) in the case of a termination on account of Disability, provide to the Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, at the Company's expense, continued participation in the Company's group health plan (or comparable medical coverage) until the earlier of the date the Executive attains age 65 or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health plan of another employer.

(b) Cause or Without Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company with Cause, or (ii) by the Executive without Good Reason, the Company shall pay to the Executive a lump sum cash payment within ten (10) days after such termination equal to, to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued Amounts.

(c) Without Cause or With Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated (i) by the Company without Cause or (ii) by the Executive with Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits:Amounts;

(i) to the extent not previously paid, the Accrued

(ii) an amount equal to the sum of: (i) the Executive's Base Salary and (ii) the target Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of such termination, payable in substantially equal monthly installments on the first day of each of the first 12 calendar months following termination (subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Section 6 during such payment period);

(iii) a pro-rated Annual Bonus for the Fiscal Year of termination determined by multiplying (x) the actual Annual Bonus which the Executive would have earned in respect of such Fiscal Year had he remained employed for the entire such Fiscal Year by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in such Fiscal Year that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which is 365, payable at the time bonuses are generally payable to the Company's senior executives in respect of such Fiscal Year; and

(iv) The Executive and the Executive's spouse and dependents, as applicable, shall continue to participate in the Company's group health and life insurance plans (or be provided comparable medical and life insurance coverage), at Company expense, until the earlier of the first anniversary of such termination or the date the Executive becomes eligible for coverage under the group health or life insurance plan, as applicable, of another employer.

(d) In General. The Executive shall have no rights upon his termination of employment with the Company, other than those set forth in each of Section 5(a), (b) or (c), as applicable, to any compensation or any other benefits from the Company under this Agreement, provided that amounts which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, program or arrangement of the Company or any of its affiliates available to employees generally (other than any severance plan or program), shall be payable in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement.

6. Restrictive Covenants. Without in any way limiting or waiving any right or remedy accorded to the Company or any limitation placed upon the Executive by law, the Executive hereby agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Solicitation; Non-Competition. The Executive agrees that during the Employment Period and for 12 months after the expiration or termination thereof (the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly:

(i) hire, make an offer of employment to, attempt to hire or assist in the hiring of, or supervise, any employee at the level of Vice President or above, or any employee whose primary responsibility is A&R or promotion irrespective of level (each, a "Restricted Employee"), of any member of the Company Group on the Executive's own behalf, or on behalf or any person, firm or entity (other than a member of the Company Group);

(ii) attempt to persuade or encourage any Restricted Employee to (1) terminate his employment with any member of the Company Group, (2) refrain from extending his employment with any member of the Company Group, (3) refrain from entering into a new employment arrangement with any member of the Company Group or (4) enter into any employment arrangement with any competitor of any member of the Company Group;

(iii) hire, make an offer of employment to, attempt to hire or assist in the hiring of, or enter into, or solicit or offer to enter into, any "Contract" (as hereinafter defined) with, any vendor or customer of the Company Group, including any "Artist" (as hereinafter defined), on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any person, firm or entity, if the activities which are the subject of such hiring, employment or Contract are in any way competitive with any member of the Company Group; or

(v) whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise, compete with any member of the Company Group or take active steps with others to plan for any business competitive with any member of the Company Group. Specifically, but without limiting the foregoing, the Executive agrees not to engage in any manner in any activity that is directly or indirectly competitive with the business of any member of the Company Group as conducted or under consideration (as represented by a written proposal) at the time of the termination of the Executive's employment.

(b) Confidentiality. The Executive shall not at any time disclose or reveal to any person, firm or entity, or make use of (otherwise than for the benefit of the Company or its affiliates), any trade secrets or information of a secret or confidential nature, including without limitation, matters of a business nature, such as information about costs, profits, markets, leases, details of recording agreements, distribution agreements, customer Contracts, manufacturing processes, financial information, technical and production know-how, developments, inventions, processes or administrative procedures, concerning the business or affairs of any member of the Company Group, which the Executive may have acquired in the course of or incident to the Executive's employment with the Company, and the Executive confirms that all such information ("Confidential Information") is the exclusive property of the Company and/or such member of the Company Group. This paragraph shall not apply to disclosures by the Executive (i) in the proper performance of his obligations under this Agreement during the Employment Period or to officers, employees, lawyers and accountants of any member of the Company Group, (ii) to the Executive's legal counsel in connection with seeking legal advice related hereto, (iii) to the Executive's accountants in connection with seeking financial or tax advice related hereto, or (iv) as required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or regulatory agency or other governmental authority. Nothing herein shall prevent the Executive, subsequent to the termination or expiration of his employment hereunder, from using or availing himself of general technical skills, knowledge and experience, including that pertaining to or derived from the non-confidential aspects of any member of the Company Group. The term "Confidential Information" shall not include information generally available and known to the public other than as a result of a breach of this Section 6(b) by the Executive. The Executive agrees to hold as Company property all Confidential Information and all books, papers and other data, and all copies thereof and therefrom, in any way relating to the businesses of any member of the Company Group, whether made or received by the Executive, and, on termination of employment, or upon demand by the Company, to deliver the same to the Company.

(c) Intellectual Property. Any copyrights, "Musical Compositions" (as hereinafter defined), trademarks, patents, patent applications, inventions, developments and processes which the Executive during the Employment Period may develop which may reasonably be expected to be usable by any member of the Company Group in the ordinary course of its business shall belong to Company and/or the relevant member of the Company Group. Furthermore, the Executive agrees to execute any copyright assignment or other instruments as any member of the Company Group may deem reasonably necessary (at such member's expense) to evidence, establish, maintain, protect, enforce, and/or defend any and all of member of the Company Group's interests under this Section 6(c). All such interests shall vest in the relevant member of the Company Group whether or not such instrument is requested, executed or delivered. If the Executive shall not so execute and deliver any such instrument after reasonable notice and opportunity to do so, the Company shall have the right to do so in the Executive's name and the Company is hereby irrevocably appointed the Executive's attorney-in-fact for such purposes, which power is coupled with an interest.

(d) Definitions. For the purposes of Section 6 of this Agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Artists" means (A) any singer or musician, or other person furnishing the services or works of an artist to any member of the Company Group pursuant to a Contract with any member of the Company Group pursuant to which such singer, musician or other person is required to provide exclusive services for the making or delivering of master "Recordings" (as hereinafter defined) to such Restricted Operation or (B) any writer, producer or other talent who has entered into a Contract with any member of the Company Group or who has otherwise provided services to any member of the Company Group excepting, in the case of both clauses (A) and (B) above, any such person who is required to provide services to any person or party other than any member of the Company Group on an exclusive basis pursuant to a Contract that was not entered into in connection with any violation by the Executive of this Agreement.

(e) Severability; Blue-Pencilling. Each section, subsection or part thereof under this Section 6 constitutes an entirely separate and independent restriction. If any of such covenants or such other provisions of this Agreement are found to be invalid or unenforceable by a final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(f) Necessity; Enforcement. The parties hereto have considered carefully the necessity for protection of each member of the Company Group against the Executive's disclosures of Confidential Information and other actions referred to in this Section 6, and the nature and scope of such protection. The parties agree and acknowledge that the duration and scope applicable to the covenants set forth in this Section 6 are fair, reasonable and necessary, and that the Executive has received adequate consideration for such obligations. Accordingly, the Executive agrees that, in addition to any other relief to which the Company maybe entitled, the Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief (without the requirement of posting any bond or other security) from a court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of restraining the Executive from any actual or threatened breach of the covenants contained in this Section 6.

7. Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold the Executive harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, causes of action, liabilities, losses, judgments, fines, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the reimbursement of reasonable attorneys' fees, settlement expenses, punitive damages and the advancement of legal fees and expenses, as such fees and expenses are incurred by the Executive) arising from or relating to (a) claims relating to any member of the Company Group (other than claims by a member of the Company Group) or (b) the Executive's service with or status as an officer, director, employee, agent or representative of any member of the Company Group or in any other capacity in which the Executive serves or have served at the request of the Board or the CEO for the benefit of any member of the Company Group. Without limiting the foregoing, in connection with any such claim, demand, action, cause of action, liability, loss, judgment or fine, the Executive shall have the right (i) to be represented by separate counsel reasonably acceptable to the Company, at the Company's sole cost and expense, and (ii) to have the Company pay the cost and expense of any bond that the Executive may be required to post in order to appeal an adverse decision. The Company's obligations under this Section 7 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other rights the Executive may have against the Company to indemnification or advancement of expenses, whether by statute, contract or otherwise (including, without limitation, the Executive's entitlement to indemnification and the payment or reimbursement of expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) to the extent provided in and/or permitted by the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company. The Company shall maintain directors and officers liability insurance in commercially reasonably amounts (as reasonably determined by the Board), and the Executive shall be covered under such insurance to the same extent as any other senior executive of the Company. Re: Employment

Dear Mr. Johnson,

Reference is made to the Employment Agreement between you and Warner Music Group Inc. (the "Company") dated December 15, 1998 (the "Agreement"). This letter will confirm that you and the Company have agreed that the Agreement shall be modified, as follows:

Notwithstanding any more restrictive provisions in any applicable stock option plan or stock option agreement, if your employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without cause or if you shall terminate your employment with the Company due to a material breach of the Agreement by the Company, then, except if you shall otherwise qualify for retirement under the terms of the applicable stock option agreement, (i) all stock options to purchase shares of AOL Time Warner Inc. ("AOLTW") Common Stock granted to you by AOLTW or the Company shall continue to vest, and any vested stock options will remain exercisable (but not beyond the term of such stock options), while you remain on the payroll of the Company, (ii) all such stock options granted to you by AOLTW or the Company on or after January 10, 2000 (the "Term Options") that would have vested on or before the end of the term of the Agreement (or the comparable date under an employment agreement that amends, replaces or supersedes the Agreement) shall vest and become immediately exercisable at the time you go off the payroll of the Company, (iii) all vested Term Options shall remain exercisable for a period of three years after the date you leave the payroll of the Company (but not beyond the term of such options), and (iv) the Company shall not be permitted to determine that your employment was terminated for "unsatisfactory performance" within the meaning of any stock option agreement between you and the Company. At the time you leave the payroll of the Company, all stock options to purchase shares of AOLTW Common Stock granted to you prior to January 10, 2000 shall be governed by the terms of the applicable stock option agreements and stock option plans.

Except as provided herein, all other terms and conditions of your employment with the Company remain in full force and effect. Please execute and return this letter at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

/s/ Helen Murphy

Re: Employment Agreement

Dear David:

Reference is made to the Employment Agreement between Warner Music Group Inc. (the "Company") and you dated December 15, 1998 (the "Agreement"). Capitalized terms used but not defined in this letter shall have the meanings given such terms in the Agreement. You and the Company desire to amend the Agreement as follows:

1. Paragraph 2 of the Agreement is amended to extend the Terra through June 29, 2007 ("Term Date"), subject however, to earlier termination as set forth in the Agreement.

2. Paragraph 3.1 of the Agreement is amended to provide that from the period January 1, 2003 through the Term Date, the Company shall pay you a base salary of not less than $700,000 ("Base Salary"). The Company may increase, but not decrease, your Base Salary during the period January 1, 2003 through the Term Date. Base Salary shall be paid in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices.

3. In addition to any other rights you may have under the Agreement, and unless previously terminated pursuant to any other provision of this Agreement, you have the right to terminate the Term (subject to the notice and cure provisions of Paragraph 13 of the Agreement) if any of the following events occur:

(a) there is any material reduction of your duties and responsibilities during the Term or any extension thereof. The sale, transfer or other disposition of the manufacturing and/or the music publishing operations of the Company shall not constitute a material reduction in your duties or responsibilities. The sale or transfer or other disposition (including by way of a joint venture formation) of all or substantially all of the Company's assets (or all or substantially all of the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner) shall not constitute a material reduction of your duties and responsibilities provided that (i) the Company assigns its rights and obligations under the Agreement to the entity acquiring all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (or all or substantially all of the assets of the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner) (the "successor entity") as provided in Paragraph 18(e) of the Agreement; (ii) you shall continue to have substantially the same duties, responsibilities and authority with respect to Company's businesses that you had as of the date of this Amendment and that you may have with respect to businesses added hereafter, and (iii) you shall report solely and directly to the individual holding the office within the successor entity that is substantially equivalent to the position within the Company to whom you reported under the Agreement; or

(b) any failure by the Company to obtain the assumption and agreement to perform this Agreement by a successor entity as contemplated by Paragraph 4 of this Amendment.

In the event of a termination under this Paragraph, the Term of this Agreement shall terminate and your sole remedy shall be that set forth in Paragraph 13 of the Agreement (Termination for Material Breach by Company and Wrongful Termination by Company).

4. Paragraph 18(e) of the Agreement is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder, may not be assigned by you. The Company may assign its rights, together with its obligations, hereunder in connection with any sale, transfer or other disposition (including by way of a joint venture formation) of all or a substantial portion of the stock or assets of Company, WCI, AOL Time Warner or the recorded music business of AOL Time Warner. The Company shall use reasonable efforts to cause any successor entity acquiring all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company (or all or substantially all of the recorded music business of the Company), whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, acquisition of stock, formation of a joint venture, or otherwise, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent as the Company would be required to perform, and to specifically agree to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The successor entity shall pay you annual compensation as follows: (i) Base Salary at a rate that is no less than the rate you received from Company as of the effective date of the sale or transfer ("Minimum Base Salary') and (ii) either the Target Bonus or the average of the bonus paid you for the two calendar years immediately preceding the effective date of the sale or transfer, whichever is higher ("Minimum Bonus"). For example, if the effective date of the sale or transfer was March 31, 2003, your Minimum Base Salary would be $700,000 and your Minimum Bonus would be $925,000 (two-year average bonus rather than the Target Bonus of $750,000 at 100%).

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, in the event that the Term of Employment is terminated for reasons other than Cause, Disability or Death (as set forth in Paragraphs 11 and 12 of the Agreement), the successor entity shall provide you a lump sum severance payment in a minimum amount equal to 2 years' Base Pay and two years' target bonus.

As amended, the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Mr. David H. Johnson
35 East 20th Street
New York, New York 10003

Dear David:

This letter, when signed by you, shall constitute our agreement with respect to your employment with us ("Company").

1. Position. Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Company.

2. Term. The term of your employment with Company hereunder shall commence on January 1, 1999 (the "Commencement Date") and shall end December 31, 2003 (the "Term"), subject to earlier termination as herein below set forth.

3. Compensation.

a. Salary. Company shall pay to you salary ("Base Salary") at the rate of $600,000 per annum commencing on the Commencement Date through December 31, 2000. Your Base Salary will be increased to the rate of $650,000 for the years 2001 and 2002 and to $700,000 for the year 2003. Salary accruing to you during the Term shall be payable in accordance with the regular payroll practices of Company for employees at your level.

b. Signing Bonus. Promptly following the Commencement Date, you shall be entitled to receive a one-time signing bonus in the amount of $500,000 less applicable withholdings.

c. Relocation Expenses. You shall be reimbursed your actual reasonable moving expenses relating to relocating your family and your personal effects to the Los Angeles metropolitan area in accordance with Company policy for employees at your level upon presentation of such evidence of such expenditures as Company shall reasonably require.

d. Guaranteed and Discretionary Bonus. With respect to the period of your employment commencing on the Commencement Date through December 31, 1999, you shall be entitled to a bonus of not less than $750,000. With respect to each subsequent calendar year of the Term, Company may grant to you, in recognition of services rendered by you during such year, an annual bonus, the amount of which, if any, shall be determined by Company in its discretion.

4. Exclusivity. During the Term and during any period you remain on the payroll of Company pursuant to Paragraph 13b(iii) or otherwise, your employment with Company shall be full-time and exclusive and you will not render any services for others, or for your own account, in the field of entertainment or otherwise. You may manage your passive investments and be involved in charitable interests so long as they do not interfere with the performance of your duties hereunder and otherwise are in compliance with Company's conflict of interest and other policies of general application.

5. Stock Options. As a separate and added inducement to your entering into this Agreement, on November 23, 1998 Time Warner Inc. ("Time Warner") granted you options to purchase 60,000 shares of the Common Stock of Time Warner at an exercise price of $104.78 per share, conditioned on your execution of this Agreement. As a result of the pending two-for-one stock split for stockholders of record on December 1, 1998, these options shall be adjusted to 120,000 options at an exercise price of $52.39 per share. In addition, during the Term in the first quarter of each of 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003 the Company shall use its best efforts to cause Time Warner to grant you options to purchase an additional 20,000 shares of Time Warner Common Stock. The number of shares covered by such options shall be appropriately adjusted as contemplated in Time Warner's stock option plans generally in the event of any subsequent changes in Time Warner's stock capitalization after the pending stock split. Such options shall be exercisable as set forth in stock option agreements in the standard form for such agreements in effect as of the date of grant to be executed by you and delivered to Time Warner promptly following each such grant.

6. Reporting. You shall serve as the senior legal officer of Company reporting to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (or the Co-Chairmen and Co-Chief Executive Officers, if applicable) and the President or other Chief Operating Officer, if any, of Company and you shall perform such duties (consistent with your position) as you shall reasonably be directed to perform by any such officer.

7. Place of Employment. Prior to June 30, 1999 you shall render services at Company's offices in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and in New York City, as required, and you understand that it shall be necessary for you to spend substantial periods of time in Company's offices in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. On or prior to June 30, 1999 you shall relocate such that your services thereafter shall be rendered primarily at the offices of Company in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. You also agree to travel on temporary trips to such other place or places as may be reasonably required from time to time to perform your duties hereunder.

8. Travel and Entertainment Expenses. Company shall pay or reimburse you for reasonable expenses actually incurred or paid by you during the Term in the performance of your services hereunder in accordance with Company's policy for employees at your level upon presentation of expense statements or vouchers or such other supporting information as Company may customarily require.

9. Benefits. During the Term, you shall be entitled to all fringe benefits generally accorded to employees of Company at your level from time to time, including, but not limited to, pension, profit-sharing, medical health and accident, group insurance and similar benefits, provided that you are eligible under the general. provisions of any applicable plan or program and Company continues to maintain such plan or program during the Term. In addition, during the Term you shall be entitled to receive an automobile allowance of $24,000 per annum and a financial advisory services allowance of $18,000 per annum, each payable in accordance with the regular payroll practices of Company for employees at your level.

10. Life Insurance. Company will obtain and maintain $1 million of term life insurance on your life during the Term, provided that you cooperate with Company in completing any application(s) to obtain such insurance and shall submit to, and satisfactorily complete, any medical examinations required with respect thereto. The provisions of this Paragraph 10 shall be in addition to any other insurance provided by Company, Warner Communications Inc. ("WCI") or Time Warner on your life under any group policy.

11. Disability and Death.

a. If during the Term you shall become physically or mentally disabled, whether totally or partially, so that you are substantially prevented from performing your usual duties for a period of six consecutive months, or for shorter periods aggregating six months in any twelve-month period, Company shall, nevertheless, continue to pay you your full compensation through the last day of the sixth consecutive month of disability or the date on which the shorter periods of disability shall have equaled a total of six months in any twelve-month period (such last day or date being referred to herein as the "Disability Date"). If you have not resumed your usual duties on or prior to the Disability Date, Company may terminate your employment hereunder and, in such event, shall pay you the Base Salary to the last day of the month in which such termination occurs plus a pro rata share of (i) your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if such termination occurs in such year, and (ii) your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9.

b. Upon your death, this Agreement and all benefits hereunder shall terminate except that your estate (or a designated beneficiary thereof) shall be entitled to receive the Base Salary to the last day of the month in which your death occurs plus a pro rata share of (i) your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if such termination occurs in such year, and (ii) your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9.

c. Any termination pursuant to this Paragraph 11 shall not affect any vested rights which you may have at the time of such termination pursuant to any insurance or other benefit plans or arrangements of Company or any of its affiliated companies or to the benefit plans described in Paragraph 9, which vested rights shall continue to be governed by the provisions of such plans.

12. Termination by Company for Cause. Company may at any time during the Term, by written notice, terminate your employment and all of Company's obligations hereunder (other than its obligations set forth in this Paragraph 12) only for "cause". The following acts shall constitute "cause" hereunder: (i) any willful or intentional act or omission having the effect of injuring the reputation, business or business relationships of Company or its affiliates; (ii) conviction of, or plea of nolo contendere to, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony; (iii) breach of material covenants contained in this Agreement; and (iv) repeated or continuous failure, neglect or refusal to perform your duties hereunder. Such termination shall be effected by notice thereof delivered by Company to you and shall be effective as of the date of such notice; provided, however, that if (a) such termination is by reason of events described in clause (iii) or (iv) of the preceding sentence, (b) such notice is the first such notice of termination for any reason delivered by Company to you hereunder, and (c) within 15 days following the date of such notice, you shall cease your refusal and shall use your best efforts to perform such obligations, termination shall not be effective. In the event of termination by Company for cause in accordance with the foregoing procedures, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that Company may have at law or equity, Company shall have no further obligations to you other than (i) to pay your salary accrued through the effective date of termination, (ii) to pay any annual bonus in respect of any year prior to the year in which such termination is effective which has been determined and not yet paid as of such termination and (iii) with respect to any of your rights under Paragraphs 9 or 10 through the effective date of termination (except as may be otherwise specifically provided in any such plan or program) or pursuant to any insurance or other benefit plans or arrangements of Company maintained for the benefit of its executives.

13. Termination for Material Breach by Company and Wrongful Termination by Company.

a. You shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to Company specifying the facts, events or circumstances constituting any alleged breach of this Agreement, to terminate the Term effective 15 days after the giving of such notice, if, at the time of such notice. Company shall be in material breach of its obligations hereunder, provided that, with the exception of clause(i) below, the Term Shall not so terminate if within such 15-day period Company shall have cured all such material breaches of its obligations hereunder. The parties acknowledge and agree that a material breach by Company shall include, but not be limited to, (i) Company's failing to cause you to serve during the Term in the capacities set forth in Paragraph l; and (ii) unless you otherwise consent, Company's requiring your primary services to be rendered in an area other than as contemplated in Paragraph 7.

b. In the event of a termination by you pursuant to this Paragraph 13, or in the event of a termination of this Agreement or the term of employment by Company without cause or in the event Company does not enter into a renewal employment agreement with you at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you shall be entitled to elect by delivery of written notice to Company within 30 days after written notice of such termination is given pursuant to Paragraph 13(a) or the expiration of the original Term without execution of a renewal employment agreement, as the case may be, either (x) to cease being an employee of Company and receive a lump sum payment as provided in Paragraph 13(b)(ii) or (y) to remain an employee of Company as provided in Paragraph 13(b)(iii). After you make such election, the following provisions shall apply:

(i) Regardless of the election you make, (x) following the effective date of such termination, you shall have no further obligations or liabilities to Company whatsoever (except for your obligations under Paragraphs 14, 15 and 16, which shall survive such termination in accordance with their terms) and (y) you shall be entitled to receive any earned and unpaid Base Salary and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9 accrued through the effective date of such termination, plus, your guaranteed bonus for the year 1999, if not previously paid to you.

(ii) If you make the election provided in clause (x) of Paragraph 13(b), within 30 days following such election, Company shall pay to you as damages in a lump sum an amount (discounted as provided in the following sentence) equal to your Base Salary otherwise payable pursuant to Paragraph 3 and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9 for the period ending the later of (a) the end of the original Term or (b) two years following the effective date of such termination. Any payments required to be made to you pursuant to this Paragraph 13(b)(ii) in excess of the amount equal to the first two years of Base Salary otherwise payable following the effective date of such termination (which shall be paid in a lump sum without discounting) shall be discounted to present value from the times at which such amounts would have been paid absent such termination at an annual discount rate for the relevant periods equal to 120% of the "applicable Federal rate" (within the meaning of Section 1274(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") in effect on the date of such termination, compounded semi-annually, the use of which rate is hereby elected by Company and you pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.280G-l Q/A 32 (provided that, in the event such election is not permitted under Section 280G and the regulations thereunder, such other rate determined as of such other date as is applicable for determining present value under Section 280G of the Code shall be used).

(iii) If you make the election provided in clause (y) of Paragraph 13(b), the term of employment shall continue and you shall remain an employee of Company for the period ending the later of (a) the end of the original Term or (b) two years following the effective date of such termination, and during such period you shall be entitled to receive, whether or not you become disabled during such period but subject to Paragraph 11(b), your Base Salary otherwise payable pursuant to Paragraph 3 and your automobile and financial services allowances contemplated in Paragraph 9. Except as provided in the following sentence, if you accept full-time employment with any other entity during such period or notify Company in writing of your intention to terminate your status as an employee during such period, then the term of employment shall cease and you shall cease to be an employee of Company effective upon the commencement of such employment or the effective date of such termination as specified by you in such notice, whichever is applicable (the "Termination Date"), and, within 30 days following such Termination Date, Company shall pay to you as damages in a lump sum an amount determined in accordance with Paragraph 13(b)(ii) (treating the Termination Date as the effective date of such termination for purposes thereof). Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if you accept employment with any not-for-profit entity, then you shall be entitled to remain an employee of Company and receive the payments as provided in the first sentence of this Paragraph 13(b)(iii); and if you accept full-time employment with any affiliate of Company, then the payments provided for in this Paragraph 13(b)(iii) and the term of employment shall cease and you shall not be entitled to any such lump sum payment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean any entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Company.

c. The termination of this Agreement or the Term pursuant to Paragraph 13 shall not affect the obligations of Company under the last sentence of Paragraph 9 or under Paragraph 10. In addition, if following a termination by you pursuant to Paragraph 13 or a termination of this Agreement by Company without cause or at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you make the election provided in clause (y) of Paragraph 13(b), then during the period you remain on the payroll of Company after such termination (i) you shall continue to be eligible to receive the other benefits required to be provided under Paragraphs 9 and 10 to the extent such benefits are maintained in effect by Company for its senior executives and (ii) you shall continue to be an employee of Company for purposes of any stock option agreements, including the obligation to use Company's best efforts to cause Time Warner to grant stock options pursuant to Paragraph 5. In the event you leave the payroll of Company or such best efforts are not successful such that any such options are not granted (whether or not you leave the payroll of Company, unless your termination is for cause pursuant to Paragraph 12), Company shall be obligated to pay you the fair value of such options, less applicable withholdings, the amount of which shall be determined in good faith using the Black Scholes valuation model. Upon the later of the time your term of employment with Company terminates and the time you leave the payroll of Company pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 13(b), your rights to benefits and payments under any benefit plans or any insurance or other death benefit plans or arrangements of Company or under any stock, restricted stock, stock appreciation right, bonus unit, management incentive or other plan of Company shall be determined, subject to the other terms and provisions of this Agreement, in accordance with the terms and provisions of such plans and any agreements under which such stock options, restricted stock or other awards were granted. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any more restrictive provisions of any such plan or agreement, upon a termination of this Agreement or the Term pursuant to Paragraph 13 or a termination of this Agreement by Company without cause all stock options granted to you by Company shall become immediately exercisable and shall remain exercisable (but not beyond the term thereof) during the remainder of the Term.

d. In partial consideration for Company's obligation to make the payments described in Paragraph 13, you shall execute and deliver to Company a release in substantially the form attached hereto as Annex A. Company shall deliver such release to you and to your counsel specified in Paragraph 17 hereof within 10 days after the written notice of termination is delivered pursuant to Paragraph 13(b) and you shall execute and deliver such release to Company within 21 days after receipt thereof. If you shall fail to execute and deliver such release to Company within such 21 day period, or if you shall revoke your consent to such release as provided therein, your term of employment shall terminate as provided in Paragraph 13(b), but you shall receive, in lieu of the payments provided for in Paragraph 13, a lump sum cash payment in an amount determined in accordance with the personnel policies of Company relating to notice and severance then generally applicable to employees with a length of service and compensation level comparable to yours.

14. Mitigation. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by you as a result of a material breach by Company of any of its obligations hereunder, or in the event of the termination of this Agreement or the term of employment by Company in breach of this Agreement or at the end of the original Term of this Agreement, you shall not be required to seek other employment in order to mitigate your damages hereunder; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) if there are any damages hereunder by reason of the events of termination described above which are "contingent on a change" (within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Code), you shall be required to mitigate such damages hereunder, including any such damages theretofore paid, but not in excess of the extent, if any, necessary to prevent Company from losing any tax deductions to which it otherwise would be entitled in connection with such damages if they were not so "contingent on a change," and (ii) in addition to any obligation under the preceding clause (i), and without duplication of any amounts required to be paid to Company thereunder, if any such termination occurs and you, whether or not required to mitigate your damages under clause (i) above, thereafter obtain any compensation from any employment or consulting arrangements other than with a not-for-profit entity, such compensation, whether paid to you or deferred for your benefit, shall reduce, pro tanto, any amount which Company would otherwise be required to pay you as a result of such termination and, to the extent amounts have theretofore been paid to you as a result of such termination, such compensation shall be paid over to Company as received. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph 14, you shall not be required to mitigate your damages hereunder with respect to the first two years of Base Salary otherwise payable after such termination which shall be paid to you without discount or offset.

15. Confidential Matters. Except as may be required by law, you shall keep secret all confidential matters of Company and its affiliates (for purposes of this Paragraph

15 only, "Company"), and shall not disclose them to anyone outside of Company, either during or after your employment with Company, except with Company's written consent. You shall deliver promptly to Company upon termination of your employment, or at any time Company may request, all confidential memoranda, notes, records, reports and other documents (and all copies thereof) relating to the business of Company which you may then possess or have under your control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph 15, you shall be entitled to disclose the terms of

this Agreement and any other arrangements concerning your employment hereunder to members of your immediate family and your attorneys and financial advisors.

You agree to execute and deliver to Company such assignments or other instruments as Company may require from time to time to evidence Company's ownership of the results and proceeds of your services.

18. Miscellaneous.

a. You represent and warrant to Company that you are free to enter into this Agreement and, as of the commencement of the Term hereof, are not subject to any conflicting obligation or any disability which will prevent you from or interfere with your executing and performing your obligations hereunder or could be the basis of any valid claim against Company. Prior to entering into this Agreement you have obtained release from Sony Music Entertainment Inc. ("Sony") of any claims relating to this Agreement, a true, correct and complete copy of which has been delivered to Company.

b. You acknowledge that during the Term you will comply with Company's conflict of interest policy and other corporate policies (including without limitation, the policies contained in Time Warner's Compliance Program Manual, a copy of which has been furnished to you), as in effect from time to time, of which you are made aware. You have accurately completed the attached Conflict of Interest Questionnaire as of the date hereof.

c. You acknowledge that services to be rendered by you under this Agreement are of a special, unique and intellectual character which gives them peculiar value, and that a breach or threatened breach of any provision of this Agreement (particularly, but not limited to, the provisions of Paragraphs 4 and 15 hereof), will cause Company immediate irreparable injury and damage which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in an action at law. Accordingly, without limiting any right or remedy which Company may have in the premises, you specifically agree that Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief to enforce and protect its rights under this Agreement. The provisions of this Paragraph 18(c) shall not be construed as a waiver by Company of any rights which Company may have to damages or any other remedy.

d. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto, and supersedes and terminates any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings. No representation, promise or inducement has been made by either party that is not embodied in this Agreement, and neither party shall be bound by or liable for any alleged representation, promise or inducement not herein set forth.

e. The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder, may not be assigned by you. Company may assign its rights, together with its obligations, hereunder in connection with any sale, transfer or other disposition of all or a substantial portion of the stock or assets of Company, WCI, Time Warner or the recorded music business of Time Warner.

f. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded, canceled, renewed or extended, and the terms or covenants hereof may be waived, only by a written instrument executed by both of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of either party at anytime or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect the right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by either party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

g. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of New York as applicable to agreements to be wholly performed therein. Any dispute or controversy arising with respect to this Agreement shall, at the election of either Company or you, be submitted to JAMS/ENDISPUTE for resolution in arbitration in accordance with the rules and procedures of JAMS/ENDISPUTE. Either party shall make such election by delivering written notice thereof to the other party at any time (but not later than 45 days after such party receives notice of the commencement of any administrative or regulatory proceeding or the filing of any lawsuit relating to any such dispute or controversy) and thereupon any such dispute or controversy shall be resolved only in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph 18(g). Any such proceedings shall take place in New York City before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators), pursuant to any streamlined or expedited (rather than a comprehensive) arbitration process, before a nonjudicial (rather than a judicial) arbitrator, and in accordance with an arbitration process which, in the judgment of such arbitrator, shall have the effect of reasonably limiting or reducing the cost of such arbitration. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator appointed in accordance with the procedures of JAMS/ENDISPUTE shall be final and binding. Judgment upon the award rendered by such arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and the parties consent to the jurisdiction of the New York courts for this purpose. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of arbitration (including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees of experts) from the losing party. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS/ENDISPUTE is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then the American Arbitration Association shall be substituted for JAMS/ENDISPUTE for the purposes of the foregoing provisions in this Paragraph 18(g). If you shall be the prevailing party in such arbitration, Company shall promptly pay, upon your demand, all· legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by you in any legal action seeking to enforce the award in any court.

h. You shall be entitled throughout the period of employment under this Agreement in your capacity as an officer or director of Company or any of its subsidiaries or an officer or member of the board of representatives or other governing body of any partnership or joint venture in which Company has an equity interest (and after the termination of the period of employment hereunder, to the extent relating to your service as such officer, director or member) to the benefit of the indemnification provisions contained on the date hereof in the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of Company (not including any amendments or additions after the date of execution hereof that limit or narrow, but including any that add to or broaden, the protection afforded to you by those provisions), to the extent not prohibited by applicable law at the time of the assertion of any liability against you, and provided that no such indemnity will apply to any claim arising out of the release understanding between you and Sony referred to in Paragraph 18(a).

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our understanding, please sign and return the duplicate copy of the letter enclosed herewith.

Very truly yours,

WARNER MUSIC GROUP INC.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer, the undersigned hereby tenders to the Company the principal amount of the Dollar Outstanding Notes indicated above. Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance for exchange of all or any portion of the Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered herewith in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Dollar Exchange Offer (including, if the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), the undersigned hereby exchanges, assigns and transfers to, or upon the order of, the Company all right, title and interest in and to such Dollar Outstanding Notes as are being tendered herewith. The undersigned hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Exchange Agent as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of the undersigned (with full knowledge that the Exchange Agent also acts as the agent of the Company, in connection with the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer) to cause the Dollar Outstanding Notes to be assigned, transferred and exchanged.

The undersigned represents and warrants that it has full power and authority to tender, exchange, assign and transfer the Dollar Outstanding Notes and to acquire Dollar Exchange Notes issuable upon the exchange of such tendered Dollar Outstanding Notes, and that, when the same are accepted for exchange, the Company will acquire good and unencumbered title to the tendered Dollar Outstanding Notes, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim. The undersigned also warrants that it will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Exchange Agent or the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the exchange, assignment and transfer of the tendered Dollar Outstanding Notes or transfer ownership of such Dollar Outstanding Notes on the account books maintained by the book-entry transfer facility. The undersigned further agrees that acceptance of any and all validly tendered Dollar Outstanding Notes by the Company and the issuance of Dollar Exchange Notes in exchange therefor shall constitute performance in full by the Company of its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement dated April 8, 2004, among the Company, the Guarantors named therein, and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Banc of America Securities LLC, Lehman Brothers Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and the other initial purchasers named therein (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), and that the Company shall have no further obligations or liabilities thereunder except as provided in Section 2(c) of such agreement. The undersigned will comply with its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement. The undersigned agrees to all terms of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer.

The Dollar Notes Exchange Offer is subject to certain conditions as set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Conditions to the Exchange Offers." The undersigned recognizes that as a result of these conditions (which may be waived, in whole or in part, by the Company), as more particularly set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to exchange any of the Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered hereby and, in such event, the Dollar Outstanding Notes not exchanged will be returned to the undersigned at the address shown above, promptly following the expiration or termination of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer. The undersigned recognizes that, under circumstances set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to accept for exchange any of the Dollar Outstanding Notes.

By tendering shares of Dollar Outstanding Notes and executing this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, the undersigned represents that Dollar Exchange Notes acquired in the exchange will be obtained in the ordinary course of business of the undersigned, that the undersigned has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of such Dollar Exchange Notes, that the undersigned is not an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act and that if the undersigned or the person receiving such Dollar Exchange Notes, whether or not such person is the undersigned, is not a broker-dealer, the undersigned represents that it is not engaged in, and does not intend to engage in, a distribution of Dollar Exchange Notes. INSTRUCTIONS

FORMING PART OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE DOLLAR NOTES EXCHANGE OFFER

1. Delivery of this Letter of Transmittal for the Dollar Outstanding Notes and Certificates; Guaranteed Delivery Procedures.

A holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes may tender the same by (i) properly completing and signing this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal or a facsimile hereof (all references in the Prospectus to the Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal shall be deemed to include a facsimile thereof) and delivering the same, together with the certificate or certificates, if applicable, representing the Dollar Outstanding Notes being tendered and any required signature guarantees and any other documents required by this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, to the Exchange Agent at its address set forth above on or prior to the Expiration Date, or (ii) complying with the procedure for book-entry transfer described below, or (iii) complying with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

Holders of Dollar Outstanding Notes may tender Dollar Outstanding Notes by book-entry transfer by crediting the Dollar Outstanding Notes to the Exchange Agent's account at DTC in accordance with DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP") and by complying with applicable ATOP procedures with respect to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer. DTC participants that are accepting the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer should transmit their acceptance to DTC, which will edit and verify the acceptance and execute a book-entry delivery to the Exchange Agent's account at DTC. DTC will then send a computer-generated message (an "Agent's Message") to the Exchange Agent for its acceptance in which the holder of the Dollar Outstanding Notes acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the terms of, and makes the representations and warranties contained in, this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, the DTC participant confirms on behalf of itself and the beneficial owners of such Dollar Outstanding Notes all provisions of this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal (including any representations and warranties) applicable to it and such beneficial owner as fully as if it had completed the information required herein and executed and transmitted this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal to the Exchange Agent. Delivery of the Agent's Message by DTC will satisfy the terms of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer as to execution and delivery of a Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal by the participant identified in the Agent's Message. DTC participants may also accept the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer by submitting a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery through ATOP.

The method of delivery of this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, the Dollar Outstanding Notes and any other required documents is at the election and risk of the holder, and except as otherwise provided below, the delivery will be deemed made only when actually received or confirmed by the Exchange Agent. If such delivery is by mail, it is suggested that registered mail with return receipt requested, properly insured, be used. In all cases sufficient time should be allowed to permit timely delivery. No Dollar Outstanding Notes or Dollar Notes Letters of Transmittal should be sent to the Company.

Holders whose Dollar Outstanding Notes are not immediately available or who cannot deliver their Dollar Outstanding Notes and all other required documents to the Exchange Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date or comply with book-entry transfer procedures on a timely basis must tender their Dollar Outstanding Notes pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedure set forth in the Prospectus. Pursuant to such procedure: (i) such tender must be made by or through an Eligible Guarantor Institution (as defined below); (ii) prior to the Expiration Date, the Exchange Agent must have received from such Eligible Guarantor Institution a letter, telegram or facsimile transmission (receipt confirmed by telephone and an original delivered by guaranteed overnight courier) setting forth the name and address of the tendering holder, the names in which such Dollar Outstanding Notes are registered, and, if applicable, the certificate numbers of the Dollar Outstanding Notes to be tendered; and (iii) all tendered Dollar Outstanding Notes (or a confirmation of any book-entry transfer of such Dollar Outstanding Notes into the Exchange Agent's account at a book-entry transfer facility) as well as this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal and all other documents required by this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, must be received by the Exchange Agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of such letter, telegram or facsimile transmission, all as provided in the Prospectus.

No alternative, conditional, irregular or contingent tenders will be accepted. All tendering holders, by execution of this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), shall waive any right to receive notice of the acceptance of the Dollar Outstanding Notes for exchange.

2. Partial Tenders; Withdrawals.

If less than the entire principal amount of Dollar Outstanding Notes evidenced by a submitted certificate is tendered, the tendering holder must fill in the aggregate principal amount of Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered in the box entitled "Description of Dollar Outstanding Notes Tendered Herewith." A newly issued certificate for the Dollar Outstanding Notes submitted but not tendered will be sent to such holder promptly after the Expiration Date. All Dollar Outstanding Notes delivered to the Exchange Agent will be deemed to have been tendered unless otherwise clearly indicated.

If not yet accepted due to failure to meet any condition of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer, a tender pursuant to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer may be withdrawn prior to the Expiration Date.

To be effective with respect to the tender of Dollar Outstanding Notes, a written notice of withdrawal must: (i) be received by the Exchange Agent at the address for the Exchange Agent set forth above before the Company notifies the Exchange Agent that it has accepted the tender of Dollar Outstanding Notes pursuant to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer; (ii) specify the name of the person who tendered the Dollar Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn; (iii) identify the Dollar Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount of such Dollar Outstanding Notes, or, if applicable, the certificate numbers shown on the particular certificates evidencing such Dollar Outstanding Notes and the principal amount of Dollar Outstanding Notes represented by such certificates); (iv) include a statement that such holder is withdrawing its election to have such Dollar Outstanding Notes exchanged; and (v) be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal (including any required signature guarantee). The Exchange Agent will return the properly withdrawn Dollar Outstanding Notes promptly following receipt of notice of withdrawal. If Dollar Outstanding Notes have been tendered pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at the book-entry transfer facility to be credited with the withdrawn Dollar Outstanding Notes or otherwise comply with the book-entry transfer facility's procedures. All questions as to the validity of notices of withdrawals, including time of receipt, will be determined by the Company, and such determination will be final and binding on all parties.

Any Dollar Outstanding Notes so withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for exchange for purposes of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer. Any Dollar Outstanding Notes which have been tendered for exchange but which are not exchanged for any reason will be returned to the holder thereof without cost to such holder (or, in the case of Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the Exchange Agent's account at the book entry transfer facility pursuant to the book-entry transfer procedures described above, such Dollar Outstanding Notes will be credited to an account with such book-entry transfer facility specified by the holder) promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or termination of the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer. Properly withdrawn Dollar Outstanding Notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Procedures for Tendering" in the Prospectus at any time prior to the Expiration Date.

3. Signature on this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal; Written Instruments and Endorsements; Guarantee of Signatures.

If this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder(s) of the Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, the signature must correspond with the name(s) as written on the face of the certificates without alteration, enlargement or any change whatsoever.

If any of the Dollar Outstanding Notes tendered hereby are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all such owners must sign this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal.

If a number of Dollar Outstanding Notes registered in different names are tendered, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate copies of this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal as there are different registrations of Dollar Outstanding Notes.

When this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder or holders (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Dollar Outstanding Notes) of Dollar Outstanding Notes listed and tendered hereby, no endorsements of certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are required.

If this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder or holders of the Dollar Outstanding Notes listed, such Dollar Outstanding Notes must be endorsed or accompanied by separate written instruments of transfer or exchange in form satisfactory to the Company and duly executed by the registered holder, in either case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered holder or holders appear(s) on the Dollar Outstanding Notes.

If this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, any certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing, and, unless waived by the Company, proper evidence satisfactory to the Company of their authority so to act must be submitted.

Endorsements on certificates or signatures on separate written instruments of transfer or exchange required by this Instruction 3 must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution.

Signatures on this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution, unless Dollar Outstanding Notes are tendered: (i) by a holder who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" or "Special Delivery Instructions" on this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal; or (ii) for the account of an Eligible Guarantor Institution (as defined below). In the event that the signatures in this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, are required to be guaranteed, such guarantees must be by an eligible guarantor institution which is a member of a firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or another "eligible guarantor institution" within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (an "Eligible Guarantor Institution"). If Dollar Outstanding Notes are registered in the name of a person other than the signer of this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, the Dollar Outstanding Notes surrendered for exchange must be endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer or exchange, in satisfactory form as determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, duly executed by the registered holder with the signature thereon guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution.

4. Special Issuance and Delivery Instructions.

Tendering holders should indicate, as applicable, the name and address to which the Dollar Exchange Notes or certificates for Dollar Outstanding Notes not exchanged are to be issued or sent, if different from the name and address of the person signing this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal. In the case of issuance in a different name, the tax identification number of the person named must also be indicated. Holders tendering Dollar Outstanding Notes by book-entry transfer may request that Dollar Outstanding Notes not exchanged be credited to such account maintained at the book-entry transfer facility as such holder may designate.

5. Transfer Taxes.

The Company shall pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the transfer and exchange of Dollar Outstanding Notes to it or its order pursuant to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer. If a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the transfer and exchange of Dollar Outstanding Notes to the Company or its order pursuant to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer, the amount of any such transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered holder or any other person) will be payable by the tendering holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes or exception therefrom is not submitted herewith the amount of such transfer taxes will be billed directly to such tendering holder.

6. Waiver of Conditions.

The Company reserves the absolute right to waive, in whole or in part, any of the conditions to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer set forth in the Prospectus.

7. Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Securities.

Any holder whose Dollar Outstanding Notes have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, should contact the Exchange Agent at the address indicated below for further instructions.

8. Substitute Form W-9

Each holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes whose Dollar Outstanding Notes are accepted for exchange (or other payee) is generally required to provide a correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN") (e.g., the holder's Social Security or federal employer identification number) and certain other information, on Substitute Form W-9, which is provided under "Important Tax Information" below, and to certify that the holder (or other payee) is not subject to backup withholding. Failure to provide the information on the Substitute Form W-9 may subject the holder (or other payee) to a $50 penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service and 28% federal income tax backup withholding on payments made in connection with the Dollar Outstanding Notes. The box in Part 3 of the Substitute Form W-9 may be checked if the holder (or other payee) has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the box in Part 3 is checked and a TIN is not provided by the time any payment is made in connection with the Dollar Outstanding Notes, 28% of all such payments will be withheld until a TIN is provided and, if a TIN is not provided within 60 days, such withheld amounts will be paid over to the Internal Revenue Service.

9. Requests for Assistance or Additional Copies.

Questions relating to the procedure for tendering, as well as requests for additional copies of the Prospectus and this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent at the address and telephone number set forth above. In addition, all questions relating to the Dollar Notes Exchange Offer, as well as requests for assistance or additional copies of the Prospectus and this Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent at the address and telephone number indicated above.

IMPORTANT: This Dollar Notes Letter of Transmittal or a facsimile or copy thereof (together with certificates of Dollar Outstanding Notes or confirmation of book-entry transfer and all other required documents) or a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery for the Dollar Notes must be received by the Exchange Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

Under U.S. federal income tax law, a holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes whose Dollar Outstanding Notes are accepted for exchange may be subject to backup withholding unless the holder provides Wells Fargo, N.A., as Paying Agent (the "Paying Agent"), through the Exchange Agent, with either (i) such holder's correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN") on Substitute Form W-9 attached hereto, certifying (A) that the TIN provided on Substitute Form W-9 is correct (or that such holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is awaiting a TIN), (B) that the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is not subject to backup withholding because (x) such holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is exempt from backup withholding, (y) such holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he or she is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends or (z) the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes that he or she is no longer subject to backup withholding and (C) that the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien); or (ii) an adequate basis for exemption from backup withholding. If such holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is an individual, the TIN is such holder's social security number. If the Paying Agent is not provided with the correct TIN, the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes may also be subject to certain penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service.

Certain holders of Dollar Outstanding Notes (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. However, exempt holders of Dollar Outstanding Notes should indicate their exempt status on Substitute Form W-9. For example, a corporation should complete the Substitute Form W-9, providing its TIN and indicating that it is exempt from backup withholding. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, the holder must submit a Form W-8BEN, signed under penalties of perjury, attesting to that individual's exempt status. A Form W-8BEN can be obtained from the Paying Agent. See the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for more instructions.

If backup withholding applies, the Paying Agent is required to withhold 28% of any payments made to the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes or other payee. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the tax liability of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service, provided the required information is furnished.

The box in Part 3 of the Substitute Form W-9 may be checked if the surrendering holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the box in Part 3 is checked, the holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes or other payee must also complete the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number below in order to avoid backup withholding. Notwithstanding that the box in Part 3 is checked and the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number is completed, the Paying Agent will withhold 28% of all payments made prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Paying Agent and, if the Paying Agent is not provided with a TIN within 60 days, such amounts will be paid over to the Internal Revenue Service.

The holder of Dollar Outstanding Notes is required to give the Paying Agent the TIN (e.g., social security number or employer identification number) of the record owner of the Dollar Outstanding Notes. If the Dollar Outstanding Notes are in more than one name or are not in the name of the actual owner, consult the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for additional guidance on which number to report.

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

Guidelines for Determining the Proper Identification Number for the Payee (You) to Give the Payer.—Social security numbers have nine digits separated by two hyphens: i.e., 000-00-0000. Employee identification numbers have nine digits separated by only one hyphen: i.e., 00-0000000. The table below will help determine the number to give the payer. All "Section" references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. "IRS" is the Internal Revenue Service.

For this type of account:	Give the SOCIAL SECURITY number of—
1. Individual	The individual
2. Two or more individuals (joint account)	The actual owner of the account or, if combined fund, the first individual on the account(1)
3. Custodian account of a minor (Uniform Gift to Minors Act)	The minor(2)
4. a. The usual revocable savings trust account (grantor is also trustee)	The grantor-trustee(1)
b. So-called trust that is not a legal or valid trust under state law	The actual owner(1)
5. Sole proprietorship	The owner(3)

10. A broker or registered nominee	The broker or nominee
11. Account with the Department of Agriculture in the name of a public entity (such as a state or local government, school district, or prison) that receives agricultural program payments	The public entity

(1) List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has a social security number, that person's number must be furnished.
(2) Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's social security number.
(3) You must show your individual name, but you may also enter your business or "doing business as" name. You may use either your social security number or your employer identification number (if you have one).
(4) List first and circle the name of the legal trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the taxpayer identification number of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.)

NOTE: If no name is circled when there is more than one name, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Obtaining a Number

If you don't have a taxpayer identification number or you don't know your number, obtain Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, at the local Social Administration office, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, by calling 1 (800) TAX-FORM, and apply for a number.

Payees Exempt from Backup Withholding

Payees specifically exempted from withholding include:

- An organization exempt from tax under Section 501(a), an individual retirement account (IRA), or a custodial account under Section 403(b)(7), if the account satisfies the requirements of Section 401(f)(2).
- The United States or a state thereof, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision or wholly-owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.
- An international organization or any agency or instrumentality thereof.
- A foreign government and any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof.

Payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

- A corporation.
- A financial institution.

- A real estate investment trust.
- A common trust fund operated by a bank under Section 584(a).
- An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
- A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian.
- A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
- A foreign central bank of issue.

Payments of dividends and patronage dividends generally exempt from backup withholding include:

- Payments to nonresident aliens subject to withholding under Section 1441.
- Payments to partnerships not engaged in a trade or business in the United States and that have at least one nonresident alien partner.
- Payments of patronage dividends not paid in money.
- Payments made by certain foreign organizations.
- Section 404(k) payments made by an ESOP.

Payments of interest generally exempt from backup withholding include:

- Payments of interest on obligations issued by individuals. Note: You may be subject to backup withholding if this interest is $600 or more and you have not provided your correct taxpayer identification number to the payer.
- Payments of tax-exempt interest (including exempt-interest dividends under Section 852).
- Payments described in Section 6049(b)(5) to nonresident aliens.
- Payments on tax-free covenant bonds under Section 1451.
- Payments made by certain foreign organizations.
- Mortgage interest paid to you.

Certain payments, other than payments of interest, dividends, and patronage dividends, that are exempt from information reporting are also exempt from backup withholding. For details, see the regulations under sections 6041, 6041A, 6042, 6044, 6045, 6049, 6050A and 6050N.

Exempt payees described above must file Form W-9 or a substitute Form W-9 to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding. FILE THIS FORM WITH THE PAYER, FURNISH YOUR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER, WRITE "EXEMPT" IN PART 2 OF THE FORM, SIGN AND DATE THE FORM AND RETURN IT TO THE PAYER.

Privacy Act Notice.—Section 6109 requires you to provide your correct taxpayer identification number to payers, who must report the payments to the IRS. The IRS uses the number for identification purposes and may also provide this information to various government agencies for tax enforcement or litigation purposes. Payers must be given the numbers whether or not recipients are required to file tax returns. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a taxpayer identification number to payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

Penalties

(1) Failure to Furnish Taxpayer Identification Number.—If you fail to furnish your taxpayer identification number to a payer, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

(2) Civil Penalty for False Information With Respect to Withholding.—If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

(3) Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information.—Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer, the undersigned hereby tenders to the Company the principal amount of the Sterling Outstanding Notes indicated above. Subject to, and effective upon, the acceptance for exchange of all or any portion of the Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered herewith in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer (including, if the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), the undersigned hereby exchanges, assigns and transfers to, or upon the order of, the Company all right, title and interest in and to such Sterling Outstanding Notes as are being tendered herewith. The undersigned hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Exchange Agent as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of the undersigned (with full knowledge that the Exchange Agent also acts as the agent of the Company, in connection with the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer) to cause the Sterling Outstanding Notes to be assigned, transferred and exchanged.

The undersigned represents and warrants that it has full power and authority to tender, exchange, assign and transfer the Sterling Outstanding Notes and to acquire Sterling Exchange Notes issuable upon the exchange of such tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes, and that, when the same are accepted for exchange, the Company will acquire good and unencumbered title to the tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim. The undersigned also warrants that it will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Exchange Agent or the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the exchange, assignment and transfer of the tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes or transfer ownership of such Sterling Outstanding Notes on the account books maintained by the book-entry transfer facility. The undersigned further agrees that acceptance of any and all validly tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes by the Company and the issuance of Sterling Exchange Notes in exchange therefor shall constitute performance in full by the Company of its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement dated April 8, 2004, among the Company, the Guarantors named therein, and Deutsche Bank AG London, Banc of America Securities Limited, Lehman Brothers International, Merrill Lynch International and the other initial purchasers named therein (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), and that the Company shall have no further obligations or liabilities thereunder except as provided in Section 2(c) of such agreement. The undersigned will comply with its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement. The undersigned agrees to all terms of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer.

The Sterling Notes Exchange Offer is subject to certain conditions as set forth in the Prospectus under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Conditions to the Exchange Offers." The undersigned recognizes that as a result of these conditions (which may be waived, in whole or in part, by the Company), as more particularly set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to exchange any of the Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered hereby and, in such event, the Sterling Outstanding Notes not exchanged will be returned to the undersigned at the address shown above, promptly following the expiration or termination of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer. In addition, the Company may amend the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer at any time prior to the Expiration Date if any of the conditions set forth under "The Exchange Offers—Conditions to the Exchange Offers" occur.

The undersigned understands that tenders of Sterling Outstanding Notes pursuant to any one of the procedures described in the Prospectus and in the instructions attached hereto will, upon the Company's acceptance for exchange of such tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes, constitute a binding agreement between the undersigned and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer. The undersigned recognizes that, under circumstances set forth in the Prospectus, the Company may not be required to accept for exchange any of the Sterling Outstanding Notes.

By tendering shares of Sterling Outstanding Notes and executing this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, the undersigned represents that Sterling Exchange Notes acquired in the exchange will be obtained in the ordinary course of business of the undersigned, that the undersigned has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) of such Sterling Exchange Notes, that the undersigned is not an "affiliate" of the Company within the meaning of Rule 405 under the Securities Act and that if the undersigned or the person receiving such Sterling Exchange Notes, whether or not such person is the undersigned, is not a broker-dealer, the undersigned represents that it is not engaged in, and does not intend to engage in, a distribution of Sterling Exchange Notes. If the undersigned or the person receiving such Sterling Exchange Notes, whether or not such person is the undersigned, is a broker-dealer that will receive Sterling Exchange Notes for its own account in exchange for Sterling Outstanding Notes that were acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, it acknowledges that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such Sterling Exchange Notes; however, by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, the undersigned will not be deemed to admit that it is an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act. If the undersigned is a person in the United Kingdom, the undersigned represents that its ordinary activities involve it in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of its business.

Any holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes using the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer to participate in a distribution of the Sterling Exchange Notes (i) cannot rely on the position of the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission enunciated in its interpretive letter with respect to Exxon Capital Holdings Corporation (available April 13, 1989) or similar interpretive letters and (ii) must comply with the registration and prospectus requirements of the Securities Act in connection with a secondary resale transaction.

All authority herein conferred or agreed to be conferred shall survive the death or incapacity of the undersigned and every obligation of the undersigned hereunder shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned. Tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Expiration Date in accordance with the terms of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal. Except as stated in the Prospectus, this tender is irrevocable.

Certificates for all Sterling Exchange Notes delivered in exchange for tendered Sterling Outstanding Notes and any Sterling Outstanding Notes delivered herewith but not exchanged, and registered in the name of the undersigned, shall be delivered to the undersigned at the address shown below the signature of the undersigned.

The undersigned, by completing the box entitled "Description of Sterling Outstanding Notes Tendered Herewith" above and signing this letter, will be deemed to have tendered the Sterling Outstanding Notes as set forth in such box.

DTC will then send a computer-generated message (an "Agent's Message") to the Exchange Agent for its acceptance in which the holder of the Sterling Outstanding Notes acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the terms of, and makes the representations and warranties contained in, this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, the DTC participant confirms on behalf of itself and the beneficial owners of such Sterling Outstanding Notes all provisions of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal (including any representations and warranties) applicable to it and such beneficial owner as fully as if it had completed the information required herein and executed and transmitted this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal to the Exchange Agent. Delivery of the Agent's Message by DTC will satisfy the terms of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer as to execution and delivery of a Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal by the participant identified in the Agent's Message. DTC participants may also accept the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer by submitting a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery through ATOP.

The method of delivery of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, the Sterling Outstanding Notes and any other required documents is at the election and risk of the holder, and except as otherwise provided below, the delivery will be deemed made only when actually received or confirmed by the Exchange Agent. If such delivery is by mail, it is suggested that registered mail with return receipt requested, properly insured, be used. In all cases sufficient time should be allowed to permit timely delivery. No Sterling Outstanding Notes or Sterling Notes Letters of Transmittal should be sent to the Company.

Holders whose Sterling Outstanding Notes are not immediately available or who cannot deliver their Sterling Outstanding Notes and all other required documents to the Exchange Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date or comply with book-entry transfer procedures on a timely basis must tender their Sterling Outstanding Notes pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedure set forth in the Prospectus. facility) as well as this Letter of Transmittal for the Sterling Outstanding Notes and all other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal for the Sterling Outstanding Notes, must be received by the Exchange Agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of such letter, telegram or facsimile transmission, all as provided in the Prospectus.

No alternative, conditional, irregular or contingent tenders will be accepted. All tendering holders, by execution of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal (or facsimile thereof), shall waive any right to receive notice of the acceptance of the Sterling Outstanding Notes for exchange.

2. Partial Tenders; Withdrawals.

If less than the entire principal amount of Sterling Outstanding Notes evidenced by a submitted certificate is tendered, the tendering holder must fill in the aggregate principal amount of Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered in the box entitled "Description of Sterling Outstanding Notes Tendered Herewith." A newly issued certificate for the Sterling Outstanding Notes submitted but not tendered will be sent to such holder promptly after the Expiration Date. All Sterling Outstanding Notes delivered to the Exchange Agent will be deemed to have been tendered unless otherwise clearly indicated.

If not yet accepted due to failure to meet any condition of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer, a tender pursuant to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer may be withdrawn prior to the Expiration Date.

To be effective with respect to the tender of Sterling Outstanding Notes, a written notice of withdrawal must: (i) be received by the Exchange Agent at the address for the Exchange Agent set forth above before the Company notifies the Exchange Agent that it has accepted the tender of Sterling Outstanding Notes pursuant to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer; (ii) specify the name of the person who tendered the Sterling Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn; (iii) identify the Sterling Outstanding Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount of such Sterling Outstanding Notes, or, if applicable, the certificate numbers shown on the particular certificates evidencing such Sterling Outstanding Notes and the principal amount of Sterling Outstanding Notes represented by such certificates); (iv) include a statement that such holder is withdrawing its election to have such Sterling Outstanding Notes exchanged; and (v) be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal (including any required signature guarantee). The Exchange Agent will return the properly withdrawn Sterling Outstanding Notes promptly following receipt of notice of withdrawal. If Sterling Outstanding Notes have been tendered pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at the book-entry transfer facility to be credited with the withdrawn Sterling Outstanding Notes or otherwise comply with the book-entry transfer facility's procedures. All questions as to the validity of notices of withdrawals, including time of receipt, will be determined by the Company, and such determination will be final and binding on all parties.

Any Sterling Outstanding Notes so withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for exchange for purposes of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer. Any Sterling Outstanding Notes which have been tendered for exchange but which are not exchanged for any reason will be returned to the holder thereof without cost to such holder (or, in the case of Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered by book-entry transfer into the Exchange Agent's account at the book entry transfer facility pursuant to the book-entry transfer procedures described above, such Sterling Outstanding Notes will be credited to an account with such book-entry transfer facility specified by the holder) promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or termination of the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer. Properly withdrawn Sterling Outstanding Notes may be retendered by following one of the procedures described under the caption "The Exchange Offers—Procedures for Tendering" in the Prospectus at any time prior to the Expiration Date.

3. Signature on this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal; Written Instruments and Endorsements; Guarantee of Signatures.

If this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder(s) of the Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered hereby, the signature must correspond with the name(s) as written on the face of the certificates without alteration, enlargement or any change whatsoever.

If any of the Sterling Outstanding Notes tendered hereby are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all such owners must sign this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal.

If a number of Sterling Outstanding Notes registered in different names are tendered, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate copies of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal as there are different registrations of Sterling Outstanding Notes.

When this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered holder or holders (which term, for the purposes described herein, shall include the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on a security listing as the owner of the Sterling Outstanding Notes) of Sterling Outstanding Notes listed and tendered hereby, no endorsements of certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are required.

If this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder or holders of the Sterling Outstanding Notes listed, such Sterling Outstanding Notes must be endorsed or accompanied by separate written instruments of transfer or exchange in form satisfactory to the Company and duly executed by the registered holder, in either case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered holder or holders appear(s) on the Sterling Outstanding Notes.

If this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, any certificates or separate written instruments of transfer or exchange are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such persons should so indicate when signing, and, unless waived by the Company, proper evidence satisfactory to the Company of their authority so to act must be submitted.

Endorsements on certificates or signatures on separate written instruments of transfer or exchange required by this Instruction 3 must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution.

Signatures on this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution, unless Sterling Outstanding Notes are tendered: (i) by a holder who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" or "Special Delivery Instructions" on this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal; or (ii) for the account of an Eligible Guarantor Institution (as defined below). In the event that the signatures in this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal or a notice of withdrawal, as the case may be, are required to be guaranteed, such guarantees must be by an eligible guarantor institution which is a member of a firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or another "eligible guarantor institution" within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (an "Eligible Guarantor Institution"). If Sterling Outstanding Notes are registered in the name of a person other than the signer of this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, the Sterling Outstanding Notes surrendered for exchange must be endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer or exchange, in satisfactory form as determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, duly executed by the registered holder with the signature thereon guaranteed by an Eligible Guarantor Institution.

4. Special Issuance and Delivery Instructions.

Tendering holders should indicate, as applicable, the name and address to which the Sterling Exchange Notes or certificates for Sterling Outstanding Notes not exchanged are to be issued or sent, if different from the name and address of the person signing this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal. In the case of issuance in a different name, the tax identification number of the person named must also be indicated. Holders tendering Sterling Outstanding Notes by book-entry transfer may request that Sterling Outstanding Notes not exchanged be credited to such account maintained at the book-entry transfer facility as such holder may designate.

5. Transfer Taxes.

The Company shall pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the transfer and exchange of Sterling Outstanding Notes to it or its order pursuant to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer. If a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the transfer and exchange of Sterling Outstanding Notes to the Company or its order pursuant to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer, the amount of any such transfer taxes (whether imposed on the registered holder or any other person) will be payable by the tendering holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes or exception therefrom is not submitted herewith the amount of such transfer taxes will be billed directly to such tendering holder.

6. Waiver of Conditions.

The Company reserves the absolute right to waive, in whole or in part, any of the conditions to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer set forth in the Prospectus.

7. Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Securities.

Any holder whose Sterling Outstanding Notes have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, should contact the Exchange Agent at the address indicated below for further instructions.

8. Substitute Form W-9

Each holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes whose Sterling Outstanding Notes are accepted for exchange (or other payee) is generally required to provide a correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN") (e.g., the holder's Social Security or federal employer identification number) and certain other information, on Substitute Form W-9, which is provided under "Important Tax Information" below, and to certify that the holder (or other payee) is not subject to backup withholding. Failure to provide the information on the Substitute Form W-9 may subject the holder (or other payee) to a $50 penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service and 28% federal income tax backup withholding on payments made in connection with the Sterling Outstanding Notes. The box in Part 3 of the Substitute Form W-9 may be checked if the holder (or other payee) has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the box in Part 3 is checked and a TIN is not provided by the time any payment is made in connection with the Sterling Outstanding Notes, 28% of all such payments will be withheld until a TIN is provided and, if a TIN is not provided within 60 days, such withheld amounts will be paid over to the Internal Revenue Service.

9. Requests for Assistance or Additional Copies.

Questions relating to the procedure for tendering, as well as requests for additional copies of the Prospectus and this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent at the address and telephone number set forth above. In addition, all questions relating to the Sterling Notes Exchange Offer, as well as requests for assistance or additional copies of the Prospectus and this Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent at the address and telephone number indicated above.

IMPORTANT: This Sterling Notes Letter of Transmittal or a facsimile or copy thereof (together with certificates of Sterling Outstanding Notes or confirmation of book-entry transfer and all other required documents) or a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery for the Sterling Notes must be received by the Exchange Agent on or prior to the Expiration Date.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

Under U.S. federal income tax law, a holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes whose Sterling Outstanding Notes are accepted for exchange may be subject to backup withholding unless the holder provides Wells Fargo, N.A., as Paying Agent (the "Paying Agent"), through the Exchange Agent, with either (i) such holder's correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN") on Substitute Form W-9 attached hereto, certifying (A) that the TIN provided on Substitute Form W-9 is correct (or that such holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is awaiting a TIN), (B) that the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is not subject to backup withholding because (x) such holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is exempt from backup withholding, (y) such holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he or she is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends or (z) the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes that he or she is no longer subject to backup withholding and (C) that the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien); or (ii) an adequate basis for exemption from backup withholding. If such holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is an individual, the TIN is such holder's social security number. If the Paying Agent is not provided with the correct TIN, the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes may also be subject to certain penalties imposed by the Internal Revenue Service.

Certain holders of Sterling Outstanding Notes (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. However, exempt holders of Sterling Outstanding Notes should indicate their exempt status on Substitute Form W-9. For example, a corporation should complete the Substitute Form W-9, providing its TIN and indicating that it is exempt from backup withholding. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, the holder must submit a Form W-8BEN, signed under penalties of perjury, attesting to that individual's exempt status. A Form W-8BEN can be obtained from the Paying Agent. See the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for more instructions.

If backup withholding applies, the Paying Agent is required to withhold 28% of any payments made to the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes or other payee. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the tax liability of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service, provided the required information is furnished.

The box in Part 3 of the Substitute Form W-9 may be checked if the surrendering holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIN or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If the box in Part 3 is checked, the holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes or other payee must also complete the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number below in order to avoid backup withholding. Notwithstanding that the box in Part 3 is checked and the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number is completed, the Paying Agent will withhold 28% of all payments made prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Paying Agent and, if the Paying Agent is not provided with a TIN within 60 days, such amounts will be paid over to the Internal Revenue Service.

The holder of Sterling Outstanding Notes is required to give the Paying Agent the TIN (e.g., social security number or employer identification number) of the record owner of the Sterling Outstanding Notes. If the Sterling Outstanding Notes are in more than one name or are not in the name of the actual owner, consult the enclosed "Guidelines for Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number on Substitute Form W-9" for additional guidance on which number to report.

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9

Guidelines for Determining the Proper Identification Number for the Payee (You) to Give the Payer.—Social security numbers have nine digits separated by two hyphens: i.e., 000-00-0000. Employee identification numbers have nine digits separated by only one hyphen: i.e., 00-0000000. The table below will help determine the number to give the payer. All "Section" references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. "IRS" is the Internal Revenue Service.

For this type of account:	Give the SOCIAL SECURITY number of—
1. Individual	The individual
2. Two or more individuals (joint account)	The actual owner of the account or, if combined fund, the first individual on the account(1)
3. Custodian account of a minor (Uniform Gift to Minors Act)	The minor(2)

(1) List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has a social security number, that person's number must be furnished.
(2) Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's social security number.
(3) You must show your individual name, but you may also enter your business or "doing business as" name. You may use either your social security number or your employer identification number (if you have one).
(4) List first and circle the name of the legal trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the taxpayer identification number of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.)

NOTE: If no name is circled when there is more than one name, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Obtaining a Number

If you don't have a taxpayer identification number or you don't know your number, obtain Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, at the local Social Administration office, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, by calling 1 (800) TAX-FORM, and apply for a number.

Payees Exempt from Backup Withholding

Payees specifically exempted from withholding include:

- An organization exempt from tax under Section 501(a), an individual retirement account (IRA), or a custodial account under Section 403(b)(7), if the account satisfies the requirements of Section 401(f)(2).
- The United States or a state thereof, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision or wholly-owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.
- An international organization or any agency or instrumentality thereof.
- A foreign government and any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof.

Payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

- A corporation.
- A financial institution.
- A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States.
- A real estate investment trust.
- A common trust fund operated by a bank under Section 584(a).
- An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
- A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian.
- A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.
- A foreign central bank of issue.

Payments of dividends and patronage dividends generally exempt from backup withholding include:

- Payments to nonresident aliens subject to withholding under Section 1441.
- Payments to partnerships not engaged in a trade or business in the United States and that have at least one nonresident alien partner.
- Payments of patronage dividends not paid in money.
- Payments made by certain foreign organizations.
- Section 404(k) payments made by an ESOP.

Payments of interest generally exempt from backup withholding include:

- Payments of interest on obligations issued by individuals. Note: You may be subject to backup withholding if this interest is $600 or more and you have not provided your correct taxpayer identification number to the payer.
- Payments of tax-exempt interest (including exempt-interest dividends under Section 852).
- Payments described in Section 6049(b)(5) to nonresident aliens.
- Payments on tax-free covenant bonds under Section 1451.
- Payments made by certain foreign organizations.
- Mortgage interest paid to you.

Certain payments, other than payments of interest, dividends, and patronage dividends, that are exempt from information reporting are also exempt from backup withholding. For details, see the regulations under sections 6041, 6041A, 6042, 6044, 6045, 6049, 6050A and 6050N.

Exempt payees described above must file Form W-9 or a substitute Form W-9 to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding. FILE THIS FORM WITH THE PAYER, FURNISH YOUR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER, WRITE "EXEMPT" IN PART 2 OF THE FORM, SIGN AND DATE THE FORM AND RETURN IT TO THE PAYER.

Privacy Act Notice.—Section 6109 requires you to provide your correct taxpayer identification number to payers, who must report the payments to the IRS. The IRS uses the number for identification purposes and may also provide this information to various government agencies for tax enforcement or litigation purposes. Payers must be given the numbers whether or not recipients are required to file tax returns. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a taxpayer identification number to payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

Penalties

(1) Failure to Furnish Taxpayer Identification Number.—If you fail to furnish your taxpayer identification number to a payer, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

(2) Civil Penalty for False Information With Respect to Withholding.—If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

(3) Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information.—Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.
